County To Vote Saturday On Jail Bond Issue

Will a new jail be constructed for Knox county?

This question will be decided on Saturday, January 7, when voters of Knox County go to the polls to cast their ballots on the $88,000 jail bond issue.

County officials have pointed out that the new bond issue will not create a new tax on the property owners of the county, since the bonds would be made to mature after present bonds have been taken care of.

A public building assessment of 25 cents on each $100 valuation is already in effect and will be sufficient to take care of the jail bond issue, with funds left over for maintenance of the court house and jail, it was stated.

All qualified voters of the county are urged to go to their respective voting places and cast their ballots in this issue.

M. T. Chamberlain Family In First Reunion In Lives Of The Children

The couple lived here for many years. They grew up in this area, married and reared their family here; yet, the family had not all been together in their entire lives. That is, until Christmas, 1949!

Such is the unique history of the family of County Clerk and Mrs. M. T. Chamberlain of Munday.

Many's the time most of the family has been home. Quite frequently Marvin and Mrs. Chamberlain have had a whole house full of company on week ends and on holidays. Their children and grandchildren love to come home.

But it took Christmas of 1949 to bring the entire family together for the first time in their lives.

The oldest boy, Pete Chamberlain, had married and moved away when the youngest child, D. G., was born. Then it seemed

OUR NEEDS FOR 1950

1. Completion of our portion of the Throckmorton road, giving the farmers of that area an all-weather outlet.
2. A farm-to-market road to the north and east of Munday, possibly connecting with the Herfner road.
3. A U. S. Federal building. Munday needs a new post office home.
4. More homes in Munday. We did a good job in 1949, but there's still a housing shortage.
5. A new telephone system, giving the town adequate telephone service and tapping the rural area surrounding the town.
6. Greater cooperation of business man, farmer, and citizen toward long-range development for our community.

AN INCENTIVE TO BUSINESS

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer has indicated that he will urge President Truman to recommend repeal of the war-time excise taxes. The secretary is quoted as saying, "There is no doubt that repeal . . . would be an incentive to business."

That is a highly encouraging statement, coming as it does from an official of Cabinet rank. The excise taxes were strictly emergency measures. They were designed to curtail production of so-called non-essentials during the war, not only to raise revenue. A similar tax was also placed on train, plane and bus tickets, in order to discourage avoidable travel, and is still in effect.

These taxes apply to goods and services which aren't considered luxuries by millions of Americans. Cosmetics, leather goods, furs and similar items are used by most of us, and are necessities in many cases. Travel is also a necessity, for reasons of business, health and recreation. This country prides itself on high living standards, and the excise taxes definitely harm those standards.

Experienced retailers and manufacturers are convinced, moreover, that the taxes have had a strong adverse effect on the sale of affected goods. An additional 20 per cent on the price of some items is often the difference between making a sale and not making a sale. And when sales are retarded for any reason, employment also lags.

From the point of view of government revenue, excise taxes are not important. The money that created them has been over for years. Their repeal would be in the direct interest of consumer, worker, manufacturer and retailer.

EVERY NINETY SECONDS

In the short space of time it takes you to read this, a home will burn somewhere in the United States. That is the literal truth—a home is destroyed every 90 seconds.

Will your home be next? It can be—unless you take a few simple precautions. One of the greatest tragedies of dwelling fires is that most of them could be easily prevented. To take an example, carelessness with cigarettes is a major cause of disaster. So are overloaded electrical circuits and frayed wiring. And so are improperly maintained stoves and heating systems.

There are many other hazards that exist, to some degree, in nearly every home. Are your basements, attic and closets littered with old magazines, old clothes and other odds and ends that are all ready to feed a fire? How about cans of paint, cleaning solvents, and waste rags? Fire loves them. And remember that loose bricks in a chimney or fireplace are just what a fire is looking for.

The loss of a home is more than a purely material waste. Fire insurance, vital as it is, can't pay for everything. It can build you a new house, but it can't replace possessions whose value is largely intrinsic. In many of our home fires, human beings are killed, injured and mutilated and all the money in the world can't make up for that.

Watch the clock for ninety seconds, and realize that while you were doing it a home burned somewhere. When you return to your own home today, search it from top to bottom for hazards and get rid of them.

"I didn't know," was Thoreau's reply, that we had ever quarreled.—Quote.

