DEMOCRATIC RALLY HERE SATURDAY NIGHT MUNDAY SCHOOLS TO OPEN MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH

After Three Weeks Recess Work Will Be Resumed Monday

The Munday Public Schools will reopen on Monday morning after a three-week recess in order that members of the student-body might help in the harvest of cotton, and Supt. Jones is hopeful that a full enrollment will be in attendance, as it has been the purpose in dismissing during this time to prevent some of the students getting behind others in their work.

Former Mail Carrier Here Dies In County Hospital Wednesday

Elmer Clark, for several years a mail carrier out of the Munday office, died in the Knox County Hospital at Knox City Wednesday afternoon following an illness of about a month. Mr. Clark was an ex-service man and prior to coming to Knox county was an employee of the postoffice department in New York City, transferring to the rural service, he came here as carrier and served in that capacity until about a year ago. Funeral services were conducted at Knox City on Thursday.

Halloween Spooks In Evidence Here On Monday Evening

Halloween spooks were in evidence here on Monday evening, but, contrary to the old custom, no material damage was reported. In fact, the evening was a very orderly one, where the principal attraction for the citizenry was a carnival staged by the Parent-Teacher association, which, according to those in charge, was a success in every respect, due largely to the untiring efforts of Mrs. W. R. Moore and Mrs. Howell Burton, who worked long and late in making plans for the event, and who wish to express their sincere thanks to Mrs. R. E. Alexander, R. B. Davy, L. M. Palmer, Riley B. Harrell, Mrs. McMahon and the many others who contributed materially to the success of the evening.

Mrs. E. M. Ammons swelled the proceeds of the effort materially when she garbed fittingly for the role, went out on the streets with a tin cup and garnered something like six dollars from sympathetic pedestrians and business folk in their places of business.

Little Joann Sadler of Stamford spent the week end here with her father, Bob Sadler.

RED CROSS FACES BUSIEST WINTER SINCE WAR CLOSED

With a realization of the increased responsibilities of the American Red Cross in the last year and the knowledge that the organization is facing its busiest winter since World War days, local leaders are taking an unusually active part in the approaching membership campaign. According to Red Cross chapter officials here, the annual Roll Call will be conducted between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, November 11-24.

E. L. Covey, who will direct the Roll Call in Knox County this year issued a statement today, emphasizing the importance of the community's support to the Red Cross during the enrollment period. The statement follows:

"This year the economic emergency lends special importance to the annual Roll Call, or membership campaign of the American Red Cross.

"The Red Cross is the recognized relief agency throughout the nation. It is chartered by Congress, headed by the President of the United States, and accorded the cooperation of the Federal government. In the unemployment crisis it has borne a great relief responsibility. It has been the authorized medium for distribution of wheat and cotton to those in need of flour and clothing. Its volunteers have been unstinting in devotion to the task of collecting and distributing supplies, and in production of finish-

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

Joe Lynn Mayes, who has been engaged in the hatchery and grain business here during recent years is going into the hardware business, and we have been informed that Joe's reason for entering the new venture is based on the fact that the rats and mice have eaten heavily into his profits in the lines he has been engaged in, and he states that he's going to get a kick out of watching them gnaw on his cultivators and tractors.

And we would remind the readers of this moral guide that next Tuesday is election day, and every vote should go to the polls and vote as their conscience dictates.

The political campaign has been a long and bitter affair in Texas, and while we have made no secret of our preference, we can point with presiding elder of this column is not spoken an unkind word about those whom we opposed, and regardless of the outcome, we must all scramble for our ham and eggs.

Unless perhaps it be those who are expecting political patronage, but the presiding elder of this column is expecting any political job. In fact, we don't intend to apply for any, and few things come to those who do not go after them in this life.

And another thing that TOL has observed, and that is that most of the political spellbinders who are pleading for party regularity in Texas are tax-eaters, and since their fat salaries depend largely upon party regularity, regardless of merit, they would be thrown out into a cruel world to earn just what they are worth, and in that case many of them would have to scramble early and late to get their ham and eggs regularly.

