Great Progress Being Made in Times' Circulation Campaign

The Campaign Manager Says:

There are many things we would like to say in this column that our physical deficiency in weight forbids, but one thing, if we had as many cotton pickers in Munday as we have cotton buyers the crop would be harvested in a week.

And another thing, these cotton buyers are good scouts and we are glad to have them.

To say the least they help the cafes and hotels.

The big joke is, the writer is rooming with one of these very cotton buyers.

Its a fact, folks, if we could gather up the old circulars and paper scraps in the business district the town would be as clean as a cotton field in December.

We believe that would be a pretty good job for the Chief of Police and his assistant.

We haven't seen a boss race since we used to run our saddle pony down a cotton row, and we weren't able to get Jess Kennedy to take us to Haskell to see the races.

The writer has just returned from Spur where he opened a circulation campaign Monday morning for the Munday Times with a corps of twenty-six candidates—pretty good for the opening day.

Well, we've gone and done it. Yes, we have intended to make a special proposition to our candidates during this campaign, but not this early in the game. We generally do this two weeks later in the campaign, but our candidates have had so many promises from our subscribers of their help later in the campaign we are just anxious to see if they are serious in the matter. If you will not pay your favorite subscription with the extra inducement of 100,000 Free Bonus Votes you are not going to pay it at any time. Every five year subscription they receive for the week of October 30th that candidate will receive one hundred thousand votes in addition to the regular votes they have been receiving. It will not take but a few subscriptions to run their standing high during the week of this offer if you will just stay with your candidate.

We are certainly sorry we failed to mention the name of Miss Frances Bruckner in this column last week as our new candidate from the Rhineland community, but at the time the paper went to press the writer of this column was out of the city. But to say the least of it she is in the race and we are expecting some real results from Miss Frances.

Our candidates are all making good showings in the campaign, but from the fact we have not installed a ballot box we are still unable to give a report as to their standing.

At present those in the campaign as candidates are: Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. Bowley from Munday; Miss Ora Lee Floyd from Sunset; Miss Frances Bruckner from Rhineland, and Mrs. Alta Cockerell from Bomarton. Undoubtedly you could find a favorite in this lineup of workers to whom you could pay your subscription.

There are only four more weeks in which to help your candidate win the automobile. Encourage your favorite by paying her your subscription today.

Leland Hannah and Tom Haney Named On School Board

At a meeting of the school board on Tuesday evening Leland Hannah and Tom Haney were appointed members of the board to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of D. C. Fritz and Mrs. R. H. Neff from the board. Mr. Fritz tendered his resignation some time ago when he moved to Abilene, and Mrs. Neff resigned in order to devote her time to her personal business.

Sunset Boone has been in Dallas this week buying merchandise for his store here.

G. C. JONES TENDERS RESIGNATION SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC SCHOOLS; J. HORACE BASS IS HIS SUCCESSOR

G. C. Jones, who is just starting upon his second year here as superintendent of the Munday Public Schools, has this week tendered his resignation and at a meeting of the board on Tuesday evening the resignation was accepted and J. Horace Bass of Austin, former superintendent here, was elected for the remainder of the year.

In tendering his resignation Mr. Jones stated to a Times representative that he was doing so in order that he might give his attention to his private business affairs and he plans to go to Plainview, where he is associated with an automobile agency. Mr. Jones also owns property in a number of West Texas towns and feels that he can better look after his interests unincumbered with the responsibilities of school work.

Mr. Jones came to Munday at the beginning of the term last year and his services here have been extremely satisfactory and it was with much reluctance that the board accepted his resignation. Indeed Mr. Jones had exhibited extraordinary ability in handling the finances of the school during the past year when slow tax payments threatened to reduce the term and the standing of the school, and to him belongs much of the credit for successfully averting such a calamity.

Mr. Jones expressed deep regret that conditions necessitated such a move at this time, but feels that his personal interests demand that he give them more attention than is possible while engaged in school work, and we are sure that many citizens of the community will join us in expressing our regret that he is severing his connection with the schools and the community.

