Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

As the lady said: "There ought to be a law."

Maybe there already is a law—but there ought to be another one regarding strikes and unemployment checks.

The Longshoremen, we think, have decided to go back to work, but the printers in New York have not done so as of this writing. We did get it on the radio news Monday morning that the state of New York's unemployment would reach an all-time high.

As we understand it, you see, the printers went on strike on a number of major papers and there hasn't been a paper issued in around two months, now. To add insult to injury, in our opinion, the striking printers have also employed for their unemployment compensation. That's where our law comes in. We think there ought to be a law against striking persons ever drawing unemployment compensation.

Maybe you think we're against strikes. Well, we are. We are also pretty much opposed to unions as they are being operated in the good old U. S.

Our printers didn't go on strike over the week end. They put in some valuable time—valuable to us and to them—and we hope they learned a lot, too.

You see, our new Heidelberg press came in and was installed Thursday — and the new work horse put in some valuable time, along with Wally and Earl, in getting adjusted to the situation.

The company sent along Mr. Busby, who appeared to know a lot about the press and about job printing, to erect the press and give some three days of instruction. A more congenial fellow we've never known, and he appeared to have patience to spare. We hated to see him and his wife leave on Monday. Mrs. Busby was just sort of killing time while her husband was instructing, but she was very nice to visit with in off times. Busby showed us everything he thought we ought to know about the press, answered questions and watched Earl and Wally as they operated the thing to see that they didn't make any serious mistakes.

Of course, we expect to run into complications, but that little press is about the nicest thing that has been pushed into our front door. If complications do arise, we expect there's enough of this type of press in the area that we can get some help without having to call someone out of Houston.

And thanks to the people of Munday for furnishing us with enough job printing to keep the press busy during the instruction period. We've really installed it for you—so we can do your jobs more quickly and more conveniently—but it won't pay the notes, pay for itself, or make us any money unless it is kept working—especially on week ends. It cost us a pretty neat figure, but it is an investment, among others which we have made in recent months to show we continue to have faith in Munday.

Others have expressed that faith, too, by making investments and improvements in their facilities to serve you. Several remodeling and improving jobs have been, or will soon be, under way in our town.

Congressman Graham Purcell reminded us in his "Report from Congress" this week that he had a double celebration on Tuesday, January 29. That date was the first anniversary of his service as Congressman, as well as the 19th wedding anniversary of he and Mrs. Purcell. "On that date in 1962," he wrote, "I stood before the Speaker of the House and took the oath of office as Representative of the 13th District of Texas. It was an experience which I shall never forget."

Hurry, hurry! If you haven't paid your poll tax, which qualifies you to vote in 1963, time is running far too short. Midnight on this date, Thursday, January 31, is the deadline. So lay this paper right down and rush over to the Chamber of Commerce and 'tend to this little chore right away. You may be glad you did in the future!

Business Picks Up For Local Firemen

Business has been picking up for Munday firemen, as they have answered a total of six calls since their last report to the paper.

One truck went to Haskell about 4 p.m. Tuesday, January 22, but Haskell firemen had things under control when the local boys arrived.

At 10:15 p.m. Thursday, they put out a grass fire on the right-of-way about midway between Munday and Goree.

At 7:15 a.m. Friday, two trucks answered a call to Knox Prairie Seeds, Inc., where a burr and trash fire had gotten out of control. Again Friday, at 4:30 p.m., they put out a grass fire in the southwest part of town.

At 3:13 a.m., they were called to the Bud Phillips home, where fire had started. Phillips discovered the blaze soon after it started, but considerable damage was done to the kitchen before the flames were extinguished. Some smoke damage was reported throughout the house.

Their sixth call of the week was to a grass fire behind Posey and Shaw, in the northeast part of town.

