

Kracker Krumb's Odds Bits Salvaged at Random

The late Walter Cousins was well known in early-day Munday for his philosophy, his wit, his writing and poetry, and his pharmaceutical ability. The following poem which came from his pen was handed us several days ago by a subscriber:

OLD TIMES IN MUNDAY By W. H. Cousins

Stranger, I'm an old settler,
Didn't come here er tall,
Jes been here always,
And I'll swear I know 'em all.

Knownud Munday when she wuz er baby,
Er ruther when she was twins,
And the tightnest pair of infants,
That ever got in ther weind.

The surname of these infants
wuz Munday,
That I sposen you cud guess,
Called one us these twins East
Munday,
The other's name was West.

Thees twins they used to get lively,
When liquor was on the run,
Up thar in Wilson's ballroom,
We used to have scads of fun.

Fletcher Wren wud do the fidd-lin,
With his fingers blistered
white,
Drawed the bow like a drunken greaser,
Jes to keep 'em steppin' right.

Old Fletch wud rest a minit,
From his bottle take a draw,
And for playin uv the feller,
Who traveled in Arkansaw.

Uv of all the quick stampeidin',
Rusty raggin' out o' sight,
It was just then takin' place,
At the noontide uv night.

Bob Wilson done the callin'
Fer these awul rags,
And he set his hoofs to millin'
Like an Indian on a jag.

Double on the corners,
And his under jaw would fall,
Jest like the lid uv a chuck box,
As he whooped out balance all.

He called the crack cotillion,
With the voice of a grizzly
bear,
While he tripped the light fantastic,
Through the frosty midnight air.

Them days is gone, now, stranger,
We do them stunts no more,
We're wearin' Epworth League
pins,
Instid of forty-fours.

Ed Wallace, a parson from Memphis,
Worked up an awful change,
With the biggest religious round-up,
That ever took place on this range.

He cut out the hardened sinners,
And drifted 'em up in a wad,
And in his cowboy fashion,
Taught 'em the love of God.

Thars old Cholly Mayes of the Circles,
Who wrangled in the big cor-
rall,
Has quit hobblin' for the present,
And is tearin' tape for the gals.

And dishin' out beans to the nesters
At Alexander's big sto,
With a smile on his face like a prairie free,
In the grass a long time ago.

Bill Baker, the good old Van
Zandter
The man that's hard to lose,
Is dealin off Moline wagons,
Calico, bacon and shoes.

When the Willis Point Chronicle fails
To show up when the time is ripe,
Bill thinks the Universe
Has certainly pied a type.

"House Of Wax," 3-D Movie To Be Shown At Local Theatre August 30th

The first feature-length film in three dimension from a major studio, Warner Bros. "House of Wax," in WarnerColor, starring Vincent Price, Frank Lovejoy and Phyllis Kirk, will be the fare at the Roxy Theatre starting Sunday, Aug. 30th for a three day run.

Employing the Natural Vision 3-D process which is said to produce a three dimensional effect, Warner Bros. hopes to achieve in the "House of Wax" a unique form of entertainment which will closely duplicate actual sight. The audience, it has been reported, reacts to the picture on the screen as though it was standing on the street or in the room that is pictured.

In the part of Professor Henry Jarrod, Vincent Price returns to the screen after a successful tour of various theatrical enterprises. The handsome leading man, in the role of a sculptor whose face is mutilated by fire, wears a mask of theatrical make-up that is said to set a new standard in the cosmetic art.

Frank Lovejoy, returning to the ranks of law and order after a brief sojourn on the other side of the fence in "The System," is cast as the police lieutenant in charge of tracking down a mad-dened killer.

One of Warner Bros.' young stars, Phyllis Kirk, is given her finest role to date as the girl who seeks to solve the mystery of the House of Wax.

The top featured roles are taken by newcomer Carolyn Jones and handsome Paul Picerni in the story which concerns the transformation of a sensitive artist, Jarrod, into a human monster. Horribly maimed by a sea of flames which destroy his wax museum, Jarrod wanders about the city maddened beyond the point of murder. His victims number those people whom he blames for his adversity. Suspicion is cast upon Jarrod when, in his deranged state of mind, he creates wax statues of his victims and displays them in a new house of wax.

Band Director Urges Members To Band Practice

Harold Jackson, new director of the Munday Mogul Band, is urging all band members and others interested to be present at the band lessons.