New Chevrolet Goes On Display Here Saturday

The automatic transmission, hailed as the most revolutionary driving aid since the advent of the self-starter, makes its first appearance in the low-price automobile field, Saturday, January 7, with the introduction of 1950 Chevrolets.

Chevrolet's application is an exclusive development known as Powerglide. A product of company research covering the entire postwar period, it is the chief element in an optional, extra-cost "power-team". Included is a larger, more powerful engine and many refinements that extend throughout the line of new passenger car models.

Also presented for the first time to the retail automobile market is the Bel-Air, a luxurious six-passenger coupe possessing the swank of the convertible with the practicality of the solid top. With the Bel Air as leader, the latest series contains two individually-styled sedans and two four-door sedans, a sport coupe, business coupe, convertible coupe, and all-steel station wagon. As in the 1949 models, when Chevrolet set new volume records to once again lead the industry in sales, most of the bodies are available in "special" and "de luxe" treatments.

Improvements through the 1950 chassis and bodies are many. A new "Power-Jet" carburetor eliminates the "lean" periods in gasoline feed and affords quicker warmup in cold weather. Each of the six-cylinder passenger car engines follows the traditional economical valve-in-head design. In the new bodies, stylists have accomplished striking effects with smart, two-tone upholstery and freshly-fashioned exterior metalwork.

The Powerglide automatic transmission makes use of hydraulic torque conversion, a method of smoothly transmitting power to wheels that received considerable impetus during the war in the search for more maneuverable armored vehicles.

"SAFE" COTTON URGED FOR HOSPITAL USE

The exclusive use of cotton wearing apparel by doctors and nurses in hospital operating rooms where combustible or explosive anesthetics are used has been urged by fire authorities.

Ether and other anesthetics explode violently when ignited by tiny electrostatic sparks caused when synthetic fabrics rub or brush against other materials.

crankshaft, is now transferred through rapidly whirling oil. The force is increased in direct proportion to throttle pressure, as with the conventional clutch and gear transmission. However, instead of the steps involved with mechanical gear linkage to reduce engine speed as the car gathers momentum, the flow of power to the rear wheels is fluid and variable. Once the car is moving with the lever in "Drive" position, no shifting action is necessary regardless of the number of traffic stops-and-goes.

To develop an automatic transmission, Chevrolet engineers had two major problems even after the fundamental principles had been determined. The first was to design a unit that would meet Chevrolet's high-volume, quality standards. The second was to assure the economical operation for which the car has been famous.

Sopkesmen for the National Fire Protection Association and International Association of Electrical Inspectors, in stressing potential danger accompanying use of synthetic fibers in hospitals, point out the outstanding safety of cotton shown by laboratory measurements of electrostatic potentials. These tests reveal cotton as far safer than ten other leading textile fibers. It was shown to be 21 times safer than nylon, 18 times safer than orlon, and 2 to 11 times safer than rayon.

BOYCE HOUSE

Frank S. Gray, native of San Saba County, then 82 years old, told in the San Saba Star in 1944 some interesting occurrences of early days. He recalled selling to a San Angelo man a thousand head of cattle at $6 per head, with calves under eight months thrown in for good measure. Then, one cow would buy 12 acres of land.

His father, R. W. Gray, drove cattle by way of Fort Concho to Fort Sumner, N. M., in 1867 at a time when water was scarce and Indians plentiful. Denied an escort of troops, Mr. Gray proceeded west from Fort Concho with 1,700 head of cattle. They left Mustang Lake on the head of the Middle Concho and headed west for Horsehead Crossing on the Pecos. The animals were three days without water and by the time the Pecos was reached, the trail drivers having missed the crossing, the cattle had a real pileup. Smelling the water, they went wild and many leaped from the bluffs of the Pecos and were drowned. Three hundred were lost in this way. After they had gotten across the river the cowhands were so dead for sleep that the Indians got away with another 500 head.

The son, Mr. Frank Gray, a cattleman, told of the struggle between the cowmen and the sheepmen, of the days when guns

Single Acre Yields 5-Bale Cotton Crop

What may be an all-time cotton production record was reported this season on the farm of C. B. Peay in Oktibbeha County, Mississippi, where the incredible total of five bales of cotton was produced on a single acre.

To experienced farmers, who think they have achieved to production when they grow two bales per acre, the five-bale story is an item worthy of Robt. Ripley's "believe it or not" columns. Mr. Peay's neighbors will testify to the veracity of the story as will the records showing sums he has paid to cotton pickers for gathering his crop.