TIMES EARLY NEXT WEEK.

The Times will go to press on Wednesday afternoon next week instead of on Thursday afternoon, as is our custom. The reason for this is that Friday is Armistice Day and there will be no rural routes, and the paper will go on the routes Thursday. We ask the cooperation of our advertisers in this effort to serve them.

E. Q. Warren of Knox City was in the city Wednesday afternoon.

BULLINGTON GIVEN CORDIAL RECEPTION BY MUNDAY FRIENDS

Orville Bullington, Republican nominee of Texas, came back home Saturday—back to Munday—where as a young attorney he first hung out his shingle and was subsequently elected County Attorney of Knox County.

Upon arrival here Mr. Bullington and his party were escorted to the Terry Hotel where a luncheon was tendered and was attended by a group of old friends of the candidate, in fact, during his brief stay in Munday he was kept busy shaking hands with numerous friends of by-gone days, many of whom are ardently supporting him in this campaign.

The introduction was made by C. L. Mayes, who stated he gave Bullington his first case after he established his law office in Munday, going to Knox City where he had a case in the Justice Court in a buggy, the trip there and back requiring an entire day, and for which he paid Bullington a fee of ten dollars. In his introductory remarks Mr. Mayes stated that Bullington made the county a faithful and efficient officer as county attorney, and that his wide experience as a business man since that time would enable him to make even a better Governor. Mr. Mayes has always been a staunch Democrat, but will cast his vote on November 8th for Orville Bullington for Governor, believing as he does, and like many other good Democrats, that the party in Texas will be best served and Texas will be better served, by the election of Mr. Bullington.

Bullington repeated the charge here made at Abilene on Friday evening that a representative of the Ferguson family attended the Republican convention at San Angelo two years ago and offered to throw the Ferguson support to the Republican candidate for $20,000. He stated that if elected no man could get a pardon by employing an attorney to represent him, but that he, as Governor, would make a thorough investigation of cases and would delve into the dungeons at Huntsville and hunt out "the forgotten man" that we have been hearing so much about—men without money and without friends, and extend clemency where he believed it expedient. The candidate stated that, as Governor, he would recommend radical changes in our tax system with a view of eliminating the ad valorem tax on property. He denied that if he is elected he would favor Republicans in making appointments, calling attention to the fact that before any appointments would have to be approved by a two-thirds vote of the State Senate, which will naturally be composed entirely of Democrats. He stated that he could not do this as he wanted to—and he didn't want to, for he realized that if he were elected he would owe his election to Democrats.

A motored led by Paul Seed's Los Caballeros band from Wichita Falls met Mr. Bullington here and accompanied him to Graham. Among those in the party were C. H. Clark, president of the Bullington-for-Governor Democratic club of Wichita county, Homer Lee, vice-president of the organization, J. S. Birdwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Silk, Mrs. C. W. Snider, Mrs. J. C. A. Guest, Miss Mamie Dale of Iowa Park, Mrs. Grover Johnson, Mrs. C. C. Randle, Dr. and Mrs. Q. B. Lee, Mrs. Grover Bullington and many others.

Tennessee Youth Is Dead From Results of Gunshots Wounds

O. T. Yater, 19-year-old Tennessee youth who was accidentally shot by Mack Cooke on the Cooke farm in the Ruten community, died on Saturday night in the Baylor County Hospital at Seymour, where he was taken for treatment soon after the tragedy. Relatives of the youth came from Tennessee and made arrangements for the burial of the young man. An account of the tragedy was published in our last issue.

These transfers have been made prior to the meeting of the Northwest Texas conference, which convenes on November 10th at Amarillo.

The Rev. and Mrs. Crowe have made a host of friends during their stay in Munday who will regret that they are leaving.

H. H. Langford Dies Suddenly Tuesday at His Home In Munday

H. H. Langford, a resident of Munday for the past eight years, died suddenly at his home on Tuesday evening about 8:30, and Dr. Joe Davis, who was summoned, stated that his death was due to apoplexy.

