Vote on Director

AUSTIN, April 7.—Ernest O. Thompson, red-headed former "fighting mayor" of Amarillo, Texas, will fire the first big gun of the 1938 gubernatorial campaign in Waco the night of April 12.

Thompson apparently has "first" as his innermost thought—he was first to announce, officially first, announce his platform and first to officially open the governors race.

WASHINGTON—The Senate Wednesday approved an appropriation of $491,000,000 for the army, the largest appropriation since 1921. Incidentally the bill was passed by the upper house on the 21st anniversary of America's entrance into the world war.

The bills carry 1939 appropriations which amount to more than $75,000,000,000 more than the 1938 expenditure.

EL PASO—Solution of the Frome torture-murder acts, committed in the desert near Van Horn, was believed near today. A bullet taken from the brain of a suicide was being compared with those taken from the bodies of Mrs. Weston G. Frome and daughter, Nancy.

CENTER—Mrs. Lillie May Curtis, who killed six of her nine children, was given a total of 495 years imprisonment in the preliminary of her trial.

Given 99 years in each case, except one, a suspended sentence of five years for the murder of her husband three years ago was continued.

SAN ANTONIO—R. R. Davenport, local Southwestern Life Insurance agent, was honored at the annual state convention of the company by the firms president, C. F. O'Donnell.

"Rip" has written at least one application a week during the past year, to run his record for that phase to over four years. Mrs. Davenport is attending the convention with her husband.

MUNDAY—Jimmy Harpham, local manager of the West Texas Cotton Growers Association, announced today the annual meeting of that organization to be held in Abilene Tuesday, April 12.

Any farmer who has sold cotton through Harpham's office is a member, and is urged to attend. Transportation will be made available for those who desire to attend, Harpham stated.

HEAVY SNOW IS SHATTERING ALL APRIL RECORDS

Temperature Drops to 28 Degrees Here Last Night

HARD FREEZE IS SLATED TONIGHT

All of Mid-West Now Snowbound; Dust Blankets Area

Heavy snows driven by a hard wind have blanketed this area as well as the great mid-west plains to break all previous records for wintry blasts in April. The cold wave came in on the heels of a severe dust storm that swirled in all sections of the state Wednesday night.

The snow started falling here soon after midnight last night and have continued throughout the day here. Wheat was endangered for this area, due to the early advanced stage brought about by warm weather in January and February. Heavy rains and early spring weather has sent grain prospects for this area soaring to the highest estimated yield for this period in years, farmers say.

It was believed that the grain had not been damaged but very little by the first light freeze and the snow, but fear was held for the predicted harder freeze for tonight in this area. Cattle warnings had been issued early Wednesday for the cold wave, and it was thought that little damage would result to catlemen of this sector.

Temperature in Munday dropped to 28 degrees Wednesday night, and were expected to go lower tonight (Thursday).

MRS. M'FARLANE DIED WEDNESDAY

To Hold Burial Service At Graham Sunday

Mrs. William D. McFarlane, 38, wife of Representative McFarlane of Graham Texas, died unexpectedly in Washington, D.C., shortly after bidding her husband goodbye as he left their home for the capitol.

Attending physicians, who said death was due to a heart attack, said Mrs. McFarlane had been in ill health recently, but they had been unable to determine exact nature of her illness.

A telegram from Congressman W. D. McFarlane of his father, Judge R. F. McFarlane of Graham, Wednesday night said that the body of Mrs. McFarlane will be forwarded from Washington Thursday night and will arrive in Graham Saturday.

Burial will be Sunday in the Graham cemetery. The hour for services had not been set but Judge McFarlane said he expected they will be held at 2 o'clock from the First Methodist church, of which Mrs. McFarlane was a member.

Jr., 10; Betty Ann, 6; Barbara Frances, 5; and Robert Carl, less than a year old; her parents, Judge and Mrs. Carl of Edinburg, Texas; a sister, Mrs. Carl Gilmeister of San Antonio, Texas; and a brother, Grady Carl of Edinburg.

ALLEN NO. 1 LOG INDICATES WELL

Drilling In a Rock Formation

Interest in the southeastern Knox County oil play was centered around the Emma Allen No. 1 Sponts and Lucas, which was nearing the sand sought by the test.

At present the well is drilling in hard rock and was making very little hole, drillers stated.

The test has passed up four gas sands and one oil sand and is now drilling past 1,200 feet. The gas sands were picked up at 460-463, 670-672, 925-929 and 1150-1155. The gas picked up at 925-929 was the largest was estimated by drillers to be over 1,000,000 cubic feet, and nearly cleaned out the hole twice, but was kept under control.

The oil show was picked up at 912-914 feet in a gray shale and was believed would have made a three to four barrel well. The well is located sixteen miles southeast of Munday.

DANGER— LAWMAKERS AT WORK

Bismark, N.D.—You had better stop and think before you go to sleep in the State of North Dakota, for you can be arrested for it.

The 1929 Legislature approved a law on hotel inspection. A slip in punctuation made it read: "No hotel, restaurant, dining room or kitchen shall be used as a sleeping or dressing room by an employee or other persons."

Eliminate the comma after the word "hotel" and the section makes some sense. However, judges say it would take a legislative amendment to get rid of that comma.

Judge Osborne was re-elected Mayor with 300 votes. Four votes were written in for Chas. Voss and one for R. B. Davy.

In the council balloting Hill and Terry were re-elected, Hill polling 282, and Terry 257. Two votes were written in for P. V. Williams who is a councilman holdover, and one for Lee Haymes.

The Chief of Police office, the only one officially to have opponents was won by Jim Isbell, who defeated Tug Nesbitt, incumbent, and Marshall Franklin, nightwatchman. Isbell polled 153 votes to 85 for Nesbitt, 67 for Franklin and one written in for Voss. Although Isbell lacked only one vote in having a majority over both opponents, necessitating a run-off, he was declared the winner of the office when Nesbitt withdrew his candidacy.

All of the newly elected city officers were sworn in at a special meeting of the city council immediately following the complete tabulation of the votes. Howard Collins, J. C. Harpham, and R. G. Campbell were judges of the city election.

PHIL AND HIS LITTLE GIRL

From the Longmont (Colo.) Times-Call

Ever so often there is written an editorial contribution, which in newspaper parlance, "goes the rounds." Nearly every editorial column for miles and miles around reprints it, and later it may be submitted to a contest committee at the school of journalism and win prizes. There is a fairly well standardized form for such writings—they must be long, they must center around a repetitious array of words, and they must have a kernel of sob stuff.

Below we print one of them, written by Phil Braniff, first appearing in a periodical called "The Insurance Field." We do not know Phil, or whether he really has a little girl, but he has written a good and wholesome piece along the standards above mentioned, and here it is:

"Dear Driver: Today my daughter, who is seven years old, started to school. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves. Her cocker spaniel whose name is Scout sat on the back porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved 'good bye' and started off to the halls of learning.

"Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her—the girl with the yellow curls—and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces. She told me about her teacher, who has eyes in the back of her head—and about the trees in the school yard—and about the girl who doesn't believe in Santa Claus.

"We talked about a lot of things—tremendously vital unimportant things—and then we studied spelling, reading and arithmetic—and then to bed. She's back there now—back in the nursery—sound asleep with 'Princess Elizabeth' (that's a doll) cuddled in her right arm. You guys wouldn't hurt her would you? You see, I'm her daddy. When the doll is broken or her finger is cut—or her head gets bumped, I can fix that—but when she starts to school—when she walks across the street—then she's in your hands.

"She's a nice kid—she can run like a deer and darts about like a chipmunk. She likes to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoons. But I can't be with her all the time—I have to work to pay for her clothes and her education. So please help me to look out for her. Please drive carefully—please drive slowly past the schools and intersections—and please remember that children run from behind parked cars.

"Please don't run over my little girl.

PHIL"

The 13 children in the family of W. O. Prince of Peoria, Ill., all have names beginning with D. They are Darrell, Delmar, Donald, Dallas, David, Dale, Delbert, Doris, Darline, Dorothy, Duwayne, Dora and Dena.

A first grade schoolboy in Springfield, Pa., stands for considerable teasing from his classmates, but he takes it good naturedly, explaining: "What else can a guy do?" His name is Donald Duck.

James Cogley, 75, of Baltimore, ordered a cup of coffee, crossed his legs, and felt something snap. He tried to uncross this legs but couldn't. On being taken to a hospital, it was found he had fractured his hip.

The Club Satan, recently formed by truck drivers of Brooklyn, cannot incorporate under that name, a judge ruled, claiming that it has anti-religious significance.

Careless drivers are a menace, thinks Saxson Brown, London strong man, whose special stunt is to allow an automobile to be driven over his chest. Recently a driver let the wheels wobble and they went over Brown's neck. Results were not fatal, but the strong man suffered for several days with a painful "sore throat."

THE WAY OF DICTATORSHIP

One of the outstanding lessons the world has learned from dictatorships is this: No dictator can force himself into power and stay there so long as his people retain free speech and free, uncensored, newspapers.

Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin, and all of their lesser imitators learned that. But now Hitler, fresh from his Austrian conquest, is irritated by comments of newspapers in free countries. So he proposes international treaties establishing official government control of all newspapers. What he means is this: "You see that your newspapers say only nice things about me and I'll do the same for you."

Up speaks Dr. Carl W. Ackerman, Dean of the Pulitzer School of Journalism at Columbia University, a lifelong student of newspapers and their problems and duties. After pointing out that such a treaty would require amendment to the American Constitution, he adds:

"I consider these developments so ominous that I think the foreign press policy of the German government should be fully explained and earnestly studied. If governmental control of the printed and spoken word is a requirement of peace with Germany, we should know the conditions now and not later."

Hitler's plan doubtless suits some Americans. A United States Senator said in a radio speech the other day that 98 per cent of America's city newspapers are biased. What he meant to say was that they did not agree with him.

How different he is from Voltaire who once said: "While I might not agree with what you say I shall defend to the death your right to say it!"

Americans doubtless will agree with their own Constitution and with Voltaire rather than Hitler and the Senator, for down the Hitler-Senator road lies dictatorship.

I COMPLAINED

BY MARGARET TINER

Complaining is the chief pastime of many people, and perhaps you and I are two of those many. If we gain what we complained for once, we start complaining for something else. We should strive to overcome this habit, for no matter what happens, it could be worse. Do you recall the saying that goes something like this:

"I complained because I had no shoes—until I met a man who had no feet."

Let us recall some of the complaints that we have heard and thought, and see if this short summary, together with a comparison with the burdens of others, might be worth reviewing. Here it is:

I complained about the activities of the Government—until I realized that citizens of Germany, Russia and Italy, people like us with the same hopes and ambitions, do not dare complain because of the risk of facing the Firing Squad. I at least have the right to express myself, and, eventually, enough such expressions would correct the situation.

I complained that my health was not as robust as I would like or it used to be—until I visited a hospital and witnessed the wretchedness and suffering and the hopelessness of many cases.

I complained because of the death of a loved one—until I recalled that so many have been denied even the memories of their loved ones, which have been worth so much to me.

I complained of so many demands for contributions and charitable and civic enterprises—until I thought of the generosity of many manufacturers, who provide a home for the aged, a public library, hospitalization for underprivileged children and to many activities, charitable, social and civic in character, and I was made a little ashamed that I had not done more along this line. I rejoiced in the satisfaction that these men enjoy doing such good deeds while they are still living and witness the joy others get from their generosity. I thought of the words of a great philanthropist:

"To give under pressure is lead,
To give at Death is silver,
But to give in life, ah, that is Gold."

I complained of not being rich financially—until I recalled that many of my friends not only are as poor, but were without employment as well. When I realized that I have never had to go hungry or cold, never had a lingering illness, never been without employment, nor ever had to ask undue favors from my friends, I decided that my lot is not so bad after all.

I hope these illustrations are sufficient to convey the thought that in every distressing situation there is some place where consolation can be found. Even when things get poor, then bad, then worse, it is well to remember:

"Things are apt to get worse,
But when they get bad, they are bound to get better."

Congressman J. D. McFarlane

Government Reorganization

Last Monday, the Senate by a vote of 48 to 43, finally passed the Government Reorganization Bill (S. 3331) and sent it to the House. The select committee of both Houses had been considering this legislation for several months. The House passed two bills covering two of the four titles of the measure during the first session of this Congress. However, the Senate considered and passed all four titles under one bill, and the House took the Senate bill and substituted their bills for the Senate bill, and these are the measures we are now considering.

The House began general debate on the reorganization bill last Thursday, and continued same Friday and Saturday, and the debate is expected to continue throughout most of this week until the measure is finally passed. The same reactionary forces who have bitterly opposed the President on every major piece of legislation, are continuing their vicious attack of misrepresentation upon this measure. Because of the far-reaching effect of their propaganda, many friends of the Administration have been misled as to the intent and purposes of the bill. Very few people writing and wiring the members have read and considered the provisions of the bill. Briefly stated, the bill gives the President the power to reorganize, consolidate or abolish whatever departments of Government are deemed advisable, in order to reduce expenditures and make the Government more efficient, exempting from these broad powers some sixteen departments of Government, known as quasi-judicial agencies including the following commissions:

Interstate, Federal Trade, Federal Power, Securities & Exchange, Federal Communications, the National Labor Relations Board, the National Bituminous Coal, the United States Maritime, the Engineer Corps of the United States Army, the Coast Guard, the General Accounting Office and the United States Tariff Commission. The principal objection raised to the bill, outside of the general propaganda phases of "Dictatorship," etc., are:

1. It Gives Executive too much power over Comptroller's office.
2. Would require 2-3 vote to override the Executive Decree.
3. Centralizes power in Civil Service Law.

