Rains Bring Halt to Cotton Gathering in Munday Sector

RAINS HALT ALL COTTON PICKING IN MUNDAY AREA

Years Rainfall Total Is Boosted Past 17 Inches

RAINS BENEFIT WHEAT SECTION 12,569 Bales - Cotton Ginned in County On October 1

Six consecutive days of rain and heavy overcast skies brought all cotton gathering operations to a complete standstill this week. A total of 1.89 inches of moisture fell during the period.

Some farmers believe that it will be at least five days before picking will get under way again, providing the sun comes out with a clear sky. With the near two inches of rainfall this week, the years total rainfall for Munday was boosted to 17.23 inches, compared to 20.90 for the same period last year. However, the rains this year have been coming at more regular intervals and have been more beneficial to crops.

Temperature took a big drop and Wednesday night reached a low of 46 degrees, just 14 degrees above freezing. The high for Wednesday was 60 compared to 84 last year for the same date. The rains were very beneficial to the wheat lands of the area, especially to the wheat that had been planted previous to the rains. Farmers throughout the district are making preparations to sow grain as soon as the weather permits.

County Treasurer J. T. House Dies Monday Afternoon

Death, Monday, claimed one of Knox County's most beloved characters, when J. T. "Uncle Trav" House, county treasurer for at least a score of years, died at 1:15 p.m. House was in his office sitting in a chair leaning against the wall reading a newspaper, when he succumbed to heart attack. He was discovered sitting in the chair a few minutes later by courthouse employees.

Aged 74 years, "Uncle Trav" had been prominent in county political and civic activities for years. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the First Christian Church of Benjamin with the Rev. J. E. Chase officiating. Burial was made in the Benjamin cemetery. A large host of friends and relatives gathered for the services, and many more were kept away due to adverse weather conditions. He is survived by a widow and five children.

WHAT HAPPENS TO TAX DOLLAR?

The taxpayers of Knox County probably don't know just what their money is spent for. They know, however, that they have to pay them and they do pay, at least most of them.

County Judge E. L. Covey was in the office the other day and this is the way the taxpayers dollar is sliced up among the different county departments, he reported.

Highway fund.....	30c
Courthouse bonds.....	25c
Hospital bonds.....	10c

The more than 500 students of the Weinert Schools were back in school Monday morning of this week following a four weeks period during which the schools were closed for cotton picking.

Superintendent Duff and the faculty staff of 15 instructors were going through routine work, in a manner that left the impression that school had not been closed.

Central West Texas Fair and Races Will Open Next Wednesday Haskell

Haskell, Texas, Oct. 14—With one of the most varied presentations in years, the annual Central West Texas Fair will be officially opened here Wednesday, October 20.

"Something doing every day" was the slogan adopted by the directors of the association sponsoring, and nothing has been left undone to make the fall festival outstanding. Interest of the majority of visitors will probably be centered around the thrilling automobile races and the annual Pioneer's Parley. Six races daily, with some of the most daring drivers making mid-western and coast meets, slated to appear, have been carded for Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. The Pioneer's Parley, which

CROP FORECAST UP MILLION AND HALF BALES; PRICE DROPS

The United States cotton estimate for 1937 was boosted 1,473,000 bales over the estimate of September 1st, last Friday. The new forecast ran this years production up to the second highest figure in the nations history. The peak year, 1926, saw 17,978,000 bales ginned. Following on the heels of the increased crop production came a sharp decline in the cotton market, which dropped from $1.70 to $2.10 a bale on the New Orleans market.

Average yield per acre was placed at 249.3 pounds with the new forecast, a new all time high, for a 79 per cent of a normal. The market was somewhat unsteady, and was selling below nine cents in spite of the government loan set at that figure. The early season market was 14 cents per pound, which was steadily lowered with each succeeding forecast until the present low level was reached. Texas production was considered 79 per cent of normal and estimated bales production set at 5,025,000 top for the nation. Next to the Lone Star state was Mississippi was 89 and 2,400,000 bales followed by Arkansas, 81 and 1,750,000, Georgia, 75 and 1,430,000, Alabama, 82 and 1,425,000 and Louisiana, 86 and 1,000,000 bales. The forecast was based on 33,736,000 acres in cotton cultivation for this year.

C. R. Elliott, local stockman and feeder, is now feeding out a herd of cattle and steers at the West Texas Cottonoil company feed pens south of the city.

Hefner Girl is Dead Following A Short Illness
Ruth Howard, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homa Howard of the Hefner community passed away last Wednesday following a short illness.

Elliott has 500 head of steers that he is feeding out that belong to Smyth Bros., cattlemen of Uvalde, Texas, and 300 head of steers that belong to Dolf Briscoe, also of Uvalde, Texas. Another herd of 300 yearling heifers is being fed out by C. H. Giddings, local cattleman, at the pens. Giddings owns the yearlings.

Rev. S. E. Stevenson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Goree, conducted the funeral services Thursday afternoon at the Goree Church. Stevenson was assisted in the services by J. B. Baker, of Goree, and Oscar Bryant, of Dallas. Bryant was an uncle of the small child.

The two men are feeding the cattle and steers hula and meal made at the cottonoil mill, and will feed them until they are ready for the market. When they are fattened out, they will be moved out and others will probably be moved in, Elliott stated.

Interment was made in the Goree cemetery. Ruth is survived by her parents, and two sisters, Dorothy and Jennie Lee. Relatives from several nearby cities attended the services to pay last respects to the girl.

Local Firemen Are Making Inspections

Members of the Munday Fire Department made another tour of inspection seeking fire hazards. Tuesday afternoon, which will bring to near completion of the business section of the city.

Repainting Store And Station Front
The E. A. Hollar filling station and grocery store on west main street was receiving a coat of paint the first of the week.

After checking each business house and fixtures, the men left the store owner of the defects in the building that cause fire under certain conditions.

