by Joyce Beecher Greenwood
I wonder how many of us say every so often, "Someday, I'm going to..." and we state that special dream we've kept on the back burners of our minds and hearts forever. Then, all too quickly, we find our "somedays" are no longer infinite. We take a long look at the lines time has left in our faces and realize we don't spring out of bed in the morning as we did ten years ago, but rather ease out a little bit at a time to give the old joints a chance to unwind. Or, perhaps, a doctor looks at us with a serious expression on his face and tells us, "If you want to see fifty-five, you'll alleviate some of the stress in your life" and we think, "But time can't run out for me. I still haven't followed my dream."

So, to put it in Tommy's words, "you'd better get to following" if you have a dream. And who doesn't have a dream?

I have one. I want to some day read the credits on a movie and see, "Based on the best selling novel by Joyce Greenwood," or walk through the mall and see a book I have written placed alongside Larry McMurtry's best seller. It'll probably never happen, but unless I give it my best shot, I'll never know.

I have managed to don so many hats I can't do justice to any of them anymore. Everybody does it. We hear somebody say every day, "I have so much to do I don't even know where to start." We can blame it on the economy and the tremendous amount of money it takes just to stretch ends so they, at least, almost meet. We can blame it on society and the pressures imposed on us every day by all the things expected of us. There are numerous reasons, but the fact remains - we are responsible for the demands we put on ourselves.

My kids call me "Pushover Smurf" because I sometimes take on new responsibilities. I don't really have time, but I do it just to keep from hurting someone's feelings. Does that sound familiar?

I have, over a period of time, managed to take on more responsibilities than I have hours in the day. My family has become addicted to food so I have to keep working. I have grandchildren who need me to fill that special place in their lives that can only be filled by a grandmother. And Nell has had a new house in Lipan for almost two years that I've never even seen because I don't have time to visit her.

Sometimes we have to make time for ourselves before our time runs out. Nobody wants to come to the end of his life with regrets for all the things that "might have been". Families and friends are precious. How sad when we find ourselves too busy to enjoy them.

For the past two years plus, you have allowed me to touch your lives, and you have touched mine in a special way. Your response to "Views" has been so rewarding. I treasure each letter I've received, every phone call and visit. But, I have found myself making the writing of it a chore instead of the sense of accomplishment and enjoyment with which I began it. It has somehow become one of the "things I have to get done" instead of the freedom of expression it started out to be, and it shows. I have started repeating myself because there are just so many things one can tell on family and friends and still have family and friends. There are just so many trips one can take down "memory lane" until the trip becomes boring and someone may tell us, "Wake up, Sweetheart. This is a new age. Live in it!"

TYLER THOMPSON, lower right, almost ran too fast for the photographer to catch as he carried the ball for the Moguls Friday night against Stamford. Munday won an easy victory over the Bulldogs, defeating them 35-7.

Moguls Tame Bulldogs, Defeat Stamford, 35-7

The Munday Moguls executed to near perfection in the first half of play last Friday night against the Stamford Bulldogs. The Moguls accuracy built up a 28-0 halftime lead over the Bulldogs.

Behind the strong blocking of Tony Hunter, Jerry Branam, Brett Bruce, Chris Key, Chris Scott, Dwayne Redder and Jayson Morgan, the Munday backs waltzed to 340 yards rushing in the first half.

The Moguls took the pigskin 62 yards in ten plays for a 7-0 lead as Terry Collier scored from one yard out. Dockins kicked the first of five extra points of the night.

Stamford picked up two first downs before the Munday defense forced a punt, which ended up on the one yard line. Three plays later, Perry Collier took a pitch-off from Dockins and raced 85 yards for another Mogul score. This gave Munday a 14-0 lead in the opening quarter.

The second quarter was slower for the Moguls, as they fumbled the ball away once and had a pass intercepted. With 2:58 left before halftime, Terry Collier scored on a 67-yard run around right end.

Junior Masias then recovered a Stamford fumble on the Mogul 40 yard line. After an attempted pass from Bobby Dockins to Ronnie Whitfield, Dockins raced 60 yards on a keeper to score with 39 seconds left in the second quarter. Munday led Stamford 28-0 as the first half came to a close.

