Moguls Win 'Thriller' Over Knox City

Final minutes of the Knox City-Munday Mogul football game were tense last Friday night as the fighting Moguls staved off efforts of the Greyhounds to pull a 20-19 defeat out of the fire! The homecoming crowd experienced disappointment as the Greyhounds' two-point conversion try failed! The Mogul defense took control through out the game with three pass interceptions and three fumble recoveries. They stopped

Knox City on a two point conversion try to put the game away.

After recovering a Knox City fumble on the 42 yard line, Munday scored in 13 plays with the running of Craig Paylor and Robert Murray, 18 yard pass to Stephen Kuehler put the ball on Greyhound 3 yard line, Robert Murray crossing the goal line with 10:35 left in the second quarter. Craig Paylor kicked PAT giving the Moguls a 7-6 lead which they never lost. Three plays after the kick off Jessie Andrade intercepted a pass on the 36 yard line. Seven plays later Randy Routon passed 6 yards to Joey Kuehler to score.

Knox City gambled on fourth down at the Munday 39 just before halftime, and Robertson was dropped for a loss, the Moguls taking over on their 44. On second down, Routon passed to Kevin Smith, who broke tackle and raced to the Knox City eight before being knocked out of bounds. On the next play, Paylor went up the middle for the counter. His extra point, although 147 remained in the half, proved to be the winner!

Roberson, held to 47 yards in the first half, wound up with 122 of Knox City's 235 yards, almost doubled what Munday made on the ground during the night, but here was the difference ...

Routon completed six of eleven passes for 103 yards, one for a touchdown, another setting up a TD, and three accounting to crucial first downs in the game.

COACH LOWREY COMMENTS

When asked to comment on the Saturday night game with Knox City, head coach Jerry Lowrey smiled and said, "The win was tremendous!" Further comments from Coach Lowrey follow:

It was a classic example of a Munday-Knox City ball game and was what most people thought it would be - a close game right down to the wire. This year was no exception to the previous years.

The thing that impressed me most about our boys were their ability to hang in there after fumbling the opening kickoff with Knox City scoring with eight plays.

For the Moguls to come back and score not one, not two, but three touchdowns allowed us to take the momentum back in the (Continued On Page 2)

Boy Scout Leader Needed

Boys in Munday are interested in scouting. At least they have indicated this in the past. Troop 76 has enough boys wanting to form a troop, but as of this date, they do not have an adult leader.

If you are a parent of one of these boys or an adult who has time to spend with boys interested in scouting, please contact Curley Awalt.

Beneficial Rain Falls!

A beneficial rain was welcomed by early risers Tuesday morning, and raindrops continued to fall throughout Tuesday.

The clouds "grumbled" quite a bit before releasing their moisture, beginning at around 12:30 a.m. Some gauges - at least one - recorded the moisture at almost an inch by nine o'clock.

It'll help the situation, all right, but a lot more would be better!

Third Grader Brings Home Trophies!

A sparkling eyed little blonde with a ready smile named Kathy, journeyed to Houston from Munday recently to be a contestant in the Baby Miss America Pageant. The contest was held in the ballroom of the Hyatt Regency Hotel on Sunday, September 14. Kathy was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Edwin Wilde.

Kathy was in the Little Miss Division and brought home honors to her credit and to the community. She was selected as Miss Photogenic, named first runner-up in formal wear division, third runner-up in swim wear competition, and first place in Smile Award. She also won a camera which seemed to rate first in her preference of awards.

Kathy had "a ball" and let the people know "Munday was represented." She made friends with the doorman and bellhops, as well as several other contestants. Before the contest, as Kathy would walk by, these people would wish her luck. Her mother commented, "We never have to worry about Kathy making friends wherever she is."

Mrs. Wilde designed and made Kathy's formal which she wore in the formal wear competition. Kathy was very proud of this fact and was quick to tell everyone who complimented her on her pretty dress.

When asked if she was nervous, Kathy replied, "Well, I sure was the first two times I was on stage but the third time I wasn't. You see, I had never been in front of that many people before."

Incorrect Number In New Book

The new September, 1980, General Telephone Directory has recently been delivered to telephone customers in Munday, according to B. D. Drennan, Brownwood division manager.

"We want to call attention to the incorrect Repair Service telephone number on Page 2 of the directory. The correct number is 915-646-9551, and can be called toll-free or no charge from General Telephone Company exchanges," Drennan said.

