COTTON MARKETING QUOTAS TO BE ESTABLISHED UNDER PROVISIONS OF NEW FARM BILL VOTED TO LAW

Quotas Will be Based On the Acreage Allotments TEXAS ALLOTTED 9,800,000 ACRES 1938 Cotton Crop of 10,750,000 Bales Is Set

The establishment of cotton marketing quotas, based on farm acreage allotments, is authorized for all cotton producing farms under provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, the new measure passed by Congress to strengthen the Agricultural Conservation Program and provide more effective control of burdensome crop surpluses, according to George Slaughter, Chairman of Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

The Adjustment Act provides for a national cotton allotment of approximately 10,750,000 bales in 1938. The tentative cotton allotment for Texas in 1938 will be about 9,800,000 acres. The number of acres needed, at normal yields, to produce the baleage allotment will be apportioned to the cotton producing states and counties, with no county to receive less than 60 per cent of the cotton acreage planted and diverted in that county in 1937. The county allotment will be divided among individual farms, with special consideration for small producers.

This division will give all farms a minimum allotment up to five acres of cotton and a small allotment will be available for producers receiving between 5 and 15 acres. The remainder of the county allotment will be divided in such manner as to give each farm in the county or administrative area uniform percentage of the cropland on the farm after excluding wheat and rice acreage and the acreage used for commercial livestock production as its cotton acreage allotment. WONDER PROGRAM OF THE CENTURY A Scouts 'Good Deed'

The Scout Oath:
On my honor I will do my best; To do my duty to God and my country—

The watchful eye of a Benjamin Boy Scout brought to trial and conviction a night prowler who burglarized the Benjamin high school and took two typewriters, Thursday night, March 3rd.

Daniel Kyle, the Boy Scout, noticed the strange car parked near the school building with no one near it. Having his suspicions aroused, young Kyle with the aid of his flashlight read the license plate numbers several times to do his "god turn" and "be prepared should something be amiss."

Friday morning he told Supt. W. C. Cunningham the car license numbers after learning of the theft. Friday night Roy Roquemore of Ector county, was arrested. Saturday night he was in the Knox county jail. Monday he was sentenced on two counts for two years each, and the typewriters were recovered.

The two-year terms are to be served concurrently. Fast justice, thanks to a Boy Scout's good deed. It's no wonder the Scout movement is called the "wonder program."

NEGRO DRAWS 20 YEARS; ROBBERY WITH FIREARMS

After securing the two checks, the negro made his escape in a 1937 Plymouth pickup belonging to Chesser, leaving Chesser tied up in a building near the station.

Roberson was captured a few hours later in Quanah where he was held for Sheriff Louis Cartwright, and brought back to Knox County.

TEXAS GOES 8-1 FOR PROGRAM; KNOX VOTES 7-1

Munday Casts Over Third of Knox County Vote

GILLILAND ONLY DISSENTING BOX

Cotton South is Twelve To One in Favor of Farm Program

Texas voted overwhelmingly in favor of the cotton marketing quota program sponsored by the federal government when an estimated 2,000,000 cotton farmers of the nation cast ballots on the question last Saturday.

The last tabulated total given out on the Texas vote was 112,652 for and 15,406 against.

Knox county went heavily in favor of the bill, polling 725 for and 112 against. Munday cast over one-third of the vote, 322 ballots, with 289 for and 33 against. Other county voting places and results were: Knox City, 169 for, 13 against; Goree, 84 for, 20 against; Vera, 85 for, 10 against; Benjamin, 42 for, 2 against; Truscott, 33 for, 8 against; Gilliland, 25 for and 26 against.

Benjamin carried strongest for the measure in the county and Gilliland was the only box to vote against the cotton act.

Haskell county was stronger for the act than Knox county by casting 1391 for the referendum and 177 against. Weinert polled 128 for and 21 against.

Total vote for the cotton south as given out with near complete returns showed 1,189,828 for and 98,144 against, to give about a 12 to 1 majority, much more than the two-thirds majority needed to assure passage of the bill.

INTRODUCE TWO NEW COMBINES AT MEET HERE

Factory Representative Addresses Case Dealers

The Guinn Hardware Company of this city was host to dealers of the J. I. Case Implement Company of the mid-western grain section of Texas Thursday here.

The dealers of the area were called together by officials of the company for the purpose of demonstrating the operation of two new combines that have been added to the Case line of farm machinery.

Sales talks were heard during the day by Charles N. Karr, special representative of the Case company from Racine, Wis., and S. C. Turkenkoph, manager of the Dallas branch office and George A. Holmes, assistant manager of the Dallas office.

Three block managers of the implement company, two of whom were former Munday residents, attended. They were Lyle Stodghill, manager of the Munday district; Dave Mauldin, manager of the Abilene district, and Clarence Russell, manager of the Wichita Falls district.

Many of the dealers attending brought farmers with them to watch the demonstrations and hear the operation of the combines explained.

The group attended a luncheon at the Study Club house at noon with the Baptist Missionary Society members serving the luncheon.

All the activities of the day were held on the Guinn implement lot next to their hardware building, Ben Guinn, owner, stated.

More Living Motörists

It is good news that comes out of the United States Census Bureau with the revelation that during the first five weeks of 1938 there were 214 fewer deaths from motor vehicle accidents than during the same five weeks of 1937.

More than 40 persons each week—six in a day—owe their lives to any cause that you may care to ascribe. It may be the almost nation-wide safety campaigns which have been instituted during the year. It may be more carefully enforced traffic laws throughout the nation. Or maybe the return to sanity on the part of any number of crazy drivers.

But during those five weeks there still were 255 persons killed in auto accidents. That is 171 a week, 24 a day, one each hour. We still have a long way to go.

Open Letter to a Driver Who Speeds Through our Streets

I saw you miss a little boy on a tricycle this afternoon and heard you yell, "Get the H - - out of the way! Don't you know any better than to ride in the street?" He didn't answer because he hasn't learned to talk very well yet. So I'm going to answer for him.