The committee in charge of the bill has agreed that amendments providing that an executive order may be disapproved by a majority vote of Congress, that the Educational Bureau and the Veterans Administration will be felt in their present respective departments, eliminate practically all of the legitimate complaints against the bill and the measure should now pass and go to conference without further trouble.

It is plain, however, from the bitter propaganda circulated on this measure, that the enemies of the President expect to continue their bitter partisan opposition on any and all measures contained in the President's program throughout the remainder of this session.

TVA Investigation
The House considered TVA investigation last Wednesday and passed same after a spirited debate in which the opposition tried to eliminate the private power companies from investigation in connection with their activities in trying to destroy TVA. The Senate quickly agreed to the House amendments, and the measure was sent to the White House.

The A. T. & T. Investigation
The Federal Communications Commission last Friday made public their report of the American Telegraph and Telephone Company Investigation which has been in progress for the past two years. The telephone industry has never had any Government agency to regulate its power. This report recommends that such power be given to the Federal Communications Commission to regulate the telephone industry and the rates they charge the public. The 25-page summarized report, which briefly summarized some 10,000 printed pages of testimony and exhibits, specifically points out how the telephone monopoly rates should and could be reduced at least 25 per cent without in any way hurting the efficiency of the company. The writer for the past several years has spoken and pointed out many of the existing evils of the A. T. & T. and other large corporations engaged in their monopolistic practices, and has recommended the elimination of these evils.

The Calendar
The House last Monday and Tuesday considered and finally passed the War Department Appropriations bill, on Wednesday the ## Weekly Health Letter!

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, M.D., State Health Officer of Texas

Definite Increase Noted in Deaths From Cancer

Austin, Texas, April 7—The definite increase in the number of persons dying from cancer makes the subject of tumors a timely one. A tumor is a mass of new tissue which is of no use whatever to the body. If tumors or their manifestations were more generally appreciated, much of the misery and many deaths could be eliminated, stated Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The malignant tumor known as cancer, may consist, as in the case of benign tumors, of any bodily structures, such as fat, bone, connective tissues, superficial layers of the skin, mucous membrane and bodily organs. They grow rapidly and may establish secondary growths far from the site of the parent tumor by means of detached cells traveling in the blood or invading the lymphatics.

Where the benign tumors are concerned, surgical removal usually results in permanent cure. However, in cancerous tumors, surgery or irradiation (X-ray and radium) or a combination of the two, to be effective depends upon early diagnosis and prompt professional action.

While a number of cancerous growths unfortunately do not present early symptoms, many of the more common ones do. It is the deliberate or ignorant disregard of such early symptoms that has so decidedly occasioned the increase in cancer deaths.

The outstanding signals which justify suspicion that cancer may be present, though not necessarily so, are: any lump, any unusual bleeding from any bodily opening, a persistent sore, and chronic indigestion.

To disregard these signs, which may mean cancer in an early and therefore curable stage, is to flirt with death. Most certainly it does not pay to take a chance with any kind of a tumor or manifestations that indicate the possibility of its existence.

Santa Fe Rail Carloadings Of Last Week

The Santa Fe railway system carloadings for the week ending April 2, were 18,221 cars compared with 22,043 for the same week last year. Received from connections were 4,948 cars compared with 6,497 in the same week last year. Total cars moved were 23,169 compared with 28,540 for the same week in 1937. The Santa Fe handled a total of 25,499 cars during the preceding week this year.

TVA investigation, and on Thursday as above stated, began consideration of the Reorganization Bill.

The sports program of the Golden Gate International Exposition in 1939 ranges from horsehoe pitching to air races.

Displays at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition will illustrate marketing methods used by western states in shipping 188,000 carloads of fruit a year or 62 per cent of the total carloadings.

A Central Housing Bureau will be established by San Francisco hotels to take care of the millions of visitors expected during the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Mariners from all over the world who sail through the Golden Gate in the future will need new charts of San Francisco Bay. An artificial island, approximately a mile square, and rising 13 feet above sea level, has been completed by United States Army Engineers for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

The 400-acre man-made island in San Francisco Bay which will be the site for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, is to be given a series of baths. With a $1,500,000 horticultural program planned, Exposition officials must unsalt the sand of the island, which was reclaimed from the bottom of the bay, before trees, shrubs, and flowers can be planted.

CASTOR BEANS ARE IMPRACTICAL AS A CONTROL FOR GRASSHOPPERS

Government Tests is Proof Forwarded By Reppert

College Station—"Castor bean plants are not the answer to the farmers' prayer for a cheap and easy way to control grasshoppers," says R. R. Reppert, entomologist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service.

He bases his statement on recent information from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. "Tests on the effect of castor bean plants on grasshoppers have gone far enough to find out whether the alkaloid ricin contained in the plants is as poisonous to grasshoppers as it is to man and the higher animals," he said.

"Even if it is, castor bean planting is impractical for hopper control. It would be impossible to raise the plants early enough to kill the insects before they spread. And the seed is pretty high, so it would cost a good deal to plant enough to do any good. Even if the seed were planted, and early enough for the first hoppers, the chances are that the insects would eat all the cultivated crops before beginning on the castor beans.

"Grasshoppers are beginning to hatch out in the southernmost of the 104 Texas counties that are threatened by the worst hopper infestation in many years," Reppert said. Plans have been made to combat the infestation before the insects have a chance to spread and multiply.

The method used in Texas last year, which saved Texas farmers over six million dollars and returned more than a hundred dollars for every dollar spent will be used again this year. This consists of spreading a mash of bran, sodium arsenite, and sometimes sawdust, on the areas where the hoppers hatch out.

Scattered thinly at the rate of 10 to 20 pounds an acre as recommended by county agricultural agents, this bait is harmless to man and to domestic animals. The only danger is from lumpy bait, spreading it to thickly, or leaving it in piles or containers easily reached, Reppert pointed out.

Marketing Quota Helps Stabilize Wheat Marketing

College Station—Wheat marketing quotas under the new farm act will be proclaimed only when the supplies for any year are estimated at more than 950 million bushels, according to Geo. Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee. The act states that there will be no wheat quota for 1938 unless parity payments are made available.

The quota plan for wheat will be used only when the total supply is

The Seven Dwarfs—Their Characters In "Snow White"

The seven sterling dwarfs in Walt Disney's first feature-length production, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," will not be strange personalities to anyone viewing them. Each represents a type of human being in this fascinating production in Technicolor which RKO Radio distributes to the world's picture houses.

Doc, the self-appointed leader, is self important and pompous. He has a habit of getting his words and ideas mixed and of searching for the right word in vain. He's overly gracious and very efficient in his own mind until an important decision is necessary, when he becomes so nervous that he can't make any decision at all.

Happy is a fat roly-poly little fellow with a perpetual smile and a bright cheery voice. Sleepy sees life through half-closed eyes, and talks always through a yawn. He talks little, but when he does say something it is straight to the point, even though he doesn't know it.

Grumpy, the real leader of the group, is "agin" everything. His chief hate is "wimmin." He is grouchy, a crab, and yet, much to his disgust, he has a very soft heart under the veneer. When trouble arises, it is Grumpy who acts first.