The Mogul defensive unit stopped Stamford on their first possession in the beginning of the second half. After twelve running plays, with Tyler Thompson, Dockins and the Colliers each sharing duties carrying the ball, Dockins then passed to Perry Collier for a 26-yard TD.

Coach Edwards then sent in the reserves. They quickly stopped the Bulldogs in their first effort to move the ball. Munday then punted for the first and only time in the game.

Stamford's only score came after 15 running plays and six first downs against the second defensive unit with 3:50 left in the game. This ended the ballgame with a 35-7 victory for the Moguls.

In action Thursday night, the Munday seventh grade team fought Stamford to an 18-18 tie. The eighth grade team lost their game 26-6 and the Junior Varsity fell to Stamford 44-0.

The Mogul Varsity will host the Electra Tigers this Friday night. The Tigers return six offensive and three defensive starters from last year. Leading the way is quarterback Travis Box, considered a major college prospect at safety.

Electra's Coach Bateman stated, "Offensively, we should be pretty solid. We should be able to throw the ball well and rush the ball adequately."

Come out and support the Moguls Friday night at Scruggs Field. COACHES COMMENTS.

I thought we played our best game of the year against Stamford. It was a beautiful night except for the condition of the field. There was water on the sidelines and the ground was spongy, but we executed real well in spite of these conditions.

Our line blocked very well and our backs did an exceptional job of staying on their feet. I was real proud of the efforts of the entire defensive team.

Chris Scott filled in for Bobby Dockins as middle linebacker and was the leading tackle on the team. Brett Bruce and Jerry Valencia also had outstanding games.

Our opponent this week, the Electra Tigers, is a much more disciplined, hard-hitting club than Stamford. They have had a great football program the last few years and will come to play. This should be a very exciting game.

PUBLIC MEETING SCHEDULED

Munday Locale May Contain Hazardous Waste

The Texas Water Commission is considering eight new sites for inclusion on the State Superfund program. The fund was created to aid in the clean up process of sites which are considered to be of potential endangerment to public health and safety or the environment.

Site No. 6 on the list is Thompson Hayward Chemical Company, which was located on U.S. Highway 277, 1/2 mile south of Munday. This site is an inactive facility which once was the location of a pesticide formulation plant which blended and diluted parathion and DDT. The potential hazard presented by this site is ground water contamination. Direct contact is also a high concern since the site is not secured.

Public meetings have been scheduled to receive information about the proposed listings and the identification of potentially responsible parties. Persons who wish to comment on the proposed listing of any of the sites may do so in the context of the public meeting either orally or in writing.

A public meeting has been scheduled in Munday on October 29 at 7:00 p.m. in the Munday City Hall council chambers.

But it's been fun. You've run down a dusty road with me to "tell Clara the war is over" and together we've revisited a time when melodious voices were raised in song over the white fields of cotton as the "boll pullers" pulled their "duckin'" (see, Mother, not canvas) cotton sacks behind them. You have allowed me to take you fishing with Papa Harlan again and down to Mama Beecher's and the noisy, loving family gatherings. You have let me share with you all my memories of a simpler, easier time when people lived by different rules and different values. That's not to say that time was better than now - but it was different.

If somehow I have been responsible resurrecting a special memory or causing a smile or if something I've said has caused you to get in touch with someone you used to know, then the writing has been worth the effort. I hope you have received in the reading, just a portion of the blessing I have received in the writing.

By the same token, if I have expressed an opinion or made a remark that has offended you, I apologize. It really was not intentional.

I am aware that "Views" has always lacked the wit of Bill Bowley's Blabbin' and the beautiful insight into people and nature displayed by Mr. Edgar's Look to the East, but it has been my own contribution, written in my own way and you have been a receptive and wonderful audience. I can't thank you enough for allowing me this special memory.

And I love you for it!

Farm Bureau Endorses Counts For Re-Election

The Texas Farm Bureau Friends of Agriculture (AGFUND) has endorsed the re-election of David Counts of Knox City to a second term in the Texas House of Representatives, District 78.

That announcement came from Texas Farm Bureau President S.M. True, who cited Counts' "100% voting record" on issues of interest to Texas Farm Bureau during 1989-90. True also noted that Counts has been attuned to issues relative to agriculture since he has been active in farming for several years.

