"In the good ole' summer time!"
Well, the good ole' summer time IS here, folks! 100 degrees in the shade and still going up. Talking about summer time reminds me of Prickly Heat—that "itching" annoyance—which we are all familiar with. Why not use "Haywood's Prickly Heat Powder"? GUARANTEED FOR RESULTS—25c.

"Did he do all of it?" was the next query.

Uncle Jim Says

"Contour furrows help keep land in place, held rainfall, and reduce damage from blowing."

The practice of terracing Texas farms, once confined largely to East Texas and designed primarily to hold soil in place, has spread rapidly to the west, north and northwest sections of the State. The reason for terracing and contouring in the less humid areas of the State is not so much to hold the soil as it is to hold the rainfall. Wheat farmers of the northwest are reporting exceptional yields through the use of contouring practices, while fields not treated to hold rainfall are far behind in their per acre yield.

In the Texas panhandle 1,738,762 acres were treated in the spring of 1936 to control wind erosion. Over the State as a whole, more than 13 million acres have been terraced or contoured since 1916, of which almost 4 million acres were treated in 1936.

Contouring and terracing have spread from cultivated land to pastures and to ranges. At the Spur Experiment Station, it was found that contouring tripled the yield of grasses.

The value of these soil and water conservation practices to the State as a whole and to individual farmers and ranchmen cannot be disputed. Under the Agricultural Conservation Program, farmers and ranchmen receive grants for terracing and contouring which carry part of the cost of the construction work.

Our country has a birthday --
We all will celebrate
We'll sing and shout and wave our flags
It's such a happy date.

It has been just exactly one hundred and sixty-one years since a daring band, risking all declared that this nation must be. Resting on the strong foundation of Liberty a great nation has been erected out of character, strength of purpose, justice and honesty. A great Democracy . . . a great people. It comes over us in great waves of pride, this remembering, as we see the flag go by. That glorious emblem which stands for honor, character and country. It means home too. For without it we would not know what the word means. Our children would be shared by the government, fed by the government and housed by the government, like well cared for animals as they are in Russia. But here in this greatest land on the face of God's earth we enjoy all the things about us that are too many to enumerate. Freedom . . . lasting as the hills and broad as the seas, it is all ours because brave bands of men risked their all to make all this possible for us.

Can you remember how you hoarded your pennies for the Glorious Fourth? How you donned your best white flower sprigged dimity flaunting a big pink sash . . . How your plaits were so tight that your eyebrows drew up in perpetual inquiry? How you peeled hardboiled eggs and dropped them in the beet juice . . . helped mother pinch the fried pie dough together in flutes of tasty greasy goodness . . . how you helped turn the ice cream freezer . . . how you churned your regular three hundred licks before you could don the finery and go sit in the surrey and wait while the food was packed? Can you remember the shiny new patent leather slippers which you rubbed with cold biscuits to make the dazzle the eyes of the other kids who would ride on the same merry go round. Ahhh those were the days, I'm remembering. I can still smell the prairie hay that I raked in long golden ripples behind a team of "peet" mules days before, at ten cents an hour that the pink lemonade, and sky rockets and rides could all be mine as long as the money lasted. Memory must be the seed which lodges in the cavity of the tooth of time, sweetening the taste long after the luscious berries of youth have been eaten.

Who can remember when a wart on a woman's nose was a worse blemish than a mole on her calf?

To one of Oklahoma's outstanding poets, Mrs. Verner G. Early, this week was presented the poetry parchment given each year to the person in each state who is judged to have done the most for poetry in the state.

The prize is awarded following the close of Poetry week at the last of May by the officers of the poetry week contest. Miss Anita Brown, New York City, is president of the association.

Mrs. Early, whose poems have been written under the name, Pige Early, is a charter member and recording secretary of the American Poetry Society.

In 1936, Mrs. Early was the only Oklahoma poet and one of the few American poets in the Spring Anthology published by the Michael Press in London, England.

Mrs. Early is the newly appointed chairman of the Oklahoma District of the National League of Penwomen, and has been active in the poetry work of the Federation of Women's clubs.

