Thanksgiving Will Be Observed With Picnic at Rhineland

Preparations have been under way for several weeks for a big picnic at Rhineland, Texas, on Thanksgiving day. The central purpose of this picnic is to make money with which to retire some of the indebtedness of the St. Joseph's parish which was incurred by the erection of the church this fall. Generous donations have been received during the past two weeks from people who are in sympathy with this method of trying to reduce the indebtedness of the parish and thereby help to shorten the time when work can again be resumed on the incomplete structure. Further donations will be highly appreciated. This picnic is going to be an all-day affair, with plenty of amusements for young and old. Dinner and supper will be served on the grounds. An appetizing menu is being prepared, including such delicious and appetizing items as pork sausage, beef, chicken, turkey with cranberry sauce, and other too numerous to mention. If you miss this picnic, you will also miss the best prepared country meal of your life. The good ladies of Rhineland are omitting no details to display to the public their efficiency in the culinary department. The celebration will close with a big dance at night. Plenty of good band music all during the day and a snappy orchestra for the dance. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

A LITTLE PREACHMENT ON TRADING AT HOME

One of our good merchants the other day suggested that we get the merchants of Munday together and inaugurate a campaign to combat the encroachments of the mail order houses on local business concerns. This merchant picked up a catalog from one of the leading mail order houses and gave us a demonstration that opened our eyes.

He went through this catalog and showed us numerous items listed therein and showed us very conclusively that he and other merchants in Munday were underselling them. He showed us a description of a sheep-lined coat which was listed in the catalog at $4.98 plus postage. He had the same coat, except that his coat was a little heavier than the mail order product, at exactly $4.98. He showed us numerous other items on which he not only met mail order prices, but beat them.

We inquired of him why he did not sell quantities of merchandise at the prices he quoted, since he beat the mail order houses in prices, and he stated that when he could get a prospective customer in his store he seldom had any difficulty in selling him, but the big problem was in getting the public to look before ordering.

Anyway, he gave us something to think about, and something we believe that the merchants should think about.

The mail order house depends entirely and in toto on advertising to sell their merchandise, while the local merchant all too often depends upon customers to drop in and look his stock over, and very few of them are interested sufficiently to do so.

So many folks make out their order and send it to the mail order house—and pay the difference.

H. D. CLUB.

"It cost me five cents to improve my pantry," stated Mrs. G. P. Lansford, 4-H pantry demonstrator in the Munday club, who was second on her pantry in the county.

"The shelves were built of scrap lumber and the five cents that I spent was for lime to whitewash the shelves and walls. I labeled my shelves and cans. I used white wrapping paper cut the exact size of the tin cans and labeled them. This serves as a protection for the cans and also improves the appearance of the entire pantry."

"Other than the things that were left over last year, I have canned, in this dry year, 350 containers of fruits, vegetables, pickles, relishes, jellies and preserves and 392 cans of meat, making a total of 742 containers put up. In addition to this we cured approximately 1500 lbs. of meat, had 100 lbs. of sausage and 59 gallons of lard. We have lived at home and in spite of the post gardens we will very nearly live at home again this year."

Washburn School News

Our school can say "Thanks," to the people of the community and the friends of the school, especially Mr. Houser, of Munday, who sold the boxes, for $29.53 from the box-supper last Friday night. Soon we expect to be getting the use of several new things that will make our work better and more interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown and family spent Sunday afternoon with relatives and friends in Seymour. The pupils at Washburn are hoping that happy days are "nearly" here again. Why shouldn't they be with such generous people as Mr. Rogers and Mr. Kemp sporting new cars. (Yes sir, school kids love to ride in new cars.)

We are hearing things about model schools, and what we have to do to be a model school, and part of it sounds like work to us; but who minds work? The pupils are ready to do their part. Anyway, we are having school on Saturdays in order to have time for an eight month term.

We are giving a small program on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day. We hope the mothers see fit to come.

Juanita Rogers got her mouth bruised on a see-saw Tuesday, but we do not think it was serious.

We were about to forget to mention the fact that Mr. Ingfam has come to school every day this week with face, neck and ears as clean as "mamma's good little boy."—A bar of soap as a gift to the ugliest man at the box-supper Friday night is responsible for this much-needed situation.

School District To Pass On Issuance of Building Bonds

An election has been ordered in the Munday Independent School District for December 18 to determine whether bonds in the sum of $40,000 shall be issued against said district for the erection of a new grammar school building to replace the old building that has been in use for many years.

Members of the board in issuing the order at this time have been prompted by the announcement that all applications for projects on which Federal money is to be procured must be in not later than January 1, 1934, and it is believed that by getting the application in by that date a labor grant of not less than 30 percent of the cost of the building may be procured.

The old grammar school building has been regarded as unsafe for a number of years, and while the school board fully realizes that tax burdens have fallen heavily during the past few years, they are nevertheless aware of the fact that a new building is badly needed and since the building can be procured with no additional tax burden, they feel that the time has arrived to take action, and have accordingly circulated a petition and secured the required number of signatures, and the election has been ordered, a copy of which is published in this issue of the Times.

Diphtheria Fatal To Little Son Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Broach

Jean, the little four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Broach, died late Thursday afternoon from diphtheria, from which it had suffered since Monday. It's death had been expected hourly all day Thursday.

At the time we go to press funeral arrangements have not been made.