He stated that if more high school members didn't attend the practice lessons, it would be impossible for the band to play at football games. "Munday has enough good material," he said, "to have one of the best bands in the district."

The Moguls' first football game is scheduled for September 11 at Iowa Park, and Mr. Jackson is anxious to have a good band for this game.

Mr. and Mrs. Chent Greenwood and Clifford Straw of Knox City and Mrs. J. P. Smith and Barbara of Munday were recent visitors in the home of J. L. Smith and family in Plainview.

Mrs. Fortenberry, Pioneer Of Area, Dies August 19th

Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie Fortenberry, pioneer of this area, were held Thursday afternoon, August 20, at 4 p. m. from the Methodist church in Knox City. Rev. Oscar Bruce, pastor, and Rev. E. V. Becker, Baptist pastor, officiated.

Mrs. Fortenberry passed away in the Knox County Hospital at 8:30 a. m. Wednesday after a lengthy illness. She had been bedfast for over two months, after she fell and fractured a hip.

She was born August 30, 1876 in Navarro County, Texas, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brock. She moved to the Knox Prairie with her father in 1892, settling near where the Thorpe store now stands. Her father sold this homestead, which was just over the Knox County line, and bought extensive holdings in the Brock community which was later named for him. Her father's name heads the list of donors for building the Methodist Church in Knox City.

In December, 1897, she married the late John B. Fortenberry in the Gillespie community. She had been a member of the Methodist Church since she was 8 years old and attended regularly as long as her health permitted.

Survivors are one son, Hayden, of Corpus Christ; one daughter, Mrs. Willie Weaver of Munday; a sister, Mrs. Maud Alford of Rogers, N. M.; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Interment was in the Knox City cemetery under the direction of Warren Funeral Home.

Speaker

Carlos Gruber of Plainview, above, will be the principal speaker at the Haskell-Knox Baptist Brotherhood association meeting on Thursday evening, September 3, at the Rule Baptist church. The program will begin at 7:30 p. m., and another interesting feature is special music by the Rule quartet.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hawkins and Jan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tidwell and children and Durwood Thigpen spent last week at Junction and Garner State Park enjoying fishing, boating and swimming.

Signing a new sales agreement for the Ford tractor franchise in this area is Mr. Winston Blacklock (center) of Munday Implement Company. Looking on are Mr. M. H. Turner (right), Dallas Sales Manager, and Mr. Peter Stewart, Executive Vice-President of The Stewart Company, Texas Ford Tractor Distributor, Dallas and San Antonio.

A BOY ARRIVES FOR JOSEPH BORDENS

The 20th day of August shall herewith be noted as a very important date in the history of Texas—might even become a national date of importance. That is the date Joseph Chester, III, made his appearance at the Wichita Clinic Hospital, weighing not quite six pounds. He arrived at 5 p. m., and the day was Thursday. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Borden of Wichita Falls.

This is the first grandchild for the J. C. Bordens and the "umpteenth" one for the Press Phillips, though they are both beaming with grandparental pride.

Mother and baby are at home at 3411 Sherwood Lane, Wichita Falls, and are getting along fine.

W. T. U.'s New Generating Station Is Now In Operation At Paint Creek Lake

Babb Will Open New Store Here In Near Future

J. W. Babb and his son, M. H. Babb, are making plans for the opening of a new store in Munday in the near future. They have leased the building formerly occupied by the Corner Drug Store, and equipment and merchandise are being moved in this week.

Mr. Babb operated a men's and boys' store in Abilene for some 25 years. The building he occupied sold, and he was forced to move the store.

He stated Monday that present plans are for M. H. Babb and his wife and daughter to move to Munday and operate the store. They will handle men's and boys wear as well as some ladies' and children's ready-to-wear.

"This is not a fly-by-night store," Mr. Babb stated, "as we have come to Munday to stay." He will likely be ready to open within the next ten days.

Back To Munday

Royce Hardy, above, and his family returned to Munday last week to make their home. Hardy, who has been manager of Cobb's Department Store in Graham for better than a year, returns here as manager of the Munday store. He succeeds E. E. King, who was transferred to the Lubbock store.

Local Merchants Welcome Return Of Auction Sale

Feeling that the livestock auction sales filled a vital need, both for buyers, stockmen and merchants of this area, practically all business houses of Munday are welcoming the return of the sales locally.