I want to sign off this week with a bit of beauty which I gleaned from the Oklahoma Club Woman, Alta Heacock whom you all know and have met often in this column as well as many more prominent places as a knack of finding and sharing such things, so our thanks must go to her for the following:

"Lord, make me an instrument thy peace. Where there is hate, may I bring love; where offence, may I bring pardon; may I bring union in place of discord; truth, replacing error; faith, where there was doubt; hope for despair; light where there was darkness; joy to

Plans Completed On NYA Projects

Austin, June 29.—J. C. Kellam, Texas Director of the National Youth Administration has announced that plans are being completed for operating a work project for six weeks this summer at several Texas agricultural colleges, on which about 550 needy rural youths who are definitely interested in farming will be given part-time employment. During their free time they will receive elementary instruction in agriculture. Final approval of the work project may be announced within the next ten days, he said.

The work project is planned to operate from July 15 to August 31. The training course will parallel the work project, with youths working a part of the day and attending special agricultural classes the other part of the time. Mr. Kellam said it is planned to send 200 boys to Texas A. & M. College, 150 boys to North Texas Agricultural College at Arlington, 150 boys to John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville, and 50 negro boys to Prairie View College at Prairie View. Other colleges may be added to the list later. Members of the regular faculty of each college will be in charge of the course of instruction. Mr. Kellam said, and Superintendent of Public Instruction L. A. Woods has agreed that members of the state Division of Vocational Education staff will be available for assignment to each of the participating colleges.

"Until January 1, 1942, the only claims that are payable are those involving lump-sum and death payments, amounting to 31-2 per cent of total wages received from covered employment," Tutt continued. "After that date the major program of monthly benefits to qualified workers in commerce and industry will begin. Benefits are based on wages received for services in covered employment from the beginning of the year 1937 to age 65, and the wage record in the workers social security account will be used in determining benefits. Possession of an account number, therefore, is essential in the maintenance of proper wage records."

Do You Know The Value Of Eyes?

Accident Insurance Companies Place Money Value On Eyes
But They're More Valuable To You Than All The Gold

Your eyes! Do you know the market value of your eyes? Do you know how much the courts would make anyone pay if he accidentally snatched away usefulness of the two eyes with which you are reading these lines? $10,000. And loss of one eye, according to accident insurance contracts, is worth $2,500. Yes, the current value of the eyes you are directing toward this page is probably greater than that of the house you live in. Your two eyes, even by the poorly adjusted money scales of value of the market place, are worth as much as 20 Ford cars.

As you read this print, what are you doing with your eyes? For one thing your eyes are moving. Pulled by muscles—just as you would pull on the reins in driving a horse—your eyes make four or five jogs from left to right. Then they sweep back to the left and down a bit to the beginning of the next line. If you were reading Thackeray's Vanity Fair, your eyes would move about 150,000 "looks" from beginning to end. No wonder eyes get tired.

SEE YOUR OPTOMETRIST AT LEAST ONCE A YEAR TO KEEP YOUR EYES IN CONDITION.

The cost of eye care is very small considering the value of the only pair of eyes you will ever have.

Library Project Under Way For County Schools

WPA Will Place One or Two Persons in Charge of School Libraries

In order to serve all the schools in the county during the school year 1937-38, a county-wide library project is to be sponsored by the County Superintendent and County Board of Education. Under the new program, the Works Progress Administration will place one or two persons in all schools of six teachers or more, provided there is a need for such service.

Mr. J. Lyndal Hughes, County Superintendent, visited the WPA office in the Federal Building, Fort Worth, Texas, on Monday, June 21. At that time he was advised that the WPA would not operate the individual projects as heretofore, but that they would be county-wide in scope.

A person who has had library science training is selected to supervise and keep the time of all the workers of the project. This service is not to replace the service of any regularly employed person in the libraries. All the workers are to be certified persons, but the project supervisor may be non-certified. All workers must possess high school qualifications or the equivalent. Assistant librarians may be classed as intermediate and skilled workers, and librarian helpers as unskilled.