Mesdames E. B. Davy and Weldon Parker were visitors to Vernon this week.

Carl Pugh Given Position As Chief of Police in City

On Monday night of last week the city council promoted Carl Pugh from policeman to the position of Chief of Police in Munday, and he has assumed his duties as such.

Shannon Layne, who has been serving in this capacity for the past fourteen months, has tendered his resignation and severed his connection with the law enforcement agency of the city.

Cotton Producers Get 4-Cent Advance Gov't Held Cotton

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Immediate distribution of $48,000,000 constituting a four cent a pound advance to cotton producers who are to receive options on 2,400,000 bales of government held cotton, was announced today by Oscar Johnson, director of finance for the farm administration.

The advance will be made to approximately 600,000 producers as quickly as necessary forms can be signed. The producers who asked options on government cotton at 6 cents a pound as part of their consideration for acreage reduction will be required to participate in the 1934 cotton reduction program.

Dick Dresser Will Make Race For Legislative Place

Dick Dresser of Seymour announces that he will be a candidate for State Representative of the 113th District, which is composed of Baylor, Haskell and Throckmorton counties. The district is represented now by Dennis Ratliff of Haskell.

Dresser was a candidate for District Attorney of this district last year and went into the run-off with the present attorney. He has many friends over this section who wish him success.

41,917 Bales of Cotton Ginned In County to Nov. 1

There were 41,917 bales of cotton ginned in Knox County prior to November 1st, according to Hoyle A. Bullins, enumerator for the Department of Commerce. This is 11,473 bales more than were ginned on the same date last year, the figures on ginnings to November 1st last year being 30,444. Total ginnings in Knox county last year were 61,900.

Red Cross Drive Will Be Conducted Here This Week

A drive for members in the National Red Cross is to be conducted in Munday this week, according to an announcement made Wednesday by Riley B. Harrell, who has been chosen as chairman of the local membership committee, and Mr. Harrell feels that with the wonderful work this organization has done in this community as well as every other community during the past few years fresh in the minds of the public that the drive should meet with unprecedented success.

The minimum membership is $1.00, out of which 50 cents goes into the national fund, the remainder stays locally; out of the $2.00 membership $1.50 remains in the local fund and 50 cents goes to the national fund. In fact, regardless of the membership taken, only 50 cents is remitted to the national fund and remainder remains in the community for local relief, hence in contributing to this great organization of mercy, one is also contributing to the local fund.

No community can afford to neglect the responsibility it owes to this great organization, and we know that the citizens of Munday will respond liberally and readily when they are solicited.

Tennessee Lads In Texas Want to See Some Real Cowboys

Mrs. Chas. Mayes has as guests in her home this week J. R. Baker, vocational agriculture teacher of Santa Fe, Tennessee, and three of his pupils, Woodrow Johnson, Earl McGowan and Harold Cook. These boys want a trip to the National Dairy Show in a state judging contest at Nashville, but since the show was not held this year they were appointed to judge meat at the American Royal Show at Kansas City, where they spent two days before coming to Munday. The boys hoped to see some real cowboys while here and visited the Ferris ranch on Wednesday. They plan to return to Tennessee the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Roy Phillips Is Appointed Dist. Clerk of Knox Co.

Roy Phillips, serving his second term as district clerk of Knox county, recently tendered his resignation to District Judge Isaac O. Newton of the 50th Judicial District, who appointed Mrs. Roy Phillips, who has been actively associated with the office since her husband's election, to fill the unexpired term. Ill health was assigned by Mr. Phillips as the reason for his resignation.

Burglars and Thieves Make Haul Over City On Wednesday Night

Burglars and thieves had a busy night of it on Wednesday night and as a result of their visit several cars have been incapacitated since. Lee Haney lost three wheels off of his car, Matt Dillingham lost some of the tires from one of the cars of the West Texas Utilities Co., U. R. Houser lost the curtains off his Ford delivery car and numerous others report losses, while burglars visited the apartments of Gant (Lefty) Hambricht and Gordon (Dogie) Stone, taking a suit of clothes from each. Officers have been working on the case but have found very little information upon which to work.

Candidates all Neck and Neck in Last Days of Big Campaign—Prizes Awarded Saturday Evening, Nov. 25

There are only two more days of the Big Circulation Campaign, and the last week is always the most critical time of a campaign. Our candidates are all close in the voting count and just a little negligence on the part of anyone could make quite a change in the final count. If there is a time during a campaign a candidate should work it is the last few days, and if there ever was a time when a friend should rally to their favorite it is the last few days. If you feel your favorite is not leading now is the time to pay your subscription and help her. The prizes will be awarded at the Times office on Saturday evening, November 25. The balloting will close at six o'clock, after which time the judges will have charge of the ballot box.

Russell Matson Is Victim Hijackers Tuesday Evening

Tuesday evening as Russell Matson was returning to Munday from Benjamin he was halted down by four men in the road, knocked unconscious and robbed of two dollars in cash and a few checks. The hijackers, after rendering him unconscious by a blow on the head with some kind of billy drove his car about a quarter of a mile down the road and left it parked by the roadside with Mr. Matson in it. Mr. Matson was picked up by a traveling man and carried to a hotel at Knox City where he regained consciousness some four hours after the incident.