Like many other business firms that have redecorated this fall, Hollar is having the ceiling of the building in the filling station driveway painted.

Cooperation is urged by business men in eliminating the various hazards.

May Discontinue Old Age Grants For Two Months
Discontinuance of old age assistance after October, or a proration resulting in a sharp reduction in grants, was forecast this week by the Texas Board of Control in an official communication addressed to State Representative Harry N. Graves.

The official statement indicated the possibility that payments to the needy might not be made in November, December, January and, probably in February. Cause of the crisis, as explained by the members of the Board of Control, which is the Old Age Assistance Commission, is that all, or nearly all, of the present available state assistance funds will have to be used to take care of $1,627,000 owed a Dallas bank and due not later than January 1.

Further, it was pointed out, the income from present state sources is $100,000 less each month than Texas funds paid to the needy aged, which necessitates a drastic reduction in the size of the average grant. Grants average about $14 per month. (Continued on Page 8)

Money Allocated For Farm Tenant Buying in Texas

Nearly one-fourth of the $95,000 available to start the farm tenancy program under the provision of the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant act has been allotted to the four southwestern states of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace disclosed that $2,209,984 will go to the four states, the allocation based on farm population and the prevalence of tenancy in each state.

Texas received the largest proportion of the allotments totaling $910,059. The other three states received as follows: Arkansas $487,556; Oklahoma $427,919 and Louisiana $376,890.

At the same time Wallace announced appointment of two men closely familiar with conditions in the Southwestern area to head the farm tenant purchase division of the farm security administration.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY!
 1 John 1:9—If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from unrighteousness.

Film Patrons Protest
 The sturdy people of Little Rock, Arkansas, seem to have started something—at least many will hope they have—with their newly organized Booning Club. The Booning Club goes to movies as a body. It keeps the peace all through the program until the advertising films begin to appear, then it booes—loudly and lustily and at great length.

This idea fills, as they used to say, a longfelt want. The ordinary film fan, it is safe to say, has few crosses to bear which are any heavier than the one which takes the guise of the advertising film. The thing is a nuisance pure and simple, and until now there was nothing the poor patron could do about it.

But this Booning Club—well, it looks as if Little Rock has an idea that will be copied far and wide.

Pity For Convicts
 America has had a lot of prison disturbances in recent years. On investigation, a dismaying number of them proved to be society's fault. The prison was out of date, overcrowded, filthy; the management was lax, the guards were venal, the politicians had interfered too much. And so on.

The newest outbreak, at Alcatraz, seems to stand in a class by itself. None of the above-mentioned defects applies there. Indeed, the trouble seems chiefly due to the fact that Alcatraz contains the toughest and most vicious thugs in America who don't like the way society has put them down for the count.

Alcatraz is a hardboiled place; it has to be. In this one prison, if in no other, an outbreak by the convicts will bring less public sympathy, not more.

Billion in Prosperity
 "Wrap up a billion dollars worth."
 In effect as an advertisement of the Association of American Railroads points out, this is what the rails say each year to American commerce and industry.

Last year the railroads spent more than $800,000,000 for fuel, materials and supplies. In addition, they spent $300,000,000 for new equipment and improved facilities. Railroad purchasing includes more than 70,000 different items. Every industry shares in this buying. Almost every state and city is a market for the railroads.

It is difficult to visualize the magnitude of railroad purchases. For example, the items required by railroad dining cars alone make a staggering total. Nine million pounds of potatoes—2,000,000 dozen eggs—15,000,000 pounds of meat—30,000,000 rolls—2,000,000 pounds of butter—these are but a part of the supplies needed to serve 25,000,000 meals each year. Agriculture shares in the bounty of railroad purchasing no less than industry.

What does it mean to America when this great private buying agency is forced into drastic retrenchment? You can easily answer this question for yourself from depression experiences which were felt in every industry and every section of the country. Proposed laws and measures such as are now pending in Congress, will add uncalculated financial burdens to railroad operations—so great that all operating profits would be absorbed—are a new threat to the very existence of our greatest single industry, and to all industry and all workers.

Texas Unfavorable Tax Record
 The Taxpayers Association of Texas has issued a bulletin showing the unfavorable tax record of Texas for the past 20 years, as they put it, and compared that same record with the unfavorable tax record of Nebraska from 1918 to 1927, and with the favorable tax record of that same state from 1927 to 1935.

From '18 to '27 Nebraska ran their taxation levies up from $32,950,000 to $66,000,000. Since 1927 they have lopped off their general levies until the figure hits a low of $43,878,000 for 1935. Yearly savings from the peak year have saved Nebraskans approximately $120,000,000 in taxes. The Nebraska favorable tax record.

Here is the "easy to figure out" tax story of Texas. Expenditure in 1917, $19,100,000. That figure has increased at a rapid rate with the exception of five years of small declines over the previous year in expenditures, until Texas estimated expenditures for 1937 have been set at $140,000,000. An increase of slightly more than $120,000,000.

Unquestionably, Texas has millions more of taxable raw material through development of oil and other resources, but that is no reason for spending lavishly and possibly foolishly. In fact Texas politicians and legislative solons have spent $15,000,000 more than they made and had a $6,250,000 social security program voted into the purse strings of the treasury last summer. Now the tax payer is paying for a special session called to balance the budget and raise more money to care for the program they voted for.

Where Nebraska has saved the taxpayer $120,000,000 through their favorable tax record, Texas has increased their expenditures $341,145,531. And they want more money.

Can the legislature of Texas show, on a comparative basis between the two state governments of Texas and Nebraska, why it is necessary for this commonwealth to expend approximately $100,000,000 a year more to run state governmental departments and agencies than Nebraska expends.

