Look To The East
By Aaron Edgar

We all have a chore to do, come Sunday. It should, and we believe will, be a very pleasant chore for all of us. We expect many to perform this chore Saturday night, so pleasant it will be, and not wait until Sunday morning. Then's when we roll the time back!

So why not roll it back before retiring Saturday night, and not wait until Sunday morning?

It might be, however, that you're one of those who want to wake up at 2 a.m. Sunday, roll the time back, then go back to bed and lie there a while and gloat over the fact that you don't have to get up until an hour later.

You know, someone conceived the idea several years ago that establishing daylight saving time would be a great boon to the nation - that people would save daylight by getting up an hour earlier and staying up an hour later. In this manner, they would also conserve energy.

Personally we have found ourselves less energetic by getting up earlier; then, what energy we had would be taxed for the remainder of the day.

Just last Thursday, we laboriously removed our carcasses from bed at 6 a.m. in order to make a Chamber of Commerce directors' breakfast meeting at 6:30. Shortly after 10 a.m., we remarked that we probably would never get up at six o'clock again, that "this has been the longest morning we ever saw".

For a similar reason, and perhaps a dozen others, we have never come to observe daylight saving time with any degree of pleasure. Sometimes we have experienced the thrill of seeing a glorious sunrise, but we've never hankered to make this an every-day occurrence.

We have gone to the cotton patch as a kid, found our own personal cotton sack in the darkness of near-dawn, sat down beside, or lolled around, the cotton wagon until it became light enough to begin picking the fleecy stuff. That, if nothing else, will convince a fellow that early morning darkness is no time for morning activities!

We believe, and we've expressed this before, that daylight savings time was a brain-child of organized labor so union members could get off work in mid-afternoon and have more time for engaging in sports, or just cavorting around, before the bedtime hour.

Public schools, especially those of this area, have found daylight savings time a dangerous thing! When you think of small school children standing beside the road or at bus stops on the city streets, waiting to be transported to the classroom before daybreak, it sort of chills the blood. Some schools have changed classroom hours because of this.

We personally believe that daylight savings time has not one great accomplishment to mark down in the record books. The experiment should be marked

Happy Reunions Expected Here Saturday For Homecoming

SNAKE CHARMER? Stopping here en route from Oregon to Brownsville one day last week were Mr. and Mrs. Don Schruck and little daughter, Terrace. Traveling with them was an imported Burmese Rock Python that had been raised as a pet. They acquired the snake when it was five feet long; now it's eight feet long. Terrace is shown playing with the reptile.

Committee Asks For Early History

The Bicentennial Committee of the "Heritage of 1976" is very much interested that each family who has some early-day history send this information to M. L. Wiggins, chairman.

Several letters have been sent to different people, asking them to compile their family histories, as well as histories of different businesses which have existed in Munday.

"We would like for all this information to be in our hands by December 1, in order that we may combine this information and go to press by January 1, 1976," Mr. Wiggins said.

"We certainly would appreciate it very much if you will send this information to us as soon as possible."

Parents Of Handicapped May Form Organization

A total of 32 interested persons attended a meeting in Haskell on Tuesday night, October 14, to discuss forming an organization of parents of the handicapped. Benefits of forming an organization were discussed, "but we didn't complete the association," according to those in charge.

A second meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 28, to complete the organization. Objectives of this meeting are: 1. to select a name for the organization; 2. to elect officers, and 3. to discuss affiliation. This will be in the Community Building in Haskell.

A film, "Early Detection of Learning Disabilities", will be shown. All interested persons are urged to attend.

Represented at last week's meeting were Munday, Knox City, Weinert, Rochester, Haskell and Abilene. When the association is formed, it was stated, meetings will be held at various communities in Knox and Haskell counties on a revolving basis.

BULLETIN

The Munday B&PW Club will hold their monthly meeting Tuesday October 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Munday Community Center. Knox County Judge, Sam Clonts, will be the guest speaker on The Amendments to be voted on in the November election. The public has a "Special" invitation to this meeting.

Plans are being completed! The Welcome mat is ready to be spread out! "Happiness is expected to prevail in big fashion in Munday during this week-end.

It's the date - Saturday, October 25 - of the homecoming of ex-students, ex-teachers and friends of the Munday schools, who will be returning, many of them, to Munday after an absence of at least four years.

For many it will be family reunions, too, for they will be coming for homecoming both with their classmates and with their parents and other loved ones. This will be experienced in a number of homes.

Getting ready for homecoming has been a big job for officers of the ex-students association and those committee members who have been making plans for months. "We have tried to plan a program that will be to the liking of returning exes," one of the members stated.

They used to have a homecoming speaker, but no more. They have come to realize that the crowd had rather be engaged in "remember whens" than to listen to a speech. This has been proven, because those engaged in the gaiety of the occasion in the past have drowned out the speakers words.

Here are some of the things the exes can expect, come Saturday, October 25:

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. at the high school; however, the building will be open all day for visitation and class meetings.

A display of old pictures that will bring back remembrances of the past will be on display in the library.

A snack bar will be open in the cafeteria for those who want to visit over a snack. Proceeds will go to a fund to benefit the Ex-students Association, for planning future get-togethers.