Mr. Matson states that a car, evidently belonging to the hijackers, was parked by the roadside some distance from where the four men were standing in the road but he did not associate them in account of the number, and stopped his car believing that the men merely wanted a lift, but as soon as he stopped one of the men came to the drivers side of the car and ordered him to move over and when he refused to do so he was struck by another member of the party.

Mr. Matson states that he could identify one of the party and has a fairly clear idea of how the others looked.

In addition to taking the two dollars and checks they relieved him of his watch and fountain pen.

Mr. Matson is a collector for the International Harvester Company, and frequently has quite a sum in his possession, but fortunately he had only $2.50 in cash in his vest pocket and they left the 50c piece in his pocket.

Piggly Wiggly Here Announces Its 4th Anniversary Sale

Messrs. Foyt and Foytk, proprietors of the Piggly Wiggly store are this week announcing their 4th Anniversary Sale in Munday, which will run from November 24th to November 30th, and they plan to make the event one of unusual interest by giving the public special values during the sale.

These gentlemen came to Munday from Seymour, and during their residence here have identified themselves with the community in a most substantial way, supporting every movement for the betterment of the town and community, and we know that many of our citizens will join us in extending sincere congratulations to them on their fourth anniversary to Munday.

Singers of County To Meet Sunday at 2 O'clock At Goree

The Knox County Singing Convention will meet in the Baptist church at Goree Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and singers and lovers of good singing are urged to be present.

A number of good singers, including several quartettes from out of the county will likely be present, according to Earl Brewer, president of the organization.

If the readers of the Times will pardon us we would like to say a few words with reference to our short sojourn in your beautiful little city, a few words concerning the campaign as well as a few short words about those who have conducted the campaign.

Munday is by no means new to us. We worked on the Munday Times for Thos. Durham when it was established in 1904; at that time Munday was a very small inland town. The railroad made it's way into Munday during that year, and the town prospered and grew and did not stop its growth until today it is really one of the best little West Texas towns we have had the pleasure of visiting. And by the way, we have visited every town in West Texas within the past four years. We will ever cherish the thought of our few weeks spent in Munday on this occasion. We revived old friendships and feel we have made new ones whom we will ever remember. Everyone has been kind and courteous, for which we are thankful.

We feel we have done a real service for Mr. Kennedy and the merchants who advertise in the columns of the Times. We enlarged the circulation of the Times to such an extent that advertising would pay the merchants at double the price now charged; we are now reaching practically every home in the trade territory of Munday. Over seven hundred new subscribers are now on our rolls that were not on our list at the outset of this campaign, and many more should appear in our ballot box which will be located in the First National Bank this week, to be opened Saturday night at the Times Office. That is a record of which we are very proud. We feel the publisher is pleased with the campaign and that is our mission in this line of work. We have four of the best candidates we have ever had in come in contact. They have worked among you people untiringly and to them belong the credit. They have ever been courteous to the prospective subscribers with whom they have come in contact. They have worked but we also feel they are going to be well paid for their trouble.

It is our desire to thank the merchants who have so willingly cooperated with us in giving weekly prizes to the candidates. To the Baker-Campbell company, Guinn Hardware Co., Piggly Wiggly, Rexall Drug Store and Haney's Beauty Parlor, goes our sincere thanks for the prizes you donated.

Three of the merchants realized the value of advertising so strong, they not only offered a free prize but also to pay for the advertisement to donate the prize. We wish to apologize for our oversight, and Mr. Kennedy had nothing to do with this part of the campaign and knew nothing about it. These prizes were donated by the first merchants we called upon and we could only use a certain number.

We owe our appreciation to R. G. Dudley, circulation representative of the Wichita Times and Record News for his untiring efforts and assistance to our candidates. And especially do we wish to thank him for a very liberal cash contribution for extra prizes that will be awarded Saturday night. Mr. Davidson, of the Fort Worth Star Telegram is also

THANKSGIVING DAY

We think it appropriate at this time to print the first account of the origin of Thanksgiving Day, as it was set down in 1623 by William Bradford, Governor of Plymouth Plantation. The spelling and punctuation are just as Governor Bradford wrote it in his Journal.

"Notwithstanding all their great pains & industry, and yet great hope of large crops, the Lord seemed to blast, & take away the same, and to threaten further & more sore famine unto them, by a great drought which continued from ye 2 weeks in May, till about ye middle of July, without any rain, and with great heat (for ye most parts), inasmuch as ye corn began to wither away, though it was set with flake, the mystere whereof helped it much. Yet at length it became to languish sore, and some of ye older grounds were parched like withered hay, part whereof was never recovered. Upon which they set a pious & solemn day of humiliation, to seek ye Lord by humble & fervent prayer, in this great distress. And he was pleased to give them a gracious & speedy answer, both to their own & the Indians admiration, that lived amongst them. For all ye morning, and greatest part of the day, it was clear weather and very hot, and not a cloud or any sign of rain to be seen, yet toward evening in began to overcast, and shortly after to rain, with which sweet and gentle showers, as gave them cause of rejoicing, & blessing God. It came, without either wind, or thunder, or any violence, and by degrees in yt abundance, as that ye earth was thoroughly wetted and soaked therewith. Which did so apparently revive & quicken ye decayed corn & other fruits, as was wonderful to see, and made ye Indians astonished to behold; and afterwards the Lord sent them such seasonable blessings with interchange of fair warm weather, as, through his blessing, caused a fruitful & liberal harvest, to their no small comfort (in time convenient) they also set apart a day of thanksgiving."

