Foods Valued At $733.25 Canned By Knox Club Woman

For her family of ten Mrs. Tom Masterson of Truscott, Home Demonstration club has conserved foods which she values at $733.25. The foods consist of the following:

- 161 quarts leafy vegetables.
- 200 No. 2 cans corn.
- 87 quarts other vegetables, okra, squash, beets.
- 145 quarts fruit.
- 18 quarts tomatoes.
- 120 No. 3 cans meat.
- 42 cans chicken.
- 108 quarts pickle and relishes.
- 146 quarts preserves and jellies.
- 16 quarts home-canned.
- 1500 pounds meat cured.

Mrs. Masterson has added 84 feet of shelving to her pantry.

From one-fourth pound of seed she raised about 15 bushels of beets which she canned and pickled and trawled for squash to use fresh and can.

"When the potatoes were dug and the beets and English peas were about gone we planted June corn between the rows and from this little patch of corn we canned 200 No. 2 cans of corn and left enough on the stalk to dry to make our winter supply of hominy, which we are going to make and can as soon as we can get to it," said Mrs. Masterson in telling the story of her pantry to her club. She continued, "We sold frying chickens enough to buy our peaches and gathered wild plums for preserves and jellies and made 30 quarts of watermelon rind preserves."

"We raised 350 friers, but seven can eat quite a good deal of chicken, so we ate most of them as soon as they were large enough to fry."

All of Mrs. Masterson's vegetables were grown on one-fourth acre of land.

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

On next Tuesday the reigns of government in Texas will be transferred from Gov. R. S. Sterling to Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, and as one who did not support the lady in the recent campaigns, we are sincerely hoping that she and her distinguished husband will give this old state an administration that will make us fellows ashamed of ourselves.

And there are many reasons why the incoming administration should render a real service to Texas. No family has ever been honored in Texas as have the Fergusons, both Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson—having been elected to the highest office two terms.

Heretofore the Fergusons have been forced to choose from a few loyal friends in each community for their appointments, but this time they have received support from some of the most able men and women in the state, and they should fill their appointments with capable and efficient people.

And notwithstanding the bitterness which prevailed during the campaign, we believe they will find a general spirit of cooperation among the law-making bodies and the public generally, for there is a general demand for reforms in government, and any effort on the part of the administration to enact beneficial laws will receive the approval of the law-makers and the people generally.

And there never was a time in the history of Texas when an administration had an opportunity to bring about so many reforms. Our tax system needs modernizing, and Mrs. Ferguson's idea of a sales tax looks like it might be the very thing. The fee system is a thing that we hope something can be done about it.

The all valorem tax on farm lands and other property must be lowered or confiscated by the State, and revenue measures must be figured out to relieve this situation. In fact, there are so many things that need attention that we fear the legislature will not be able to get around to all of them, but we are sure they will give Texas some constructive legislation.

Now let's throw a few bouquets at Dave Mauldin, Dr. Ammons and John Ed Jones for their diligence in getting a portion of the R. F. C. funds for distribution in this community. These fellows have given much of their time and energy in making the necessary application for this aid, which is providing labor for many who would otherwise be unemployed, and this labor is being used advantageously in cleaning up the unsightly and unsanitary spots in the city.

Community welfare work like this requires time and sacrifice on the part of those who are sufficiently interested to look after them, and Munday is fortunate indeed in having among its citizenry those who will make these sacrifices.

Box Supper And Program at New Hope Wednesday

Gage, pastor of the New Hope Baptist church was in Thursday morning and announced that plans were under way for a box supper and program at the church on Wednesday evening of next week, the proceeds of which will be used for church purposes. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to come and bring a box, and Rev. Gage solicits the cooperation of everyone in making the occasion a success.

Dr. Joe Davis made a brief visit to Stamford last Sunday afternoon.

D. T. Mauldin, W. H. Atkinson and J. A. Kennedy made a business trip to Stamford on Friday afternoon of last week.

Prominent Stamford Citizen Ends Life Thursday Evening

Ray Rector, 48, prominent citizen of Stamford and past Grand Master of Texas Odd Fellows, ended his life on Thursday evening of last week. Rector's body was found in his garage at 2 o'clock Friday morning after a search had been instituted for him. He left home early in the evening, advising members of his family that he was going to attend a meeting of the school board, and when he failed to arrive home around midnight a search was started. A note was found on his body bidding farewell to all, but gave no reason for his act. A 20 gauge shotgun lay beside the body.