Free coffee will be served. The general assembly program will be at 2 p.m. in the auditorium, with each decade of classes sitting in special sections.

A pep rally will be held following the program. The pep squad will have homecoming mums for sale. You may order these in advance by contacting pep squad members.

A chili supper will be served in the cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m. by members of the senior class. The price is $1.50 for adults and $1 for children.

The homecoming ball game will be at 7:30 p.m., featuring the Munday Moguls and the Knox City Greyhounds, both strong District 7-A teams.

A homecoming queen from the high school and a coming home queen will be selected during the day, and will be crowned at halftime. Immediately following the game, refreshments will be served in the high school cafeteria for all ex-students.

Completing the homecoming activities, a dance will be held at the Rhineland Gym for those interested. Admission will be $2 per person. The 1975 homecoming committee is composed of: Larry Thompson, president; Mrs. Virginia Burnison, vice president; Mrs. Jean Allen, secretary-treasurer; Mrs.

Which One Will Be Homecoming Queen?

Here are the Munday High School girls who are contestants for "Homecoming Queen" during Saturday's celebration. The winning candidate will be crowned queen during half-time activities at the football game Saturday night.

We would like you to meet junior Liz Andrade. Liz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Andrade.

At sixteen Liz is active in FHA, FTA, and on the Tom-Tom staff. She's in band, reporter of the junior class, head cheerleader, on annual staff, and in National Honor Society.

Liz is always sharing that special smile that seems to brighten the day. Will she be that lucky one?

Kathy Kuehler, chosen as one of the homecoming candidates has got what it takes to make it. Kathy's slogan for homecoming is, "as the exes return, so may the spirit of '76 return to Munday High School."

Kathy is a freshman and is now serving as vice president of the freshman class. She is also active in FHA, basketball, and pep squad. Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuehler.

Cindy Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brown has been chosen as a candidate for the homecoming queen. It really takes talent and a good personality to win over the student body. Will Cindy make it? Being active in FHA, serving as secretary of band and drum major, plus being on the Tom-Tom staff will help as Cindy puts in a lot of talent in these areas.

With all of this and a lot more going for her maybe Cindy will be the lucky girl?

Here we have Gala Myers. She is the fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myers.

Gala is a sophomore and an active student in M. H. S. She's in FHA, band, basketball, and on the Tom-Tom staff.

Her hobbies are needlework and music.

Gala makes a great contestant as she is well liked throughout the high school. Be sure and not miss this great event.

Moguls, Dragons Deadlock, 6 to 6

The Munday Moguls, accompanied by many loyal fans, journeyed to Paducah last Friday night, and had to settle for a 6-6 deadlock with the Dragons.

The two teams traded first half touchdowns, failed at the extra point try, then battled through a scoreless second half. This was the first District 7-A encounter for both teams.

As the action and score indicates, both teams put up strong defensive battles.

The Moguls took the opening kickoff, and it appeared they would break the game wide open early as they drove for their only score. Andy Haynie, quarterback, swept 39 yards on a keeper with 8:17 left in the period for the counter, but the snap on the point-after attempt was bobbled, and only six points went up on the scoreboard.

The Dragons came back to score in their homecoming performance with seven minutes to play in the second half. Danny Gargett swept to the right side, found an opening, and bolted 73 yards to cross the goal stripe. David Garcia's attempt for a two-point conversion failed.

A number of exciting plays thrilled the fans in the second half, but none added points to the scoreboard.

COACH POPE SAYS

Our Paducah game was a good clean hard hitting contest. Their wide open offense helped our pursuit down, but I felt our kids contained them well. We did have too much arm tackling.

Cypert had a good night defensively and showed his receiving ability.

Offensively we moved the ball well as the 380 yards showed, however, we should have moved the ball in on a couple of occasions.

Our Knox City game is a very important one. They are the best we have faced. Their over-all passing and running ability is blessed with much speed.

This will be an exciting game and we encourage everyone to attend and support our Moguls.

Changes Made For District Grid Schedule

A meeting of school officials, coaches and the UIL officials was held in Knox City last Monday morning, at which time a "realignment" of football schedules for next year was made.

In the change-about, the area remained in District 7-A. Two teams, Throckmorton and Archer City were dropped from the Munday Mogul schedule, while the local team gained two new district opponents, Hamlin and Rotan.

Next year's schedule is as follows:
Sept. 3 - Seymour, here.
Sept. 10 - Rochester, there.
Sept. 24 - Open
Oct. 1 - Hamlin, here.
Oct. 8 - Crowell, there.
Oct. 15 - Rotan, here.
Oct. 22 - Haskell, here.
Oct. 29 - Knox City, there.
Nov. 5 - Paducah, here.
Nov. 12 - Aspermont, there.

WEINERT BULLDOGS SCORE VICTORY

The Weinert Bulldogs continued their winning season Friday night with a 18-14 win over Lueders-Avoca. Weinert with a 4-1 win-lose record at the beginning of district play added another victory after a hard fought battle. The first quarter was a defensive battle with neither side scoring. Weinert took the lead early in the second quarter with a touchdown by Kevin Swaner, but failed to make the PAT. The Raiders gained the lead with a TD and PAT and at halftime the score remained 8-6.