The following are types of service which will be permissible:
Cataloging and indexing
Typing cards
Filing
Reference work
Maintenance of free reading rooms.

Story telling hours for children
Rearranging books and exhibits
Disseminating general information to the public relative to the facilities of the library
Delivering books to shut-ins.
Extension library services in communities where no such services are available, reading rooms will be opened and books and magazines circulated to people in isolated communities.

The session for county superintendents, will offer the school men the opportunity to work out something constructive and a means of setting in motion forces that result in real accomplishment.

Independence

It is one of the characteristics of a free people that they should seek for themselves as individuals the independence that they achieved collectively as a nation. There is no more clearer reason, then, why America is a country in which thrift and financial foresight have been the twin keystones of progress.

JUST as the financial well-being of the United States rests upon its commercial and savings banks, so the integrity of these banks rests in turn upon the thrift, industry and confidence of the American people. As one of those banks it is with pride that we, on the Fourth of July, greet those persevering men and women who through their banking institutions have made America a great and prosperous nation.

ORANGE CREAM SHERBET

No dessert is more popular than homemade ice cream or sherbet. And today these delicious treats are more popular than ever because the new ice cream freezers are so efficient that they actually freeze ice cream in just about 5 minutes!

- 1 tablespoon granulated gelatin
 - 1-2 cup cold water
 - 1-2 cups sugar
 - 1-2 cups orange juice
 - 2 tablespoons grated orange rind
 - 2-3 cup lemon juice
 - 2 cups coffee cream
 - 1-4 teaspoon salt
 - 2 eggs (beaten separately)
- Soak the gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes. Dissolve sugar in boiling water and add to the gelatin stirring until dissolved. Add the orange juice, coffee cream, salt and beaten egg yolks. Fold in the beaten egg whites and pour mixture into freezer container of modern ice cream freezer. Assemble and cover. Then pack mixture of crushed ice and rock salt (use 3 parts ice to one part salt, by volume) around the freezing container. Turn crank slowly but steadily. When mixture becomes too stiff to turn remove cover carefully, take out dasher and pack down evenly with spoon. Cover ice cream with wax paper and replace cover. Re-pack. Cover and allow to harden at least one hour before serving.

FROSTED MOCHA

If you want to serve something special to your guests on a hot July afternoon, frosted coffee is the perfect "something." To make this delicious treat, first make your best "Grade A" steaming hot coffee. Chill the coffee by pouring it over taste-free chipped ice which you can easily obtain from the crystal-clear cake of ice in your modern air-conditioned ice refrigerator.

CALIFORNIA FILLING

Here is a delicious topper offer filling for gingerbread or cake:

- 1-3-4 cups boiling water
- 1 cup raisins (chopped)
- 1-2 cup uncooked dried apricots (chopped)
- 1-2 cup pitted dates (chopped)
- 1-2 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice

Three Governors Will Head Parade At Cowboy Reunion

Paul Whiteman, Jazz King, to Ride With Governors In Grand Parade, July 2

Stamford, June 29.—Paul Whiteman, jazz king who has gone western, will ride with the governors of three states at the head of the grand parade at the Texas Cowboy Reunion on July 2. The Reunion will last three days starting July 1.

Whiteman's acceptance of an invitation to attend the Reunion and appear in the parade has just been received. The three governors accepted some time ago. They are Governor Clyde Tingley of New Mexico, Governor Carl E. Bailey of Arkansas and Governor Jas. V. Allred of Texas. Governor Allred is an annual visitor at the Reunion.

Five brass bands will march in the parade. Warren B. Tayman, parade chairman, announced. They are the Abilene Eagles High School Band, Haskell Municipal Band, Breckenridge High School Band, Cisco High School Band and the American Legion Band of Stamford.

The parade promises to be the biggest in the history of the Reunion being more than a mile in length. Probably two hundred cowboys, fifty cowgirls, besides junior cowboys and other riders emergencies; moreover, it can be made up at any convenient time, and if stored in one of the modern ice refrigerators, it will not be necessary to even cover the container in which it is placed.