The new superintendent, J. Horace Bass, who will assume his duties Monday, needs no introduction to the citizenship of this community, having served as superintendent here for five years. He first came here in 1921 as a member of the faculty and the following year was elected to the superintendency and continued with the schools in that capacity for five years, leaving here to accept the superintendency at Haskell, and after one year there he entered the University of Texas to complete his work toward his A. B. degree, which he has since acquired, and for the past few years he has been associated with the Department of History in the University.

9,769 Bales Have Been Ginned Here To Date This Year

There have been 9,769 bales ginned in Munday up to Thursday afternoon, according to reports from local gins, which show that the Farmers Union plants have ginned a total of 6,769 bales, while the Pendleton Gin Company reports 2,800 bales weighed in. Many farmers of the Munday country report that their cotton is far exceeding their expectations, and some are predicting that the Munday country will produce approximately as many bales this year as were produced last year.

W. M. U. MEETS IN HOME OF MRS. J. M. PERDUE

On Monday afternoon the W. M. U. met in a business and social in the home of Mrs. J. M. Perdue. The main object of the meeting was to pack a box of bed linens and towels for the West Texas Baptist hospital in Abilene and a box of clothing for Buckner's Orphan Home. We were more than glad to receive such good response, especially do we thank the young people.

After an enjoyable meeting cake and punch were served the following guests: Mesdames J. O. Bowden, Leland Hannah, M. H. Reeves, A. U. Hathaway, C. B. Parker, Armstrong, John White, J. J. Keel, W. H. Albertson, W. E. Reynolds, Krump, E. M. Ammons, Clyde Nelson, E. E. Morris, Jim Lewis, Chester Bowden and the hostess.

Funeral Services Everett McGraw Held Here Tuesday

Funeral services for Everett McGraw, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGraw, were held at the Methodist church here Tuesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. H. C. Hand, pastor, assisted by Rev. W. H. Albertson, pastor of the Baptist church.

Everett died in a Hereford hospital Sunday night a few hours after he sustained an accidental shotgun wound near that place. The accident occurred when he and two companions who had returned from a hunting trip were taking their guns from the automobile and in removing one of the guns it was discharged, striking McGraw in the right side and penetrating the lungs. He was rushed to the hospital at Hereford, where he died some few hours later.

Big Doings At P. T. A. Carnival Hallow'e'n Eve.

Maybe they are wearing the very latest thing in trends now, with natty snap brim felt, and spiffy jackets, but—there was a time when they wore a creation of silk and lace atop their heads, and the yards and yards that went to make up a dress and petticoat were something to be marveled at. Come to the P. T. A. carnival and get the real low-down on how some of our most prominent citizens looked—before time, tide and sophistication made them what they are today. You'll get some laughs out of the Art Gallery—and incidentally find out how our townsmen looked when they were younger.

A Walk in the Dark will either kill you or cure you of those depression blues. You'll probably have chills running up and down your spine for a solid week after your visit to the Chamber of Horrors—but you'll get your money's worth in thrills, fun and spooks! We give you permission to scream to your heart's content—if that will help.

Hawaiian Music, Hula-Hula Girls, soft breezes—romance—spend an Evening in Hawaii—and you won't be sorry you came to the carnival. There is one booth for Men Only—but be consoled ladies, for right around the corner is a Beauty Parlor—so everybody can be satisfied.

Rev. H. F. Gage Is Called To Pastorate of Benjamin Church

Rev. H. F. Gage, pastor of the New Hope Baptist church, has recently been called to the pastorate of the Benjamin Baptist church, and he will continue his services with the New Hope church, dividing his time between the two churches, with the dates for services at New Hope have been changed to the first and second Sundays in each month.

YOUR LOCAL NEWSPAPER

By The CAMPAIGN MANAGER

There are too many people in this world who do not realize the mission and the importance of their local newspaper. That is because they never stop to give the matter a thought. There are people in all towns who could not so much as direct a stranger to the office of their local newspaper. That is because their interest is lacking in civic affairs of their own city. A newspaper is the barometer of the business conditions in any city or town. A stranger will pick up the local newspaper and by the advertising therein and the general appearance will immediately form his opinion of business conditions of the town. That's natural among real business men the nation over.