Dopey is a lovable slightly bawdy fellow who gets a great kick out of life. He is sly and mischievous.

Sneezy is subject to hay fever and talks through his nose. He always sneezes at the wrong time. Bashful is kind-hearted and willing, and an incurable romantic. He is especially shy, however, in the presence of Snow White.

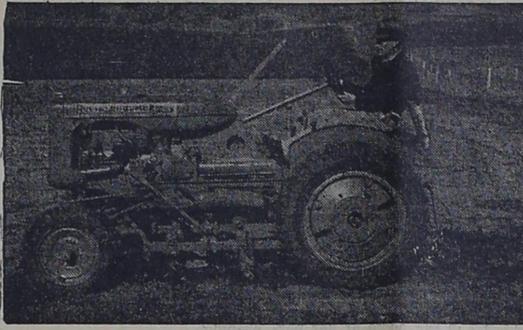

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" will be at the Roxy April 30, May 1-2.

Plans for regulating auto trailer camps in adjoining towns and cities to San Francisco's 1939 International Exposition are under way today. Regulation will be strict but fair.

Hot dogs that visitors to the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition will eat, if stretched end to end, would reach from San Francisco, the exposition city, to Yosemite National Park and back, according to Frederick Weddleton, director of world's fair concessions.

so large that prices threaten to fall to very low levels, as they did from 1928 to 1934, and then only when two-thirds of the wheat farmers voting in a referendum approve of the plan. The Secretary of Agriculture is directed by the act to announce the necessity for quotas on May 15.

FIRST SMALL FARM TRACTOR IS HERE

The junior-size, speed-lined tractor shown here is said to be the first economically suited to 4,000,000 small farms. It is the lowest-priced farm tractor ever placed on the market, selling for $495.00 f.o.b. factory with rubber tires as standard equipment.

The new tractor is expected to place economical tractor power within reach of 60 per cent of the nation's farms—diversified farms now using mainly animal power. It plows and cultivates at 4 miles per hour, twice the speed of horses. It will replace four to six horses and will operate at about the cost per hour of a two-horse team.

Implements to work with the new tractor will include a plow, cultivator, disc harrow, planter, spring tooth harrow, mower and harvester.

According to its builders, the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company, the tractor is also adapted to large farms for replacing horses now kept to supplement a larger tractor.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—With Karl Crowley of Washington, solicitor of the Post-office Department, definitely entered as a candidate for Governor, and Bill McCraw and Ernest O. Thompson at work on platforms which they expect to make public within ten days, the week-end saw the Governor's race in Texas pretty well shaped up. Only the action Jim Ferguson planned to make remained a doubtful factor. The Ferguson enthusiasts insistently circulated reports here that Mrs. Ferguson will enter the race, and will make her announcement "in a few days" but this is the same story they have been telling in the Austin hotel lobbies for weeks. Some newspaper speculation that "Farmer Jim" might support Crowley was heavily discounted here, because Crowley's announcement, if it reflects what he believes in, is diametrically opposed to most of the things that Ferguson stands for. Of late years, Ferguson has advocated the sales tax, almost to the exclusion of every other issue. There was nothing in Crowley's announcement to indicate he embraces the Fergusonian school of political thought. As a lone wolf, the experts here do not concede Crowley a place as a leading candidate, unless he surprises the folks and turns out to be a super-campaigner. His slashing attacks upon utilities and natural resource developers are not calculated to enlist the interest which contribute most liberally, as a rule, to campaign funds, and even the candidate himself did not appear to be very hopeful of his success. His talk of $2,000,000 campaign funds for Thompson and McCraw drew a laugh, and McCraw, talking off the record, remarked: "If he'll show me where there is a $2,000,000 campaign fund, I'll give him half it and get out of the race."

McCraw Off to Florida
The Attorney General was scheduled to leave the state for several weeks about April 11, to appear in a hearing on the Green estate tax case at Miami, Florida. He was planning to announce his platform before he leaves, and resume active campaigning soon after his return.

Thompson, preparing also to announce a platform, was busy making arrangements for the opening of his campaign at Waco, April 12, where supporters from many central Texas counties will gather to hear him fire his opening gun. Crowley has returned to Washington, to wind up his affairs and resign his Federal job, since Federal regulations require such action when employees enter an elective political race.

Phares is Ousted
Capt. L. G. Phares, organizer and chief of the State Highway Patrol, fell victim of the political storm which has broken about his head several times in recent years this week, and was removed from the Highway Patrol job by the Public Safety Commission. He will be assigned to some inferior post in the department, members of the commission said. Capt. Homer Garrison, who has been Phares' aid, was named to succeed him. The Commission reported he was removed for "incompatibility and a lack of cooperation with other units of the Department." The action was an aftermath of the bitter political rivalry that has existed between the Highway Patrol and the Rangers, ever since they were combined under one directing head. Phares was named

Phares, ill at his home, has asked the commission for a full explanation of his removal.

Col. House Passes
Simple burial rites of the Episcopal church, with burial at Houston for Col. Edward M. House removed from Texas political scenes one of the most influential figures, following his death in New York. Col. House, a mysterious figure who disliked publicity, was the "maker" of three Texas governors, and rose to be the closest friend and adviser of Woodrow Wilson, in whose cabinet he placed three distinguished Texans. President and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, and many high ranking foreign officials, sent floral offerings for the final rites of the soft-spoken Texan who wielded a powerful influence in national and international affairs after graduating from his political apprenticeship in Texas.

R. A. (Bob) Stuart Will Open His Race May 1

Fort Worth, April 5.—Former State Senator R. A. (Bob) Stuart, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, will conduct one of the most extensive campaigns ever made by a state candidate, he said today in announcing that on or about May 1, he will begin his speaking campaign.

It is my intention to go into practically every county in Texas to discuss vital issues that face the Railroad Commissioner," Stuart said. "As far as possible I'll personally meet every man and woman voter in the State and discuss with many thousands of them the duties of the Railroad Commission. I will speak and visit in many counties that have never been visited by a candidate for this important place."

In order to reach the maximum number of people, Stuart said that on some days he will speak in as many as 10 to 12 cities.

Visitors to San Francisco's 1939 World's Fair will see sights at the exposition by riding around on individual motorized scooters capable of making 40 miles an hour.

An unexpected result has followed the creation of an artificial island in San Francisco Bay as a site for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition. The new body of land has altered the currents in the bay so markedly that maritime data must be issued for the use of pilots in bay waters.

Valued at $4,500,000, the fabulous "Crown of the Andes" has been offered as a glittering exhibit at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco. The offer was made by Warren Piper, Chicago jeweler representing the American syndicate which brought the great treasure from South America.

BEAUTY SPOTS IN MUNDAY

Written by 3rd Year Home Ec Girls of Munday High School

The rain last week was greatly appreciated by everyone but especially those who are beautifying their yards.