BRAVE NEW DISHES

Concocting left-overs into different and delicious dishes requires imagination on the part of the homemaker. Left-overs, of course, have to be appetizing and palatable. Dried up bits of this and that can't possibly inspire a work of culinary art, so they generally get thrown out. Provident homemakers, however, are finding that left-overs are kept fresh in a modern air-conditioned ice refrigerator and little bits of this and that can be converted into fascinating fare—first aids to the budget.

GRANDMA'S BAKED ONIONS

8 white onions (medium size)
1 cup diced cooked ham
1 cup canned corn
1 teaspoon sugar
Paprika
1-4 cup boiling water

SAVORY SANDWICH FILLING

Are you interested in a delicious sandwich filling that will come in handy on many occasions when a snack is in order? Then, here it is: 1 lb. American cheese
1-4 lb dried beef
1 cup condensed tomato soup
Run cheese and beef through food chopper, then moisten with the tomato soup. You will find that this filling will keep deliciously moist and fresh if stored in the clean-washed, properly moist atmosphere of a modern ice refrigerator.

TEA FOR TWO—AND MORE

If you would like to know just how an expert makes a fragrant and refreshing glass of iced tea just read these lines. 1. Rinse teapot with boiling water. 2. Place tea in teapot—allowing one teaspoon of tea per cup to be made. 3. Pour freshly boiling water over the tea leaves. 4. Allow tea to steep—not boil—for 3-4 minutes according to strength desired. 5. Col hot tea infusion quickly by pouring it over a generous supply of taste-free chipped ice. (This is the time of year when homemakers particularly appreciate their modern air-conditioned ice refrigerators, for chipped ice and crystal-clear ice cubes are easily and quickly obtainable.) Serve tea at once with lemon or cream, as desired. If you wish to add a few cloves to the tea while it is steeping, they will add an enchanting spiciness.

will be in the procession. Chuck wagons just in from the spring round-ups on West Texas ranches will rumble along the streets, drawn by mule teams. An ancient stage coach will be among the units reminiscent of pioneer days. Decorated floats and other commercial entries promise to be larger in number than ever before. The Business and Professional Women's Club has charge of the commercial and individual entries this year.

Prizes will be awarded for the best entries in the various divisions of the parade as follows: Commercial entries, first prize $25; second $15; best out-of-town entry, $10; most typical ranch entry $10; best individual entry $10; juvenile entry $10.

Besides the grand parade which starts at 11 a.m. on July 2, lesser parades will be held on the other two days, July 1 and July 3.