AGFUND is the political action arm of Texas Farm Bureau and has endorsed numerous candidates in both state and national races this year. The fund is comprised of voluntary contributions made by Farm Bureau members.

Sports Writer Gives His Opinion Of Munday Moguls

Sports writer Bill Hart of the Abilene Reporter News has covered area football for several years, and after watching the game between Munday and Stamford last Friday night, was willing to give us his opinion of how the Moguls look thus far. Following is his opinion of the Mogul football team.

The telephone rang at the house Sunday afternoon and it was Munday newspaper tycoon Marion Waggoner wanting to know what I thought of the Moguls' football team.

After watching the Moguls run roughshod over Stamford, 35-7, Friday night, after a heavy rain, for their third straight easy victory, I'd say they were mighty impressive. The score could have been higher.

The offense looked awesome, but any time a coach has as much speed as the Moguls possess, that's going to happen. There's no need to tell anyone in Munday that Terry and Perry Collier are good. Everyone has known that for several years now.

But Bobby Dockins adds a new dimension at quarterback. One of these days coach Jim Edwards is going to let him roll out and throw maybe six or seven passes a game. And Tyler Thompson was impressive running up the middle. I thought Mike Bunton threw the ball well for the second unit.

When you have four or five good hosses, it's hard to key on a single player and I guess that's Munday's most valuable asset right now. I'd hate to try and defense that attack.

The offensive line opened holes most of the night that maybe Waggoner or I could have made a few yards, although we don't have the speed to run as far as the Colliers and Dockins.

Defensively, the Moguls give up quite a few yards, but when opponents get close to the goal line, the field seems to shrink and it's hard to get into the end zone. But there's a question that has to be answered: down the line, will the pass defense hold up? Sooner or later, whether Edwards likes it or not, the Moguls will have to throw the football.

So, how good are the Moguls? From the stands and the pressbox, they look strong, perhaps as good as any Munday team in the past decade. But that doesn't mean that all they have to do is walk onto the field and opponents will run for cover.

It will be tough sledding to get even to the semifinals, which has been the Moguls' stumbling block of late. Sure, Wheeler lost last week, but it was to Class 2A Wellington, considered a strong team by an Amarillo sports writer who said Wheeler was the best Class A team in his area.

Rankin beat Garden City last week, but both are strong teams, Bartlett and Italy are also strong in the south. And don't overlook Santa Anna.

But before the Moguls can worry about the playoffs, there's a tough district that includes Spur (the Moguls know all about them). Paducah usually gives Munday a hard time as does Knox City. And Motley County surprised O'Donnell last week.

But to me, the Moguls' toughest opponent could be themselves. A South Texas sportswriter told me last Saturday night in Austin that Thorndale, last year's Class A state champion, is struggling this year because of the big head. They haven't jelled as a team but if they do, they could be good.

Coach Jim Edwards has done a good job in the past, measuring the Moguls' helmets to make sure they still fit and aren't too small -- and to see if heads are growing. And the Moguls must remember what happened against Lindsay a few years back when an opponent was apparently taken lightly.

Injuries could be a problem as there doesn't seem to be a whole lot of depth. But that's true of any Class A football team.

Can the Moguls win state? Only they have the answer.

David Counts Receives Stenholm Endorsement

State Representative David Counts got support today for his re-election campaign to the Texas House of Representatives from Congressman Charles Stenholm, one of the most highly respected members of the United States Congress.

At a joint press conference held at the recently remodeled People for Progress Inc. building in Sweetwater, Congressman Charles Stenholm of Stamford announced his endorsement of State Representative David Counts of Knox City for re-election to his seat in the Texas House of Representatives.

In making this announcement, Congressman Stenholm praised Representative Counts for his work in the 71st Legislature and his consistent conservative voting record which was pro-enterprise and pro-business according to the Texas Chamber of Commerce. Stenholm noted that Representative Counts has received recognition from the Texas chamber of Commerce based on his voting record in the past regular session and special sessions that followed. Congressman Stenholm also pointed out that Counts has established several businesses in Knox City and he knows the demands and pressure of daily operations and meeting a payroll in today's business climate. "David Counts is the man the people of the 78th District need in Austin," said Stenholm.