"Customers are requested to note this number in their directory in the event they have to contact Repair Service," Drennan added. "Listings for other communities in addition to Munday include Knox City, Haskell, Aspermont, Benjamin, Goree, Rochester, Rule, and Weinert," Drennan concluded.

KATHY WILDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wilde, is shown with the trophies and camera that she won in the Little Miss Beauty Pageant held in Houston recently.

Kathy, however, she has recitals in her dancing classes. She is a student of tap, ballet, jazz and also studies twirling and acrobatics. But, as Kathy said, it is never in front of that many people.

It was a contest rule for each contestant to have sponsors. Mr. and Mrs. Wilde and Kathy expressed their appreciation for each of game. Knox City gained momentum when that first touchdown was scored and we definitely lost momentum. In athletic contests, momentum is so important. It could have easily been a long night for us.

The Moguls showed a lot of character when we got the wind in the second quarter. We were able to follow our game plan and executed as we had planned to do.

In the second half, Knox City came out knowing that they had to get with it and they did. We had to go into the wind beginning with the second half. We had a hard time moving the ball offensively primarily because of missed blocking assignments.

Defensively in the third quarter we were trying to stop their passing attack while the wind was to their favor. As a result, they caught us in a defense which was vulnerable to the run and broke a long touchdown.

In the fourth quarter, defensively we were playing run first and pass second when they were playing into the wind.

I think our defense did a good job on the opponents last scoring drive because of the fact we bent quite a bit but we never did really break - we gave up ground real grudgingly - with short gains for the Greyhounds and we didn't allow them to break for any long run.

In doing so, about 8 minutes of the clock were used up in the fourth quarter, which meant that after they scored their last touchdown, they were still trailing and didn't have a lot of time left to mount another threat.

The big play of the ball game was when we stopped them on their two point conversion try.

Knox City's game is history now and the Moguls will face Rule on Friday night with Rule being our guests. They have a 1-1 season thus far.

Rule has a real good passing attack and are hard to run the ball on. This week we can't be playing Knox

City - we are playing Rule. We must prepare ourselves, both physically and mentally, to play a tough ballgame against the Bobcats.

We must continue to improve if we are a factor in our district race.

Agnes Decker Dies Saturday At Lubbock

Mrs. Agnes Decker, 71, of Pep, Texas, a native of Knox County, passed away last Saturday in a Lubbock hospital after a period of illness.

A native of Rhineland, she was born March 28, 1908, and lived in the area until 1941 when she moved to Pep to make her home.

Funeral services were held from St. Joseph Catholic Church in Rhineland at 11 a.m. Tuesday, with burial in St. Joseph's Cemetery at Rhineland.

Surviving her are her husband, Jerome Decker of Pep; three sons, Jerry Decker of Spade, Ray Decker of Pep and Robert Decker of Plano; five daughters, Martha Nell Schilling of Bovina, Sister Hillary Decker of Nazareth, Bernedette Rollston of Lewisburg, W. Va., Cathy Tilley of St. Louis, Mo., and Mary Lou Veitenheimer of Burkburnett. Among other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Billie Jake Myers, and brothers, Larry Kuebler and Alfred Kuebler, all of Rhineland.

AREA NATIVE

Marine Pfc. Matt Kainer, son of Herbert J. Kainer of Knox City, and Joyce Graham of Stamford, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit depot, San Diego.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1980 graduate of Stamford High School, he joined the Marine Corps in April, 1980.

Lions Camps Are Discussed

Loren Maples, well known Graham businessman and a director in the Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville, gave an interesting presentation of the camp's activities at Tuesday's meeting of the Munday Lions Club. He was introduced by Kenneth Baker, program chairman.

"No child coming to the camp each summer can pay a dime," the speaker emphasized, "since the camp is owned and operated by the 42,000 Lions comprising the 15 districts of Texas.

"We take care of 800 crippled children and 300 diabetic children a year at these summer camps," he said. "Here they are provided cabins for the two weeks period, religious facilities, study of crafts, swimming and other facilities. The children don't think of each other as handicapped. A child with one arm will see another with no arms at all, and soon they are helping each other. There is competition between cabin residents in the camp's activities.