No, the little boy doesn't know any better than to ride his tricycle in the streets. He has been warned not to, but little boys don't always heed warnings. Some adults don't either, especially traffic warnings; for example, the one limiting the speed of automobiles.

I'm going to tell you something about that little boy. He has a mother who endured considerable inconvenience, anxiety and suffering to bring him into the world. He has a father who has worked hard and made many sacrifices to make him healthy and happy. The supreme purpose of their lives is to have their little boy grow up to be a useful man.

Now stop a minute and think. If you should kill a child, how would you feel facing its parents? What excuse could you give them for having robbed them of their dearest possession? More important: What excuse could you possibly offer Him whose Kingdom is made up of little children?

Children, my hasty friend, were here long before you or your automobile were thought of. All the automobiles on earth are not worth the life of one little boy. We don't know what that little boy may some day be. But we know what you are, and it's unimportant. We could get along without you, but we can't spare a single little boy on this street.

—George Malcolm Smith

Harte Speaks of Allred

Houston Harte, editor of the San Angelo Standard-Times, was in Washington when Governor Allred gave a dinner to the members of Congress from Texas.

His reaction to the governor's self-anointed third-term sentiment is so cleverly pocketed in the following report from Washington that The Times is happy to pass it along to folks who are state-politics minded:

The governor in his conversations around the capitol week before last was known to have approached a number of Texas congressmen and to have held about this sort of conversation with them:

Governor: "We certainly do need to find a good man to run for governor this year."

Congressman: "Why I thought you were for Ernest, Governor."

Governor: Ernest is all right, but he just can't win."

Congressman: "But you would help him, wouldn't you, Governor?"

Governor: "Yes, I'd like to see Ernest governor, but he just can't beat McCraw. We need some one that is a good campaigner. Why don't you run, congressman?"

Congressman: "What, me! I would not think of running! I like my job and then I do not want to be governor, anyhow."

Governor: "Well, we certainly need a good man to run."

Congressman: "Why don't you run, governor?"

Governor: "Do you really think I ought to? (No answer from congressman.) I have been thinking about it and if many more people solicit me to run I may have to . . . Well, glad to have seen you, congressman, don't fail to come visit me at the mansion! Goodby."

Congressman: "Goodby."

Most of us keep quiet about the heartaches that really hurt.

Money is made in the same way it is lost—by taking chances.

It's easy to be broadminded in matters that affect us only slightly, or not at all.

In our plans for helping others let's not overwhelm those who must earn the money to pay the bill.

The man who thinks he knows it all is trading on very small capital.

No farmer whose cow has had the colic can understand how a radio crooner can get $1000 a week for making the same kind of noise.

A pretty nurse ought to subtract about ten beats when she takes the pulse of a male patient to get a really accurate count.

Lipstick and flypaper are a good deal alike. They catch the careless creatures that pause to investigate.

Scientists say that sunspots this year may have queer effect on human beings. And we've got a political campaign coming on, too.

'The REST Of the Record'

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
 Governor of Texas

This week has been designated by official proclamation as Natural Resources Week in Texas.

Thousands of school children, civic club members, and other public spirited citizens, are studying the possibilities for industrial development in this State as well as the immense importance of such development to the continued progress of Texas. Industrialists, business leaders, bankers, and capitalists are cooperating to insure the fullest realization of the importance of this week.

Thinking Texans for many years have realized the need for developing the unlimited natural resources of our rich empire to supplement the wealth obtained from our basic resources or agriculture and livestock. The wisdom of such a plan has become more apparent as world-wide competition has restricted the markets and sales of the elementary products from the Texas farms and ranches.

Obviously a systematic and scientific expansion of these latent resources is necessary before the realization of a well balanced economic program between agriculture and industry can be attained. The result will be a more abundant life for the people of Texas.

Working toward that attainment are two agencies: Texas Institute of Natural Resources and Industrial Development, located in Dallas, and the Texas Planning Board, an official arm of the State Government. The Institute during Natural Resources Week will display more than 100 potential resources capable of development. In addition there will be addresses by informed, prominent citizens whose knowledge of Texas resources and their grasp at the problems to be solved should insure the best presentation of Texas' industrial future available.

It is hoped that this week will emphasize to the people of Texas the need for continued interest and thought on this subject so vital to the future progress of our State. It is fortunate that for three years Texas has had the unprecedented benefit of favorable publicity which began before our Centennial Year, and extended through the Pan-American Year, and is continuing into 1938.

The rays of the nation's publicity spotlight has played upon Texas during these years, outlining in bold and favorable relief not only the progress we already have achieved, but the tremendous latent wealth of our resources upon whose proper development depends our future. By every possible medium—the press, radio, newsreels, magazines, billboards—Texas has been presented to the nation.

As a result thousands of tourists—both winter and summer—have filled our resort cities.

Citizens of State Urged to Register Births and Deaths

Austin, Texas, March 16—If unexpectedly faced with the necessity of legally establishing the date of their birth, their age, their American citizenship, thousands of Texans would not know whether or not their births were registered with the proper authorities. Great embarrassment, inconvenience, or even serious loss of property could conceivably result from either an absence of registration or an error made in filing it with the State.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, cited an unnamed but prominent Texas citizen who upon investigation found that his son had been registered for more than 20 years as an illegitimate. Another instance the health official related concerned a veteran of the World War who, after rearing a family of three children, found that he had been registered at birth as a girl child. The experience of workers with vital statistics are rich with stories of persons vainly seeking to establish their rights to property because of neglect of their parents or attending physicians to register them properly at time of birth.

The law requires the births of all Texas babies be registered with the local registrar, who is the Justice of the Peace in rural areas, and City Secretary in incorporated towns, within five days after the blessed event takes place, and forms are furnished physicians and midwives for this purpose. A copy of permanent filing. These records the registration is returned for are "vital" not only to the individual from a legal standpoint, Doctor Cox said, but to the State as well. "We must know how many babies are born, how many die and from what causes mortality occurs if we are to accomplish the best results from a public health standpoint. Such a program obviously needs the interested support of every Texan. Our Bureau of Vital Statistics is only too glad to cooperate in 'getting the record straight.'"

