Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

Pardon us, please, while we do a little lefthanded bragging.

Last week we issued an appeal for one or two issues of The Munday Times dated March 8, 1962—almost 18 months ago.

We took our papers to the post office around 11 a.m. Thursday. By 4:30 that afternoon we had located a copy of this paper, which was in our possession by 5 p.m. It had been saved by Mrs. A. L. (Cotton) Smith and was sent to us by her daughter, Mrs. Wm. L. (Spike) Bryan.

By 9:30 a.m. Friday, Mrs. R. D. Gray phoned that she had a copy, which she sent to us—and that's all we had asked for. What we thought were very slim hopes in the beginning had turned into rewarding fruition in less than 24 hours.

We may listen to you politely if you try to tell us that advertising in this newspaper doesn't pay. On second thought, don't try it—because we might not be too polite. We've seen the results of newspaper advertising too many times in the past 35 years!

It's encouraging to us to know that some people keep a copy of this paper for a year and a half. And to this date, we've never seen a copy of our paper in the post office trash barrel!

There was a wave of traffic fatalities over the week end—the first one since the new 70-mile speed limit went into effect. They claim excess speed is the cause of many traffic accidents, but we doubt if the new law had very much to do with these fatalities.

It seemed to us that most of us were driving 70 miles per hour anyway, especially on open highways, and the new law just made it legal. Persons who are staunch supporters of the law in many instances are prone to violate it when they get behind the wheel.

The new law also specifically makes it a violation to drive a vehicle so slow as to impede traffic, so you may pay a fine for driving too slow as well as too fast. The Texas law requires a driver to operate his vehicle "reasonably and prudently" at all times, regardless of the posted limits. It's possible to violate the law, even in backing the vehicle, you know.

Everything is pointing toward fall—except the weather, that is. A recent cool front made us think briefly that fall weather was upon us, too, but recent days continue with the grim reality the summer is still here.

Cotton is coming into the gins at a rather fast clip, and reports are that some farmers have already defoliated their crop, which will soon cause more cotton to be brought into the gins.

Farmers are reporting more insect damage to the top crop, or late crop, however.

It was somewhat encouraging to us to see the Mexican nationals coming in to gather this year's crop. We think they make for a longer fall and a more satisfactory fall, so far as the merchants are concerned. Families will spend more money than the person who is here alone and sending most of his earnings back home.

Bracero labor was a fast way of getting the crop gathered. But conditions at best were unsatisfactory. Conditions weren't best during the past few years of bracero labor.

The trend to machine harvesting of cotton had been rather rapid during the past two years.

The heroic rescue of the two miners who were trapped in a Pennsylvania mine and continued efforts to reach the third proves the value we in America place on human lives. The irony of it all is that we don't seem to value lives so great when we get behind the steering wheel.

Barely had these two been rescued when another mine blast, this one in Utah, trapped 25 other miners. We are proud there are other occupations not so hazardous.

Note to "Local Potato Grower" who submitted us the little joke this week: It is the rule of this newspaper that all letters to the editor must be signed if they're to be printed.

FARM and RANCH Notes

JOE W. DOBY
COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT

Farmers are continuing to make good returns on their investments in fertilizer here in Knox County. The results of demonstration plots using fertilizer on grain and forage sorghums clearly show each dollar invested returned from $1.60 to $8.00. This is a pretty good return on an investment of only six months.

Stanton Brown, on the League Ranch, conducted fertility demonstrations on both forage sorghum and grain sorghums. Stanton used the best land for cotton so his yields were not too high but note the increase. The check plot made 1220 pounds per acre. The part he fertilized with 150 pounds preplant and 50 pounds side dress of ammonium nitrate made 1980 pounds per acre. Figuring the nitrogen at a cost of .12 per pound of actual nitrogen applied, this gives him a return of $1.60 for each dollar invested in fertilizer.

In the forage sorghum demonstration Stanton used the Tracey variety. He fertilized with 150 pounds ammonium nitrate preplant and then added 40 pounds anhydrous ammonia in the irrigation water. The check plot made 18 tons to the acre and the fertilizer plot made 25 tons. It is very possible to feed these two plots separate, the cattle would also tell them about the difference in feeding value.