The only touchdown of the third quarter came when Weinert's Mike Stewart scored from the one yard line. Lueders-Avoca regained the lead in the final period when Don Jones returned a punt 50 yards for a TD. Weinert's Kevin Swaner ran 23 yards for the winning score. Weinert will play at O'Brien Friday at 7:30 in another important district game.

CROWELL BESTS ASPERMONT TEAM

The Crowell Wildcats continued their winning ways Friday night at Crowell by defeating the Aspermont Hornets by a one-sided score of 40 to 6.

Reddy's helpful tips for your Home Laundry

Wash and dry a full load, but never overload... it is essential for each item to move freely for proper cleaning and drying.

Choose the correct cycle for washing modern materials. Perhaps hot water isn't needed, and only a gentle drying temperature.

Too much detergent can clog machine and drains... always measure, don't guess! Follow the manufacturer's recommendations for your type equipment. Mixing brands of detergents can cause graying of clothes.

Many manufacturers of permanent press garments recommend machine washing and machine drying for best results. Following instructions on the garment tag can help preserve the life of your clothing and give you wrinkle-free clothes without need for ironing. A big savings!

Dr. Kunkle, A&M Dean Receives 4-H Award

Texas A&M University Dean of Agriculture Dr. H. O. Kunkle, a former 4-H leading promoter of the 4-H program in Texas, has been named a state winner in the National 4-H Alumni Recognition Program.

Kunkle will receive a special plaque from the Olin Corporation, which also provides eight gold keys and eight trips to the 1976 National 4-H Congress in Chicago for national winners. Kunkle's nomination has been forwarded for consideration at the national level, announced state 4-H officials at Texas A&M.

Other state winners are Robert L. Hillery of Wichita Falls, Marvin Lin Warthan of Corsicana, Mrs. Jimmie Mae Davis of Longview and Miss Caren Rene Broome, formerly of Galveston.

The 4-H Alumni Recognition Program is designed to honor former 4-H members for continuing service, leadership and accomplishments in 4-H, their career and their community.

"We are proud to have Dean Kunkle selected for the state 4-H Alumni Award, and we feel he is a strong candidate for national honors," said Dr. John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H. "He has a strong 4-H background and has done much to further the 4-H program in Texas. He never misses an opportunity to take an active role in 4-H activities, such as the State 4-H Congress and State 4-H Roundup. Also, he has probably done more than any one individual in Texas to promote scholarship opportunities for 4-H members. Texas 4-Hers have no greater friend and no more loyal supporter than Dean Kunkle."

As a youth, Kunkle was a 4-H member in Young County where he participated in beef projects and was active in meat and poultry judging contests. He and his teammates won the State Meat Identification Contest and placed fifth in the National Meat Identification Contest in Chicago in 1936. The following year the team won the State Poultry Judging Contest and placed tenth in the national contest. Money earned from his 4-H projects along with guidance and inspiration received through 4-H got Kunkle on his way to Texas A&M where he received a B.S. degree in animal science and a M.S. degree in biochemistry and nutrition.

He went on to study biochemistry at Cornell University under Nobel Prize winner Dr. James B. Sumner, where he received a Ph.D. degree in 1950. Kunkle began his professional career as an instructor in biochemistry at the University of Wisconsin in 1950. In 1951 he transferred to Texas A&M as an assistant professor and taught biochemistry. Kunkle was named associate director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, the state's agricultural research agency, in 1962 and assumed the full directorship from 1967 to 1972. In 1967 he was also named dean of the College of Agriculture.

One of his highest honors was that of being selected twice as outstanding professor in agriculture by the Student Agricultural Council of Texas A&M. He has also received the Faculty Distinguished Award in Teaching from the Texas A&M Association of Former Students. Under his leadership the percentage of freshmen agricultural students at Texas A&M who were in the top quarter of their high school classes has increased 25 per cent in the past six years and is now at about the 75 per cent level. Many of these have been outstanding 4-H members.

Kunkle has been instrumental in developing "impact" research and Extension centers in 11 agricultural regions of Texas and in originating a requirement of professional internship for a master's degree in agriculture.

He and his wife, Beverly, and their two children reside at 1401 Post Oak in College Station.

Constitution Proposition 5 Approved By Grain Producers

Lubbock -- Texas voters will go to the polls November 4 to cast ballots on the proposed Texas constitution, voting on eight separate propositions concerning the constitutional structure of the state government.

Proposition 5 (Finance Article) has far-reaching implications for Texas farmers.

Grain Sorghum Producers Association, working with Delwin Jones of Lubbock, has studied various implications of the finance article in an attempt to eliminate some confusion concerning the proposed documents and its effect on agriculture.

Jones, a life-long Lubbock County farmer, served in the Texas House of Representatives for eight years and was chairman of the Agricultural Committee. In addition to his work with GSPA, Jones currently farms and is active with Plains Cotton Growers, High Plains Research Foundation and Texas Farm Bureau.

Jones explained that approval of the finance article will exempt from sales tax farm machinery, feed, seed, fertilizer and parts. These exemptions are not presently included in the constitution. The items are exempted in the sales tax law but could be removed by any future legislature.

Another vital area to Texas farmers deals with land tax valuation, Jones said. "Under the present constitution, land value for tax purposes must be determined by the most recent sales of land in the same area. This simply means that land speculators may establish values so high that taxes in many areas may well exceed the farm or ranch gross income of the land itself," Jones said.