At the diabetic camp, they are provided with swimming, archery, miniature golf, horseback riding, riflery, and others. The camp philosophy is: 'You may not do as someone else does, but there is something you can do.' "Because of limited facilities, 170 applicants were turned away last year.

Mr. Maples emphasized that "no Lions Club can hold together by not doing anything" and urged the local club to become 100% members of the Lions Camp by paying $10 per member per year into the camp fund. This, he said, can be raised by worthy club projects.

Sunset Class Reunion To Be Sunday

School homecomings are delightful, in that many former schoolmates may say hello and visit for a moment. But in between homecomings, what could be more pleasant than a class reunion?

These were the thoughts of several members of the 1932 graduating class of Sunset School. These initial thoughts were put into action by several class members who still reside in this area, and the class reunion is set for Sunday, September 28, at the Munday Community Center. A "closed session" visit and luncheon is planned, including only the members of the class. However, they invite friends and relatives to drop by throughout the afternoon beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Former classmates will be traveling from California, Arkansas, Wyoming, and points in Texas to gather for the reunion. In 1978, several members of this class were guests in the home of Mrs. Bill Everett, also a class member. In 1979, as many as could were present for the Sunset Homecoming, held at the Community Center.

But these gatherings were not "complete" because the whereabouts of one of the class members was unknown. In the course of this past year, Pete Beecher has been able to locate this member and he stated, "Even if we are still living and I am elated with the fact that it appears all of us will be present at the reunion on Sunday. After 48 years, this almost seems too good to be true."

Classmates planning to attend are Lillian Verhalen, Myrtle (Partridge) Everett, Ora Mae (Reid) Thompson, Ira (Reid) Lee, Christine (Cloudis) Barnes, Arnold Land, Pete Beecher, George Gaines, Elizabeth (Shannon) Hargus, Lota Mae (Lawrence) McGregor, and Sadie (Moulder) Smith.

Deceased members of the class are Dorothy Gray, Buel Claburn, Hughlan Smith and Minnie Lee Floyd.

It is hoped that Mrs. J. S. Shannon, Mr. T. W. Harber and possibly another former teacher will be able to attend the celebration.

Benefitted By The United Fund

Following are four of the several agencies to be benefited by the 1981 United Fund campaign, which gets underway on Wednesday, October 15:

1980-81: A Time For FHA To Celebrate 35th Year

The Future Homemakers of America is thirty-five years old and members throughout the United States are planning year-long celebrations marking the events.

Behind the FHA are thirty-five years of action, growth, and achievement for two generations of home economics students. Before us are the challenges of the '80s and the concerns of a third generation of Future Homemakers of America.

There are four levels to the Future Homemakers of America. There is the National organization, the State Association, the Area Association and the Local Chapter. This network has many resources and many hard-working persons, all dedicated to the support of the youth of America.

Like any anniversary, it is time to recount past achievements and acknowledge former members and advisors. But it's also a time to take stock of the future. The Munday Chapter President, Tina Josselet and eleven officers are working doubly hard promoting the organization and the opportunities it offers.

The Munday FHA Chapter has sixty-four members and is currently the largest youth organization in Munday High School. Chapter treasurer, Deedee Kuehler, invites any qualified student to join the organization before the November deadline.

Elaine Brown, projects chairman, explains that the current program of work has something for every member. The organization has activities planned for individual recognition as well as community involvement and service.

The Future Homemakers of America have a proud past to honor, but a future to mold. The family focus makes this organization very special, but it is the individual members who make FHA an exciting organization.

"CLICK." That's where energy conservation begins. Turning off unnecessary lights, running the clothes washer, dryer, and dishwasher only with full loads. Turn the TV off when you leave it. Set your thermostat at 78 degrees for cooling and at 68 degrees for heating. These are simple conservation measures that can add up to big savings with just a little effort.

For even greater energy savings be sure your home has adequate insulation in the walls and ceilings. Double paned windows or storm windows and doors also help to insulate.

Weatherstripping and caulking are important to help keep your heating or cooling inside where it belongs. An energy efficient heat pump can provide 200% efficiency for summer cooling and winter heating.

All of these conservation measures can save you energy. And saving energy means you're saving money, all year long. West Texas Utilities wants you to get the most for your energy dollars. TRY SOMETHING DIFFERENT

See different flours, but don't know for sure if they'll work in your homebaked breads? Read this, and then try something different!

