Views From Another Point

by Joyce Beecher Greenwood

There's a Statler Brothers' song that goes, "...do you remember? If you remember -- then, Honey, you're much older than I." It's an old song - all about not wanting to admit that anybody remembers running boards and rumble seats.

Have you ever noticed how much emphasis is put on age? If we hear that a new teacher is being hired, our first question is, "How old is she?" If a new preacher's coming to town, we automatically ask, "About how old is he?"

Men, it seems, are not particularly concerned about age, but a woman will do anything but kill to keep hers a secret. Do you think, when asked one's age, it might be better to tell the truth on the faintest of hopes that someone just might think, "She really doesn't look that old" -- than to fib and have everybody think, "Boy! That old bag has lived one heck of a hard life."

So, if you're old enough -- and bold enough to admit it -- do you remember being a kid in the summertime in the forties?

...Do you remember sitting on the porch late in the evening, waiting for the night to cool enough to sleep in the house, and when it didn't you pulled an old mattress outside and slept under the stars? Remember how bright the stars looked? If you were fortunate enough to have a dad like we had, remember how he named all the constellations and told wonderful stories about each one so that your imagination went swinging off the 'Big Dipper' and sliding down the 'Milky Way'?

...Remember putting the square, yellow sign up in the door for the iceman -- watching for him -- and then getting in his way as he lifted big blocks of the clear, crystal cubes and put them into your 'ice box'? Then, remember how you and your sister took turns sitting on top of the ice cream freezer while your dad cranked away and you all sang at the top of your lungs... "Pa's old dog -- he killed a frog!"

...Did you have a climbing tree by the side of your house? And did you take your old worn copy of The Bobsey Twins and climb way up into the cool, shady branches and read until your mother called you to supper?

...Remember how good an ice cold watermelon tasted when your mom took it out of the ice water in the old No. 3 tub and handed you a juicy, sweet slice? And, did you ever feel the cool sensation of a drink of well water when your grandpa drew it up with a battered old bucket and poured it into a gourd dipper while you waited, expectantly?

...Remember running barefoot in the hot sand all the way to the barn and jumping into the cool waters of the horse trough?

...Do you remember when iced tea was a real treat and signified the true beginning of summer? Remember when the chickens reached 'frying size' and, even though you ran away in horror when your mother rung their heads off, remember how good they smelled frying in a pan?

...Do you remember summer nights so quiet you could hear the cricket's serenade? Did you ever sit real close to your dad and shiver as the 'hired hand' and his wife sat in the yard long after dark and told stories about 'haints'?

...Do you remember the sound of a summer shower on a tin roof at night? Remember the smell of it through an open window, enhancing the smell of sunshine on a

Mrs. Greenwood is employed by the Goree Schools where she has been a teacher aide since the beginning of the Title I programs. She is the wife of Tommy Greenwood and daughter of Mrs. Pauline Beecher and the late Pete Beecher of Goree. "Doc" Stewart Retires After Thirty-Eight Year Practice

Dr. W.H. (Bill) Stewart has retired from a veterinary practice that has spanned almost four decades and earned him the affection and respect of two generations of Knox County residents. "Doc" Stewart has become a familiar name over the years as the area residents have depended on him to 'doctor' their sick cow or horse; and almost every dog in the county who can claim a caring master bears a vaccination tag from Dr. Stewart.

Dr. Stewart and his wife, Elsie, came to Munday in August of 1954. He had been associated with Dr. Williams in Colorado City for two years and Dr. Cox in Lubbock for another two years prior to settling in Munday. He received his veterinary degree from Texas A&M "at a time when there were only seventeen veterinarian schools throughout the United States."

"It will seem strange for a while -- not being involved with the hospital," Dr. Stewart remarked. "After all, we've been here half our lifetime, but I'm very pleased to have Dr. Hairgrove take over the practice. He's quite established and very dedicated and it's important to me to know that he is capable of taking good care of my clients."

Dr. Stewart is looking forward to being able to do some things he's been too busy to do for many years. He and Mrs. Stewart plan to visit some old friends they haven't seen in a long time, perhaps take some tours and just enjoy "doing those things we've always wanted to do."

"These years have been rewarding ones," Dr. Stewart concluded. "I have enjoyed my association with the people in Knox County and the surrounding area. I'm going

City Council Grants WTU Request, Accepts Resignation

The City Council of the City of Munday, Texas met in regular session on July 12 at the Munday City Hall.

Members present were Mayor Doris Dickerson and Aldermen Jessie Andrade, Richard Albus, Gene Brown and Garon Tidwell. Jessie Tucker was absent.

Mayor Dickerson called the meeting to order. Minutes of the June 7 meeting were read. Tidwell moved that the minutes be approved as written and Brown seconded with the motion carrying unanimously.

First order of business was discussion with Leon Sellers and James Elam of West Texas Utilities in regard to planting some small trees on the east side of their building. Brown moved that three small live oak trees be planted in the square cut-outs in the sidewalk. They are to be placed so as not to interfere with fire plug operation, parking and walkway access. The total cost of the project will be paid by West Texas Utilities. Albus seconded. Motion carried.

Next on the agenda was the request of the Knox County Appraisal District that the City Council nominate its choice for a replacement for Mr. Clyde Voss who tendered his resignation as member of that board. Gene Brown moved that Bill Baker be named to fill the unexpired term. Andrade seconded the motion. All members voted for; motion carried.

Considered next was the annual airport farmland lease. Brown moved the lease be renewed for one year at $1100 with other terms and consideration to be the same as the 1987 lease. Lease date term is from June 10, 1988 until June 10, 1989 with funds to be deposited to the airport account. Tidwell seconded the motion. All in favor.

Henry Dancer appeared before the council and tendered his resignation as Police Chief. His resignation will be effective on July 24 at midnight. Tidwell moved that Dancer's resignation be accepted and added his regrets that Dancer would be resigning, commending him on the fine job he has done during his tenure as Munday Police Chief. Mayor Dickerson and each councilman expressed appreciation to Dancer for his service to the citizens of Munday. Albus seconded the motion to accept Dancer's resignation. Motion carried. The City administrator was instructed to place an ad in the Courier for job applications for Police Chief and Police Patrolman. (Only one person is to be hired.)

A letter was read by City Administrator Hertel in regard to a recent landfill inspection by John Butler. No corrective action was recommended, and no council action was required.