Your local newspaper is expected to chronicle the deaths of your loved ones, it is supposed to herald the marriage of your beautiful (?) daughter, who is accomplished in all this world's educational advantages, to one of the most promising young business men of the city, who has been successful in all his undertakings in the past and who is expected to make a mark in this world worthy of the respect of presidents of the U. S. A. It is expected to give the details of all your business successes, past and present. It is expected to give the news of the general conditions of your local community in a flowery painted word picture that would make Horace Greeley blush with envy. Your local newspaper is not only expected to do this but that is its mission and it does it. It is always glad to do it. In fact that is its only mission in this world.

Are you fair to your local newspaper after it has done all that you could expect of it? Are you fair to your local newspaper when you accept its hospitable visit to your home week after week in which appears news items you would never know or hear unless you are a reader of the newspaper?

The Munday Times has inaugurated a Circulation Campaign in which it has hoped to reach every home in Knox county that it might give you the many features it carries in its columns. We are anxious to have this ambition a success, and we can only hope for this success with your co-operation and help. We are asking you, if you are not a subscriber to your local newspaper, to give your subscription to one of the candidates who are working in this campaign. We are offering prizes that they could never hope to win in any other way. They will be better paid than in any other work which they might undertake.

If you owe the Times for subscription in the past you may pay this delinquent subscription and it will help them win the wonderful new automobile we are offering them for their services. Pay one of these candidates today and start the new year with the right spirit.

"BUNNY" DRYDEN, DAREDEVIL HIGH WIRE WALKER BACK IN TOWN AFTER THRILLING THOUSANDS AT CHICAGO

"Bunny" Dryden, who will be remembered by many Mundayites as the high wire walker who thrilled large crowds here last July, is back in town—and very much alive—and is making arrangements to give another of his performances here on Saturday, November 4th.

Dryden went from here to Chicago, where he appeared for several months as a feature outdoor attraction, and where his determination to walk the sky-wire, 680 feet in the air, got him in "Dutch." In fact his act so monopolized the attention of the thousands of visitors at the Century of Progress that the officials procured an injunction against him repeating the performance or even using his feat as an advertising medium. This feat was indeed so sensational

Contract Let On Highway From Benjamin South

At a meeting of the State Highway Commission at Austin this week a contract was awarded R. B. Stroup of Vernon for the construction of the drainage structures and grading of 12.5 miles of highway on Highway No. 16 from Benjamin south through Knox City to the Haskell county line.

This work is expected to begin in a short time and the work will give employment to Knox county workers first. The contractor will be required to use Knox county workers, if he can secure all the labor he needs in the county.

The money to be spent for this job will come from the Federal emergency relief funds and will be a grant to the county.

Munday Cotton Oil Mill Starts Fall Run on NRA Basis

The Munday Cotton Oil Company started operation on Monday and is running twenty-four hours per day, and with their present supply of seed and the prospects for additional supply it is likely that the mill will have a long run this fall.

The mill is operating strictly on a N. R. A. schedule, working three eight hour shifts instead of two twelve hour shifts, as has been the custom heretofore. The new schedule will provide employment for 39 men instead of 26 under the old schedule and the weekly payroll of the mill has been increased under the new schedule from approximately $285.00 per week to approximately $440.00 per week, and this increase does not include the salary of an additional superintendent and one additional foreman. In fact, none of the office force is included in the above salary figures.

T. G. Bengt, manager of the mill, states that the mill will be operated in every respect in full compliance with President Roosevelt's code for the oil mill industry, as will all other mills controlled by the Anderson-Clayton interests.

Mrs. John McGraw Succumbs At Home at Culleoka, Texas

After an illness of several months Mrs. John McGraw, 80, died at the family home at Culleoka, Texas on Friday afternoon of last week and the remains were laid to rest in the Princeton cemetery on Saturday afternoon. Deceased was the mother of John, Joe, and Jack McGraw of this city. Other surviving children are: T. W. McGraw, Dallas; Mrs. A. F. Boyer, Dallas; Jim, Lawrence and Pete McGraw of Culleoka.