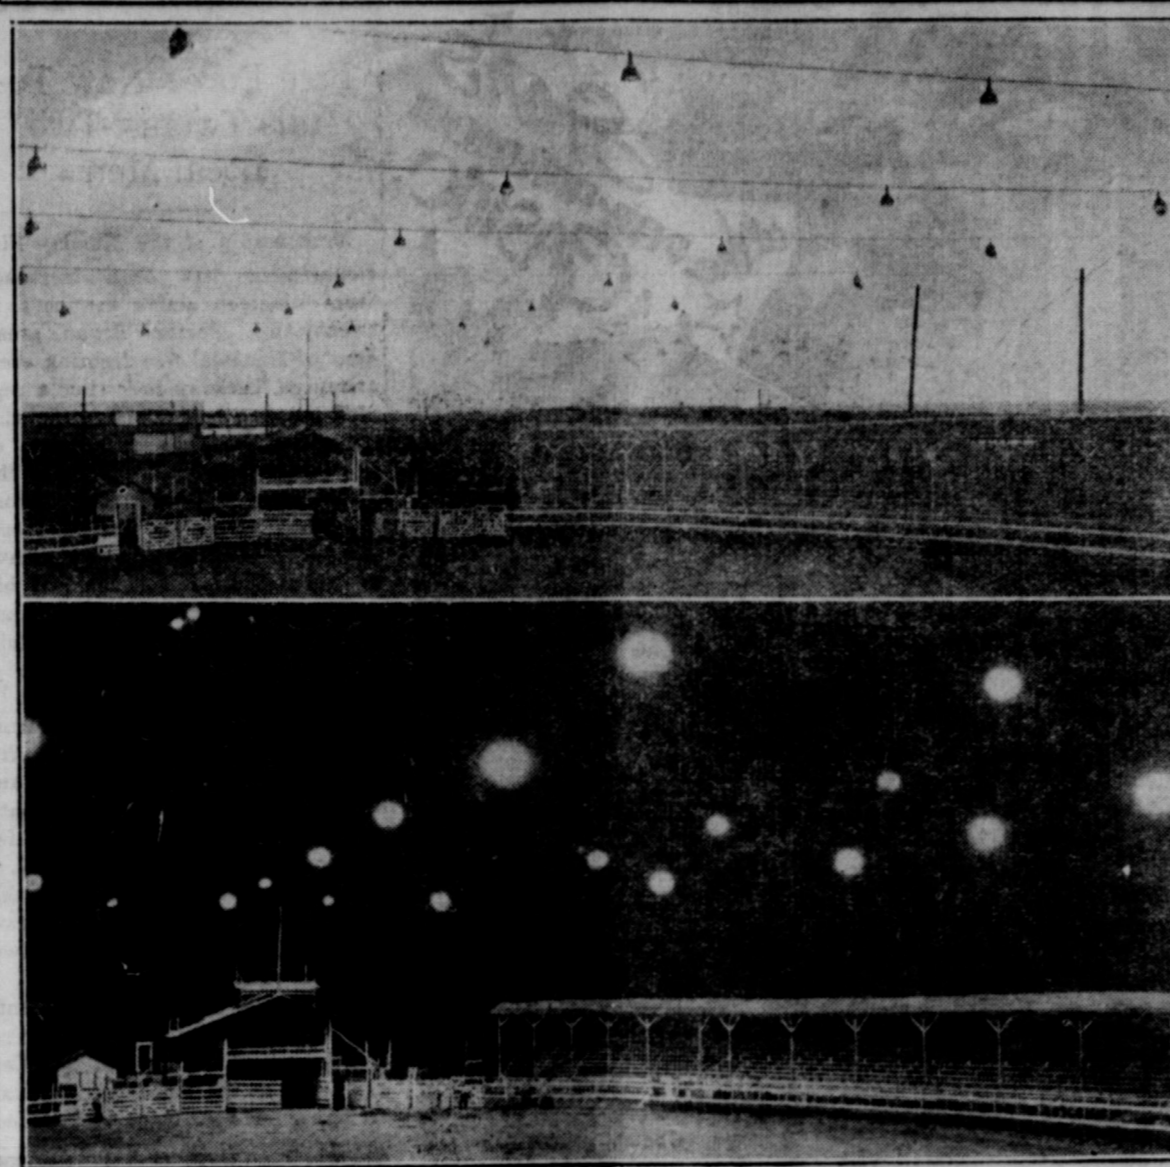

Two of the exhibition palaces at the West's World's Fair will become permanent hangars for a super-metropolitan airport when the 1939 Exposition at San Francisco closes.

Reclamation of Treasure Island, San Francisco Bay site for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, is nearly completed.

A special highway system on Yerba Buena Island will link the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge with Treasure Island, site of the 1939 World's Fair.

COWBOYS TO "DO STUFF" UNDER BRIGHT LIGHTS

Eight times as much light as in previous years will beam upon rodeo performers in the arena of the Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford July 1-2-3. Above is a daylight view of the arena in contrast to the lighted scene by night (below) when cowboys will "do their stuff" under 26 overhead lighting units of 1,500 watts each—just installed by the West Texas Utilities Company. Eighteen lighting units of 1,500 watts each light up the Reunion grounds.

AT THE CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH
"To possess without utilizing tends to lessen the possession." Jesus took this "truism" as a matter of fact in his parable of the "Talents" and also the "Sower of the Seed." The correctness of his attitude toward possession is thoroughly in keeping with the facts found in the law of economy of our day. If this law holds good in the religious world some of our holdings may not be of very much importance after all. Ones religious life will usually bear a bit more vigilance.