It seems that the rose season has begun. The Kimsey rose garden is one of the loveliest gardens in town. The roses at the P. V. Williams home are also attractive. Mrs. Williams also has some fascinating tulips. The roses at the club house have beautiful buds which are nearly ready to open.

It seems that Munday citizens are making an excellent start towards making Munday a rose city. The rose bushes all over town are beginning to bud and it really seems that we have more rose bushes than we thought we had.

We are guided again to compliment Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jungman for their attractive spirea. This is one of the loveliest shrubs in town.

The tiger-lilies at Mrs. Huskinson's home are lovely and add much to the appearance of the home and yard.

Dr. and Mrs. Roberts certainly do have an attractive bed of red verbenas.

Goree H.D. Club Met in Mack Tynes Home

The Goree Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Mack Tynes in regular meeting at 2:30 Tuesday, April 5th.

Mrs. Mack Tynes, president of the club, was in charge of a short business session. Eight members answered the roll call with "Antique Spreads in my Family."

In the absence of Mrs. H. E. McMahon who was to give a demonstration on candlewick bedspreads, home-made lace was discussed by the club and three members decided to attend the school on hand-made lace to be held by Mrs. George Salem of Munday at her home in the near future.

Chas. Moorhouse, cattle and real estate dealer of Benjamin, and a candidate for county treasurer, was transacting business here Saturday.

- While a newspaper is a marvel of mechanical efficiency, there are limits on what can be done by a given force of printers, stereotypers and pressmen in a short, crowded period of stress.
- There is plenty of time to give every advertiser good service when early copy is sent in.
- The Times believes that its advertisers desire to be fair to the printers, stereotypers and pressmen who serve them as well as to be fair to themselves.
- Visitors to the mechanical department are invited so that the process of handling advertising may be thoroughly understood and the mechanical problems fully realized.
- Your co-operation will be greatly appreciated by the entire personnel of The Times.

My Home Town

By ROSE ANN KREITZ

The Church of My Home Town

By Rose Ann Kreitz
When Rhineland was first settled in 1895 church services were held in a two room house on the block of land where the present home of Mr. John Andrae is located. The building was 16 feet by 32 feet. One room was used for church services and a parsonage, the other as a land office and hotel. An 8 ft. by 12 ft. addition on this building served as a kitchen.
In 1900 a new church was constructed on a knoll of a ten acre block of ground located in the center of the Rhineland townsite. This land was donated by J. C. League of Galveston, Texas. The architects were Emil Henry and Engelbert Gier. The main altar was donated by the deceased Mrs. Paetzold. This church was used as a house of worship until the construction of the present one was advanced far enough to permit its use for services.
In 1923 construction of a new, large, brick structure was started. The plans were drawn by the Rev. P. Boniface, O.S.B., pastor of the church. He was also the architect until 1936. In 1930 services were held in the new church. It is not completed as yet, but the people of this community are ready to see it through to completion.

Senior Report!

We were surprised last Monday, when the Juniors treated us with candy which they themselves made. This was very generous of them, especially after teasing them so much. We hope we will be surprised again.
The Juniors appeared to have a big time last Friday. We have been puzzled about the cause of their celebration. Of course, it may have been their birthday for that would not be impossible.
Mr. Hoffman looked rather suspicious when April 18th was mentioned. We wonder what will happen on that date.
The boys who are playing indoor baseball, are progressing nicely. We hope they will be able to have a winning team.

Junior Report!

It seemed as if April 1st was a great day for the Juniors, because they were informed it was their birthday and they did a lot of celebrating.
Many jokes were played and the day ended with a smile, for we know it will all come out in the wash. They also received a warning from Mr. Hoffman on Monday, that one day was enough to celebrate their birthdays.
We have been working hard on geometry lately to understand the circles, which include the arcs and chords. It appears to us that our heads perform circles during the

Sophomore Report!

Mathematics proves very interesting on Friday when we have mental arithmetic. Most of us are getting better as we go.
The Sophomores have made up a few things about their classmates. We have combined them to give you and idea of the characteristics of the Sophomores. Here are some of the things we would like to see:
Dorothy sitting still five minutes.
Mary not combing her hair.
Georgene not talking.
Regina acting cheerful.
Helen not complaining.
Bernice not chewing gum and not getting angry.
Rose talking.
Margaret making a lot of noise.
Miss Walsh not hearing what we say and seeing what we do.
The Sophomores giving intelligent answers.
Rosa Lee not drawing.
Clara getting along with the teacher.
W.B. having his lessons and not moaning.
We ought to be smart now that we are studying about our brain in our biology class. Miss Walsh told us that you could tell how much a person thinks by the number of grooves in his brain. The Sophomores would like to look at theirs. We are sure that there wouldn't be any that were slick, like a parrots.

Freshman Report!

Now that the volleyball season is over, we started playing soft ball and enjoy every minute that we play.
In English we are studying the predicate nominative, predicate adjective, direct object, and indirect object. At first we didn't understand it, but now we do and we think it is very interesting because we have to use correct English if we want our life to be a success.
We pay very close attention to our science teacher, Miss Walsh, because she is trying to explain to us the "light of the day." Some students prove to be very smart.
We have been looking through a list of poems and found this little one which we like very much.
Friendship
No richer gift was e'er bestowed
Than just the art of making friends
And those who have this magic code
To all mankind a message sends,
A message filled with love and cheer;
Which makes us glad that we are here.
Mrs. Herschel Cowan and son Harry of the Pleasant View community, together with Mrs. G. W. Dingus and Miss Merle Dingus of this city, went to Springtown, Texas, last week-end visiting relatives.

KEEPING TAB ON The Eagles

By BUDDY BUMPAS

Sunset Tracksters Place Second
 Sunset's three-man team took second place in the county track meet at Munday last Thursday with 37 points.

Herbert Partridge, star hurdler, was high point man of the meet, with 22 points. He took first place in high and low hurdles and high jump, and he placed second in running broad jump and pole vault. There was a little misunderstanding in the broad jump. Herbert really outjumped the others by eight inches, but the official did not let it count.

LeRoy Henderson accounted for eight of the other points with first place in the 440, third place in the 220, and fourth place in the 100-yard dash.

Orville Strickland, also took eight points by winning first in the discus throw, and second in the shot-put.

Fuller Shannon and J. F. Hunter entered the meet but neither of the boys placed due to the fact that they had not been coming out regularly. But they at least put out plenty of effort.

Partridge, Henderson, and Strickland will go to the district meet at Breckenridge next week-end. We wish you luck, boys!

The volleyball team of the girls will also go to the Breckenridge meet next Saturday. Luck to you! We want them to do as they have done in the past, bring home the blue ribbons!

The Electric Refrigerator Is Biggest Money Saver on Farm

Though less picturesque than the old spring house, the modern electric refrigerator is more convenient, healthful and economical.