Mrs. McGraw was born in Hunt county February 2, 1853 and had resided in that section of the state all her life. Her husband passed away in 1930.

The friends of the family here extend sincere sympathy to the children in their sorrowing hour. John, Joe and Jack McGraw of this city left immediately after receiving a message advising them of the death of their mother and attended the funeral services.

Seymour Elevator Destroyed by Fire On Tuesday Night

SEYMOUR, Texas, Oct. 25.—Fire, believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion, destroyed the Plants Grain company's elevator here Tuesday night.

Loss on the building was estimated at $12,000 and more than 10,000 bushels of wheat in the elevator was destroyed. Loss on the wheat is approximately $8,000. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Turkey Growers Will Organize In Haskell County

A meeting of farmers of Haskell county interested in pooling turkeys has been called for Saturday afternoon October 24 at 2:30 at the District court room of the Haskell county Court House. At that time turkeys to be sold on the Thanksgiving market are to be pooled. If the pool is shipped as live cars, loading will likely be done at several places over the county.

Turkey growers of Haskell county will remember that over $1900 extra money was paid Haskell county farmers last year as a result of the organized turkey pool. However, it is also important to remember that most good can be accomplished when turkeys are pooled early and all preliminaries attended to before hand. The number of turkeys in the county and state as well as much less than last year and all indications are that the price will be much better. The general rise in prices and the shortage of turkeys have both helped to increase the price of produce.

Chas. Foyt left Sunday for Chicago, where he will attend the Century of Progress. He was accompanied by a friend from Seymour, driving through in a car.

A DANGER SPOT IN THE COMMUNITY

There is an interesting editorial in a recent issue of the Tri-State Tribune, Picher, Okla.

It talks about a matter which rarely concerns the mind of the average citizen—the fire hose which is so important to the protection of the property and lives of himself and his neighbors. Just before the editorial was written there was a fire which threatened the entire business section of the city. The fire department did excellent work—but it was seriously hampered because it had but 600 feet of hose. One hundred feet of this was damaged beyond repair, leaving only 500 feet—one-third as much as it should have—for battling the next blaze that appears.

Poor and inadequate fire hose, broken down and inferior fire engines, poorly trained departments, faulty water supplies—one wonders how many lives and how many dollars these things have consumed. The problem presented is especially timely now—during depression communities have cut fire department appropriations to the bone, leaving public safety menaced. One need only read the statistics concerning sales of standard fire engines to appreciate this. They have been at an alarmingly low point—thousands of engines which would have normally been replaced or rebuilt are in service today.

Fire department mobilization is made possible, along with other public works, in the great federal public works bill. There is no better place to spend money—there is nothing that will bring the taxpayer a greater return for his outlay. This is the time to put the fire department in the best possible shape.

Knox Farmers Get Additional Plow-Up Checks Last Week

County Agent W. E. Jones last week received additional cotton plow-up checks aggregating approximately $68,000, which were distributed the latter part of the week.

Mr. Jones stated that there were still due approximately 200 checks aggregating about $100,000, and he expects them at an early date.

Despite the plow-up campaign, the Munday country is producing an extra heavy crop and the ginnings in this section will run far above the average year despite the fact that approximately one-fourth of the acreage was included in the plow-up campaign.

Meadames A. U. Hathaway and J. O. Bowden attended the Workers Meeting of the Haskell Association at Haskell Tuesday.

WHEN SHE SAYS LIVELY SHE MEANS LIVELY

The life of a general merchandise storekeeper is not all beer and skittles, says Henry Waites, though Henry says he is not real sure he remembers ever drinking any skittles. In evidence he points to the incident of Mrs. Joe Peaberry coming to his store Thursday morning draping herself on the grocery counter and calling for some cheese which she insisted be "lively."

Henry showed her every piece of cheese in stock, but none was satisfactory. "They don't look lively enough," said Mrs. Peaberry with a disdainful sniff.