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERNIS

The Chains of the Constitution

Why does our Constitution limit the powers it grants to our Government?
 All recorded history—thousands of years of it—show that governments with unlimited powers always become autocratic, oppressive or despotic. The American Colonies rebelled against England and then framed our Constitution to safeguard us from that evil. By actual experience as well as from history they learned to fear an all-powerful government and so made ours a government with limited powers—with such powers only as "we the people" enumerate in our Constitution.

Concerning this, Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence and our third president, says: "Confidence is everywhere the parent of despotism. Free government is founded in jealousy and not in confidence! It is jealousy and not confidence which prescribes limited Constitutions to bind down those we much fun with their prize money as I've had in my imagination.

"In questions of power then," concludes Jefferson, "let no more be heard of confidence in man but bind him down from mischief by the chains of the Constitution."

And now our Wally's coming home. It's she who's won a prize. The light that lies in her dear eyes. That light that lies and lies.

It was Robert Browning who said, "Measure your mind's heights by the shade it casts."

Which makes me burst into a poem: Of all the fish who swim or sink The queerest are the fish that think.

Another home run for newspaper women comes to our delightful and honored friend, Lucia Ferguson, of that Scripps-Howard Columnist of Tulsa. She is to be honored on Oklahoma Day by being entered in the Hall of Fame. It comes to those who by their efforts honor and glory have been brought to their state. To Lucia, who loves to remember the country print shop, the printer's ink beneath her nails, this is a highly deserved honor and Mrs. Ferguson's friends are happy to know of this appreciation on the part of the powers that be.

"No Silence Heard"

Most of the verses in "No Silence Heard" are brief and imagist. The author, Thelma Breithaupt, has not cared to argue nor to set forth a philosophy. She seems to be content to flash out to the reader from time to time glimpses deep into the secrets of truth and beauty and to present by verse definitions such aspects of life as seem striking to her. So there are no soaring and lengthy flights here; only inklings, as it were, into life's meanings.

The book is one of variety in its content, for besides the more serious poems there are charming sketches of cities, towns and landscapes of the Southwest and Mexico. The author has a woman's eye for significant trifles and that elaborate fragility which seem so much a part of the life of woman. So her book seems a sedative, though its apparent serenity appears at times a kind of irony over the solemn tragedy of life which it sometimes suggests. Perhaps to quote a very familiar line her verse is "such a tide as moving seems asleep, too full for sound or foam" which, after all, is the true essence of poetry. It is a Tardy publication.

DEATH?
 Death! Well I know, what is before thee.
 Beyond thee, I would explore,
 And find adventure.
 This side of death, I have no awakening.
 I would soar aloft, as a bird, span the unknown—
 Sweep past the barriers.
 Into Celestial space, as a cloud.
 I would be free of fetters;
 I would tread the unknown path.
 Into the abyss of future life.
 Call it Death? No!
 It is an awakening from the Dream called Life—
 Into a greater life.

"The REST Of the Record"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
 Governor of Texas

I regret that the first ten days of the special session wound up in a bitter personal attack upon me. I have been called so many mean things that I just decided I couldn't possibly be as bad as I was painted.

This week the entire membership of the Board of Control issued a written statement that unless additional money was raised by the legislature at once for old age assistance, the board will have to suspend payments for two or three months after November 1st. They pointed out to the legislature, as I had done, that the old age assistance fund owes $1,627,000 to Dallas banks on past due warrants. This money has been due nearly a year and the banks have demanded payment.

The Board stated they felt as I do, that more money should be paid to the old folks so as to increase the amount of payments and add more people to the old age assistance rolls through the coming winter months. They said the present grants average $14.00 a month, but unless the legislature provides more money the Board will have to reduce these payments.

That puts it squarely up to the legislature! I have called them in special session and have made my recommendations. As yet no bill has been passed, but I hope by the time you read this column that the lower house will have sent a tax bill to the Senate. You see, under the Constitution, tax bills must originate in the House; and the Senate has been marking time while some members were talking about the vast sums they could save by economies if appropriations were submitted. Last week a majority of the Senate ruled that I did submit appropriations and economies. It is up to them now to demonstrate to the taxpayers how the Senate can save all these millions they talk about by cutting down the very appropriations voted by them in the regular session against my recommendations. We shall see.

One fact remains, if they make any economies it will only help the general fund, which is more than fifteen million dollars overdrawn. We still must have more money for old age assistance and we can't economize there. We must have some money for aid to the blind and to dependent children; we have got to carry out our contract with the teachers.

Remember—unless some money is raised for these purposes by this legislature the old folks are going to suffer even more and we will have failed to carry out the President's program for the blind and for under-privileged children which was voted by the people. Those of you who are interested should let your senators and representatives know how you feel about the matter.

I was very happy last week when Senator Clay Cotton of Palestine made a speech on the Senate floor in defense of the President and his program. He said in part:

"In reply to a statement by the Governor of Texas that the issue now drawn before this Senate is one of human rights against property rights, the Senator from Galveston is quoted as having said: 'Every tyrant from Nero to Franklin D. Roosevelt has used that argument.'"

"I am indeed sorry for him or any other man who becomes so wrapped up or warped in his own opinions that he would brand not only the governor of this state, but our beloved President, as a tyrant comparable to Nero."

"I want and think this Senate wants the people of the country to know that in his vicious assaults upon President Roosevelt the Senator from Galveston does not speak for the great masses of the people. . . . He does not voice even the sentiments of the people of his own district."

..... Franklin D. Roosevelt has not only brought back prosperity to the captain of industry, but through his social security program he has ministered to the aged needy and has provided funds which, if Texas will but do its part, will feed the hungry and clothe the naked throughout our borders.

"It is not going to be any pleasure to me to have to vote for taxes. . . but we have no potion. The people who have spoken at the ballot box. They told this legislature to provide for the needy old people. . . for aid to the blind. . . to help unfortunate children."