John Earl Nelson of Munday had a more striking example of what fertilizer can do. He had one field in which he applied 125 pounds of ammonium sulfate per acre on half the field. That half made 5200 pounds of grain while the other half without the fertilizer made 3600 pounds. This was a return of $8.00 for every $1.00 invested.

Another thing farmers should keep in mind is that the expense of growing the crop comes off the bottom end. So all that can be added to the top is mostly profit.

Rainfall to date this year in Benjamin as recorded in an official rain gauge is 13.25 inches. The average is about 25 inches, so we are somewhat below average for the first eight months.

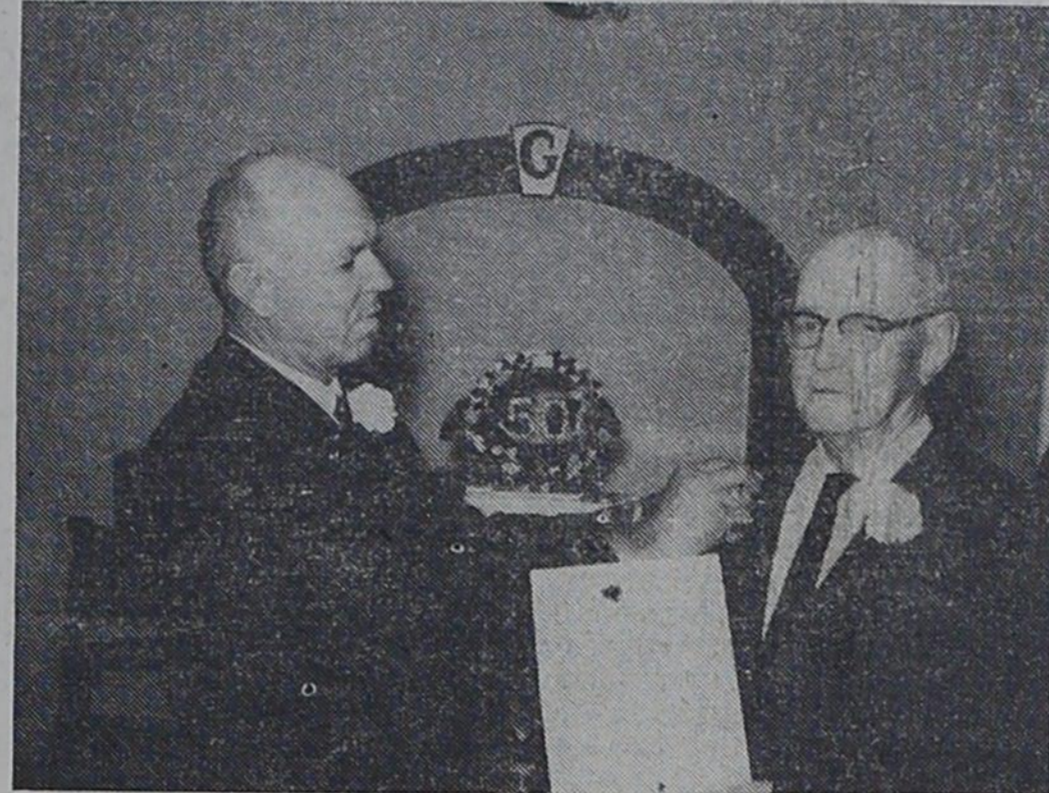

Members of the 4-H subcommittee met last week to judge the 4-H records turned in by Knox County 4-H members. Thirteen boys and 30 girls turned in their record books for the year. The top boy and girl were selected from the books as the Gold Star boy and girl for the year. These names will be kept a secret until the awards banquet in November.

Members of the Committee doing the judging were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Braly, Munday; Mrs. J. T. Cook, Gilliland and Mr. Roy Tomlinson, Benjamin.

I have an excellent publication for those who are wondering what variety of wheat, oats, or barley to plant this fall. Bulletin L-578, Recommended Practices for Producing Small Grains in Texas lists the recommended varieties, the acceptable varieties and the disease and plant characteristics of each. No one variety has all the desirable things we would like to see, but a person can weigh one thing against another and decide for instance, whether he wants straw strength or test weight.

Marvin Myers of Crowell recently received the 25-year tenure award of the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association from the organization's president, Ralph S. Moser of Stephenville. The award was presented at the annual awards breakfast of the association in recognition of the dedicated service rendered to vocational agriculture.

