Views From Another Point

by Joyce Beecher Greenwood

I hope that everybody else can plan things and have those plans work out. I can't. The only thing I can really count on is that whatever I count on will somehow go awry.

The annual Beecher reunion is always the last weekend in June -- and has been for more than three decades. This year, a cookout was planned at my house for Saturday night. Tommy worked in the yard -- watering, mowing, edging -- for weeks so the grass was green and lush. The lacy grape leaves draped like a soft shawl to fall gracefully over the entrance of the arbor, and the honeysuckle vines with their white, pink, and golden blooms were as fragrant as they were beautiful.

I cleaned every nook -- every cranny of my house. I even polished the silver coffee service the kids gave us -- something I forgot to do until company comes and I notice how tarnished it looks. I even cleaned all the paneling with oil soap. Everything was spotless.

I didn't have time to clean the garage.

Farmers and ranchers had been scanning the skies for weeks -- searching for some small sign of rain. There had not been a promising rain cloud over Knox County in a month, so I really didn't even consider rain.

Ours sons and their wives arrived and we began to set up long tables and chairs, placing them just right for quiet group conversation under the trees. I set up a special place under the grape arbor for the kids, remembering all the picnics I had under my Grandmother Harlan's grape arbor when I was little. Tommy put new batteries in my keyboard and I hoped that Charles (Yost) wouldn't forget his guitar. There would be an evening of fun and fellowship while the sounds of music and laughter wafted through the trees on the still summer night. Would there?

The skies began to turn dark as we worked and the soft southern breeze grew in intensity. Butch and Joe stopped filling the barbecue grills with the mesquite wood and mentioned that we might have to eat in the house.

"We can't eat in the house!" I wondered if they could hear the hysteria in my voice. "Fifty people are coming here in twenty minutes."

Suddenly, the thunder began to rumble followed by the rains. The garage -- the catch all for all the things we don't use and don't want to throw away -- was the only answer. The boys moved the grills so the smokestacks just cleared the eave of the house and we began a mad scramble to move tables and chairs. Every fly within a fifty-mile radius hunting a port in the storm, found one. Guests began to arrive, waiting in their cars for the rains to let up. The rain didn't let up. It came down in torrents -- buckets of the cat and dog variety. People made mad runs for the garage. Hair was glued to heads -- mascara ran down faces -- shirts clung to bodies.

Everybody had to shout to be heard over the sound of the pouring rain:

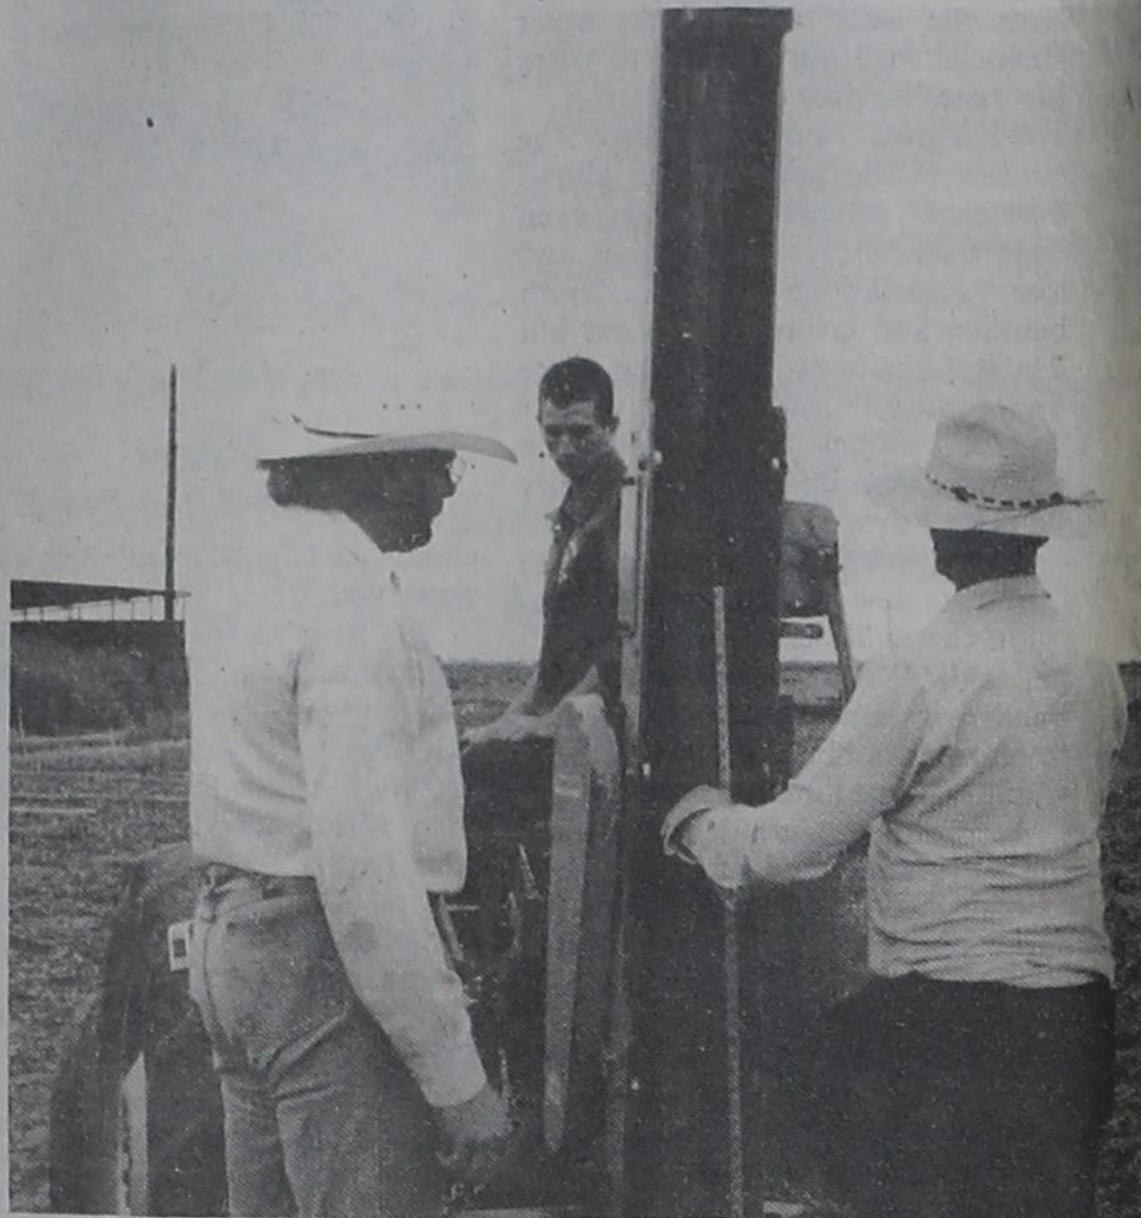

"Those kids are getting soaking wet!" (Have you ever noticed how a kid has just got to dash out into a downpour?)