We have kept the form of Thanksgiving Day, but ought we not also to keep it in the spirit of those Pilgrim Fathers?

THE FARMER AND HIS DEBTS

So much has been printed about the farmer's debts, and so many politicians have painted the picture of farm distress in such gloomy colors, that the impression prevails all over the country that all the farmers are on the verge of losing their farms through foreclosure proceedings and

DANGER OF RABIES

Citizens are urged to keep a close watch on their dogs for signs of rabies, as several dogs in the neighborhood of Felix Franklin have shown signs of rabies during the past week and have been killed. A dog belonging to Mr. Franklin was killed some days ago and the head sent to the Pasteur Institute at Austin and the report came back that the examination showed positive evidence of rabies and other dogs may have been exposed.

SOCK SUPPER

No sirree, 'tain't no tipographical error! It is just that, and it will be held at the community auditorium on Wednesday evening, November 28th, under the auspices of the local Home Demonstration club, and the men-folks are requested to come out prepared to eat—and pay for it, so don't forget the date—and be there.

Mesdames R. B. Davy and Wehlon Parker were visitors to Vernon this week.

Where Is the Value In a Pair of Glasses?

Fine metals, superior optical glass and the mechanical skill of the lens grinder produces an article of commercial value only, with a large range in price.

The true value in a pair of lenses is in the skill of the man who prescribes them. A pair of lenses is the expression of the knowledge and skill of the examiner.

If through his prescription for lenses eyes are made to function normally giving clear and comfortable vision, relieving headaches, eyestrain, red and irritated eyes due to strain, and many other reflex troubles, making it possible for those who use their eyes at near to continue their avocation in life, assisting the school child in getting the full benefits of the school, a value of dollars cannot be placed on his work.

For the examiner to express his skill it is necessary to supply the best lens ground to each individual prescription which is much more expensive than stock lenses or lenses cheaply made to meet commercial competition.

DON'T PLACE YOUR EYES ON THE BARGAIN COUNTER

You Can Not Buy a New Pair of Eyes

Take good care of those you have by having them examined in a properly equipped office where at least forty-five minutes is spent in determining the exact condition of the vision and a correct prescription for lenses.

Mrs. Emma Hefly, who has been attempting to reduce by taking horseback riding lessons, is now able to sit down. The horse is able to stand up.

Doc Gillingsby, who last week had a common cold, this week has an extraordinary cold.

Joe Penberry's absent-mindedness is apparently no better, as Halloween night he decided to play the old prank of ringing a doorbell until the householder came, then running, and after punching a doorbell until practically dizzy, discovered he had come to his own house.

PERSONAL IF TRUE

The Fitchey's bentam hen Enkie is setting and she is very worried, as he figures from the size of the eggs they will probably turn out to be moqueleques.

Henry Waites may have his little shortcomings, but nobody can deny when it comes to selling merchandise Henry is the goods. Tuesday morning Mrs. Hector Gabby entered Henry's general store and bought a dozen eggs. "Are you sure these are fresh?" she queried. "Eddie," called Henry to his clerk, "are these eggs cool enough to sell yet?"

Ike Fitchey finally remembered where he had left his plumbing tools, in his other suit. Saturday, when the Souze-and-Scrub Laundry used him for wreckage of a washing machine.

Doc Gillingsby says there is a great difference between last summer, when his wife learned to play golf, and this winter, when she is learning to drive a car. "Then," says Doc sadly, "she hit nothing. Now she hits everything."

When Mrs. Angus McTevors told her husband she would like him to buy her an electric hair curler, he said he had rather just sit down and tell her a good ghost story.

The fact that the sixth grade children were shifted to different seats Monday morning utterly spoiled little Hector Gabby's plans, as it meant he had not washed the car next to the school teacher.

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

As we come to the closing days of the most successful subscription campaign in the history of this publication we should be ungrateful should we fail to express our sincere appreciation of the wonderful work that has been done by the four fine ladies that have worked so diligently and faithfully.

Indeed, as we approach the end, our only regret is that we cannot compensate each of them more fully for their efforts. They have worked early and late, and have thoroughly covered the territory around Munday, and have met with a measure of success that is indeed gratifying to us.

We would also express our appreciation for the fine response that has come from those who have read the paper from year to year. Such fine support gives us courage to continue our efforts to give this community the best community newspaper possible, and it shall be our aim constantly to strive to merit this wonderful support.

Approximately 700 new names have been added to our list, and only a very small percentage of these reside outside the Munday trade area. Benefits from this coverage will accrue to the business concerns of Munday whose advertising messages will appear during the coming year, and they may rest assured that when their advertising appears in this newspaper it will go into practically every home within the Munday trade area.

And there's the big reason for newspaper advertising. Only a small percentage of circulars that are sent out really find their way into the homes, but every newspaper that is mailed goes into some home and is read by every member of the family.

Many times we have gone into the local postoffice in the morning after some concern had mailed a large number of circulars or other direct advertising pieces, and have found the floor and waste basket literally covered with them. They did the advertiser absolutely no good for they were not read, but never have we found a copy of this newspaper on the floor or in the waste basket at the postoffice.