Responding to statements made by Congressman Stenholm, Counts said, "It is gratifying to me to have the support and endorsement of Congressman Charlie Stenholm. He has done an excellent job of representing his district over the years and has gained the respect and confidence of his colleagues in the United States House of Representatives."

"I am delighted to have his support for my re-election to the Texas House of Representatives 78th District," Counts said.

The Lord's Corner

by Dr. Pete Bradfield, pastor
First Baptist Church

A young lad once approached his father to ask, "Dad, why does the wind blow?" To which the father responded, "I don't know, son."

The boy continued, "Dad, where do the clouds come from?"

"I'm not sure, son."

"Dad, what makes a rainbow?"

"No idea, son."

"Dad, do you mind me asking all these questions?"

"Not at all, son. How else are you going to learn."

The earthly father, unable to answer questions about nature, left his son with little hope that his father could handle the thornier questions about life. But there is a heavenly Father, the God of creation, the One who made the thunder and rain, wind and clouds, who also knows the answers to life's deepest riddles. Is He your Heavenly Father? Are you a part of His family? You can be, you know. Read John 3:1-18.

See you next week, and remember: There is nothing round the corner that is beyond God's view.

Reminder

Don't forget to come to the Junior class hamburger supper Friday night before the ballgame with Electra. It will be in the high school cafeteria from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. The meal includes hamburgers with all the trimmings plus dessert and iced tea. Tickets are $3.50 each and may be purchased at the door. Take-out orders are available.

Benjamin News

By Mrs Gladene Green

Nell Hudson is still a patient in Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls. According to reports, she is making some progress toward recovery but will be there several days yet. I'm sure she would appreciate a card from home.

Hes Hall seems to be feeling better. He goes back to the doctor in October and hopefully will get a good report and maybe will be able to space his trips further apart.

W. T. Cartwright is doing pretty well since his recent surgery. He is still under the care of his doctor but is back at work at the post office, and aside from tiring very easily, feels pretty good most of the time.

Kathleen Melton was in Lubbock last week for a checkup. She got a good report, just has had a pretty bad virus. She returned home Sunday after several days stay in Lubbock.

Word was received here Friday that former Benjamin resident, Steve Wilson, underwent quadruple by-pass surgery Friday morning in a hospital in Corpus Christi. Steve and Jan lived on the League Ranch and are now living in Falfurrias.

Reports are that he is doing real well. I don't have his room number, but a card sent to his home would reach him and I know he (and Jan, too) would love to hear from their friends here. Their address is Rt. 1 Box 77N, Falfurrias, TX 78355. And certainly our prayers for a complete recovery go to Steve and all our friends who are ill.

KNOX COUNTY KONNECTIONS

Cardiovascular disease is our nation's largest killer. Scientific research has proven that the typical American diet -- high in cholesterol and fat -- contributes significantly to an increased risk of a heart attack or stroke.

To focus the public's attention to this problem, the American Heart Association sponsors American Heart's Food Festival from September 23-29.

The American Heart Association has given us some tips for preparation of brown bag lunches. We hope you will take them to "heart".

SUGGESTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF LUNCHES

1. Freeze a small can of juice and pack it with your lunch. As it thaws, it will keep everything cool.

2. Use a hearty, satisfying bread, like whole wheat, pumpernickel, oatmeal or rye. For variety, try buns, bagels or pita bread.

3. Freeze sandwiches for the week

(frozen sandwiches keep longer in hot weather). Meat, chicken, turkey, and peanut butter freeze well. Mayonnaise does not freeze.

4. Wrap vegetables like lettuce and tomatoes separately in a baggie. They will stay fresher and will not make your sandwich soggy. You can add them just before eating.

5. Meat sliced thin and stacked is easier to bite than one thick slice on a sandwich.

6. Spread margarine or mayonnaise to the edge of the slice of bread so the moist filling will not make the bread soggy.

7. Start lunch with a fresh green salad with low-fat dressing.

8. Cut sandwiches into quarters (they are easier to eat).

CINNAMON NUTS

1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/4 cup boiling water
1 1/2 cups walnuts or pecans

Combine the sugar, cinnamon, cream of tartar and boiling water. Continue to boil until a candy thermometer registers 246 degrees F. Add the nuts and cool, stirring until the syrup sugars on the nuts.