Mr. Peay grew the amazing cotton yield on land that is generally regarded as some of the poorest in the area. The field has been inspected by scores of farmers and agricultural experts. They attribute Mr. Peay's fabulous production to a perfect combination of weather, seed, fertilizer and work.

The land was relinquished to the bank some years ago when the original owner found it so unproductive it would not pay. Mr. Peay bought the land and with his wife and two sons began the slow process of building it up.

This season the Mississippi farmer concentrated his efforts on the acre he had selected as his best. He used 500 pounds of 5-10-5 fertilizer and applied 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate as a side dressing later. He poisoned early and continued through the season.

Pickers who gathered the cotton crop brought in a bale at the first picking. They told the land owner then that he would have five bales on the acre. At that time, Mr. Peay laughed at them. Today he is laughing in a different way—his records show that 2504 pounds have been gathered worth about $750 at current prices.

FASTER, SAFER HOOK-UPS... BETTER PLOWING With the Massey-Harris 802 PLOW

Back into it... drive away with it. Attaching the new Massey-Harris 802 Mounted Plow to your tractor is that easy. Detaching is just as easy! And those quick hook-ups really come in handy when a rush drawbar job must be done.

A simple safety release protects both the 802 and your tractor from damage. When a solid obstruction is hit, the entire plow is released from your tractor. That's positive protection... especially valuable when you're plowing rooty or rocky soil.

Both the leveling and depth levers are easily reached from your place on the tractor. And easily set to the position you want for good, clean plowing... a better job.

Be sure to see us the next time you're in town. We've got complete details on the new Massey-Harris 802 Mounted Plow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Akers Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary Dec. 24

Christmas Eve was a special event for a beloved pioneer couple who have lived forty of their fifty years or wedded life in Munday.

They are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Akers of Munday, who were honored on Saturday, December 24, with an open house at their home in Munday in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary. Hostesses for the open house were their daughters, Mrs. O. F. Temple of Seymour and Mrs. E. D. David of Gorman.

All of the couple's grandchildren and two great grandchildren were present, including a granddaughter, Mrs. Clark K. Poppell, who has just arrived home from Tokyo, Japan. She is the former Ophelia Temple. Mrs. Byron Shupe and her two children, Adrian and Andrea, were also present. Others present included O. F. Temple, Seymour and E. O. David and son, Billy, of Gorman.

The lovely Akers home was a profusion of beautiful flowers, which had been sent by relatives and friends. A sister of Mrs. Akers sent flowers from Memphis, Tenn.

Around fifty guests called during the open house hours and were greeted by the "bride and groom" and the hostesses.

Married at DeLeon on December 24, 1899, Mr. and Mrs. Akers were engaged in the mercantile business there, coming to Munday in 1902, where they have resided since that time except for a return to Comanche County for several years.

Mr. Akers came to Munday and entered the mercantile business ahead of his wife, she remaining in DeLeon and operating their mercantile establishment there for a year before joining him in this new western country.

Retiring when their health began to fail, Mr. and Mrs. Akers moved to a health camp in the 1930's, but continued to call Munday home. They returned some seven or eight years ago and have occupied their home here since that time.

They have been a part of the community for forty-two years. They have grown with the community, grown in the love and respect of their friends and loved ones, and their friends are

Here's a good 1950 resolution: "I will start today taking advantage of the safe, sure way of saving by purchasing U. S. Savings Bonds. That is one habit I will adhere to, come what may." Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Seasonal health hazards for young children are to be guarded against in the winter-time just as carefully as they are in the summertime in the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Every mother is familiar with so-called summer complaints which affect small children but certain winter diseases can be just as harmful and are just as likely to make their appearance unless proper precautions are used," Dr. Cox said.

In the group of winter diseases Dr. Cox included influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, and even diphtheria when a child has not been immunized. Any such disease affecting a child's respiratory or breathing system is apt to be very serious and only too often fatal. Pneumonia often developed from a neglected cold may follow a severe case of measles or whooping cough. Bronchitis condition may also prove to be an after effect of these diseases and these respiratory ailments are much more difficult to combat successfully than the digestive ailments which are prevalent in the summertime and known as summer complaints.

"These winter diseases are especially dangerous to babies and very young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread from the secretions of the nose and mouth. Children not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints and the first line of defense against them is to strengthen the child's power of resistance against disease." Dr. Cox advised "The second step is to

Cotton Quotas Now In Effect

Texas cotton farmers will have to take cotton marketing quotas under consideration in planning their 1950 farming operations, B. F. Vance, State Production and Marketing Administration director, pointed out today.