The first livestock sale will be held at the Munday Livestock Commission Company barns next Tuesday at one o'clock and these will be continued on Tuesday of each week.

Operating the commission company are: B. D. Green of Cisco as manager, J. P. Phillips of Breckenridge as co-owner, and Bill White of Dill City Oklahoma, as part owner and auctioneer. "We solicit the business of farmers and ranchers of this area," these men stated, "and our aim is to please." A number of buyers are expected to be here each sales day.

Hailing the return of the auction sales, officers and directors of the Munday Chamber of Commerce are planning to serve a free barbecue dinner next Tuesday to all buyers, sellers and patrons of the commission company. Plans are being made to feed several hundred people for this event.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Sgt. and Mrs. Emil Hoff and son of San Jose, Calif., came in last Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Harrison. Sgt. Hoff will report for overseas duty on September 4. Mrs. Hoff and son will remain in Munday during his time overseas.

West Texas Utilities Company's Paint Creek generating station is now a "work-in-unit" of the Company's generating system. Following a system of "shake-down runs" in June and July, the 33,000 KW turbo-generating unit at the new power station at Paint Creek reservoir is now operating on a 24 hour schedule. The addition of this new unit has increased the Company's total generating capability to 212,470 K.W.

The unit at Paint Creek is the second major generating unit with the Company has placed in operation this year. In June, a 33,000 KW unit was put in service at the Company's Concho Power Plant at San Angelo. At the present time West Texas Utilities Company has 5 major steam generating stations, 1 gas turbine plant and 14 fourteen standby oil engine plants. The Concho station at San Angelo has a capability of 65,000 KW; the Abilene station, 32,000 KW; the Pauline station near Quanah, 49,000 KW; the Rio Pecos station near McCamey, 18,000 KW; and the Paint Creek station, 32,000 KW. The Fort Stockton gas turbine plant has a capability of 5,000 KW; and the fourteen standby oil engine plants can generate 10,470 KW.

Located on a 120 acre site on the north shore of the Paint Creek Reservoir, the Paint Creek generating plant is fourteen miles southeast of Haskell and sixteen miles northeast of Stamford.

While construction on the new Paint Creek station was begun early in 1952, the generating unit itself was actually ordered in 1950. The general contractor for the plant was the Austin Building Company with R. V. Sasse serving as West Texas Utilities Company's construction engineer.

A staff of 22 under the direction of O. C. Holt, Chief Engineer and J. R. Cook, Assistant Engineer, operate the plant on 3 eight hour shifts 7 days a week.

In June, heavy rains in the Hamlin-Stamford-Haskell area poured water into the Paint Creek Reservoir providing enough water for the operation of the plant. The plant uses water principally for cooling and condensing steam. Water at the rate of 30,000 gallons per minute is pumped from the lake on one side of the plant through the condensers and returned to the lake on the other side of the plant. Other than for sanitary purposes, the plant consumes very little water. Engineers point out that the water merely comes in contact with clean polished brass tubes and is in no way contaminated by plant use.

While the plant is now classed as a working unit, actually a great deal of construction and other types of work remain to be done. The plant personnel estimate that it will require many weeks "putting on the finishing touches."

Football Boys To Meet Monday

From cool Colorado came a card Wednesday from Coach Vernon Leverett, who has called at meeting of all Munday Mogul football players for next Monday afternoon at one o'clock.

Leverett expects to begin his team organization at this meeting, and all students who want to come out for football this season are urged to be present.

First Bale For County Is Ginned

Knox County's first bale of 1953 cotton rolled into Knox City on Wednesday afternoon, August 26, and was ginned at 3 p. m. by the Paymaster Gin of Knox City.

The cotton was grown by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Boyd. Out of 2250 pounds of cotton, the Boyds received a 460-pound bale and 900 pounds of seed.

E. R. Carpenter, manager, bought the bale for Paymaster Gins, giving the owners 35 cents per pound.

WORK HARDER AND PAY MORE TAXES

Beale Gould, financial editor of the New York Journal-American, recently gave one of his columns to a letter from a reader. This reader, who is in the $11,000 income range, dealt with a government investigation of the oil industry undertaken because the prices of some oil products have gone up, by about one cent a gallon.