We have no fight to make on anybody's advertising schemes, for many of them are good, but we do want to call attention to the fact that successful merchants in all the larger cities still direct a major portion of their advertising appropriations to newspapers in spite of the encroachments of the radio and other competitive methods of reaching the public.

If we've devoted too much of this column to tooting our own horn the kind reader will please bear in mind the admonition of the sage who said, "He that tooteth not his own horn, the same shall not be tooted," and will accordingly pardon us upon our promise to devote this column to more interesting topics hereafter.

And to our new readers let us say that this column is regarded by our older readers as very edifying and uplifting, notwithstanding that fact that many of them have kidded us freely for using the word "tooting" in connection therewith.

Why Liquid Laxatives Do You No Harm

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can be controlled. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, and with no discomfort at the time, or afterward. The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it!

An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is syrup pepsin. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as they do in the case of cathartics containing mineral drugs. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Member N. R. A.

SOCIETY

Luncheon Honoring Mrs. D. T. Mauldin of Rule

A feature occasion of the week was a luncheon given by the Munday Study Club in the home of Mrs. J. R. Smith, honoring Mrs. D. T. Mauldin of Rule. Mrs. Mauldin was a charter member of the Munday Study Club and has been an active member since its organization.

The Smith home has recently been remodeled throughout and made a beautiful setting for this social affair. Colorful flowers and miniature turkeys for place-cards suggested a Thanksgiving theme and added a decorative touch to the home.

Miss Ozella Brook sang "By the Waters of Minnetonka" and responded to an encore with "My Rosary." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Louise Ingram.

A delicious buffet luncheon was served at the conclusion of which Mrs. Ammons paid a tribute to Mrs. Mauldin in a few lines of verse and presented her with a hand-painted picture as a small token of appreciation of her work with the club.

Members visited informally after the luncheon, the following being present: Mesdames M. H. Reeves, Jack Mayes, Louise Ingram, W. H. Chapman, W. V. Tiner, J. L. Stodghill, O. F. Greer, H. F. ### Mrs. J. C. Harpham Entertains

Naming the visiting girls and their hostesses as honorees, Mrs. J. C. Harpham entertained with a buffet supper Thursday evening. An autumn motif predominated in score cards and high score was held by Mrs. T. E. Dickerson. Pumpkin pie with cream was served Mesdames J. C. Borden, R. M. Matson, T. E. Dickerson, Oates Golden, H. A. Pendleton, Pitzer Baker, W. R. Moore, Fred Broach, W. H. Chapman, J. D. Keithley, T. G. Bengé, Carl Jungman, Avis Maples, R. D. Atkison, E. M. Roberts and S. E. McStay.

High score was held by Miss Angel Jones. Delicious refreshments of shrimp salad, toasted crackers, pimento cheese sandwiches, potato cake and coffee were served to Mesdames J. C. Harpham, Dorse Rogers, Jack Mayes, E. M. Roberts, Sebern Jones, T. E. Dickerson, Misses Kathlyn Atkison and Angel Jones.

Announcement party.

Gold and white chrysanthemums were used throughout the entertaining suite when Mrs. R. S. Palmer of Anson entertained on Saturday morning. Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Palmer, who presented members of the house party, Mrs. Hubert Isbell, Mrs. Geo. Isbell, Miss Mary Couch and Mrs. Jack Tidwell. Refreshments were served in the dining room from an artistically laid table with silver appointments. Sandwiches from gold and white bread, gold cookies with white icing, coffee, tea and mints, with chrysanthemums as plate favors, emphasizing the gold and white color scheme, were served by Mrs. Othel Gray, Mrs. Dick Harris, and Misses Grace Dean and Mary Jane Brooks.

As the guests passed from the dining room little Miss Bettie Joe Daniels passed cards bearing, this announcement: "Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Palmer announce the marriage of their daughter, Anice, to Mr. Hubert

Need More Iron in Their Blood!

Children who are thin and pale and who lack appetite are usually suffering from a deficiency of iron. When the blood lacks iron it becomes thin and poor and fails to nourish. Then a child loses appetite and becomes still thinner and weaker—and easy prey to disease!

To build up your child, give him Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic. It contains iron which makes for rich, red blood. It also contains tasteless quinine which tends to purify the blood. These two effects make it an exceptional medicine for young and old. A few days on Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic will work wonders in your child. It will sharpen his appetite, improve his color and build up his pep and energy and increase his resistance to disease. Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic is pleasant to take. Children like it and it's absolutely safe for them. Contains nothing harmful. All stores sell Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic. Get a bottle today and see how your child will benefit from it.

SCHOOL BOARD MAKES DEFINITE MOVE TO OBTAIN NEW GRAMMAR SCHOOL BUILDING FOR MUNDAY

After lengthy conferences during the week end, the school board entered into a conditional contract with C. F. Reynolds, architect-representative of S. B. Haynes of Lubbock, to draft tentative plans for a $40,000.00 grammar school building. The contract is conditioned upon the success of the election here and upon the approval of the project by the Public Works Administration. The architects are familiar with the procedure in making application to the Public Works Commission for loan and grant on projects and they agree to assist the local authorities in preparing and presenting the application.

January 1, 1934 being the deadline for applications, it became necessary for the school board to have all plans made so that application may be made immediately after the pending bond election here. Under the plans of the school board, a $40,000 bond issue will be asked as a basis for a federal loan and grant to the school district. Should the project be approved, and the information is that it very likely will be, the school district might really issue only 70 percent of bonds and would receive a grant of 30 percent from the Public Works Commission.

