SANTA COMING HERE FRIDAY

BLOOD POISON FATAL TO MRS. ED. H. BAUMAN

Passes Away Tuesday in Wichita Falls

FUNERAL SERVICE IS SET THURSDAY

Services Conducted From Methodist Church

Death Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock claimed one of Munday's most prominent women when Mrs. Nannie Evelyn Bauman passed away at a Wichita Falls hospital.

Mrs. Bauman was admitted to the hospital Saturday noon, December 11 with a severe case of blood poisoning, which had developed on the lower lip from a small pimple.

Mrs. Bauman had submitted to several blood transfusions and every possible means known to combat the malady was used by the attending physicians. At death the poison had entered the blood stream and together with other complications proved fatal.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from the First Methodist Church with the Reverend H. A. Longino, Methodist pastor, officiating, and Reverend W. H. Albertson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, assisting. Burial will be in Johnson cemetery.

Born July 5, 1899, at Lynn, Mo., she deceased was 38 years, 5 months and 16 days of age at the time of death.

Pallbearers for the services are U. R. Houser, W. E. Braly, J. C. Borden, C. R. Elliott, T. G. Bengel, John Ed Jones, R. B. Davy and Frank Trammell.

The body was returned to Munday by the Mahan Funeral Home coach and all funeral arrangements are in charge of Mahan.

Immediate survivors include the husband, Ed Bauman and one son, Willard. A daughter preceded her mother in death. C. Vaughn, father, of Miami, Okla., two sisters, Mary, Yocham, Kansas City, Mo., and Zephia Bennett, Kansas City, Mo., and two brothers, Gus and Bud Vaughn, both of Missouri.

Lions Club Has Christmas Tree Wednesday Noon

The Munday Lions Club met Wednesday noon at the Eiland Hotel for their regular weekly noon day luncheon with 16 members present.

The club enjoyed the program, in charge of Lions Dr. D. C. Eiland and Charlie Foyt, which was a Christmas tree affair with club members exchanging gifts.

Foyt acted as Santa Claus and assisted by Dr. Eiland handed the gifts to members. It seems that the Talltwister, Lion Bill Moore, was the most popular in receiving gifts, getting a total of 17, however 16 of them were "can openers."

Much merriment was enjoyed by the club members, at the expense of the Talltwister as well as each other.

The club enjoyed cigars furnished by Mrs. Eiland.

Released From Hospital Mrs. J. R. Smith of this city was released from a Wichita Falls hospital today (Wednesday), where she has received treatment for a severe throat ailment.

B. H. Jones of Weinert was in the city Tuesday.

Very few, if any, of the gifts which people give at Christmas time can compare with that one gift which the season itself brings to all of us—the desire to be bigger and finer, more kindly and more generous in our relations with others, than we have been in the past.

The business firms of Munday will be closed Christmas Day, Saturday, it was announced today (Wednesday) by Mrs. Louise Ingram, Secretary of the Munday Chamber of Commerce.

The only firms that will remain open is some of the filling stations and some of the drug stores, however, at least one drug store, the Tiner Drug Co., will be closed.

The grocery stores will not open at all Saturday it was reported and business will be at a standstill.

Each business house of the city will remain open until a late hour Friday night in order that last minute shoppers may complete their Christmas buying, store owners announced.

To New Mexico

A. L. Smith, manager of the Rexall Drug Store of this city and Miss Dorothy Hendricks, employee of the firm, were in Conchas Dam, New Mexico, last Sunday and Monday.

MUNDAY SCHOOL TO REOPEN 28th

Date Changed Just as School Closed

The Munday school system will not be closed as long during the Christmas holiday period as had been planned at first, it was announced by Dr. J. H. Bass last week end.

The first announcement was that school would close on Friday, December 17 and remain closed until January 3rd, but the opening date has been moved up until Tuesday morning, December 28.

It was the plan of the school board to re-surface the hallway of the new elementary school building during the holiday, but material could not be obtained in time to complete the new flooring by January 3 and it was decided to do it at a later date.

The new flooring will be of tile and will be laid on top of the present concrete flooring, which has not held up according to specifications, board members said.

TWO PERSONS GET THEATER PASSES

The Times will add a little Christmas to two persons again this week end by inviting someone to witness the Saturday or Monday show at the Roxy Theatre.

Eddie Cantor will furnish the entertainment in an unusual comedy entitled "Ali Baba Goes to Town." Read the Want Ad section and see if YOU are invited.

GRADE SCHOOL CHRISTMAS TREE

Santa Visits Students Friday Evening

Last Friday evening the children of the Munday elementary school department were assembled in special chapel to have their annual Christmas tree program.

The students heard a short program at one o'clock and the program was opened by singing of Christmas songs.

Several mothers and smaller children were present for the affair and all of the grade school class mothers were present to assist in giving out the gifts.

At the close of the program Santa Claus came onto the stage amid loud cheers for the children and after a little talk began giving the presents to the kiddies.

Principal L. M. Palmer expressed his appreciation to the parents, class mothers and to Red Leathers and Boyde Carley for assisting in the program. It was thoroughly enjoyed by the grade school children.

220 Toys Made By Sewing Room

The Munday Sewing room, which serves Knox county, completed 220 toys for children of the county needy families this week, Mrs. Addie Layne, supervisor reported today.

The toys were turned over to Glen Burnett, county welfare worker, who divided them among the 6 precincts of the county under WPA supervision. Approximately 50 of the toys were left for Munday, it was said.

Most of the toys had been given out, but a few remain to be given to children who will be cared for by Rev. H. A. Longino, Methodist pastor and Rev. W. H. Albertson, Baptist pastor, Mrs. Layne stated.

Mexican Injured In Car Collision

In an auto wreck in the south part of the city on the highway last Saturday night a Mexican occupant of one of the vehicles received severe head lacerations.

A machine driven by a negro, Brooker T. Schuler, crashed into Neibes Cervantes car heavily damaging the latter car and injuring the one person.

Mrs. Veta Furrh and Miss Glad Crume attended the regional meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma sorority at Wichita Falls last Saturday, December 11th.

Bomarton Girls Lose To Weinert In Close Tiff

GOREE JUNIORS WIN EASILY

The teams finishing one-two in the final standing of the Brazos Valley conference basketball race staged two games here last Friday night that were hotter than Dante's Inferno.

The opening fray of the evening was between the Goree and Weinert Junior boys with the Goree junior boys showing a far superior brand of ball to win 16-2. Weinert was held scoreless during the last half of the game, while Cowars, Goree forward, led his mates to the win with nine points. Arnold, Goree center, had five for second honors.