"If Proposition 5 is approved, it will assure that farm and ranch land tax value shall be based on its net income capacity. This will give the farmers and ranchers the same consideration that oil companies, life insurance companies and banks have on their buildings," he added.

Proposition 5 provides that the legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising farm and ranch land.

Jones explained that the proposed change would place emphasis on the net profit of farms and ranches instead of their market value.

The legislature has already enacted a formula that would establish the net income of a farm or ranch as a basis for its taxable value. It provides that the five year average net income shall establish this basis, but this net income value shall not exceed the fair market value.

"I believe that the net income valuation for the individual farm or ranch will protect the farmer or rancher from excessive taxation," Jones said.

Proposition 5 also authorizes property tax exemptions for those over 65 years of age ($3,000) and exemptions for veteran and other non-profit organizations. It states that refundable assessments voted by marine food and agricultural producers shall not be classified as taxes.

In addition to the specific items of sales tax exemptions and favorable tax valuation of farm and ranch land, Jones said that Proposition 5 does not delegate any new authority to the legislature.

"In fact, it is more restrictive than the present constitution," he said.

Munday Schools Show Progress During Lean As Well As Good Years

The Munday Public Schools, which will host hundreds of "exes" next Saturday through its ex-students association, has a record of continued progress despite periods of ups and downs that taxed the best in school officials and patrons.

From its beginning in 1887, when Munday and Knox City were organized into the first school district in the county south of the Brazos River, this has been true. The Reeder School, according to records of the Knox County History published in 1964, was the forerunner of the Knox City School and Medlin was the forerunner of the Munday School. Medlin was listed as "No. 6 in District No. 2".

There is no record of what year it was organized, but the record shows that in 1891, R. P. Munday, James Reeves and G. H. Berry were the trustees. There were forty-two scholars.

In the record of 1894, there were two schools in the area, Johnson and New Hope, with no mention of Medlin. It is presumed that Medlin's name was changed to Johnson, since it was near the Johnson Cemetery. New Hope then was on what is the present S. A. Bowden farm. Teachers listed then were: T. M. Anderson, Johnson and Miss Allie Couch.

The first school taught in the town of Munday was located on a tract of land which is included in the present campus. It was a five-month school, taught in 1899-1900 with J. S. Blount and R. J. Smith as teachers. In 1901-02 Miss Ethie Lee was added as a third teacher.

Miss Maude Isbell is well remembered as one of the early-day teachers in the school.

In 1906, the district was changed from common to an independent school district and a new grammar school building was erected. In 1922, a modern high school was erected, and sanitary connections and city sewer system were installed in 1927.

It was during the tenure of Dr. J. Horace Bass, 1922-28 and again in 1934-40 that the schools showed great progress. He was responsible for raising the standard of the school from a non-classified and unaffiliated school to one of the first class with approximately 20 units of affiliation. At this time Munday was one of the highest ranking schools in the state.

Again the Knox County history records: The history of a school is the recording of events that mark its progress from year to year, but this story is of less than passing interest to any but those who were a part of it - patrons who supported it, students who attended it, and teachers whose dedication made its birth, survival and growth worth noting and worthy of recording.

This history lists the following who had ten or more years of service in the local school in 1964:

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bardwell, Miss Juanita Smiley, Mrs. Paul Pendleton, Mrs. H. H. Partridge, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown, Mrs. Buel Bowden, Mrs. H. H. Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox, Mrs. Carl Morgan, Mrs. Mauryse Blacklock, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ponder, Mrs. Jerry Kane and Mrs. Wendell Partridge.

The beginning of a successful period for the schools was in 1944-45, when W. C. Cunningham was superintendent. This was the time when the school abandoned the old-established rule of not hiring man and wife teams and started hiring qualified teachers that could be found. World War II had taken its toll of good teachers, as many were inducted into the service.

Another trying time came under the tenure of Supt. W. C. Cox, 1946-1960, when some common school districts were consolidated with the Munday school. For a time after consolidation of the Sunset School, this building was used as a junior high school with bus service to and from classes.

It was under Willis Apple, 1960-66, that the new and modern high school was completed in the late spring of 1966.

Succeeding Mr. Apple was Douglas Myers, who came to Munday after 13 years with the Weinert School. Myers was here for the opening and dedication of the new high school in August, 1966.

The school has continued as one of the leading educational units in this area. Under Myers' tenure, and with a dedicated and foresighted school board, the local school was a leader in establishing the "Plan A" pilot program for Knox and Haskell counties. This program is for any and all students with a learning problem, for speech therapy, and other handicaps. It now employs over 30 people in the two counties, plus services of special personnel of the state.

Another building program was started last year, when a new vocational ag and shop building came into being. This new facility is in its final stages of completion.

Throughout the years, the local school has been "living proof" that the Munday School System is the leading industry of the area, with a job of making useful men and women out of the community's boys and girls.

Those returning to Munday for the homecoming will see a school system that's different to the one they knew - a change that spells progress. In fact, they would be sorely disappointed if they found the local school just like it was when they frequented its halls and classrooms.