WITH the ever-increasing availability of electricity in rural areas, more and more farmers are installing electric refrigerators. Their advantages over older methods and devices for keeping perishable foods are numerous, among the more important being: Dependability; convenience; ease in cleaning; freedom from labor, attention and unnecessary steps; temperature constantly, automatically and silently maintained in the safety zone—35 to 50 degrees—regardless of outside temperature; foods kept in prime condition for a month or more with no loss from spoilage; temperature readily adjustable through a simple dial; and an operating cost as low as, and often lower than, that of any other method of artificial refrigeration.

As practically all of the electric refrigerators manufactured today are dependable, efficient and economical, the purchaser can make his choice confident that he will receive full value for the money invested. However, he should buy from a reliable dealer who will give prompt and proper service on the rare occasions it is necessary. It is even more important that the appliance have sufficient capacity—measured on a net cubic-foot basis—as there is a general tendency, especially among those who never have had refrigeration, to install too small a unit.

The amount of power required by an electric refrigerator depends upon several factors, some of which can be controlled by the user: Location; amount of food and liquids cooled; temperature of foods and liquids before cooling; amount of ice frozen; frequency of frozen desserts; number and length of time the door is opened; defrosting of cooling coil; temperature maintained in refrigerator; and whether or not it is shut off in winter.

Ordinarily, an electric refrigerator will use from 20 to 40 kilowatt-hours per month which, at the five-cent rate, represents a cost of 3/4 to 2 cents per day, the average probably being 5 cents or less. Such a refrigerator is so efficient in preserving foodstuffs that it quickly pays for itself many times over in saving food that otherwise often would be spoiled or wasted.

 Meeting Place—Legion Hut

Our troop is advancing well in Scout Rank. Last Thursday night at the Scout Court of Honor in Seymour, twenty-four of our boys were awarded the badges that made them Second-Class Scouts.

Attendance was good at the Scout meeting last Monday night. Fifteen boys and two or three visitors were present.

One interesting thing which some of us found out last Thursday night was that our troop number was not "Troop No. 1" as all of us had thought, and as we have on our Troop Flag. Instead we are "Troop No. 76." The reason for this was told to all the scouts who were present.

April the twenty-second should be an interesting day for the scouts. There will be a field jamboree in Seymour at that time with many Scout troops competing. The local Scout Troop has made plans to be there and will participate in the events.

Clean-Up Week
 Clean-Up Week combined with fire prevention week will be in effect this week. Mr. R. B. Harrell, city secretary, and a very welcome visitor to the scout meeting, told us about a plan that the Lions Club has made for Clean-Up Week. The Scout Troop, of course, is divided into four groups or parties.

Freshman News

The Freshmen are planning another picnic Friday. The place has not been determined yet, but most of them want to go to the river. They will go Friday afternoon and stay until night. Because all of them cannot agree on whether to have a class party or a picnic, they have agreed to make the next class function a class party.

We feel that our class did their part in the county meet, but hope to do better next year.

Faye Marie has played on the volleyball team for the last three years, and she was on the basketball team when she was a sophomore. While in grammar school and two years while in high school, she played on the indoor baseball team.

You who have heard this band recently know what a treat is in store for you, and you who have not heard it, simply can't afford to miss it.

All between act numbers will be under the supervision of Mrs. N. T. Underwood, Sunset music teacher. Chief among these will be a black-face skit by the Sunset High Quartet, LeRoy Henderson, Floyd Frost, Howard Payne Shannon, and E. G. Parkhill. The primary rhythm bands will play, also.

Watch next week's issue of the paper for a complete list of the characters for "Mama's Baby Boy" and for a synopsis of the play. Right now check the date Wednesday evening, April 20, on your calendar and plan to attend the Sunset Senior play.

Home Ec Class Starts on Second Class Project

The Junior and Senior Home Economics Classes of Sunset have finished their class projects and have started on a second one. Last week, the garments of the first project were modeled and judged. The garments were judged by the class and in the Junior class the places were as follows: Virginia Parkhill, first; Laverne Bumpas, third. In the Senior Class: Faye Marie Partridge, first; Dorothy Gammill, second; Nell Nix, third.

The second project is to make a dress. All of the girls have started but they are finding it a little more difficult than making shorts and slacks.

Patsy Hannah is Writer of Prize Essay in County

Last week we published Mary Moore's prize essay that won first place in Ready Writers in County Meet. Because of the lack of room we did not tell how proud we are of Patsy Hannah, who won first place in the grammar schools. This week we are publishing her essay to show that we are just as proud of her.

My Experience As A Girl Scout
Recently a Girl Scout organization was started in our town. All the girls were very enthusiastic about it, and many joined. In our first meeting we were told the requirements of the organization. These requirements were: fifty cent dues each year, regular attendance to the weekly meetings, and five cent dues each meeting. We were also told that before a troop could be organized and registered at national headquarters eight members had to pass the Tenderfoot Test.

In order to pass this test we had to know the history of and allegiance to the flag, ten Girl Scout laws, the Girl Scout promise, and many other requirements.

Finally, when enough had joined the troop was divided into patrols, eight members in each. There were three patrols with a leader at the head of each.

Soon eight members had passed the Tenderfoot Test, and we were really thrilled at the idea of becoming registered at headquarters.

In order to celebrate this we went on a sunrise breakfast. We went to bed early that night in order to wake up early next morning. Each of us had been told to bring something, and we all had our supplies ready that night. We all woke early and met at the school building.

We put our supplies in knapsacks and started on a long hike in the country.

When we reached our destination, we were obliged to rest for we had walked a long distance. As soon as we had rested sufficiently we went about our various duties.

We were just sitting down to eat sandy eggs when a billy-goat started toward us. We were very much frightened and didn't know what to do, so we ran and didn't stop until a distance away.

It was then one of our "pet lovers" went up to the billy-goat, gently patted its head and led it away. While she was leading it away, we caught a ride home and later she got home. Though we were scared at the time, we had a nice time and wished to go again.

Our organization has prospered and grown and several of us have passed the second-class test. We are very proud of ourselves and think that we have been an addition well worth having to our community.

—Patsy Hannah

Home Ec Girls Attend District Rally Saturday

On April 2, twenty Home-Making girls including our sponsor, Mrs. Dillon, climbed into the school bus and journeyed to Stamford for a District Home Making rally.

We arrived in Stamford about nine o'clock, and after registering we inspected the Home Making cottages. This is one of the neatest cottages that we know of and we certainly did enjoy the trip through the building.

We assembled in the high school auditorium at nine-thirty o'clock for an excellent program on "Leisure in the home and outside of the home." Two excellent addresses were made on this subject.

At twelve-thirty we left the high school building and went to the "Bunk House" for lunch. We had to wait a few minutes, and we used this time renewing acquaintances and meeting new girls.

While we were chatting and leisurely spending our time, a man yelled "Come and Get It," and believe me, we made a run. Lunch was served ranch style. We each passed by a place with a table in the center and a bench on each side of us. At the table were six men that fixed our lunch on the tin plates. Our lunch consisted of red beans, barbecue, pickles, onions, (this man told us that we were sissies if we did not eat our onions!) cabbage salad, mashed potatoes and peach cobbler. We ate lunch at the tables provided for us in the shade; however most of the girls would rather have been in the sun as it was quite chilly.

