Look To The East

By Aaron Edgar

We don't warm up much to the prospect of debates. In our opinion, nothing much is ever settled by debaters who take separate sides on a given subject. To us, a debate once almost caused us to lose a beautiful friendship!

This was in high school, and becoming engaged in a debate was one of the requirements in our English course, we believe. It wasn't so much as who would win the debate, but it would give students training in being able to talk while standing on their feet.

We remember the question one time was: "Which came first, the chicken or the egg?" We weren't one of the debaters on this matter, but there was much folderol about the fact that there had to be a chicken first to lay the egg, while the other side counteracted that the egg had to be first or there would never have been a chicken.

In our case, our opposing team had a very pretty girl as a member, and we followed her in making our rebuttal. We made the mistake of referring to her as Miss Singley, instead of using her given name, and becoming the subject of her wrath.

Since then, we have steered clear of becoming personally engaged in debates. We'd rather not even have to listen to them, for that matter, because they tend to invite ire and enmity.

The same holds true to us when it comes to debates by presidential timber. About the only thing that has been proven to us in the past is that John F. Kennedy was a better debater than his Republican opponent, and had no bearing on the outcome of the election.

Now the two persons who want to occupy the White House during the next four years are about to become engaged in debates. They have, we think, decided to debate. Things to be ironed out are such questions of: How many debates? Where will they be held? How long should each opponent have to prove a point? What kind of deal can be made with the networks? How many people will listen? and Who will pay for the whole mess?

Candidates Ford and Carter don't seem to let the prospective debates interfere with their restups-Carter at his home in Plains, Ga., and Ford on the golf course at Vail, Colo.

Details are supposed to be in the making this week, with the first debate maybe taking place in mid-September. Pushing the events seem to be an organization named the "League of Women Voters."

It seems that those in charge of the debate project are in the midst of determining the dates, format and subject matter for the debates. The debaters will debate on what the league wants debated, it seems.

Which is a good way to prove nothing. Maybe they'd better not debate on embargoes, since the Democratic candidate has said he's against all

Several Youths Implicated In Apartments Vandalism

As a result to two weeks of investigations, officers of the sheriff's department of Knox County and local police have reported that several area youths have been implicated in acts of vandalism at the apartment complex of Munday Home Development Corp.

Officers began to "place the pieces together" when four of the suspected, ages nine to 11 years, told them they "wanted to make it right" and confessed their part in the vandalism. They told investigating officers that others were also involved in the destruction.

Pete Hatfield, deputy sheriff stationed at Munday, expressed praise for the four boys who were "man enough" to admit their parts in the glass breakage at the apartments.

During their investigations, officers learned that several persons were reported to have seen or heard the breakage but failed to report it to officers. "It is a part of being a good citizen to report such matters," Hatfield said, "and it would greatly aid officers in their efforts to keep down lawless acts."

Officers had been working on this case some two weeks since the first instance of vandalism occurred. This was about 5 p. m. Friday, August 13.

A hearing was held Saturday morning in the office of Bobby Burnett, county attorney, to discuss the problem with the boys and their parents. No further hearings are scheduled.

DOING BATTLE On the gridiron in the athletic department of Munday High School are these members of the Munday Moguls' varsity squad. They open the 1976 season next Friday night with their traditional game with the Seymour Panthers, to be played on Scruggs Field.

Research Center's Field Day Set for September 8

The Munday Vegetable Research Center, a part of the Texas A&M University system, will hold a field day on Wednesday, September 8, according to Dr. Billy Kingston, local resident director.

Participants will take a field research tour of vegetable, sorghum, guar, cotton and soybean crops. Dr. Wayne G. McCully, resident director of the A&M Research and Extension Center between Chillicothe and Vernon, will join other scientists to tell what research is finding out about vegetable production in the Rolling Plains area.

State Rep. W. S. (Bill) Healy of Paducah will be speaker for this event, and will talk about agriculture in the Rolling Plains and will likely have some criticism of how agricultural problems

The Telephone Is 422-4111

422-4111 is the telephone number to call in the event of any kind of medical emergency in Munday.

This number activates the Emergency Medical Services (EMS) system serving Munday. Besides alerting ambulance and hospital emergency department staff, the EMS system has direct access to fire and law enforcement personnel if needed.