Mr. Langford had returned early in the evening from his farm in the Ruten community, where he had been assisting in gathering the cotton crop, and except from the fact that he felt tired out from the day's work seemed in the usual good health and ate a hearty meal. After reading his paper and listening to the radio and conversing with members of the family he had prepared to retire and had just emerged from the bath tub and gone to a rear door when members of the family heard him fall, and when they reached him he was dead.

As the news of his sudden death reached the homes of friends over the city they gathered to offer whatever assistance they might be able to render to the grief-stricken members of the family.

The funeral services were conducted at the home on Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. L. N. Lipscomb of Amarillo, presiding elder of the Northwest Texas conference, and a former business associate of Mr. Langford, they having been associated in the drug business at Haskell a number of years ago prior to the entry of the Rev. Lipscomb into the ministry, and in making his address the Rev. Lipscomb referred often to the high ideals and encouragement which he received from the deceased during those years of association. Assisting in the services were the Rev. John H. Crowe, pastor of the local Methodist church, and the Rev. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church at Gore.

Following the services at the home the remains were laid to rest in Johnson cemetery, the funeral direction being in charge of R. G. Campbell.

Mr. Langford was born August 23, 1868, at Newton, Dale county, Alabama, and when a young man came to Texas, living for a number of years in Falls and McLennan counties. In 1909 he came with his family to Haskell, where he resided until 1924, when he moved to Munday. During the time of his residence in Haskell he was engaged in the drug business except for some four years during which time he served Haskell county as Tax Collector. Being a registered pharmacist, a major portion of his life was devoted to the drug business, and for several years after coming to Munday he was associated with the drug business in this city.

Since young method Mr. Langford had been a consistent member of the Methodist church, and had during his life served in various official capacities as a layman, and was ever faithful to his church and his Master. He was a good citizen, a good neighbor and a true friend.

In addition to his wife Mr. Langford is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Whitt Smith of Waco, who was here with her mother at the time, Miss Winnie, who is teaching in the Dallas schools, and Miss Mary, who is teaching in the Sweetwater schools. He is also survived by one grandson, little Whitt Smith, Jr., two brothers, C. R. Langford of Chilton, Texas, and Alex Langford of Monroe, Louisiana, and one sister, Mrs. T. S. Harthcock of San Angelo, Texas. All the above relatives were present at the funeral services except the brother in Louisiana and the sister.

Rev. John H. Crowe Sent To Clarksville By M. E. Conference

Rev. John H. Crowe, for the past eighteen months pastor of the Methodist church here, has been transferred to the Northwest Texas conference and assigned to the Clarksville church, for which place he and Mrs. Crowe will depart early next week. In transferring the Rev. Hand, pastor of the church at Clarksville, was sent to the Northwest Texas conference and assigned to the Munday church, and he too will arrive in Munday early next week to assume his duties.

These transfers have been made prior to the meeting of the Northwest Texas conference, which convenes on November 10th at Amarillo.

The Rev. and Mrs. Crowe have made a host of friends during their stay in Munday who will regret that they are leaving.

Cotton Ginnings In County Exceed That Of Last Year 2,114

Cotton ginnings in Knox County prior to October 18th amounted to 17,596 bales, as compared with 15,482 bales on the same date last year, or 2,114 bales more up to that date than on the same date a year ago, according to figures given out last week by W. H. H. Griffin of Gore, enumerator for the Department of Commerce.

Mr. Griffin has predicted that Knox county will this year exceed any previous year in the production of cotton, and his estimate is that approximately 50,000 bales will be produced in the county.

