TODAY and TOMORROW

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

WEALTH a song in my boyhood I used to hear my mother sing a song which had been popular in her childhood, the refrain of which went:

"For Uncle Sam is rich enough
To give us all a farm."

It seems to me that too many people today have the same sublime faith in the ability of "Uncle Sam" to make everybody rich. But what was literally true in the 1860's and '70's is no longer true.

The Government was giving away public lands to practically all comers in those days, but it wasn't giving away money. It was merely giving people opportunity to create wealth, which is, of course, the product of labor applied to natural resources and nothing else.

What Government is giving to people now is neither wealth nor opportunity. It is merely money, and money which represents no wealth that has yet been created, but which, being borrowed against the future, must be made good by the labor of future generations.

CONGRESS today Representative Dewey Short of Galena, Mo., has made a strong bid for the word-slugging championship of the 74th Congress. As a Republican who was elected to succeed a Democrat he feels entitled to say what he thinks, so he amused his Democratic colleagues the other day by remarking in a speech on the floor of the House that:

"This body has degenerated into a supine, subservient, soporific, supercilious, suppliant, pusillanimous body of nitwits."

Those are bludgeon-like words, but unlikely to break any Congressional bones. I have seen no reports of anything approaching the rapier-like wit of some of the debaters of former days.

For that matter, it has been a long time since there has been a real debate in Congress. About the only member of either House who is listened to seriously is the majority leader, Senator Carter Glass of Virginia. I don't recall who it was that first called him, years ago, a "red-headed snapping turtle," but he usually lives up to that name. Whenever it is known that Senator Glass is to speak the galleries are always crowded.

ELECTRICITY direct The announcement that a way has been found to transmit direct current over long distances more economically than alternating current is now transmitted may foreshadow a revolutionary change in many ways. Nikola Tesla's invention of the alternating current motor was what made long-distance transmission of power possible; up to that time, when only Edison's direct current motor was available, there was too much "leakage" of current.

If direct current is substituted for alternating, almost every piece of domestic electric equipment will have to be changed over, as well as factory motors. It is said to be easy, however, to convert the direct current to alternating where that would serve better.

One result would be to lessen the danger from broken high-pressure transmission lines. Direct current, in theory at least, is less likely to kill than is alternating. That is why the laws in many states which provide electrocution for convicted murderers specify alternating current.

BILLBOARDS and trees The Supreme Court of my home state, Massachusetts, has given a long-delayed decision in the case of complaints against unsightly billboards which deface many of the beautiful scenic highways, particularly in my own county of Berkshire. To protect highway users, the court ruled, the police power may be used against billboards "even to the extent of prohibition."

Billboards, as the Old Bay State's court rightly says, interfere with the right of the traveler upon the highway to a peaceful and unannoyed journey. It adds that scenic beauty is a valuable state asset and that its protection is in the public interest.

I don't know the author of the parody on Joyce Kilmer's poem, "Trees," but I like to quote it: "I think that I shall never see A billboard lovely as a tree. Perhaps, unless the billboards fall, I'll never see a tree at all."

Annual Banquet of Chamber Commerce Tuesday, Feb. 19th.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Munday Chamber of Commerce held Monday afternoon it was definitely decided that the annual banquet and election of officers be held on Tuesday evening, February 19th, and a nominating committee composed of E. R. Davy, J. C. Campbell and W. H. Chapman was named by President E. M. Ammons.

The Famous Tickville String Band of Ranger, Texas, has been procured to provide entertainment for the occasion and an invitation has been extended to Rev. P. D. O'Brien former Baptist pastor here, now of Colorado, Texas, to deliver the principal address.

Plates for the event will be sold at $1.00 each, and with the fine program of entertainment that has been provided for the occasion it is the belief of the directors that little difficulty will be experienced in disposing of all the tickets that room can be made for.

While the place for holding the banquet was not definitely decided upon, W. R. Moore has tendered the organization the use of his show-room should difficulty be encountered in finding a suitable place, which eliminates any possibility of a hitch in that detail.

At this meeting the Boy Scout question was brought up and the secretary was instructed to communicate with Mr. Frank Creighton of Wichita Falls, Scout Executive for this area, with a view of procuring necessary details and information for the formation of an active scout organization in Munday.

Munday Country Gets One Inch Rainfall Wednesday Night

The Munday country received an inch of rain on Wednesday night, and while much more was needed to give a good season, the shower will be of material value to the farmers who were waiting for more moisture to begin breaking their land.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

We are authorized to accept delinquent taxes for the year 1933 and prior years from now until March 15th without interest or penalty. During the month of February, we will accept 1934 taxes with only one per cent penalty and no interest added.