SPORT DOPE

Our teams went to O'Brien Friday night. The girl's game was very exciting but they added another victory for the Eagles by defeating O'Brien nine to twelve.

The boys played a nice game and one that kept the crowd on their feet. O'Brien would get ahead and then Sunset until the game ended in Sunset's favor eighteen to nineteen.

The Independents were defeated by O'Brien Friday night, fifty to thirty-two, but took their spite out on Goree Saturday night by defeating them forty-three to twenty-nine. The Goree Independents played the Sunset school boys a practice game and won, twenty-four to twenty-one.

The juniors won their third consecutive game this year by defeating the Weimert second team fourteen to twenty-three.

Complete report on the Sunset Eagle vs. O'Brien game played at O'Brien on Friday, November 17, 1933.

SENIOR CLASS REPORT

This is just to let you know the Senior class of Sunset is still alive, and doing fine school work. The Seniors are working terribly hard this year, in order to make Sunset the largest and best school in Knox County. We're sure this will be one year Sunset will be proud of it's Seniors.

Oh, are we happy? And how! We Seniors have received our class rings. "Oh boy but they are really beautiful! Our janitor said he didn't know we could smile so big, until Harold gave us our rings. Here's hoping there are no disappointments at the close of this school term in the Senior class.

JUNIORS

Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah!
 Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah!
 Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah!
 —JUNIORS!

Watch your step, Freshmen. We are accepting your challenge. We defy anyone to keep up with us.

We are contemplating a visit to the skating rink, (together, of course!) Most of us have already been, but we shall go once more.

High school boys are getting younger (in ways) every day. They have their water guns here now. Some are even shooting at the teachers. (Ask Miss Blanton, and she'll tell you all about the big fight!)

A number of new books have been received into the Library, and everyone is busy reading.

Late hours must be the bad right now. The girls are so sleepy that some of them wait until noon to come to school! (I won't tell any names, but the initials are V. A. S. and E. C.)

FRESHMAN REPORT

Well, we are here again as lively as ever but we are afraid to say anything more about the upper classes for you see, we are only Freshmen.

Have you ever noticed the way the Freshmen stop ground? One would think by the way Martelle walks, she is imitating E.H., but it can hardly be done, so she says. We wonder what size shoe he wears.

We are sorry to say that our teachers do not seem to appreciate the so-called Freshman thoughts, but with them the cracks do not go so well in connection with History and English.

By the way, we are taking Miss Blanton as an example of the way of chewing gum. Remember, Freshmen, snappy straight curves with right uppercuts downward. We can't figure out why Miss Blanton won't let us chew it in English class, for it is a very deep subject in the side of our mouths and it takes a very active verb to chew it. It seems to remain put in the reach of the brain so why not let us comprehend something while we can.

Harold Tom says that he loves English, hates History, sticks to General Science, but turns Algebra down. As Mr. Kimbrough expresses it we really neglect it, and by the looks of all our test papers, anyone would think so. Anyway, Harold's brightness goes well with all subjects but Algebra, about which he has very little to say. In fact, none of us are extra.

We are getting worried about Miss Leah, for she has not given us a test since the latter part of last week. There must be something the matter with her. We have started a History note book, and upon arriving at our class we are afraid she has a test awaiting us.

SOPHOMORES

Well we are still laughing. Laughing? At what?

Well, it's just this. Once upon a time, as all good stories begin, a teacher required several English III students to memorize five lines of poetry in her class. (Horrible!)

The result was terrible. A few students said that "a village girl set her picture underneath the spring" and another said "a village girl."

Mr. Kimbrough can pick out the hardest little problems. Little problems? And yet so simple.

We invite you out to Sunset every Friday night to see the Brazos Valley Basket Ball games.

Miss Leah will tell you that our pep squad is improving, too. Ah! On the road to perfect.

One of our old friends is leaving us, so we hear. An old classmate of last year! Gee, we sure will miss him. (Somebody else will probably miss him too. We wonder who.) J. B. McGregor is moving to Lamona.

The Sophomores do not know who to thank at the present writing, maybe it is the Munday Times representative, but we surely are indebted to somebody for getting the Munday Times into our library—and did you notice where the editor put our news! You don't have to turn thru the paper to find the Sunset Glow now. It is on the front page. We thank the editor of the Munday Times for his compliment to our school and assure him that his paper is the most popular in our library.

RHINELAND

The Rhineland school reopened Monday, November 20, after the annual fall vacation. Our schools had been in session for six weeks during the summer when they closed until last Monday in order to give all children an opportunity to help their parents gather the large cotton crop. Their services greatly eased the burdens of their fathers and mothers in meeting their financial obligations.

Interesting disclosures were made during a math class this week. Basing conclusions on a minimum average, it was disclosed that the children of the public school alone saved their parents enough money to pay for the entire operating costs of their school, including teacher's salaries, interest and part payment on school bond, fuel, insurance, and repair bills. Besides this their services equalized educational opportunities for all children of the district. The attendance is very good. Contrary to the opinion of many, the teachers reported that very little review work is necessary. It is only reasonable to assume that children do not forget as much in eight weeks as they do in sixteen. Everything being equal, it is true that a continuous school term is preferable, but how to equalize educational opportunities, maintain efficient and standard work, and not add burdens to the over-burdened cotton-farmer without an interrupted term remains a puzzle to the writer.