"All right," said Henry, losing patience. And turning to the young assistant, he yelled sarcastically: "All right, Elmer, Unchain No. Six and let it walk in."

Joe Fitchey, who recently entered the "Whale Lamp Oil" contest, the winner of which will receive an award a live whale, has written the company to disregard his entry he submitted. "I just happened to slip and think," said Joe, "what would I do with a whale if I won it?"

Among Sick and Ill. Luke Hinkley, who requested a loan of ten dollars from Doc Gillingsby, is recovering from severe food poisoning.

Angus McTrevors, who has been ill for three weeks and has received Doc Gillingsby's bill, is worried whether to live and pay it or die and incur funeral expenses.

Doc Gillingsby, who accidentally realized one of his own prescriptions, is better. "For a while," says Doc ruefully, "I was afraid they were going to have to call a doctor."

CAST AND CAST OUT ADDS LOCAL CITIZEN Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waites had another slight tiff Friday evening, and it is not thought to have helped that Mrs. Waites' mother was present to pour oil on the flames.

"After all, dearie," she said to Mrs. Waites, "all men are cast in the same mold."

"Yes," snorted her daughter, "but some are more moldy than others."

AUNTY BELLUM'S Question Box

Dear Aunty: If you came home and found your young wife, age 32, smoking a big black cigar, for Pete sake what would you say? —Stunned Husband.

Dear Stunned Husband: "Have you got another one?"

Dear Aunty: What would you do at a bridge table if the man on your right held the ace, ten and queen of diamonds, the woman on your left got the jack, nine, seven and six of clubs, your partner played the two of spades and you were dealt the three, four, five and seven of hearts? —Mr. Work.

Dear Mr. Work: Try to switch the game to pinochle.

Dear Aunty: What do you prefer to work at? —Taxpayer.

Dear Taxpayer: Interval.

Dear Aunty Bellum: My wife, age 44, has joined an organization as the Better Women Voters Better Voting League. She tells me, when I object, that the movement is going to sweep the country. What can I answer? —Under Control.

Dear Under Control: Tell her it can start in the kitchen.

Financial Advice Column. Don't take any.

BRAIN RAFFLERS: (Wonders of Science Dept.) Q: Is a strong will natural or acquired?

A: Both, sometimes alternately. This was shown by Prof. Leek of Louisiana University, who after fifteen years' study of white mice decided to vacation in the mountains, though his wife preferred they vacation in the city. The outcome is too well known to be repeated here. As the Prof. said, he ought to stick to mice.

Dear J. M.: Your stomach ain't as bad as you think if you have drunk three bottles of my tonic.

Dear E. J. J.: Dragging.

Personal and Otherwise.

Aunt Effie Hefly, prominent 200-pound social leader, is not speaking to Law and Order as represented by Constable Ezra Gruffy, Wednesday while stopping off the curb on Main street, Aunt Hefly archly inquired: "Officer, couldn't you see me across the street?"

"Lady," said the gallant Gruffy, "I could see you three blocks away."

Doc Gillingsby and Joe Peaberry were talking things over at the Corner Drug Store Friday morning last, when Doc mentioned the time a hijacker caught him as he was going home. "Putting a gun at the side of my head," said Doc huskily, "he snarled: 'I want money or brains!'"

"Gosh," said Joe, "shot put you in a tight fix, didn't it?"

Luke Hinkley, who has been carrying his coat over his arm every morning for four mornings and finally decided to leave it home, was caught in the cold snap Thursday.

Joe Fitchey's cousin, who won a Personality Contest and went to the city to make a name for himself, is understood to have made a start at last as he has been snapped for the police Request Gallery.

Henry Waites has been taking a memory course but failed to receive the last lesson, and says he fears he will never be able to write for it and graduate now, as he has forgotten the company's address.

Mrs. Joe Peaberry has been having trouble with her boarder again, and Tuesday he asked her sourly: "Say, you got funny ways of running a place. Ain't you ever kept a gentleman before?"