Weinert Girls Win To furnish the evenings first thriller the Weinert senior girls sextet came from behind to whip Bomarton 23-26. Bomarton jumped into a nice lead during the first period to lead 7-3 but Weinert staged a rally in the closing minutes of the initial half to lead 14-11.

However, their lead was short-lived, as Bomarton came back with a rush that gave them a slim lead until the last three minutes. At the end of the period they led 21-18, but their scoring for the night was practically over as they missed several opportunities in the final stanza to score only two points. Matha, led Bomarton with 11 points to 19 for Dunnan for Weinert.

Said by the more than 500 fans Boys Stage Thriller that attended, the boys game was one of the best ever seen in this section.

SUNSET SCHOOL TO CLOSE WEEK

Opening Date is Set December 30

The Sunset school system will have a seven day Christmas vacation period it was announced today by T. W. Harber, superintendent of schools at Sunset.

The school was turned out at the close of the school today, (Wednesday) and will not be re-opened until Thursday morning of the next week, December 30, Harber stated.

The previous statement that the school would remain closed until January 3rd, was in error.

Local Legion Has Membership of 71

With a total membership of 71 announced at culmination of the annual Lowry Post No. 44 drive, hopes were still held out that the total would exceed the Post's largest membership, 72.

The charter membership of the local post was 72 members, and has never been reached in the annual drive since. J. E. Reeves, Post commander, stated.

The drive, led by Captains Buel Bowden and Lee Haymes, was the most successful campaign conducted in recent years. The "turkey feed" for members and their wives will be held January 11, Reeves announced and all Legion boys are invited to attend regardless of whether they are members of the local post.

PEEP SHOW

FOR LADIES ONLY
—BY—
MIGNON

There little Christmas tree
Don't you cry
You'll be a back-log Bye and bye...

Every where, all over the land small Christmas trees are being placed in shining windows, on hearth-stones, their branches trimmed and all a-glimmer with tinsel and snow. There is the hustle and bustle of last minute shopping, and there are secrets to be hidden in dresser drawers and out of the way places until that happy morning when gifts can be brought out and loved for one's own. It is this spirit of love which is the back log of family life in America. No matter what cares have fallen heavily upon the shoulders of the family heads surely they can be lightened at Christmas time. What one of us does not carry a picture in the closed album of our hearts of Christmas long past now, perhaps, when it meant a big happy family, popcorn and cranberries strung on twine, a Christmas angel that had been on the tip top of many happy Christmas trees. The small figure of the wise men, the babe and the manger set in the snow under the tree to make us all remember in humbleness the cause of our happiness... and the knowing looks which passed between Mother and Dad. No matter which way the wind blows, in wars or politics, or floods or droughts, Christmas always brings with it that something which is an expression of the inner life which is the very heart throb of a nation.

He dined
He wined
And nectar
But she denied to me
That she knew He'd expecter
No Christmas saint
To be.

About the maddest I've been in moons is when a man with a vocabulary told a group which included me that there were so many poets and pediculous books. Of course I laughed up my sleeves at the slip of the tongue, but decided I might as well look it up and see if there really were such a rediculous word as pediculous. Uh-huh, there is. It means LOUSY.

I met that Marjarie Hillis gal
Of "Live alone and like it"
But shhh I don't believe it folks
She's only playing "plike it."
You know, "plike" you were never claimed
And "plike" no nice young feller Had ask you? Why not write the thing
Into a grand best seller?

Marjorie Hillis who lives alone and likes it, has caviar with her corn beef and orchids on her budget spoke to approximately three hundred women from over the state at the annual matrix table banquet given Tuesday night of last week by the Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary and professional fraternity for women in journalism.

Miss Hillis, assistant editor of Vogue, was wearing a red wool vogue dinner dress, its only ornament being a huge gold buckle worn just beneath her orchids. She is very attractive, keen witted and a much better speaker than most women journalists. I will always feel indebted to Anacy Anderson up and coming young journalist student and of this fraternity for the opportunity this celebrity.

"The 1937 model of the unmarried woman can no longer be called an old maid," Miss Hillis said.
"Today's live aloners are people, not victims of circumstance," she declared, "and they are making happy lives for themselves thru the variety of work offered them and thru establishing their own homes. They no longer feel like lefovers.

"I think that any woman in her right mind would rather be happily married than single, but on the other hand I think any woman would rather be single and unhappily married. The unmarried woman of yesterday would rather have been unhappily married than single."

The number of "us unclaimed jewels today" is startling, Miss Hil-lis continued.

This number, she believes, is due to the increased number of women who are working at what they really like to do. No longer is a woman forced to work at anything; today she can use her own particular ability.

"The small 'superficial' things of life make life gay and charming and are outward appearances of everything that is interesting in a person," she emphasized.

Yesterday's extra woman, she explained, thought they, being unimportant, inconspicuous persons, should do without these small things of life. But today, the live aloner is doing something about herself thru these "sacrifices" which she rightfully refuses to make.

"I have no patience with people who think fun is unimportant," she declared. "Fun is the feul of enthusiasm."

If fun can be had thru the small things of life then the extra woman is as entitled to these things as anyone," she continued.

"It is stupid to let the things you don't have spoil your life," she continued. "If you are an extra wo-

Cash Income to Farmer Shows Small Decrease

Austin, Texas, Dec. 16—The computed farm cash income for Texas during October representing about 90 per cent of the actual cash income was $71,178,000, according to Dr. F. A. Eueland, assistant director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. This compared with $101,957,000 for September and $80,783,000 for October last year.

Since the computed average October cash income during the base period, 1928-1932, is approximately $101,000,000, the October index, or the percentage of this year's October income to the average October income during the five years 1928-1932, is 70.2. This compares with 88.4 for September and 79.7 for October last year. Thus the decline in farm cash income from October 1936, is about 12 per cent.
Total farm cash income for the first ten months of this year, $439,724,

000, is, however, still 33 per cent above the $329,016,000 during the corresponding period last year.

work, more leisure! And what gift would be more helpful, more labor-saving than a sparkling automatic gas range?