Last reports are that Mr. John N. Albus is progressing nicely on the road to recovery.

Nothing has been done to rebuild the store which was damaged by the gas explosion. All usable stock was transferred to the warehouse north of the store. Business is carried on there.

Today And Tomorrow

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

LIBERTY—first amendment

General Hugh Johnson is saying now that he never had any idea of trying to control the newspapers through the N.R.A. The protest of the press of the whole country against any curtailment of their liberty, guaranteed under the First Amendment to the Constitution, has been effective.

For a time it seemed seriously in danger. There are always men in office who would like to muzzle the newspapers and put men in jail for criticizing them. America is almost the only nation in the world in which there is absolute freedom to speak and write whatever one believes. The first thing a dictator does is to suppress the opposition press, as Hitler has done in Germany, Mussolini in Italy and Stalin in Russia.

We are not in danger of despotism so long as we have the unlimited right of public criticism of those in authority.

COURAGE—of Richard Bowker

I have known many brave men, but in some ways my old friend Richard Bowker, who died on November 12, was one of the bravest. I was one of those who called on him on his 85th birthday, September 14th, and although he was already stricken with his fatal illness, he made a joke of his age and talked with enthusiasm about what he had "seen" on a motor trip that morning.

For Richard Bowker was blind. He had been blind for nearly thirty years. After accomplishing what would have been a great life work for most men, he lost his sight, but he never let that affliction interfere with his activities. Fortunately, he was able to employ people to read to him and guide him around. He made a yearly trip to Europe, or to South America, and delighted to describe the strange things he had seen through another's eyes. And after his sight had failed he took over a failing business and built it up into a great success.

Men of great courage do not let themselves be handicapped by physical afflictions.

YOUTH—his war spirit

Many earnest people are deploring the warlike spirit of the youth of today. We don't get so much of that in this country as in Europe; but to me nothing seems more natural.

The sons of the men who fought in the Great War are getting to the age when they, too, would like to put on uniforms, shoulder rifles and march behind a band. We who were boys in America in the twenty years following the Civil War, which affected our nation much more deeply than the World War did, had the same idea. In my high school days we wore uniforms and drilled like soldiers under Army officer, and loved it, especially when we marched behind Sousa's band and the March King played his "High School Cadets" march, composed especially for us.

We, and the rest of the thousands of youngsters in similar organizations didn't want to kill anybody. We weren't hunting war. But we did get an exalted feeling of patriotic fervor, and would have been glad to go to the front if any enemy had attacked our country.

I think that is about as far as the "war spirit among youth" goes anywhere today.

INFORMATION—Wanted

I find myself confused in the effort to keep track of what the Government at Washington is doing and trying to do. It is my business to know as much as I can about what the world is doing. I am confused at times, it seems to me that many other people must also be somewhat at sea.

I think the Administration could get farther and faster with its programs if it took the people into confidence, told them more frequently and in more detail, all about its own work. I know there is a lot of talk from Washington over the radio; but everybody can't spend his time listening to the radio. I know there is a lot in the newspapers, but the day-to-day headline stuff needs coordinating. Besides, a lot of papers can't afford to give space to everything the Administration wants to see in print.

There is only one effective way to "sell" anything, and that is by paid advertising. Mr. Roosevelt and his various administrators would be well advised if they spent a few hundred of the millions they are disbursing so freely, in advertisements which would give everybody a clear understanding of what is going on.

SENIORS

We Seniors are now wearing our long-looked-for rings and are exceedingly proud of them. It is funny that all the boys oriented bracelets instead of belt buckles.

Some of the Seniors, including Professor Reed, have come to the conclusion that skating is comparable to aviation, that is, one drop will kill you.

Hazel Clough has been so sore lately she's left handed.

I'm sorry that I have not been able to interview Miss Couch as I said, but here comes one that you'll enjoy:

Are You From Dixie?

What? Another christened with the plague of being born in Munday? Yes, and we're proud of her wit, and she's proud of half of it so she says. This congenial comedienne has a host of possibilities wrapped up in her.

On February 9, 1917, Billie True Hill, the worst pest in the world, came into existence.

Even from childhood, "Bill" has been a leader among her set. To prove this; she was president of the class in her freshman year, assistant editor of the Tom Tom when a Sophomore, and now, still in her childhood, she is the Vice-President of the best class Munday High School has had in years, Seniors.

She has taken piano and voice ever since she was a kid. Maybe a year ago she quit. She has taken choral club two years, and get ready for a shock—she won a fifty-yard dash in the county meet some four years ago, ("how ye doin' Miss Diddrickson?") but she's not exactly an athlete fan. She's a gift to the world as an actress.

She has been cast in numerous plays since she was in the third grade, and her efficiency in that line was recently displayed in "Cool Knights," playing opposite Professor Reed. Here are her favorites:

Hobby: "Makin' Whoopee."
 Sport: Football and basketball.
 Actor: Frederick March.
 Singer: Al Jolson, Eddie Cantor.
 Song: "The Day You Came Along."
 Subject: Spanish.
 Gag: "Huh" or "You're telling me?"

Ambition: To grow up. They all do.
 College: Tech or Simmons.
 Pasttime: Singing.
 Food: Chocolate.