FORMER TIMES EMPLOYEE ASKS COPY OF PAPER

We received a letter from Paul V. Norrell of Stillwater, Okla., asking that we send him a copy of the Munday Times. He stated that he worked for the Munday Times in the summer of 1915, at which time it was owned by Bob Ragsdale and later by Billie Bolling. He was wondering if he would remember any of the old timers.

Farmers Invited To Annual John Deere Day Here On Monday Night, Feb. 4th

Farmers of the area will gather to take part in the annual John Deere Day which will be sponsored by Quality Implements at their showrooms on Monday, February 4, at 7 p.m.

Tommie B. Harper, host for the show, describes this year's John Deere Day as one of the most interesting he has ever offered. The day is to be devoted entirely to farmers, their wives, and children.

"This is the one day of the year," says Mr. Harper, "that we set aside for the farm families of this vicinity. It is an attempt on our part to acknowledge the great contribution of the farmer to the whole idea of American enterprise."

The full day's program is to be highlighted by a film presentation featuring the very latest in farm equipment shown under actual working conditions. In addition, farmer-guests will be treated to some new films demonstrating the advances of chemistry in farming, new work methods, and recent innovations which keep agriculture in pace with world progress.

These films, according to Mr. Harper, are interlaced with entertainment which features some of Hollywood and TV's most popular personalities. Among them is Cliff Arquette—better known to adults and children as Charlie Weaver. The supporting cast includes such perennial favorites as Andy Devine, Allen Jenkins, Donna Douglas, and the "Titus Moody" of Fibber-McGee-and-Molly fame.

"We want every farmer in the vicinity to feel welcome," says Mr. Harper. "This invitation is extended to every farmer, no matter what type of equipment he has a preference for. In fact, we think that this is the kind of program that will interest anyone who finds his livelihood closely linked with the soil."

Admission to the program is free, and no tickets are required. Quality Implements plans to hold an open house in conjunction with John Deere Day and to put on display late models of tractors and equipment. Farmers will be invited to see the machinery, to look it over and to make arrangements for demonstrations on their own farms. Mr. Harper urges that farmers bring along anyone who has an interest in agricultural progress.

Knox Bond Sales Surpass Quotas

December Savings Bonds sales in Knox County were $9,597 according to W. E. Braly, Chairman of the Knox County Savings Bond Committee. During 1962 the citizens of this county purchased $209,612, which represents 104.8% of the 1962 sales goal of $200,000.

Sales in Texas during 1962 totaled $143,146,965 which is 86.7% of the state goal of $165,100,000.

U. S. Treasury records disclose that the number of individual bonds issued during 1962 set a five-year record with over 73 million individual bonds issued during the year. The number of $50 bonds purchased was the highest amount since the war years, and the sale of $25 bonds was at a five-year record.

"The increased sales of the smaller denomination bonds are a direct result of the Freedom Bond Drive, when over one million American workers enrolled in the Payroll Savings Plan for bond buying. This was a 15% increase over 1961," Chairman Braly reports.

A BLUEPRINT

The President's State of the Union message was significant not only for what was said, but for the weight of emphasis employed in the various areas he dealt with.

First and foremost is the proposal for a $13.5 billion tax reduction. This is a much larger figure than was expected, though it would be accomplished over a three-year period, with $6 billion of it scheduled for the current year. It is not likely that Congress will go all the way, by any means, in this. Nor is it likely that any tax cut it may approve will be made retroactive, as some hope, to January 1. July 1 is the more likely date.

Mr. Kennedy touched once more on his welfare program—medicare, a domestic Peace Corps, and so on. But—and here is where the matter of emphasis arises—he treated them briefly, even hurriedly. If this major speech is any indication, these plans have dropped down on the priority list. And there is every reason why that should be so. Mr. Kennedy, as an experienced politician, must know that no Administration can have its cake and eat it too. Specifically, as of now, it can't have tax reduction on a record scale along with more high-priced Welfare Statism.

The President has offered a blueprint. Congress will make erasures and additions.