One phone call from a citizen in trouble or who is reporting a critical injury or illness insures that help is on the way. And help includes properly equipped ambulances staffed by trained emergency personnel, alerted hospital staffs and physicians and anyone else needed to assist.

EMS is a coordinated effort to provide for the safety, well-being and care of individuals in Munday.

Citizens are asked to write the EMS telephone number down and keep it someplace convenient to the telephone.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Moore and Jasper Bevers met Mrs. Moore's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Johnson of Lewisville, at Possum Kingdom where they spent from Thursday until Sunday fishing. They reported good catches of channel cat and black bass.

are handled on a national basis. The tour will begin at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday at the Munday Research Center, and will end about noon. All interested persons are cordially invited to make the tour.

Any Rain Is A Good Rain

After dry and hot days stacked up on each other for a period of several weeks, folks have naturally concluded that perhaps any rain is a good rain!

Since last week's issue, the town of Munday has received two "good" rains of about one-tenth of an inch each. These caused a drop in temperatures, when thermometers failed to register as much as 100 degrees. That's better than following days of 100-plus!

Private rain gauges in Munday registered a little over .45 of an inch in these two showers. Goodson Sellers' official report gave us .70 of an inch.

Folks just west and northwest of Munday were more fortunate, receiving 1.40 and 1.90 inches.

Munday Moguls to Host Seymour Panthers Friday in Season Opener

Coach Jim Pope and his helpers kinda have the Munday Moguls "walking the tight wire" this week, as they prepare for the crucial moment, official opening of the 1976 football season.

As a season opener, the Moguls will follow their tradition of many years by engaging the Class AA Seymour Panthers on the local field. Game time is 8 p. m. Friday.

The friendly rivalry of these two teams is also following the traditional route, as both teams will be fighting to score a victory in their first game of the season. In years past, this tilt has proven to be one of the most interesting of any

Quarterback Club Elects Officers

Members of the Munday Quarterback Club elected new officers at a recent meeting to discuss operations during the football season.

Philip McAfee was elected president of the club, to succeed Freddie Caram. Tony Shawver was named secretary and treasurer.

Members will meet on Tuesday night of each week at the school lunch room. All who hold reserve seat tickets for the ball games are automatically members of the club. All interested persons are invited to attend the meeting.

"Seymour has quite a few back from last year," coach Pope said, and they will come to town fired up. We ask for your support in this game, and in the entire season."

Regarding the Moguls' activities last week, Pope said: "I was more pleased with our Electra scrimmage. We were still making some mental errors. "Jimmy Cooke was outstanding on defense, as was Robby Thompson. We had good effort most of the time, but when there was a let-down, it hurt us. The offensive line was much improved, and Andy Haynie ran the ball club real well. Robert Spells had some good flashes, and Rudy Esquivel was improved."

Health Clinic September 8th

Another free health clinic will be held on Wednesday, September 8, at the Community Center in Munday.

Free screening will be given for tuberculosis, blood pressure and diabetes by a staff of competent nurses. Hours will be 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

This is a free public service sponsored by the Munday Lions Club.

We'll Take A Holiday, Too

Indications this week are that Munday merchants will observe Labor Day, Monday, September 6, as a holiday, and most business places will be closed on that date, giving employees a long Labor-Day weekend.

This is one of the five holidays to be observed locally, as determined by the trades day committee of the Munday Chamber of Commerce.

We at the Courier office plan to observe the holiday too. In order to do this, we must have local ads and news copy in earlier than usual. It is planned to solicit merchants for their advertising on Thursday and Friday of this week, and we'll need your news items by this time if possible.

Please help us so we may join others in this observance.

GOLF TOURNEY

A Labor Day golf tournament will be held Monday, September 6, 1976 at the Lake Creek Golf Club. This will be a scramble for both men and women. Tee-off time is 1:30 p. m.

Everyone invited for ice cream after the tournament.

Plans For United Fund '76 Drive Initiated Monday

Plans for the 1976 United Fund Drive to raise funds for the 1977 budget got under way here last Monday with the selection of drive chairmen for this area.

Named as United Fund chairman for this year was Rev. Bartholomew Landwermeyer who has served as pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rhineland for a period of five years. Acceptance of this responsibility in indicative of "Father Bart's" readiness to take part in affairs of the community.