"Get out of the rain!"

"Who wants mustard and who wants catsup?"

I didn't want either. In fact, I couldn't eat a bite as I looked

The convention ended Friday at noon with all six members tired and ready to come home.

Rep. Carriker Addresses Rural Health Care Issue

Rural Texans should have the same access to quality, affordable health care as other Texans, according to State Representative Steve Carriker. "No person should be denied access to basic health services at affordable costs just because they don't live in a metropolitan area," said the three-term lawmaker in a letter to the Special Task Force on rural health care delivery.

The committee has been holding field hearings and met in Abilene last Wednesday. It is chaired by Dr. Jim Bob Brame, former president of the Texas Medical Association.

Representative Carriker presented the committee with a copy of a rural health care study done by a team of public and private professionals for Fisher County, Texas. The study is applicable to over a hundred similar

"Swim-Along" Benefit To Aid Cystic Fibrosis Foundation

Holly Hutchinson, daughter of Jerry Don and Joan Hutchinson of Munday, is chairperson for a "Swim-Along" to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Miss Hutchinson announced that several children in the Munday area, many of them students of her swimming classes, will be taking pledges around town for the swimming event to be held on August 5, from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m. at the Munday pool.

Miss Hutchinson will be assisted by Holly Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Jackson, as life-guards for the event. Refreshments of home made cookies donated by volunteers and Cokes will be available at the swimming pool for all spectators and contestants.

Cystic Fibrosis is the most common fatal genetic disease in the United States. There is no cure for this disease at the present time, but scientists are making dramatic strides in their understanding of CF and that puts the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in the home stretch to conquer this race.

Mrs. Carriker Urges Citizens To Vote

Kathy Carriker, wife of District 78 State Representative Steven Carriker, Democratic nominee for state Senate, visited in Munday on Thursday, July 21 at the Community Center and in the downtown area.

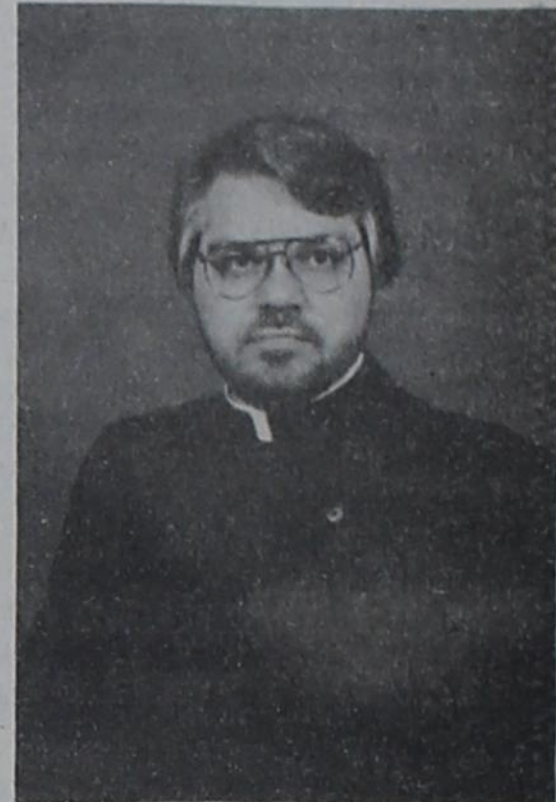

Mrs. Carriker stressed the importance of the special election on Saturday, August 13, to fill the unexpired term of Democratic Senator Ray Farabee. She encouraged everyone to exercise the right to vote. Absentee voting starts Monday, July 25 and continues through August 9 at the County Clerk's office in Benjamin. Mrs. Carriker is crossing the 30 counties in the Senatorial District reminding voters that the winner of this special election will also go into the November election as the incumbent State Senator.

David Counts of Knox City is the Democratic nominee to fill Carriker's State Representative seat. Both Carriker and Counts will be on the Democratic ticket.

"The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation motto is: 'Together we can make Cystic Fibrosis history,'" said Holly. "I am happy to be serving as chairperson for such a worthy organization and I hope that people in the Munday area will come out to the pool and cheer these young swimmers on in their efforts."

Miss Hutchinson will be a senior at Texas Tech this fall where she is majoring in biology and physical education.

Anyone interested in donating money for the swim-along or participating as a contestant should contact Holly Hutchinson.

REV. GARY GEURTZ

Reverend Gary Geurtz Is New Rhineland Catholic Priest

Rev. Gary Geurtz has replaced Rev. Robert Strittmatter as parish priest at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rhineland. He began his pastorate on the first of July.

A graduate of Paschel High School in Fort Worth, Rev. Geurtz received his bachelor's degree from the University of Texas in Arlington, and his master's degree from the University of St. Mienrad Seminary just outside of Louisville in Kentucky.

He came to Rhineland from his assignment in the Abbot parish, a small community just south of Fort Worth. Rev. Geurtz remarked that he is not entirely unfamiliar with small town living. Abbot was similar to Rhineland in the well-established, home-oriented atmosphere.

In addition to serving the Rhineland Community, Rev. Geurtz also pastors the Santa Rosa Catholic Church in Knox City.

"I am not accustomed to quite so isolated a community as is Rhineland," Rev. Geurtz commented, "but I enjoy country living."

He remarked that there are more Spanish speaking people in this area than in the areas he has previously served.

"I am working on speaking more fluent Spanish," he said, "so I can serve all the people in my parish to the best of my ability."

Rev. Geurtz seemed intrigued with the rich history of the Rhineland community and the St. Joseph's Catholic Church. He commented that from studying the history of the church, he believes that until 1983, every priest that came to Rhineland was of the Benedictine order of Subiaco Abbey in Arkansas. Father Robert Strittmatter was appointed by the Bishop prior to Rev. Geurtz's appointment.

"I suppose the history of the church doesn't really have anything to do with me, but it's fascinating to study the background of both the around and wondered why on earth I have kept all the old stuff in that garage. There were Tommy's old holey boots -- sole-side-up -- lying in an old cane bottomed chair. I cringed at the sight of the four feet tall, stuffed, yellow dog with the painted eyes looking like its collar was too tight that Joel brought Amy from Galveston in 1979. Why did Tommy insist on keeping that old 1957 model television set just because it was our first one?