TURNABOUT IS FAIR PLAY

What did the drug industry accomplish last year? Dr. Austin Smith, president of the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association, whose 141 members make 95 per cent of the nation's prescription drugs, tells the story in a "Report to the Nation."

The accomplishments he cited, according to the publication, Medicine at Work, include additional anti-cancer agents, a new lifesaver for shock and blood vessel collapse, a different kind of ulcer healer, a nonaddicting pain reliever as potent as morphine, and a drug effective against chronic schizophrenia. Steps forward were taken in many other areas, and the research continues. As a result of the 1962 achievements, pharmaceutical industry scientists now have more definitive guidelines for progress in the years ahead.

Dr. Smith also said: "A good deal of pharmaceutical research for human betterment has trespassed in other fields, leading to improvements in agriculture, chemistry, biology, and medical science. There was virtually no field of science in which discoveries were made that did not have some bearing on drug therapy . . ."

The drug industry has come in for far more than its share of political attack in the last few years—largely for alleged crimes which were never committed. Turnabout is fair play—so it's just time the industry was given credit and recognition for its magnificent contributions to the curing of disease, the alleviation of suffering, and the prolongation of life.

POWER—NAKED POWER

An old saying tells us that the best things sometimes come in small packages.

That can be applied to a four-line editorial which appeared in a recent issue of Editor &

Publisher, under the apt title "Power."

Here it is: "Congress couldn't do it. The President of the United States couldn't do it. Even the courts can't do it. Only a striking union abetted by other unions can close down the newspapers in the nation's largest city, not to mention the newspapers in the nation's eighth largest city."

The New York and Cleveland newspaper strikes prove, once again, that unions have achieved a monopoly power that cannot be countenanced in a free nation. The strikes were conducted at a tremendous cost to the publishers some of whom were finding the going tough at best—and to merchants and others who counted on newspaper advertising to spur their all-important holiday trade. They deprived millions of people access to news coverage that newspapers and newspapers alone can give. Efforts by government arbitrators and others to find avenues to a fair settlement of differences were arrogantly rebuffed.

This was power—naked power, that demonstrated only contempt for the public interest. And it is the kind of power no nation can afford if it is to survive in freedom.

MILES CITY, MONT., DAILY STAR: "Economists serving the Senate-House Economic Committee have issued a report in which they recommend that the dollar be devalued. It isn't too likely to happen, because the present Administration like the Eisenhower Administration, has vowed not to devalue. Citizens had better hope that our Government keeps this pledge, because devaluation would mean an instantaneous loss of the purchasing power of all savings—including billions of dollars in Government bonds bought because of faith in the Government's fiscal honesty."

Grant in aid to education totaling almost $1.8 million for the 1962-63 academic year have been announced by the head of the Esso Education Foundation, which is supported by Standard Oil of New Jersey and six of its affiliates. Since its founding in 1955, the grants have reached the over-$13 million mark. They are given to institutions of higher learning throughout the country. The Foundation has also announced a new phase of its program designed to stimulate the personal participation of company employees in financially aiding education.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, MINN., DAILY JOURNAL: "A modern home is a place where a switch regulates everything but the children."

PORT HURON, MICH., TIMES HERALD: "Is it 'chance' that prior to 1948, the U. S. and Britain were tied in the number of Nobel prizes awarded for medicine in each country—but that in the years since Britain adopted socialized medicine she has produced only four Nobel medicine winners while the U. S. has produced 19?"

GREENSBURG, IND., TIMES: "Only 16 of the nation's 50 states have laws that guarantee all men the right to work where and when they wish. And these laws are jeopardized by whims of the courts."

Seeing Things Alike:

Division in the religious world is a prominent fact. The reason usually assigned for this division is that we cannot see the Bible alike. However, people are not divided so much over what is in the Bible, but over that which is not in the Bible. As little as the world might think about religious division, it remains a serious matter. Let us notice what the Bible teaches regarding unity. Read the following scriptures, Jno. 17:20-21; 1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:3-6; 1 Cor. 12:13; Jno. 10:16.