He figures that the one-cent increase will mean that it will cost him $12.22 more to heat his home this year than last, and $6.07 more to run his car, or a total of a little over $18. Then he pointed out that his 1953 federal income tax will run around $500 this year, which is several hundred dollars more than the 1952 figure, and said: "I want them to do something about that $2500 federal tax and let me worry about the $18 I will have to pay the oil companies. Especially when there are checks and balances working for me in private industry and little if any on that tax slug."

"If I earn more money this year through my own efforts, I can still pay the $18 and be more ahead and have something to show for it, but not so with the tax bite. The more I earn, the harder I work, the more I have to pay."

Inevitable forces keep the price charged for oil products or any other commodities from getting out of line—such as consumer resistance, competition, and the law of supply and demand. But we seem to have no protection whatsoever against taxes which can fairly be described as extortionate.

THE PRICE OF FARM MACHINERY

To say that machinery is a "must" in present-day farming is to say the obvious. Efficient equipment is the key to greater production, better production and land use, and production at minimum expense.

Moreover, the cost of that machinery, measured in terms of the market value of basic farm products, is less than it was before the last world war.

That fact is brought out by Dr. Earl L. Butz, of Purdue University. During the first six months of this year, he says, the farmer could buy a typical two-plow tractor for the money received from the sale of 51 hogs, while before World War II it would have taken 64 hogs. And the equipment was cheaper also in terms of milk, corn and wheat, even though these commodities were down in price at the time the comparison was made.

 In second zone, per year.....$2.50

The Munday Times is Democratic, yet supporting only what it believes to be right, and opposing what it believes to be wrong regardless of party politics, publishing news fairly, impartially.

WE MAKE NO CLAIMS: Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of this paper will be gladly corrected upon the notice being given to the publisher at the Munday Times office.

Dr. Butz stresses another highly important fact. In the first six months of 1953 wage rates for farm labor were 423 per cent of the 1935-36 level. Prices received by farmers were at 246 per cent of that level—and the price of new farm machinery at 203 per cent. As he says, "These data again serve to illustrate that it is good economy to substitute machinery for expensive labor."

The machine started an agricultural revolution a little more than a century ago. That revolution continues.

GIVE ME SUBSIDY!

In a recent speech, Dr. U. G. Dubach, professor of political science at Lewis and Clark College, Portland, Oregon, made this cogent observation: "We want the budget cut, but we don't want cuts for appropriations affecting Portland."

He added that this generation, unlike that of Patrick Henry's time, has a philosophy of "Give me subsidy or you can't have my vote."

Dr. Dubach thus characterized the worst disease that now affects the body politic. The idea that government economy is for the other fellow, never for us, is rampant. It is a commonplace for local chambers of commerce and other organizations to demand rigorous economy as a principle—and cry to high heaven when cuts affecting their areas are proposed.

Here is one of the reasons why a balanced budget and tax reductions have not been possible so far. Even more important, the attitude it represents saps the character and fiber of the people, and implacably undermines the foundations of free, representative government.

END OF AN ERA

The action of the Senate Finance Committee in refusing, by a vote of 11-14, to approve raising the federal debt limit, in spite of urgent requests by the President and other top Administration officials, indicates the present temper of national thinking.

Without going into the pros and cons involved in this specific question, it is obvious that the American people want and demand rigorous economy in government, and Congress, naturally, has begun to reflect that attitude. The era when the taxpayers would accept the unbridled spending with hardly a complaint has come to an end.

"We have been anesthetized by hidden taxes, hypnotized by indirect taxes, and pulverized by camouflaged taxes."—Benjamin H. Namm.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE BIBLE

The Bible is the most common book or books in all the world. By common, I mean that it is the most universally known and read. Through the good Providence of God, the Bible has been preserved and translated into many languages and dialects. Yet I suppose that there is more information about the Bible than any other book.

Where did we get it? How has it been preserved? Of course, we know that it came from God and that He preserved it. But how?

There are some claims made by certain religious orders, that they are responsible or that they gave us the Bible today. But the facts deny this and show that no group of people regardless of their religious affiliation.

The Old Testament containing thirty-nine books was first written in Hebrew and translated into the Greek language in 779 B. C. This work was done by seventy scholars at Alexandria, Egypt. It is called the Septuagint, which means "the seventy."

There are not any of the original manuscripts now in existence. Some day they may be found. Now, however, we have only copies of copies of the original.