Approval of cotton marketing quotas by more than two-thirds of the nation's cotton farmers in the December 15 referendum means that the quotas will be in effect on the 1950 crop.

A cotton farmer who plants within his cotton acreage allotment can market all of his cotton without penalty. His marketing quota is the production from his acreage allotment. He can obtain a government loan on his cotton at 90 percent of parity, and he will be eligible to receive conservation assistance payments from the PMA.

A cotton farmer who plants more land than his acreage allotment must pay a penalty amounting to one-half parity price on any excess cotton he sells. Current parity price is about 30 cents on excess cotton if marketing quotas were in effect in this year's crop. Parity changes, and so the marketing penalty will change from month to month.

Under the law, excess cotton subject to penalty is that cotton produced from the acres in excess of the allotment. The amount of cotton subject to penalty will be determined by multiplying the number of overplanted acres by the normal cotton yield of the farm.

In addition, cotton produced on a farm where the cotton allotment was overplanted will not be eligible for a government cotton loan. Nor can the farm receive PMA conservation assistance payments.

Cook lard over a moderate fire and stir to prevent sticking or scorching. Keep the temperature below 245 degrees Fahrenheit.

To clean a scorched pan, put soap and water in the pan and simmer—then remove the scorched spots without scratching the surface of the pan.

The currency known as "paper money" actually is 75 percent cotton fiber.

Paducah Lawyer First To Enter 1950 Politics

Enters Into Race Of District Attorney

Roy A. Jones, now serving his fifth term as county attorney of Cottle County, is the first to enter the field of politics for 1950 in Knox County. He seeks promotion to the office of District Attorney, and makes the following statement to the voters of Cottle, King, Knox and Baylor Counties:

Next July you will elect a district attorney to serve in the 50th Judicial District and I hereby announce that I am a candidate for that important office.

When I was three years of age I was married and have four children whose ages run from eight months to eight years. My wife and I both belong to the Baptist church and I am a member of the American Legion. I was born on May 22, 1910 in Farmersville, Collin County, Texas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones. The family moved to Paducah when I was three years of age and we have lived in Paducah ever since that time. During my high school years I worked after school hours and on Saturdays for a grocery store. I graduated from Paducah High School in May 1928, and in the fall of that year I began a two-year part-time Business Administration Course in North Texas Agricultural College in Arlington, Texas. While taking this course I would work six weeks for the Brown Cracker and Candy Company in Dallas, Texas, and then attend my college classes in Arlington for the next six weeks. I received my diploma from NTAC in May 1930 and became a full-time employee with the said company.

In the fall of 1932, while still working ten hours each day for the Brown Cracker and Candy Company, I began the study of law at night at the Jefferson University School of Law in Dallas, Texas. I attended my night classes from two to four hours each night five nights each week for the next three years and received my Bachelor of Law Degree and my license to practice law in Texas in June 1935. In the fall of 1935 I entered the University of Texas where I majored in Economics. I paid all of my own expenses while attending the University by serving as a janitor in the library building, by mowing the grass on the University campus and by selling soda water at the football games. I received my Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Texas in June 1939 and then began the practice of law in Paducah. The following year I was elected County Attorney of Cottle County and soon after the election I married Miss Myrtle Ratchford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ratchford of Paint Rock, Texas.

In 1942 I waived my classification in Selective Service as a married man with a child and volunteered for service in the Army or Navy. I was not accepted then, but the following year I volunteered two more times and was accepted for service in the Army in September 1943. I was soon assigned to the Army Intelligence Corps where I became a Sergeant Investigator in which capacity I served until the war was over. I received an Honorable Discharge from the Army in October 1945 and returned to my home in Paducah. My friends had elected me as their County Attorney while I was away in the Army and I was most thankful for a job to return to after the war. In 1948 the voters of Cottle county elected me as their County Attorney for my fifth consecutive term. During this period I have helped the last four District Attorneys of this district to prosecute cases in the District Court of Cottle County. I believe that I am qualified by age, education and experience to make you a good district attorney and I shall appreciate your promoting me to this higher office. In the coming months I hope to talk to each voter personally concerning my race, but in the meantime, please consider this announcement made in all of the newspapers published in this district as an appeal for your vote and influence.