"Are you a gentleman?" asked Mrs. Peaberry.

"Sure," said Mrs. Peaberry sourly. "I never have."

THE TOM-TOM

Editor-in-Chief: JERRY KETHLEY
 Associate Editor: VINTON TINER
 Sports Editor: SAM WARREN
 Senior Reporter: C. B. SEXTON
 Junior Reporter: MARY EVA RIGSBY
 Freshman Reporter:

Well, the Moguls lost their second game of the season last Friday to Woodson. The Moguls went over to Woodson fully confident that they would win but by the end of the last quarter, Woodson was ahead by 10 points—the score being 12 to 2. For one thing the Moguls did not have anyone there to help them along and give them a cheering word. And believe me, if there is anything out on the sidelines rooting for them, Woodson had the same spirit of the Moguls but they put theirs into effect more than the Moguls. The Moguls played a hard game but it wasn't hard enough.

Anyway, we have one thing to be thankful for, and that is the fact that the next game will be played here. Next Friday we play Rule and we will be there rooting for them? Well, I hope to tell you we will.

SENIORS

Last week the seniors met for a regular official argument, and discussed the having, or otherwise, the presentation of our Senior play. It was unanimously decided that in having our play we would not present any "gizgy" form of entertainment, such as some seniors do. We haven't made our selection yet but we plan to start rehearsing immediately after the "Boo-poop-a-Doop," which is on Halloween night.

JUNIOR REPORT

Well, here we are at the beginning of a new term again. My, but how this last one flew. I feel sure that the Juniors on an average did exceedingly well this past six weeks. There is an exception to all rules but what is good should be made better and we certainly aim to do so this next round. Just watch us buzz!

I believe that I have never seen a class as a whole so glad to see a teacher as this class was when Mr. Hardegree returned. His worthy kindness is always welcome with his broad smile.

Just you wait if you want to see the best of all and the prettiest girl crowned at the coronation. Will Ruth Moore get the votes? I'll say she will.

In Spanish we are informed that there is such a thing as a project to be handed in between now and—well, when? Anyway it sure is due in time. Some of the little girls such as Maxine Lane will make Spanish clothes for their little dolls.

This thing of having to rig up money as sense as it is, is enough to drive a fellow crazy. We'll get it, don't you worry, because this is the best class in Munday High and the very pupils that make it up don't know it.

SOPHOMORE REPORT

It won't be long until the coronation of the queen of the High School, and we are sure that our sophomore queen, Darwin Campbell, will be crowned. With the coronation comes the Boo-poop-a-Doop carnival, and is it going to be good this year? I'll say.

We were all glad to receive our report cards. Boy! Are we getting good. Most of us didn't fail in over four (can you believe it?) subjects. More good news! Mr. Hardegree is back!! That's something! We certainly did miss him.

A sophomore boy gently informed one of the girls the other day that he had a new hold. (We're wondering what it is.)

Our book reports are due a week from today, and are we reading books? We're gently "ginning" them out!

We seem to be getting quite a few new pupils, however, we only have one new student now, and she is quite a likeable little lady.

One of our girls delights in passing by a certain filling station. Oooh! She even has flats near it sometimes!!

TINER'S TICKLES

Match 'em up!
 Earl Nickols—Mary Eva Riggsby
 Sylva Barnes—Arthur Smith, Jr.
 Ralph Blanton—Virginia Bess Atkinson.
 Boogy Aycock—Billie True Hill
 Louise Ingram—W. R. Moore

Well here I am, just sitting here typing away and letting Miss Palmer cut away on those pretty paper dolls. I didn't even know that she was affected that way. I guess I should have helped, huh?

Miss Couch: "For tomorrow we shall take the life of Nathaniel Hawthorne."
 Ralph Layne: "I think it's a shame for you to make us take the lives of those poor authors."

Florence Kendall: beginning her English talk "Spectacles, I guess that is the way to pronounce 'glasses.'"

Miss Couch: "Do we find the life of Emerson portrayed in his works?"
 Betsey: "I think that you will find his life on page 248."