We can build cars capable of doing everything but think—but good driving brains can't be made a part of the bill of sale.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—While the political pot simmered in Texas this week, in preparation for a grand boiling over about April, cheerful economic news featured the week, as reports from various reliable indices showed the Lone Star state to be one of the brightest spots on the business map of the nation.

Comptroller George Sheppard released an analysis of tax and revenue collections of the State showing that during the first six months of the current fiscal year, ended February 28th, state revenue totaled $102,855,636—an indicated gain of about $15,000,000 for the full year, over last year. The increase was attributed by the Comptroller to better collections and, in part, to increased rates. Better tax collections are an invariable guide to better business conditions, and Texas has gained steadily in the percentage of taxes collected for five consecutive years.

Auditor Urges Reform
 But efficiency in the spending of the $200,000,000 a year of State income can never be achieved under the present hodge-podge taxation system, State Auditor Tom King declared, in issuing an analysis of fiscal operations of the State. He urged reforms which have been pointed out in this column frequently as essentials to efficient and economical government, including a decent system of auditing the State's business, the abolition of more than 100 special funds and putting of the State's revenue into a general fund, to be spent only on specific authority of the Legislature, and a comprehensive post-audit of such expenditures to insure that the revenue has been spent as the law-makers direct.

He also urged creation of a budget-making authority, and some sort of civil service authority to pass on efficiency and qualifications of state employees, eliminating political selection. He voiced this significant warning:

"Fiscal control comes through effective budgeting; and in my opinion unless action is taken to set up such control in Texas in the very near future, increased taxation may be expected that could be avoided by such action without impairing the government service." King's breakdown showed the three largest items of 1937 State expenditure as follows: Spent on highway $43,972,071; schools, $33,594,075; old age pensions, $18,673,213.

Another Prosperity Item
 Still another indication of better business in Texas came from figures supplied by W. A. Thomas, the genial Federal Collector of Internal Revenue for the northern Texas district. He reported approximately $1,000,000 more in income taxes paid this year than at the same time last year, with about 10 per cent more individual income taxes paid this year than last year at the same time.

Insurance Merger
 Consolidation of two strong Texas legal reserve life insurance companies, through purchase of control of the Southland Life Insurance Company by the Gulf States Life Insurance Company, both of Dallas, this week gives the thriving Texas life insurance industry another top-ranking institution, with a widespread representation of financial power on its board. Headed by John W. Carpenter, power magnate, as chairman of the board, and A. Morgan Duke as president, the new company, known as Southland Life Insurance Company, will retain Harry Seay and Clarence Linz, former executives of Southland, as officers of the new concern. Likewise will remain Col. W. E. (Bill) Talbot, long an advocate of industrial development in Texas, as agency director, and gratifying indeed, to Texas newspaper publishers, is appointment of Lorry A. Jacobs, for 10 years with the old Southland Life, as director of public relations for the new company. Jacobs is a pioneer advocate of newspaper advertising for the sale of life insurance, and he has consistently used newspaper space in both dailies and weeklies throughout Texas. It is believed the new company will continue this policy under his direction of this department, as the Gulf States also has been a liberal user of newspaper advertising space.

Legislation Makes Safer Protection

Texas Legislation has provided supervision that makes Life Insurance safer for the people.

The three ways that insurance companies may operate follow:

- (1) Under laws governing Legal Reserve Insurance Companies, whose rates and methods of operation are defined.
- (2) State Wide Mutual Laws, give permission to operate over the entire State.
- (3) Local Mutual Aid laws, permit business to be written only within a limited territory.

WE PREFER LOCAL MUTUAL AID LAWS, they confine us to smaller territories where we have many chances to get accurate information before issuing policies.

PERSONAL ACQUAINTANCE AND FRIENDSHIP prompt statements that are truthful, so that statements made on Death Certificates will not conflict in settlement of claims. We like to know personally the people with whom we deal, and this can be done only in a limited territory.

WE FEEL THAT IF WE CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS honestly, that we can secure sufficient business within this given territory. If we have to leave our nearby territory to get business, YOU COULD WONDER WHY.

THERE IS ALWAYS GREATER PERSONAL interest in our friends, than in those whom we have never seen or never expect to see. We investigate carefully before we issue policies, rather than take your money and hunt reasons to keep from paying, or to make a compromise settlement through conflicting information, that might be obtained after death.

OUR RATES ARE APPROVED by the State as being adequate, yet they do not carry as heavy "loading expense" as many others.

• We are in business for your protection and you will not regret business relations with us.

Freshman Report

The Home Economics I girls have been cooking breakfast for the last three days. We are divided into groups. Each group decides on its menu and then does the marketing. Each group is to represent a family.

In Math I we are studying "bonds." Most of our mathematicians agree that it is extremely difficult.

Mrs. Webb's English class is studying the fifteen uses for commas. These rules will enable us to have better sentence structures. We are all striving to learn them; for if we do not write them correctly the first time, we have to stay until we do get them written correctly.

Sophomore News

The Home Economics girls finished their dresses in time to take a big breath of the sandy air that was blowing Monday afternoon. Everyone was glad to be able to have her dress completed in time. We are all eager to model our dresses in the style show Tuesday afternoon and at P.T.A. Wednesday. Every girl has tried to do her best on her dress, and we believe that we have done very nice work on them. We are looking forward to making a child's dress.

Junior Class News

The English III classes are enlarging their vocabularies at this time. They are also studying the origin and derivation of a number of the words. This study of words has proved very interesting as well as educational.

At last the Home Making III girls have finished their dresses. The dresses which were judged March 15 were very attractive, and all the girls are proud of them.