"This state is rich in resources. We can provide these funds without substantial injury to anyone by taking only a small portion of the vast profits being made in this state. . . I would respect the wishes of my people by voting for adequate tax revenues at this special session."

SEAL BROS. BIG CIRCUS TO PLAY HASKELL FAIR

Show Will Play in City Friday, October 22 During Fair

The blare of bands and the tooting of the calliope brings back memories when we were kids, and the circus came and turn time back. Seal Bros. Circus will give two grand performances, afternoon and night, with a grand free street parade at noon. Seal Bros. have spared no expense or time this season in meeting with the modern requirements. It has been several years since Seal Bros. Circus has given a street parade, so this spring the managers agreed to again follow the old custom of a real treat to the kids. The parade is really a gorgeous, glittering professional of Music, Beautiful Ladies, Camels, Elephants and Clowns. In fact, people and wild animals from all corners of the world take part in the parade, all free for your most hearty approval.

There are fifty champion acrobats to entertain you. Trained Elephants, Lions, Pumas, Tigers and Americas' most beautiful horses. An army of famous funny clowns. A few of the featured performers are the Henry Duo, the dancing, somersaulting wizards of the tight wire; the Romig Rooney troupe of international bareback riders; Miss Vates Lola, the original girl of the flying trapeze; Jimmy Goodwin, thriller do lunk; Col. Fred Anderson's 10,000 troupe of Arabian Liberty Horses; and the Smith troupe with their Kentucky-bred dancing, gaited high school horses, featuring Golden Glow, the original Oriental Dancing Horse. A beautiful spectacular pageant is presented as a prelude to the circus proper, whereby every member of the circus takes part, headed by its Prima Donna, dainty Miss Dolores Gue'terez, entitled "SUNNY SPAN." So come early, be on hand for the grand free street parade. Go to a big show at a special reduced price of admission for this day and date only.

SPURT IN LATIN-AMERICAN TRADE SEEN BOOST FOR NEW INDUSTRIES IN TEXAS; SHIPMENTS INCREASED

Report Cites Gain of 14 Percent Over Other Years
EUROPE RANKS AS NO. 1 BUYER
Latin-American Exports Up Over $52,000,000

Marked increases in shipments from the United States to Latin America, indicating the growing concentration of American business interests in Central and South American markets, challenge Texas to capitalize its proximity to these trade areas in bidding for new industry, a report from the All-South Development Council, made public today points out.

The council report cites a gain of 14 percent in shipments to Latin America for 1936, compared with 1935, more than twice the 6 percent gain in exports to Asia, while no increase at all was registered in European shipments during the same period.

Europe still ranks as America's No. 1 customer in volume of trade with exports there last year totaling more than $1,000,000,000, but the significant gains in Latin-American trade point to Central and South America as the fastest growing foreign market of the United States, the council's study declared.

It recalls that exports to Latin America today are 46 percent higher than the $121,028,000 figure which was the average for the years 1910 to 1914. During the same period, shipments to Europe have declined 25 percent from the 1910-1914 average of $1,350,299,000.

"The growing importance of Latin-American markets is indicated by the $52,836,426 increase in exports over the 1935 figure of $376,718,611, to bring last years total to $429,552,036," the report shows.

"Imports likewise showed a gain of $45,654,302, during the same period, to hit the $528,722,136 figure."

The favorable position of Texas in the future development of foreign trade area to the South, coupled with a 20 per cent increase in Texas purchasing power for 1936 compared to 1935, which insures an expanded domestic market, are powerful appeals to industries contemplating the establishment of new plants and factories, the council believes.

The major factor retarding the rapid settlement of new industry in Texas, it feels, is the uncertainty of business men over the state's tax policies. The demand in some quarters of Texas for higher taxes on natural resource industries, and the absence of any satisfactory guarantee of equitable tax treatment to new industry, are preventing the Lone Star state from reaping the benefits of increased employment and larger payrolls that would result from the immediate location of new plants in the state.

Supporting its contention that Central and South America present the most profitable markets for the further development of American trade relations, the report calls attention to the more favorable tariff rates there, compared to heavier European import duties on most American products. Despite increasing industrialization in Latin American countries, this region, it declares, is still largely dependent on foreign countries for its manufactured goods.

AMERICAN BOY INTRODUCES NEW FOOTBALL GAME

In the early fall issues of The American Boy he'll be presented the story of a new game—six-man football—fast as professional football, wide open as basketball, thrilling as hockey!

The game came to life through the need of small schools for some substitute for 11-man football, which was too expensive. Stephen Epler, a Nebraska graduate student in athletics, developed the game of six-man football to meet this need. In six-man football anybody can score, the possibility of injury from mass plays is minimized, and the game is open enough for spectators to follow every exciting development.

The new game is a hit. New schools are taking it up every day. In coming issues The American Boy tells the world about this practical new game. In addition, it presents The American Boy official handbook, which can be obtained from the magazine at 20 cents a copy, or 15 cents when bought in-bulk.

NOTE: Subscription prices of The American Boy will be raised in the near future. Send your subscription order at once to take advantage of the bargain rates now in effect; one year at $1.00 or three years at $2.00. Foreign subscriptions, 50c a year extra. Send your name, address and remittance to The American Boy, 7450 Second Blvd., Detroit, Mich. On newsstands the price is 15c a copy.

Why Newspapers Ask For "Early Copy"

The Advertiser Is Unfair to Himself When He Sends His Advertisement to the Newspaper Office Just Before the Dead-Line

Early "Copy" Late "Copy"

- 1. Better position. Risk of poor position. 2. No errors. Risk of typographical errors. 3. Time for store corrections. No opportunity for store corrections. 4. Good typography. Risk of poor typography. 5. Prompt delivery to reader. Risk of late delivery. 6. Fair to mechanical staff. Unfair physical and mental strain. 7. Advertisement well written. Advertisement hurriedly written. 8. Advertisement inserted. Risk of omission. 9. Overhead normal. Often cause of rate increase. 10. Illustrations correct. Risk of misplaced cuts.