Local Optometrist Attending Optical Course in Ft. Worth

J. D. Kethley, local optometrist, is in Fort Worth this week attending a post-graduate course being conducted there by Dr. Skeffington, one of the nation's leading authorities on the subject. This is the fifth consecutive year that Mr. Kethley has attended the course, where he is told of the newest discoveries in the profession, and in attending these courses he is enabled to give his clients the benefit of the very latest discoveries in the optometry line, to which such men as Dr. Skeffington are devoting their lives.

ful to his church and his Master. He was a good citizen, a good neighbor and a true friend.

In addition to his wife Mr. Langford is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Whitt Smith of Waco, who was here with her mother at the time, Miss Winnie, who is teaching in the Dallas schools, and Miss Mary, who is teaching in the Sweetwater schools. The contest will again be under the direction of U. R. Houser, who has supervised the contest for a number of years, and to whom application should be made for entries. Three prizes will be given, as in the past, and the contest is open to the world, with no charge made for entry.

Sunset School To Open Monday, Nov. 7

When the date for re-opening school was set as the 31st day of October, it looked as if cotton would bring eight or ten cents a pound, and the Board was unwilling to allow more than five weeks of intermission.

The drop in the price of cotton and the enormous amount now open in the fields led them to reconsider and allow another week for the children to help at home. In this decision they were actively supported by the teachers.

Any additional time, however, will seriously impair the efficiency of the school, and the opening date is definitely set for Monday, November 7th. We hope that every patron will make a special effort to start his children on that date.

John Davenport Wichita Attorney Will be Speaker

A rally in the interest of the Democratic ticket has been arranged for Munday on Saturday evening, at which time Hon. John Davenport of Wichita Falls will be the principal speaker, and the rally will be in the interest of all nominees of the Democratic party, from President to Constable.

It is stated by those in charge of arrangements for the rally that it will be held on the lawn at the city hall if the weather is favorable for an outdoor meeting, but should the weather be unfavorable for such a gathering it will be held in the community auditorium. In addition to the address of Mr. Davenport, other brief talks will be made and good music will be provided for the gathering, and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Trial of Young Seymour Attorney Reset for Nov. 7

Continuance of the trial of Temple Dickson, 23, of Seymour, on a murder charge, to Monday Nov. 7, was granted by Judge P. A. Martin in the 89th district court at Wichita Falls Monday morning upon motion of the defense.

Dickson is charged with murder in connection with the death of C. S. Plunkett last June 23 at Seymour. The shooting allegedly resulted from a quarrel over a minor traffic accident to which Dickson was a party several days before Plunkett was shot to death. The defendant was a candidate for election as county attorney in Baylor county when the shooting occurred, but withdrew from the race immediately thereafter. The case was assigned to Wichita county on a change of venue.

HELP THE RED CROSS TO HELP THE NEEDY!

YOUR RED CROSS NEEDS YOU

The 1932 poster of the American Red Cross Roll Call for members.

EVERY year, beginning with the World War, the Red Cross has issued a poster calling attention to its roll call for membership, which is held, traditionally, from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. Many famous artists have selected these posters.

Usually they center about the figure of a Red Cross nurse, which carries sentimental recollections of her service during the war, and of her service in disasters in peacetime, as well as in the paths of public health.

The poster this year is a timely reminder that the Red Cross needs help. If it is to carry on helping others. Every one who joins as a member of the Red Cross chapter in his community will be helping this humanitarian organization to help the needy throughout the nation.

INSULL'S COMPANIES.

Ahlens Morning News: Samuel and Martin Insull's unpardonable sin was in running out from the consequences. They cannot be forgiven for that. But whatever may be said of the Insulls, they have never run out on West Texas. Out here, the most significant counter picture to the vast and reverberating fall of their going of holding-company cards is the going condition of the operating companies that were the real heart of the structure.

During this deluge of Insull news—all about Martin in the $20—a week boarding house, Samuel's flight to Paris to Florence to Athens, Martin in jail, of Samuel the expatriate and fugitive—it is well to remember that the brothers dreamed of dependable electricity in small towns, on the farm; and that the West Texas Utilities company remains, with the other operating units to fulfill the dream. West Texas is not willing to put that company on the spot for offenses of which it was ignorant.