Turn out onto a flat surface. Separate the nuts and cool until dry. Store in a tightly covered container.

Yield: about 1 1/2 cups.

FARM AND RANCH

Fall Lawn Planting

As a homeowner, many people like Rob Harrison of Knox City have planted fruitless mulberry trees in their yards. If your tree is very large you probably have problems growing grass under the tree. There is a grass that is well adapted to low light and has a shallow root system, and now is the time to plant.

Homeowners should be planting their tall fescue lawn in the period of mid September to early November to ensure good root development before the first killing frost.

To prepare the seedbed prior to planting, first remove all debris such as rocks, wood, etc. from the area.

Next, apply the fertilizer. A high phosphorus fertilizer such as 8-16-8, 18-46-0 or 10-20-10 should be added so that two pounds of phosphorus is added per 1,000 square feet.

Phosphorus stimulates root development in plants so is a good foundation for the tall fescue lawn. After the fertilizer has been applied, lightly rake the soil to incorporate the fertilizer.

The seed should be broadcast at 8 to 10 pounds per 1,000 square feet as tall fescue is a branching type grass and thus there must be high plant numbers to have a thick lush tall fescue lawn.

Tall fescue varieties that have been proven well in the North Texas area include Kentucky 31, Rebel, Hound Dog or Tempo. Rebel is a fine bladed variety.

After planting the seed, the area should be watered regularly and avoid getting a crust on top of the soil. This procedure should be continued until the grass seed begins to germinate and a green tint can be seen on top of the ground.

The tall fescue should be mowed at 1 1/2 to 2 inch heights and should be fertilized lightly monthly with a balanced fertilizer.

The Fishing Doc

By "Doc" Fitzgerald

Miller's Creek Reservoir

Level: Overfull, but all roads passable

Temperature (at surface): 77° F
Condition: Murky due to rains

Black Bass: Good to 8 lbs. on rattle lures and plastic worms. Favorite colors: red, gold, yellow, ice, purple. Hitting all depths.

White Bass: Fair to 2 lbs. on Road Runners and jigs. Cool weather may start runs. Watch for diving birds and churning water.

Striper: Fairly good to 9 lbs. on live bass minnows and small perch. Some taken with trolling lures near dam.

Crappie: Excellent at Miller Creek. Crappie are hitting both jigs and minnows. Largest reported at 2 3/4 lbs. (it took a chartruese bass worm). Depths range from 6 to 15 feet. Best Colors are: chartreuse, sand, clear, black and white.

Catfish: Excellent to 50 lbs. Many report trotline and pole strikes better than last spring. Several pole lines broken on large fish, especially in creek areas. Best on large minnows, Tan Bait, grasshoppers and worms.

Carp & Buffalo: Excellent to 18 lbs. Hitting Tan Bait, grasshoppers and worms best.

Fishing Tip

Q: How does the water temperature affect fish?

A: The most important factor in fishing is oxygen level. Fish like to stay in areas where they can breathe. The oxygen level is affected by water temperature, PH-level, water flow ("current"). Catfish tend to do best and are most active when the water temperature reaches 78-85 degrees F. Crappie and Sand Bass start their spawn runs around 65-75 degrees F.

Redistricting Hearing To Be Held Friday In Austin

The Senate Select Committee on Legislative Redistricting, chaired by Senator Bob Glasgow of Stephenville, and the House Redistricting Committee, chaired by Representative Tom Uher of Bay City, have held 13 hearings throughout the state since March of this year. The hearings are to receive testimony from interested individuals in preparation for drawing new district lines for congressional, legislative, and State Board of Education districts.

The Austin hearing, to be held on Friday, September 28, at the LBJ Auditorium, 26th Street and Red River, is the last of the currently scheduled interim hearings being held before the next regular legislative session.

For the Austin hearing, the committees will be seeking testimony regarding statewide redistricting issues as well as information concerning Austin and the surrounding area. The hearing will begin at 10 a.m., with regional issues to be addressed in the morning and statewide issues to be taken up after a lunch break between 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. If you would like to address the committees about issues regarding either the Austin area or redistricting in Texas in general, please plan to attend. In addition, the committees welcome written comments as testimony submitted either as a supplement to oral testimony or as an alternative to appearing before the committees in person.