• While a newspaper is a marvel of mechanical efficiency, there are limits on what can be done by a given force of printers, stereotypers and pressmen in a short, crowded period of stress.

• There is plenty of time to give every advertiser good service when early copy is sent in.

• The Times believes that its advertisers desire to be fair to the printers, stereotypers and pressmen who serve them as well as to be fair to themselves.

• Visitors to the mechanical department are invited so that the process of handling advertising may be thoroughly understood and the mechanical problems fully realized.

• Your co-operation will be greatly appreciated by the entire personnel of The Times.

RECOMMENDATION FOR TODAY

When Old Friends Get Together

Eating this new Apple Butter Roll is like attending a Class Reunion where we meet all sorts of old friends. For in this rich creamy roll, garnished with chunks of toasted nut meats, we find the sweet spicy apple butter tang we used to love in our bread-and-jam school days. Furthermore, it's an easy, inexpensive dessert that can be made hours ahead of time.

1/2 pt. whipping cream
1/2 cup apple butter
30 vanilla wafers
1/2 cup coarsely chopped nuts

Whip cream stiff and fold in apple butter. Spread about 1 tbsp. of the whipped cream mixture over a wafer, then place another wafer above it. Repeat until the 30 cookies have been used. Lay roll lengthwise on a dish or tray and completely cover with the remaining whipped cream mixture. Sprinkle with the chopped nuts and place in refrigerator to set for 8 hours. To serve, slice diagonally. AMOUNT: 12 to 15 servings.

Vanilla Wafers

3 cups all-purpose flour
2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup milk

Cream shortening and add sugar gradually. Add well beaten eggs and the vanilla. Sift flour once before measuring. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and add alternately with the milk. Mix until smooth. Chill in refrigerator for 1 hour or longer. Drop by small teaspoonfuls on a slightly greased brown paper placed on a cookie sheet and bake on center rack in oven for 10 minutes. TEMPERATURE: 400° F., moderately hot oven. AMOUNT: 6 dozen cookies.

Betty Crocker Advises

Question: Is there any difference between powdered and confectioners' sugar?

Answer: Technically, powdered sugar means the granulated sugar powdered or pulverized quite finely. This is a refined type of granulated sugar to be used on cereals, berries, etc. It dissolves in cold drinks more easily than coarser sugar, and some people use it in sauces and cake making. Confectioners' sugar is a different type of product, containing a certain amount of starch with the extremely finely powdered sugar. It is often called icing sugar, and labeled by the trade indication, 4 X. This type of confectioners' sugar usually is sold in either one- or two-pound packages and is used very extensively in all parts of the country for icings, and to add to whipped cream, and in frozen desserts in electric refrigerators. We often speak of confectioners' sugar as powdered sugar. It is one of the mistakes which become almost correct with usage.

Question: I've heard of adding gelatin to whipped cream to help it keep its shape. Can you tell me how to do it?

Answer: A teaspoon of gelatin is first soaked in 1 tbsp. of milk and then dissolved over hot water. Then it can be blended into the whipped cream set away in the refrigerator.

Question: When you're out to dinner and they pass jelly or jam—on what plate should you put it?

Answer: When jelly is served as a meat accompaniment—such as mint jelly with lamb, grape or currant jelly with duck, or cranberry jelly with turkey—then the jelly goes on the plate with the meat. But at breakfast or lunch, when the jelly or jam or marmalade is obviously served as an accompaniment for hot biscuits or muffins or rolls, put it in the bread and butter plate.

If you worry about what to serve, if you dread to start the next meal, just drop a card to Betty Crocker in care of The Munday Times and ask for this week's menus. Complete menus for the week with recipes for the main items will be sent you at no cost. Please enclose 3 cent stamp to cover return postage.

THE ART OF GETTING ALONG

Sooner or later, a pupil if he is wise, discovers that school life is a mixture of happy days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take. He learns that it doesn't pay to be a sensitive soul—that he should let some things go over his head like water off a duck's back. He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses. He learns that all students have burnt toast for breakfast now and then and that he shouldn't take the other fellow's grouch too seriously. He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others. He learns that it doesn't matter so much who gets the credit so long as the work he is doing shows progress. He comes to realize that the school could run along perfectly well without him. He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains that are as good or better, and that hard work and not cleverness is the secret of success.

Senior Class Has Picnic Wednesday
Last Wednesday night the Seniors went out to the golf links where they had a thoroughly good and sandy time on a picnic. We left the building about 6:45, and when we arrived at the golf course we spent about an hour playing games. Wide assortment of picnic was spread for the members present. Perhaps this will be our last picnic until spring, but we hope we may plan for other kinds of entertainments, for we enjoy them thoroughly. Miss Couch and Mr. Hardegree have proved to be very good sponsors. Mr. Cobb has been with us on all of our socials so far; and he has been elected as a regular member, for he is really one of us.

Noah: It looks like rain.

Little David: Hey, Ma, look! I just made a slingshot!
Soloman: Tell me something I don't know.
Nero: Here's a song that'll set the town on fire.

Cleopatra: Caesar, Meet Brutus, you two boys ought to know each other.
Sir Walter Raleigh: Step on it, kid.

The other day in typing class Mr. Cobb was reviewing with us the parts of the typewriter. "Now if I have left out any important phase about the typewriter or its parts, I am not certain do have a question, however, I'll do what it could be," he said. "If you my best to answer it."
Joe Isbell's quick reply was: "I've been looking at this outfit and I have heard every word you have said, but I still don't find the thing that crosses the 't' nor the one to dot the 't'."
L.T.: Throw up your hands, boy.
Hoe: I can't I got rheumatics.