We are hearing good reports from the "Layman's Day Program" held on June 20th. Knowing from past contact, the type of man and the content of his message, Mr. Benett is worthy of any expression of commendation. He is a practical man with a practical message. I appreciate the Lamen holding this service. Not only a helpful service but taking care of the services in my absence.

A number of the Intermediates met on the church lawn Tuesday p.m. for a regular get together meeting. They liked it so well that a regular Tuesday evening program was arranged and a larger attendance is expected for next week. From their enthusiastic response to plans for reaching the unreacheds, they are after those whose ages range from ten to fifteen.

The attendance was good last Sunday a.m., but fell off somewhat to the evening service. During July and August our evening services will be held on the lawn just east of the church. The open-air service will attract many who find the house too warm and confining. Your presence at the services is always appreciated even though this may not be your church home. While visiting in town visit the church too.

H. A. Longino, Pastor

Battleships from the nations of the world will anchor off Treasure Island, site of the 1929 Golden Gate International Exposition during the World's Fair of the West.

Among the future large cities of the world, says Roger Babson, noted analyst, San Francisco, scene of a world's fair in 1939, will be among the first 13. All 13, he says, will border on the Pacific.

San Francisco's world fair in 1939 will use "black light" for highlighting exhibit murals. "Black light" is that light on the other side of ultra-violet and is invisible to the naked eye.

FOILING THE SUMMER THIEF

Summer is here—and the burglar is getting out his housebreaking tools. There are six burglary, robbery and theft losses for every fire loss, according to the Association of Casualty and Surety Executives. The vacation months, when so many residences are empty and unguarded, provide ideal working conditions for the housebreaker. He does not have to be wary of sleepers who may wake momentarily and sound an alarm. He need have no fear that a dog's angry barking will reveal his presence. He can work leisurely and thoroughly.

If persons who are leaving their homes unoccupied even for a short time this summer will take the following precautions, they will add greatly to their protection and peace of mind.

1. Lock securely all doors, windows or other entrances to the house.
2. Inform the police that your house will be empty. They can keep watch on it and try the doors and windows at regular intervals.

3. Take with you or lock securely all jewelry, silverware, furs, valuable clothing and other articles easily converted into cash by a thief.
4. Be sure to suspend all deliveries, such as milk, papers, mail. A heap of newspapers or milk bottles on a porch are sure signs that a house is unoccupied.
In view of the increasing widespread threat of the burglary hazard to property, local citizens should take extra precautions at this time of the year. That is the most effective way they can aid crime control in the community.

Three Men Added To Local Fire Department During Past Week; 18 New Raincoats Issued

Fire Force Now Totals Twenty-Two Local Men

Membership of the Munday Fire Department has been increased from nineteen active members to twenty-two, Porter Bryan, president of the local fire fighting crew announced Tuesday following a regular meeting held Monday night.
 Harvey Lee, plant foreman of the Times, was again placed on the active list, since his return from Stamford, where he has been employed. Lee obtained a years leave of absence when he changed his residence to Stamford. The other additions were new members, Robert Layne and G. R. Eiland, Jr.
Slickers Added to Equipment
 Local fire fighting apparatus, which is above average for a city of Munday's size, was given another boost when 18 new raincoats were distributed among fire department members the past week.
 The monthly program of the local department includes two monthly business meetings and two practice sessions.
 Business of the local department, and discussion of fire hazards, fire fighting methods and safety rules are heard at the meetings. Actual stringing of hose lines is included in the practice sessions.

 There has not been a single serious conflagration this year and the few runs the department has made resulted in slight damage from fire, smoke and water. Fire loss is far below normal.
 By carrying on the twice a month practice sessions, the local fire insurance key rate is two per cent lower. Bryan stated that the key rate would automatically become ten per cent lower if a man was hired to stay at the fire station.
 The local department is self supporting, in that most of their expenses are paid by money raised by the membership.