Our little friend Bill Dingus is at it again! And how! He has rigged up the following:
 "My favorite author and thought of English: P(ooey) O(n) E(nglish)"

FRESHMEN

This event will take place next Tuesday evening at the Klan Hall. In addition to the crowning there will be a carnival, which is being put on by the Parent-Teachers' Association. As you know, this is a worthy cause, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The main thing of interest this week is the making of posters and the writing of themes. These themes and posters are to encourage fire prevention and some of them are very good.

ROOTING RIDDLES

Why all the tearful looks, quivering lips, and downcast eyes, my beloved charges (Pepsquads). Did someone hurt my darlings feelings?

Now don't tell me, let me GUESS!!! The pep squad is in deep mourning this week, for the football team says that we didn't do our christian duty, when we didn't go to the game Friday.

Who's going to have a swell stunt this next Friday to show how sorry we are for last time? We'll be there sixty strong. (If the boys will help us.)

Allow me to apologize for not having more real "dirt" on the pep squad this week but since the team lost that game to Woodson there have been fewer "crashes."

In Attending Classes

A good attitude in a class is an important thing. A teacher many times goes by how a student acts during class attendance. Few can feign the correct attitude of interest and attentiveness.

A good many people go to classes every day with the idea in mind that they hate the teacher, they hate the subject thrust upon him, and what good can a lot of required subjects do them. They frown in class and find everything else but the text book to amuse themselves during the 40 minutes. At the first sound of the period bell their books are hurriedly closed and the students themselves are on their feet and ready to go. They take little interest if any in what the instructors have to say. At examination time they know nothing.

If a high school boy or girl will make up his mind to like a certain subject and a certain teacher at the start, in most cases he can. A prejudiced mind can hurt a student more than any thing. It all lies in the attitude he takes and the least he can try to do is to be broadminded. Every member of his generation in high school prides himself on being the most broadminded person on the campus. Yet when he reluctantly sits in class as a good example of the most bored human on earth he is exactly defying his own opinion of himself.

Try to take a little interest in what is going on. If the subjects required of you could not possibly do you some good they would not have been set down as high school requirements. Most boredom is laziness anyway. Aside from that, the student had probably not given the subject much thought before he decided that he hated the whole thing.

Sit up and take interest. Concentrate on what is told you. It is certainly surprising how much more you will absorb, how much better your grade will be, and how much more liking you will have for the hitherto detested study.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you. But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that poisons your personal charm. They can't do it. For they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Sometimes you'll help at all. Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The Little Liver Pills, No colored mercury in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores. Before "something just as good" for it may arise, loosen teeth or seal system. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. 2155, C.M.C.

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

As has been the case all too often, about the only excuse for this column this week is that we have some white space to fill and find it necessary to write something to fill it.

Our subscription campaign is going along nicely and we have four real live-wire candidates in the field, each one naturally wanting to win the Chevrolet coach.

Naturally, only one of them can win the car, but each of them are going to win a nice prize that will well repay them for their work, and we are delighted that this is the case.

In fact, we had this campaign so planned that no one could lose, for if we had more entries those who did not win one of the prizes would have been paid a commission on all the business produced.

This campaign is now a contest in salesmanship, and everyone of the candidates are doing their dead level best to get business, and they are all looking to their friends for help.

One thing that is gratifying in results so far attained in the campaign, and that is the number of new subscribers that are being turned in each week.

Naturally we are expecting much from our regular subscribers, knowing that they have given us their support for the thirteen years we have been a part of this little old newspaper, and we are confident that they will continue their support.

A. Worthington dropped in the other day to tell us that he had paid one of the candidates his subscription to this paper and the Semi-Weekly Farm News, and these papers together with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram will constitute his reading matter for the year, and he wants to give notice that he is not in the market for any other newspapers.

With these good papers no one need be in the market for more matter.

TEXAS—BARRIER TO RECOVERY

How great is the influence of excessive taxation in retarding recovery, and in preventing employment and wage increases that would otherwise be provided?