He immediately began thinking of 1976 drive chairman, and by early afternoon Monday, Bobby D. Burnett, local attorney since early in 1973, had agreed to take this important chore. Bobby was no stranger to the local area before moving to Munday, as he is a native of Knox City.

Charles Boren, Nettie Partridge and Jessie Andrade were elected new United Fund directors at Monday morning's meeting. They replace Bob McWhorter, Charles Baker and M. L. Waggoner, who are retiring from the board.

Carry-over members of the board are Barton Carl, Howard Cook, Ann Abell, Zada Smith, Goodson Sellers and Father Bartholomew.

The new chairmen "called a caucus" with Callie Ann Combs, United Fund treasurer, and immediately began laying plans for the 1976 drive.

The annual budget hearing will be held at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, September 14, at which time the budgeting of funds and setting the overall goal will take place. Those organizations desiring to be included in the budget are urged to have representatives at this meeting.

Community chairmen and area workers will be named in due time, as plans go forward for "kicking off" the new campaign on Tuesday, October 5.

Following the kick-off meeting, campaign workers will begin contacting the various individuals on their list for contributions and urging them to "give the United Way."

In a joint statement, the newly selected chairmen said: "We anticipate a spirited and successful campaign toward raising the United Fund budget, and we urge the co-operation of all people-workers, solicitors and contributors toward making the drive a successful one."

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Forbes of Cookeville, Tenn. are spending their vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Partridge.

THE UNITED WAY Is the best way to give. So think these men, Father Bartholomew Landwermeyer, left, and Bobby D. Burnett, who were named chairman and campaign chairman at last Monday's meeting of United Fund directors. The new drive for raising funds for the 1977 budget was set for Tuesday, October 5.

Perhaps we should leave the debates up to the

As the week ended, they what they were doing and Beneficiaries of a fish fry staged at 7 p. m. Monday at the Community Center were commissioners of the Munday Housing Authority and their wives.

Early arrivals found the area smelling of fish and the repat almost ready, with a number of items to compliment the main dish. Fish ranged from pan-sized to some that shouldn't have been taken away from their mothers!

During and after the meal,
the conversation was rangy, too, covering such subjects as the weather, flying high in the sky, presidential hopefuls, the U. S. Postal Service mess, tall fish stories, etc.

Enjoying the delicacies of the evening were Messrs.

Richie Smith, Aaron Edgar,
Dorse Collins, Hank Matthe-

Cricket
Plague
Munday

It's not unusual this week to see local merchants, or someone working in their behalf, outside their places of business armed with spray cans, brooms, and whatnot, doing battle against the crickets.

The pesky insects invaded Munday last week and have been making a mess of things. The invasion is not as great as in past years; but, jimmy crickets, they're just as messy and smelly.

The idea has been advanced in the past that the visitation of crickets is a forerunner of a good general rain. When the rain comes, they leave out.
Here's hoping!

Senator Ray Farabee is in the lower 25% of the 31 members of the State Senate as to total expenditures for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1975. This was disclosed with the release of the State Audit published last week covering expenses for members of the 64th Legislature.
Senator Farabee stated,
"I was pleased to learn of my ranking in regard to expenditures. It is important for those of us in public office to practice what we preach and to set an example with our own budgets by conserving the taxpayers' money."
"At the same time, there is work to be done to serve my constituents in the 30th District which covers 29 counties and is the second largest Senatorial District in the State. I have been able to see that this work is done in an economical manner with the help of an efficient staff, by avoiding unnecessary travel, and by cutting back on my staff when the Legislature is not in session," Senator Farabee concluded.

Livestock ponds can be a source of beauty and recreation

Wise Use of Water Keeps Costs Down

With hot summer weather at hand, the home gardener needs to check his watering methods to keep the water bill down.

"First, check the methods of application," advises Everett Janne, landscape horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "There is no need to apply water any faster than the soil will soak it up. Sandy type soils will usually take water almost as fast as it can be applied, but tight clay soils take up water slowly. Select the method of application that best fits your soil."

Using a mulch wherever possible also saves on water usage, says the horticulturist. A good mulch conserves moisture, prevents compaction, keeps soil temperature lower and reduces the weed population. Since organic mulches tend to decompose or sometimes wash away, they should be checked frequently and replaced where necessary.

While night-time watering increases the chance for plant diseases, it does allow for more efficient use of water since evaporation rates are lowest.