Further information from Butler & Casstevens had been received concerning the rate increase request by General Telephone Company. Information received supports the council contention that no increase is needed at this time and the mayor and city administrator were authorized to take steps deemed necessary to help to deny the approximate 50% business increase and the approximate 70% residence increase requested by General Telephone Co. Tabled at this time was a request by the Civil Justice League.

The council next examined the Housing Authority agendas of June 6 and July 1. No action was required.

The City Administrator read the proposed ordinance on vicious dogs. This was also tabled for further information.

It was requested that the drainage ditch north of Munday Tire and Appliance be cleaned out. This will be done when it is dry enough and time permits this operation.

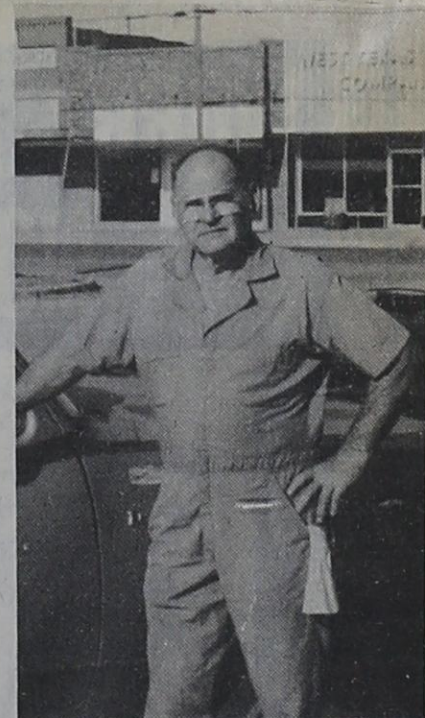

Brown moved bills be paid as follows: from airport funds, $44.36; from ambulance funds, $332.41; from pool funds, $876.73; from Certificates of Boligation funds, $48.00; from operating funds, $17,253.19. Andrade seconded. All voted for; motion carried.

Tidwell moved the meeting adjourn. Brown seconded. All members for.

County Cemetery Meeting Scheduled

Representatives from all cemetery associations in Knox County have been asked to attend a meeting at the Munday Chamber of Commerce at 2 p.m., July 26, according to Moulton Wiggins, county chairman of the survey committee.

Each cemetery group is asked to bring a report on its progress and any questions they may have. The Munday group has completed the survey portion of its project and has come across some problems, so its experience may be useful to some other groups.

The Stewarts are the parents of two daughters, Susan and Nancy, and one son, Bill. They have five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Munday Hosts Little League Tournament

Putnam Field is the site for action as Munday hosts the District Little League Tournament.

Graham defeated Seymour in an eight inning game on Monday night with a score of 8-4 while Iowa Park managed to "shut out" Haskell with a score of 5-0.

Graham and Iowa Park were to meet on Tuesday, July 20 in the double elimination tournament of Little League play.

New Veterinarians To Practice In Munday

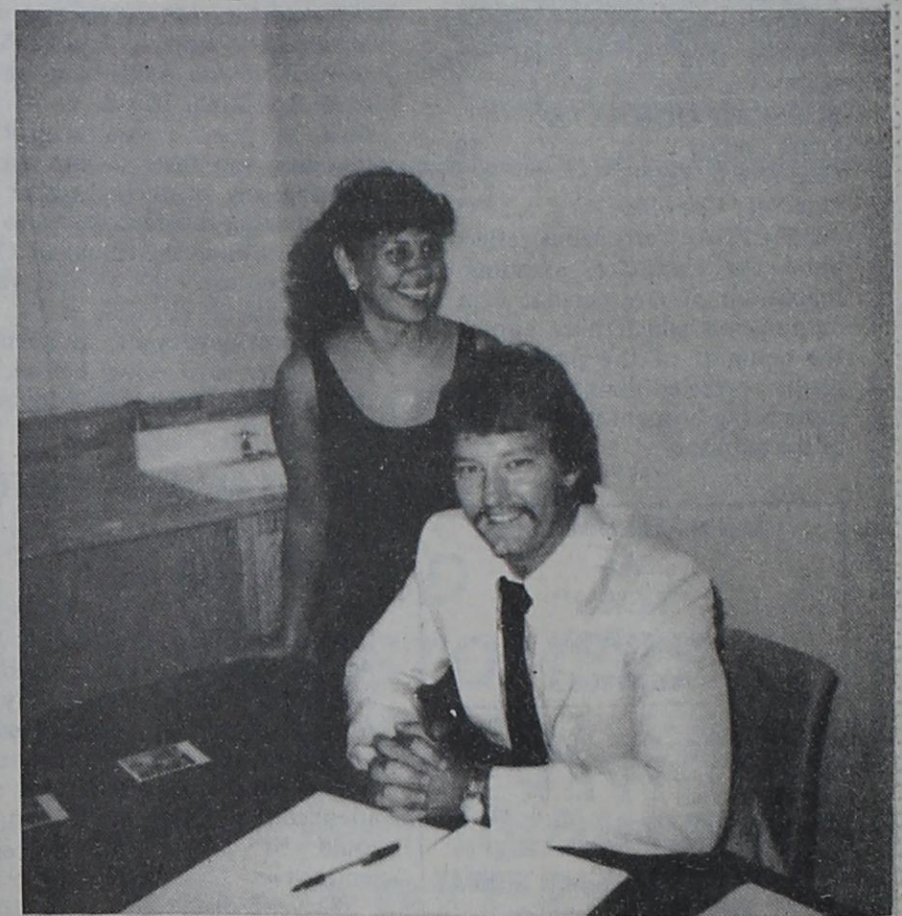

Along with a new name, 'Doc' Stewart's Animal Hospital will also feature some new faces. The familiar veterinary building will now be called Knox County Veterinary Clinic and will be under the direction of Dr. Tom Hairgrove of Haskell.

After graduating from Texas A&M University in 1974, Dr. Hairgrove was associated with a clinic in Fort Stockton for two years. He moved to Haskell in 1976 where he lives with his wife, Peggy, and their two-year-old son, Ross.

Dr. Hairgrove will continue to practice in Haskell with the Munday facility being served by his assistant, Dr. Claude White.

Dr. White is a 1988 graduate of Texas A&M and will be making his home in Munday. He expressed his

Doctor Terry W. Springer To Begin Practice In Knox County

D.L. Stout, administrator of Knox County Hospital, has reported that a contract has been signed between the hospital administration and Dr. Terry W. Springer, to become effective the first week of October.