SCHOOL SPIRIT OF MUNDAY HIGH INCREASING; MOGULS PLAY MATT-SON FRIDAY IN CONFERENCE TILT

Students Teachers and Sports Fans Urged To See Game

School spirit is something which all students have, more or less. This is shown by the fact that when an outsider makes an insulting remark about our school, all of us would let this outsider know exactly how we felt about what he said. Especially in participating in sports, school spirit is shown. Anyone who belongs to Munday High School would rather see Munday win a football game than any other team. In other sports, as well as football, this holds true. School spirit is somewhat contagious. When students possess a great deal of emotion over a game of football, this feeling is naturally spread to the teachers and they too, find themselves backing our team to the finish. School spirit is also shown in our classrooms. When schools are mentioned, at any time, students are always ready to boost our school. I don't believe there is a teacher in Munday High School who would not back up Munday's team or their students, at any time. So with teachers and students holding up Munday's school spirit, our school can readily improve its progress. Let's all be out for the game Friday afternoon with Matt-son.

Miss Darnell Is Teaching First Year in Munday

I am sure the boys especially would like to find out more about Miss Darnell this week. This attractive young woman was graduated from Baylor University with a major in science. It is quite peculiar to find a woman teaching science, but we all like Miss Darnell fine and have found out she can do the job splendidly. This is her first year to teach school, and although she enjoys all of her classes, she likes her chemistry class best. She even says that it is much like a college class—in fact better than some. Besides teaching the science classes, General Science, Biology and Chemistry, Miss Darnell teaches one English class. Before teaching and going to school, Miss Darnell made her home at Overton. Perhaps it is unimportant to many of us, but we should be thankful that it brought her to us, for she is a fine teacher and has made many friends among the students.

Juniors Fearful of Exams--Yeah!

Oh those dreadful exams!! No wonder the Juniors are coming to school looking as if they had had a hard night the night before. Lots of mid-night oil is being burned and not all of it in V-8s, either. Several of the Juniors were disappointed when the excursion train was not sent to Dallas. But why should we want to go to Dallas when there is so much excitement here in dear old Munday? Munday had everything that Dallas has except the nice looking policemen and soldier boys (ask some of the girls who have been there). We are all getting ready for the football game, Friday, and hope that it isn't postponed this time. We all intend to back the entire team and especially the Junior boys who are going to hit the line whenever they want to.

EDITORIAL VIEWS!

By the Editor
A determined man can do more with a dull hand saw and a rusty monkey wrench than a drone who do with two sets of tools and three helpers. The value of creating in your mind a conviction, a determination to do a thing, is of great psychological advantage. The plan of cultivating a positive state of mind on what you propose to do is a big step toward success. Determination is not bulldog brains. It does not mean billy goat stubbornness, nor a certain direction for a certain end, without wavering. Determination is strength of mind, energy or purpose, manliness. It is moral courage and mental command. We all have more faith in the man of determination that we have confidence in the man who is distinguished for his dashes, splashes and spurts. The spotlight fellow would have more reason for expecting success if he would only wake up and understand that he has not already arrived. You can't build your future in a short time, so you had best begin work on it now.

PHILOSOPHY!

A good thing to remember
And a better thing to do.

And not with the wrecking crew.

Tomorrow has not come; don't worry.
Today is here; use it!

These are DANGEROUS DAYS FOR FOOD!
WHY RISK HEALTH WHEN FRIGIDAIRE WITH METER-MISER PROTECTS YOUR FOOD AND PAYS FOR ITSELF!

● It is a mistake to believe that cool weather guards food against spoilage. Temperatures too cool for your comfort may be too warm to protect your food. All year 'round, food must be protected at safety-zone temperatures between 32 and 50 degrees Fahrenheit. Above this mark, spoilage is rapid. Below, foods freeze. Nature seldom maintains safety-zone temperatures. So don't depend on makeshift or old-fashioned, unreliable refrigeration methods. Health can be endangered... money can be wasted... when refrigeration is inadequate. There is really no need to be without proper protection. Frigidaire with the Meter-Miser safeguards food day and night, and proves it! Does this while paying for itself and paying a profit besides! Don't be without Frigidaire another day. NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPRINE JR.

Austin.—Taking the economy bull by the horns, the Texas senate this week defied Gov. Allred in his refusal to permit it to consider reductions in appropriations, and took up consideration of Grady Woodruff's economy bill, which would slice $4,000,000 off departmental appropriations for the next two fiscal years. Much of the reduction would come from reduction of salaries of state employees drawing over $1500 a year, and from abolition of the jobs of the departmental press agents, who have sprung up all over Austin like a crop of broomweeds. There is no authority in law for the employment of press agents to "sell" the departments and the political-minded department heads to the legislature and the newspaper readers of the state, but they are carried on the payrolls by subterfuge, as "educational directors," "information directors," and "statistical experts."

The senate by a decisive vote of 29 to 6 overruled L. Gov. Walter Woodruff, who held that the reduction bill did not come within the governor's call, and permitted introduction of the measure. The vote would indicate the senate will vote decisively to cut the expenditures. Then, if Gov. Allred, whose forces dominate the house, should block it there, or if he should veto it, the senate apparently has the governor in a "spot" where they can place the onus for failure to enact new tax bills squarely upon Allred.