After lunch we again assembled in the Bunk House for the afternoon entertainment. This consisted of numerous contests such as a "get acquainted contest," a dance contest (the girls from Munday learned to do the "Big Apple" during this contest), a movie star contest, a quiz contest, and a hat contest. (The representative from Munday won first place in this contest). Prizes were given to the representative of each school winning first place.

At three o'clock, however, we bade farewell to the girls who had furnished entertainment for such a lovely occasion and started home, each declaring this was the best Rally we had ever attended.

The district representative for the State Home Making Rally was chosen from Munday, and we chose Mozelle Mullican for this representative. This means Munday will send five representatives to the State Home Making Rally which will be held in San Antonio next month. Mozelle is to represent Munday, Haskell, Weinert, Mattson and Throckmorton at the district meetings at State Rally.

Picnic Enjoyed By Sophomores Monday Night

Members of the Sophomore class enjoyed a picnic and marshmallow roast, Monday night. The class and sponsor Mrs. Dillon, assembled at the high school building Monday afternoon at five o'clock and went to the Brazos river.

Sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, olives, oranges, bananas, and cookies were spread on the grass near a small spring. Several parties enjoyed hiking and exploring the surrounding country and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Senior Report!

We, the Senior Class of Munday High School, wish to take this time to express our thanks and appreciation to the Baptist Missionary Society for the banquet which they gave us last Tuesday night. The food was excellent, the quartet enjoyable, and the speech by Dr. Arrant was both beneficial and amusing. We hope that we may in some way be able to repay you for this entertainment.

Geraldine Simpson
Geraldine was born on March 29, 1920, in Rule, Texas. She lived in Rule until she was four years of age and then moved to Haskell. After living in Haskell for three months, Geraldine returned to Rule and lived there until two years ago. In November, 1936, she moved to Munday and joined the Junior class. She has been a declaimer for Munday High School this year, and was one for the Rule High School for two years. In grammar school Geraldine was on the baseball team.

Sophomore Report!

The Juniors had a class meeting last week to discuss plans for the Junior-Senior banquet. We decided to have a cake-walk and perhaps a Junior play. We haven't decided upon the date or place of the banquet. It will probably be some time next month before school closes.

We Juniors are proud of our tennis players. Orville Matlock and Winston Blacklock won the county championship in senior boys' doubles, and Ann Atkieson won second place in the senior girls' doubles.

The Juniors are glad to think that there are only six more weeks of school. Most of us, however, are going to have to start studying and forget "Spring Fever" if we wish to take the place at the rear of the Study Hall next year as Seniors. But we can do it and don't you ever worry a bit because we are an "up and coming" class.

Freshman Report

We think the Seniors are in their second childhood, because they are playing hop-scotch.

The Freshmen have been working hard on their lessons, because this is the next to the last six weeks of school.

The freshmen are in a good humor because we are going on a picnic this coming Monday. We are going to Herring pasture. We are going after school, and we don't know when we are going to get back.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

This is the end of the 5th six weeks of school. Only one more six weeks and the 1937-38 school term will be over. Closing of school programs will begin soon and we all wonder if we have done our best. We might strive to do our best from now on and make what success we have been, even greater.

The magician show was well attended and as a result a nice sum of money was placed in our medal and trophy fund. Approximately $10 was realized from the show, and this added to the net proceeds of the 5th and 6th grades programs of a few weeks ago, brings the fund up to about $25. According to last year's figures we are yet some $10 short, but we are going to get this amount some way.

From the way we are winning interscholastic league events we are going to have to have quite a bit more finances. In track events last week our boys won first place with points to spare. Hollis Welborn, Ralph Tidwell, Joe McGraw, and Dick Harrell were outstanding. All five of the boys contributed in some way with a first place. And can Hollis run! We will put him up against any senior or junior in the county and say he will win. We are proud of the track boys and wish them more success in athletics in the future.

We also have some tennis players to be proud of. It seems that our aim was wrong—on second place instead of first, because all our contestants won 2nd except Mary Lois who drew a tough spot at the beginning. Mary Lois lost her first match to Truscott, after a very hard fought battle, and the Truscott girl went ahead to win first place so Mary Lois you were not so bad after all. We are just as proud of you as if you had won first place. Dick Harrell won 2nd place, bowing only to the boy from Dixon, who is rally a whiz. And just a warning boys singles players of next year, he will be back again in the boys singles in the ward school division. He is only a sixth grader this year. Our girls' doubles won 2nd place and heaps of glory goes to Dixie Nell, too, for she played some real tennis but her efforts and Cora Jean's was not quite enough, finally bowing to the Knox City girls. And our boys' doubles? Yes, they won 2nd too, bowing in the finals again to a Dixon team. Frankie Boone and Jimmie Lee Haney were our doubles players and we are real proud of them but they were not quite as good as the boys from Dixon, the place where tennis is their major sport and is played the year round. Let's everybody now look forward to the playground ball meet which will be held in Benjamin on April 16. We have two good teams and let's practice lots and win first place.

We are proud of some more folks this week. They are none other than the Choral Club who won first place in the county and are going to Breckenridge next Friday (tomorrow) seeking more honors in the district meet. And don't forget Patricia Hannah, for she is one of our best betters for a first place at the district meet, performing in the Ready Writing contest. In the county contest Patricia had as good a paper as is usually found in Ward Schools, so you see why we are betting on her. Patsy performs at 9:30 Friday morning and the Choral Club at 1:00 Friday afternoon, in Breckenridge.

MEDITATION

By Ann Atkieson

"I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow, that whatever the boy soweth, the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools, in the dignity of teaching, and the joy of serving another. I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as in the pages of a printed book; in lessons taught not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head; in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the schoolroom, in the home, in the daily life and out of doors. I believe in laughing, in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe that every hour of the day we receive a just reward for all we do. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living."

—Edwin Osgood Grover

"About all we get out of some parties is the relief of taking our shoes off when we get home."

"A tramp who is given a quarter feels a deal more lucky than if he gets a chance to earn a dollar."

"Happy lives make dull biographies."

"Beware of the man who sees and discusses nothing but faults in other people."

"Flattery may be as false as any other lie, but it is easier to forgive."

"No matter how low the dollar may fall, it will never fall lower than some people will stoop to get it."

"Some people are more energetic in saying what they do than in doing what they say."

"In the scramble for power, Or struggle for pelf, Let this be your motto: Rely on yourself. For whether the prize Be a ribbon or throne, The victor is he Who can go it alone."

Home Movie Maker Polls American Opinion on War

Striking evidence of American interest in the threat of European war is manifested in a national demand for a home movie film just released, "Germany Invades Austria." Seizing this opportunity to study graphically the serious international situation in their own homes, thousands of families in all parts of the country are helping to form first hand opinions based on actual observation in this 8 and 15 min. film of leaders and events that have changed the map of the world.

Never before has such an opportunity existed to study at home or in school major historical events as they were actually enacted on the world stage while they are still front page news.