Walter Medley and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson of Santa Rosa, New Mexico, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Warren were visitors in the home of Mrs. J. W. Medley of Haskell last Sunday.

Former Munday Boy Weds Plainview Girl December 17th

Miss Jeri Ruth Robason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robason, of Plainview, became the bride of Richard Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henderson of Olton, on Saturday, December 17th, at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Olton. John R. Fulmer, minister of the Church of Christ, performed the impressive double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with fern and tall baskets of white gladioli and white stock flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers. White satin bows designated the pews reserved for the relatives and intimate friends.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Harold G. Wilson, pianist, played "Bells of St. Mary's", "The Rosary" by Nevin, "I Love You Truly", "Claire De Lune", "Nocturne in E flat" and "Schubert's Serenade". She was accompanied by Miss Belle Sorley, who sang, "Because" and "Oh, Promise Me". Mrs. Wilson also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, a charming picture in a street length dress of all over blue silk lace over white taffeta, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice and circular skirt. Her hat was a close fitting winter white felt. She carried a white Bible topped with pink rose buds, white stock and showered with white satin streamers and tiny roebuds and stock.

For something blue, she chose her wedding gown. For something old and borrowed she wore a gold bracelet which had belonged to Mrs. L. L. Kyle, mother of Mrs. W. B. Smith, Jr.

Betty Sue Robason attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a gray slipper satin dress with fitted bodice and circular skirt and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Misses Dorothy Green and Mary Nell LaDuke were bridesmaids and they wore winter pink frocks and close fitting winter white hats and carried nosegays of blue carnations centered with pink carnations.

Jack Coleman served the groom as best man and the ushers were Bill Smith and Dennis Barnett. The ushers lighted the candles. The bride's mother wore a plum crepe dress with pink hat and gloves and a corsage of American Beauty rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a royal blue crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty rosebuds. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smith, Jr. The couple were assisted in receiving by their parents.

Miss Lyrle Hoefacket, cousin of the bride, registered the guests. Miss Lera Beth Holt served the cake. Mrs. Bud Huckabee poured the punch.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a lovely floral piece of white gladioli and stock on a mirror.

Out-of-town guests were present from Plainview, Littlefield, and Friona.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico the couple are making their home in Olton.

For traveling the bride chose a wine suit with brown accessories and complemented with a pink rosebud corsage.

The groom is a graduate of Olton High School and served sixteen months in the Army Air Corps. He is employed at the C. E. Bley Dry Goods Store in Olton. Mrs. Henderson is a graduate of Olton High School and attended St. Louis Institute of Music, St. Louis, Missouri. She teaches private piano lessons at Springlake.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wiggins, Billy Bouldin, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hallmark and H. B. Helms attended the Cotton Bowl football game in Dallas last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Link returned to their home in Lubbock last Monday after visiting relatives and friends here and in Stamford during the holidays.

HADACOL Helps Textile Worker Stay On Job

The great textile mills of the Carolinas are booming again with shifts working day and night to turn out the nation's finest materials, and HADACOL is doing its part to keep folks on the job.

Many textile workers have reported the wonderful relief which HADACOL with its five B vitamins and four important minerals. This worker, a young father employed by the great Cannon Mills at Kannapolis, N. C.

Jay W. Barnhardt, Route 3, Box 343, Kannapolis, N. C., is 30 years old and the proud father of two children. His work in the Cannon Mills calls for a great deal of standing up.

"I had been ill for several years," said Mr. Barnhardt as he explained how close he came to having to give up his work. "I suffered with a weak stomach. It became worse and worse with gastric disturbances. I just could not hold food and no food agreed with me. I could not sleep and finally I became so sick that my legs got weak as I worked in the mill each day."

Mr. Barnhardt, like so many sufferers, had tried many preparations without relief when he heard about HADACOL.

"After the second bottle of HADACOL I began to feel better and I regained the weight I had lost," said Mr. Barnhardt. "My digestion became normal again and today I am as well as ever. My legs no longer bother me. I eat and enjoy my food. I sleep well and have plenty of energy."

Mr. Barnhardt has taken several bottles of HADACOL and now takes the famous vitamin and mineral preparation to help stay well. He has had his wife take it with wonderful results and has recommended it to his friends in the mill.

Mr. Barnhardt suffered from a lack of B vitamins and the minerals which HADACOL contains. HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can get to work right away.