BRAIN TRUSTERS RUN WILD

Over on the house side, spectators were treated to a strange sight. Dominated by Allred's ring of youthful brain-trusters—the majority of them kids just out of their teens, some still studying law—a subcommittee of the taxation and revenue committee sat for a continuous 13-hour hearing. They handled figures running into the millions of dollars about like pennies, defied a large delegation of solid citizens who came to protect higher taxes by granting them a scant 45 minutes in the woe hours of Thursday morning to voice their protest, and came out with a $10,000,000 omnibus tax bill that will hike taxes on the oil industry, sulphur, public utilities, cement, and amusements, including movie admissions—from 30 to 50 per cent and more. The bright young minds on the taxation committee—to some of whom the $10 a day they get as legislators representing the maximum earning capacity to date baited witnesses representing billions of dollars of capital investment in Texas business, and many years of accumulated business wisdom and experience, with obvious delight.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

With the session half gone, it is becoming increasingly obvious that the Allred program of $15,000,000 of new taxes is sunk without a trace. Whether increased levies amounting to $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 will get through depends largely upon the governor's co-operation with the senate. If Allred clings stubbornly to his determination not to permit reduction of governmental expense, it seems a good bet that the senate will not levy a dime of new taxes. If Allred surrenders, the senate may give him some tax increase.

SLAP AT LOAN SHARKS

Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodruff broke one of the rare tie votes in the senate this week to vote in favor of state employees who are being victimized by Austin loan sharks. Sen. Joe Hill offered a resolution asking state department heads to cooperate with their workers in escaping the clutches of the sharks, who, the resolution said, charged 100 to 300 per cent interest, and terrorized employees by threats to report them to their chiefs, when they get behind on payments. The tie vote came on a motion to send the resolution to committee (where it probably would have died). Woodruff voted "no" and the senate promptly passed the resolution. The Austin Times, a weekly newspaper, has been exposing and campaigning against the loan sharks, of whom a dozen have been fattening off the low-salaried state employees for months.

on the snowfall," he said. "Go find out just how deep it is."

What he wanted the beginner to do was to call up the Weather Bureau on the telephone; but the cub, being green, asked the office joker how to proceed. The humorist handed him the space-measuring rule which, instead of being marked with inches and feet was spaced off into dollars and cents.

"Go over to City Hall Park where the snow is deep and smooth and measure it," he said.

The cub put on his overshoes and went. Presently he returned and marched to the chief's desk.

"Well," said the Editor, "what does the snowfall come to?"

"A dollar and thirty-four cents!" said the youngster.

GAMES BEFORE SUPPER

ALICE A. KEEN

The children were in the living-room—Ralph and Benji quarreling and Mildred protesting tearfully that she could not do her homework because of the noise.

Mrs. Brady, in the kitchen getting supper, could hear what was going on. She sighed. It took time to administer justice and this, for her, was the busiest hour of the day. Unfortunately, it was the hour, too, when the children were apt to be most out of sorts.

"If I could just get them interested in some game or other, it would carry them through this hungry, difficult time," she said to herself. Her thoughts raked through her own childhood and struck upon a game she used to play. "Ralph, Benji," she called to the boys, and there was such animation in her voice that they came tumbling out, wide-eyed and expectant.

"I've just thought of a game," she said. "Let's play it. I'll begin by spelling a word of three letters. Ralph, you can come next with another word of three letters. Yours must begin with the last letter of my word. Then Benji must give one beginning with the last letter of Ralph's. All ready? B-A-G, spelled Mrs. Brady.

"G-O-T" said Ralph instantly, while Benji followed with "T-I-N."

Now Mildred appeared and wanted to know what it was all about. So she was admitted into the merry game of three-letter words.

"Mildred can take my place," said Mrs. Brady, "for I shall be going back and forth between the kitchen and the dining-room."

The children went back into the living room and were a happy as blackbirds in a cherry tree until suppertime.

The children played the game almost incessantly and wore it to a frazzle, as was bound to happen. Then one evening Mildred said,

"Let's play the game using the middle letter to begin the next word. We'll ask mother to start it."

"C-A-N," said mother the moment she was told. "A-N-D," said Ralph, and Benji continued with "N-O-W."

When "Three-Letter Words" had languished and almost died, Mrs. Brady searched her past for another of the old games that are new to the children of today. And that night, when the children's voices began to have ragged edges she called them to her.

"I have another game for you," she told them. "Want to try it?"

Did they! Immediately they were all eager attention.

"I'm thinking of something in this room," she said slowly, not looking at the broom handle, "and it's red."

They began with quickly shot guesses that showed their keen interest. Benji guessed it and proud he was, being the youngest, to announce the color of the thing he was thinking about.

After a while, Mrs. Brady withdrew "carried it" into the other room.

The mother was exultant; she felt she had solved a problem. She had found a way to lift her children's thoughts from ill-natured bickerings toward a common interest that united them. And the effect on the atmosphere of the home during the pre-supper hour was as beneficial as a brisk change of wind at the end of a sultry day.

Beside this, inventiveness was developed. Sooner or later the children were sure to vary the game or to invent a new one. Mother must always be told about the change, and this thinking and playing with her children on equal terms of fun and comradeship made a simpler, happier relation between them all than there had ever been before.

TEXAS MARCHES FORWARD

Texas and Texans are on the march. They are going forward. Texas is one of the whitest spots on the map of the nation, and that means one of the whitest spots in the world.

Attorney General Bill McGraw recently consulted his official barometer and found that it reflected unusually sound economic conditions in Texas.

All over the state, he finds the people attesting their confidence in the present and their hopes for the future. During the past two years, more than two hundred million dollars worth of new construction bonds have been approved by his office. This reflects a prosperity and a program of development not confined to the big cities alone, but generously and generally distributed throughout Texas. In volume it is three times greater than for any two-year period in the stirring history of the state.

General McGraw knows that there is yet abroad in the land a diminishing army of suffering citizens whose banners are the tear-stained flags of the unemployed and helpless. He knows that the taxpayers' backs are bending low with the accumulating burdens of the day. With groping need and glooming distress, he is deeply sympathetic and would lend a helping hand. Now, he would not stand upon a people without house-tops and shout with a cry of alarm. He knows that a people without vision are hopeless, and that a citizenship without a hope is destined to despair and defeat.