"Another important practice in the wise use of water is to do a thorough job of watering each time it becomes necessary to irrigate," emphasizes Janne. "A thorough watering at 7-to-10-day intervals encourages deep root penetration and full use of available soil moisture. Just because plants wilt during the heat of the day doesn't mean the soil is dry. Test the soil's moisture content with a soil probe or stake to determine if the soil is dry rather than depending on the appearance of plants."

Regardless of the size of the water bill, don't stop watering completely as plants can die due to moisture stress, especially during hot, windy weather. Just use this precious resource as efficiently as possible, reminds Janne.

Denim dollars are becoming a popular plunder for today's cotton growers. Figures now made available by the USDA indicate that in the first 40 percent of this decade, with many cotton fabrics down in production (broad-woven fabrics fell an overall 25%) cotton denim production climbed more than 35 percent. Denim now accounts for nearly 17 percent of cotton broad-woven fabric produced in the U.S. Now, just how much of the retail dollar does the cotton grower receive? Latest figures compiled by the USDA indicate that for each dollar spent on denims at retail outlets less than six-and-a-half cents goes to the producer...just over a penny to the gin...over twenty cents to the textile mill for processing...thirty cents for product manufacturing and over forty cents for a combination of wholesaling and retailing. During the survey period the actual value of the cotton in a pair of $8.00 jeans was just over 50 cents.

School Year Is Challenge To Parents And Students

A new school year brings lots of challenges for first graders—and their parents, Mrs. Ilene Miller, a family life education specialist, says.

"Perhaps for the first time in his life, the child comes in contact with many other people. He soon discovers that his classmates do not always think or act like he does," she said.

Mrs. Miller is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Each child has to find his place in this new, larger social setting which is quite different from his home. By practicing social skills developed during the pre-school years, the youngster learns to make and keep friends, to work cooperatively and to share with classmates. He also learns to follow his teacher's instructions as he discovers new subject matter."

Parents play an important role in their child's transition from the home setting to the school routine, she pointed out.

"Before school begins, mothers and fathers should

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News
Compiled From Sources Of The TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
John C. White, Commissioner

What's Your Beef? ... Lamb Feeding Declines Again ... Milk Production Shows Increase.

One of the best-- if not the best-- buys in your supermarket or wherever you buy your food is beef. Right now, beef is in ample supplies and at a price lower than last year. Beef is a good buy at any time, but at prices of today it is a super bargain.

The latest report of cattle on feed from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service indicates that Texas feedlot operators are cutting down on replacements. The reason is obvious: cattle feeders are losing money.

There were 1,490,000 cattle and calves on feed for the slaughter market in Texas as of Aug. 1. This is 12 per cent below a year ago, and five per cent below a month ago.

During July, Texas cattle feeders placed 262,000 head into their lots. Placements are 12 per cent below July a year ago and 24 per cent below the previous month.

Nationwide, cattle and calves on feed as of Aug. 1 in the seven major feeding states totaled 6,666,000 head. This is up 12 per cent from last year's record low number for Aug. 1 but it still is five per cent under the same date two years ago.

Fed cattle marketed during July totaled 1,500,000 head, a record high for the seven states. It was 29 per cent above last year and 11 per cent more than 1974.

SHEEP AND LAMB FEEDING in Texas is again on the decline. As of Aug. 1, Texas drylot sheep feeders with a capacity of 2,000 head or more had 80,000 sheep and lambs on feed for slaughter. This is four per cent below the same month a year ago and is 12 per cent below a month ago.

Current intentions to market the 80,000 head are: August - 39,000, September - 32,000, and October - 9,000. September and October intentions are incomplete since additional lambs could still be placed on feed and marketed during these months.

Sheep and lambs marketed for slaughter during July totaled 36,000 head. This is 18 per cent less than intentions but still 29 per cent above marketings in July of 1975.

MILK PRODUCTION in the state during July is estimated to be three per cent above July of 1975 and two per cent ahead of the previous month. Total July production amounted to 285 million pounds.

Milk production per cow showed an increase. It averaged 885 pounds, which is 65 pounds above a year ago and five pounds above the previous month.