MD general practitioner from Fort Worth, 30 year-old Springer is engaged to marry Anita Barela in December. Miss Barela is a registered nurse from Vernon. They will make their home in Knox County.

Dr. Springer completed his pre-medical education from the University of Texas in Arlington and received his medical degree from the University of Texas Medical School in Houston. He is a graduate of the American College of Emergency Physicians and has intensive training in emergency room procedure. He is currently practicing in the emergency unit of the Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls.

"He comes highly recommended to us," Stout said. "He is young and enthusiastic and we feel fortunate to have him joining our hospital staff."

Beginning the first week in October, Dr. Springer will be in the Dr. Newsom/Hooker building in Munday from 8 a.m. until noon. Knox City office hours will be from 1 - 5 p.m. in the hospital office formerly occupied by Dr. Barretta.

Stout expressed hope that Knox County residents will support their doctors and hospital. He feels that the staff and facilities are sufficiently equipped to take care of the medical needs of the people.

DR. TOM HAIRGROVE of Haskell has begun practice in the Knox County Veterinary Clinic in Munday. Shown from left to right are Kim Brockett, secretary; Sheila Hester, bookkeeper; Dr. Hairgrove and his assistant, Dr. Claude White. Kim Brockett is secretary for the doctors and will be located in the Munday office. Sheila Hester will be employed as bookkeeper in both the Haskell and Munday office.

"I'm happy to have this opportunity to serve Knox County in the capacity of veterinarian," stated Dr. Hairgrove. "I'm looking forward to meeting the people and to becoming a part of their community."

The Knox County Veterinary Clinic will be open from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and on Saturday mornings.

DON'T SHOOT YOURSELF DOWN!
 Several years ago the newspapers told how a new Navy jet fighter shot itself down. Flying at supersonic speeds, it ran into cannon shells it had fired only seconds before.
THE JET WAS TRAVELING TOO FAST. YOU ARE TRAVELING TOO FAST...
 If you don't have time to be kind, if you don't have time to visit the sick and the shut-ins, if you don't have time to worship God in church services, if you don't have time to read the Bible, if you don't have time to pray - you're probably traveling too fast. If you are neglecting any of these because you are traveling too fast, you may not be able to hear the sound of God's voice. You can't tell whether you're in the center of His will.
 See you next week, and remember: better slow down before, like the jet, you shoot yourself down.

Weaver And Pierce In All-Star Game

Goree's Grady Weaver and Benjamin's Jeff Pierce turned in brilliant performances in the Six-Man All-Star football game held in Stephenville on Saturday, July 16. Although the western division edged by the east in the last five minutes of the 8-6 cliffhanger, area fans who attended reported that Knox County could be proud of its representatives.
 Weaver displayed tremendous speed and agility as offensive running back and made the only touchdown by the eastern division. Pierce played outstanding defense throughout the entire game, intercepting a western division pass in the fourth quarter to prevent a probable touchdown.
 The game was tied 0-0 at half-time, with a strong defensive stand by the east in the last few minutes of play. Then, late in the third quarter, Weaver caught a 10-yard pass and ran 25 yards for a touchdown. The extra point attempt was thwarted, however, making the score 6-0 in favor of the east.
 With only minutes left to play, the western division scored a touchdown and completed the necessary points after for a final 8-6 victory.
 Grady Weaver is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weaver of Goree and is a 1988 graduate of Goree High School. Jeff Pierce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Pierce of Benjamin and is a 1988 graduate of Benjamin High School.
 Queen candidates were honored on Friday night with a cook-out and a dance in the park. Serving as Weaver's escort and representing Goree in the queen's contest was Gina Harris, daughter of Gayle Hudson of Goree, and Billy Harris of Munday.
 Pierce did not have a Benjamin representative in the queen's contest.

Have a nice day!

PLANS COMPLETE FOR TRAIL RIDE; BEGINS FRIDAY A.M.

The big trail ride and wagon train will leave Truscott at 9 a.m. Friday morning. Coffee will be served in front of the old grocery store from 8 to 9 a.m. to the fifty or so trail riders, and probably to many onlookers.

The first part of the trail will lead north at the post office, west at the C.C. Browning house site, across China Creek between the old JY trap and the Jones Ranch, past the entrance to Truscott Lake, then loop around south past Margaret Corder's old house. It will cross China Creek again at the site of the old graves, then turn west toward the Alexander Ranch at the county road on the north side of Vivian Brown's place. From the Alexander place it will go north to the Carroll Ranch on Antelope Flat where the noon stop will be held. The afternoon will be spent on pasture trails crossing the Carroll and Lowrance ranches with the final stop for the day being at the Lowrance Ranch headquarters. At least part of the trail that afternoon will be on or near the old buffalo trail used to freight buffalo hides to market at Henrietta. Saturday noon the stop will be on the Y Ranch and the Saturday night stop will be at Y Ranch headquarters in Cottle County. Sunday noon the final stop will be at the Gafford Ranch west of Crowell.

Those wishing to go for one day or all of the trail ride should call Margaret Daniel, 474-3339, or Joan Daniel, 474-3361. Breakfasts will be $4, lunches, $2.50, and suppers, $6. Arrangements can be made for attending the morning and evening meals only, even if one does not go on the trail ride.

Friday night chicken fried steak will be served, followed by country music and a dance. The same program will follow the barbecue at the Y.

Lots of good visiting will be mixed in each evening and it will be a time for lots of talk as the wind rustles through the mesquite and the Big Dipper floats across the summer sky. Opportunities to meet out on the prairie like this don't happen often anymore.

The Divide country is looking lush and green. It was a welcome sight Saturday evening as we drove in from Colorado as the usual July color is desert gold. However, a tour of the yard revealed cracks in the ground already and of course the tanks still need water. Tractors are busy everywhere. Some fields are getting the first plowing since harvest because first it was too dry to plow and then, if a field happened to be under the right cloud, it was too wet. Monday morning came in hazy, windy, and comparatively cool, 88 degrees.

A couple of weeks back we reported that Sydney Alexander's birthday was on July 4. Later he said that his brother's birthday was on March 2, Texas Independence Day.

Joe Tomanek of Boyd visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Tomanek, and brother, Michael, over the weekend.

Kim Cash left Monday morning for four days at Tarleton State University for orientation and interviews.