Understanding flours is easy with just a few basic facts about each in mind: WHAT YOU MUST KNOW

All-Purpose Wheat Flour - is uniquely suited to bread-making because it contains enough gluten to form the delicate elastic framework of the finished product. It's a mixture of hard and soft wheat flours usually. However, it can be milled entirely from soft wheat - and, if so, it would not be suitable for bread making.

General Guidelines about flour - Most of the flours and bakery products are enriched with thiamin, niacin, riboflavin and iron - to restore nutrients lost when the brans and germ were removed from the kernel during milling.

Whole-wheat flour is the exception here - enrichment of it isn't needed because whole-grain flours contain all nutrients naturally present in the grain.

Whole-grain flours and cereal grains provide fiber in the diet, so they're good for you. Eating foods high in fiber tends to reduce symptoms of chronic constipation, diverticulosis and some types of "irritable bowel".

IMPORTANT NOTE - Also, remember you can use some flours alone for bread-making, and you can use others only if you combine them with all-purpose flour. How to do this appears below in this section on "Combining Flours".

WHAT IS FUN TO KNOW
Self-Rising Flour - is all-purpose flour with added leavening and salt. It is not suitable for yeast breads, but it is convenient for quick breads.

Unbleached Flour - is all-purpose flour which has its natural whiteness. It's fine for bread-making, and its nutritional value and gluten content are similar to all-purpose flour.

In unbleached flour, simply, no bleaching agent was used to increase the degree of whiteness, and the difference between it and all-purpose flour in terms of whiteness is only slight.

Cake Flour - is milled from soft wheat into a very fine and uniform flour especially suited to the tender, delicate character of cakes.

Cake flour is not suited to bread-making due to the high percentage of soft wheat used in it, and it is lower in protein than all-purpose flour.

Whole-Wheat Flour - is ground from the entire wheat kernel and includes all the natural nutrients, as we mentioned above. You can use it alone or in combination with all-purpose flour for bread-making. Alone, it will produce a firmer loaf.

Graham Flour - is coarsely ground whole-wheat flour. It works alone or in combination with all-purpose flour. Alone, it will make a firmer loaf.

Rye Flour - is ground from the endosperm, inner part of the rye kernel. Do not use it alone for bread-making.

Pumpernickel Rye Graham Flour - is a coarse-texture flour ground from the entire rye kernel. Do not use it alone for bread-making.

Masa Flour (tortilla flour) - is made from corn treated with lime water. Then it's ground and dehydrated. Do not use it for making yeast breads.

Other faculty members participating were Mrs. Nahwana Donoho, Mrs. Karen Longan, Dan Sloan, Ben Hoaldrige, and Greg Rawdon. These teachers were "good sports" to present the skit to the delight of the students. Most importantly, they put forth an effort to show their support to the Moguls.

MRS. RUTH GANN

NEW FACULTY

By BELINDA STONE

One of our new faculty members is Mrs. Ruth Gann. She has had some fascinating experiences. She received her BA in foreign language at the University of Utah. She taught French and English for four years in Utah. She spent three years on the Pacific Island territory of Guam teaching French, Latin and English as a second language (TESL). She also taught French in England for one year before returning to the U. S.

She taught for one year at the Hardin Simmons campus in Abilene. There she taught English as a foreign language (TEFL) to students from foreign countries who needed to learn English well enough to pass the English proficiency test necessary to enter an American university.

She is the resource teacher at MHS and is the senior sponsor. She is teaching American History, Physical Science, Biology, English and anything else that comes up.

She enjoys classical music and likes to play the piano and has done much folk dancing. She is working on her master's degree at Hardin Simmons University.

She is married to a Haskell County native whom she met while she was teaching in Guam and he was in the Navy there. He is now living at Rule. She has three boys; one in college, one in 2nd grade, and one in kindergarten. MHS welcomes you, Mrs. Gann and wishes you a very successful year.

FHA NEWS

By DEBBIE VALENCIA

Let's hear it for the largest organization in Munday High School with 64 members! The Future Homemakers of America held a session Wednesday during activity period.

At this time a birthday cake was shared by each member who had experienced a birthday during the summer.

Discussion was held on the possibilities of a fund raising project. Several suggestions were made and a definite project will be decided at a later date.

They voted to have a secret sister the first semester for their fun project. They will each have a secret mother for this project during the second semester.

Chapter mother elected for this year are Mrs. Leona Elliott and Mrs. Stella Caram.