Sensing the importance of American opinion at this critical time, Eugene W. Castle, distributor of the picture, has arranged a nationwide poll of those who see it. He will forward to the State Department in Washington this cross section of what Americans are thinking about the possibility of another war soon; the need of the United States participating; and the wisdom of our entering into an international armament race. Ballots are being distributed with the film and extra supplies are available from dealers.

Biard of San Antonio welcomed the visitors from all parts of Texas and J. S. Bane, Beaumont agent of the company, responded for the visitors.

C. F. O'Donnell, president, stated that more than 500 Texans were attending this meeting as the guest of Southwestern Life Insurance Company, which gives the trips to agents who produce a specified volume of business during the year. Mr. O'Donnell told those present that the total life insurance written by them during 1937 was approximately 12 per cent greater than the amount produced by those in attendance at the last convention in Dallas, which reflects the excellent progress made by the Company during the past year.

At noon today Arthur Coburn, vice president of the firm, made his annual address following a luncheon in the ballroom of the Gunter hotel, which is convention headquarters. This afternoon the visitors will tour the interesting City of San Antonio which is now preparing for its Fiesta de la San Jacinto. Tonight there will be a get-together dinner on the open air roof of the convention hotel after which a floor show will be presented, with bridge and dancing following.

Business sessions will continue through Saturday morning with Richard R. Lee, vice president and agency director; E. G. Brown, vice president and actuary; T. L. Bradford, Jr., vice president and treasurer; R. A. B. Goodman, vice president and director of public relations; G. L. Soelter, secretary; and Dr. W. J. Allison, medical director, participating.

The highlight of the convention will be Friday night at the annual banquet at the Gunter Hotel Ballroom when addresses will be made by R. L. Daniel, chairman of the Board of Insurance Commissioners of Texas, and Walter P. Napier, president of the Alamo National Bank of San Antonio. During this banquet, President O'Donnell will present the awards to various agents for outstanding accomplishments during the previous year.

The Southwestern Life's main office is in Dallas. It is a Texas company confining its operations entirely to this state.

CATTLE MARKETS ATTRACTIVE FOR TEXAS FEEDERS

Cheap Feed Brings
More, as Beef
Price Shows

At current prices, beef cattle offer an unusually profitable market for home-grown feedstuffs and such relatively cheap supplements as cottonseed meal and hulls. With feeds at bargain prices, and cattle at 9-year highs, for this time of the year, there is much to encourage Southern feeders.

Opportunity for South
Under these conditions, there is an unusual opportunity for Southern feeders to use cheap feeds available for fattening cattle. Cottonseed meal and hulls are at least one-third cheaper than a year ago, and are relatively cheaper than many farm grains or other feeds.

Many Good Rations
Cottonseed products can be used in combination with any of the available feeds, such as the grains and hays; or cottonseed meal, or cake, alone can be used with silage in a beef finishing ration; or cottonseed meal and hulls, alone, are satisfactory for a short cattle feeding period which can be extended materially by the addition of small quantities of good, bright hay.

Your local cotton oil mill has free literature containing practical rationing and suggestions for feeding all classes of livestock, and, in addition, will be glad to obtain specific feeding information, to help

TEXAS NEXT TO CALIFORNIA IN TRUCK ACREAGE

271,000 Acres of Texas
Land Devoted to Truck Crops

Dallas, April 5.—Significant evidence of growing diversification in farm crops, highly desirable in the South to ease the shock of dwindling cotton markets, is seen by the All-South Development Council in the rise of Texas to second place, next to California, in acreage to commercial vegetable crops.

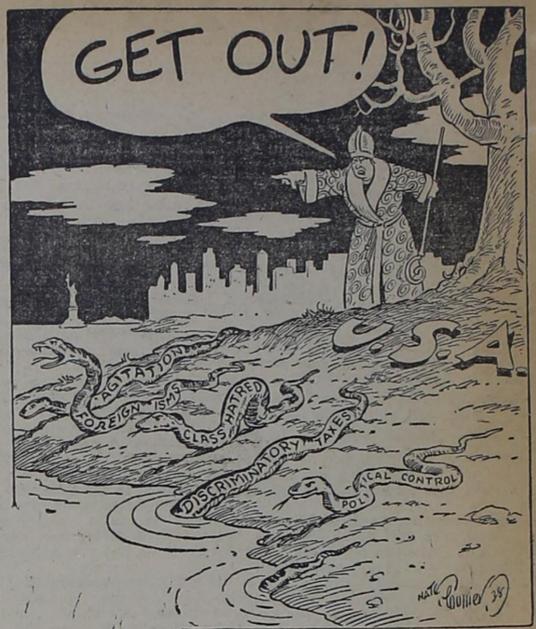

The 271,550 acres of Texas land producing truck crops in 1937 was nearly eight times the 35,000 acres so utilized in the state in 1919, bringing the state from 12th place to second. The $19,255,000 in cash income from such crops put the state in fourth place nationally in that table, and was a large gain from the $14,700,000 valuation in 1936.

California, which has been the leading state in both acreage and income for many years, was far out in front in value, with $92,735,000. Florida and New York were second and third, with valuations of $26,745,000 and $25,180,000, respectively.

Other southern states, making vigorous "efforts to balance agriculture and industry" as well as to balance the different factors within agriculture and lessen their dependence upon cotton, have greatly increased their commercial vegetable acreage, too. The report cites a study by Gustave Burmeister, Department of Agriculture economist, showing that Louisiana's acreage last year was five times as great as in 1919; Alabama and Mississippi four times, and Georgia and Florida tripled their truck crop acreage in that period.

Spinach was Texas' principal truck crop in acreage last year, its 50,000 acres representing about two-thirds of the total in the nation, although marketing faults make the income to "winter garden" farmers uncertain. Acreages devoted to other leading truck crops were: tomatoes 46,000, watermelons 46,000, cabbage 36,000, onions 21,200, Irish potatoes 13,000, carrots 7,800, snap beans 7,300, green peas 6,000, cantaloupes 5,200, beets 4,800, strawberries 2,150, green peppers 1,600, egg plant 500, and cauliflower 150.

Texas' progress in crop diversification is noted also in its substantial production of corn, wheat, oats, grain, grain sorghums, grapefruit, peaches, pecans, peanuts and other staple and fruit crops not listed in truck lists. Increasingly better balance in agricultural pursuits will help to round out farm income and stabilize purchasing power, the council's report noted, improving the state's rating as an active consumer market and therefore as a magnet for new commercial and industrial enterprises.

Improved roads, making possible rapid transportation by trucks, and improved facilities for handling perishable food products during the winter and early spring have been important factors in the growing commercialization of Texas vegetable crops, the report said. That there is room for continued expansion is shown, however, by the fact that one third of all vegetables unloaded in Dallas alone last year came from California, and that was four times the amount received in this city from Texas shippers.

Six hundred concessions—the most thrilling from applications that run into the thousands—will enliven the 40-acre midway at the World's Fair on San Francisco Bay.