Friends attribute his act to mental derangement caused by having contracted a great number of needy persons within the past year or so in his work with the local community welfare work. All business houses in Stamford closed on Saturday morning for the funeral service, which were held at St. John's Methodist church, of which he was a steward.

The condition of John McKenzie, who has been critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Chapman, remains unchanged, and he is still a very sick man.

Annual Meeting Wichita Chamber Commerce Friday

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 12.—Martin Sennett (Mike) Conner, Governor of Mississippi and recognized authority on tax reforms, will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce next Friday, January 13, at 7:00 P. M. in the municipal auditorium.

The meeting is open to the public and all citizens of west Texas and southern Oklahoma have a cordial invitation to attend.

Governor R. S. Sterling of Texas has also accepted an invitation, and has joined the chamber of commerce officers in inviting the governors of Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arkansas and Louisiana. As Governor Conner is President of the Southern Conference on Cotton Acreage Reduction, it is anticipated that the governors of the other Southwestern States will take advantage of the opportunity of conferring with him during his Wichita Falls visit.

Governor Mike Conner has won nationwide recognition for his successful efforts to rescue the State of Mississippi from what appeared to be a hopeless financial situation. A general sales tax is an important part of his plan, which will be discussed at the Wichita Falls meeting.

The Mississippian is well-known for his Irish wit, which often bristles with barbed thrusts. Fox hunting is his favorite pastime. He has been prominent in politics for several years, and served five consecutive years as Speaker of the House in Mississippi.

The West Texans, a newly-organized band composed of the best musicians from twenty-one west Texas towns, will provide music for the occasion. The organizers of the band expect to take it to Washington in March for the inauguration of President Roosevelt and Vice-President Garrow.

President A. E. Kelly of the Chamber of Commerce promises that the meeting will be short. His slogan is "Adjournment by nine-thirty, or bust."

Knox City Banks Are Consolidated

KNOX CITY, Texas, Jan. 12.—The First National bank and the Citizens State Bank of Knox City have consolidated and are doing business as the Citizens State Bank. The new institution will occupy the building heretofore occupied by the Citizens bank. Officers for the new bank have not been announced.

Buel Bowden Host To Fire Department and Members Council

On Monday evening R. B. (Buel) Bowden was host to members of the Munday Fire Department and members of the city council with a turkey dinner in the firemen's hall, and a goodly number of both organizations were present.

The dinner was served buffet style and there was an abundance of turkey with all the fixings, together with other good things to eat, and following the bounteous feast members of the council engaged in a pool tournament in which Alderman W. H. Atkinson demonstrated that he has in years gone by wielded a wicked billiard cue, he and D. E. Holder having easily defeated Alderman Tom Haney and J. A. Kennedy.

The feed was the first of a series that will be held monthly during the year, each member of the department having agreed to provide a feed in the month in which his birthdate falls, and we know that it will be difficult for any member of the department to provide a more pleasant evening than that provided by Buel Bowden on Monday evening.

Committee Named To Work Toward Organizing Band

At the regular luncheon of the Munday Chamber of Commerce held Thursday noon at the Munday Hotel a committee was appointed by R. B. Davy, president of the organization, to work out plans, if possible, for the organization of a band in Munday. The appointment was made after T. T. Tucker, a brother to the Rev. C. A. Tucker, and a band instructor, had made a brief talk in which he stated he would take on the instruction of a band here if sufficient interest were shown and he could secure employment of some kind in the city. The committee named is composed of J. A. Kennedy, T. R. Haney and D. T. Mauldin.

Dr. E. M. Ammons and D. T. Mauldin made brief reports on what is being done toward receiving finances from the R. F. C. and the manner in which the moneys received are being spent.

County Unit For R. F. C. Formed At Knox Meeting

D. T. Mauldin and Dr. E. M. Ammons attended an organization meeting of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation movement in Knox county, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which organization is in charge of distributing the funds over West Texas, having ordered that each county form an organization to work as a unit rather than each individual community working as a unit, as had been originally planned. The new plan, it is said, will eliminate much of the work of distributing the funds. Three towns were represented in the meeting—Munday, Knox City and Benjamin—and the matter of distributing the funds already secured as well as future funds was discussed, and it was agreed that funds already received from the organization would be distributed upon the same basis as they were allowed the county.

A permanent organization for the administration of the funds was formed in which Roy Smith of Knox City was chosen as president and Dr. E. M. Ammons of Munday as secretary-treasurer. The executive committee named was as follows: John Ed Jones, Dr. E. M. Ammons and D. T. Mauldin, Munday; Roy Smith, Sam Clonts and T. P. Frizzell, Knox City; S. G. West and J. H. Atterberry, Benjamin.

