First Program Held In New Auditorium

The first program in the beau-tiful new auditorium of Baird High School, was held Thursday morning, Oct. 17 at 10:35. It was an assembly attended by the high school students.

Baird United Fund is now un-derway and it is sincerely hoped that this year will find Baird meeting its quota for the drive. As the citizens of Baird know, this drive has taken the place of so many small drives and takes care of several different organizations at one time, and for a year for these various dri-ves. The United Fund has been adopted nationally and seems to

Under present law, the State matches any contribution made by the employee, but the em-ployee's annual contribution is limited to $180, which is 5% of $3,600. The amendment would retain the 5% rate, but the $3,600 limit is removed and the contrilimit is removed and the contri-butions of both the State and the employee would be based on the employee's total pay.

The proposal would also re-move the present provision that persons receiving benefits from the State Employees Retirement Fund must release the State's contribution on their behalf to this fund before becoming eli-the for other state ald or pengible for other state aid or penions