Bottle Gardening For "Busybodies"

If you don't have the time to take care of an indoor garden, why not try bottle gardening, suggests a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"All you need to turn a dull dark corner of your home into a bright colorful spot is a waterproof container, tap water and cuttings of some favorite plants," says Everett Janne.

Beverage bottles, vases, canning jars, fish bowls and aquariums make good containers.

Use cuttings from any plant with a thick stem, such as a myrtle, geranium, oleander, wax begonia, coleus or hibiscus.

"First, clean out the bottle with hot water and detergent. Then add tap water. Make a clean cut on the branch or stem you want to use and remove the lower leaves so that none will be below the waterline. Put the cuttings in the water and arrange them any way you like," says the horticulturist with the Texas A&M University System.

Change the water about once a month and wash the container with hot water and detergent to kill any algae or bacteria. Also, scrub the plant stems and make a fresh cut on the stem to improve water uptake. Turn the container about once a week to make sure all angles of the plants get sunlight.

"When stems start deteriorating, replace them with fresh ones," says Janne. "Also, any of the cuttings that develop roots can be planted in pots or in flower beds."

Plants in bottle gardens add interest and color to the interior of the home and also clean up the air we breathe, adds the horticulturist.

Judy Lowe, Gary Ender Vows Read In Methodist Church

Miss Judy Lowe became the bride of Gary Lee Ender in a ceremony read at 8 p.m., October 18, 1975 in the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Hardy Cole, pastor, officiated.

The church decorations consisted of baskets of mixed fall flowers, the altar with leather leaf and pom pom mums, 7-branch candelabra with greenery. The altar table at front of the church held a gold cross and two large candles that were memorials to her grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Lowe.

Mrs. Larry Smith, cousin of the bride, was organist and soloist was Mrs. Joe Alcala.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Joe Lowe of Munday, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ender of Sagerton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long bianche gown in candlelight silk faced peau. The fitted bodice, with high crown collar, was English net with appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace with traces of tiny seed pearls. The long fitted sleeves were of net and lace. Pearls were repeated in the lace and self bias ruffles edged them. Her slightly A-line skirt of peau had back fullness that fell into a chapel train. Her mini Camelot cap held a fingertip veil of imported English illusion outlined in scalloped Alencon lace. She carried a white rochid with white and yellow roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Mrs. Richard Albus of Abilene was matron of honor. She wore a floor length, Victorian style, royal blue velvet dress with high neck of bias ruffles, long sleeves, flounce ruffle at the hemline with a back sash. She carried a variety of multicolored and variety of flowers. She wore a Puritan hat made of velvet matching her dress.

Sherri Burgess of Austin

...formerly Judy Lowe

was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Pam Mayfield of Denton, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Joe Lowe, of Panhandle, sister-in-law of the bride. They wore dresses like the matron of honor with Miss Burgess in emerald green, Miss Mayfield's of rose and Mrs. Lowe's of gold.

Ring bearers were Miss Cathy Lynn Fields of Stamford and Otis Rhoades of Bellevue.

D. C. Fields of Stamford served as best man. Groomsmen were Stanley Ender of Sagerton, brother of the groom, Joe Lowe of Panhandle and Jerry Lowe of Munday, both brothers of the bride. Ushers were John Mayfield of Fort Worth, John Lowe Needham of Dallas, both cousins of the bride, Otis Rhoades of Bellevue and Bob Earles of Paint Creek.

Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Ender, mothers of the couple, when escorted down the aisle, carried a lighted candle, candles used by the bride and groom at the end of the ceremony to light memory candles.

For her something old, the bride carried a hanky belonging to her great aunt, Mrs. Nova Driggers, something borrowed, gold bracelet that was given to her grandmother Owens by her father on her 13th birthday, the blue garter for something blue and the traditional penny in her shoe.

Plans, arrangements and decorations for the wedding and reception were made and carried out by Mrs. L'Rata Needham and John Lowe Needham, of Dallas, aunt and cousin of the bride, as her wedding present.

Hosting the reception following the wedding at Munday Community Center were the bride's parents. Diane McMahon of Wichita Falls registered guests. Reception assistants were Mrs. Glen Moss, and Mrs. Roger Holcomb of Bellevue, Mrs. Rick Savage and Mrs. Thomas Caton of Abilene, Mrs. Scott Walker of Houston, Miss Paula Wilfong of Stamford and Miss Brenda Boone of Weinert.

The bride's table was covered with a white net cloth over white satin applied in wedding bells and doves and specked with pearls and sequins. The four tiered cake featured a flowing water fountain, decorated in yellow roses and a nosegay on top of real flowers. The centerpiece was a silver candelabra with yellow candles, daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath. The white mints served were made by the bride's mother. Mixed nuts and fruit punch from silver service completed the table decor.

The groom's table was covered in a velvet cloth of shades of gold centered with an arrangement of fresh fruit. Chocolate cake on a mirrored cake stand featured candied fruit slices. Coffee was served from silver service.

The food table matched the groom's except covered in velvet cloth in shades of pink. The centerpiece was a tiered arrangement of the bride's bouquets and a variety of party foods.

THE MOGUL SPEAKS

By Judy Booe and Tammi Ray
 Never have the stakes been so high as they will be Saturday as two fired-up football teams take the field at Scruggs Stadium. Who can predict the outcome of this clash?
 Much of the credit for the Mogul's fine performance this year must be given to our coaches. Through their all-around know-how and wise leadership they have built a victorious team.
 The wonderful spirit drifts within the halls of M.