Margaret Todd is at the Coronado Care Home in Abilene for physical therapy.

Visiting Edgar Jones Sunday afternoon were Q.D. and Joyce Williams of Floydada and Jelly and Iva Ruth McBeath of Vernon. Joyce leaves this week for a European tour with an ACU group.

Edgar Jones has completed some remodeling work on his house including a new shower and new linoleum in his laundry room, kitchen, west hall and west bathroom.

Jack and Clara Brown returned from South Fork Colorado Saturday evening. They enjoyed seeing old friends including Ruth and Ray McGee, who formerly owned the Wolf Creek Ranch there.

LaNay Cash planned to start Monday morning on a two-week orientation period at Center North in Vernon. She will be an LVN there.

The county began Monday tearing down the old Van Browning station building. It was bought by the county and used for equipment storage for many years but in recent years its condition had deteriorated.

Buford Brown, former Truscott resident, was hospitalized and in intensive care recently for heart and lung problems, which he writes were due to "too many cigarettes". He is now at home, and not smoking, according to his wife, Faye, at 3917 Firetown, Arlington, Texas 76017.

All cemetery committees in Knox County have been asked to send a representative to a cemetery survey meeting at the Munday Chamber of Commerce office July 26 at 2 p.m. The Munday group is through with the actual cemetery survey and will help advise any group that has run into problems.

Meagan Mescall of Baytown, Texas is walking alone. Her brother Alex is happy, because now he is able to trip her. They are both enjoying the Case tractor Alex got for his birthday from the McClain Case house at Crowell.

Kristy Kimmell spent the weekend putting up peach preserves. Several have reported good peach crops.

Derrell and Margaret Kimmell of De Leon visited their son, the Johnny Kimmells, the weekend of July 9.

Johnny Kimmell was a pallbearer at the funeral of Sue Moorhouse at Benjamin last week.

It's A Boy!

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bailey of Mesquite are proud to announce the arrival of their son, Preston Cole Bailey, born Monday, July 11, 1988. His older brother, Brandon, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Loyd Lambeth and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey, are also very proud of him.

Warm Weather Tips For Care Of Dogs

Don't let the "dog days" of summer affect your pet's happiness and health. Summer can be a time of great fun for you and your dog, providing you follow a few simple rules offered by the American Kennel Club.

*Always keep plenty of cool, fresh water handy.

*Make sure if dogs are going to be left outside there's plenty of shade within their reach.

*If possible, try not to leave the dog alone in the car during the summer - cars heat up so quickly. If you must, park in the shade and leave the windows open so that fresh air can circulate.

*School's out and children are all around. For everyone's protection, be sure that your dog is under your control or within a secure enclosure.

*Best to visit the vet before the summer begins for parasite medication. Check daily for ticks and fleas.

*Don't leave the dog's food out in the hot weather. Bacteria grows quickly. If you must leave the food out make sure it's dry food with fresh water alongside.

Consult your veterinarian for more warm weather pet care advice.

The "I Can" Lady To Speak In Munday

On Saturday, August 13 at 7:00 p.m. in the Munday High School Auditorium, professional educator and motivational speaker Mamie McCullough will present a program to instruct the community in the "I Can" approach to education. Widely known as the "I Can" Lady, McCullough has adopted the Zig Zigar's See You At the Top philosophy to meet the needs of educators and students by teaching them the importance of a positive life attitude.

The "I Can" theory promotes the philosophy of insuring brighter tomorrows by developing the right mental attitude; building a healthy self-image, strengthening relationships with others; committing themselves to set and reach goals; and believing in the importance of work and desire.

The "I Can" philosophy can be visualized as a three-legged stool. Each leg represents a point of focus for the "I Can" way of life. The first leg represents teachers and strives to resell them on the importance of their profession and to help them become more effective. The second leg represents students, who make up 100% of our future. The "I Can" curriculum helps students develop their potential within balanced priorities. The third leg of the stool represents parents and the idea that through parent-child interaction, the "I Can" program helps parents become more involved in helping their children become healthy, happy, and productive adults.

It is claimed in some legends that, in ancient Egypt, baboons were trained to wait on tables.

Senator Lloyd Bentsen Watching Washington

Long-term illness can be devastating, not only to the patient but to the family as well.

In addition to the physical and emotional costs, the financial costs of a lingering illness can be unbearable for many people, even families that have been prudent and saved their money for tough times.

A Fort Worth woman is one of those people. She worked as a sales clerk. Her husband, disabled for 10 years, had died four years earlier. Then she underwent a quadruple bypass. Her medical bills totalled $26,000.

"My assets were devastated, plus I was not able to work anymore..." she told me in a letter. "It would bring such comfort to know I had insurance that could help if I had another attack and surgery was necessary again."

I had people like her in mind when I authored a bill to protect older Americans from catastrophic hospital, doctor and drug bills.

As Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, which has jurisdiction over most of the health legislation Congress considers, I have a particularly effective forum for acting on these concerns. So it was most gratifying when Congress passed that bill and President Reagan signed it last July 1.

The catastrophic coverage plan—the most significant, far-reaching improvement in the Medicare program since its inception in 1965—will dramatically ease the financial threat posed by long-term illness. When you consider that about one Texan in 10 is older than 65, that's a particularly important consideration for our state.

Here are some provisions of the plan:

• It eases one of the greatest drains on family budgets—the cost of prescription drugs.

• Medicare beneficiaries are guaranteed unlimited free hospitalization once they pay an annual deductible. Until now, only the first 60 days were free.

• It establishes a cap on what Medicare beneficiaries have to pay for doctor services. Currently, there is none, leaving families liable for untold thousands of dollars of expenses.

• A husband and wife won't be forced to spend all of their income and savings—as has too often been the case—after one of them enters a nursing home and qualifies for Medicaid. A "spousal impoverishment" provision will allow the couple to keep about $750 per month in income and $12,000 in assets, beyond such items as a house, a car, and personal belongings.

For two of every three older and disabled Americans, the catastrophic illness insurance program will cost just $4 a month. For others, the cost will rise, based on their ability to pay.

This coverage is financed by premiums, so it won't add one dime to our federal budget deficit. Nor will it place additional financial burdens on the next generation. Just as we have an obligation to older Texans, we must not leave a crushing deficit as a legacy to our children and grandchildren.