Marvin is a graduate of Munday High School, also West Texas State Teachers College and has two degrees from A&M College. He is a member of the First Baptist Church in Crowell and is the son of Mrs. Robert Myers of Munday.

Goat Is "Shopper" At M-System Store

People doing their week end grocery shopping last Saturday afternoon were surprised to look up and see a goat walking the aisles at M-System Super Market.

The animal, probably becoming rebellious at the prospect of being made into barbecue, broke loose from its owner and headed for one of those electric-eye doors—which will open for goats the same as humans. When the door opened, the goat entered the store.

The animal's shopping spree was short-lived, however, as store employees promptly dispatched it to the outside world again.

Knox Bond Sales Continue Upward

July E and H Savings Bonds sales in Knox County totaled $3,656 according to W. E. Braly, Chairman of the Knox County Savings Bonds Committee. Sales this far in 1963 have reached $116,635. This figure represents 64.8% of the 1963 sales goal.

Savings Bonds sales in Texas for the first 7 months of 1963 totaled $87,895,038 which represents 58.4% of the state goal of $150,600,000.

"The achievement of the Freedom Bond Drive goal in Texas demonstrates to the Nation that Texans stand ready to do their part in our fight for freedom. These bond dollars will help our Nation maintain a strong military posture and at the same time will keep our country economically stable," Chairman Braly concluded.

Record Enrollment Prospect For Cisco Junior College

CISCO — A record enrollment for the 1963-64 school year is in prospect for Cisco Junior College as the registrar's office begins pre-enrolling students for the fall semester. The new year begins officially on September 9.

The optimistic outlook was based on a record number of high school record transcripts already sent in by prospective students, and by the many inquiries that have been coming in from all directions.

Dean R. W. Mince who is directing the pre-registering activities, reported that the college has added several new courses to its curriculum. New courses include Organic Chemistry, Anatomy and Physiology, Electronic Data Processing and Chemical Calculations making a total of 116 classes presently scheduled on the school calendar.

A fully accredited member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Cisco Junior College offers two years work on any degree plan with a wide range of subjects, including two foreign languages, Spanish and French.

Tuition and fees are $70 per semester and room and board may be obtained for $240 a semester.

24 Volunteers Receive Awards On Wednesday

Twenty-four Volunteers received awards on Wednesday, August 28, at the Knox City Lions Club luncheon.

The Volunteer program is a new division of the American Red Cross designed to offer an opportunity community service to high school teenagers and to introduce them to adult Red Cross service. This program is now in its fourth year nationally, and in the areas where it has been offered it success has surpassed any expectations.

Knox County is now completing its second summer with 56 Volunteers participating. In two years these Volunteers have contributed a total of 3,600 hours of community service in the hospital, blood bank and oral polio vaccine program. This is the equivalent of one 48 hour week paid employee for one and one-half years.

There are now thirty-two Volunteers registered in the current summer activities. Jesse G. Smith, county Red Cross chairman, presented awards to the following for six hours basic instruction and at least 25 hours community service:

Kathy Everett, Wilma Fabring, Cora Jan Fitzgerald, Linda Hill, Becky Howell, Pam McCown, Mildred Posey, Susan Reese, Jeanette Vinita and Karen White.

Nurses' aid pins (requirements 40 hours training) went to Glenda Cox.

Nurses' aid pins and service bars requiring one year membership and 100 hours of service were presented to: Pamela Darr, Judy Meiner, Wanda Mincey, Paula Myers, Sheryl McCown, Jan Sutton, Carol Thomas and Patsy Yandell.

Receiving the service bar for 100 hours of service were Janette Brazell, Judy Lemley, Frances Reneau and Lila Ann Rhoads.

Fires Burns Out Grass Tuesday On McFaddin Ranch

A grass fire destroyed hundreds of acres of grass on the McFaddin Ranch, 15 miles west of Benjamin, last Tuesday afternoon as the fire cut across three or four sections of the range land.

Knox County Sheriff H. C. Stone said a lot of fence posts were burned but that no buildings or houses were damaged. The fire threatened some corrals but was beat back by firemen and ranch hands.

Fire trucks from Knox City and Benjamin and three maintainers — from the highway department and the county — were used to fight the blaze, which broke out around 12:30 p.m. It was brought under control by about 4 p.m.