My sisters son, Wade, who has my dad's special knack for trying to make everything seem brighter, tried to make me feel better.

"You know, Joycie," he shouted, "you may have a treasure of antiques right here in your garage." Somehow it didn't help.

The situation didn't become funny until much later that night when my cousin, JoAnn, and I sat drinking coffee, winding down and catching up on each other's lives.

"It didn't matter," she said, "At least we were all together. That's what's important."

Of course, that's what's important. We are carrying on a family tradition that began with our grandparents. We made a pact that we will always stay in touch as a family. We are especially blessed because if we weren't relatives, we'd be friends. We like each other. When we join hands in our family circle each year and remember those who aren't with us anymore, and ask God to always keep us close, we are one indestructible unit. We are family.

But there's a certain four-foot yellow dog and a pair of old boots that are going to the dump!

DPS Reports No County Fatalities

Capt. L.A. Reinhart, District Supervisor of the Lubbock Highway Patrol District comprising 21 counties said, "For the month of June, our troopers investigated 3 fatal accidents, 50 personal injury accidents, and 44 property damage accidents. There were 5 persons killed and 50 persons injured in these accidents."

Sgt. Sam Wester of Haskell stated, "In Knox County, our troopers investigated one personal injury accident in the month of June."

KNOX COUNTY SHERIFF Henry Dancer was officially sworn into office by County Judge David N. Perdue during ceremonies at the county courthouse in Benjamin on Monday. The ceremony was performed at 9 a.m. before courthouse and sheriff's department personnel.

A SIMPLE PLAN FOR BETTER EATING

With all the numbers and recommendations about calories, cholesterol, fat and other substances in our food, it seems like trying to eat better is a complicated task.

Actually, most healthy Americans can forget about counting calories or anything else and just follow these simple guidelines every day:

- *Eat four or more servings of vegetables and fruits or fruit juices.
- *Eat four or more servings of bread, cereal and starchy foods.
- *Eat two or more servings of low-fat milk, cheese and dairy products.
- *Eat 5-6 ounces of lean meat, fish or poultry.
- *Eat no more than 5-8 teaspoons of fats and oils.
- *Eat more egg whites and limit whole eggs or egg yolks to no more than two per week.

According to the American Heart Association, following these simple guidelines will allow you to enjoy a wide variety of foods, control your weight and maintain a low blood cholesterol level.

WORKING MOTHERS RATE APPLIANCES HIGH
The Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers surveyed the readers of Working Mother magazine last year to gather information about the use of 16 major and portable appliances in dual-career families.

Some of the results were quite predictable and others a little surprising. Here are some of the conclusions:

- *Ownership and use of a washer and dryer, dishwasher, garbage disposal and microwave ovens saves working mothers 20.5 hours a week, the equivalent of a part-time job.
- *Dads use microwave ovens more than any other appliance. Over 56% report using the appliance regularly.
- *Over 60% of the women reported ed that their husbands help with the laundry, but only 23% of them do so regularly.

- *Over 87% of working moms say ironing is done weekly in their homes, with at least 42% devoting an hour or more to the task each time. Has the fashion trend to natural fibers created more wrinkles than the permanent-press generation can stand?
- *Microwave ovens are used regularly by over 89% of mothers employed full-time outside the home.
- *Ownership of slow cookers among working mothers was almost double the national ownership rate of 42%.

KITCHEN REMODELING COSTS
According to Kitchen and Bath Business, 5.6 million kitchens are remodeled and upgraded in a year; eight percent of those cost about $15,000 and three percent will cost more than $25,000. Most kitchens are updated every 12-15 years.

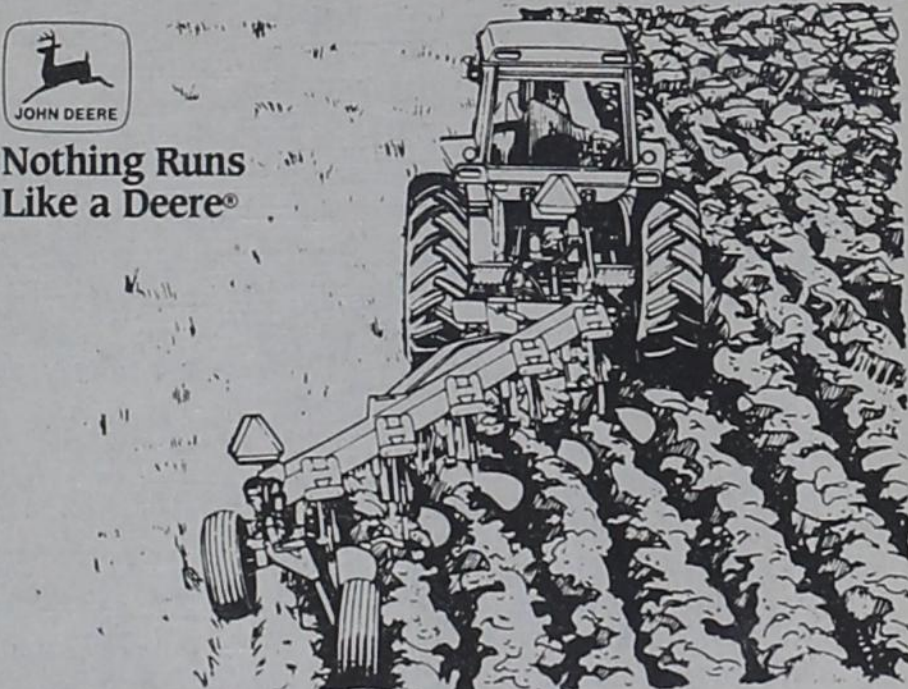

SOFT DRINKS FOR BREAKFAST?
At least one major soft drink manufacturer is promoting cola instead of coffee as a breakfast drink. Here's how the two compare nutritionally: Two cups of perked, black coffee has 79 milligrams of caffeine and 0 teaspoons of sugar. Twelve ounces of cola (one can) has 45 milligrams of caffeine and 10 teaspoons of sugar. The best ingredient in both products is water.

Gary Schur Attends Bankers' Meeting

Gary W. Schur, president of the First National Bank in Munday, returned recently from a meeting of the ABA's Community Bankers Advisory Board in Nashville. In addition to competitive equity, other subjects on the agenda were the condition of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation and the impact of the Federal Accounting Standards Board on banks.

Schur believes that banks should have the same option that other financial institutions have to offer insurance services to consumers.