KINDERGARTEN INTERVIEW

By JOHN MYERS, LESTER ADAMS AND STEPHEN SCHUMACHER

As we interrupted the daily activities of the kindergarten classes we found that many of the children enjoy coming to school. They didn't mind getting up in the morning, because they all have something to look forward to. Hope Collier said that she liked to color and play with her friends at recess. Kammi Don Haynie said that she wanted to become a Munday Mogul cheerleader like her sister, Kendra.

Many of the little boys said that they wanted to play football for the Moguls, while others wanted to become policemen and firemen.

All of the kids liked to listen to stories and watch movies to end their day at school.

NEW TYPEWRITERS

By CORRINE KUEHLER

If you have been in the typing room lately you probably noticed six new typewriters. They are Royal manual typewriters.

Miss Wilde said, "I think they are nice typewriters and a beautiful addition to my Business Department. I am very proud of them." The students in her typing classes who use them commented that they like them but the machines are stiff. This is due to being new and needing to be "broken in".

The new typewriters have all the features of Miss Wilde's electric typewriters such as the number one key, placement of other keys such as the asterisk, hyphen, apostrophe, and question mark. They are also similar in body style to the electric machines.

PLAYSCHOOL

By DEBBIE VALENCIA

The Munday Homemaking department's annual playschool was held this week. Twenty-six children were invited to attend the three days of activities. One group came in the morning and a second group came in the afternoon.

The children participated in craft projects, games, free play, nature walks, singing and also enjoyed storytime. This annual playschool serves as a meaningful experience for the second year homemaking students. One of their desires is to learn more about child development and child care. The play school offers an excellent opportunity for learning while observing child behavior.

The 4-5 year old preschoolers are making new friends and having experiences in sharing and getting along with other children. So, for one fun-filled week each year the homemaking department becomes a real play school.

Mrs. Winchester appreciates the parents and child-care persons who managed to bring their children to school each day. She feels "being closely in touch with a child's world is extremely helpful to student's interest in working with children."

7th, 8th, Jr. Varsity To Play Quana Here Today

The 7th, 8th, and Junior Varsity teams will again be the home team when Quana travels to Munday on Thursday, September 25, (today).

Last week when Knox City visited us, the seventh grade experienced a tie game, 0-0; the eighth grade won over the Greyhounds, 26-0; and our Jr. Varsity lost 18-6.

Coach Dennis and the coaching staff are very pleased with the fact they have as many boys involved in the Jr. High program as they do - 47 in all. Since they do not have many eighth graders, it is necessary to move some 7th graders up to the 8th grade team.

On the 7th grade team there are 18 sixth graders. Coach Dennis stated, "Not everyone got to play because we didn't feel like the 6th grade boys were quite ready. A positive note on these boys is that they still have two more years to play and we tell the boys this."

"With Knox City, it was pretty much of a stalemate. Both myself and the Knox City coach allowed some of the younger ones to hit the field and the teams were pretty well equaled. There was no disappointment on my part as far as how our boys performed; they did what they knew to do."

Coach Dennis also said he was pleased with the 8th grade boys' effort. He stated, "I felt like they lacked time for preparation but they executed well under the circumstances. There were bright spots throughout the game."

In commenting on the upcoming game with Quana, Coach Dennis stated that Quana had already experienced two games to Munday's one but that things had a way of equaling out when the teams walked out on the field.

Coach McLesky stated that the Mogul Jr. Varsity are a little in-experienced because they are running a completely new defense this year. The offensive program is offering a new terminology to the boys too.

There are only 15 boys on the J. V. squad this year - six sophomores, one junior, and eight freshmen.

Coach McLesky said, "Overall, most of the boys put out good effort. With fifteen boys, most of them have to learn to play both offense and defense."

"In the game with Knox City, Quincy Adams scored on a 75 yard run gaining 158 yards rushing all total. Danny Hertel did us a good job quarterbacking his first game. Danny Sloan performed as running back and corner back and did very well both offensively and defensively."

"Our boys are improving as time goes on and we are looking forward to facing Quana on Thursday."

FIVE YEAR OLD TRAVIS LOY of El Paso demonstrates with the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness Home Eye Test the "E" that this fall is as important as "ABC" to children entering Texas schools for the first time. The "E" is the symbol on that basic vision test that, by law, all children must have. In Travis' case, the "E" chart indicated he had amblyopia or "lazy eye". If his problem had not been detected and treated before he was six, Travis would have lost all functional sight in his "lazy eye".