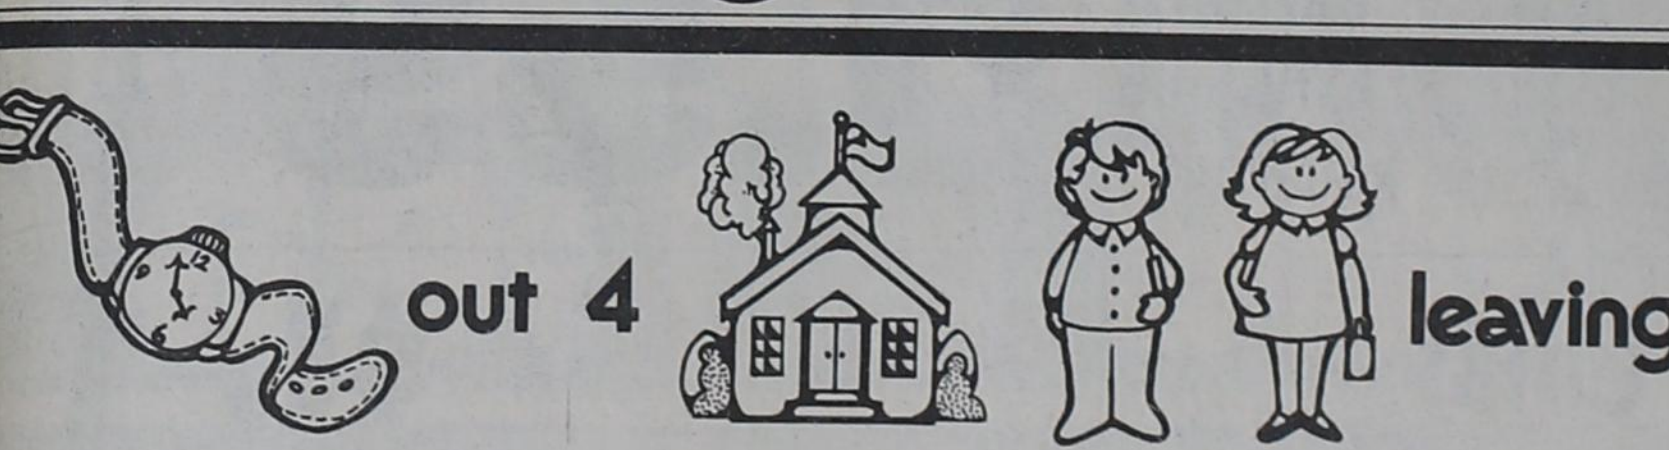

Nationwide, milk production was up 4.8 per cent from a year ago and 2.7 per cent above two years ago.

Average production per cow was 946 pounds, which is 52 pounds more than a year ago and 38 above two years ago.

MRS. NANCY BOLZLE

by Tim Hertel
Mrs. Nancy Bolzle our sixth and eighth grade reading teacher came to Munday from Balmorhea, Texas. Mrs. Bolzle holds a Bachelor of Arts in elementary education and has had some experience in the field, as she used to teach elementary reading.

In her spare time she enjoys doing such things as macramé work, painting, and sewing.

Mrs. Bolzle's husband, Ted Bolzle, is employed as the assistant manager at the Plant Material Center in Knox City.

Mrs. Bolzle feels that the people in Munday are very friendly and outgoing, and she is sure that she will enjoy working with the students in elementary and junior high schools.

MRS. JACQUE JAMES

by Marshall Smith
One of our new teachers here is Mrs. Jacque James from Floydada, Texas. She went to Texas Tech and received her degree and has been teaching the past three years at Earth, Texas where she taught History and Speech. She will be teaching reading here at Munday High.

Also from Floydada is her husband, Jody James, who is now manager of Riverside Chemicals in Knox City. Mrs. James is very impressed by the building and facilities and says we really have a beautiful school compared to many.

CROP SITUATION

Grain sorghum harvest was fairly active this past week with yields ranging from fairly low to pretty good. A very dry growing season, heavy greenbug infestations and charcoal rot caused many fields to yield low. Many soils have the charcoal rot, a fungus disease which attacks sorghum and corn only and usually does not show up until plants are in a stress condition at heading time. The market price for sorghum is lower than producers had hoped for and this along with a low wheat market does not present a very bright outlook.