Annual Parents Day Program Is Set October 23

Lubbock, Texas. Letters have been mailed to parents of 3,122 students now enrolled at Texas Technological College, inviting them to participate in the second annual parents day program October 28. A reception in the lounge of the men's dormitory will open the day's festivities, at which student council members, President and Mrs. Bradford Knapp will welcome guests. Climax of the day is the Tech-New Mexico university football game in the evening, when fathers of varsity players will be introduced. Prizes will be awarded at that time to parents having the most children enrolled in Tech during its 12 year history; to parents who have the largest number of children in college this semester; and to the parent traveling the greatest distance to the event.

Bob Calvert To Seek Attorney General Office

Austin, Texas, Oct. 7.—Bob Calvert of Hillsboro, speaker of the house of representatives, today said definitely that he will announce for the office of attorney general of the state of Texas.

"I regard the office of attorney general as the key position of the state government," Calvert said. "It should be filled by a man, free from entangling alliances, who can serve the interests of the great majority of the people of Texas faithfully and conscientiously."

"The man who occupies the office Calvert said, should not be a 'stooge' for the major oil companies, or other special interests, dominated by his connections or retainers."

Such a man, Calvert asserted, would be unable to represent the people of the state of Texas honestly when called upon to bring suits against his former clients.

"My experience in a country law office and in the legislature has fitted me for the office of attorney general," Calvert declared. "I know that I can fill the office capably and fairly."

The young speaker graduated from high school at the state orphan's home at Corsicana, then worked his way through the University of Texas law school.

He is serving his third term in the legislature from the 60th district, Hill and Navarro counties.

Calvert said his formal announcement for the office of attorney general will be made at a later date.

Tornado Strikes Near Haskell

COTTON DAMAGE OF 2,000 BALES BY WIND, HAIL

Loss to Farmers Set At $150,000 in 15-mile Area

HAIL AND RAIN FOLLOWS WIND

Homes, Barns and Farm Implements Are Destroyed

A "twister," followed by heavy hail and a torrential downpour sweeping over a fifteen mile strip in Haskell County early Friday night caused an estimated damage of $150,000. Starting in the northwest part of the County in the Jud community the cyclone and hail streak leveled cotton and fields and buildings in a swath varying in width from a mile to three miles. Damage was heaviest in the immediate vicinity of the Jud, New Mid, Foster communities and three miles east of Haskell. Spotted damage was reported in other places.

Cotton producers believed that in the area damaged by hail the loss would total sixty per cent of this year's crop. More than 1,000 bales of open cotton were destroyed in the storm. Damage to unopened bolls was estimated at another thousand bales and higher.

Rainfall totaling five inches fell within an hour at Jud. Elsewhere in the county it measured an inch and a half. Houses, barns and out-buildings on several farms were blown from their foundations and several were completely destroyed. Cotton wagons, windmills and small buildings were blown away by the high wind. Four homes east of Haskell on the Throckmorton road were knocked off their blocks and foundation of one building was pushed through the floor by the cyclone, it was reported.

State Health Officer Warns Against So-Called Cancer Cures and Quack Doctors

Deaths From Cancerous Conditions Are Increasing in Texas, Doctor Says

"The increasing number of persons in Texas dying from cancer justifies a warning at this time against quacks and so-called cancer cures," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"While newspapers, as a rule, do not carry the cancer type of advertising, there are many other ways for misinformation to reach the public. Undoubtedly there are persons who, being thus deterred from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer are fleeced out of much money for a cure," Dr. Cox continued.

"There are but two ways of treating cancer. First, by surgery; and second, by the use of radium or x-ray. Treatment must be started early and in the hands of competent surgeon. Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors and is used in nearly two-thirds of the cases. x-ray of radium is used to advantage in one-third of the cases, frequently the two methods are combined. Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves and diets are valueless.

"The great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency and it is unfortunate that the majority of those with cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond a permanent cure. No hope should be placed in the fake cancer prophets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to your physician of any symptoms which may be suspected to be the beginning of cancer, should be relied upon. These symptoms are: any unusual bleeding from any body opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body; any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion. These conditions may not be cancer but sometimes they are forerunners of the more common types of this disease. Where cancer is suspected, do not delay, but consult your family physician at once," Dr. Cox admonished.

As a result of fines paid in corporation court over the past week end the city of Munday was richer by $45 when five men paid fines on arrests by city officers.

One paid a fine for reckless driving, which brought about his arrest when he rammed another car near the Terry hotel. Two men paid fines on pleading to charges of drunkenness and two traffic tickets were issued, causing fines to be invoked.

County Committee On Farm Purchase To Be Named Soon

A county committee for loans under the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act will be named in November, it was reported by R. E. Skipworth, county supervisor for the Farm Security Administration, who has been receiving numerous inquiries from farmers wanting to buy land under this act.

"As only ten million dollars was appropriated for such loans during the remainder of 1937 and the first half of 1938, less than one farm to the county, on the average, will be financed during this period," the supervisor said. "However, the appropriation authorized for the second year is two and one-half times as great, and five times as great for the third year."

A state committee will be named within the next week or two, and county committees will be named soon thereafter. It is expected that the first applications can be acted upon by November 30, the supervisor said.

The county committee will be composed of three farmers. Their duty will be to receive and pass upon applications, and also to pass upon the value of the farms which the applicants propose to purchase. No land owned by a committee member or a relative of his may be approved. Those eligible for loans include only tenants and farm laborers who are now receiving or have until recently received, their chief income from farming.

The FSA supervisor said that as soon as the committee for this county is named, it will be published, and further details given as to making application. Until that time, no action can be taken by would-be applicants.

"Because of the small number of loans that can be made for purchase of land, chief work of FSA will continue to be making and supervising farm and home plans for low income farmers, and loans with which to buy livestock and equipment," the supervisor said. "Such loans, however, can be made only to farmers who are unable to obtain further financing from any other source. There are now 8 families in Knox county receiving this form of loan and supervision."