Ideal boy: Blondie, with broad shoulders. Now don't any of you brunettes dye your hair, for I think she has someone in mind.

Story: The Three Pigs.
 Song: "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?"

Author: Ruby M. Ayers. (Does she write "Three Little Pigs?") Well, find out if she doesn't write for Love Story.

SAM'S SURVEY

Well, fans, as there was no game last week I have little to say. The second string Moguls went to Hamlin last Thursday and downed the second string Pipers in a 33 to 0 victory. It was reported that every member of the team played a wonderful game.

It looks as though the graduation of the majority of the first string is not going to hurt the standing of the Moguls. There are very few large men in the lower classes, but there are prospects for a wonderful football team.

The football season is almost over. The Moguls have a record so far of a loss of only two games out of eight. But the season's hardest games promise to be the next two with Hous and Knox City. The Moguls will need plenty of backing to win these games, so let's go! Show them we're for them to the last.

Rotan is reported to have the best balanced high school football team in this section. The Moguls will meet them here on Friday. 'Nuff said to

Photograph of President Roosevelt

The High School acknowledges receipt of a photograph of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, a highly appreciated gift from Mrs. P. V. Williams. The photograph was executed by the artist, J. H. Perkins of Atlantic City, and Mr. Roosevelt personally selected it out of the many submitted for adoption as an official campaign picture.

JUNIOR REPORT

CONGRATULATIONS!

The entire student body wishes to congratulate the former Miss Palmer and Hubert Isbell, or rather Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Isbell.

We could write a fair-sized article on the subject, but we think that the feeling of Munday High School can be fully expressed in that simple word, "Congratulations!"

Congratulations! Mr. and Mrs. Isbell and wishes sincere.

To the new-made husband and wife, For you to be blessed glad year by year.

With a long and happy life! May your two happy selves today Be richly blessed.

And love fill every future way With only what is best.

Yes, Miss Palmer isn't any more. It is all Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Isbell, and we think they're among the best looking couples in town.

Friday night, in honor of this happy couple, we are having a skating party at which time we will present our token of remembrance to our sponsor and her husband.

Juniors!! Don't forget your nickels. We must have this fund in the treasury by mid-term. Pay right along please.

Yep! Six weeks is here and do we dread it? Mr. Hardegree gave us a "short" quiz (says he) in Geometry last week and when he gave us our papers he said, "Don't forget, next week is time for a six weeks exam." These teachers can't quit talking about tests.

J. Horace Bass has a school, Ee-i, eeh-i, oh, And in this school he gives big tests Ee-i, eeh-i, oh, With a test, test, here; And a test, test, there;

Here a test, there a test, Everywhere a test, test, J. Horace Bass has a school, Ee-i, eeh-i, oh,

STATE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MEETS IN AUSTIN NOV. 30-DEC 2

Mr. Bass, and early life member of the association, will certainly take advantage of the occasion to attend the convention and to visit Mrs. Bass.

Poor Rupert nearly lost a suspender Friday afternoon when one of the dignified Seniors was trying to learn to skate.

The Sophs are going to take up a collection soon to buy Buddy Rayburn a good alarm clock—we hate to see him stay in every afternoon—(especially when he has dates every night and doesn't get in 'till late or is it early?)

We hope that Bob Billingsley will furnish all of us with radios some time.

W. R. says algebra is all Greek to him! (Is he the only one?)

We're hoping one of our Soph boys will be eligible to play football this week, because for some reason (?) he seems to think he will not.

FRESHMEN REPORT

Well, the second string of the football team won that game last Thursday to the tune of 33 to 0. The reason for my mentioning this is that the second team has seven Freshman boys on the line-up.

An interesting event happened last Saturday evening in front of Tiner's Drug. Joe Kethley was walking along with Sonny Pugh when all of a sudden Joe exclaimed, "Stop that man, Sonny! He's a bootlegger!" Sonny turned and calmly said, "That's all right, Joe, there'll be another along in a minute."

The class is getting ready for the six weeks exams which will be due the latter part of this week.

The Freshman class wishes to say that they surely enjoyed the style show which was given last Thursday. We hope that we may have many interesting programs in the near future.

Mr. Reed was at the skating rink last Friday evening with the Seniors, and can he skate? I would urge all the young ladies of the town who wish to learn to skate to get in touch with Professor Reed. Mr. Hardegree was also down there and he, too, is pretty fair at skating.

TINER'S TICKLES

Young wife: "The $15, dear."

"What's your brother in high school?"

"He's a half back."

"Oh, I mean in his studies."

"Why in his studies he's way back."

Mrs. Isbell: Do you think it's unlucky to wed on Saturday?"

Miss Couch: "Why should Saturday be an exception?"

"We've got a new baby at our house."

"Zat so? Did you trade in the old one?"

"How's business," we asked a scissors grinder.

"Fine," he said; "I never saw things so dull."

"Are autos raining the younger generation?"

"No, the younger generation is raining the autos."

Chemical Cantos

Johnny, feeling life a bore, Drank some H2SO4;

So his father, an M. D., Gave him some CaCO3.

Johnny's neutralized, it's true; But he's full of CO2.

If all boys in the United States were mind readers a lot of cars would be spared the wear and tear of night driving on country roads.

"I notice your home work is improving Johnnie," said the teacher.

"Yeah," said Johnnie, "My father's away, and I do all the work myself."