Today's gas range, with its many extraordinary features of convenience, is a wonder-worker in easing mother's never-ending work of daily meal preparation. One makes all cooking operations surer, easier. There's a new high-speed grill that broils in practically half the time. Automatic oven heat control puts an end to oven-watching. Simmer burners provide the exact heat needed instantly. Insulation of

1100 Freshmen Can't Be Wrong

Not content with being elected president of 1100 freshmen at Texas State College for Women, petite Marguerite Walling of Childress also walked away with the beauty honors of her class. Although she's a demure little blonde, five feet two, with eyes of blue, she has had no trouble in capably leading her classmates through first year difficulties.

High School Santa Claus Letters

Dear Santa Claus:
Since you were such a nice Santa last year, I'll be nice this year and not ask for much. Just bring me a red snow suit and lots to eat. Oh, yes, if you come through Stephenville, drop by John Tarleton and pick up a little boy wif brown eyes. Your admiring friend,
Mattie Isbell

Dear Santa Claus:
Mebbe you don't member me, but I is your best customer. This year I don't want much.

I would like to have a blue ribbon for my hair, and a new collar for Jo-Jo (my little dog). I would also like to have a trip to Lubbock. My friends won't come too. Please bring Miss Couch some chewing gum. That she chews now is done wore out. I would also like to request a plough-boy for Mattie Marie, an Aggie for Margaret, and I guess that is enough this time.

Yourn truly,
Mary (Blonde) Moore

My Dearest Santa,
Since you know I have been a very good girl since last Christmas, please bring me what I ask for: I do not want much. This is all: a kitty car, a little electric stove that will really cook, a set of real china dishes, a bunch of pans, a doll bed and buggy, a little doll that cries and talks, a big negro doll with pigtail, a doll dresser, a catalogue full of paper dolls, a train with tracks to it, a big rubber ball, a pair of skates small enough to fit my feet, a pair of real long and big socks for me to use next Christmas, and a whole tub full of fruits, nuts and candy.

I have not asked for much because I don't want to be selfish and I want you to have plenty left for other boys and girls.

With oodles of love to you,
Wilma June Burnison

Dear Santa,
I have been a good little boy all the year, and I want you to do something for me.

I want that list of Yank's made up into several beautiful dictionaries. On the front I would like to have engraved: "Yang Turshes Famous Dictionary." Be sure to make a good many because I want all of my dear little friends in Munday High to have one. I want Winston to have one especially because there are plenty of words in that thar dictionary for him to use to describe his love to Jean.

Well, I'll be seeing you when the Turshes come home.
Your little friend,
Dan Billingsley

Dear Santa Claus,
I want to write you a letter and tell you what I want for Christmas. I have been a good boy this year, as you know, and I have only been in detention three times and called to the office only once.

I want a Junior G-Man detective set, and plenty of detective stories. Be sure to include a badge in the set, and also, a pistol.

Oh, yes, Santa, please do one thing for me. Dr. Bass has a yearning for one thing this Christmas. He won't tell anyone but me, so please bring him a little red-wagon.

With love,
Thomas Rigby
P.S.—Santa, if you can find room, send me the book, "How to Make Love in One Easy Lesson," as I could use it.

Dear Santa Claus,
I wish you would bring me a red wagon with yellow wheels, and ball bearings, but that's not all. I also want you to bring me a gun and scabbard. I want a gun that will shoot fast like Tex Ritter's. I also want a ten gallon hat with a star on it. J.B. said he wanted a scooter and so do I, but please make mine bigger than his so I can out-run him.

My daddy said that I was getting too big to believe in you. He said he was you, but I don't believe him because you are much fatter than he is. But still every time I ask him for something he tells me that you will bring it. I'm getting all mixed up about this business, but if you bring me all these things I ask for, I will believe you and not daddy.

Your little pal,
De Troy Trammell

Dear Santa,
I ain't been very good, and I ain't been very bad, so what are you going to do about it?

I want a whole bunch of things that you don't even know about and wouldn't understand anyhow.

First, I want Mary to be a good little girl. Please bring her a mirror to let her see herself as others see her. Bring LaVerne a salt shaker because she's not so salty any more. Bring Rupert a English Class because it so hard for him to go to one. Please bring me an alarm class. I never make my first class. Bring Jo-Jo a girl friend that likes him as much as he likes her. I guess that is about all.

Love,
Geneva

Dear Santa:
Almost all other kids are asking you for a little red wagon but I don't want a wagon, when you ride in a wagon you have to push it. I want a cowboy suit. I have a nice little white horse like Buck Jones, and please bring me two big pearl-handled guns like Buck's. Oh, yes, Santa, make the chaps about 4 inches longer than Buck's because you know I am growing.

Just one more thing. If you have anything in this line, please send me some advice in "How to Please Red-Headed Women."

Your little friend,
Charlie Haynie

Dear Uncle Santa:
I have been a very good girl all this year, and I say me praver every night. I hope you will remember me this Christmas, and bring me what I want.

I want a big baby doll that will say "mama" and "papa." I want some lipstick that will make me have "luscious" lips. I want some very sweet cough drops. Bring me some clothes for my dolly so I won't have to wash her dresses often. I hope you will fulfill my wishes.

One of your precious children,
Lenore Longino

Dear Santa Claus:
I have been waiting a long time to get to write you again. You know I could write more but I don't know your address. I am going to let you off light this year because if things are as hard with you as the people here in Munday say it is with them, well, you will probably hide out this year. But in case you do get this far, please bring me the following: a billygoat wagon, bicycle, tricycle, desk, chair, tools chest, train, football, football suit, a racer, and well, just any thing you think I can use. Santa, you might wake me up when you come to my house because I want to talk to you about some of my friends. Well, I gotta go now so good bye, and don't forget my short list of toys.

Very truly yours,
Rupert Williams

My dearest Santa:
How are you, my old friend? I have been waiting to see you this coming year.

I guess you know what I want, dearie, but I shall tell you to be sure. I want a doll, that shuts her eyes, and a lot of nice doll clothes, and be sure my dollie has a bottle. I don't want much for this Christmas except a ball, clothes line, and clothes pins, some Ben Hur perfume and a train and a dog. I don't want to be a pig so I will close, dear Santa.

Your little friend,
Aleen Houser

Dear Santa,
I hardly know whether to write you or not because I have been a very bad little boy. I have been drinking coffee. Mama said you wouldn't give me anything but some switches and ashes. I am trying to be a better boy now and I wish you would remember me on Christmas Eve night, because I am going to hang me stocking up. Why Lincoln Grew Beard Explained

An eleven year old girl promoted Mr. Lincoln's beard in the midst of the 1860 presidential campaign and proof of her success along this ultra-modern line of endeavor may be seen by any visitor to Washington, D.C. The little girl was Grace Bedell, whose home was Westfield, Chautauqua county, New York. The episode was brought to the attention of the writers who were preparing articles on the capital for the American Guide, the Government's forthcoming travel handbook.