Maintainers scraped out a dirt fire break, but the flames skipped across in some places, Stone said. In another fire two miles east of Benjamin, three to four acres of grass were burned but were put out quickly around 2:30 p.m.

Still More Copies Of Paper We Needed

Elsewhere, we have commented upon the promptness with which we received the desired two copies of The Munday Times of March 8, 1962. But the replies didn't stop there. There are at least five copies in existence.

Sometime Monday, Mrs. George Weber of Goree sent word that she had this paper. Later in the day, Sheriff H. C. Stone sent one over "with my compliments."

Tuesday morning, a letter came from Mrs. T. W. Harber of Dallas stating she had this particular copy along with "more than a hundred copies of the Munday Times." Although our particular needs have been supplied, we would like to acknowledge these replies with deep gratitude.

An anonymous telephone call Tuesday brought to light another one, number six.

YOU-IN A WORLD BROTHERHOOD

When Lord Baden-Powell—famous English general and a hero to his countrymen—developed the Scouting scheme and founded the Boy Scout movement, he had no idea that it would prove popular enough to spread around the world. But that is what happened.

The day you become a Scout, you join a world brotherhood with close to nine million members in more than seventy countries around the globe. All these Scouts have pledged themselves to the Scout Oath and Law.

The door to Scouting fun is wide open to you. You will be welcomed in a Cub Scout Pack, a Boy Scout Troop, or an Explorer Post, by those who are already members. Cub Scouting welcomes you if you are between 8-10 years of age; Boy Scouting, 11-14 years; and Exploring, 15-18 years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hoge, Jimmy, Cynthia, Kenneth and Phillip of Waco spent last week with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bardwell, at their cabin on Lake Kemp.

License Plates Are Produced Cheaply

AUSTIN — License plates for Texas motor vehicles are produced at the lowest comparable cost of any state in the Union, the Texas Highway Department said.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said a report compiled by the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators showed that Texas' delivered price on its 1962 license plates was only 14.2 cents a pair—lower than any other state making two plates per motor vehicle. ("Delivered price" includes both manufacturing and freight charges needed to get the plates to County Tax Assessor-Collector offices all over the state.) The 1962 figures are the latest available.

The Highway Department supervises the production of license plates, which are manufactured by prison labor at the Huntsville State Prison. Forty other states also use prison labor to make license plates.

MISSING THE BIG POINT

In accordance with an old pattern, speculation burgeons as to next year's GOP presidential nominee. It is taken for granted that the Democrats will give their winner his second chance at the post.

It makes for interesting discussion and argument. Has Governor Rockefeller's following become disillusioned or not? Is Senator Goldwater's conservatism an anchor or a balloon? Is the middle-of-the-roadism that led to Governor Romney's striking victory in Michigan what the people want or not? Does Governor Scranton's lack of a national image make him unacceptable, or, in this age of communication miracles, is it easily surmountable?

So it goes. It is natural, and it can be valuable. But it all misses the big point. The Saturday Evening Post takes us to that point in these words: "The survival of the two-party system and the future of the country depend upon the resurgence of a viable Republican opposition. It goes without saying that the Republicans will have a candidate in 1964. But this candidate must not be just any candidate The G. O. P. owes it to itself and to the nation to develop and nominate the strongest possible candidate."

This is not a world in which either party can afford to just go through the motions and look for a next time. The two-party system's one excuse for being is to put forward a man with ideas, courage, and principles. He may win or lose. But that is what keeps a free system alive.

LABOR DAY 1963

We are on the threshold of another Labor Day. And a vast change has taken place in this institution and the cause it stands for in the decades that have passed since its first observance. Labor has grown strong—stronger, very likely, than its leaders of another and simpler age could have imagined.

Nowhere else in the world has labor earned and gained so many material benefits as it has in the United States. The "blue collar" man has caught up with his "white collar" counterpart in earnings and living standards and in many instances passed him by. Labor can take well justified pride in this achievement.

But the high status of labor, and labor's power, involve another element. That element is responsibility. Labor can no longer be content with just pursuing its differences with management. It has another and a larger duty. That is to help provide the quality of industrial statesmanship that is so urgently needed if this country is to maintain its position in an increasingly competitive world.

Next September 2, deserved honors will be paid to labor. May it go on and earn, through wise accomplishment, still higher honors.