H. S. You feel the excitement and the electric flow as the entire student body pulls for the Mighty Mogul team.
 One point which has been stressed throughout the entire season must be especially remembered Saturday night. A team cannot win without fans supporting it.

HALLOWEEN IS NEAR

By Edie Settle
 Listen! Hear the black-bird's call? Telling everyone, it's fall! Hay of gold, in fields are stacked, Watermelons, caught by the frost have cracked. Pumpkins, many on the ground, Distant meadows, turning brown. Evening breezes, cool and brisk, Black cats and goblins and the witch. Ghosts in costumes, and the bats. Faces painted, wear masks and hats. Halloween is drawing near, Trick or Treat we soon will hear. Popcorn balls and the pies are baking, Candied apples and cookie making. Jack-o-lanterns in the windows peeping, With tradition they are keeping. Childrens thoughts are on the night, When ghosts and witches cause a fright. Heartbeats quicken in a hurry, In the darkness shadows scurry, Boos and screams and shouts of glee, 'Tis the night for Trick or Treat.

MUNDAY RECEIVES SALES TAX CHECK
 Comptroller Bob Bullock mailed checks totaling $14.2 million Thursday to 824 Texas towns and cities for their monthly October city sales tax rebate. Munday received a check for $894.45.
 The October payments were smaller than the previous month's. Bullock said this is because the September checks included receipts carried over or coming in late from the last round of quarterly tax payments sent in by merchants.
 During the first two months of each three-month cycle, he noted, payments are not made to cities whose allocation is less than $500.
 Bullock said the monthly rebate program has proven a boon to cities in its first several months of operation.

NINE ACCIDENTS IN COUNTY IN SEPTEMBER

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated nine accidents on rural highways in Knox County during the month of September, 1975, according to Sergeant J. W. Garner, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.
 It is strange how words sound when they are said, when you had good intentions of saying the right thing when you opened your mouth. Like when we had a long distance call wanting Mr. Waggoner to do something or other, we forget what, but we do remember we told the party we would "have" him do it instead of saying we would deliver the message. There was a pause at the other end of the line, and that is when we realized our words had come out wrong. We hastily explained what we meant, and they said, "Well we just wondered if you could make your boss do things."
 blab
 That is why we wonder why we don't keep our big mouth shut unless we can get our phrases organized. Anyway, we did find out our granddaughter-in-law reads our column and loves us anyway, because she called us from Midland worried about us because we had skipped Bill's Blabbin and she was afraid we were ill. Win some, lose some, but we still hope we have a lot of "fans".
 "(&%)".

Bill's Blabbin

By Bill Bowley

Have you ever been very elated over someone's praise and have the bubble burst? Yeah, we have. Here was this nice man from out of town, who has taken the paper ever since we can remember, who was visiting in Munday and came by to renew his paper and was telling us what a good paper we were putting out.
 blab
 We thanked him, and when he started telling us how much he liked Bill's Blabbin and that it was the first thing he read, our head started swelling and we thanked him rather profusely, for "them thar words are music to our ears."
 blab
 Then when he started to leave he sez to us, "Tell Ole Boy to keep writing his column Bill's Blabbin, as we enjoy it so much." That was when our ego went plum down to ground level, but we were too proud to let on, so we just told him we would.
 blab
 You have probably been embarrassed in this same situation, without even thinking, as we were. Our friend came in to tell us about just getting back from attending a funeral of her cousin, and we blurt out and says, "Oh did she die?" It would have served us right had she told us that they went ahead and had her funeral before she died.
 blab

Girls out for basketball this year are seniors Debbie Hudson, Dorothy Golden, and Diane Green; juniors Sandy Gore, Kelly Milson; sophomores Linda Golden; freshmen Rhonda Heard, Tammy Carver, Betty Clower and Esther Rodriguez. ## Coffee Prices To Jump

It's going to cost more to wake up in the morning, at least if you depend on coffee as an eye-opener.

Coffee prices are expected to jump sharply in the coming months due to a July freeze in the top coffee producing states of Brazil, which annually produces about a third of the world coffee crop.

"The freeze is expected to cut in half next year's harvest of coffee beans in Brazil," points out Dr. Russell McDonald, economist in marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Furthermore, this year's world coffee crop is down about 8 per cent from that of last year."

Buyers in the United States generally have small inventories and were anticipating a large coffee crop for the 1975-76 crop year, which would have meant lower prices. But, they must now build their stocks in the wake of the disastrous freeze losses in Brazil.

"Following July freeze, the New York cash price for green coffee jumped about 20 cents per pound from the June average of 55 to 65 cents for Arabica coffees. Retail coffee prices may increase 25 to 75 cents per pound during the next three to nine months," speculates McDonald.

Despite the lowered production forecast for the coming crop year, there will be enough coffee to go around, notes the Texas A&M University System Economist. However, reserve stocks will be down sharply. U. S. Department of Agriculture officials estimate that Brazil now holds about 21 million bags of coffee in reserve. The country annually exports about 18 million bags and itself consumes another 8 million. So, carryover stocks going into the 1976-77 crop year are highly uncertain at this point and will depend heavily on just how short next year's harvest is in Brazil.