In 1860 Mr. Lincoln was clean-shaven and more than a trifle gaunt. None of his masculine supporters guessed that his regular emaciated appearance would have any effect on the voters—all male in these days—but the ladies had a better understanding of popular psychology. Probably after having heard a great deal of talk on the subject at the sewing circles and elsewhere in her village, Miss Bedell wrote Mr. Lincoln on October 15, 1860, the following letter.

"Dear Sir: My father has just come home from the fair and brought your picture and Mr. Hamlin's. I am a little girl only eleven years old, but want you should be President of the United States very much so I hope you won't think me very bad to write such a great man as you are. Have you any little girl about as large as I am? If so give them my love and tell her to write me if you cannot answer this letter. I have got four brothers and part of them will vote for you anyway and if you will let your whiskers grow I will try and get the rest of them to vote for you. You would look a great deal better for your face is so thin. All the ladies tease their husbands to vote for you and then you would be President. My father is going to vote for you and if I was a man I would vote for you too but I will try and get everyone to vote for you that I can. I think the rail fence around your picture makes it look very pretty. I have got a little baby sister, she is nine weeks old and is just as cunning as can be. When you answer address your letter direct to Grace Bedell, Westfield, Chautauqua county, N.Y.

"I must not write any more answer this letter right off. Good-by, Grace Bedell."

Mr. Lincoln saw the point and started in immediately to raise a crop of whiskers, though he felt rather amused of himself of doing it, as is indicated in the reply he sent his youthful girl advisor on October 19.

"My dear little Miss: Your very agreeable letter of the 15th is received.

"I regret the necessity of saying I have no daughters. I have three sons—one seventeen, one nine, and one seven years of age. They, with their mother, constitute my whole family.

"As to the whiskers, having never worn any, do you not think people would call it a piece of silly affectation if I were to begin now? Your very sincere well-wisher. A Lincoln."

These letters are now on display in a little cabinet at the Lincoln Museum.

Wisconsin, first State to pay unemployment benefits, is issuing approximately 35,000 checks each month. These cover total and partial unemployment. Wisconsin withdrew $1,200,000 from the trust fund for benefits the first year and paid out about $1,000,000.

THE SEASON'S GREETINGS

To our subscribers and friends it is indeed a pleasure to take advantage of this occasion to extend our sincere greetings of the season.

It is also fitting that we should give some serious thought to the high idealism of the occasion, "Peace on Earth to Men and Good Will."

And leaving international issues we still observe that greedy men are still willing to extort the last ounce of personal gain from every transaction.

On this holiday occasion which we trust you will observe in all its traditional form, please pause for a moment and consider the true significance of the day.

So with due reverence and sincerity we again extend our wishes for a Merry Christmas and a happy holiday season.

There is one man who never goes on a strike—Santa Claus. That is something the youngsters can appreciate.

CHURCH NEWS

METHODIST CHURCH

People have been very kind in their expressions of appreciation for the services last Sunday. The offering for the "Methodist Home" at Waco, was very generous and will be sufficient to meet the quota assigned to this congregation.

We are very grateful to the Baptist people for dispensing with their evening services and coming over to sing Christmas Carols with us.

A number of baskets will be made up from the donations at the evening service and several families will be provided with "the makings" of a Christmas dinner.

The services Sunday will be held at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Shall we look at the New Year with eyes that see. These are days freighted with opportunity to the church to prove her valor and save America from some experiences had by other nations.

May this Christmas occasion be a happy one with each of you. H. A. Longino

Dear Friends:

Time has rolled off another year. The Christmas Season is here again. We are reminded of the joy that was born into the world that first Christmas in the long ago when the angels brought the good news in song from God to man.

On this day we think of our friends as they have come and gone through the passing years. In our hearts we seek to renew ties and add to the joys of those we have met in other days.

Wherever Jesus comes in He brings peace, joy and comfort, and blessing. May we be imbued with the same spirit!

May this Christmas Day be to you a day filled with that sweet bliss and joy that can come only from a quiet repose and surrender to the loving care and gentle leadership of Almighty God.

We wish for you dear friend, strength for every task, grace for every sorrow and heart-ache; and may the sunshine of His blessed presence be your stay through this day, and all the coming days of the glad New Year.

Your very sincerely, W. H. Albertson Christmas 1937.

'The REST Of the Record'

BY JAMES V. ALLRED Governor of Texas

Austin.—Whether Texans generally recognize the fact or not, Texas has a law enforcement agency in the Department of Public Safety that is comparable in no small way to the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Washington.

Some fifty officers from every section of the state in addition to representatives of the police department of Mexico City attended the two weeks session where every phase of scientific and modern law enforcement was taught by experts.

Lectures on criminal investigation and scientific crime detection dealt with firearms identification; moulage reproductions, such as death masks, tire treads, and footprints, the development of obliterated identifying data on metals, and chemical examinations.

These lectures were supplemented by actual demonstrations in the laboratory.

Among other courses given were criminal identification, police communications, criminal evidence and procedure, narcotic law enforcement, extradition procedure, automobile theft, and procedure for handling strikes and mobs.

The training school which will be given twice a year was held at Camp Mabry where the Public Safety Department is housed. The cost of the school was borne by the small charge of $20 to each officer.

This enrollment fee took care of all expenses including meals, lodging and linen service for the two weeks period. The students were quartered in the modern barracks of Camp Mabry and meals were served in the large dining room of the barracks.

It is interesting to note in the face of statements on the cost of state government that the Public Safety Department—aside from the saving it has effected for the tax payer in lessened crime costs—has been the means of saving the state and estimated minimum cost of $15,000 annually in rent. It had been proposed that certain property be purchased near the capitol, a building erected, and the department housed at the rental cost of some $15,000 a year to the state.

Instead I requested an emergency appropriation from the legislature amounting to some $10,000 which, together with WPA labor, was used to build three permanent buildings on the grounds at Camp Mabry which had been given to the state for military purposes. The lumber in an abandoned CCC camp

Weinert Whips Sunset Eagles

During the first period both teams squared off for a defensive type of play and were rather cautious before they opened up.

In the second period Weinert changed their type of play and began breaking faster and while the Sunset five was asleep they rolled up a 14 point lead.

At half time the score was 25-11 and at the end of the third period the score was 32-27 Weinert.