The New Testament was first written in Greek. We do not now have the original manuscripts for these twenty-seven books. We have copies of the original. There are over two thousand of these, but of this number there are three that are outstanding. All three are open to the scholarship of the world for translation purposes.

Next week we will examine the facts concerning these.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, of Texas
 M. D., State Health Officer

AUSTIN—"Texas health officials are making every effort to improve the sanitary conditions of public eating places, and in addition schools are conducted to instruct foodhandlers. Moreover, there are laws, rules and regulations requiring the uses of improved equipment and methods in such establishments. Nevertheless, one of the most forceful influences for sanitation is not being used and this is the public's unfavorable reaction toward dirty and insanitary places," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The public cannot do the job entirely, nor can health departments bring about desirable and essential practices without the help of the public. As for hygienic practices, persons serving food and drink should be clean; should not cough and sneeze over the utensils and material served; should keep their hands away from their mouth and nose, hair and face; should handle all utensils from the outside instead of putting their fingers on the inside unless these safeguards are practiced, disease may result."

Also, milk served can be appreciated by the patron. Texas law requires that a milk bottle cap state grade of milk and whether it is raw or pasteurized. However, if milk is brought to a patron in a glass, he cannot know whether it is from a graded supply or whether it is raw or pasteurized, but if served properly in its original container, with covered cap and legal label, the patron can secure from the label the information he should have before ever being willing to drink strange milk.

The patron should note sanitation conditions in food establishments. Are the floors, walls, ceilings clean? Are tables and counters clean? Are pies and other ready-to-serve foods protected from dust, dirt and flies? Are flies prevalent?

"Be assured that what can be seen as a patron at the table or counter usually will be many times better, cleaner, and safer than conditions in the kitchen and other places out of sight of the patron," Dr. Cox warns.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Says There're Things More Important Than The H-Bomb That Russia Can't Invent

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has a new slant on the Russian situation, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

There is considerable speculation in this country over whether or not Russia has the Hydrogen bomb.

Malenkov, the temporary dictator of Russia—all dictators are temporary, at least they always have been—claims Russia has the H-bomb, but there ain't a Justice of the Peace court in the United States that'd accept testimony from him with a straight face.

J. A.

A lot of experts in this country have speculated on the matter also, and as I understand their opinions some of them believe Russia has the bomb, others don't. You can see, the experts are on the ball and one or the other is bound to be right.

However, I've been thinkin, whether Russian has the Hydrogen bomb or not doesn't make too much difference, if she has not got it now she will have it sooner or later, keepin such things a permanent secret is about like tryin to keep some other country from figurin out the principle of the ice box or the ironin board.

But there are some things which Russia hasn't got, which makes this country head and shoulders ahead of her. There are some things the Russians just aint got any talent for figurin out.

For example, Russia just ain't never been able to figure out the principle of the privately owned newspaper. Every time some editor over there gets the idea of startin a newspaper, something happens to him. Either his press breaks down, or his nervous system does, or he just disappears and ain't heard from no more. There's a fertile field for independent newspapers over there, but the Russians just don't seem to have the know-how.

Also, Russia's financiers have never perfected the principle of the privately run bank. Those little little confidences which exist between a man in this country and his banker just don't crop up over in Russia. It's not that some Russians are not thrifty, but a man with a bank account over there is as scarce as anti-administration letters to the editor in the state-owned newspapers.

Another thing Russia can't figure out is how to produce barbers with freedom of speech. This ain't necessarily the worst thing about Russia, but there are barbers in this country who would wind up with a nervous breakdown under such a system.

Another thing Russia can't invent is the split ballot, and Supreme Court judges who can't be fired, and farmers who get to keep what they grow if they don't feel like selling, people who loaf when they feel like it. I tell you, whether Russia has the Hydrogen bomb or not is a small matter in the face of all the things she knows about and still can't perfect.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Leave Friday For Pecos

George and Wanda Cross, above, and their two sons left last Friday afternoon for Pecos. Behind their car was a trailer with their household goods. They will make Pecos their home, and George is employed on the Pecos

Seed Testing Fee System To Start Sept. 1st

AUSTIN—A new seed testing fee system will be put into effect September 1, by the two seed laboratories operated by the Texas Department of Agriculture in Lubbock and Austin, Commissioner John C. White has announced.

A complete test of all seed will be made for $2.50 with the exception of chaffy grasses, native grasses, mixtures and trashy seed. This fee can be broken down for $1 for germination tests or $1.50 for purity analysis.