E. B. SAMS,
Tax Assessor-Collector,
Knox County.

Mrs. R. E. Clardy and son Leon, and her mother, Mrs. J. P. McGraw, left Saturday for Dallas, where Mrs. McGraw will visit for some time.

Here we have the celebrated American Legion Tickville Band, which will be the feature attraction at the annual banquet of the Munday Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening, February 19. This band is composed of Ranger business men and is directed by Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, mayor of Ranger, who also plays the mandolin. This organization has presented more than 200 programs over the state, and everyone who has witnessed their program is loud in praise of the entertainment they provide. Tickets for the banquet will be placed on sale next week, and since the capacity is limited, everyone is urged to buy tickets early. Rev. Dick O'Brien of Colorado will be the feature speaker.

Knox Co. Cotton Committee Named

BENJAMIN, Feb. 5.—Cotton production leaders of Knox County met in Benjamin with County Agent W. M. Rice and elected Ben M. Farmer of Knox City, P. C. Phillips of Munday and Jack Idol of Benjamin as the county committee to apply the Bankhead Law in Knox County for the year 1935.

The county committee was elected by the committee members from the various sections of the county, elected by the farmers at mass meetings held the past week.

The county committee for the county are: Knox City, W. H. Cornett and J. O. Warren; Munday, W. M. Thompson and John Rice; Goree, W. W. Coffman; Rhineland, August Schumacher; Vera, R. N. Smith and Ernest Beck; Truscott, R. R. Westbrook; Gilliland, Hugh Eubank; and Benjamin, J. I. Welch.

BETHLEHEM PRIMITIVE BAPTIST SERVICES ON SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

Services will be held at the Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church, five miles north-west of Munday, Saturday, February 9 at 11 o'clock and Sunday at the same hour. Elder R. V. Sorrells of Anson will preach at both services and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Miss Jordan Park, who teaches in Grammar School, was called to Ft. Worth the past week end by the death of an uncle. She returned Sunday evening.

HOOD NEWS

Friends and relatives of Mr. J. A. Hendrix surprised him with a birthday dinner at his home Sunday. Mr. Hendrix was seventy-four years of age. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roden and son, Mr. A. L. Roden and family, Messrs. Lloyd Hendrix and family, C. R. Hendrix and family and Elmer Hendrix and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Cannon and Mr. Elmer Brown and family visited Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robertson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mollie Brown spent last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Pete Ryones of Goree.

Mr. Brady Bingham and family of Goree, Mr. J. T. Bingham and family of Munday, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Polson visited in the home of Mr. Dave Bingham and family Sunday.

Mr. Bud Williamson and family of Brusby spent Sunday in the home of Mr. Jack Tidwell and family.

Wichita Papers To Withdraw Bargain Rates This Week

Jack Dudley, field representative of the Wichita Record News and the Daily Times stated Tuesday that the bargain day rates on these newspapers would be withdrawn after this week, and those who wish to renew or subscribe for either of these publications should get their order in not later than Saturday if they wish to get the advantage of the $1.50 rate, as after that date the rate will be $7.20.

Mr. Dudley stated that some few subscriptions were being carried on a memorandum account and urged that all who are indebted to the publications make an effort to settle same not later than Saturday. Same may be paid at the Times office.

W. L. Lansford was the first to take advantage of our $1.00 rate announced last week, having come in only a few minutes after the paper had been placed in the post office. Others who have taken advantage of the rate include Mrs. Irene Meers, Munday; A. L. Hord, Goree; Matt Dillingham, Sherman Hill, Tom Busby, J. M. Burns, L. A. Webb, C. L. McAfee, A. J. Morgan. As stated in last week's announcement, this rate will hold good only until February 16, after which all delinquent subscribers will be dropped from our list. The date to which your paper is paid is printed at the right of your name.

J. C. Nelson left last week for Austin, where he will enroll as a pre-medical student in the University of Texas. J. C. is a graduate of the Munday High School and the Danforth School of Pharmacy of Fort Worth, and has been associated with the Eiland Drug Store as pharmacist for the past few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Morris and daughter, Margaret May, spent Sunday in the W. E. Reynolds home. Mr. Morris has recently been transferred to Childress by the West Texas Utilities Company, and will assume his duties there this week.

Messrs. Woodrow Thompson and Floyd Hailsback visited Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robertson Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith, Mr. Raymond Melton and family and Miss Loraine Finley visited Mr. J. W. Polson and family Sunday.

Mrs. Mollie Brown visited her mother, Mrs. Davenport of Goree, this week.