"Congress should correct the current public policy which allows insurance companies and even department stores and savings and loan associations to offer both banking and insurance services but denies hometown banks the same opportunity," said Schur, who is also a member of the American Bankers Association Community Bankers Advisory Board.

"Bank entry into insurance would introduce new and vigorous competition that will benefit consumers," he said. "It also would provide banks with a new source of income to further strengthen the overall viability of the banking system."

According to Schur, attempts by the insurance industry to have Congress pass protectionist measures further restricting banks would benefit only insurance companies -- not consumers.

The ABA Community Bankers Advisory Board represents the nation's banks with assets of $200 million or less. It assesses the professional, regulatory and legislative needs of these banks and provides guidance to ABA on how to most effectively meet those needs.

church and the people," Rev. Geurtz remarked.

The story of the Rhineland Community and St. Joseph's Catholic Church is a story of the determination and hard work of a group of German descended people, beginning with Peter Loran, known as 'the Father of Rhineland'. Loran was a German-French immigrant from Russia who came in 1895 to homestead on the untilled soil. With him came a colonizing priest, Father Joseph Reisdorff, and a young German scholar by the name of Hugo Herchenbach.

The people of Rhineland first worshipped in a building known as the Colony House, then in 1897, a very small chapel called the 'kleinekirche' was built to temporarily take care of church needs.

In 1900, a church was built by Engelber Gier at a cost of $2,000. The altar was also built by Engelber Gier. First built of wood, it was later marbelized and is the same altar that is used in the present church.

Construction was begun in 1927, but because of the depression and later the war, the final dedication was not made until November, 1951. Referred to as 'a mansion in a cotton field', the completed church was a culmination of efforts by two generations of people.

Service isn't something you just switch on or off!

Some Banks never see the light. They'll advertise services to draw in customers, and then once you're hooked, the services start to disappear. That doesn't happen here. We have a commitment to our customers first, and we keep it. Friendly, courteous and helpful service is what our customers want and need. To make banking with us convenient, efficient and fast is our goal. Anything less would just be a turnoff.

The Island of Corregodor is a memorial to those who fought in the Pacific during World War II. It is in the Philippines and our military base there was used to slow down the swarming forces of Japan while our troops were being regrouped in Australia.

Just before the island fell to Japan, General Douglas MacArthur was evacuated by boat through enemy lines to organize the regrouping effort. On March 20, 1942, he told those left behind: "I shall return."

On October 20, 1944, he returned and made this radio broadcast from the Island of Leyte: "This is the voice of freedom, General MacArthur speaking. People of the Philippine, I HAVE RETURNED!"

I have walked among the ruins of Corregodor. I have also opened my Bible and read of a war between God and the forces of evil. Christ won the victory at the cross and the resurrection. His last words to His people are: "Surely I am coming quickly." Rev. 22:20.

The last week in July is a memorable week for many.

We extend congratulations to Sandra and Don Stafford who are getting settled in Great Falls, Montana, where they have purchased the franchise office of the Express Services, with which Sandra has been associated for the past five years in Oklahoma City and Denton, Texas.

In 1985, Sandra was named national placement specialist of the year and at the recent national express convention in Portland, Oregon, she was named first in the nation in growth.

The Express Service is a placement agency, specializing in temporary help, permanent placement and executive search employment, and Sandra writes they love the people and climate in Montana and have purchased a home there.

We are happy for this advancement for the Staffords, but share the loneliness of her parents, Ted and Faye Jetton, with having them so far from Weinert.

We are proud of you!

Weinert is very proud of one of its own residents also, and congratulates Ivo Brockett, wife of Pete Brockett, who was in New York Thursday for a photography session for Lears magazine which will feature her in the September-October issue of the magazine as well as the November-December issue. (Story elsewhere in this issue of the Courier.)

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Collins of Gallup, N.M. were in town to visit his aunt, Susie Brockett, and other relatives this week. Jerry is school superintendent and works with the Indians in and around Gallup. He is the son of Marvin Collins of Haskell, and is doing a genealogy of his family. They will spend some time in Arkansas and other eastern states doing research.

Monica Brockett of Amarillo was also a visitor in the Brockett home.

Recent visitors in the home of Joyce and B.J. Robertson were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Jeffrey of McCauley and the Robertson's children, Rob and Debbie Hollingsworth and Lane of South Lake, and Jeff and Staci Robertson of Grapevine.

Jeff and Staci have recently moved into their new home, having designed and watched as it grew into their home. Congratulations from all of us.

Amanda Sanders of Merkel is spending the week with her grandparents, Alton and Mildred Sanders. David Sanders of Hamlin spent last week in Weinert. On Saturday, Jerry Sanders was toasted with a birthday dinner at Monterrey House in Abilene.

Guests in the home of Rene Vojkufka this weekend were her good friends, Dovie Carroll and Betty Castle with Joe and Jim of Hale Center, who were here to attend Dovie's family reunion, the Harrells, in Haskell.

Marilyn Earp, with her daughter, Karen Harlan, were in Abilene to meet another daughter, Kelly Hutchinson of San Angelo, for a day of shopping and visiting.

Bertie Alexander entertained another "hen" party on Saturday and Sunday where her house was filled with sisters, nieces, sisters-in-law and other relatives.

Those who came to visit included Gertie Leeper, Francis Sanders and Nellie Lueky of Gorman; Effie Jones, Martha Whitman, with Cassie, Elaine Hood with Amber, all of Hobbs, New Mexico; Sallie Sanders of Weinert, and a host of cousins in the local area.

Charles Baucum of York, Nebraska, spent the week with good friends, the Roy Phemisters, and attended worship services with them at the Church of Christ on Sunday.

Charles is a graduate of Boles Children's Home, and Abilene Christian University and at present is head librarian for York Christian College.

R.S. and Betty Sanders, with grandchildren Robert and Lynette of Los Alamos, N.M., enjoyed a presentation of "Texas" at Palo Duro Canyon Thursday night and then went on to Clovis, N.M. to meet their son, Larry and Linda Sanders, for a visit. The grandchildren returned home with their parents after a delightful, extended visit in Weinert and in Paint Creek with other grandparents and relatives.

Francis Mahan spent last week in Odessa where she had a doctor's appointment with an allergy specialist. She has had an infected sinus problem, but is now doing well.

SMITH REUNION

The descendants of J.D. and Edith Smith, who raised their 11 children in the Lone Star school district, met in Lubbock on July 16-17 for their family reunion, with approximately 100 registering during the time.

Only three of the 11 children survive today. They are Eron McGuire, Rochester; Joe of Matador and Gladys Troy of Borger.