A fee of $5 will be levied for purity and/or germination tests of the four exceptions—chaffy, native, mixtures and trashy seed. During a rush season, however, trashy seed may be rejected for testing purposes, White added.

Noxious weed seed will be examined for $1 per sample. Analysis of seed by an accredited laboratory is required before Texas Tested Seed Tags can be issued, White explained. No seed can be legally offered for sale without the tag from the Dept. of Agriculture.

Charge for a seed tag has been increased from 1 to 2 cents. The Texas Seed Law requires that one tag be attached to each container or bag of seed sold or exposed for sale in the amount of 100 pounds or a fraction thereof.

Money for the tests must accompany the samples. Checks or money orders should be made to the Texas Seed Act Fund. Charges will be effective on all samples which reach either of the two laboratories after Sept. 1, regardless of the postmark date, White said.

This will be the first year the Texas Department of Agriculture has charged for seed tests. The fees are the result of a new plan to make the department more nearly self-supporting and less dependent on the taxpayer's money.

Commissioner White said he had not asked the Legislature to appropriate tax money for this project for the next two years. The fee system was initiated so that the expense would be borne by those who benefit from the service.

Drive carefully. The life you save may be your own.

Baptist Revival

(Where the visitor is never a stranger.)

There's a stranger in our community. Some do not know him; others have forgotten him, his love and saving grace—Jesus.

Start your day right by attending our 10 a. m. services and praise God, from whom all blessings flow; then end a perfect day, or a trying one, by returning to our prayer services at 7:30 and preaching at 8 p. m. Blessings will be yours.

So many of us think we just don't have the time to attend the morning services. There's ironing or washing, some serving that must be done. But let us think again. God had time for us, enough to die, that we might live and have everlasting life. He gave us a heavenly home to look forward to for eternity, a lasting home of eterna bliss with Him.

So for these two short weeks, let's give Him two hours of a day. He gave us an entire life time, and more. Lay down your hoe, your mop and troubles, and worship with us. Reunite with God!

FORT WORTH—Corn Belt observers, according to an article compiled by Honer Hush in Wallace's Farmer this month, seem to be coming to the view that June was the "low" time for cattle. This thrusts into the discard the idea that was prevalent in those parts that late Fall would be the better time for feeders.

Corn Belt observers, Hush reports, also feel that rains in the drouth areas will "strengthen the hands" of the cattle growers. Yep! There's no argument there.

In fact, on the basis of Monday's cattle trade, it looks like the stocker and feeder buyers were unlimbering and more orders were on hand than was the case for the past couple of weeks. At Fort Worth Monday there was the biggest cattle and calf run since July—about 8,500 head. Twelve markets had 139,000 cattle and calves.

Despite this big offering, stockers and feeders sold strong to unevenly higher at Fort Worth. Some of the just fairly good kinds, that had to sell for slaughter a week ago, sold well to stocker buyers, a decided improvement.

Slaughter steers and yearlings were steady to weak. Slaughter calves ruled firm. Cows were steady to 50 cents lower, and the larger portion sold steady. Some buyers tried to buy cows sharply lower by 50 cents to $1 per hundred and complained that cows here were higher, grade for grade, than at other major markets.

Salesmen successfully resisted these bearish offers. Bulls closed 50c lower.

Good and choice fed steers drew $18.00-21.50 and choice to prime drylot cattle are quotable dollars above that range. Common and medium butcher stuff sold from $11.00-17.00; with rainy yearlings from $8.00-10.00. Fat cows drew $9.50-12.50; canners and cutters sold from $6.50-9.50. Some straight barrelled western and Brahma type cutters are quotable over $9.50. Bulls sold from $8.00-12.50.

Good and choice fat calves cleared at $14.00-18.00; and common and medium butcher sorts sold from $10.00-13.00, with culls from $7.00-9.00.

Good and choice stocker steer calves drew $14.00-18.50 with stocker steer yearlings from $16.50 downward. Stocker steers drew $17.00 down. Stocker cows changed hands at $8.00-14.00.

Hogs were 25c lower and topped at $25.75-26.00 at Fort Worth. Sows drew $19.00-22.00.

Sheep and lambs drew generally steady prices. Medium, good and choice fat lambs sold for $17.00-21.00, and fancy fat lambs of the right weights in load lots were quotable higher. Cull lambs sold down around $12.00.