It seems that there isn't much happening at M.H.S. now. Everyone is studying and sleeping. Most of the Juniors have a bad case of spring fever, or are they just lazy?

Senior News

At the Senior class meeting this week, the Seniors decided that their gift to the school would be a nice tennis court. Mr. Hardegrebe has already started supervising the work to begin the court. We feel that this gift will be appreciated and remembered long after the Seniors have become Presidents, Governors, and millionaires.

Mattie Marie Isbell

Mattie Marie was born in Munday on September 19, 1920. In 1934 she lived five months in Abilene, and returned the next fall. Mattie Marie was in the Junior play last year and the Senior play this year. Mattie plans to attend business school in Abilene next year and study to be a stenographer.

Burl Meers
Burl was born at Hood on April 27, 1921. He moved to Munday in 1932 and has lived here ever since. Last week in the Haskell invitation tournament, Burl won second place as high point man. He also won several first places in the various track events. This was Burl's sixth year in track including the years he ran in grammar school. It was his fourth year in basketball. Burl has also played on the Mogul football team three years. Last year he represented Munday at the regional meet in track. Of course everyone saw Burl as the "Baron" in the senior play and also in the county meet one-act play last year. Favorite pastime is writing poetry about how crazy the Senior girls are. One would never suspect that he personally prefers freshmen girls!

THE SENIOR BOYS OF '38
by James Carden

Joe Isbell is the first boy on my poem, you know; And for some reason they call him Jo-Jo.

He's Munday's halfback who looked fine when he crossed the chalk. He's tall, with black hair, and a baby talk.

His talk sounds funny, but I guess it's the real McCoy— Anyway he's the seniors' one only only blue-eyed boy.

From whose dog did Jo-Jo get the name, I ask you? Well, if you can't answer, it I'll tell you who.

Not meaning to change the subject, but mentioning the word 'who,'

What boys do we think of when we say "who's who?" To most of us this is merely a question; We know him by name as Chelo of Perfection.

Joe's a sturdy lad of handsome face; As a Mogul guard he was surely an ace.

The boy's name who played ball for Munday High Is a name all the girls breathe with a sigh.

He's a tall dark, and handsome lad with flashing brown eyes; With a brain and brawn that football coaches say are gifts from the skies.

Some call him De Troy, Trammell, Goon, or Sea Hag, but most girls call him Goonie;

Any of these names fit him as you can see.

Charles Haynie, as an athlete I'd say he's not bad. He's a tall, dark and handsome lad. As a basketball player, I'd say he's first rate;

And in 37 in high jumping, Charlie went to State. Asy any teacher; they'll tell you Charles is dumb, But his parents think he is bright, because they call him 'son.'

The president of our Class, whom we call Thomas, Is a boy whom the teachers look on with disgust. He just ain't what he used to be—everyone says, And he seems to get worse from day to day.

The Phillips boy, whom we know as John Levell, Is a football guard we all know well.

He is an intelligent boy, and good work he can recite, He prefers them of the dizzy, blonde type.

Now Harvey Reid is a Senior with a highly-developed brain. And you will think in the future he will raise cotton and cane.

Just how good he'll be is out of the question.

Dewey Laney is mart, but he is small. According to his size, he is the best of all.

Travis Hunter is a quiet boy with cotton hair; Look among the failures of the class, and he will be there.

Judson Giddings is the cattleman's son. If you don't know how to do it, just ask him how it's done.

If you girls marry one of these lads, you may... you can't tell—I want you to treat them right and treat them well, For the four years I have been with them we have sure been through....

MEDITATION

The Value of an Extensive Vocabulary

Every person of ambition seeks to acquire culture and refinement. The amount that he acquires will place him in his social life with those of his standing and learning. These two elements, necessary for the average modern person, are backed by the use of his speech. If you have helpful advice or ideas, wouldn't you want others to share them with you? Your ability to express yourself determines the spread of your influence and helpfulness.

The development of this generation determines whether the next generation will advance at a slow or at a fast pace. Without the valuable use of an extensive vocabulary we cannot fully give our "whole" knowledge. The more we observe, learn, and progress, the more we appreciate our ability to talk and express ourselves.

Did a lonely Crusoe once live on Howland Island, near which Amelia Earhart was lost at sea? Traces of a footpath were found there, together with a human skeleton, parts of a canoe, and one blue bead!

THINK IT OVER— It is generally the fellow who likes the most people who does the most good.

Too often the messenger is blamed for the message he delivers. We cannot expect to have good citizenship unless we have good homes for all our citizens.

The simple life may not be a full life, but it is full of happiness. People often learn more by failure than by success. What they usually learn is to try again, or to try some other method of achieving the desired end.

DID YOU KNOW— The Greek Church still uses the Julian calendar?

Lice are carriers of the dreaded disease, typhus?

A sheep ranch in Australia is a self-contained community, with a post office, telegraph station, and power plant? The gardeners among the Aztecs were accustomed to open a vein and let a few drops of their blood in the hole in planting a tree? Lyre birds inhabit thick forests and fern gullies in Southeastern Australia?

Windsor Castle, from which the Duke of Windsor got his name, has been the home of English kings since the Norman conquest in the eleventh century?

DEFINITIONS— Spring fever—Something that gets under your skin... and crawls. Tailspin—the last word in aviation.

Gentleman—a fellow who steps on his cigarette, so it won't burn the carpet.

Even the poor inner tube can look flat and hollow chested from income taxes in March.

Oklahoma Man Sentenced On Forgery Here

Edgar Sanders, Stillwater, Oklahoma man, was given three two-year sentences last week in district court presided over by Judge Issac O. Newton of Seymour, on three forgery charges.

Sanders was brought back from Oklahoma by Under-Sheriff Orville Capehart to face the forgery charges.

The three checks were given against R. E. Foshee, Knox City farmer, last fall by Sanders, who had been working on the Foshee farm.

Jim Marek, Emil Marek and Leonard Cerveny were in Wichita Falls last Saturday visiting friends.