DUMP BATH WATER ONLY!

The controversy over the use of pesticides in agriculture has generated an abundance of heat. Unfortunately, there seems to be a lack of light.

It has been charged that these chemicals present a terrible threat to wildlife and even to human life. But Dr. Wayland J. Hayes, Jr., a top-ranking toxicologist of the Public Health Service, has testified, in effect, that the country should avoid an hysterical approach to the pesticide problem. He added that there is no evidence to support fears that pesticides cause "a wide variety of illnesses;" that although DDT can be found "in every complete meal analyzed in this country," in the known concentrations it is harmless; and that until more evidence is available, considerable harm can be done "by regarding questionable cases as established fact."

Certainly, every effort should be exerted to encourage and enforce proper use of pesticides. Manufacturers and other interested parties are doing just that. But to indiscriminately demand the abandonment of chemicals which are of the utmost value in modern farming is to demand that we throw out the baby with the bath water.

President Edwin P. Neilan of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States observes: "The American enterprise system can provide the productive growth, the employment, the ever-rising standard of prosperity that all of us expect and demand of it; it can compete successfully in world markets; it can support the legitimate security commitments which this nation must undertake to meet the challenge of Communism and preserve the free world." But, he adds in effect, this will happen only if an aroused and informed citizenry demands that the system be given the chance.

—SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES—

The Family Farm: Measure Of A Free Society

It has been often said in recent years that the family farm is disappearing as the dominant production source for American food and fiber. If such were the case—as it is not—then let America beware.

By any measure, the family farm is the strongest and most vital production unit in agriculture. It is the one consistent measure of success or failure among the nations of the world.

Among the developed nations, the family farm is always present in a successful agriculture. It is always absent where agriculture has failed. Science, technology, education and capital are all essential to the achievement of abundance. But only when teamed with the family farm has the result been an outpouring of food and fiber such as we are blessed with in the United States.

All too often the tendency is to equate "family farm" with a homestead of 160 acres and a tractor—terms that would have been only half-true a generation ago.

The family farm of today can be and is big or little in terms of acres, capital investment or dollars of output. The distinguishing feature is the incentive that ownership and management of a farming operation vests in the farm family that provides most of the work.

To be sure, some of these farms are efficient and profitable and some are not. Some have adequate capital and management and some do not. No one—including the farmer—should hope to preserve the inefficient or inadequate farm just as we would not want to see any other inefficient business preserved.

However, much of the confusion about the family farm has ignored the trend of the past decade which shows that family farms are becoming increasingly adequate. On the average, under today's conditions, gross sales of $10,000 or more are required for an adequate family farm operation. Of all classes of farms, only the family farm grossing $10,000 or more a year has actually increased in number over the past decade.

This growth can be marked up to an incentive and pride found nowhere in agriculture as in the successful family farm. It is this spirit which has brought our nation to an abundance that men throughout the ages have dreamed of but never attained until this century. It is the soul of American agriculture, and it will be preserved.

Jury Duty

Jury duty is an experience everybody ought to have. In a criminal case twelve jurors have a duty to do justice as each one sees it, and yet be unanimous. In most trials both sides have much to say, and the evidence is conflicting. The twelve jurors vary in their ability, temperament, character, education, and their experience in the world, and in the question at stake.

Yet a jury made up of both sexes, with wide age and educational differences, jobs and origins must all come up with the same verdict. Upon their verdict much depends—the life or liberty of others, and the public good. So it may take them days of talking among themselves, all to agree.

Jury duty calls for insight, common sense, courage, tact, fairness, patience, (especially toward the jurors who disagree with you), good humor, tolerance, balance, willingness to hear others out and change one's mind, readiness to go over and over the facts to find something to bring agreement. In short, jury duty demands a "decent respect for the opinions" of others.

More and more women share civic duties, especially as jurors. Time was in Texas when women could not serve on juries. They still cannot in four states.

A jury finds facts. It hears and weighs evidence and then comes to a verdict. It does not make the law—the legislature does; and the judge "charges" or instructs the jury concerning the law applicable to the particular case it is considering.

The judge will tell you not to find the accused guilty until he is proved so under strict rules of evidence. If you have any "reasonable doubt," — not imaginary or far-fetched — acquit the accused.