Let us suppose that an evangelist comes to our community to conduct a religious meeting and proceeds as follows: At the first service he preaches that salvation is by faith only, but at the next one he contends that it is by faith exercised in obedience to the gospel rather than by faith only. At the third service he declares that either sprinkling, pouring, or immersion is baptism, but at the fourth service he plainly shows that immersion only is scriptural baptism. At the fifth service he tells the people that they ought to baptize their babies, but at the sixth service he says that penitent believers are the only scriptural subjects for baptism. At the seventh service he preaches once in grace, always in grace, but at the eighth he tells the people that it is possible for them to fall from grace, that some have fallen, and that the Bible tells us how to keep from falling. At the ninth service he says it is alright to use human creeds, but at the tenth he declares that we should take the Bible as our only guide in religious matters.

No thoughtful person would continue to listen to one preacher like this, but the majority of people are perfectly willing for ten preachers to preach these conflicting ideas. They would say that if one man preached in this way he would contradict himself and would be inconsistent. But what kind of a God do we suppose we have, if he indorses all these conflicting doctrines. How inconsistent can we be?

FREE Soil Sample Bags FREE

We have available for your use a supply of "Soil Sample Bags" to be used in taking your soil samples for soil tests. These are small, wax lined, paper bags which you can put your soil samples in to take to the County Extension Office for testing.

Instructions for taking the soil sample are printed on the bags, and there is a place for you to write your name and other information on them.

The County Extension Office reports that it takes a minimum of 10 days for them to complete a soil test, and longer if they are rushed as they usually are just prior to planting time. Soil samples should be taken to them as soon as possible so that they will have time to make the tests before you are ready to apply the fertilizer.

There is no charge for these bags, and we would be happy for you to come in and get some of them for your needs.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by the State Health Department

How much does research cost? The better question would be: What is research worth?

Research is indeed the proverbial "stitch in time."

Medical research has brought about many outstanding drugs and spectacular operations which save individual lives and relieve suffering, but more outstanding and spectacular are the advances in preventive medicine that have been made which stop suffering before it starts.

Economically speaking, preventive medicine has saved the people of the United States countless dollars. A case in point is retrolental fibroplasia, an eye condition marked by the formation of fibrous tissue behind the crystalline lens. Prematurely born babies are often stricken causing partial or total blindness.

At first premature births were blamed. However, research financed by federal and private means discovered the cause to be the excessive administration of oxygen — employed regularly in incubators for premature infants.

This study cost approximately $50,000. In the U. S. 5,000 children are blind because of retrolental fibroplasia. Each child will cost an estimate $100,000 for education, training and support from birth to death—or a grand total of $500 million.

Caring for these 5,000 children in our generation will cost 100,000 times more than the cost of the research which prevents the disorder.

Other items developed solely through research include the Salk vaccine and steroid (cortisone) compounds—which prevent blindness, relieve arthritis, and aid skin diseases and allergic conditions.

Who can put a price on the suffering and crippling averted because of them. The life expectancy of Americans now born is now past 70 years of age. In just 17 years—1937 to 1954—it increased 9.6 years.

This means, because of the decline in the death rate, over $770 million additional federal income taxes was received in 1955 alone, plus the accompanying rise in earning power and productivity from an increase span of life.

The wise man who said, "Who would not give a trifle to prevent what he would give a thousand worlds to cure?" was right.

Mickie Hutchinson Celebrates Birthday

Mickie Hutchinson celebrated her 7th birthday with her very first birthday party in her home Thursday, January 24.

The Valentine theme was carried out with a marbled four layer tiered cake of red and white with the top layer being of heart shape. Hot chocolate was also served and each child received a valentine hat and a valentine sucker. One of the games played was "Pin the Heart on the Valentine."

Of course the unwrapping of the gifts is always fun to all and Mickie was the most delighted of all.