Lent offers an opportunity for housewives to change their whole system of menus—different dishes that you wouldn't ordinarily think of—appetizing, economical foods that are a welcome change from usual meals. Fine, you say—but what sort of suggestions can you offer. Our answer is—come in and walk up and down the aisles. You'll see dozens and dozens of Lenten suggestions... and all at prices that will appeal to your sense of what's a bargain.

New life, new hopes, new songs to sing
Old grief forgot . . . for here is Spring

Was that a robin that I saw, his head cocked to one side, listening while beneath the ground life is stirring? A sprig of dried grass clinging to a feather wafts down from the eaves where the earliest home builders are busy plying their trade. There isn't even any quarreling over whether the house will front the east or have a southern exposure, just so it is snuggled under the sheltering eaves free of the worry of cats. The earth teems with activities. A fine green carpet spreads where last year's larkspur flaunted gay blossoms. Spring is coming over the fields like a happy maiden, for this year she can bring real promises to the prairies.

Not in twenty years has the earth been so filled with moisture. So gently fell the rains and then the snow which followed, making a perfect season. The dust storms of the past seven years have been supplanted by a slow life-giving drizzle and the prairies smile in anticipation. Here and there along the little creeks a bold redbud, like a wayward daughter, flaunts her shawl of flame before it is really time for her coming-out party. An ear which has become attuned to the symphony of the prairies can hear the rolling rhythm of new life awakening from a hundred different children of nature. It is a cycle of song which will be a paean of hope for those who have suffered drought and hardship for the past seven years. Seven is the perfect number, a number spoken of so often in the Bible as a symbol. May it prove a symbol of happiness and content.

So Wallie is the queen of style
She preens in lovely clothes

That, everybody knows)
But if she did, I'll betcha
She'd wear plain British tan
And hand-me-downs from dress shops
For Edward's just a man.

The floors of the school have been oiled the past week end. This really has made the floors look more attractive in addition to making them more sanitary.

Pictures of our school and its equipment were taken last Tuesday. Slides will be made of them and preserved in the county superintendent's office for display and posterity.

Here is a little poem that was published in a recent monthly magazine. The author is unknown.

Bashful
Because I was so bashful once
When I was very young,
They used to tease me, and they'd say
"The cat has got her tongue."

I think, since I am growing up,
The way some people sound
It's just too bad there aren't enough
Of cats to go around.

Here is another we found to be very clever:

Don't Worry
Don't worry if your job is small
And your rewards are few;
Remember that the mighty oak
Was once a nut like you.

Senior Report!

We hope the pictures that were taken of our school and the pupils will develop in good ones. Spring is in the air, but not any of the Seniors have caught Spring Fever up to this date. Because examinations are just around the corner, we are compelled to study very hard.

Junior Report!

The juniors came back to school Monday feeling fine and very happy. They think they have solved the rules of living. They realize it is a pleasure to make others happy, but by so doing it they know they must keep a smile on their faces and not grumble about all things but be satisfied and smile. Here is a verse they have discovered and are hoping the readers will profit by it in the future:

A little more kindness,
A little less greed;
A little more giving,
A little less greed.
A little more smile
A little less frown
A little less kicking
A man when he's down.

A little more "we"
A little less "I"
A little more laugh,
A little less cry;
A little more flowers
On the pathway of life
And fewer on graves
At the end of the strife.

So the Juniors say Let's Smile, for smiles are like sunshine on cloudy days, they bring you gladness and drive your blues away.

Two junior girls were unbelievably sleepy Monday morning, although they were very happy, but somebody told us that all Fords get tired of running too far in one day.

Sophomore Report!

Our Science Club meeting has been postponed for the last two weeks. We hope we will be able to have an interesting meeting next week.

It seems that some of the Sophomores like to write biographies. They have written several biographies in the last two weeks.

Here is a bit of philosophy from Dorothy:

A little nonsense now and then,
Is relished by the best of men.
This is what Bernice said after our mathematics examinations:
Hope tells a flattering tale,
Delusive, vain and hollow
Ah, let not hope prevail,
Lest disappointment follow!

We feel that we are deriving some benefits from the study of the human body. We know how we "work".
If the Sophomores don't become great writers some day, our efforts will be wasted. We even wrote an essay in history this week.

Freshman Report!

In history we are writing summaries on some of the important men, and we hope Miss Ruddy will be pleased with them.

Miss Walsh is having a hard time explaining to us the difference between the transitive verb in active voice and the transitive verb in passive voice, but maybe by and by we will understand.

We wonder what is wrong with the fine freshman boys, because it seems as though they are in mischief all the time. But boys will be boys and girls will be girls at any time. Although the girls think they are behaving better than the boys, they are mischievous once in a while, too.

Although they did not win, the volley ball team enjoyed playing with the Munday girls.

Some of the students have been writing biographies of their best classmates and many questions have been going around. Yes, even some that cannot be answered.

Albert, tired of talking across the room to Prentice, because Miss Walsh could hear what he was saying, thought he would be smart and write notes to him. He nearly had his little book filled, when something dreadful happened. Just as he was going to pass the book to Prentice, what do you think happened? I won't give you time because I am going to tell you. Well, Miss Walsh said, "Albert, bring that book here." Albert GALT—Rhineland school — blushed and did so. We wonder what Miss Walsh found in it.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

We are all studying hard and trying to make the most of school. The sixth grade is reading a very interesting story, "Silver Chief, Dog of the North".
The sixth grade boys of Rhineland Public School played the boys of the parochial school. We beat them by three scores. The final scoring was twenty-two to nineteen. Since it was quite a bit of fun we would like for the boys to come again.

The floor has been oiled, and it seems that some of us can't walk without falling down. When "Big Joe" fell we wondered if there was another crack in the floor.

We missed Lillie Belle who has been absent nearly a week! We hope she will be back soon.

We planned to have an Easter egg hunt and some of the boys wanted spider eggs. Boys, bring your microscopes to find them.