The cotton market has not been near the peak reached in June recently. Dry weather and insects have also made the cotton yield outlook spotted. The boll weevil and some bollworms along with the dry condition has caused some fields to be very short on yield potential, while there are some pretty good cotton prospects in the county in some dryland as well as irrigated fields. The insect control expense is going to be high on many of these fields and the market needs to be 60c per pound or more for cotton production to be attractive.

Many farmers are preparing and fertilizing land for wheat. Producers should take into consideration whether they want fall and winter grazing or not when deciding the amount of fertilizer to apply preplant or at planting time. Top dressing nitrogen in January or February may be desired if a low amount of nitrogen is applied now or if real heavy grazing was furnished in the fall and winter. Soil testing for fertilizer needs are always recommended.

Pecan weevils have been noticeable in some pecans and the time is beginning to get late for control applications on these.

Beef prices continue to be depressed whether you are thinking of the cow and calf operator or the feedlot operator. With the present cost of production many people in the beef production areas have been losing money.

The armyworm damage has shown up in many home lawns as well as in some agricultural crops. These pests often do heavy damage before a person realizes they are here. Early sown oat or wheat crops will need to be observed often if the army worm threat is still here when these crops start coming up. Copies of MP-339 Suggestions For Controlling Insects and Mites on Corn, Sorghums and Small Grain are available at the Extension office.

The screwworm situation has gotten worse and cases have been reported from the majority of counties in the State. Any suspected case of screwworms should have a sample of the larvae collected and mailed to the Screwworm Eradication Program, P. O. Box 969, Mission, Texas 78572. Free mailing containers are available from the Extension office, veterinarians and Livestock Inspectors.

EVERYBODY LOVES CHILI

No matter what part of the country you live in, a bowl of spicy chili con carne has hearty appetite appeal any day in the year. Louisianians adapted this Southwestern specialty to their own tastes, spicing it generously with Tabasco pepper sauce — made for over 100 years in Avery Island, La. This recipe makes five quarts, enough for 12 servings, so it's the economical dish for informal Saturday night parties.

Lots of good ingredients go into the pot: ground beef, kidney beans, onion, canned tomatoes and tomato paste, plus seasonings. Whether you like your chili hot or mild, Tabasco lets you control the "heat." Measure the specified amount when preparing the recipe, and put the Tabasco bottle on the table so guests may add extra spice to taste.

Ladle the chili into soup plates and serve with salted crackers.

AVERY ISLAND CHILI POT

- 6 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 5 medium onions, sliced
- 3 pounds ground beef
- 2 tablespoons chili powder
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 3/4 teaspoon Tabasco pepper sauce
- 2 cans (1 pound 12 ounces each) tomatoes
- 1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste
- 3 cans (20 ounces each) kidney beans

Melt butter in a 6- to 8-quart saucepan; add onion and cook until tender but not brown. Add ground beef; sprinkle with chili powder, salt, paprika and Tabasco. Cook meat until brown, breaking up with a fork. Add tomatoes and tomato paste; cover and simmer 45 minutes. Add kidney beans; simmer 15 minutes longer. Yield: 12 servings (5 quarts).

Note: To freeze: Chili may be frozen after cooling to room temperature. To reheat: Let thaw at room temperature about 2 hours before heating.

Texas Taxes

By BOB BULLOCK, State Comptroller

AUSTIN—Most Texans are aware of the state Sales Tax, but many are not aware that there is also a state Use Tax. In fact the law is called the Texas Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act.

The Texas Use Tax is a tax on the storage, use or consumption, within the State of Texas, of taxable items purchased, leased, or rented on which the Texas Sales and Use Tax has not been paid. Sales Tax paid to another state at the time of purchase may be deducted from the amount of Texas Use Tax due.

Basically, if you buy something out-of-state for use in Texas which would ordinarily be taxable in our state and have not paid the Texas Sales Tax, you owe Use Tax on the item.

And if you are in business and buy something tax-free because you plan to resell it and then use it personally or in your business, you owe Use Tax on the item.

The Use Tax rate is the same as the Sales Tax rate.

Various efforts have been made to publicize the existence of the Use Tax, which accounts for only a small percentage of the Sales and Use Tax income, and to clarify its application, but there is still a great deal of confusion among taxpayers.