"One thing is for sure, though," says McDonald. "That cup of coffee is going to cost more."

Taxes, Gifts, Wills, Trusts All Part of Estate Planning Seminear

Who gets your property when you die? What will be the cost, and how do you minimize this cost?

Answers to these questions and many more will be offered at an Estate Planning Seminar at Texas A&M University, Dec. 15-16.

The seminar, which will be held in the Rudder Conference Center, is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and is open to all farmers, ranchers and other property owners as well as to professional estate planners such as attorneys, tax accountants, insurance underwriters and trust officers, announces Tom Prater, Extension Service economist in management who is chairman of the event.

Leadoff speaker for the seminar will be State Extension Service Director Dr. John E. Hutchison, who will discuss the importance of estate planning in the full utilization of farm and ranch resources.

John Lawrence of Bryan, president of the State Bar of Texas, will speak at a dinner the first evening.

Among key topics to be featured at the seminar will be minimizing federal estate death taxes, forms of farm and ranch ownership, use of gifts and planning for the full family preservation.

Attorneys and trust officers will be on hand to discuss such key areas as the transfer and disposition of property and the place of wills and trusts.

Internal Revenue Service officials will explain how they evaluate and audit farm and ranch land and other agricultural properties. They will also discuss the pitfalls that farmers, ranchers and estate planners need to avoid in preparing an estate planning report.

Another major area of estate planning that will be highlighted will be the cost of probate in Texas.

Prater points out that all county Extension agents have detailed information on the upcoming seminar along with registration forms. He encourages everyone planning to attend to register in advance. The registration fee is $25.

Many Trainees Under GI Bill

A record 2,691,566 persons trained under the GI Bill during fiscal year 1975 and projections indicate the number will exceed three million persons in this fiscal year, Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Director, reported today. The FY 1975 figures represent a 14 per cent increase over FY 1974.

The current GI Bill entered its 10th year June 1. Participation rates have exceeded those under either of its two predecessors. Some 4.5 million of the 7.6 million eligible Vietnam-era veterans have used GI Bill benefits, about 60 per cent.

The participation rate was 43.4 per cent under 13 years of the Korean Conflict bill and 50.5 per cent under 12 years of the original World War II bill.

The FY 1975 total included 266,890 men and women still on active military duty. Of the remaining 2.4 million veterans, almost two million saw service during the Vietnam era. Two out of three persons trained in FY 1975 were at the college level.

TEXAS TALK

By Tommie Harper

Initial reports on a new acid delinting process for cotton are all positive. Called the "dilute sulfuric acid delinting process", the new method of removing lint from cottonseed promises several things. Most significant for the farmer is the prospect of lower delinting costs and higher quality planting seed. Cotton Incorporated of Raleigh, North Carolina, is developer of the process they say will revolutionize delinting. Currently wet-acid processes are threatened by Environmental Protection Agency action because of the large amount of sulphuric acid used in the delinting. According to first reports, the new process will consume only about 20 pounds of sulphuric acid per ton of cottonseed delinted. Backers of the operation say the quality of the seed will be improved, with no deterioration of the seed coat and with water uptake levels during germination equivalent to gin run seed.

SORGHUM VARIETY DEMONSTRATION

Funk's G-522 and Golden Acres TE-Y101 were top yielders of a 1975 four variety irrigated demonstration four miles north of Knox City, grown by David Albus, according to County Extension Agent Herman H. Collier.

Yields per acre for the four varieties were: Funk's G-522 - 5,875 pounds; Golden Acres TE-Y101 - 5,825 pounds; Acco R-109A - 5,695 pounds and Asgrow Grandado - 4,890 pounds.

This demonstration was not grown under scientific research conditions and the results are for one year only, says Collier.

APPLY PEACH TREE BORER CONTROL NOW

The peach tree borer, one of the most destructive enemies of peach and apricot trees, feeds primarily in the trunk near the groundline and during its feeding activity the tree may be girdled resulting in its death. Infested trees will have large masses of gum around the base of the trunk mixed with a brownish frass. The gum and frass exudes from the wounds that are caused by peach tree borers.

The yellowish-white peach tree borer larvae varies in size up to 1 1/4 inches in length. There is only one generation of peach tree borers each year. However, adult emergence and egg laying activity extends from the middle of May to early October.

Control of peach tree borers can be obtained by placing paradichloro benzene (PDB) crystals around the base of the tree. These crystals should be applied during the period of October 20 to November 15 or before soil temperatures drop below 55 degrees F. The crystals should be applied when the soil is dry. Weeds should be removed from around the base of the tree and the soil leveled one foot from the tree trunk. Place the PDB crystals in a narrow groove encircling the tree about 2 inches from the tree trunk. Care should be taken to keep any of the crystals from coming in direct contact with the tree. Clean soil should be placed over the crystals so as to form a 6 to 8 inch high, cone-shaped pile around the base of the tree. This soil should be removed in late March or early April.

For effective control of peach tree borers use 1/2 ounce of PDB crystals for 2-3 year old trees; 3/4 ounce for trees 4-5 years old; and 1 ounce for mature trees. PDB crystals can be used in the home garden or in the commercial orchard to effectively control the peach tree borer.