Joe was in a Lubbock hospital recovering from surgery, but was able to go to the meeting for a brief time.

Attending from Weinert were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Earp, Karen Harlan, with Jeremy and Lindsey, and Kelly Hutchinson of San Angelo.

Talanda Hackney has returned to her home in Ft. Worth after an extended visit in Weinert with her grandparents, the D.I. Whites. She, with Mattie and D.I., met Sue in Graham on Thursday for a visit, before each went their separate ways home.

The Extension Club will meet on August 2 at 2 p.m. in the home of Henrietta Rueffer. See you there. Have a nice day.

CHRIS BELLINGHAUSEN

Bellinghausen Is West High Graduate

Chris Bellinghausen, 18 year-old son of Urban and Beverly Bellinghausen, is a recent graduate of West High in Bakersfield, California.

Bellinghausen was selected as All-Area wide receiver in football and selected by his team mates as most valuable player of the West High varsity baseball team. He was selected All-League, All-Area, and All Valley first team third baseman.

He is one of only 35 boys to be selected for northern California's All-State baseball team, being chosen third baseman for the first team.

Bellinghausen will be attending an invitation only Chicago Cubs try-out training camp in California in August. He plans to attend Bakersfield Junior College where he will pursue his baseball career.

His proud grandparents are Tommye Harlan and Mr. and Mrs. U.J. Bellinghausen; great-grandparents are Mrs. Ola Coffman, Mrs. Mary Hertel and H.L. Bellinghausen, all of Munday.

Have a nice day!

Munday Educator Attends Seminar

Munday Elementary Principal, Doug Donoho, recently attended a week-long migrant institute on developing higher level thinking skills in students. Representing Region IX Education Service Center, Donoho joined 106 participants from across the state in the July 18-22 seminar in Corpus Christi.

Sponsored by the Texas Education Agency and Region II Education Service Center, the training session was conducted by Dr. Daisy Arredondo and Dr. Carolyn Hughes. Dr. Arredondo is currently a private consultant and is co-author of Tactics for Thinking, a program for teaching students learning to learn skills, content thinking skills, and reasoning skills.

Hughes, currently the assistant to the superintendent for curriculum and program development with the Oklahoma City Public Schools, is past president of the American Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development and co-author of the book, Dimensions for Thinking.

"Munday school teachers do a great job of causing students to think beyond rote learning," Donoho stated. "This is evidenced by the students' tests results which are above the state average. However, only a few consciously use direct-teaching of thinking skills and strategies. Our goal as teachers and administrators is to develop mature thinkers who are able to acquire and use knowledge. Direct emphasis on the teaching of higher-level thinking skills will help to accomplish this goal."

1899 Law Prohibits Tobacco For Minors

Since 1899, there has been a law prohibiting the giving or selling of tobacco to children under sixteen years of age. Even though this law has been virtually ignored, a group of Abilenians in the Leadership Abilene program is doing something about the sale of tobacco to kids.

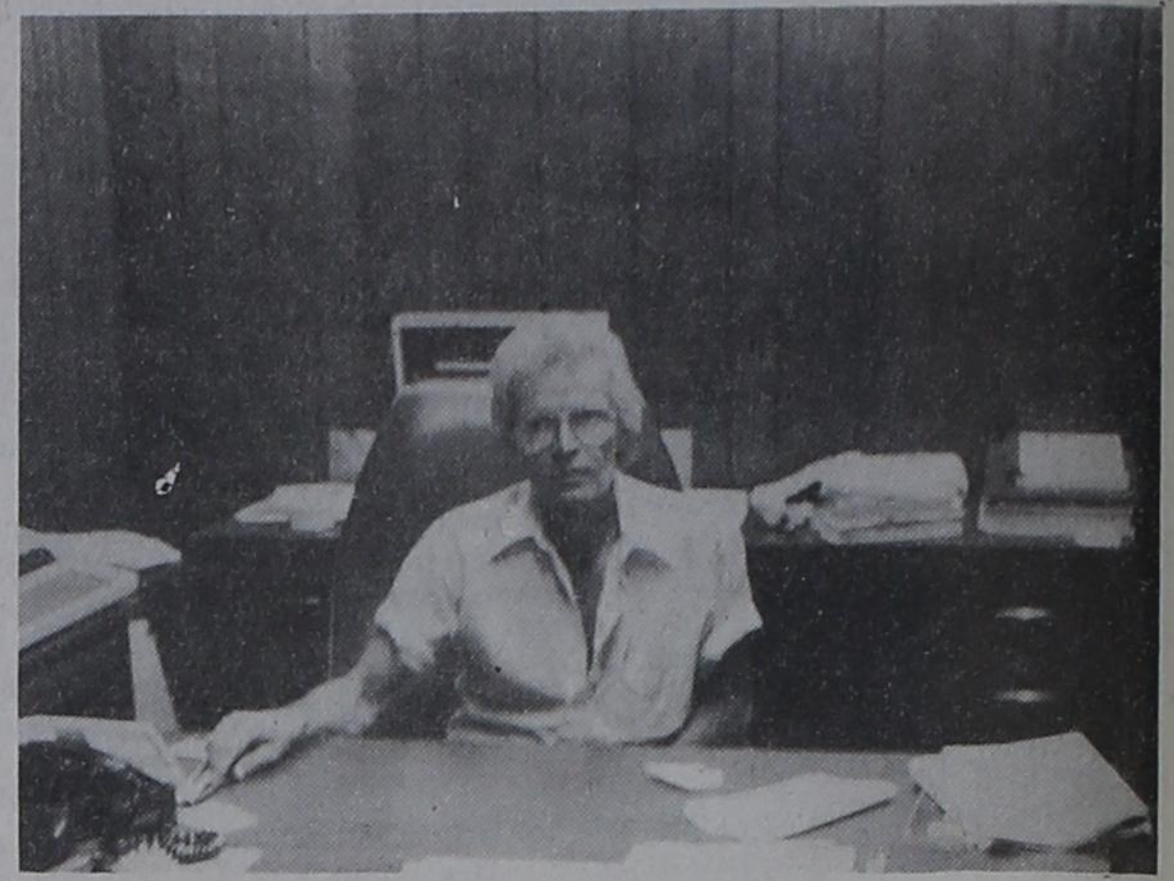

The group began contacting area grocers in the Abilene area to ask for voluntary compliance with this old law. As a result of their efforts, there will be notices posted in 988 stores in the Abilene area that tobacco will not be sold to children.

The store owners understand that they will probably offend a few customers and may cost themselves a few sales -- but they feel that they might also save a few lives.