It has not missed on the promise to pay, a few weeks ago distributing 117,000 in hard coin of the realm to its holders of $6 preferred stock of whom 2,000 are West Texans. Last year it paid taxes amounting to $1,160 per day, and salaries and wages of $3000 per day.

More can be said. The West Texas Utilities Company, has, every year, spent more money in the development and expansion of its properties than it has received in profits from their operation. In efficiency and good conduct it is one of West Texas' finest assets. Last year two hard-headed business men from Chicago, the receivers of the Mid-West Utilities Co. in the first week of its operation, viewed for the first time won the admiration of the Middle West Utilities Co. Messrs. Harley and McLaughlin. These gentlemen issued an enthusiastic statement in which, however, they only said what the West Texan already knows.

The News pays its tribute because, in the present emergency, its personnel have taken their medicine without complaint or whimper. Not one, from the president down to porter in the general office, has asked this newspaper, or any other newspaper, to "go easy" or "give us a break."

WHY THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL?

The most splendid conception of this generation, in behalf of a greater Texas, is the Texas Centennial.

It will celebrate one hundred years of unexampled progress, from barren wilderness to modern commonwealth. It will foregather the marvelous products of Texas' brawn and brain in every field of human endeavor.

It will turn toward Texas the attention of peoples of many tongues and lands beyond the seas.

It will make the tale of Texas table-talk in ten million homes, in the two Americas, from Baffin Bay to Cape Horn.

It will repay Texas for all outlay from her treasury, from out of uncounted millions dropped within her borders by the unnumbered hosts who come by rail and road and plane to behold her resources and applaud her strides.

It will be an epochal event in which the Nation will claim the right to share, since in succession 1836 was followed by 1845, San Jacinto by Chapultepec and American domain and destiny pushed westward from the Sabine River to the Pacific Ocean.

It will be far more than a mammoth modern exposition, whose buildings are models of architecture, in brick and stone, housing triumphs of invention and miracles of science and the riches of Texas soil and sun.

It will testify that Texas are not unworthy the incomparable heritage left to them by martyrs and patriots, dying and ready to die, that Texas might become an Anglo-Saxon commonwealth.

It will commemorate the sacrifices of the plain pioneer men and women who first troked the unpeopled wilds, with an ax and plow and rifle and spelling book and Bible, to lay the mudsills of civilization.

It will Texanize Texans.

It will teach all the sons and daughters of Texas, native-born and adopted, to know Texas better, to love Texas more and to serve Texas with a single-hearted zeal.

It will lift our eyes to the hilltops of our history, whence cometh our help above bog and fog, for taller thinking and nobler living.

It will seal in tighter bonds of unity, through contact and understanding, Texas citizenship of every type, from pines to plains, from the river to the Gulf.

It will rid our State of the specter of sectionalism to the end that Texas may remain in territory, ideals and destiny forever undivided and indivisible.

It will rekindle the dying flame of patriotism, in decadent days, and as we renew our faith at Texas sacred shrines, put to shame a leadership of noisy pretense and little deeds.

It will serve to bring to pass the poet's prayer:
"Bring me men to match my mountains,
Men with empires in their purpose,
And new eras in their brains."

CHEATING OURSELVES.

The story is told of a dishonest worker. He and his family were roofless, whereupon a certain good Samaritan decided to surprise this poor man with a comfortable home. So, without telling his purpose, he hired the builder at a fair wage to build a house on a sunny hill, and then went on business to a far-away country. The builder was left at work with no watchman but his own honor. "Ha," said he in his heart. "I can skim the material and scamp the work." So he went on spinning out the time, putting in poor service, poor nails, poor timbers.

When the good Samaritan returned the builder said: "That's a fine house built on the hill." "Good," was the reply. "Go move your folks into it at once for the house is yours." Here is the deed." The builder was thunderstruck. He realized that, instead of cheating his friend he had been industriously cheating himself when he did not know that it was his own house he was building.