Mr. Joe Tidwell and family spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Moserman of Goree.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Thompson visited Mr. Claud Thompson and family Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Polson visited Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brown Sunday evening.

WASHINGTON News Letter

Appropriation Bills

The major portion of the past week in Congress has been taken up in consideration of the Appropriation Bills. Monday, January 28th, the House, as a Committee of the Whole, discussed the Treasury and Post Office Bill. Thursday the House again took up this Bill and spent the day debating its various provisions. Friday, the House began the reading of the bill and finally passed it without a record vote.

Wednesday the House voted to instruct the conferees on the Independent Offices Appropriation Bill to accept the Senate amendment to restore the Federal employees and pensioners on April 1, 1935, the five per cent pay cut which is still in effect under the Economy Act. The original plans of the President were believed to have been to restore the cut on July 1, 1935, as called for in the Economy Act, but it is now believed that he will not make any further objections and will accept this compromise and sign the bill in the near future.

Extension of Reconstruction Finance Corporation

Tuesday, January 29th, the House passed without a record vote, a bill to extend the authority of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for another two years. This measure had previously passed the Senate but had to be sent back to conference due to several amendments added in the House. These amendments were principally to liberalize the existing strict regulations as to kind and character of collateral that might be accepted as security for loans. The principal amendment requires that loans to industry be secured as to its reasonably assured repayment. Another amendment authorized loans to credit companies financing plumbing, electric, and air-conditioning equipment sales. A third authorized loans to $20,000 to owners of small mining properties for development of the same. Still further loans were authorized to closed banks but an amendment to pay depositors in full failed. The conferees reached an early agreement and the President signed the measure late Thursday only a few days expired.

World Court

The United States' adherence to the World Court was indefinitely postponed Tuesday, when the Senate rejected it by a vote of 52 to 36. This was seven votes short of the required two-thirds to secure ratification and came as something of a surprise to the opponents of the World Court since they had never counted on more than 30 votes against the treaty. Twelve long years of careful planning and maneuvering were scrapped when the administration met its first serious defeat. Every strategist that the administration could find was used to bring enough pressure to bear to secure ratification. The immediate local outcome was regarded as even more significant than the international implications for the failure of the administration to hold the Democratic majority in line seems to indicate the possibility of opposition to other important legislation.

Bonus

Wednesday, January 30th, Congressmen Patman, Truax, and the writer spoke on the present status of Bonus legislation. All angles of both Patman's Bill and Vinson's Bill were discussed. Patman's Bill provides payment by issuance of new money, which would not cost the taxpayers anything, and save them about $1,500,000,000. Vinson's Bill provides direct appropriation which must be paid by new taxes or by a bond issue which would pay the bankers over $2,000,000,000 in interest and which of course would cost the taxpayers that much additional. House sentiment strongly favors the Patman Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bengel left Wednesday for Mineral Wells for an indefinite stay. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Moyer, who has been visiting in the Bengel home. She will return to her home at Honey Grove after a short stay in Mineral Wells.

Miss Mary-Hope Smith and Miss Madie Waddell who are attending Westmoreland College at San Antonio, spent the week end here with Miss Smith's mother, Mrs. J. R. Smith. They were met in Abilene by Mrs. Smith, Miss Virginia Smith and Mrs. R. C. Johnson.

Announcing a Change in Policy

Heretofore for many years The Munday Times has carried a large number of delinquent subscribers from year to year, but due to changing conditions we have found it necessary to make some drastic changes in our policy with subscribers, since the costs entering into the publishing of the paper have materially increased.

Therefore, beginning February 1, 1935 all subscribers whose subscriptions are not paid in advance will be dropped from our list.

We do not take this action out of distrust of any subscriber, but for the plain, simple reason that we cannot continue to do as we have done in the past and remain in business.

But before we take the above action we are anxious to place our list in as good condition as is possible, and we are therefore going to make a special rate of $1.00 per year on The Times from February 1st to February 16th, inclusive. This rate will apply on subscriptions that are delinquent as well as new subscriptions, and will positively be placed back at $1.50 per year at the expiration of this period, so let us ask for your cooperation.

Following this policy we feel that we can make some decided improvements in the paper which were impossible under our past policy, and we respectfully solicit the cooperation of our subscribers to the end that we may give you a local newspaper worthy of your patronage, to which end we shall continue to strive.

Mr. Harber asked the Geometry class how they would like to have school on Saturday and a holiday Monday. Some few liked the idea, while others remarked it would just be another drowsy day every Tuesday.

Ball games were centers of attraction last week, so thinks the faculty, but how could they expect us to be an "A" student all the time? We are very sorry so many of our players were injured. Three of them are absent from school today. Their health is not only temporarily impaired, but they are getting behind in their school work.