Deadline Set For MSU Fall Enrollment

Application deadline for attending the fall semester at Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls is nearing. New MSU students must apply for the fall term by August 10 in order to avoid the late payment fee.

Registration for new and former MSU students will be September 1-2. Classes will begin September 3.

BILLY DOLAN MOORE — New Water Authority Manager

Billy Dolan Moore Appointed As Water Authority Manager

Billy Dolan Moore of Goree was recently appointed to the position of general manager of the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority.

Moore, a graduate of Goree High School, was briefly involved in farming activities around the Goree area before enlisting for a four-year tour in the United States Air Force. He was stationed in North Carolina during his military career and continued living in the south after his discharge. He became associated with General Construction, a firm with enterprises across the southeast and sometimes nationwide.

After being employed for a time in Saudi Arabia, Moore returned to the Goree area and was employed by the Thornhill Insurance Agency in Seymour before accepting the position with the water authority.

His wife, Mescal, is a native of Hiltons, Virginia. Three of their children, Tim, Monica, and Barry, live in Virginia. A daughter, Kelly Jo is a sophomore in Goree High School. The Moores have one granddaughter.

When asked why he decided to return to this area, Moore responded, "I was ready to come back to Texas where I grew up. I had a lot of different reasons, but mostly I guess I was just ready to come back home."

Moore stated that he is very impressed with the water authority personnel. "I enjoy working with people like general superintendent, Pete Brockett -- Pete's a swell guy -- all the employees are conscientious and concerned," he said. "It's a real pleasure to be associated with people who are so dedicated to their work."

Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M.E. (Billy) Moore of Goree.

★ BENJAMIN NEWS ★

By Mrs. Gladene Green

We extend sympathy today to the family of A.E. (Son) Propps, who died Saturday in Paducah. Son had been in failing health for several years. Funeral was held Tuesday in Benjamin.

Billy Ben Benson was admitted to Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls Saturday morning suffering from pneumonia. According to his daughter, Sheila, he is sure feeling rough and we hope he will be feeling better by the time this paper comes out.

The rain early Monday morning was nice. Lots of electricity skirted around the sky but I haven't heard of any lightning damage. I don't know how much rain we got, but it was nice while it fell and hopefully we will get some more.

HERE AND THERE

State game warden Ronnie Ainsworth reported that he had taken approximately 700 feet of illegal trot line and a fish trap out of the Benjamin Lake recently. He asked me to remind fishermen to be sure they know what is required when they put a trotline out. There are regulations that must be followed to make one legal.

Sue McCarthy of Iowa Park spent the weekend with her mother, Clodell Duke and her sister, Jan Pollock.

Aliene Groves spent the weekend with relatives in Ft. Worth.

Bonita Pyatt of Plainview was a weekend visitor in Benjamin and with her mom, Grace Snailum, in the Brazos Valley Care Home.

Bo Milson was in Dallas last week to be with her son, David, who underwent surgery on Wednesday. He's back home now and doing fine.

Beckie and Cody Taylor of Munday, spent Friday night with me. Also on Saturday morning, Demp Emerson of O'Brien came by for a few minutes and left me some very good cantaloupes. It's always good to see him when he's over this way. Other guests in my home recently have been Mac and Glenda McNeely of Aubrey, Michael and Tracy Fischer of Sanger, Mike and Cindy Thornton of Abilene, and Jeff McNeely of Aubrey.

Wanda West of Cisco is visiting Leroy and Gloria West a few days this week.

Relatives and friends attending a family reunion at the home of Jan and Fred Carver recently were: Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Tankersley, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Sipe Griffith, John Lewis, Dorothy Anderson and Ricky Joe Carver, all of Knox City; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brock, Johnny and Michelle of Anson; Mrs. Jesse Thomas and Charles D. of Brownwood; Bertha Whitten and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Walling of Seymour; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Anderson, Brandi and Dustin of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry D. Anderson of Kearns, Mrs. Elizabeth Meux and Larua Demars and Bertley of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Elliott, Blake and Trevor of Stephenville; Stacia Antilley, Ryan and Kallie of Guthrie; Tammy Collins, Jacy and Tyler, of Benjamin; Mr. and Mrs. Luke Coffman and Haley of Wichita Falls and Jan and Fred Carver of Benjamin. They all enjoyed a full day of fun and fellowship.