Civil cases do not demand a moral certainty, merely the "preponderance" of what you regard as reliable and believable evidence.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas: P.C. 286a

Section 1. Any person, on both the two (2) consecutive days of Saturday and Sunday, who sells or offers for sale or shall compel, force or oblige his employees to sell any clothing; clothing accessories; wearing apparel; footwear; headwear; home, business, office or outdoor furniture; kitchenware; kitchen utensils; china; home appliances; stoves; refrigerators; air conditioners; electric fans; radios; television sets; washing machines; driers; cameras; hardware; tools, excluding non-power driven hand tools; jewelry; precious or semi-precious stones; silverware; watches; clocks; luggage; motor vehicles; musical instruments; recordings; toys, excluding items customarily sold as novelties and souvenirs; mattresses; bed coverings; household linens; floor coverings; lamps; draperies; blinds; curtains; mirrors; lawn mowers or cloth piece goods shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Each separate sale shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 2. Nothing herein shall apply to any sale or sales for charitable purposes or to items used for funeral or burial purposes or to items sold as a part of or in conjunction with the sale of real property.

Sec. 3. For the first offense under this Act, the punishment shall be by fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). If it is shown upon the trial of a case involving a violation of this Act that defendant has been once before convicted of the same offense, he shall on his second conviction and on all subsequent convictions be punished by imprisonment in jail not exceeding six (6) months or by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or both.

Sec. 4. The purpose of this Act being to promote the health, recreation and welfare of the people of this state, the operation of any business whether by any individual, partnership or corporation contrary to the provisions of this Act is declared to be a public nuisance and any person may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for and may obtain an injunction restraining such violation of this Act. Such proceedings shall be guided by the rules of other injunction proceedings.

Sec. 4a. When a purchaser will certify in writing that a purchase of an item of personal property is needed as an emergency for the welfare, health or safety of human or animal life and such purchase is an emergency purchase to protect the health, welfare or safety of human or animal life, then this Act shall not apply; provided such certification signed by the purchaser is retained by the merchant for proper inspection for a period of one (1) year.

Sec. 5. Occasional sales of any item named herein by a person not engaged in the business of selling such item shall be exempt from this Act.

Sec. 5a. It is the intent of the Legislature that Articles 286 and 287 of the Penal Code of Texas are not to be considered as repealed by this Act; provided, however, that the provisions of said Articles shall not apply to sales of items listed in Section 1 of this Act which are forbidden to be sold on the day or days named in this Act.

Sec. 6. The fact that there are not now adequate laws to prevent the selling of certain articles seven (7) consecutive days and the further fact that legislation is needed to prevent and punish such offense creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and said Rule is hereby suspended; and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Your compliance of said law will be appreciated. All violations will be investigated and prosecuted.

Miss Judy Anderson, John W. Massey Married In Church Rites Here Saturday

Miss Judy Beth Anderson became the bride of John Walter Massey in a double ring ceremony read Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church by Rev. Rex L. Mauldin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Anderson and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Massey.

Miss Jan Hawkins, organist, and Mrs. Rex L. Mauldin, soloist, presented the wedding music. She sang "I Love You Truly," "Where Thou Goest I Will Go" and "Oh Perfect Love."

The candle light service was performed before a candelabra tree above the altar. Spiral candelabra flanked the altar with a large bouquet of gladoli on the altar. The rail was decorated with smilax roping on which hung gardenias. The center aisle was also roped off with white roping and bows on each seat with rubrum lilies. Only the wedding party entered from this center aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of silk organza over tulle and taffeta with reembroidered aliencon lace medallions and satins bands adorning the skirt. The bodice of the gown featured a sabina neckline and panniers of lace accented the bouffant train, short sleeves and molded waistline. No Invitation . . .

An advertisement each week, in The Munday Times is an invitation to Knox Countians to visit your store, service, or agency each time they come to town, or have need for food, clothing, insurance, cars, hardware, or whatever.

An invitation to shop can never be extended too often. Ads are the best way of telling of new stock, new items, or better prices. And every merchant receives more merchandise each week. Each week brings fresh desires for other services—from Auto Repair to Welding.

Miss Joan Cude, Jerry Don Hutchinson Marry In Double Ring Ceremony Friday

MRS. JERRY DON HUTCHINSON

The First Baptist Church sanctuary was the scene of a double ring ceremony Friday uniting

Miss Joan Carol Cude and Jerry Don Hutchinson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cude of Munday, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchinson of Weinert are parents of the bridegroom.