Stocker and feeder lambs drew $13.00-15.00. Fat yearlings drew $14.00-17.00 and old wethers sold from $7.00-10.00. Slaughter ewes cashed at $5.00-6.50. Solid-mouthed breeding ewes cashed at $7.00-10.00. There has been active demand for ewes suitable to go back to the country and each shipment to Fort Worth has been sorted very closely to sift out ewes of suitable ages. Most of the ewes are in canner flesh, which is making them weigh correspondingly lighter for the buyers.

Some substantial rains in some of the principal sheep country recently as well as the rapid development of some volunteer grain pasture grazing, is helping the outlook on sheep.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Worms Working On Texas Crops

COLLEGE STATION—Worms of many different kinds are literally doing their best to devour crops and pastures in many sections of the state. The fall army worms are still a threat and with favorable weather additional generations may be expected to appear.

In the peanut producing counties of the state, the corn earworm or cotton bollworm is the predominating insect now feeding on the peanut plants. The fall army worm is also causing some damage in the peanut fields. Neal Randolph, extension entomologist, recommends the use of either a dust or spray of DDT at the rate of one to one and a half pounds an acre or from two to three pounds of toxaphene an acre. A combination of DDT and toxaphene (2:1 mix) also gives control, he says.

He cautions against permitting dairy cattle to graze on pastures subject to drift from sprays and dusts where DDT or toxaphene was used and recommends the use of methoxychlor (DMDT) under such conditions. Apply it, he says, at the same rate as given for DDT.

DDT and combined DDT and toxaphene should not be applied to peanuts within 14 days of harvest. Toxaphene and methoxychlor (DMDT) sprays and dusts may be used safely to within 7 days of harvest.

Randolph advises producers to make close inspections of fields and pastures at two or three day intervals in order to detect the worms while still small. Young worms are more easily controlled and early action will prevent damage to the growing plants. Local county agents, says the entomologist, can give assistance in combating the worm invasion.

Nuptial mass was performed recently in St. John's Catholic Church of Bomarton to unite Miss Patricia Ann Pavlicek and Bobby Charles Lawrence.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pavlicek of Bomarton and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Lawrence of Seymour.

Officiant was Rev. Camelo Gagliardoni, pastor of the Sacred Heart (Catholic) Church in Seymour. Traditional nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Haskell Francis, organist, Mrs. Alvin Michalik and Jimmy Farber of Munday, vocalists.

When she was given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a waltz-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over white taffeta. The dress was designed with a full-gathered skirt and a fitted bodice of lace with a tiny Peter Pan collar. Her lovely veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap which was encrusted with seed pearls. She wore nylon lace mitts and carried an orchid atop a pearl-backer prayerbook.

"I Remember" by Paul P. Bates in the Ochiltree County Herald of Perryton catches much of the romance of a Southwest-area community.

"I remember when Ochiltree was born.

"I remember her older playground.

"I remember her big white courthouse and big empty schoolhouse.

"I remember when Ochiltree had no fences or fields and when her lakes stayed full of water during the summers—the millions of ducks, geese, curlew, plover, cranes and snipe. The buffalo bones and horns, two bear hides my father had tanned from bears he killed in Canadian breaks. The antelope, loboes, coyotes, swifts, badgers, skunks and rabbits.

"I remember Ed Klapp of Creswell and his grocery store with a big plow swung to the ceiling.

"I remember the first postoffice Ochiltree had. It was in a dug-out sod-house and the mail came one time a week and mother had an apple box for a post-office cabinet and a picket fence in the front room to keep Raymond and me out. Mother even gave people their dinner just to come get their mail. She got all the postal business in the whole country.

"I remember Uncle Ed Whippo used to talk about losing money. I used to go out and look for it, and hunt and hunt and hunt. I remember he had a talking machine and I put ear-phones and listened, and Mr. Cutter had a little ditty you wound up and it played the most beautiful music I ever heard. I remember mother had a Mason and Hamlin melodian. We folded it up and took it to Ochiltree courthouse to have Sunday School. Mr. Cutter was superintendent. Mr. Bentley preached once a month and we all took our dinners. We had lots to eat and the food was good.

"We did not have much Christmas in those days like kids do now but we had popcorn balls, one orange apiece and candy, and generally one stick of California fruit gum, and it was a great occasion. Yes, we had Santa Claus in those days.