Those present at the party were Jennifer and Kimberley Guess, Karen Smith, Carlene Weaver, Sudy Crawford, Judy Kay Patterson, Pamela Haynie, Carol Hosea, Gat Rodgers, Andy and Julie Hines and Phillis Hutchinson.

Texas 4-H Club members are taking to the horse club program like 'duck-to-water.' Because of this great interest in the new educational program, Roy Snyder, extension animal husbandman, says the first statewide 4-H horse show will be held on the Texas A&M College campus August 23-25. Local county agents have the details.

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE

RELEASED BY THE TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Grain Warehouse Law Revision

Texas' multi-million dollar grain storage industry is expected to receive some close study during the present session of the Legislature in Austin.

Until 1953, the Texas farmer who stored his grain in a public warehouse had very little protection from unscrupulous operators that plague large industries. On the other side of the coin, legitimate warehousemen were exposed to dangers from manipulators of grain warehouse receipts.

A system of bonding and regular inspections of stored grain stock was inaugurated by the Texas Department of Agriculture 10 years ago. Since that time, and despite the Billie Sol Estes scandal of last year, no Texas farmer has suffered an unrecoverable loss of money from grain stolen or missing from storage.

This year, the Texas Grain Warehouse Law is up for study on two proposed revisions which should provide even better protection in coming seasons. Amendments have been requested concerning storage rates and higher bond requirements.

A uniform system of storage rates is a measure being sought by men in the industry. For many years, there was an acute shortage of storage bins for the bumper grain crops. Today, the situation is more competitive among warehousemen and the industry is being plagued by speculative undercutting, preferred fees, deferred payments and ruinous bonus systems.

Warehousemen, themselves, are being asked by the Texas Department of Agriculture to determine a standard rate guideline which can be administered by law. This will assure equal treatment and yet keep prices competitive for farmers and grain dealers alike.

The practice of requiring bonds by warehousemen as protection against grain losses is expected to be strengthened. The consensus is that present bond requirements are too low in view of the rapid growth of storage facilities in recent years. A bond acts like the gold reserve in Fort Knox which backs the nation's paper currency. Texas grain warehouse receipts, backed by bond, are acceptable in trade throughout the world.

Higher bond requirements puts more "reserve" behind the grain warehouse receipts.

Both measures — a standard rate guideline and stronger bonds — are a vital necessity for Texas as the largest grain producer in the nation.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Refuses To Discuss The Weather; He Switches To The Television Situation In Africa

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek apparently is trying to get his mind off the weather, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
With one Canadian blast of cold air after another coming down on us during recent weeks, you'd think we'd been sending foreign aid up there and had suddenly stopped, but I've heard so much about the weather lately I don't intend to discuss it.

What I have in mind this week is the television situation in Africa.

According to an article I read in a newspaper last night which I had planned to wrap a water pipe with but never did get around to and it's too late now, television is now showing up in darkest Africa and the people like it, especially Westerners. But the trouble is there aren't many sets in the country. As the article explained, "the reason is simple—with an average income of less than $100 a year, it is difficult for an African to purchase a TV set, even with time payments."

I don't understand this. I've never seen a budget yet so small a television set couldn't be squeezed out of it, although I'll admit a hundred dollars a year is a mighty small budget.

The trouble with the Africans is that they don't understand high finance. Take the United States. We understand it. Washington expects an income of around 90 billion dollars this year, but it intends to spend a hundred billion.

If Washington can spend 10 billion dollars it doesn't have, why can't an African spend $10 he doesn't have and buy a television set? Although, I'll admit it might be hard to buy a TV set for $10 a year.

To tell you the truth, I don't see how Washington can spend ten billion it doesn't have, but on the other hand I don't see how an African can live on $100

Notes From Knox Farms, Ranches

By Joe W. Doby, Knox County Agent

There is still plenty of time to get those soil samples in to the receiving station near you. They have the soil sample boxes, information sheets and directions on how to do a good job. Be careful and don't get any cigarette ashes in the sample as this will throw the phosphorous way off.