Pupils in Civics are having as much fun as they are learning while impeaching Foreman Nix under the name of Jim Ferguson. All the witnesses seem to get mixed up. Before it is over, it may prove to be as important a case as Hauptmann's.

Miss Blanton asked the English IV class how to spell "banana."
 J.C.: "I know how, teacher."
 Miss Blanton: "Then spell it."
 J.C.: "Ba-na-na-na-na, ah, ah, ah, teacher, I know how, but I don't know when to stop."

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Our senior boys have won the last 22 games of basketball that they have played.

We are losing 4 of our senior boys this year from graduation. Rex Howell, captain and guard this year and captain last year, and J. C. Walling, center, from the main string; Herman Reeves and Rogers Curry from the second string.

Mat Verbalan, a forward, made 43 points in three quarters against Knox City.

J. C. Walling frowns when he misses a crisp shot or fumbles the ball.

Oklahoma defeated our boys 50-19 for district championship.

Our senior boys defeated the Monday Intermittents 21-18 last Saturday night.

We need a hospital and a doctor's office in our school for three of our girls were knocked out during the tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Sunset gave the tournament, and Sunset won first place and got the trophy.

Our girls have only lost two games to Bonarton and tied a third game with them.

The County Tournament which is to be held at Sunset will be the 14th and 15th of this month.

The senior girls are planning to enter a tournament at Ruby the 14th and 15th of this month. They do not plan to enter the county basketball tournament.

HUMOR

He paid no more attention to me than if I were a good piece of advice.

"Do I believe a woman can amount to as much as a man? No, I don't. How can she when a man has got a wife to help him?" observed the Irishman.

It's a great kindness to trust people with a secret. They feel so important while telling it.

J.C. says: "Son-rise at our place is 5:30 A.M."

Some cause happiness wherever they go; others whenever they go.

This conversation between two members of the civics class was overheard on the eve of the impeachment trial.

"It's going to be a real battle of wits, I tell you," said Herman, prosecuting attorney.

"How brave of you to go unarm-ed," answered Ruby, his assistant.

SENIOR REPORT

The Seniors feel rather proud of their basketball boys for playing such good basketball last Thursday, Friday and Saturday night.

Did you know that:

J.C. seems to be falling or at least has fallen for a Sophomore girl? (Ask Juanita Flenniken who it is.)

Rex also seems to admire another Juanita and another Sophomore.

Edna! Just think of it. Edna going with a Freshman boy. (Askelon might furnish a little information along this line.)

Rogers still seems to like to take Senior girls home from ball games?

Howard doesn't express himself much anymore? I don't know why but I heard a certain Junior girl talking the other day and I could almost guess.

A rumor is out that Pete Swamer a junior boy, took a senior girl home from the ball game one night last week. How about it, Brucilla?

Our civics class is having a rather lively time this week. We are having court. Let's hope the witnesses don't get as tangled up as they did before.

"Mr. Kimbrough, the defendant's lawyer, can ask more questions than any man I have ever seen," says Sena Mae.

JUNIOR REPORT

We finished our drama by Shakespeare, and it probably was not as hard as everyone thought.

Some of the Juniors are injured, and we are sorry for that. But we are proud of their good playing in the games last week.

Most of the boys in the Junior Class are waiting for a girl's basketball tournament every week. They find that some of the girls are not hard to look at.

Mr. Akin: "What advantage did the South have over the North in the Civil War?"

Jimmie: "They had more men to shoot at."

SOCIETY

KUEHLER-HOMER

On Wednesday morning, January 30th, 1935, Miss Victoria Kuehler everyone is informed of it through the laughing and talking about it at noon. We had a very quiet noon period.

Girls representing three counties were at Sunset playing in the invitation tournament. The boys do not seem to have had any success in "catching a girl" or we would have heard about it.

Mary Helen Partridge learned to ride a bicycle. As a result she has several skinned and bruised places and is rather "sore."

Amerolis Hutcheson did not get to come to school Friday or play ball during the week-end because of illness. However, she is better today.

FRESHMAN REPORT

There have been a good many of the Freshmen absent lately from ball games. Ida Lou Walling was absent Monday and unable to stand long on her feet, as a result of the basketball game-between Sunset and Knox City Saturday night. Alton Newberry was absent from school because of sickness (he said). We think it was because he wanted to stay at home.

Wednesday Club in Davis Home
 The Wednesday Bridge Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Joe Davis hostess.