The 8 o'clock ceremony was read by Rev. John Street, pastor. Baskets of white mums and gladioli flanked the altar, and candelabras entwined with greenery were also used. Eddie Littlefield was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of silk peau de soie featuring a bodice of Chantilly lace with scalloped Sabrina neckline. The bodice was fastened in back with tiny self covered buttons and the softly controlled fullness of the skirt fell from the molded waistline. Her veil of silk illusion was caught to a pearl tiara. Her bouquet was a white orchid with feathered carnations.

Miss Vicki Heiskell attended the bride as her maid of honor. She was gowned in vibrant blue peau de soie dress featuring a scooped neckline and modified bell skirt with white accessories and carried a nosegay of white pom-pom mums.

The groom was attended by his brother, Bobby Hutchinson, and brothers of the couple, Lester Hutchinson of Weinert and Bobby Cude of Lubbock, served as ushers.

The bride is a graduate of Munday High School where she was a member of the Beta Club, Future Homemakers of America, captain of the basketball team, and cheerleader. Hutchinson is a 1963 graduate of Weinert High School where he captained the football team and was treasurer of his graduating class. He is engaged in farming and she is employed by Eiland's Drug in Munday.

The rehearsal dinner was held in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchinson.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cude. In the houseparty for the reception were Misses Donna Haynie and Vicki Heiskell and Mmes. Bob Cude, Dub Moon, Boyd Meers, R. T. Morrow, and John Peysen.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Favors The Test Ban Treaty On One Hand And Opposes It On The Other Hand

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek takes a wide-angle view of the test ban treaty this week.

J. A.

Dear editor:
Although Congress hasn't asked me for my opinion on the test ban treaty and I don't think I could get away from this Johnson grass farm at the moment anyway to testify—it's not that I have anything to do here, but when it comes to not doing anything, this is the place to have it happen, not in Washington—I have decided to go ahead and state my views.

I did this after reading about the experts who have been testifying. The way I see it, when one group of scientists with all the facts says it's wise to sign the treaty, and another group with the same amount of facts says it isn't, this opens the door to anybody. What I mean is, if the same set of facts can lead to two exactly opposite views, facts aren't as important as people claim and this allows me in, as I have about as few facts as anybody and half the time those I have are mis-placed. I don't know what this does to the old and respected saying that a man isn't entitled to an opinion till he has the facts. If facts are going to lead to confusion, a man might as well take the short cut and be confused without them.

But to get down to my opinion. I'm not sure of this, but it may be that some nuclear scientists want to keep on testing firecrackers. A firecracker is to shoot, a bomb is to explode. Everybody knows that.

On the other hand, the testers claim they need to keep on testing to figure out a missile that'll destroy another missile before it lands. When you look at it that way, and try to picture the job of shooting down 1,000 missiles flying at us from Russia at 15,000 miles an hour in the middle of the night during a snow storm, you begin to see you're getting more facts than a man can handle.

I therefore want to go on rec-differ from person to person. If asthma or other complications occur, still other methods of treatment will be required. Your doctor can determine which treatment is best for the individual case.

There are also a number of personal measures one can take to avoid or ease the distressing symptoms. Try to keep doors and windows closed as much as possible during the susceptible period. Central air conditioning with filtration, although expensive, can provide gratifying relief.

3" stalks and brush—a cinch!

Heavy duty, for sure! Has been demonstrated on rows of 4" x 4" posts. Easily cuts tough growth like bois d'arc, salt cedar, broom corn. Yet, fits lighter tractors: 20 to 40 HP. Fine shredding. Optional shredding attachment features patented intermeshing blades, makes fine litter of cotton and grain stalks to turn under for soil enrichment. Cuts 60" swath.

Fan-type blades available to lift light materials like corn stalks off ground.

A-shaped blade carrier and free swinging blades protect against stump damage. Extra heavy blades and carrier develop tremendous momentum, are the secret of the efficient "gyro action" cutting.

Also lift models and other sizes. 60" lift model fits all standard 3 pt. lift, 2 pt. Fast Hitch, and AC Snap Coupler. Larger models include 66", 84", 100".