Further information on the peach tree borer is available at your county Extension agent's office. Also available is information on other insecticides that might be used in the commercial orchard to control this pest.

PREVENT TREE DAMAGE, TREAT WOUNDS

Healthy trees are valuable in any landscape and they should be protected and cared for.

Homeowners should be on the lookout for possible damage to their trees and should know how to protect trees and correct damage.

Any cut or break in the bark of a tree leaves it open to insects and diseases. First, clean the wound and get rid of loose bark, then apply a special pruning compound. This will dry hard and prevent insect or disease entry. I do not advise wrapping a wire or metal band tightly around a tree trunk. This breaks the bark and cuts off the flow of food from the leaves to the roots. If the band is left on, the tree will eventually die. Since a tree's main "feeder" roots are in the top 15 to 18 inches of the soil, care should be used to avoid packing the soil. Soil that is compacted by automobiles or pedestrians can prevent normal root development. If possible, try to reroute traffic around the tree by fencing or by using plantings. Landscape fills or the addition of more than four to six inches of soil around the base of a tree can be especially harmful. It suffocates the tree by keeping out water and air. If a shallow fill is essential, it's best to use sand or gravel soils that let in air and water. One way of protecting a tree from a fill is to build a brick or stone wall two to three feet out from the trunk. The first step is to remove all vegetation within the well area around the tree. Then install agricultural drain tile out and down from the trunk in a spokelike pattern. Build the well around the tree and fill it gradually over two or three years with coarse sand and gravel. Once the well is constructed, the outside grade can be raised as desired. The best way to protect trees is to prevent damage before it occurs.

Sunday was a beautiful day SS opened with Supt Hendrick in charge and a great lesson Subj Giving what God asks. Bible basis: Lesson scripture: Genesis 22:1,13 Background scripture: Genesis 22:1,19 Bible truth. True commitment to God may involve choices and other actions in which werelinkush our own desires. ## WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OMAR BURLESON

Congressman 17th District of "frees." The city's budget has increased three fold in the last ten years.

This sort of trend is not likely to be reversed until city officials have the support of solid citizens who demand that they resist the unreasonable demands now being imposed upon them.

There is now in the committees of the Congress legislation to extend Revenue Sharing to State and local governments over the next five years. During the last five years $30 billion was provided for this purpose and in the present legislation it is upped by $10 billion to $40 billion.

Under the present formula, Federal revenues are granted to the states and their political subdivisions on what is accepted as reasonably fair. There are demands that the new legislation give the bulk of this $40 billion to state and local governments which need it most. This simply means that those entities of local government which act responsibly will be penalized for it. Anyone who commits himself to being for a continuation of Revenue Sharing would be advised to wait until they see what may happen in the change of the method of distribution of funds.

Washington, D.C. - Thirty-three states have laws prohibiting strikes by public employees. Under certain circumstances some classes of employees are permitted to strike in eleven states. The other six have no laws on the subject.

Regardless of law, strikes by public employees have dramatically increased across the country. Vital services have been seriously impeded by militant demands by unionized police, firemen, teachers, transportation employees and sanitation workers. They have the power to paralyze a city and the trend is spreading to smaller communities.

In San Francisco, the police force demanded a 13% across the board pay increase. The Board of Supervisors countered with an offer of 6.5 per cent. The Mayor overruled the Supervisors and "Compromised" with granting the 13 per cent increase. A month earlier the Mayor had said that yielding to such demands would bring financial disaster and that public employee strikers should be fired. After firemen in San Francisco joined the police, the Mayor folded.

Kansas City has not only gone through the same thing but evidence strongly suggests that firemen and police set numerous fires that had to be coped with by National Guardsmen.

New York City is the horrible example of about everything. That city is bankrupt. It stands on the verge of defaulting on its huge and unmanageable debt. It has 51 employees for every 1,000 inhabitants - they control the city. Even the liberal New York Times has said that "this is not only the road to municipal bankruptcy; it is the road to anarchy. It is the death knell for democracy."

The City now wants the Federal Government to bail it out. If the Federal Government should do any such thing, it will have to do the same for every financially troubled community in the Nation. There is not that sort of money even in Washington - and if there was, it would all come from money the Government had to borrow.

The taxpayers of this Nation should not be made to pay for the irresponsibility of New York or any other city's politicians and its equally irresponsible unions and pressure groups. It is a bottomless pit that simply can't be filled. Even with many of the big city mayors who draw high salaries, it seems that power of appointments to keep control is more important. A case of $13 thousand a year bus driver in New York who retired on a $15 thousand annual pension becomes a little absurd. Their pension bill alone by 1980 is expected to cost $1,700,000,000 a year. The city continues to maintain a tuition free university system and a lot

90 Years Old October 19th

The children, grandchildren, friends and neighbors of Mrs. Ida Voss made Sunday, October 19, 1975 a very enjoyable and exciting 90th birthday for her with a big dinner and reception following in the fellowship hall of the Gillespie Baptist Church.

Mrs. Voss looked very beautiful with her three corsages she insisted on wearing because she didn't want to hurt any one's feelings and all were very much appreciated. One was a red carnation, one an orchid and the other white mums.

Children present were Mr. and Mrs. R. J.