A wage scale of $1.00 per day was adopted as the uniform wage that will be paid in the various communities for the distribution of the funds, which will be used for general public improvements.

Bill Eisbee of the Benjamin Post was a caller at this office on Tuesday and stated that a large crew of men had been employed in his town and are being paid out of the relief fund received from the R. F. C.

Challenge Hurlled By P.T. A. Here At School Faculty

Listen, my children, and you shall hear. A story that seems quite odd and queer. Dad will don shorts that will plainly show. Limbs that were shapely—years ago. Mother, too, will attempt to demonstrate. How she performed back in 1908.

While all the faculty, including Jones, May emerge from the game with broken bones.

That Riley B. Harrell and Hardigree are real athletes, we'll all agree. But those old maids, we've been told, Will appear in garbs that are really bold.

So get your tickets and don't be late. Come right along—don't hesitate. It's a real event when your Ma and Pa Smack the faculty square on the jaw. Action plenty will be in store, And the following day, will they be sore?

All the above effusion and brain-storm was brought on by the announcement made Wednesday afternoon that a series of basketball games had been matched between mothers of the town, representing the Parent-Teacher association, would play the faculty members of the Munday schools of the feminine gender, while the men pedagogues would be taken on by the fathers, and we ask you, Mr. and Mrs. Anybody, will it be some exciting affair?

It all came about at a meeting of the association Wednesday afternoon, when the challenge was hurled, and hurled hard at the faculty, who, accepted only after the challenge had again been hurled by the ladies—mothers if you please—who haven't played the game since their high school days, and how many years ago that's been is nobody's business.

In answer to the challenge—believe it or not—the ladies of the faculty have remained quiet, but the men have come forward with a statement in which they have reluctantly accepted the challenge. The statement issued late Wednesday and signed by the men members of the faculty, was as follows:

"Inasmuch as the mothers of the P.T. A. have publicly and deliberately, with malice and a forethought challenged the men of the faculty of the Munday Public schools to play a game of basketball with their husbands, the men of this faculty after having cringed and offered various excuses to avoid being humiliated, have been forced to accept the challenge after being taunted as being afraid of their husbands," says the statement issued. "and, after due deliberation, have resolved deep in our hearts to cast aside all pride and dignity and accept the challenge."

"However," continues the statement, "we want it distinctly understood that we have accepted this challenge to play the husbands of those ladies who have extended this challenge, and we want those husbands to be as brave as their wives and meet us on the basketball court January 21, 1933. Honestly and truly, we are not expecting a basketball game because we don't believe these husbands have the nerve and backbone to meet us, but since we have been dragged into it, we are ready to accept the challenge."

The statement is signed by all the men members of the faculty, and we are sure that after the arrogant statement above has been read there will be little difficulty in mustering a team that will give them a hard battle.

And the ladies—boy, howdy—that administration of the funds was formed in which Roy Smith of Knox City was chosen as president and Dr. E. M. Ammons of Munday as secretary-treasurer. The executive committee named was as follows: John Ed Jones, Dr. E. M. Ammons and D. T. Mauldin, Munday; Roy Smith, Sam Clonts and T. P. Frizzell, Knox City; S. G. West and J. H. Atterberry, Benjamin.

The Times is in receipt of a post card from Dad Rawlins of Goree in which he states that he has been ill for the past five weeks, but hopes to be able to be out again in about two weeks, and when he is able to get out will have some fine cottonseed and seed corn to offer the farmers of the Munday country.

WHO WILL BELL THE CAT?

Under the above heading the Benjamin Post last week carried an editorial, which, according to the belief of W. R. Moore, would, if possible to execute, put an abrupt end to the depression. Anyway, the article provides something to think about, and if there is any method by which the depression might be shortened, it is hoped that some move along that line will be taken during the year that is just beginning. Here is the article:

The Imperial Oil Company, which has 25,000 Canadian farmers' debts owing $5,000,000.00, will give them some relief, according to the Wall Street Journal. The debts will be repaid in the ratio that wheat prices bear to the 1929-30 average of wheat prices. All interest payments to October 1, 1932 and repayment accepted in five semi-annual payments beginning with that date. Interest will be charged on unpaid balances at 4 percent from October, 1933.

Should such practice be universally adopted, the depression in which we find ourselves, would end very abruptly. That is a broad statement and our honest opinion. Ask any man on the street what is hurting him the most and he will tell you old debts, debts that were made when the price of goods was high and the value of the dollar a great deal less than it is at present.