When the fourth period opened the two teams immediately started scoring and each time that Sunset palled to within two or three points Weinert would sink a basket to get a new life.

AMBITIOUS EDDIE DODGES SCIMITAR

Ambition is a commendable thing, especially if one's head is at stake.

For a sequence in "All Baba Goes to Town," Twentieth Century-Fox musical triumph enriched by a revolutionary new three-tone tinted process, starring Eddie Cantor, and featuring Tony Martin, Roland Young, June Lang, Louise Hovick and an important cast, coming Sunday and Monday to the Rosy Theatre. Douglas Dumbrille was to swing a scimitar at Eddie's head and the famous comedian was to duck in the nick of time.

Director David Butler filmed the scene again and again with the powerfully-built Dumbrille swinging the keen-edged weapon with a swish that could be heard over the set.

"Eddie, you must stand still a second longer," Butler instructed. "I can't," replied Eddie. "I'm afraid this will be a tie game between my head and the scimitar, and I want to win. I'm just ambitious, that's all."

Miss Eleanor Jungman of Lubbock, Texas, arrived home this week to spend the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jungman.

Mrs. Dorse Rogers and son, together with Barton Carl of Goree, will leave Christmas Day for Fayetteville, Ark., where they will spend the remainder of the holiday season.

TEXAS FARMER HAS GOOD FEED IN COTTONSEED

Hulls Produced On Farm is Good Roughage

In cottonseed hulls, grown on their own farms, Southwestern farmers have an excellent roughage for dairy and beef cattle, horses, mules, Experiment Station tests and the practical experience of feeders show. The fact that hulls are free from dirt and trash make them attractive to feeders.

A simple mixture gaining popularity with many Southern Livestock feeders is one of hulls and molasses. Two parts of molasses and one part of warm water are being kept in a sprinker can for sprinkling over the highly-absorbent hulls at feeding time for work stock and dairy and beef cattle.

Compare Well With Hays
Both in analysis and in actual feeding, cottonseed hulls compare well with such choice hays as alfalfa and Johnson grass. Morrison's standard test on feeds and feeding gives the total digestible nutrients in 100 pounds of alfalfa hay as 50.3 pounds, compared with 43.7 pounds, total digestible nutrients in cotton seed hulls, 50.3 pounds in Johnson grass hay, and 43.0 pounds in Bermuda grass hay. In feed lot trials, hulls have been found to have a feeding value far in excess of the laboratory analysis.

In Mississippi Experiment Station tests to compare various roughages in the rations of steers, 100 pounds of hulls were equal in feeding value to 99.86 pounds of Johnson grass hay. Mississippi Press Bulletin No. 359 shows. Bulletin No. 278 gives average figures for a three year period, showing 100 pounds of hull equal in feeding value to 189 pounds of corn silage, 272 pounds of sorghum silage or 249 pounds of sagrain silage.

Reduce Feed Costs
Small amounts of cottonseed hulls, added to a cottonseed meal-sorghum silage-hay ration, saved feed and made the use of hulls very profitable in a 1930-31 steer feeding test in Mississippi. In this test, $1.63 worth of other feeds was saved by 1.41 of hulls; 313 pounds of hulls saved 14 pounds of cottonseed meal, 988 pounds of sorghum silage and 8 pounds of Johnson grass hay for each 100 pounds gain in live weight, when 1 part of hulls was fed with 9 parts of sorghum silage. In addition, less labor is required to feed 300 pounds of hulls than to handle 1,000 lbs. of silage.

Louisiana Agricultural Experiment Station found that hulls, supplemented with calcium, green feed and protein, were superior to a mixture of carpet grass and Bermuda grass hay, and almost equal to high quality Bermuda grass, as a roughage for dairy cattle.

In three Oklahoma experiments, cottonseed hulls, fed with cottonseed meal and ground limestone to steers proved fully equal to prairie hay in rate of gain produced and value per ton. Fed this way, the hulls produced as rapid gain as did alfalfa hay.

Improve Dairy Mixture
Light and bulky, hulls are especially valuable for mixing with concentrates in the dairy ration. "Feeds and Feeding" comments, "When bulky concentrates, such as oats and wheat bran, are not available or are high in price, cotton seed hulls may be useful to increase the bulkiness of a mixture of heavy concentrates." The late Dr. C. H. Eckles, one of our greatest dairy authorities, said, "There is a decided advantage especially to high producing cows, in the concentrate mixture being of a light character. A mixture of this kind re-

SUNROSE Window Shades Bring the Sunshine Indoors

We've just seen these new Sunrose shades and we're fascinated by the color. It's a cheerful rosy-golden hue that, when hung at your window, actually seems to bring the sunshine into your rooms even on the "grayest" days!

Another exciting thing about this new Sunrose color cloth shade is that it will harmonize so beautifully with the coral tones that promise to be popular this fall and winter in draperies, furniture coverings and bedspreads.

And if this isn't enough, the decorators tell us that we should have two sets of window shades—a cool tone for summer—and a warm tone for winter. We are not upset over this, as we are so very pleased with the glow that this Sunrose window shade will bring into your rooms and mine. We know, we've tried it at our windows, and we're ordering a set from our local department store for the living room, the dining room and the bedroom, three rooms we adore having light and cheerful during dull fall and wintry days

Patent Office Has Been Operating For 101 Years in United States

Washington (IPS)—Evidence of the American's creative genius has been reported by the United States Patent Office. The office has just issued its 2,100,000 patent—on a camera that projects pictures as well as takes them.

Although 140 countries and territories in the world grant patents, this nation far outstrips them all in the number of patents granted yearly, the Patent Office reports. Last year a total of 39,793 were granted.

Established 101 years ago—July 4, 1836—the Patent Office estimates that approximately one million inventors in the United States have been granted patents. On the work benches of these men have been born the modern day conveniences and comforts of life—the telephone, radio, electric light, automobile, typewriter and countless other appliances for the home, farm, factory and office.

The nation's inventors have come from all walks of life, records of the Patent Office show. Abraham Lincoln patented a boat which would buoy itself in shallow water; John Jacob Astor invented a street sweeper; Jack Johnson, the prizefighter, patented a money-wrench, and a farmer patented a new fangled saw.

Thomas A. Edison was the peer of them all, the records show. His contributions to better living standards and more jobs are embodied in 1,101 patents.

ous work of the day. Furthermore, the well-balanced breakfast contains fruit of tomato juice, milk and other foods that are particularly valuable. If breakfast is omitted there is the decided likelihood that these healthful juices will not be consumed as heavily as they should be. There is also a likelihood that the day's quota of milk will be reduced.