The actual census numbers that will be used by the state for redistricting purposes must be provided to the legislature before April 1, 1991. At that time, the legislature will be requesting additional comments and more specific suggestions regarding new district boundaries. Continued public interest in redistricting is an invaluable addition to the success of the process.

At Your Service by Dr. Larry Fitzgerald Minister, Munday Church of Christ

Q: I want to start my own personal Bible study and would appreciate any suggestions as to how to do this.

A: I applaud your desire to begin a serious study of the Bible. For through the open-hearted reading of God's message your faith will grow (Romans 10:17). To help you on this road to discovery, it is recommended that you find a version which is easy for you to read and understand. There are no "authorized" English versions. Some are better than others, though. Probably the best is the "New Simplified Version" by Baker Book House (also known as the "Great News for the Deaf"). The NSV was translated in Texas by a computer programed by biblical language experts and is as accurate as it is easy to understand. The Revised Standard Version is what I use when I speak or teach. Its language is a little more complex and it uses "KJV language" in the prayer passages, though. The King James and American Standard Versions use archaic language and syntax making them difficult to understand. I do suggest you stay away from paraphrases. They tend to be misleading.

After selecting your version, set aside a regular time each day to be your Bible study time. Don't allow anything to prevent you from studying during that period. Some people like to study first thing in the morning. You could set your alarm for 30 minutes earlier and use that time. Others like to read the last thing of the day. Basically, set aside the time that works best for you.

Next, take notes in a notebook. Write three key thoughts for each chapter you read. Also, underline one or two verses and memorize them.

I suggest the following approach as a faith builder. Choose one of the gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke or John). These will describe the life of Jesus Christ. Next read Acts (the history of the Church). Then read the letters of the New Testament (excluding Hebrews and Revelation which require strong Old Testament background). Then read Genesis, Psalms, the rest of the Old Testament, Hebrews and Revelation, in that order.

Some good tools to help you include a good Bible dictionary (I prefer Smith's) and a handbook such as Halley's Bible Handbook.

If I can be of any additional help, feel free to write or call.

If you have a question for Dr. Fitzgerald, write him c/o Box 211, Munday, Texas 76371.

MRS. STEPHEN LEE HOLMES

Smith-Holmes Exchange Vows In Amarillo Ceremony

Tracy Lyn Smith and Stephen Lee Holmes were united in marriage at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning, August 25 at the home of the bride's parents in Amarillo. The garden wedding was officiated by the Reverend W.O. Smith, uncle of the bride, of Munday.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. Wayne Smith. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Juanita Massey of Munday. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. David Holmes of Plano.

The couple exchanged vows in a gazebo decorated with silk grape ivy accented with violet and primrose petals entwined around Roman capital columns. Bows and streamers in colors of dubonnet and primrose complimented each column and the interior of the gazebo.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a tea length candlelit dress of lace over satin. The dress featured a dropped waist and a fitted bodice selectively hand-beaded with seed pearls. To complement her gown, the bride chose a custom designed headpiece of lace, embroidered with seed pearls and layers of illusion. She carried a cascading garden bouquet of alstromeria lilies, German statice, cameo roses, gypsophilium and needlepoint ivy.

The bridesmaids tea length dresses were of amethyst satin. They carried hand-designed silk bouquets of violets and primroses with cascading ribbons matching the bridal bouquet.

Matron of honor was Stephanie Trumial of Amarillo. Serving as bridesmaids were Carol Lee Peterson of Beeville and Kim Sandlin of Ennis.

David Holmes, father of the groom, served his son as best man. Grooms-men were Terry Holmes and Randy Holmes, both of Plano. They were attired in morning coats with tails and French ascots.

Christopher Carter Smith of Fort

Worth, Thomas Weymouth Miller of Dallas and Dr. Aubrey L. Smith of Amarillo, served as ushers. They wore morning coats and French ascots.

Guests were registered by Kimberly Ann Conley of Fort Worth.

Special piano selections were presented by Connie Bingham, who also accompanied Doug Jones and Monty Fielding on trumpets as they played the processional "Majesty." As the father gave the bride away, Ernie Boyd and Eddie Boyd, both of Amarillo, sang "In His Time."