The son of a Texas oil worker told me what this action means to his family: "As the son of aging parents with no large bankroll for support in case of serious long-term illness, I appreciate things like this. A serious illness (cancer) of my stepfather's first wife almost broke him. He lost virtually all of his resources collected over a 37-year career.... working his way up from a roughneck to head of personnel.

"It's a shame to see proud, strong people brought down by outside events such as an illness."

Now, that oil worker, that woman in Fort Worth and millions more Americans can count on some help.

The farmers are busy in the fields after our good rains, getting the cotton cultivated and all the weeds cut. We don't have many hoe-hands in the area, as many of our residents have gone north to work in the vegetable harvest in Minnesota and Michigan. Everything looks good for a good crop yield this fall.

Our birthday people this week include Linda Adams, Greg Turnbow, Margaret Castorena, Jesse Castorena and Dianne Carroll. Happy birthday, all, and may each of you have a nice day!

Emily and Brooke Miller, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Miller of Breckenridge, are spending a week of their vacation in the home of their aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hester, Laurie and Stacy.

Stacy Hester was in Houston recently for a health evaluation and got a good report. He is busy with his Amway Products.

Bertie Alexander is improved in health, and was in Abilene on Tuesday with her son, J.C. and Peggy Alexander, of Veneta, Oregon, for a visit with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schindler.

J.C. and Peggy had to return to their jobs in Oregon and missed their family reunion held in Seymour on Saturday.

Debbie Hutchinson entertained her friend from Junction last week. Josefa Martinez and little daughter, Elyse, came for a few days visit, and enjoyed country life, some fishing and fresh garden vegetables.

Debbie's college classmate, Donna Nelms, of Garland, was also a guest in the Hutchinson home, as were two of her great-aunts, Callie Mach, of Dallas, and Grace Hutchinson of Munday.

Helen and Floyd Stout have returned from a three-week tour of Texas, with stops along the way for fishing and visitation.

They spent some time at Pat Mayse Lake and at Beaver's Bend Lake in Oklahoma, where the temperature was 60 degrees at night and no higher than 86 degrees in the daytime. Perfect?

They attended the Stout family reunion held this year at Malta, Texas. Thurman and Feba Stout were also in attendance at the reunion.

Ann Glasscock has returned to her home in San Angelo after spending the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phemister, and commuting to the Haskell singing school each day with her children who were students at the school. Those attending were Jimmy, Johnny, Billy, Russel, LaDonna, Amanda and a friend, Charla Bently.

Sue and Jimmy Hackney, with Talanda, of Ft. Worth, were recent visitors in the home of her parents, D.I. and Mattie White. Talanda attended the singing school and remained in Weinert for a longer visit with relatives.

Marilyn and Johnny Earp took their camp trailer to Colorado last week, and her parents, Fran and "Check" Smith, will occupy it for the rest of the summer. (Some parents raise good kids!)

Marilyn Earp and Wanda Hester were in Austin to attend a workshop last week. It was held at the Marriott Hotel and was entitled "Advanced Collections", which was designed to help workers in the tax appraisal offices.

Donnie Crump was on the teaching staff at the Baptist junior high church camp at Lueders this week.

Shanna Murphy was in attendance at the camp.

We welcome our newest residents to Weinert. Janet and Billy Joe Frazier have moved into the former home of Mrs. Henry Smith.

Janet is our kindergarten teacher, and Joe will commute to Haskell where he is employed.

Fred and Kelly Green have moved to Paint Creek where Fred will teach agriculture in the school. We learned to love the Greens and regret that through the loss of our high school we also lost some of our teachers. We wish them well.

Ima Stewart was in Wichita Falls this week for an eye check-up with her doctor and she did not get a good report.

We all admire Ima so much for her determination to remain independent as long as she can. She continues cooking and crocheting for others and does her own work and gardening.

Donita Hudgens, with sons Bryce and Caleb, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dale in Muleshoe for a few days, and helping with a gigantic garage sale. (Now how far did you say it is?)

Kerry and Darlene Therwanger of Merkel have been in town for a few days and are helping with the new roof on the Dale Carroll home. The remodeling is doing a great face lift for the house, and it's looking good.

Alton and Mildred Sanders returned home Sunday night from a weekend Lay Renewal Revival held at the Harvey Street Baptist Church in Gainesville where Alton served as music director and Mildred served as coordinator for the children's classes.

Arch Mayfield of Plainview, with his wife, was honored with a birthday dinner in his parents home, Mr. and Mrs. John Mayfield. Out-of-town guests were his sisters, Evelyn Rickett of Dallas and Alexia Rimmer and daughter, Adrienne, of DeSoto, and a friend, Gayle Watson of Dallas. They all attended worship services and spent the weekend with the Mayfields.

COUPLE CELEBRATES 25TH ANNIVERSARY

The home of Mrs. W.B. Guess was the scene for the 25th wedding reception held for her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey Guess Jr. of San Antonio.

Hosting the reception on Saturday, July 16, were the couples' three sons, William Bailey III, Randolph and Matthew, all of the home.

Those friends and relatives who registered included the Guess's next door neighbors, Carmen Sherbondy and her mother, Elisea Sherbondy, San Antonio; also Jay and Kathy Anderson with son Justin, Midland; Myles and Deanna McMannis with Laura and Jennifer; Pat McMannis, with Mary Leslie, all of Seminole, Texas.

W.L. "Bill" Hudson Campaigns Locally

William L. "Bill" Hudson, Democratic candidate for the Texas State Board of Education, was campaigning in the Munday area Wednesday, July 13.

"Too many people assume that the State Board of Education is simply a small group of people who sit down together a couple of times a year to select textbooks used in the public schools," Hudson said. "The fact is that the meetings are monthly and the agenda is an inch thick."

Some of the duties of the State Board of Education include overseeing the distribution of 12 billion dollars to the school districts and making the rules and regulations that guide the lives of 3,000,000 school children, 170,000 teachers, and 30,000 support personnel.

TAM 200 TOP WHEAT VARIETY NAMED

Wheat harvest is over for this season and wheat producers are beginning to look for new and promising wheat varieties. Two wheat variety demonstrations were performed in Knox County this year. One variety demonstration was irrigated, the other dryland.

The irrigated demonstration was planted January 20 by Chris Brown of Rhineland. The plots were planted at 180 lbs./acre using a Great Plains drill. Brown used 200 lbs. of 16-20-0 preplant.