The illustration reminds us vividly of the predicament our voters and taxpayers find themselves in today. They suffer under a burden that has become almost unbearable. They will load and long about the burdens of taxation, wasteful and foolish governmental expedients, graft and cheap politics. But are they not criticizing the house they built themselves?

Back a short time ago when most of us had more money than brains and when we were drunk on the power of the almighty dollar, we openly voted for and supported candidates of a spendthrift character, knowing when we did so that we were "slipping in shoddy materials" in the governmental structure we were building. We knew that government, justly and economically administered, required our sober thought and honest action, yet we dismissed the thought with our own selfish pursuit of the dollar. We didn't have time to vote intelligently.

Now we are reaping the rewards. Of course the house we built leaks and cracks and threatens to collapse. But we can't blame it on the other fellow. We built it ourselves.

Let us profit by our lesson and build the next house as it should be. Our democratic government isn't at fault. The fault lies with we voters who built it. We have been cheating ourselves.—Guide, Batesville, Ark.

MILLS COUNTY FARMERS
MAKE PROFIT TERRACED LAND

GOLDTHWAITE—Terraced land has produced an average of $2.25 per acre more per year than unterraced land, so 10 Mills county farmers, who have terraced 10 years old or more, tell W. P. Weaver, county agent. He says: "This takes into consideration the low prices of farm products the last three years. In dry years the difference was greater, as in 1925 when cotton on terraced land made $7.50 per acre more than cotton on unterraced land. The cost of terracing, ranging from $2 to $4 per acre according to condition of the field, has often been repaid in one year.

"No attempt has been made to estimate the increased value of the land

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Munday, Saturday Night, November 5th

Hon. John Davenport of Wichita Falls will deliver the principal address in the interest of the Democratic cause.

Good Music Will Be Provided!

PLACE—IF WEATHER PERMITS RALLY WILL BE HELD ON LAWN AT CITY HALL, IF NOT, IT WILL BE HELD AT COMMUNITY AUDITORIUM.

LET'S VOTE THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET STRAIGHT FROM PRESI-DENT TO CONSTABLE
NEXT TUESDAY.

Let's not detract from the victory of the Democratic Party next Tuesday by casting a mixed ballot, but let us all vote the Democratic ticket all the way down. The welfare of the Democratic Party depends on party loyalty. The National Convention has named two outstanding Democrats as our Standard Bearer—Franklin D. Roosevelt and our own John Garner. Let us make their victory more outstanding by the election of every nominee on the Democratic Ticket in Texas. Let us abide by the old Democratic principle that a majority shall rule.

Let us not be misled by those who have striven for years to destroy and bring about discord in the Democratic Party in Texas. Let us think twice before we place into power in Texas a Governor whose party has always stood for the special interests and against the great common people, and whose aim and ambition is to discredit and destroy the great Democratic party of our forefathers. Let us measure the Republican candidate for Governor by the accomplishments of the Republican Party in the Nation. Indeed, let us cast our ballot for Roosevelt and Ferguson or for Hoover and Bullington. Let us follow party lines and be true to whichever party we are affiliated.

Haskell Free Press: The case of the State of Texas vs. Homer Altman, charged with the murder of Sam Tanner, Stonewall county rancher, which was set for trial yesterday (Wednesday) in 39th District Court here, has been continued and set for January 9th.

Continuance was granted by Judge Clyde Grisson, upon information that the defendant's wife, a witness in the case, is ill and unable to attend trial during the current term of court.

The case had previously been postponed from October 3 to October 26 because of Mrs. Altman's illness. She has been under the care of physicians since the birth of a child late in September, Judge Grisson was informed. A ten-year sentence assessed Altman in Stonewall county in March, 1931, was reversed and the case was transferred to this county.

Tanner was shot to death as he stood in the hog-pen of his farm near Double Mountain, in Stonewall county.