Did you ever think of getting a report card was a current event? One day I went for a walk. I saw midnight in broad daylight. What was it? Answer at end of the column.

Heard in geography class that four countries were involved in a struggle. Here is how, Austria got Hungary, killed Turkey, and tried it in Greece.
Answer to riddle: A donkey named Midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Mauldin, former residents of this city, together with their daughter, Ellen Frances, visited relatives and friends here last week end.

OBITUARY

(Submitted by Friends)

Samuel Jasper Thompson, better known to his friends as "Uncle Jep," was born near Troup, Smith County, Texas, October 16, 1846. He died of heart failure on the streets of Munday Thursday morning, March 10, 1938, being 91 years, 4 months and 25 days old. Uncle Jep was the third child of a family of eight children, however, he is survived by only one brother, T. J. Thompson of this city, with whom he had always made his home. He had never married. He became a member of the Thorp Methodist Church in 1909, being 62 years of age at the time.

Uncle Jep came to the Thorp community from Clay county in 1901. At that time Munday consisted of one or two small stores, all of the building material and supplies had to be hauled from Seymour and Stamford. For many years he owned extensive farm properties, but during the past decade he invested heavily in business and residential properties in Munday.

The first time Uncle Jep voted, he went sixteen miles to Jacksonville, Texas, where he marched to the polling place between files of negro soldiers who jeered and playfully thrust their bayoneted rifles at the voters. The voters were first required to pay twenty-five cents to register, then they were required to pay twenty-five cents to vote. This was not a secret ballot. This was during the period of reconstruction, and a short time afterwards he saw 19 men hanged from one tree in Cooke county, near Gainesville.

Uncle Jep was not old enough for active service during the Civil War but he was conscripted as a "shin-plaster," that is, he was detailed to guard Yankee prisoners.

Uncle Jep was a brilliant conversationalist on both historical and current questions, being an avid student of history and politics. He retained his great mental capacity until the very end.

New Farm Bill Has Many Wheat Plan Features

College Station—The new AAA Farm Bill passed by Congress will offer wheat farmers a well-rounded wheat program including acreage allotments, agricultural conservation payments, wheat loans, crop insurance, and marketing quotas if supplies are so large that quotas are necessary according to Geo. Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

The following brief summary of how these provisions in the new farm bill will operate for wheat farmers is given by Slaughter.

The Act provides for acreage allotments to wheat farmers each year and will produce enough wheat for domestic consumption and exports and provide a substantial surplus for reserve. The Act will aim to provide a supply each year of around 900 million bushels. Wheat allotments will be made for 1938, but only for the purpose of computing AAA payments to farmers. The Act provides that compliance for 1938 shall be checked against the general soil-depleting goal for each farm. The first acreage allotments which will apply fully will be those for 1939.

Payments to farmers will be made under the provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program. The Act also provides for parity payments to farmers, but only if specific additional funds are made available for this purpose.

The Act provides that wheat loans are to be made to farmers in any year in which the farm

The following citizens were in Haskell Thursday: Messrs. I. N. Furrh, Dud Boone, S. L. Coggins, and H. Weiner.

Mesdames J. W. Medley and Edd Hester were visiting in Seymour Friday.

Mr. Ben Bruton made a business trip to Wise county this week.

Mr. Exa Lightfoot of Boice, Iowa, was in Weinert Tuesday looking after his farming interests. He was accompanied by his nephew, Mr. Lightfoot of Grandview, Texas. He was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Huckabee of Haskell while in this county. Mr. Lightfoot is a mine owner of Boice, Iowa, and has visited here before. His farm is located east of Weinert and is one of the best in the county and has five tenants on it, as follows: Messrs. Ben Bruton, Bill Grimsley, R. L. Newberry, Hallmark and J. B. Scott. Mr. Lightfoot appreciates his Haskell county farm very much.

Crop Conditions Unusually Good

Crop conditions in the Weinert trade territory are far better than usual at this time of the year as we rarely ever have February rains. We have had over six inches of rain since January. Wheat should produce heavier than at any time in the history of the county farmers say. The grain has started jointing and the danger of a freeze has about passed. Season in the ground is deep and the feed and cotton prospects are about normal.

SLAUGHTER EXPLAINS PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS OF NEW FARM ACT TO BE VOTED ON BY THE FARMERS

Act Will Strengthen the Conservation Program

College Station—The new farm act continues and strengthens the provisions of the Agricultural Conservation Program of the past two years, and at the same time provides a means of controlling the production of cotton and other major crops, according to Geo. Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

Control of cotton and other major crops is provided by marketing quotas, which in the case of cotton, will apply to the 1938 crop unless rejected by more than one-third of the cotton producers voting in the March 12 referendum. If the cotton-marketing quota is rejected, the conservation feature will still be in effect.

Cotton loans at the rate of 52 to 75 per cent of the parity prices are provided by the act, but will not be offered if the quota is rejected.

If the quota is accepted, each cotton farm will be allotted a cotton acreage from the county acreage quota. A producer's marketing quota will be the actual production of his allotted acres or the normal production of his allotted acreage, whichever is lighter.

This means, Slaughter says, that a farmer who does not exceed his acreage allotment may sell without penalty all the cotton he produces, regardless of the amount.

Sales in excess of marketing quotas when the producer has knowingly planted more than his acreage allotment will be taxed two cents a pound, with the buyer collecting the tax.

"A farmer who does not cooperate with the program if market quotas are approved will lose all agricultural conservation payments, his cotton price adjustment payment, payment to be made on the 1937 crop, and the chance to obtain a full loan on the marketing

● Here it is — a sturdy little 1-2 plow tractor for the small, diversified farm . . . or as additional power for farms with larger tractors.

You should see it pull a 2-row cultivator at 4 1/2 miles per hour — or one 16" plow bottom or two 12" bottoms in high gear at reduced engine speed . . . or do a variety of belt jobs at a belt speed of 2600 feet per minute!