A Valentine motif was emphasized in party details, and a refreshment plate of banana peanut salad, bread and butter sandwiches, fruit cake, hot coca and mints was served. Mesdames Fred Broach, W. H. Atkinson, Russell Matson, Leland Hannah, Carl Jungman and Chas. Mayes.

Mrs. Dorse Rogers Entertains New Deal Club
 Mrs. Dorse Rogers was hostess to the New Deal Club Wednesday afternoon, placing two tables for bridge. Mrs. R. C. Johnson and Mrs. Jimmie Harpham tied for high score honors.

A refreshment plate of tinted apples filled with salad, sandwiches, olives, potato chips, cookies and coffee was served while candy was passed during the games. Guests included Mesdames W. M. Huskinson, J. C. Harpham, Jack Mayes, T. E. Dickerson, E. M. Roberts, Jr., R. C. Johnson and Earl Holt of Abilene.

Party in Club House
 The Munday Club House was the scene of two prettily appointed parties Monday evening and Tuesday evening when Mrs. Ira Bowden, Mrs. Riley B. Harrell and Mrs. W. H. Chapman entertained two groups with bridge and 42, using a Valentine motif for party details, with silver and red colors featured in all appointments.

Refreshments of chicken salad, toasted crackers, olives, angel food squares and hot tea was served.

Monday evening bridge guests were Messrs and Mesdames R. B. Davy, J. H. Bass, Oates Golden, J. D. Kethley, Fred Broach, Tom Haney, E. W. McGlothlin, W. R. Moore, H. A. Pendleton, Glenn McGlothlin, Russell Matson, L. S. Harligree, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Farrington, Dr. and Mrs. Joe Davis, Mesdames L. M. Palmer, Jones, Louise Ingram, R. H. Neff and Mrs. J. D. H. D. CLUBS

DRY 'EM YOURSELF—IT'S EASY

This formula for drying peaches was given by Mrs. J. R. King, a prospective member of the Munday Home Demonstration Club.

"After washing the peaches, they were halved, placed on a screen and put on the bar to dry; they were brought in each night. After drying this way for a week, the peaches were dipped in hot water, given three to five washings, and then prevented from drying on 45 pounds of the desired product.

NEW HOPE PRESIDENT GIVES US NEW HOPE

Since the president of the New Hope Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. E. B. Frasure, had no tin cans left in which to can her sausage, she finds other means of preserving it.

"I put the sausage in a large steamer, let heat completely, and then pack it down solid in glass jars and processed as in tin cans. I have not lost a single jar, and I am quite enthusiastic over my own experiment."

HOME DEMONSTRATION COUNCIL MEETS WITH NEW HOME AGENT

The Knox County Home Demonstration Council met in the Study Club room in Benjamin, February 2, with 29 representatives from 7 Home Demonstration Clubs present.

Mrs. Frank Bosley, the Council Chairman, called the meeting to order.

Several new phases of work were discussed, one being the organization of a Writer's Conference, being made up of the Reporter from each club. This committee shall meet every first Saturday in each month, in the Study Club room, as does the Council. The sponsors for the H-H clubs shall meet every other first Saturday also in the Study Club room.

Members are urged to bring their entries by February 27th, to the Home Agent's office, for the Meat Show, being held in Wichita Falls, March 1-2. A minimum of 35 entries from a county must be made.

for the county prize.

To make the County one hundred per cent in the Scholarship fund, every member of each club must give 5 cents. Last year Knox County was third in the State. The Chairman urges all to make Knox County first in the State this year.

After the business meeting, Mrs. George Weber, Goree, vice-chairman of the Council, led the program on the AAA. The subject for the program was: "The AAA Cotton Program Does Not Threaten Our Supremacy." This subject is discussed in detail at each individual club the second meeting of each month.

Today and Tomorrow

(Continued from Page One) into the minds of an increasing number of people, including academic theorists, that there is one cause and only one for the world's economic distress. That cause is the war of 1914-1918, which involved almost the entire world, and destroyed countless hundreds of billions of wealth, tens of millions of the ablest and most promising young men of all nations, and the morale—call it faith or hope if you like—of scores of millions more.

It wasn't the Wall Street crash, or the German inflation, or the Russian revolution, or the deliberate act of international bankers or anything except the impossibility of readjusting the whole world at once to a new state of things caused by the war that brought on this depression, which America was one of the last nations to feel, since we had more wealth in reserve and had lost less than any other nation.

If we would keep that understanding in mind, and realize that we, like the rest of the world, have got to go along for a generation or two on a poverty basis, until we can accumulate more wealth to replace what the war destroyed, there would not be so many dreams of performing the impossible task of complete recovery by artificial methods, over to look to the future hopefully.