First Of Six Rehab Cattle Sales Set For Sept. 29

Mammoth bulls have been added to the list of registered livestock donated to the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children.

The first of six Round-Up sales, all benefitting the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, will be held Sept. 29 at Abilene Livestock Auction.

Two of the most recent donations are a three-year-old registered Simmental bull and a three-year-old registered Zebu bull.

The Simmental was donated by Polston Land and Cattle Company. Dr. James Nevins of San Angelo donated the Zebu.

"The market will definitely be bullish," said Jim Alexander, chairman of the Cattlemen's Round-Up.

Other bulls will be joining the rapidly-growing parade of animals as more livestock is donated to the Rehab benefit sale.

To be auctioned will be feeder steers and fat steers; Brahmas, Herefords, Charolais, Angus, Longhorns, Limousins and other breeds.

"This is the largest number of registered animals the sale has had," said Alexander. "We hope there will be more stocker feeder cattle donated to balance the sale."

Proceeds will be used to treat more than 8,000 handicapped children and adults treated annually at the three campuses at WTRC, in Abilene, San Angelo, and Snyder.

CAMP WOOD

You are in Camp Wood on the Nueces River, Texas was important in the career of Charles Lindbergh. When he bought his first World War I surplus Jenny in Georgia, he flew it to Texarkana in 1923 so he could say he had flown in Texas, the ambition of every Bomartner.

With Leon Klink, in March 1924, he landed Klink's Canuck in Camp Wood, while trying to fly to California. Next day, in attempting to take off, he accidentally crashed into Warren Priest's store. No one was hurt and his offer to pay for the damage was rejected. Then called "Slim", Lindbergh made many friends here. Two weeks after visiting Camp Wood, he became a U.S. Air Service Cadet at Brooks Field, San Antonio. He completed advanced flight training at Kelly Field in 1925. On May 20-21, 1927, he made the first Solo Flight from New York to Paris, to world acclaim, and remained a hero to the people of Camp Wood.

IN TOUCH By IVAN ALLEN, PASTOR FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

"SERVING: A Discipline of the Christian Life" One of the emphasis Jesus made during his ministry was that he was a servant. He endeavored to impress this upon the minds of his disciples, also telling them that they must be servants in the world. One day, according to Mark's Gospel, James and John came to Jesus seeking the places of honor at his right and left sides when he established his kingdom.

At that time Jesus pointed out: "Whoever would be great among you must be your servant and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all." (Mark 10:43-44, RSV). At another time Jesus took a towel and basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples. This he did to dramatize the servant role of himself and his followers. The Apostle Paul, in his letters to the Churches, reminded the people of the Lord Jesus Christ. In writing to the Churches in Galatia he said, "For you were called to freedom, brethren, only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants of one another." (Galatians 5:13).

If we are Christian we must be servants, we must "serve one another in love." This means giving up selfishness, self-seeking, envy, and jealousy. It means being sensitive to the needs of others and willing to help them become the persons God wants them to be. To serve one another in love we must help them learn. This includes the basic skills of reading and writing - skills many of us take for granted - but skills which many persons throughout the world do not really possess. But this also includes helping persons grow in the Christian faith and learning how God works in the lives of people. "Serving" one another in love also means helping to provide for the physical needs of people. One of the great needs of a large number of people around the world today is that of having enough food to sustain the physical body. This is especially true in the developing nations of the world. It is also true in areas where there is a concentration of people who have been displaced for one reason or another. As Christians we are committed to helping discover solutions to these and other problems.

We serve one another in love as we work to achieve reconciliation between persons. Confrontation and conflict seem to be with us always. At times the conflicts erupt into open and serious battle. There are other times when the feeling of unrest, insecurity and suspicion is high. Christians are to be reconcilers and to do this we must give up our apathy, prejudices, and jealousies, and extend a hand of friendship and love to persons around us. We serve others in love as we join hands with Christian people in the community and around the world to make a witness that "Jesus Christ is Lord". Our witness is made in many ways: by our preaching and teaching, our thoughts and conversation, our commitment to Jesus Christ and the love we show to others. As we join hands in the Christian faith we become true servants of our Lord.