Like the larger Case tractors, it has a hand clutch for easy-hitching . . . swinging drawbar and easy steering . . . fast speeds . . . easy belting . . . center-drive power take-off . . . differential brakes for pivoting on one wheel . . . light weight, yet good traction. This little Case "RC" tractor is so handy, so adaptable it's a regular "hired man." See it the next time you're in town.

SUNSET SENIORS ON PARADE!

Askelon Stogner

Askelon John Stogner was born in the Sunset community May 17, 1919. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stogner. Askelon began his school career at Gillespie, and he went there until 1929, when he moved with his parents to Big Spring. The year following, Askelon came back here and has remained in this community since. While in grammar school Askelon played two years on both the junior baseball team and basketball team. While he was in high school he has been a member of the Sunset basketball team all four years and has lettered three years. As a freshman, Askelon ran the 440 yard dash and placed in the county meet. When he was a sophomore, he ran the mile and took off second class honors. The third year, he kept his old determination to keep climbing, and won first place in the mile race. Askelon was elected captain of the Sunset Eagles this year, and has shown his ability as a very good leader. We are expecting him to go far in his college career.

Favorite sport—Basketball
Favorite color—Chestnut
Favorite song—I See Your Face Before Me

Favorite subject—Civics
Favorite hobby—Eating cherries that make his lips red (or is it lipstick?)

Askelon expects to go to the University of Texas next year.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Last night the Freshman Class attended a birthday party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Simmons, given in honor of their daughter Edith's sixteenth birthday. They played a number of games (No. 14 and No. 16 seemed very popular) and later were served with cake and punch that was very delicious. Everyone had a very nice time and are looking forward to their next party.

I want to take this space to thank everyone for the many gifts that I received at my party, and I hope everyone had a pleasant evening.

SUNSET JUNIORS TO PRESENT PLAY

The Juniors have really been working this week on their play, "Cheerio, My Deario." It will be given Friday night, March 18, at 7:45 o'clock. Mrs. Underwood and the Music Class of the Sunset School are preparing the between act specials. The admission will be 10c, 15c and 25c. Everyone is invited to attend. The Junior Classes of the following schools are invited to attend the play and reception after the play: Munday, Knox City, Benjamin, O'Brien, Rule, and Goree. You may think that you have seen good plays, but if you see the Sunset Junior play, "Cheerio, My Deario," next Friday night you will decide that this is the one grand play that you have seen.

The Junior class of Sunset wishes to take this opportunity of thanking the Juniors of Knox City for the splendid reception which they gave last Friday night, and also of complimenting the class and sponsor for the very clever and entertaining play which they gave.

Home Ec Report

The work of the Home Economics classes is coming along nicely. The garments that the girls have been making are almost complete. They have been making buttonholes this week and they are beginning to realize that this is no easy task. The garments must be finished and turned in by Friday.

Sometime next week the girls are going to have a parade and wear the garment that they have made.

Last week was examination week and the girls are proud of the SICKNESS takes a Holiday!

Their Health is Protected by Electric Refrigeration

IN THE PICTURES

Snoozing peacefully are these youngsters, undisturbed by the electric refrigerator which protects their liquids. One yawns, another blinks big, blue eyes as Nurse Vera Smith makes a routine inspection. Below: Miss Smith stands at the Frigidaire, whose silent operation is essential; in foreground beyond the baby cribs is the hospital's new "incubator."

Hospital Obstetrics Supervisor Says: "It's Safest"

Economy in operation and safety from food spoilage are as important in your home as in any hospital! Therefore, it seems amazingly significant that most all hospitals, including Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene (see photos), depend largely on Electric Refrigeration for these two necessary performances. Miss Vera Smith, obstetrics supervisor, says: "We now have eight Frigidaires in use, one of which is in the maternity ward. I know of no better method than electric refrigeration as a means of providing one of many safeguards for the health of these babies." So when buying a refrigerator, please bear in mind that responsible persons, qualified to exert expert choice, everywhere are choosing Electric Refrigeration. Especially is this true in West Texas, where torrid summer heat makes it impossible for other types to maintain 40- to 45-degree temperatures—necessary for complete food protection. Electric service for refrigeration costs as little as 2 1/2 cents a day!

WEINERT SCHOOL TO HAVE A GRID TEAM NEXT FALL

Will Enter the Class C Conference For First Time

Weinert high school will for the first time in history of the school have a football team next fall, Superintendent I. J. Duff announced this week.

Twenty-two complete uniforms were ordered and last week arrived Duff stated, and the boys who will compete for team berths will probably have a spring practice period.

The Bulldogs will be entered in the Class C district of which Munday was a member last year, and will have for loop opponents, Mattson, Rule, Rochester, Luaders, Aspermont and possibly Knox City.

W. D. Henson, present athletic mentor of the Bulldogs will coach the team next fall and during the spring training sessions, should the school have the spring sessions.

It is rumored that Knox City will attempt to revive the pigskin sport next fall, however, nothing definite of having a Grayhound football eleven has been given out by Supt. Whittis.

MOGUL CINDER STAR PRAISED BY FRANCIS

The following story is clipped from the sports page of the Abilene Reporter-News, in the last Sunday issue. The item was written by Bruce Francis, Reporter-News staff writer, after Burl Meers, Mogul athlete, had burned up the cinders at the Haskell Invitation track and field meet.

One of the best track and field prospects seen at the Haskell invitation meet was Burl Meers, husky Munday lad. He took top honors in the 880 and broad jump, finished fourth in the 100 and ran the anchor lap for Munday's winning relay team. The youngster displayed excellent form in the half and quarter mile laps he ran. He may or may not have played football but any boy with Meers' natural ability should develop into a fair pigskin lugger. As for college prospects, there were plenty at the Haskell meet and most any coach could do less profitable things than be among those present at such gatherings of athletic talent.