"I remember Del Taliferro as a square dancer and Milo Blodgett and Guy Widmer as the finest fiddlers in the world. I remember Tom, Obe and Will Glasgow—the three Cutter boys—the two Holliday boys and Anna. I remember the nice saddles they had and some had nickle-plated horns.

"I remember Long Heel Bill Wright when he was in Long Division and I was in Addition. I walked four miles to school and the last two I walked with Bill. One evening after school, I asked Bill for a few drags off his big Wellington pipe as we walked toward home. A few minutes later, I go deathly sick and Bill pulled out a chunk of Star and said chewing counteracted smoking and, if I felt that I might get sick, to take a chew. I promptly did. I got down alongside the road and laid there for 3 hours. When I got home, Mother was frantic and was she glad to see me! About that time, she smelled tobacco and she changed her mind completely."

SAVING GRAIN THROUGH RAT CONTROL

There are some rats and mice on nearly every farm. A few rats may not do much apparent damage in a short period of time, but the pests multiply rapidly in favorable quarters and destroy millions of bushels of grain and feed in the U. S. annually.

Just a few rats in your grain bins may be enough to prevent you from selling products for human consumption under Federal Food and Drug regulations. In addition, these pests are the source of several diseases that are deadly to humans, pets, livestock and poultry. Rats and mice on your property means money out of your pocket.

Permanent control is a five-fold job. Here are the basic rules:

1. Don't give them shelter. Rodents are difficult to get rid of if they have places to hide. Piles of rubbish, stacks of old lumber or other material and wooden floors close to the ground are favorite hiding places. Many farms have several such "rat hotels" near granaries or other food and feed supplies. All such shelters should be cleaned up or removed.

2. Don't feed them. A hungry rodent is easily poisoned or trapped. Food and feeds should be stored properly, and scraps and garbage kept in rat-proof containers. Granaries, corn cribs, feed rooms and storage cellars should also be rat-proof.

3. Kill them! Rats and mice that are hungry and lack shelter are easily killed by poisoning, fumigating or trapping. All of these methods may be employed individually or in combination on most rodent control jobs. But a word of caution—poisons should be handled with great care, keeping them away from children, livestock and pets.

4. Organize Community rat-control projects. Community action is the most effective way to fight rats. Controlling rats on one farm in a community is usually only temporary. More may come in from surroundings where control is not practiced. Campaigns should include not only farms but dumps, feed mills and other rat food sources.

5. Follow a year-round program. Rats never take vacations. They may raise four or more litters a year averaging 6 to 16 in a litter. The presence of one pair of rats on a farm in the spring can mean 50 rats by fall.

Rat control must be a continuous job. But it will pay long-range dividends to the farmer and the community.

Thars old Dock Lee with his cob pipe,
 And a twist of home made weed,
 And when he gets her loaded,
 He'll tell of a coon fight that he seed in Tennessee.

Munday's a great town, stranger,
 I've said so time and again,
 We haint anything but crack-erjacks,
 When it comes to a matter of men.

In a land of fine old citizens,
 And laughing boys and girls,
 Stranger, try Knox County,
 The garden spot of the world.

Blacklock Signs New Ford Tractor Dealer Agreement

Winston L. Blacklock, of Munday Implement Company, local Ford Tractor dealer, has just signed a new sales agreement with The Stewart Company, Texas Ford Tractor Distributors of Dallas and San Antonio. Winston has been in the Ford tractor business for 2 years, serving the farmers in this area. "With the signing of this new agreement," said Winston, "our company is looking forward to many years of service to the 400 Ford tractor owners in Knox County, and with the aid of Ford Motor Company research, engineering and production we hope to help our farmers with still better farm machinery to produce still better yields at lower cost.

Blacklock's new sales agreement coincides with the farm equipment expansion program of the Ford Motor Company which was announced recently. The Ford Tractor Division of the Ford Motor Company will now handle all of Ford's farm equipment activities having to do with Ford tractors, as well as Dearborn implement such as plows, cultivators, corn harvesters, cotton harvesters, combines, balers, etc.

"The Ford name has long meant a great deal to everyone in agriculture, even back in the days of World War I when Ford applied mass production techniques to the manufacture of the Fordson tractor," Winston commented.

"The news announced by the Ford Motor Company marks a far reaching step towards providing farmers with modern, low cost farm machinery for complete and profitable mechanization."