It's much better to know about the Use Tax and when you may owe it than to find out later and be surprised by the fact that taxes are owed. So remember:

The Texas Use Tax applies to taxable items purchased out-of-state and later used in Texas on which no Texas tax was paid. The tax is due for the reporting period in which the purchase was made. The most frequent examples of out-of-state purchases subject to the tax for this reason include: boats, aircraft, machinery, and equipment, among other taxable items.

The Texas Use Tax is also applicable to any taxable merchandise or inventory purchased tax-free for resale which was converted to personal use or consumed in the regular course of business. The tax is due for the reporting period in which the item was converted to personal use.

An example of this is: A grocery store buys a supply of brooms tax-free for resale to its customers. A broom is taken from the stock and used to sweep the floor of the store. The store then owes Use Tax on the purchase price of the broom which has been converted to its own use.

IF YOU HAVE ANY STATE TAX PROBLEMS OR QUESTIONS, CONTACT YOUR LOCAL COMPTROLLER'S FIELD OFFICE OR CALL TOLL-FREE: 1-800-252-5555.

Weakness Is Seen In Feeder Cattle Market

Producers thinking of holding onto their feeder cattle may want to take a closer look at the market situation, at least for the remainder of 1976. Things aren't too bright, according to one authority, Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

His analysis comes after an extensive trip through cattle country, the Corn Belt and visits with several feedlot managers.

"I look for feeder prices to weaken into the fall and winter for a number of reasons," says Uvacek. "Among these are the continued weakness in fed cattle prices, big feedlot losses, no major drop in sight for feedgrain prices, a big supply of feeders still available, and more competition from other meats, such as pork and broilers."

Feeder prices this fall and winter will have a big effect on the overall cattle industry, believes the Texas A&M University System specialist. They will determine the extent of cow liquidation, the number of feeders held over into 1977, and the feedlot profitability for the first half of next year.

Uvacek sees this situation developing in the months ahead: "Choice feeder steers in the 600-700 pound range will likely move to the low $30's by October. Many feeder animals will move to slaughter during this period. Some price gains could then result as we move into the winter months and the demand from feedlots begins to recover. The extent of the price rise into 1977 will depend on how many animals are held over the winter. Too many holdovers will keep the price gain down."

Paper Shortage Predicted In The Future

"Unless the margin of profit improves, we will be faced with a real paper shortage in the future."

This prediction was made by Bill Burton, a former Knox County man, who spoke at Tuesday's meeting of the Munday Lions Club. Burton is the son of the late "Cotton" Burton and Mrs. Burton.

He gave an interesting history of paper processing, stating the process of manufacturing paper is basically the same as in the earlier days. "The average citizen uses over 600 pounds of paper a year," he said, "and it takes 25,000 gallons of water to produce a ton of paper."

Burton, who is employed by the Bancroft Bag Co., makes this area regularly. He showed the Lions various types of paper bags manufactured by his firm.

MRS. PAULINE PENN

Wichita Falls Woman Seeking Demo. Place

Mrs. Pauline Penn, a long time worker in Wichita County Democratic politics, is a candidate for a place on the State Democratic Executive Committee. She will oppose Mrs. Marguerite Snyder of Baird, Texas who is seeking her third term.

The Wichita County delegation to the state convention next month has endorsed the candidacy of Mrs. Penn. Feeling of the delegates was that Wichita County, the most populous county in the 30th Senatorial District, should have representation on the state committee.

The state committee includes one man and one woman from each senatorial district. Charles Stenholm of Stamford, Texas is serving his first term as committee man and has announced for re-election.

Cheryl Ann, Tony and Christie Wilde spent a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jones in White Settlement.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Millions of aged and disabled Americans benefit from the Medicare program administered by the Social Security Administration, said Mr. Carl R. Beisner, Social Security Claims Representative in Vernon.

Unfortunately, people fraudulently representing themselves to be Social Security Representatives sometimes prey on these people by making false demands for money on the pretext that additional coverage can be obtained or threatening to terminate Medicare coverage if payment is not made.

Carl R. Beisner said that Social Security Representatives do occasionally call on people eligible for Medicare. However, it is unlikely that they will request payment, and they always have adequate identification with them.

The manager suggest that anyone in the Vernon area who is contacted by someone claiming to be a Social Security Representative ask to see his identification. If there is still any doubt, telephone the Social Security Office and ask that they identify the caller. Following this practice will safeguard Medicare beneficiaries, and help put the people who prey on them out of business, Carl Beisner said.