The receiving stations are located as follows: Knox City, ASCS office and B & C Chemical; Munday, Knox Prairie Seeds and Farmers Coop Gin; Goree, Gin and Vo-Ag building; Vera, General Store; Gilliland, Coop Gin; Truscott, Lester Hickman Elevator; Benjamin, Co. Agent's office and Vo-Ag building.

Tom Hunter, Area Farm Management Specialist, stated at the income tax meeting a couple of weeks ago that farmers are losing more money on two items than all the rest put together. One was depreciation on buildings, fences and equipment used in the farm business. The other item concerned wages paid the farmer's children for work performed on the farm or ranch. If there is a true employer-employee relationship between the parents and children and they are paid regular wages, then this is a legitimate tax deduction.

Depreciation that is not taken each year is lost. Set up a schedule for all your equipment and save those dollars if you are not already doing so.

The 4-H subcommittee, composed of Mrs. J. T. Cook, Gilliland,

Chairman; Mr. J. T. Cook, Mr. Roy Tomlinson, Benjamin; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Braly, Munday, met last week and planned a series of adult leader training meetings for the four Monday nights in February.

The meetings will be held in the County Courthouse. They will start with a covered dish supper at 6 p.m. The training will start at 7:00 p.m. and be over by 8:30. The first meeting will cover "The Responsibilities of 4-H Leaders" and "The Characteristic Development Stages of the Three Age Groups in 4-H."

The leaders will be given the opportunity of choosing the topics they would like to have covered for the last three meetings. All 4-H leaders are urged to attend these meetings. Remember our youth are the most important asset we have and a well rounded 4-H program will do much toward building a better citizen for tomorrow. We as agents cannot do the job alone and these meetings are designed to help you to help us build a top notch 4-H program in Knox County.

County Plans For Red Cross Drive

A meeting of all Red Cross workers in Knox County was held at Garrison's Cafe in Knox City last Tuesday night to map plans for the fund raising drive in the county.

Dick Strayer, field representative from Wichita Falls, assisted with the plans.

The blood bank for Knox County was discussed, and it was brought out that in no other way could we have had a supply of blood for the county. Cost of blood runs $5 per pint, which is for processing.

The Red Cross offers other programs which the county needs, such as: Water safety, services to armed forces through home service, disaster services, first aid and home nursing. The volunteer nurse's program for young girls is helpful in that it affords something useful to do and increases interest in nursing as a career.

Attending the meeting were Mr. Strayer, Jesse G. Smith, Munday; Luther Graham and Mrs. Bruce Campbell, Knox City; Mrs. Clelan Russell, Vera; Mrs. Sue Bumpas, Mrs. O. D. Propps and Mrs. Jan Barton, Benjamin.

The national kickoff drive begins on March 1.

Boy Scout First Aid Meet Planned

Boy Scout troops from the Brazos Valley District, including Knox, Baylor, Archer and Throckmorton Counties, are expected to attend the district first aid meeting.

It will be held in Seymour on Saturday evening, February 2, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The meet will be held in the Methodist church, rather than the Lowe Stout building, as previously planned.

Approximately 80 Scouts are expected to participate by using the patrol system. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

Mrs. A. U. Hathaway spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Elton Busby at Nolan and with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Busby at Anson.

The increased power and economy can also mean a savings in time. He adds. Use the Operator's Manual for instructions on doing the job.

Many Thanks

To The People Of This Area!

Having sold our interests in the Dairy Treat to Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Albus, we take this means of thanking the people of this community for their patronage and loyalty.

It has indeed been a pleasure to serve you at the Dairy Treat, and we deeply appreciate your loyal support through the years.

We believe that Mr. and Mrs. Albus will serve you, just as we have tried to do, with fine foods, good service and a pleasant atmosphere. We solicit for them your continued patronage.

Again we thank you for your loyalty and friendships.