A lack of only a small amount of B vitamins and certain minerals will cause digestive disturbances. . . . Your food will not agree with you. . . . You will have an upset stomach. . . . You will suffer from heartburn, gas pains and your food will sour on your stomach and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the signs of lack of B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains. And if you suffer from such a deficiency disorder, there is no known cure except the administration of the vitamins and minerals which your system lacks.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL.

Stamford PCA Has Memorable Year In 1949

"The year 1949 is a memorable one in the history of the Production Credit system in Texas," says C. G. Burson, President of the Stamford Production Credit Association. "In 1949, twenty-one of the associations paid the last of the Government money advanced to them as capital stock in 1933-1934. The other 15 associations in Texas had repaid this capital in previous years—the Stamford Production Credit Association having paid in 1948, and we have been a fully member-owned, self-supporting, tax-paying business ever since."

The 36 associations make up one of the 12 production credit districts in the United States, and the Texas district is the first one in the United States to return ALL the Government investment to the United States Treasury.

According to Mr. Burson, the Stamford Production Credit Association had its beginning in Haskell on January 6, 1934. It was then known as the Haskell Production Credit Association, and served Haskell, Jones, Knox and Stonewall Counties, and had as directors, J. F. McCulloch and W. C. Church of Jones County, J. B. Pumphrey and Em Wright of Stonewall County, Jack C. Idol and W. E. McNeill of Knox County, R. C. Montgomery, J. W. Adcock and W. H. McCandless of Haskell County.

On June 13, 1934, the Haskell Production Credit Association consolidated with the Spur association and became known as the Spur Production Credit Association, serving Dickens, Haskell, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Motley and Stonewall Counties, but it was felt that better service could be rendered from Stamford, so on August 16, 1934, it was transferred to Stamford, and thereafter called the Stamford Production Credit Association. Motley County became part of the territory of the Memphis Production Credit Association, and to replace it, Shackelford County was added to the Stamford association's territory. The first directors of the Stamford Production Credit Association were George S. Link, J. F. McCulloch, J. B. Pumphrey, J. B. Morrison and W. C. Church. The Secretary-Treasurer was Martin McCain, who was succeeded by the present Secretary-Treasurer, J. L. Hill, Jr. on September 15, 1935. The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Paul L. Summers, came to the Association November 15, 1935, and the Assistant Treasurer, J. R. Gleaton, started with the Association August 16, 1943. Present directors of the Stamford Production Credit Association are C. G. Burson, Haskell; J. F. McCulloch, Stamford; J. B. Pumphrey, Old Glory; J. Spurgeon Reeves, Hawley, and Lasater Hensley, Guthrie. Officers are C. G. Burson, President; J. F. McCulloch, Vice-President; J. L. Hill, Jr., Sec.-Treasurer; Paul L. Summers, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer; J. R. Gleaton, Assistant Treasurer. Other employees of the Stamford office is Royce L. Williams.

The Spur association has offices at Anson, Aspermont, Haskell, Munday and Spur. The representative at Anson is M. E. Carothers, with Mrs. Faye North as assistant. Wayman Smith is in charge of the Aspermont office. J. V. Hudson and R. C. Cobb are in the Haskell office. C. R. Elliott is manager of the Munday office, and is assisted by Mrs. Aaron Edgar. M. L. Rickels is representative at Spur.

Added Beauty, Style Feature New Chryslers

In its 1950 line, now on display in dealers' showrooms throughout the country, Chrysler offers new styling, inside and out, including new upholstery in virtually all models; the introduction of an entirely new body style available in both the six and eight-cylinder line; improvements in the instrumental panel, larger brakes on the six-cylinder models and an improved booster on the brakes of the eights; increased visibility through a rear window that has 27 percent more glass area; a slight increase in height, width and length, a wider rear tread on the sixes, and a refinement of numerous features introduced in the 1949 models. Nineteen body styles are listed and 15 standard body colors, eight of which are entirely new.

Appearance improvements began at the front bumper and are carried through to the rear bumper, giving the new line distinction and individuality. Different styling features have been incorporated in the sixes and eights, so that one is readily distinguishable from the other at first glance. Among the points of difference between the two lines are parking lights, the length of the moulding on the front fender, the nameplate on the front of the radiator and the wheel cover.