Lubbock Man Charged In Two Liquor Cases

A. L. Porter of Lubbock was released under $1,500 bond Wednesday to await the action of the grand jury, following his arrest Tuesday at Weibert by Constable Russell Davenport of that city and the subsequent filing of two charges of violation of the liquor law against him.

According to the sheriff's department, the arresting officer confiscated approximately ten gallons of liquor which was found in the car which Porter was driving at the time of his arrest.

Two complaints, one for transporting intoxicating liquor, and one for possession for the purpose of sale, were lodged against Porter. Bond was set by Justice of the Peace D. T. Dotson.

Burglars Visit Local Station Wichita Valley

Knob-knockers paid this city a visit last Thursday night, confining their activities, however, solely to the Wichita Valley depot where the knob was knocked from the office safe and a quantity of merchandise, including shirts, taken from the freight depot. Local officers who investigated stated that no money was secured from the safe, the merchandise taken and damage to the safe being the only loss sustained.

Glenn Merchant Is Injured In Explosion

Glenn Merchant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merchant of this city, an employee of the Whitham Construction Company on road work in the west part of the county, received serious burns about the arms and face Tuesday night in an explosion which followed his entry into a gas filled room where he had been staying at Rochester.

According to reports, Merchant had gone to his room in a private residence, and was carrying a lighted kerosene lamp. A faulty gas connection had allowed escaping gas to accumulate in the room, and upon Merchant's entry an explosion occurred, hurling him from the room and igniting his clothes, burning him seriously. He was immediately carried to the Knox City sanitarium where his condition is reported serious.

Twelve new log and mud potato storage houses have been built recently in Jasper county by plans furnished by the county agent. They are cheap and efficient, he says.

Clarence Anderson, 4-H club boy living near Sanger in Denton county has produced 1577 pounds of lint cotton on five acres, giving him $97.19 for his labor and investment and use of land.

"I didn't fully appreciate my terraces," said a Comanche county farmer to the county agent recently, "until I compared my 60-bushel-to-the-acre oat yield with the 30-bushel yield of my neighbor who hasn't terraced. He's doing it now, though."

List Robert Randow of Dewitt county among the converts to Huban clover. Five acres of it grazed 20 head of cattle for 30 days in the spring and then cut 4 1/2 tons of hay. "It produces more grazing and lasts longer in the spring than any clover I've tried," he says.

"They may not be golden eggs but those my flock of 114 white leghorns are laying are the source of some mighty handy silver these days," says Mrs. J. V. Green, poultry demonstrator for the Sand Hill Home Demonstration Club in Floyd county. Mixing her own laying mash from home grown feeds she has netted $1.17 per hen above feed cost the first 10 1/2 months of the poultry year.

"Eliminate the poor producer from the flock and reduce the feed bill" is the slogan adopted by the 4-H club girls of Wharton county. Records kept on 258 hens by 14 girls show a profit of $253.29 so far this year, with 359 pullets on hand.

Work Weary "NERVES"

Do they make you Restless, Cranky, Tired, Sleepless, Dyspeptic, Head-achy? Do they spoil your pleasure and interfere with your work?
Tens of thousands have found a way to get relief from over-worked nerves—a way so simple, so pleasant, so low in cost, that we are constantly receiving letters that say, "If I had only found Effervescent Nerve Tablets sooner." Simon Brandt writes: "I was very nervous from over-work. I couldn't sleep well, appetite was poor, and I felt weak for a long time. "Used Dr. Miles' Nerveine and now feel fifteen years younger and I am working the same as I did before—fourteen to fifteen hours daily."
"Sorry I did not learn about this wonderful medicine sooner as I had tried everything I could hear of, without results, until Dr. Miles' Nerveine put me back on my feet."
When you are nervous, try this—put a Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerveine Tablet into a glass of water. Watch it bubble up like sparkling spring water—drink it—enjoy the feeling of calm and relaxation that follows.
In Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerveine Tablets a splendid formula for soothing overworked nerves is combined with bicarbonate of soda and other acid which tend to correct hyper-acid stomach cases of nervousness.