Following the marriage vows and a special prayer by the minister, the couple knelt as the trumpets played Andrea Crouch's "To God Be The Glory." Piano and trumpets again combined for the wedding party recessional, "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee."

A reception brunch was held in the garden area of the home following the ceremony. Judy Massey, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake and Stacy Giles, cousin of the bride, presided over the punch bowl.

The bride received a bachelor's degree in finance and economics from Baylor University in Waco. She received a master's degree in international business from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. She works for the Dillard's Fort Worth buying office.

The groom works as a graphics artist with Sound Warehouse, Inc. in Dallas.

Out-of-town guests included the families of Bethel Hughes, Mildred Howard and Pat Merrell, all relatives of the late Grace Smith, grandmother of the bride.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parker of Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hayes of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker and Mrs. W.O. Smith of Munday and Russell Smith and Kathy Abernathy of Abilene.

Weinert News

By Mrs. Myrtle Phemister

Birthday balloons will fly in Weinert this week to honor Wanda Hester, Calab Hudgens, Tiffany Kimmel, Alice Yates, Vickie Adams, Mitch Mayfield and Joshua Kimmel - and in Stamford for our Missy Alexander. Happy Birthday, all!

Celebrating wedding anniversaries will be Melvin and Wanda Vojkufka and Johnny and Marilyn Earp. Congratulations, and many more!

We received 2 to 3 inches of rain Thursday and Friday, which was bad for the Haskell County Fair participants who were showing their animals. Many from our area brought home more ribbons to add to their collection.

We congratulate Alice Yates for the superb job she did as chairman of the exhibit department.

The rain did not deter the crowd who came on Saturday to clean and re-furbish the Weinert school in preparation for our homecoming on October 6.

Durwood Bruton, president of homecoming 1990, came Friday night and set up his motor home on the school parking lot and tried to work with a cup of tea in his hand as though he were behind his desk in Dallas! He did! He attended worship services at the First Baptist Church on Sunday.

Danny Hill was seen pushing a map, and Sandra Nichols was a very lovely chairman of cleanup. So many were in attendance, we were delighted at the happy atmosphere, and the clean building attested to the many hours of labor that were spent. Thanks to all.

Thanks to the M System store in Munday who donated $50 of cleaning supplies to the clean-up! We need more friends like that.

The calendar for the Community Pictorial Directory is filling up with appointments to have your picture made. The dates remain for October 1 and 2, 3-6 p.m., and we do want everyone's picture to be included. Call 673-8310 for an appointment.

The First Baptist Church will have "Celebration Sunday" on September 30, as they look for 85 in attendance, and each class will have those ready for promotion to other classes.

October 2 is Senior Adult Day in Leuders, and the church van will be going. If you wish a ride, call Donnie Harbers, minister, and plan to attend.

Weinert extends sympathy to the family of Tom Kreger, to his son, Garland and family of San Antonio, and his sister, Lily Kreger of Anson, and many nephews and nieces. Tom had lived here most of his life, and we shall miss him very much.

His memorial service was held Monday, September 24, at the Weinert Church of Christ, of which he was a member. Dale Huff of Haskell and Roy Herricks were in charge of the service. He was interred in the Pleasant Valley Cemetery, east of Weinert.

The community served lunch to the family in the new community room, which was the homemaking room of the high school.

The community extends its congratulations and thanks to Ann Horan who has just completed her new convenience store, and by the end of the week will begin serving meals.

The women of Weinert met at the store for their regular meeting on Tuesday and expect to make "Ann's" their permanent meeting place. So we hope to see you at "Ann's".

We welcome our newlyweds this week, Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Moeller, who returned from the honeymoon after being married in McKinney last week. Beth will be commuting to work for the next several weeks.

Woody and Georgia Turnbow returned on Wednesday from a ten day trip to Charleston, South Carolina, where they visited in the home of their son, Eric, and his wife, Susan, and daughter, Lynsie.

Eric is with the U.S. Submarine Corp. and is based at Charleston. They send greetings to Weinert friends.

On their way home, they stopped in Weatherford to visit their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Sorrels and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Vojkufka and Rene Vojkufka were in Abilene Saturday to attend a birthday party honoring Melvin and his son-in-law, Bob Wood, hosted by the "women-folk" of the Vojkufka family.