No! Don't eliminate breakfast unless a skilled physician has a good reason for it. Too many troubles may result from it.

GOING WITHOUT BREAKFAST

Have you developed the habit of going without breakfast, hoping that by so doing you will be able to take off some of that surplus fat?

This fad may result in impairment of health and is especially dangerous to those under thirty years of age. Statistics show that to be overweight up to the age of thirty gives better chance of long life and health. Of course, one does not want to be too much overweight, but a few pounds provides a reserve in case of illness or for a strenuous athletic strain.

Probably it would be wiser to omit the mid-day meal, but wiser still to make this mid-day meal a smaller one consisting of light foods. Breakfast is the meal that furnishes fuel for the most stren-

Plummer Edwards Played For John Tarleton Eleven

Stephenville—Plummer Edwards of Munday, John Tarleton Plowboy, checked in his football uniform after last Friday's post-season game in which the Plowboys, in the last three minutes of play, lost the Central Texas conference championship to Weatherford Juniors College by a score of 7-2. Tying 7-7 in their regular conference game on Armistice day, both Tarleton's Plowboys and Weatherford's Coyotes ended their season's Thanksgiving undefeated in conference competition. To decide the tie for championship, they were given special permission for last Friday game by the conference governing committee.

Tarleton took the lead in the second quarter with a safety made when Pharr covered a Weatherford punt blocked by Johnston. Fighting back and forth on a cold mist on a sloppy field, they held that lead until Weatherford scored in the last three minutes of the game, and capped the championship.

Edwards has played at back for the Plowboys this season. This week he will be among the football boys entertained by Coach H. J. "Choc" Sanders at a dinner in the Tarleton recreation hall. Lettermen will be announced at that time. Edwards is a senior in the highschool department of Tarleton.

HOME EDUCATION

"The Child's First School is the Family"

By Dr. James E. Pope

How Can We Educate for Peace?

"America, America, God shed his grace in thee, and crown thy good, with brotherhood from sea to shining sea!"

We sing, but do we practice, the keynote of peace sounded in Katherine Lee Bates' poem? Do we have that feeling of brotherhood "good will toward men" which must exist not only in America, but all the world, if we are to have "peace on earth."

How can we educate for peace? The school offers rare opportunity for the children to develop a spirit of courtesy and helpfulness toward each other. Good sportsman ship, that ability to put oneself in the "other fellow's" place, can be practised daily on the play ground, along the road to and from school, in moving about and co-working inside the schoolroom—if teachers and parents, themselves, will cooperate in defining and exemplifying habits of courteous consideration, in both school and home. Such habits may not be "natural." Conscious attempts to be kind, to apply the Golden Rule, if repeated often enough, will, however, ultimately result in good manners, in that kindness of heart essential to a feeling of brotherhood.

Modern wars are tremendously costly. The World War cost the warring nations 387 billion dollars, as well as the lives of ten million young men. According to the late President Coolidge, it will have cost the United States one hundred billion dollars before they are through paying for our share.

Smedley Butler, the Fighting Marine, is advocating that no United States troops be sent to any foreign country, and that our navy be sent to no foreign waters. This is good sense. Why should our young men be sent to China to die to safeguard the profits of American investors? Let us keep our men and ship at home.

We need to develop the international spirit, not merely to keep other perplexes, but in order to keep our own country out of war. We need to teach our boys and girls the truth about other nations. "Blessed are the peacemakers" is a promise which contains a challenge. It's possible to drift into war. Peace has to definitely be made. It can be promoted by teachers and parents through intelligence and courage and tact. May they see the opportunity and make the most of it!

Life is a frail moth flying, caught in the web of the years that pass.

The shallowest teapot does the most spouting, and boils dry the soonest.

Education will broaden a narrow mind, but there's no cure for the big head.

A woman writer is exulting over recently released figures showing that 11 per cent more men than women are crazy. But who drove the men crazy?

It does little good to put your best foot forward. People are so suspicious that the chances are they will look for the other foot.

Women lie about their age 35 per cent more than men, according to a check of census returns in Canada.

It is all right for a girl to hang onto her youth, but not when he's driving a car.

FOR THE SAKE OF PEACE

Hilda Richmond

Mrs. Tompkins had suffered a slight injury to her ankle in an auto accident while her husband was away from home, so a competent young woman, a relative and a teacher, had come to look after the four lively Tompkins children until their mother could get about once more. One day the invalid's mother came to visit her, to see how things were going. She was amazed, since her daughter suffered little pain, to find her weeping silently but bitterly.

"No, my ankle doesn't hurt me," said Mrs. Tompkins. "It's the children."

"The children? Why Eleanor, they are all well, and I never knew them to be more obedient and contented than they are right now."

"That's just the trouble, Mother! Ruth never had any children, and yet she has more influence over my children than I ever had. They tease and torment me until I want to scream, but Ruth can—she—they seem to love her more than they do their own mother!"

The elder lady tried to soothe the young mother, but failing to do so, she wisely let her have her cry out. By this time the children had been driven into the house by a sudden shower and in subdued tones they were discussing some childish matter in the next room. The two ladies listened intently.

"You go and ask cousin Ruth, Bob, 'cause you're the oldest," urged Amelia.

"Didn't you hear her say so?" demanded Bob.

"Yes, but we can coax her. Maybe she'll change her mind. Mother does," said little Bess, the baby of the four.

"Not a bit of use!" said Helen with emphasis. "When Cousin Ruth says no she means no. Let's play block house."

"There! You see how it is, Mother! I've worked and sacrificed for those children ever since they were born, yet Ruth actually has more influence over them than I have. Aunt Maria was here yesterday, and she said that if my ankle kept me tied down a little longer Ruth would have my children civilized. You know Aunt Maria prides herself on being 'plain spoken' no matter whose feelings may be hurt. She actually told me right to my face, that my children are unpopular in the neighborhood. I'm sure I've tried hard enough to bring them up properly. Maybe I am a little too easy with them, but they tease, and torment me until my patience gives out and then I give way for the sake of peace," poor Mrs. Tompkins retired again behind her limp handkerchief.

"New Eleanor, you are making a mountain out of a molehill," said her mother. "Why not take a few lessons from Ruth who is a successful teacher and a well poised young person. Study her methods, and you'll be happier and so will the children."

"Even my own mother deserts me," wept Mrs. Tompkins. "I want my children to be able to say all their lives they had a happy childhood and a devoted mother. I don't believe in harsh methods with little folks."