The top yielding wheat was TAM 200, a wheat variety developed by David Wonell at the Chillicothe Experiment Station. TAM 200 yielded 74 bushels per acre followed by NK 812 at 73.3. Both wheats are categorized as being early maturing varieties. Other varieties included Mesa - 59.7 bushels per acre, Pioneer 2157 - 56.6 bushels, TAM 201 - 50.3 bushels per acre, Golden Acres 5221 - 40.7 bushels and Pioneer 2172 yielding 36.4 bushels.

The dryland variety demonstration was planted by Zeissel Farms also of Rhineland on December 23, 1987 at 100 lbs./acre using a Great Plains drill. Fifty pounds of 11-52-0 was applied at planting of the demonstration.

The top yielding variety again was TAM 200 at 26.2 bushels per acre followed by Chisholm - 24.4 bushels and Siouxland - 24 bushels. Other wheat varieties used in the demonstration included Mesa - 22.4 bushels, NK 812 - 22.3 bushels, Mustang - 22.2 bushels, Pioneer 2157 - 21.9 bushels, Pioneer 2172 - 21.4 bushels, Improved NK 812 - 19.2 bushels, TAM 101 - 17.9 bushels, TAM 201 - 17.5 bushels, Golden Acres 5221 - 15.5 bushels and Vona - 12.9 bushels.

Producers should be warned that the results are only one year of data and more information should be used before changing varieties.

MISS LYNN PARKER shown here seated left, was local chapter representative for the Future Homemakers of America National Leadership Meeting held in Cincinnati, Ohio July 10-17.

Miss Parker, Mrs. Winchester Attend Meeting In Cincinnati

Lynn Parker, local FHA Chapter representative and Mrs. B.R. Winchester, advisor, of Munday, were two of the 2,800 student members and advisors to attend Future Homemakers of America's annual National leadership meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio July 10-17.

The youth-developed meeting theme, "Mission IS Possible", describes a renewed commitment to three aspects of Future Homemakers of America's goal: public awareness, increased membership and a strong, positive image. At the same time, the theme congratulates the adult advisors who guide the chapter and who offer their support, expertise, and free time to the chapter members.

The meeting featured an adult track with sessions and activities tailored to the needs and interests of advisors. Dr. Judy Lehr, director of the Center of Excellence, Furman University, Greenville, N.C., gave the track's opening address. An alumna, she spoke on the advisor's mission as an educator.

There were also seminars presented on a variety of topics, including risk management, networking, mobilizing community support, involving nontraditional students and building member self-esteem. Mrs. Winchester was impressed by the workshop dealing with business etiquette conducted by Ann Marie Sabboth, columnist for the Cincinnati Inquirer.

A number of youth concerns -- teenage pregnancy and parenthood, AIDS prevention, substance abuse, fitness and nutrition, community service, family relations, future careers and the changing roles of men and women in the home and workplace -- were among those examined at the conference through issues sessions, hands-on workshops and panels. Lynn attended a session conducted by Tiffany Barker and Camille Price, two state officers from Utah, dealing with building family traditions. The information she obtained will be useful during her year as a Region II officer.

Altogether, students in this year's Future Homemakers of America meeting chose from over 150 hours of workshops and events. Activities focused on helping them strengthen and expand their abilities as public speakers, project planners, chapter organizers, and responsible citizens.

Miss Parker participated in the leadership track sessions that trained her as a local and regional officer. Lynn said the workshops on choosing, planning and publicizing community service projects will be a big help to the local chapter.

Miss Parker also participated in a number of other leadership activities including the selection of the national officers candidate from Texas, Rodrick Stocker and a presidential election poll. The results of the poll appeared on the front page of the Cincinnati newspaper.

A member of the Munday FHA chapter for three years, Lynn is the local president and the Region II vice president of programs. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Parker.

Lynn and Mrs. Winchester report that although this was a working meeting, they did have time for some extra experiences. The viewing of the downtown fireworks display celebrating the 200th birthday of Cincinnati from the 24th floor of the Clarion Hotel, being a passenger on the Becky Thatcher riverboat when Joan Lunden allowed the Texas delegation to greet the national TV audience on "Good Morning America", having dinner in the revolving restaurant, Top of the Crown, overlooking the city of Cincinnati, and a tour of the Cincinnati Art Museum featuring the display of a 200 year survey of dresses worn to balls, to afternoon teas and for taking a stroll on a fashionable boulevard or for a wedding. As members of the weekend Post Convention Tour into Kentucky, the Texas delegation toured the Mammoth Cave, a Kentucky Horse Park, a Shaker Community and My Old Kentucky Home State Park. Lynn and Mrs. Winchester want the community to know how much they appreciate being allowed to attend this convention.

He Is Alive!

by Rev. Wayne Varnell,
First Baptist Church, Goree

Most of us have questioned the reason for bad things happening to good people. Look at what happened to one good man:

*At the age of 7, his parents lost their farm.

*At age 9, his mother died.

*At age 22, he lost his job.

*At age 26, he was in great debt.

*At age 32, his girl friend of four years turned down his marriage proposal.

*At age 37, he was elected to the U.S. Congress. It was his third try. He lost the re-election two years later.

*At age 47, his four-year-old son died.

*At age 42, he ran for the Land Officers position. He lost.

*At age 45, he ran for the U.S. Senate. He lost.

*At age 47, he was nominated for Vice President. He lost.

*At age 49, he ran a second time for the U.S. Senate. He lost.

Those experiences could have forced him into loneliness and disbelief. Instead, they forged leadership and dedication into his character. For you see, at the age of 51, Abraham Lincoln was elected president. He brought an entire nation through her darkest hour because as the Bible says: "Knowing this, that the testing of your faith produces patience." (the ability to endure). James 1:3.

ALYSSA TAVERNIA

Alyssa Tavernia Graduates In June

Alyssa Lynn Tavernia, daughter of Bob and Patty Meinzer Tavernia and granddaughter of Earlene and the late Pat Meinzer of Benjamin, graduated in June from Thomas Johnson High School in Frederick, Maryland.

She was a member of the Visual and Performing Arts Program and was recognized as an outstanding scholar by the Maryland Arts Council. In addition, she lettered in volleyball, basketball, and softball for three years. She was named to the All-Conference team in volleyball and in basketball she was named to the All-Conference, All-Area, and All-Baltimore Metro Teams. She helped to lead her team to the Maryland State Finals in basketball.