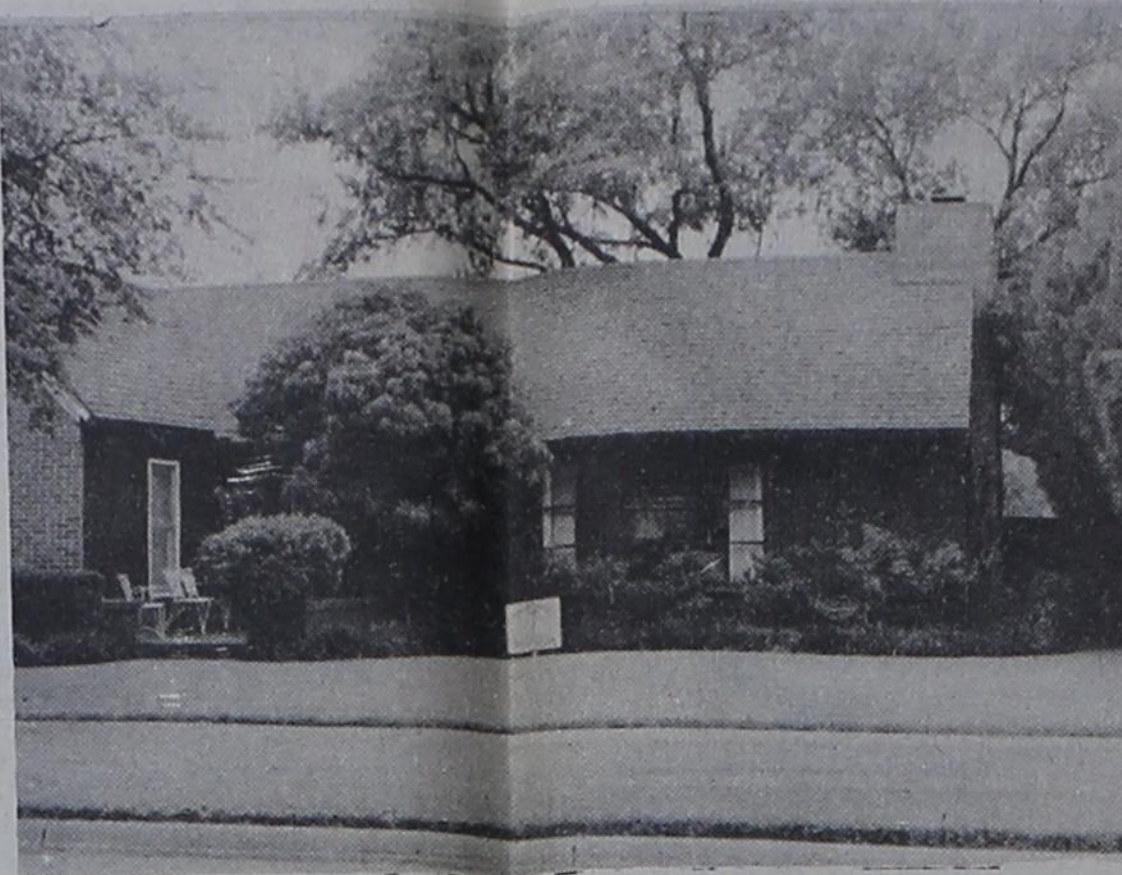

Propps Rites Held Tuesday

A.E. (Son) Propps, 76, of Guthrie died Saturday in a Paducah nursing home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the Community Center in Benjamin. John Gaither and Rev. Byron Garrison officiated. Burial was in the Gilliland Cemetery under the direction of Archer Funeral Home.

Propps was born September 9, 1912 in Truscott. He worked for the Waggoner Ranch for 33 years and was horse division boss in Whiteface, Texas. He was manager of the J.J. Gibson Ross Ranch for nine years before retiring in 1976. He was a 32nd-degree Mason and honorary president of the Texas Cowboy Reunion. He was a member of the First Baptist Church. Propps married Alvis Williams on December 21, 1934 in Oklahoma.

Survivors include his wife of Truscott; two sons, Herbert E. of Benjamin and Joe of Guthrie; two sisters, Maurine McDonald of Seymour and Corrine New of Gilliland; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

THE BEAUTIFULLY manicured yard enhances the rustic redwood siding of the Jerry Kane home, and the small tree by the front door invites cool relaxation in the wrought iron chairs on the porch. The Kane home received the Garden Club Yard of the Week award for this week for its overall neatness.

CONTROLLING PET PESTS

As the hot dry conditions remain in the area, problems are mounting up that a pet is well aware. These problems are fleas and ticks.

Dub Cartwright of Benjamin contacted me last week about what measures needed to be done to control the problem of fleas and ticks in his lawn.

To successfully control the problem of fleas and ticks, treatment should be done simultaneously.

The first step is to dip your pet.

Lil' Folks Pageant Held In Knox City

The Knox City Retail Merchants are planning their third annual Lil' Folks Pageant to be held on Saturday, July 30 in the City Park, with competition to begin at 8:30 p.m.

This year's pageant will differ from the past two in that previously it has been the Little Miss Pageant, but this year it becomes the Lil' Folks Pageant, open to both boys and girls, toddlers through eight years of age.

There will be four age divisions including toddlers through two; three through four; five through six; and seven through eight. Tiaras and trophies will be awarded first place winners in each division with ribbons for the second and third places.

Contestants are asked to appear in casual sportswear.

Entry fees will be $7.50 and a $1 admission will be charged for spectators.

A concession stand will be available with Cokes and brownies.

Those attending are asked to bring their own lawn chairs and join in an evening of fun.

Household Workers' Wages Count For Social Security

People who hire others to work around the house on a regular basis should be sure to report their earnings for Social Security purposes. Failure to do so may result in penalties sometime in the future.

A household worker is anyone who is paid to work around the home, such as a maid, cook, cleaning person, gardener, handyman, or babysitter. A person hired to work around a building in which the employee does not live -- an apartment house rented out, for example -- is not considered a household worker.

A household worker's wages count for Social Security purposes only if an employer pays the worker $50 or more in cash within a calendar quarter. Employers are required to either deduct Social Security taxes from wages paid to the employee and pay the employer's matching share of the Social Security tax or pay both shares themselves. Within a month after the quarter ends, employers must send the taxes and a report of wages paid to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). IRS Form 942 (Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees) should be used for this purpose.

The employer must also give the worker a W-2, a wage and tax statement, by January 31 after the year in which the wages were paid. Copy A of the form should be sent to the Social Security Administration.

Although some employers may not report a household worker's wages at the request of the worker, it should be noted that the employer, not the employee, is held liable for reporting the wages. The non-payment of Social Security taxes for household workers may be detected when a household worker retires and applies for Social Security benefits. If the worker reports that they worked for a certain employer and there is no such information in Social Security records, SSA will ask the employer for information. If the employer cannot be found and the employee has no evidence of earnings, that income might not be used to establish eligibility or the amount of benefits.

However, if the employer is located and it is determined that Social Security taxes were not paid on the household worker's wages, the employer is legally responsible for paying not only the employer's share of the taxes, but the worker's as well.

Employers are urged to call the nearest Social Security office for detailed information on the proper reporting of household worker's wages.

★ TRUSCOTT-GILLILAND NEWS ★

By Mrs. Clara Brown

A.E. "Son" Propps died Saturday night and funeral services were planned for Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Benjamin with burial at Gilliland. Gilliland and Truscott ladies were to serve a supper after the services for the family.

Those planning to attend the Truscott Homecoming Saturday, September 3, need to make reservations for the 6 p.m. meal. They should write Homecoming, Truscott, Texas 79260, or telephone Ila Mae Bullion at 474-3330, June Looney at 474-3277 or Clara Brown at 474-3288. Tickets will be $5.50. Payment can be made by check or at the supper, but reservations need to be made soon so the caterer can make plans.

Coffee and tea will be served at the center on September 3 from 1:30 to 5 p.m.

Vula Hord says that their daughter-in-law, Dottie Hord of Corsicana, is back in the hospital. Saturday evening Owen and Irene New were hosts to their granddaughter, Vicki Sappenfield, of Amarillo, her husband Kent, their three children Lindsey, Amanda, and Jason. They had attended the funeral of Linda's step-grandfather, Vernon Bridges of Knox City.

Bro. Parris Barton, pastor of the Gilliland Baptist Church, had a slight stroke which affected an eye on Friday. He preached Sunday but is going to a specialist on Monday since it is making him see double.

Vula Hord's sister, Rada Dunn of Crowell, visited her on Saturday. Ila Mae and Paul Bullion and their granddaughter, Crystal Dishman, were in New Mexico and Colorado last week. They met Sam, Wanda, and John Bullion and Wanda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Butcher, all of Lubbock, at Santa Fe. From there they went to Durango and Mesa Verde in Colorado. This included a ride on the narrow gauge train out of Durango. Then the Truscott party went on to the Black Canyon of the Gunnison and came back by the San Luis Valley where they saw the Great Sand Dunes.