Let us assume that one of our Knox County farmers borrowed $1,000 when cotton was worth fifteen cents a pound. He figured selling 12.5 bales of cotton to pay back the principal. The price of cotton having declined to such extent that by the time the note had become due and the cost of production having failed to decline in proportion, Mr. Farmer found that he could not pay the note and so renewed it. Cotton has now reached the five cent level and instead of taking 12.5 bales to pay the note, it will now take 40 bales. Assuming further that the note draws 10 percent interest and it cannot be repaid but must be renewed. It will take 4 bales of cotton to pay the interest, which is the same as 30 percent.

What is true of the farmer, is true of those countries who owe us war debts. The debts are payable in gold but it was not gold that was borrowed. Goods, foods, munitions, clothes, machinery, were borrowed at a time when wheat was worth about $4.00 a bushel, cotton from 25c to 40c per pound, and other prices in proportion. It doesn't take a very smart man to see that the payment of these debts in gold is a hardship.

What the practice would really amount to would be raising the prices of all commodities back to prosperity levels. The trouble in this instance is to find some way to bell the cat.

—Benjamin Post.

THE SALES TAX.

We believe that the people of Texas generally will concur in the views of James E. Ferguson recently favoring a sales tax.

Funds must be derived from some source for the maintenance of our State government, and in years gone by the ad valorem tax on real estate has been relied upon to provide a major portion of this fund, but in recent years ownership of real estate has proven so unprofitable that it is now necessary to look to other sources for funds, and the sales tax seems to offer the most practical solution to the perplexing problem.

For some years the sales tax idea has been growing, but heretofore the laws have been of a discriminatory nature. For instance, Texas now has a tax levy of three cents on each package of 20 cigarettes, a portion of which tax goes into the educational fund. Just why cigarettes should be singled out among all the numerous forms of the filthy weed has been a mystery to us, but even that has not been so great a mystery to us as the idea of making those who smoke cigarettes contribute more generously to the educational funds of the state than those who dip snuff, smoke cigars or chew the blamed staff.

And then too, we have had the gasoline tax. This tax was originally designed to provide funds for building and maintaining highways. "Let those who use the highways build and maintain them," was the general viewpoint at the time this law was enacted. But when the thousands began rolling into the tills of the highway department while those departments of government dependent upon the ad valorem tax were flat broke, there arose the demand that a portion of the gasoline tax be diverted to the educational fund, and so it was. And now there is a demand that a greater portion of the gasoline tax be diverted to general revenue funds.

Hence the idea is growing. If millions can be raised by taxing gasoline, why not tax everything. If three millions can be garnered by the state with a measly three cent tax on a package of Lucky Strikes, that seems like a lucky strike for the state, so why not levy it against the bird who smokes Stinkos, or the man who chews Star Navy or even the bird who dips Levi Garrett? Yes, why not go all the way, and levy a tax on the bird who rolls his own cigarettes or sox, and the man who buys a Rolls-Royce in the same proportions as the man who buys a lively Tin Henry.

Let's quit discriminating against cigarettes and gasoline, and levy a tax on everything from furnished cream pitchers to cut glass shoe laces. Let's have a sales tax.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Easley left last week for Decatur, Texas, where they will make their future home. Mr. Easley having recently purchased a farm near that place, on which they will reside for many years. Mr. Easley was engaged in business in Munday, but retired some few years ago and he and Mrs. Easley plan to enjoy the quiet farm life, and their many friends will join in wishing them prosperity, peace and contentment in their new home.

FLOYD-BROWN

In our last week's issue we failed to get an account of the marriage on December 23 of Miss Nina Bell Floyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Floyd of this city, and Mr. Fred Brown. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents here by the Rev. W. H. Albertson, following which a bounteous dinner was served a number of relatives.

The Times joins the many friends of these excellent young people in wishing for them a long and happy married life.

Let's Swap a Little!

We know there are a goodly number of Times readers who are indebted to us for subscription, and there are others who would like to continue receiving the paper but who do not feel able to part with the cold cash, and to these we would make a "swap" proposition that we believe might prove beneficial to us both. Of course we can use the cash better than most anything in the world, for the paper houses and others to whom we owe money demand that they be paid in cash and nothing else but cash. However, we realize that there are many of our good friends who do not have the cash, but who have an abundance of things that we have to buy with the cash that you pay us on subscription, so we are going to do some swapping.

For instance, we can use canned meats, vegetables and the like, and during the next week we are going to trade for these things and most anything else that you have to trade. We are determined to keep the large list of loyal subscribers that we have on our list despite Mr. Depression, and if you'll just give us half a chance we will do business right along during 1933 just as we have during the "fat" and "lean" years that have gone by.