Faces Assault Charge

LOWELL TACKETT WILL FACE RAPE CHARGES MONDAY

Special Venire Of 90 Men is Summoned For Trial

MOB VIOLENCE THREAT QUELLED

Held in County Jail With Bond Set at $5,000

Lowell Tackett, 23, Hamlin, Texas youth will face trial for the rape of Miss Ollie Mae Cook, attractive 16 year old Knox City girl, in district court at Benjamin Monday, March 21, before District Judge Isaac O. Newton.

Tackett had been employed in Knox City for a short time and Thursday night, March 3, committed the act after a desperate struggle by the victim a few miles north of Knox City on the Benjamin highway.

Tackett was arrested at Hamlin the following night and returned to Knox county where he was placed in the county jail. He had not made bond which was set at $5,000.

For a time feeling ran high among citizens of Knox City, but mob violence danger was allayed during the following day. The girl was treated for bruises, cuts and an injured arm at the Knox County Hospital and was suffering from shock, it was reported.

A special venire of 90 men had been summoned during the past week end for the trial.

Cotton Marketing--

ment. No farm may have an allotment greater than its planted and diverted cotton acreage in any of the past three years.

The 1938 marketing quota of an individual farm will be the larger of the actual or normal amount of cotton produced on that farm's acreage allotment, plus any cotton carried over by the farm from the 1937 crop. In other words, the farmer may sell, without restriction, all the cotton he can produce on his allotted acreage. On all cotton sold from the farm in excess of its marketing quota a penalty of 2 cents a pound must be paid. This means that if the farmer overplants, the cotton sold in excess of the actual or normal production of the allotted acres will be subject to the 2-cent penalty. The penalty does not apply to cotton on farms where the total production is less than the 1,000 lint pounds.

Furthermore, if a farmer overplants he will lose his 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program payment and the Cotton Price Adjustment payment to which he might be entitled on his 1937 cotton, and will be eligible for a cotton loan on only that part of his cotton produced in excess of his quota and at a rate 40 per cent lower than the loan rate provided for cooperators.

For cooperators, cotton loans are authorized at a rate to be fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture between 52 and 75 per cent of parity. The parity price of cotton at present is approximately 16 cents.

The provisions of the Act do not apply to long staple cotton, 1 1/2 inches or longer.

The Act extends the maturity of the 1937 cotton loans from July 1, 1938 to July 1, 1939.

MUNDAY, TEXAS, TROOP

Cecil Cooper, Scoutmaster
Robert Greene, Assistant
Henry Dingus, Reporter
Meeting Place—Legion Hut

Twenty-seven Scouts and the two Scout leaders met Monday afternoon at five o'clock and started on an overnight hike to the Brazos river. When we got there we divided up into groups of two, three or four and built our fires. As a part of our Scout tests, we had to build a fire without more than two matches, and on this fire we had to cook a quarter of a pound of meat and two potatoes without any utensils. Although this was a fairly difficult feat, we all accomplished it. After dark, while all the fires were burning and the meat and potatoes were cooking, the Scout Committee and two or three others came out to visit us.

After we had eaten our supper, we all gathered around the council fire, played games and sang; then we went to sleep. (Pardon me, did I say Sleep, I meant bed.)

All of the scouts who went to the river were ranked as tenderfoot Scouts except one who was a second-class. There will be a Court of Honor in Seymour on the last Thursday of this month. In order that as many boys may pass their tests and prepare to receive promotion, the Scout committeemen will be present at our next Scout meeting and give us tests on first aid, safety rules, etc. All Scouts are urged to attend.

Scouts who made trip were: Kenneth Spelce, Grady Beck, Jr., Howard Payne Shannon, Hugh Longino, Dick Harrell, Harold Longino, David Eliand, Charles Baker, Lamoine Blacklock, Winston Blacklock, Jack Pippin, Clifford Pippin, J. E. Reeves, Jr., Willard Reeves, C. J. Howeth, Harvey Reid, Frankie Boone, Dewey Laney, Sargent Lowe, D. P. Morgan, Bobbie Reese, Mac Haymes, Dan Billingsley, Joe Dean Clough, Lynn D. Rayburn, Jimmie Lee Haney, Henry C. Dingus.

All Scouts who wish to receive badges at the next Court of Honor are especially urged to come to the next meeting prepared to pass their tests.

Benjamin Juniors Will Present Play This Friday Night

Murdered Alive, a mystery comedy in three acts by Wilbur Branun, will be presented by the members of the senior class of the Benjamin high school in the high school auditorium, Friday, March 18, at 8:00 p.m.

The suspense of this bright mystery comedy is so contrived that the audience is kept on the edge of their seats until just a few moments before the fall of the last curtain. And the denouement is the biggest laugh and surprise of the play. There is charming romance, clan, wholesome comedy, and smart dialogue, and though the mystery element dominates, there is nothing gruesome anywhere! It is a sure hit! It scores one hundred per cent audience reaction! And why shouldn't it when such talented young actors and actresses are cast in the play?

Mrs. Libby Ryder, a society matron—Aleene McCallies
Arden Ryder, her charming young daughter—Gertrude Sams
Warner Melton, in love with Arden—Floyd Nunley
Tillie Meek, a maid—Eugenia Jeffcoat
Iris Aida, who gets messages from the dead—Monelda Mitchell
Luverne Speed, from Creston Corners—Janelle Trimmier
Stella Backus, who rules the roost—Rolene Rouse
Frank Backus, here weaker half—David Kyle
Acton Chance, a correspondence school detective—Jack Qualls
Otis Marvin, a lawyer—Jesse Timberlake
Anline Ivans, charming and refined—Maxine Richards
The Mysterious Stranger, who is all that the name implies—Jerry Moorhouse

The entire action of the play takes place in the living room of Hillcrest, on the estate of Marvin Ryder at ten o'clock of a blustery March evening. Don't fail to see this thrilling solution to a murder! It's astounding!

The Senior Class and their sponsor, Miss Frances Diersing, extend to you a personal invitation and an invitation to your friends to enjoy the season's best stage hit.