"Does Ruth use harsh methods, Eleanor?"

Mrs. Thomkins cast aside her handkerchief and sat bolt upright. She did not answer for a few minutes. Then she said, "Come to think of it, she never raises her voice, and she never reproaches or scolds. Perhaps I had better take a leaf out of her book of rules, mother. I do want my children to be liked by everyone."

Her mother smiled sympathetically, but said nothing.

"Maybe it is worth a sprained ankle," continued Mrs. Tompkins reflectively, "to get a lesson like this. I haven't enjoyed it though! You must help me, Mother."

"Of course," said her mother rising to go. "Begin by enjoying Ruth just as the children do, and see if you can find out what it is that she does, 'for the sake of peace.' Why are the children contented and happy under her regime?"

LONE STAR FOOTBALL CONFERENCE RUNNERS-UP

Outweighed 10 pounds to the man, the light but plucky Eagles started a record homecoming crowd of approximately 8,000 by holding the Lions scoreless, outplaying them roundly, and rolling up eight first downs to two for the Lions during the first half. The Lions, doped to win by two or three touchdowns, hit their stride in the second half for a 20-0 steam-roller win, but despite this defeat, the Eagles remain runners-up in the Lone Star Conference.

Texas Population Growth Bolsters Bid for Industry

State Still Fifth in Nation; Calif., Makes Gains

Dallas, Texas, Dec. 14.—Census figures showing Texas retaining its hold on fifth rank in population among the states against the challenge of California—which has narrowed the gap decidedly since the 1930 tabulation—bolster the Lone Star state's bid for greater industrial development, says a report of the All-South Development Council.

Texas' estimated population gain for the 12 months ending June 30 was 55,000, second only to California's 95,000 increase, with Pennsylvania gaining 40,000 for third place. The estimated new totals have California now only 18,000 behind Texas for the No. 5 spot, the score being 6,172,000 to 6,154,000. New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio are the top four, in that order.

Since upward population trends are universally regarded as bases for expanding markets, establishing new or branch industrial plants and concentrating sales and advertising activity, the Council's report, said, the showing supports the contention that many Texas commercial groups and industries which are seeking to attract new capital investment to perpetuate the endless cycle of production, employment, purchasing power, population and back to production.

However, the contrast with Texas' own progress in other decades shown by the gain of only 347,385 for the seven years since 1930 indicates a disquieting down-turn that should be reversed if the state is to maintain its reputation for solid growth. Between 1920 and the decade before that 766,666, and '30 the increase was 1,138,944, for the first decade of this century 1847,832. Opportunity for Texas to resume probable loss of fifth place to California earlier pace, to forestall the ifornia in the 1940 reckonings and at the same time get the surge of new industries her natural advantages warrant, largely depend on "official state attitude" and state advertising, the report says.

Recognizing the spectacular gains in new industries being registered by other southern states which have gone on record with assurance of fair treatment to investors, it notes that experts analyzing potential areas in making decentralization plans are scrutinizing state policies of taxation more thoroughly than ever before. In this connection the Fort Worth Star-Telegram comments editorially: "The Texas area should be a standing attraction to new citizens, but the State's official attitude toward outsiders and outside capital has never been appealing. . . . It makes little difference whether the 1940 census finds the California and Texas positions changed. Importance lies wholly in a Texas program of inducements to capital for the development of natural resources and to the home seeker who desires to live where industry will show profits."

Statewide sentiment for an advertising program as corollary to the foregoing "reform" also has increased with study of California's gains. San Antonio, which recently voted to inaugurate a national advertising campaign for itself, is strong for the state's doing the same. Noting the connection between California's pace-setting growth and that state's pioneering in state advertising, and the San Antonio Express says: "This land of opportunity (Texas) has other resources to advertise—unexploited and largely unexplored mineral wealth, business and industrial opportunities innumerable. Texas also boasts matchless attractions as a place to live. That is sufficient reason why the State should spend a quarter-million dollars per year in advertising. . . . This State needs more people to till its soil, use its farm and ranch products, develop its mineral and timber resources and in countless other ways build the Greater Commonwealth."

A PARK
Little park that I walk through
I carry off a dream of you—
A bit of sky, a bit of sea,
Autumn roses, a lad and me.

All our magic dreams are spun
In this park at set of sun.
Here we build our house in Spain,
(With a low roof—for the drip of rain.)

A crescent moon in a western sky—
Polaris Major bright and high,
Two swans sailing like silver boats—
Down from a popular a bright leaf floats.

Folded close in my heart all day
The little park where children play
Of course, dear lad, you are a part of it, too—
The very best part of the castle is you.

DEAR REMEMBRANCE
One long ago I knew
A lovely woodland nook
Where purple violets grew Amid the fallen leaves
They nestled on the ground
A shower of purple violets
Among the oak leaves brown.

Now camellias perfume
And waxen petaled roses
Scent my every room—
Flowers from a florist
Are lovely to see,
But give me woodland violets
Beneath a dark oak tree.

MY LITTLE SON
My little son, a sturdy oak,
Is strong and straight and true,
With laughter shaking all his leaves
And sunlight slipping through.

I would not ask that wind and storm
Of grief should pass him by,
O, dig stern roots deep in the soil,
Lift branches to the sky.

HEALTH LETTER FROM DR. COX

Austin, Texas, Dec. 21.—"There is a very good excuse at the holiday season to crowd into the day and night as much pleasure as possible. It is the one time of the year when every day affairs to second place. In so far as individual possibilities permit, the fiesta spirit prevails. That many persons are "short" on rest and relaxation at this time is evident to all. However, it is one thing to deprive the body for a few days of the daily quota of sleep and rest required, and quite another one to make a habit of this practice throughout the year," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Hospitals have many patients who are there solely because their desire for so-called relaxation persistently overcomes their judgment regarding nature's demands. And many thousands of others, for the same reason, are depriving themselves of abundant vitality and maximum health without which life cannot be lived at its best.

"Undoubtedly, there never has been a time in history when it is easier to remain in high-gear day and night than now. Radio, with its wealth of entertainment, good books and magazines, the bridge table and so-called "night life" develop an appeal that calls for real will power to hold in proper check.

"Nevertheless, the person who really desires to enjoy life to the full will keep his enthusiasm for the relaxations and amusements within reasonable bounds. It follows that while at the Christmas Season within limitations one safely may step up the amusement tempo, it is poor business to adopt a killing pace as routine. In short nature demands that adequate sleep and rest, nutritious food in proper quantities, fresh air and exercise play an important part in the daily program."