Alyssa will be attending Shepherd College in Shepherdstown, West Virginia in the fall where she will play basketball and major in graphic design.

In the 1984 Olympics, U.S. boxers won a record nine of 12 gold medals.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Pam Duke underwent surgery last Tuesday in Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls. She returned home Saturday and told me today that she was going to rest, relax and recuperate the rest of the summer. She's feeling fine and I wish her a complete recovery.

Carl Englerock has been a patient also in Bethania Hospital. He's back home now and reportedly feeling pretty well.

ATTEND ALL STAR GAME

Sammy and Barbara Pierce and Keith and Mamie Pierce, attended the six-man All-Star game in Stephenville on Saturday. Their son and brother, Jeff Pierce, a spring graduate of Benjamin High School, was a player on the east team. The west team won.

I'm told by those who were there (other than his mother!) that Jeff played an exceptional game and they thought he should have been the MVP but did not get the honor. We are all proud of him and congratulate him on his well-played, hard-fought game.

The Pierces visited the Bert Leavertons while in Stephenville and were met there by John and Julia Berry and Byron Waldron of Weatherford. So you see, Jeff did have quite a cheering section!

HERE AND THERE

Connie Porter of Little Rock, Arkansas is visiting Omitee Barnett a few days.

Kathie, Jack and Justin Waldron vacationed in San Antonio last week. I understand they made a visit to Sea World and really enjoyed it.

Jim Bob Conner was a recent visitor of his friend, James Harvey Tomlinson, in Tyler.

Claudia Nunley of Amarillo was a Saturday visitor here and with her mom, Grace Snailum, in the Brazos Valley Care Home.

Gloria West attended the Yarbrough family reunion in Andrews during the weekend.

Homer Rolston and Jennifer visited his mom in Denver City the last of the week. Homer says despite the health problems she has had this summer, she is doing quite well now.

Recent guests of Juanita Burnett were Tib and George Ann Burnett of Austin and Ellen Ellis and Cindy Cherroll and Leo, who also reside in Austin.

Kathy Hudson was back in Benjamin for the weekend. She is going to school in Lubbock this summer and has accepted a position in a school near Longview for next year. We hate to see Kathy leave but wish her well in her new surroundings.

Dutch and Imagean Young met Jack and Mary Young at Quitaque State Park during the weekend for a relaxing visit. They said Mary told them that Homer T. and Kathleen are doing fine and enjoying living in Lubbock.

Kathy and Kermit Woolley and children of Spur were Sunday visitors of their parents, the K.E. Woolleys and the S.L. Milsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Butch Duke of Levelland were visitors of Clodell

Duke during the weekend. Also visiting Clodell was Polly Marion of Knox City.

Christi Ann Whittel of Wichita Falls is spending this week with her grandparents, J.D. and Annie Brown.

Sue Gideon attended the All-Star game in Stephenville Saturday.

Mrs. Kinney Smith of Odessa and Mrs. Jimmy Leach of Midland spent several days last week visiting their mother, Mrs. Frank Nance. Also visiting were her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Leach, Rebecca and Eugenia, of Midland.

LOCAL
Lala Morgan visited her son and wife, Norris and Sandy Morgan, in Ft. Worth Saturday and Saturday night, July 16, and attended the wedding of her grandson, Kenneth Morgan. Others attending were Kym Morgan and Neva and Bill Kym Morgan of Austin. Norris and Sandy brought Lala home Sunday morning and returned home Sunday afternoon.

Dear John:

John Deere Answers Your Lawn and Garden Woes

Star Flower Performers

Dear John: I need some flowers to audition for work in a low-budget garden production that doesn't have much light. Any tips?

Dear Garden Director: Impatiens will give a great performance no matter what the working conditions. In fact, their vibrant colors can act their way through most anything. Impatiens steal the show in filtered light with about two hours of full sunlight a day. If that's not possible, they're still a hit without any direct sunlight at all. Impatiens also require less fertilizer than many annuals—too much nitrogen produces lush foliage but few flowers. Impatiens do have one picky clause in their growing contract—they're extremely sensitive to frost and demand shelter if frost is expected.

Dear John: As newlyweds, we're having trouble understanding recipes, much less all the information on a package of grass seed. Can you help?

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Homebody: Reading a seed label is easier if you know what to look for. Each package lists the percentage of grass types found in the mixture. Fine-textured grasses—Kentucky bluegrass or fine fescue or bent grass or bermudagrass are the backbone of a high-quality mix, so you'll want a high percentage of these grass types. "Coarse" grasses, like tall fescues and annual and perennial ryegrass, tend to clump and don't mix well with other varieties, so they should not total more than 50 percent of the mixture. (The percentage equals the proportion of grass seed by weight, not the number of seeds.)

Look for mixes with weed content listed at less than 1 percent. High-quality seed won't contain any noxious weeds. The "origin" heading on a seed package shows where the seed crop was grown—"nice to know" information that has no bearing on the adaptability of the grass. The germination percentage is the amount of seed that will germinate under ideal conditions—the higher the germination rate, the better the quality of seed. "Inert," or miscellaneous, matter should total less than 3 or 4 percent, and "crop seed" should be as close to zero as possible.

Dear John: What do the numbers on the label of the fertilizer bag mean, and what's a good ratio?

Dear Well-Proportioned: In general, a good lawn fertilizer will have a 3-1-2 ratio of nitrogen to phosphorus to potassium. In the spring and fall use a fertilizer with a high first number (nitrogen). A fertilizer with a high second number (phosphorus) works best if a soil test indicates that it's lacking phosphorus. Always follow label directions and use no more than one pound of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn at each feeding.

Historical Commission In Need Of Volunteers

Mrs. Clara Brown has expressed her gratitude, on behalf of the Knox County Historical Commission, to those persons who donated prizes or cakes for the bingo booth and the cake walk during the Vegetable Festival on June 18. Donating prizes for the bingo booth were: Ben Franklin, Charles Baker, Wallace Moorhouse, Parker Implement, Quality Implement, Munday Tire and Appliance, Rusty Nail, Buds for You, First National Bank of Munday, Munday Auto, S&L Apparel, The Fair Store, Smith Drug, M.L. Wiggins, Munday Courier, Dr. Dale Selzer, and St. Anne's Mothers' Society.

The bingo booth, under the direction of Valera Hertel of Rhineland, netted $193.50 for the museum fund. Assisting Mrs. Hertel were Annette Brown, Annelie Welch and Geraldine Koenig.