Front-end styling features an entirely new die-cast grille, comprising three heavy horizontal bars, topped by a fourth bar that curves down at the ends. In the sixes, a rectangular parking light is located below each headlight between the top and bottom bars of the grille. These bars extend out to wrap around the fender. In the eights, a new round parking light is installed in a chrome grille plate underneath each headlight. This chrome plate fills the space between the top and bottom bars of the grille. Seven thin vertical bars are placed between the horizontal bars of the grille. A new enameled nameplate with chrome wings is placed just above the center of the grille in the sixes. The name Chrysler in script is used on the eights in this position. There is a new hood ornament placed lower on the hood.

Front bumpers are two inches wider than in the preceding model and new-style bumper guards complement the deep-section bumper and frame the license plate holder.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Comes Up With His 1950 Resolve Not To Do Any Better Than He Did In 1949

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek seems to be starting the new year off about like he finished the old one, his letter this week reveals. Dear editor:

I was out here yesterday trying to get over Christmas and collect my thoughts for the coming year, lots of folks I know spend a lot of time getting their farm equipment ready for a new year, get their planters ready, overhaul their plows, get their tractors tuned up, but neglect tuning up their minds, although a man that relies on his brain as much as I do to keep from relying on a clutivator needs to get his mind in shape, let the other equipment look out for itself, and I got to thinkin.

With 1950 already on us, a man who is broad-gauged and looks beyond the immediate future needs not only some resolutions for the new year but also some of the new half-century, unhe's plannin on usin the same.

As for me, I figured out the resolution business a long time ago, and under my system a man don't have no trouble at all keepin his word.

For example, in 1950 I don't expect to plant no more cotton than I did in 1949 and I blamed sure ain't gonna work it any harder, and if the government is settin up a acreage control program for me, it can save its time, it doesn't take an act of Congress to get me to work less.

Moreover, I don't expect to have any less Johnson grass at the end of the year than I started with and I got Johnson grass in every direction now, I know when I'm whipped and Johnson grass and me buried our differences long ago when I seen which one had the most energy and as far as I'm concerned there's room for both of us out here, Don't know whether capitalism and communism can live together in the same world, but me and Johnson grass can.

Also, I don't expect 1950 to be any better than 1949. People are always excusin themselves and sayin next year will be better, but it generally ain't and besides I ain't got many complaints against last year anyway. "Pretty good year. Started out nip-and-tuck, wound up nip-and-tuck, and my observation is that most people find most years the same way, and my policy has always been to enjoy the situation at hand, regardless of the economic index.

In short, I don't expect to do no better in 1950 than I did in 1949, and I expect to enjoy doin it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

FREEDOM PAYS OFF... FOR YOU

you hear a lot of talk about the advantages of making our government socialistic. Don't be fooled. Freedom—and that's the American Way—pays off, and here's proof: Americans are only 1/16 of the world's population. Yet this handful of people produces almost 1/2 of the world's goods—mostly for its own enjoyment. What other system beats that?

AMERICANS HAVE MORE—

AMERICANS HAVE MORE OF EVERYTHING THAN ANYBODY ELSE!

Remember that, when you hear tales of the marvels of a socialistic government... when people urge that our government get that way by taking over the electric industry, steel, railroads, medicine, and so on and on. Look at the record. AMERICANS HAVE MORE OF EVERYTHING THAN ANYBODY ELSE. Freedom did it, and never forget that. It makes a lot of difference to you—and to your family.

Uncle Sam Says

Planted wisely, the money you have this year of 1950 can be the seed that grows into dreams come true, a harvest of farm or ranch expansion, education for the children or that long vacation trip you've wanted. Invest every possible penny in U. S. Savings Bonds, then every $3 you plant today will yield $4 in 1960. Bonds are just as important a part of a well-managed farm as its land, livestock or machinery. With U. S. Savings Bonds, your financial reserves are in the safest possible form and readily available. ONE MAN'S OPINION

I will plant a good garden, and I am a little farmer with two row stuff
 Thirty acres of cotton will hardly be enough.
 But I will trudge along as the law says I may,
 I will plant a good garden, and raise plenty of hay.
 And the pigs won't squeal in the pen at the back,
 For I will have plenty of grain to pitch through the crack.
 The old hens will cackle, and the rooster will crow,
 So we won't have a shortage of eggs, you know.
 The cows on the hillside will graze,
 While we hoe our cotton and our maize.
 I will plant plenty of vetch and rye
 In order to make my production high.
 Will fight the insects, and pray for good weather
 Then live in hopes of having good crops to gather.
 We will have our cotton gathered 'way before frost
 Machinery will be our motto; none will be lost.