The Weinert Extension Club will meet Tuesday, October 2, at the home of Alta McGuire in Munday for a program about "Calcium for the Prince of Life."

Plans that the club has to serve lunch at the homecoming will be finalized, and committees selected. Visitors are always welcome, just call the hostess if you'd like to attend.

Our sympathy to the Brockett family upon the death of Susie's niece, Bobby Imes Morgan, whose memorial service was held in Grand Prairie where she lived. She is survived by two sons and a sister, Couilla Imes. Several from our area attended the services. The Imes family are former Weinert residents.

Visitors in the Brockett home this week included all their children and a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lewis of Ft. Worth, and a friend, Lena Murphy of Henrietta.

Pete Tanner of Abilene attended the Baylor County Singing Association meeting in Seymour on Sunday, and later stopped in Weinert to see his sister-in-law, Frances Mahan.

Sue Alexander and Faye Crawford of San Antonio were visitors in their mother's home, Bertie Alexander, last week, and after becoming ill, had to use our local doctors.

They went home very pleased with the good attention and quick results they received and assured us next illness will see them returning here for treatment!

Have a nice day!

THE CONSTRUCTION of the new concession stand and restroom facilities on Goree's Buster Chamberlain field is just one of the new improvements made in Goree ISD. New ceiling fans and refrigerated air conditioning units have been installed throughout the high school building, and the gym has been remodeled with acoustic ceilings and better lighting as well as a fresh coat of paint. Plans are underway to install a new sound system in the gym as one of this year's PTO projects. All renovations are expected to be completed in time for Goree's Homecoming November 2nd and 3rd.

Goree Wildcats Victorious Over Harrold Hornets, 43-30

The Goree Wildcats, led by a strong team defensive effort, defeated the Harrold Hornets, 43-30 last Friday night in Goree. The Wildcats held the Hornets to one touchdown in the first half and were able to build a 26-8 intermission lead. Gary Dixon got Goree on the scoreboard first when he scampered in from seven yards out with just 17 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

After Goree recovered a Harrold fumble early in the second stanza, Dixon found paydirt again, this time from 20 yards out. The Hornets were able to close the gap when Shawn Morris scored from the four yard line. The PAT kick made the score 12-8 in favor of the Wildcats. Dixon teamed up with his brother, Otis, on a two-yard touchdown pass midway through the quarter to give Goree an 18-8 lead. The Wildcats continued to score as Gary Dixon hit Scott Castillo on a 42-yard completion with only one second remaining to set up another scoring run by Dixon. Jay Hutchens' PAT kick accounted for the 26-8 halftime score.

Otis Dixon got Goree off to a quick second half start as he broke loose on a 48-yard scoring spree. Hutchens' kick made the score 34-8. Harrold was not about to give up. Morris took the ensuing kickoff and returned it 65 yards for a Hornet touchdown to cut the Wildcat lead to 34-16. Michael Hopkins then found the end zone on a two-yard plunge and the margin was cut to 34-24 as the third quarter closed.

When Harrold's Morris connected with Hopkins on a 59-yard scoring strike, Goree's advantage was cut to 34-30. Otis Dixon changed that somewhat when he picked up the loose ball on the PAT and ran it in to put Goree up by five. The Wildcats were able to pad the victory as Gary Dixon scored from 27 yards out with only 37 seconds remaining. Hutchens' kick gave Goree the 43-30 victory.

The Wildcat defense set the tone for the game as it shut down the tough Harrold running game, forcing the Hornets to go to the air much more than normal. The Wildcats raised their record to 2-1 with the victory, while Harrold falls to 2-1.

Goree will host Strawn this Friday night at 7:30 p.m. in what should prove to be another exciting football game.

Thank You

Please know how very much we appreciate the many expressions of love that were extended prior to and at the time of the death of our husband and father. The cards, calls, delicious food, and offers to help in other special ways will always be remembered. At this difficult time, we can indeed be grateful that Munday is our hometown. E. B. loved his community, and - near the end especially - the highlight of his day was a trip to the drug store for a visit with his friends.

Your condolences have made our loss and grief bearable. As you have shared memories, you have reminded us that the special person he was - with the twinkle in the eye and the bounce in the step that were once his - will be missed.

Again, from the bottom of our hearts, thank you.