Over 90 cakes were donated for the cake walk and cake sale projects under the direction of Mrs. Lucille Smith and Mrs. Liz Valencia of Munday, earning $547 for the Historical Commission. Others helping with the cake walk were: Mrs. Earlene Kuehler, Mrs. Beverly Crownover, Mary Ann Yruegas, Debbie Andrade, Diana Valencia and Tracy Ramirez, all of Munday, Mrs. Doris Jones of Knox City and Mrs. Clara Brown of Truscott.

Knox County Historical Board member, Kay Looney, helped to organize the Munday fund raiser which was the second county-wide venture for a Knox County museum. In this type of activity, the host city provides chairmen and on-site volunteers with coordinates and volunteers contributing efforts from around the county.

The museum fund currently holds $50,000 toward a first step goal. Gifts and memorials for the museum may be made to the Knox County Historical Commission-Museum in care of the county judge's office.

There is a need at this time for volunteers with artistic abilities to study and prepare for doing lettering on museum labels and planning and working on displays. Professional museum and archive books are on order by the commission and these will be used to help train museum volunteers. A person willing to study photographic preservation and storage for the archives is also needed.

The commission presently has a committee studying the cost of moving and repairing a building. Even though it will be some time before a building is ready for occupancy, some preparation and training need to be done before that time.

Put liquid portions of any recipe into the blender first, unless recipe specifies otherwise.

★ JANE'S NEWS NOTES ★

Jane Rowan
County Extension Agent - Home Economics

USING THE RIGHT CONTAINERS FOR FREEZING

Freezing may be the fastest and easiest form of food preservation, but it's not foolproof. The end product will depend both on the quality of the produce and the packaging materials you use.

It's easy to compromise the quality of food by skimping on the materials or failing to use proper packaging procedures. The right packaging materials will protect the flavor, color, moisture content and nutritional value of frozen foods from the dry climate of the freezer.

Rigid containers, flexible bags or wrap are made to be moisture and vapor-proof especially for freezer use. If the label does not state that the material is made for freezing, don't use it. Rigid containers made of plastic or glass are suitable for all packs of food and work especially well for food that is packed in a liquid.

Wide mouth freezer jars have no exchange of vapor, keep out odors, don't lose shape and are easy to reuse.

The major problem with plastic containers is getting the lids to fit tightly. If you don't, the seal must be reinforced with freezer tape. Masking tape won't work because it doesn't stick at the low freezer temperatures. Don't freeze fruits and vegetables in a container larger than a quart. In a large container, foods freeze too slowly to produce a good product.

Freezer bags have the advantage of eliminating practically all excess air, but are more easily damaged during storage. Use a rubber band instead of a twist closure that has wire, since the wire can catch and tear the bags. It's no bargain to use recycled plastic vegetable and bread bags or cottage cheese, ice cream and milk containers for freezing. They're not vapor proof and foods frozen in them will lose their moisture, flavor and nutrients.

TRY OATS TO REDUCE CHOLESTEROL LEVEL

It's long been known that the fiber in oats lowers blood cholesterol in people who have high levels, thus reducing their risk of developing heart disease. Now researchers have also found it lowers blood cholesterol of people who have what are considered normal levels.

Research scientists at Northwestern University School of Medicine have found that just two ounces a day of either oatmeal or oat bran, which equals about two cups of hot cereal or two muffins, can lower cholesterol by almost 5 percent in a matter of weeks.

Before you start eating bowl upon bowl of oatmeal be aware of two factors. First, the oat products in the studies were found to be helpful only as part of a moderate-fat, moderate-cholesterol diet. So don't count on oatmeal to combat the effects of a fatty diet.

Second, it hasn't been shown that just because two ounces of oats are effective in lowering cholesterol levels that more than two ounces will be even better. So don't go overboard on oats to the exclusion of other carbohydrates.

REMOVING THE ODOR FROM NEW FABRIC

Have you ever bought some fabric to make a new dress and then discovered it smells bad? Many permanent press fabrics are treated with formaldehyde resins to create a wrinkle resistant finish. Sometimes consumers complain about watery eyes, a fish-like odor or rashes from wearing a garment made from this type of fabric. The cause is probably a residue of the original formaldehyde finish that wasn't properly neutralized and rinsed out of the fabric. The problem can usually be corrected by washing the article in an alkaline detergent. Most heavy-duty laundry detergents are alkaline. Dry cleaning won't remove the residual chemicals.

Miss Kuehler On MSU Honor Roll

Mary Jane Kuehler, a 1985 graduate of Munday High School, was listed on the Midwestern State University honor roll for the spring semester. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuehler of Rhineland.

Requirements for the University honor roll are a minimum grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale and no grade below a "c" for at least 15 semester hours.

STOP taking the purity of water for granted

Now there is a better way that removes the chemicals and pollutants, leaving you with water that is so pure and fresh-tasting, it even makes your cooking taste better, drinks taste better.

HOW THE R.O. SYSTEM WORKS

Q. What happens to the impurities trapped by the membrane inside the unit?
A. They are forced down the drain by the rinse water. The running water helps keep the membrane flushed so it lasts much longer than a filter, and shuts off when the storage tank is full, so you save on water.

Q. How often should the R.O. element be changed?
A. It should last three to five years depending on the quality of your water supply. A simple test will reveal its performance.

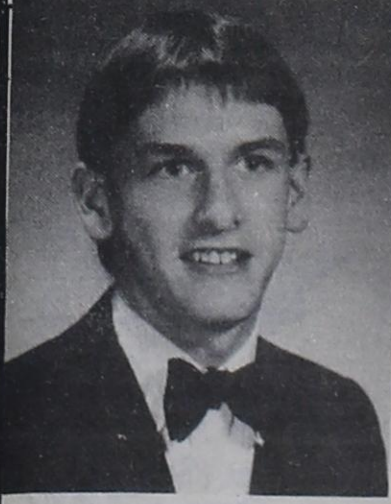

Q. How is the fresh, pure water stored?
A. The processed water is collected in a 3 1/2 gallon tank under the sink or up to 25 feet away if space is scarce. The tank utilizes pressure to pump out the fresh water. The water is always available using a special tap mounted on the sink.

Q. What contaminants are typically found in ordinary tap water?
A. Even supposedly "treated" water can contain as much as 700 parts per million of dissolved solids.