We need lots of things at our house and will therefore trade for most anything except bulldogs and canary birds, gold fish and spats. We can use a few quilts these cold nights and if you have any to trade bring 'em in. We can use a limited amount of fresh and cured meats, canned beans, canned chili, canned corn, canned anything but canned heat. We have donned our trading clothes and if you want to do some trading come in and give us a trial and see if we aren't easy to trade with.

THE FRESHMAN NEWS.

One word in conclusion—don't miss our Mystery of the Third Gable.

In Home Economics the class has just about finished our Home Project. The project has proved to be interesting.

We are glad to welcome Sybil Nunley from Geraldine, Texas, in our class.

Our book reports are due Thursday and we are enjoying all of the books very much.

This is fire prevention week and we will probably have to write themes on this subject. We are not anxious to write themes, but if Miss Couch says for us to, of course we will.

RIGSBY'S ROUNDUP.
Basketball season is here and going strong. The Munday Moguls have played two good games this last week but were successful in winning only one. Friday night the Rochester Steers defeated the Munday Moguls to the score of 17-14. Saturday night the Moguls beat Sunset 23-13.

We seem to have a fine team developing this year. Mr. L. S. Har-

WINTER PLOTS A WICKED CRIME

THE VICTIMS: Those Motors Using Ordinary Oil that Drains Away from Heated Working Surfaces.
THE TIME: Those Cold Starting Minutes While Precious Motor Parts Melt Run Dry at Warming Speed Until Oil is Pumped from Below.

The One Oil that Gives You Perfect Protection for Winter's Worst Days Ahead

Drip! trickle! drip! through long night hours, ordinary oil drains away. When the pump quits, ordinary oil quits, leaving the motor's parts high and dry. You touch the starter. The motor roars. The pump strains at the sluggish oil. It is only a few minutes till circulation is completed. But, in the meantime, working surfaces only partly lubricated are in contact, while the motor makes three to five thousand revolutions. This causes 50% of all motor wear.

Prevent this loss. Choose not merely a quick oil, but an oil that never leaves. Choose the oil with the "hidden quart" that penetrates and combines with the metal surfaces of the motor itself. In the emergency of an empty crankcase, users have driven many miles, without damage, on this "hidden quart" alone. This proves that your motor need never suffer while waiting upon the pump. Don't remain in doubt. Drain and refill with the "hidden quart oil today.

Household Hints

By Betty Webster

Container for Ashes
Metal containers should be used for ashes. This is to insure safety as ashes should be removed from the ash pit as soon as the fire is shaken. If ashes are allowed to cool in the pit it is very apt to destroy the grate where there is too much of an accumulation.

To Clean Small Pieces of Velvet
Fill the teakettle with water. Let water boil strenuously until steam escapes. Tie piece of muslin over the sprout. Pass pieces of velvet through this steam and they will be freshened almost like new.

How to Buy Grapefruit
Judge grapefruit by its weight. The heaviest ones are the juiciest.

How to Buy Cucumbers
Medium sized cucumbers are usually the best as the large ones are not generally very tender.

How to Buy Potatoes
Do not choose too large potatoes as the very large ones often have a hole in the middle.

COOKING HINTS

Cabbage Pineapple Salad
1½ cups of grated cabbage.
1 cup of chopped pineapple.
½ cup of chopped celery.
½ cup of chopped almonds.
Method: Mix altogether and serve with a fruit salad dressing.

Pork Chops

Dip each chop in beaten egg. Roll each chop in corn flakes. Place in roasting pan. Put a slice of onion on each chop. Put in oven and bake until done.

Ginger Marmalade Sandwiches
Cut up preserved ginger in small pieces. Mix well with orange marmalade. Spread thin slices of bread with butter. Spread ginger marmalade mixture on this and form as sandwiches.

BAKING HINTS

Diet Didn't Do This!

HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic!"

Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active senna, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

If your youngsters don't do well at school, don't play as hard or eat as well as other children do, begin this evening with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This gentle stimulant will soon right things! The bowels will move with better regularity and thoroughness. There won't be so many sick spells or colics. You'll find it just as wonderful for adults, too, in larger spoonfuls!

Get some Syrup Pepsin; protect your household from those bilious days, frequent headaches, and that sluggish state of half-health that comes from a poor diet. Keep this preparation in the home to use instead of harsh cathartics that cause chronic constipation taken too often. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store; they have it all ready in big bottles.