The answer is that its influence is very great indeed. The most public spirited business man alive can't spirit dollars out of the air. He can't wave a wand and produce the wherewithal for new jobs and pay raises out of his hat. He has no such magical power—and of late, in the average east, increases in income have been more than offset by increases in his operating costs. He has fixed expenses, which can't be pared. The difference between those expenses and income is what he has to spend.

Nowadays, an extremely—often exorbitantly—high percentage of the difference must be paid to the tax-collector. We're all "buying" more government than we ever bought before. For three years business has cut costs, raised efficiency, and redoubled its efforts to give the best value at the lowest cost. Government as a whole, has failed to follow.

It is very possible that the recovery movement will, in the near future, reach a point where it cannot go further without tax reduction. Some of the money that now goes for government must be released into the channels of productive enterprise, to provide jobs and opportunities and the means of expanding business. And those who are now entrusted with government management, from federal right down to the smallest hamlet, should be busy planning the way to do just that.

Today And Tomorrow

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

HOUSING—An endorsement

There is one announced program of the Federal Administration to which I can heartily subscribe. There are others, but I have in mind the idea of the Government aid for the rebuilding of the "slum" dwellings of the cities and the development of "subistence farms" for many city folk who, under our present industrial system, are unable to survive when on the payroll, except by charity.

I know an increasing number of men who have found their way to self-support in the depression by getting hold of a piece of land with some sort of a house on it and so managing to get by, even when unemployed for two or three years. But most city workers haven't the means or the knowledge how to adopt that method of self-support. They have to be taught and to be financed; but unless Government does this, we shall never have a permanent solution of our most important social problem, that of unemployment.

HORRORS—of war

We speak of the horrors of war, but few moderns realize what a devastating effect the wars of ancient times had.

It was only about three hundred years ago when the early colonists were beginning to settle America, that the Thirty Years War ravaged Germany until the population was reduced from 24,000,000 to less than 4,000,000. Not all were killed in war, of course; most died of starvation. Uter lawlessness prevailed outside of the fortified cities. No person's life was safe, and cannibalism was actually practiced, according to James W. Gerard, former United States Ambassador to Berlin. Human flesh was even exposed for sale in the markets of Heidelberg in 1648, said Mr. Gerard in a recent published statement! Polygamy was legalized, to repopulate the land speedily.

Ambition and religion were at the root of the Thirty Years War. We are hardly likely to have another great war over religion, but ambition may prompt one at any time.

FORESIGHT—For humans

I never cease to marvel at the foresight of the little beasts and birds in storing up food for the winter.

Just now the red squirrels and the blue-jays are fighting daily in the big oak-tree in my fence-line, each trying to get all the acorns in sight. I've never found out where the jays hide theirs; they fly southward toward the woodlot and come back quickly for more, so they probably have a hollow tree for storage place. But I discovered the red squirrel's board the other day in a corner of a disused barn loft, behind a pile of lumber and junk. There was at least a bushel of acorns and hickory-nuts laid away for winter food.

Too bad human beings can't be as forehanded as the squirrels. We are too dependent upon artificial sources of clothing and shelter to get our living by our bare hands alone, in these latitudes.

If science needed any further proof that "primitive man" must have inhabited the tropical regions of the earth, where shelter and clothing are unnecessary and food grows profusely, our helplessness in northern climates ought to furnish it.

Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives?

Doctors have always recognized the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be controlled.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it.

Dr. Cabell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on science—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help. Dr. Cabell's Syrup Pepsin is at all druggists. Member N. R. A.

Visual Efficiency

There is a vast difference between mere good sight and Visual Efficiency.

There are great masses of school children and people whose occupations require close application of their eyes who have inefficient vision. They see well but at a tremendous effort by overtaking some of the delicate eye muscles which results in eyes tiring, loss of interest in their work and headaches.

The old method of eye testing with a card of letters at twenty feet for determining how good the sight is, is far behind as the days of the ox-cart.

The human race for centuries used their eyes principally at a distance. We have inherited eyes adapted to that point.

The work of modern optometry is re-adapting eyes to this artificially mechanized world in which we live.
