Holiday For The Munday Courier

The employees of The Munday Courier will take a vacation starting, July 1 and return to work Monday morning, July 10. The office will be closed the week of the 4th of July.

In the past we have taken this week off every year and now we will add another week of vacation the last of December. The paper will miss two editions a year that is allowed by the post office. Since this will be the first part of the month in July, we are asking all our customers to check their supply needs and notify the Courier of any

'Jesus Rally " At Munday High School Auditorium

You are invited to attend the "Jesus Rally" being held Friday and Saturday night, June 23-24 at 8 p.m. in the Munday High School auditorium. There is no admission charge.

There will be lots of good music. Performing each night will be Chris and Rocky of Dallas and The Gospel Ship of Fort Worth. extensively in the congrega-On Friday night Larry Lea of Dallas will also be performing.

Chris and Rocky are contemporary christian adults and youth and musicians from Beverly Hills Baptist Church in Dallas. The Gospel Ship is a talented musical family from Fort Worth, featuring the children of Sam Alcala of average in attendance to Munday.

Larry Lea is the Minister to Youth and Evangelism of the Beverly Hills Baptist Church of Dallas. He is a large Christian networks native of Kilgore, and graduated from Kilgore High, Kilgore Jr. College and Dallas Baptist College. He has attended Southwestern Theological Seminary in

Ft. Worth. In the past seven years he has witnessed Beverly Hills Church grow from a congregation of 500 to over 6,000, with the youth numbering between 800 to 1,000. This growth is attributed to simply "letting go" and letting God take over. Larry has been used tion at Beverly Hills as a preacher and teacher. As well, he has continued steadily as an evangelist to seminar teacher in various states and countries. He holds a monthly "Love and Power" Concert in Dallas at which 3,500 young people hear top Christian contemporary musicians perform. These concerts are videotaped for viewing on three going nationwide. It promises to be entertaining evenings of joyous religious music, so make plans now to attend.

After Saturday's activities the teams from Stamford, Munday and two teams from Seymour returned to play in the finals Sunday. The Stamford Spades were eliminated by Seymour Firestone and in the next game the Munday Weevils beat the Firestone boys to drop them from the tourney with a third place finish. The Weevils then took on the Seymour Merchants, who had not lost a game in the tourney, and were defeated. This being Munday's second lost in the double elimination tournament placed them second. Merchants carried the first place trophy home with no loses in the four day tourney.

The Jaycees would like to thank all who helped with the tournament and helped make it a success. Special thanks go to Jessie Andrade for umpiring, Daniel Ramirez for donating the game balls, and Lyle Stoghill for announcing. Others helping included Little League parents for umpiring and running the concession stand, Jaycee wives and women's softball teams. Many others also contributed to the success of the tournament and we would like to express our appreciation to them.

Proceeds from the concession stand will be used by the Munday Little League to help pay for the new lights on the Little League Field.

The Munday golf tournament will begin Friday, June 23, with the Pro-Am which is optional. Saturday, June 24, the two man lowball partnership tourney will get underway and continue through Sunday. Entries will be accepted anytime

If you were raised in the country, you know all the enjoyment and peace of mind country living brings.

You may even remember the time when country living was considerably less comfortable than it is today. Before the establishment of member-owned electric cooperatives, the rural regions of our state were simply without electric power. Today, your member-owned electric cooperative is taking every step possible to keep a constant flow of electric power to the country at a fair price. We want country living to always be a great way of life.

TEXAS TALK

Extension Swine Specialist Phil Ricks of Johnston County, N.C., says that some hog producers recognize the fertilizer value of swine waste and have designed systems that allow them to take advantage of it, but many give little thought to the nutrient value. The manure in an underfloor pit is so concentrated that little bacterial action takes place, thus the nutrient values remain fairly constant. Depending on the storage system you use, some waste will retain its nutrient values longer than others. "You lose only about 20% of the nitrogen when waste is stored in a pit, while you may lose over 50% when waste is stored in a lagoon. Have the manure analyzed each time you change rations," he suggests. Ricks figures that 4,000 gallons of manure per acre would supply enough nitrogen to produce top-quality Coastal bermuda-grass on one North Carolina farm. *****

INSPECT COTTON FOR THRIPS

Cotton that has emerged since the rains is making good growth. High winds are causing some damage to the foliage, however, insect activity is light.

Producers should inspect those cotton fields that are adjacent to wheat fields. Thrips moving out of the wheat into cotton can cause stand reduction. Control measures should be applied for thrips only in those cases where heavy infestations are causing damage to the terminal buds and interfering with stand development.

All horse owners in Knox County are urged to vaccinate their horses against sleeping sickness.

Sleeping sickness, or encephalitis, is a virus disease transmitted by mosquitos. Both Eastern and Western types of the disease can occur in Texas and immunization and mosquito control are the only effective weapons to prevent the disease. No effective treatments are available once the animal is affected, so prevention is the best weapon to protect your horses. Since vaccines afford protection for only one year, annual revaccination is