Don't forget to make your reservations for the supper at Homecoming September 3. You can pay that night. *****

Trail Ride Leaves Good Memories

by Clara Brown

Weather for the trail ride turned out to be pretty good for July. Everyone was sure the trail ride would bring on either a heat wave or a big rain, but neither happened. The rain didn't come until early Monday morning. It was a nice shower, and probably most of the trail riders were so sound asleep in their own beds that they didn't hear it. Showers and good beds sounded high on the list for the returning trail riders Sunday afternoon.

Debbie Bearden lost her horse crossing the China Creek bridge, or maybe it was that the horse lost her, but she came out of it with bruises, scratches and a broken rib. Everyone was relieved that it wasn't worse. She said a canteen fell and the sound spooked her horse.

The ladies preparing the lunch at the community center were loading the vehicles to head out to Carroll Ranch when a messenger from the wagon train arrived to tell them that the train was behind schedule and to serve lunch at the Alexander Ranch instead. After lunch they went on to Carroll's, then cut through pastures to the Lowrance, arriving there around 5 p.m.

The wagons were parked on the west slope of a hill north of the headquarters, with the chuck tent set up just north of the barn. The trailers for the band were set farther west, right on the bank of Love Creek with trees, low hills and a beautiful sunset for a background. Everything was green and a soft breeze made the evening very enjoyable. After the delicious chicken fried steak supper, Buster and Sheryl McAlurie gave a western poetry reading. Both have received acclaim for their poems and everyone enjoyed it. Buster is the grandson of Seth and Madge Woods. Seth was foreman of Masterson's JY for many years. Following the poetry, the band played and many danced on the grass, but no one enjoyed the dancing more than little Emily Gray of Vernon, who almost wore out her grandfather, Newell Looney.

We failed to get all the names of those who played music for the dancing, but the list included Roy C. Daniel, A.L. Cook, Tommy Shaw of Ft. Worth, and Jackie Brown of Crowell. Gail Dishman sang several songs both Friday and Saturday nights.

There were around 150 at the Friday night supper at Lowrance, but looking around there were only a few present who had connections with the ranch when it was the JY. That short list included Joe Gordon, Virgil Johnson, Q.D. Williams, Roy C. Daniel, and Jack Brown, as men who had cowboied there, plus one man who told John Campbell he had worked there, but John couldn't remember his name. Of course Buster McLaurie was there and Mrs. Tom Masterson, Myrtle Kirkey Guynn, June and Newell Looney, Andres and Emily Gray and Farrah Looney.

For those who recall the JY days, T. Masterson died in December, 1953, and Floyce moved off the ranch in 1956. June recalls that Newell took a mixed load of items to Nat-chez, Mississippi for her that included tools, tack, saddles, dogs, horses and some other goods.

The Charles Carroll family made the trail ride all the way. Kay drove the soft drinks and water pickup.

The Eddie Lowrance also participated, as well as the family of Kathy's brother, Mike Dushan.

Joan Daniel said all their grandchildren participated. On Sunday Jackie's little Sarah and baby Jimmy rode in the wagon from the Y's to Gafford's. The Johnny Daniel family was there, along with Janet's sister, Lindsay McVey and her son of Grapevine.

Darrell Hord was in charge of the horses for the weekend, and grandson Shad of Corsicana helped him out, along with help from other trail riders.

Margaret Daniel worked like a windmill in a 40-mile wind to help prepare for the trail ride, then had camera trouble during the actual event. It was bad enough to have her camera acting up, but all around her were grandchildren who really needed their pictures taken. Others pitched in and maybe she got enough pictures.

Neal and Nancy Overton and son, Gary Don, of Palo Pinto, joined the trail ride Sunday morning and then visited the Don Daniel family at Truscott that evening.

The wagon train and trail ride was an event everyone involved will long remember, and memories will be mostly good.

IMO BROCKETT

Imo Brockett: "Following A Dream"

For her 50th birthday present to herself, Imo Brockett enrolled in the Ruth Ann Malm Modeling Agency and School of Abilene in May, 1987, thus realizing a dream she had had since a young girl, growing up in Goree, Texas.

After graduation from high school, her modeling career was delayed for many years as she chose being a wife to Pete Brockett and mother to her two daughters, Kim and Monica, and grandmother to three grandchildren.

Imo graduated from the modeling school in September, 1987, and soon after, she was sent to New York City in the contemporary division competition of the Modeling Association of America International, where she entered four categories. She won first in three: runway, photography, and make-up, and received honorable mention in television commercials. There were 40 agencies from around the world represented in the competition.

Imo designs and makes her own clothes, and was pleased at the compliments she received on her wardrobe from the New York agents.

Suzie Segal, an associate editor of Lear's Magazine, paid particular attention to Imo, and asked her for an appointment for photographs and interviews for an appearance in the magazine, a publication aimed at women above age 40. Imo has been in New York for two photography sessions, and will be featured in two issues, the September-October and November-December issues of the magazine. She returned home from her last session on Friday.

A genetic eye disorder that tears the retinas of her eyes has caused Imo to have to undergo 17 operations to correct and repair the damage, but she refuses to become depressed and despondent. She is under contract with the Ruth Ann Malm Agency, and in addition to modeling, she is studying to become an instructor. She will begin teaching in August.

In an interview, Imo said, "I love

The Lord's Corner

by Dr. Peté Bradfield, pastor
First Baptist Church

The following was scribbled over a century ago by an anonymous soldier of the American Confederacy:

I asked God for strength, that I might achieve. I was made weak, that I might learn humbly to obey.

I asked for help, that I might do greater things. I was given infirmity, that I might do better things.

I asked for riches, that I might be happy. I was given poverty, that I might be wise.

I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life. I was given life, that I might enjoy all things.

I got nothing I asked for -- but everything I had hoped for. Despite myself, my prayers were answered. I am among all men, most richly blessed.

See you next week, and remember: if you are too busy or too tired to attend worship regularly, you are just too busy to die - but you will anyway.

While on board the cruise ship, Brandon and Kent became acquainted with the members of the entertainment group and other young people. They went snorkeling and reported seeing "some barracudas, but no sharks."

Following the cruise, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Latham, Brian and Melinda, met the trio in Dallas and they all enjoyed a trip to Galveston.

Mrs. Hobert reported that she hopes to be able to make similar trips with her other grandchildren when they graduate from eighth grade.