W. R. Moore, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore of this city, has arrived to spend the holiday season in the home of his parents. W. R. is a student at Texas A. & M. college.

Miss Marguerite Bumpas of Dallas, Texas, will arrive Thursday to spend part of the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bumpas.

Miss Rita Dingus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dingus of this city, who has been acting as Western Union operator in Seymour, Texas, has been transferred to Guymon, Oklahoma.

Music Department Entertains Faculty And School Seniors

Monday night of this week members of the music department, under the capable direction of Mrs. N. T. Underwood staged a very enjoyable musical program followed by games in which all present eagerly participated. The guests included members of the Senior Class, and members of the faculty, and his or her husband or wife.

As a conclusion of the affair, hot chocolate with sandwiches and potato chips were served. The program numbers, games, decorations, and refreshments were all cleverly arranged, carrying out the Christmas color scheme and motif.

Sunset Seniors Write Letters To Santa Claus

The Sunset seniors were very happy Tuesday morning because they were permitted to write Santa Claus letters. Following are copies of the letters they wrote:

Dear Santa: I have been a really good little girl for the last few days, so that you would remember me Christmas. Please bring me lots of candy, nuts, and fruit and a big negro doll. Remember my teacher, Miss Spraggins, also, I think she wants a pair of flannel pajamas with feet in them.
 Yours truly,
 Nettie Griffith

Dear Santa: I am a Senior this year and can't expect much for Christmas because I want most of the things for graduation. I have been very good this year. I have not been out late at night or done anything bad. If you do not mind, you may bring me a pair of house-slippers, a negro doll, and please bring my teacher, Mrs. Cash, a nice present.
 Yours truly,
 Nell Marie Nix

Dear Santa: I have been a good little boy and I want you to bring me a belt set and tie clasp. Don't forget the other little children in the Senior class and bring lots of nuts and fruits.
 Your best friend,
 Lemuel Clark

Dear Santa: As usual I want a good deal for Christmas. How I would love to find a wine velvet robe and gold medals in a nice package. Now, of course if you think Mrs. Cash has been better than I have, well, she might like these two things herself, but I will leave that up to you.
 As ever,
 Dorothy Garrett

Dear Santa Claus: I have been a really good little girl. You should know this, because every year I am. I do not want much this year, but I heard Miss Spraggins say that she wants you to bring her a "beau." She would be well pleased if he came from New Mexico.
 I will be waiting for you,
 Faye Marie Partridge

Dear Santa Claus: I have been a good little girl, but I can't think of anything I want this Christmas. Please bring my teacher a baby doll that goes to sleep and says "Mama." Let this be a surprise.
 Love,
 Frances Gray

Dear Santa: You have always been very good to me, and I guess you always will because people say you are very kind and nice. I know you really exist. Santa, I'm not particularly about what you bring me, but, please, Santa, bring Buddy a little wagon and some skates? I get tired of seeing him walk around and look lonesome. I believe he would be very delighted if you do bring him those gifts.
 Yours truly,
 LeRoy Henderson

Dear Santa: I have been a good girl this year, so I expect a visit from you. I want a wrist watch or a new bedroom suite. I want to get the car that Baker-McCarty's at Munday, is giving away. If I don't, will you please bring me one. Be sure to come and see all my teachers, too.
 Dorothy Lee Gammill

Dear Santa Claus: I have been a good boy, and I have always brought up my lessons. If you don't mind working overtime I should like to have an "A" average for all the year. Also please bring me lots of candy and nuts.
 Yours truly,
 Floyd Frost

Dear Santa: I have been a good boy this year, because you know that it is not nice to be mean except at times. Please bring me some nuts and candy because I like sweet things. Please remember my friends, Herb, Fuller and Buddy. They have not been very good, but I like to see little boys get what they want at Christmas.
 Until Christmas night,
 Askelon Stogner

Dear Santa: I have been an extra good boy, and I have not stayed up later than four o'clock. I have washed behind me ears each morning, so bring me a kiddy-car for Senior day. Please don't forget the other little Seniors.
 Yours,
 Buddy Bumpas

Dear Santa: I don't know how many things I have done wrong since last Christmas, but I think I have not done many. I don't need much to eat, for I have been getting plenty of fruit cake from a very nice lady. I would really like to have a little Mickey Mouse tricycle so I can go to town and to see Askelon as often as I like. Santa, I don't want to move away out into the Country. I want to stay where I live. Please Santa, if you can fix things so we shall not have to move, I shall not want anything.
 I'll be waiting for you,
 Fuller Shannon

Well! Six weeks exams are over another time, and we Sophs are still all "kicking." You know, we've been told we were the laziest class in school and one teacher even remarked, "I just can't get those Sophomores to work," but we are going to show them we can work. The Sophomores are honored this week with a visitor, Miss Catherine Bumpas of Dallas, Texas. Welcome, Catherine! We hope you enjoy visiting with us.
 Nellie Louise Prather

Freshmen don't take love so seriously as do the other high school pupils.

Juniors Prepare For Class Party

Wake up, Juniors! Be Alert! Mid-term examinations are only five more weeks off. The class reports that they are going to come out of the "kinks" the next exam week and not be quite so far behind in their work.

The class has their plans well under way for their Junior and Senior class party which is to be given Tuesday night, Dec. 21. Each one is planning on having the time of their lives.

The Junior Class is glad to have their classmate, Dorothy Garrett, back in school with them again.

Buddy Bumpas was looking on the wall for a picture of Lincoln to prove a point in a trial of Macbeth.

KEEPING TAB ON The Eagles

By BUDDY BUMPAS
 After winning eight straight starts, the Sunset Senior boys lost to the Weimert Bulldogs. The Eagles, having already won two games from the Bulldogs this season, and went into the game last Friday night over-confident.

By loafing around and not guarding their men, the Eagles let the Bulldogs get a fourteen point lead on them during the first half. After the intermission at the half, the boys came back fighting, but this did not last long. The Eagles could not quite catch their opponent, although they made ten more points than the Bulldogs in the last half.

Herbert Partridge, Sunset center was high point man of the game.

SUNSET'S GRADE SCHOOL STUDENTS WITNESS "HEIDI"

The Grade School children of Sunset School were very enthusiastic Monday morning, because Mr. Williams, manager of the Roxey theatre, made it possible for them to see Shirley Temple in "Heidi"
