Look To The East

By AARON EDGAR

A Sunday weekend sans the great American sport--baseball!

We think this is a "pretty kettle of fish"!

Not that we're such an avid baseball fan; although we do like the sport.

Yet, we've never seen a nationally organized baseball game, except via the flicker tube. Likewise concerning other big-time sports, like football, with the Dallas Cowboys; basketball, with Wilt Chamberlain; tennis, soccer, or such like.

But we do enjoy whiling away some time on weekends, Monday nights, etc., watching games on television in preference to some of those high-rated "repeats" we see nowadays.

We have our reasons:

First, we've never been in the proximity of the site where such carryings-on are taking place.

Second, we could ill-afford to become intimately involved with any big-time sport--money-wise that is. Big ideas and small incomes do not go well together, you know!

But the baseball mess is far from being humorous! A lot of people are more ardent fans than we. Many live in areas for such activity, and a few have income that can stand the wherewith for attendance fees.

So it is that the baseball strike has hurt many people, other than the players, owners and management. It is pathetic to see photos of empty stadiums at a time when activity should be rampant.

All dickering was of no avail Friday, and the baseball stadiums were shut down. The yell, "Play ball" if spoken went out to a vast emptiness.

George Steinbrenner, owner of the New York Yankees, blamed Marvin Miller for staying away from Friday's negotiations, saying his action was "particularly harmful and in many ways, even ridiculous." He urged the head of the baseball players association and the owners to "get their tails back" to the bargaining table to settle the strike.

The controversy was over owners wanting compensation for losing free agents to other teams.

Nick Gholson, sports editor for the Wichita Falls Record News, spoke our piece pretty well when he said:

"If the 'babyball' players of Major League don't want to play for six figures, let 'em dig a ditch or fry a hamburger. This ole boy is sick of hearing them cry. They've been living on Easy Street for too many years and still aren't content. Now they want to move to Easier Boulevard."

But back to owner Steinbrenner, who continued: "...I have to ask myself, 'What the hell is going on when I am told that the chief negotiator for the players is not concerned enough to be present at a key negotiating session with the owners and the federal mediator?'"

"I would think Marvin would want to try everything possible to negotiate a settlement of this strike, which means so much, not only to those people involved on both sides, but particularly and most importantly, to all baseball fans."

So, the players have called their third strike--and in baseball, that means "you're out"!

In 1972, players struck at the end of spring training and remained out 13 days. Last year, in Phase I of the compensation dispute, they struck the final eight days of the exhibition schedule, knocking the last 92 games of the pre-season schedule. Now, their strike is in the middle of their regular schedule.

We have a feeling of sympathy toward one player and one only--Pete Rose of the Philadelphia Phillies. As he and his teammates joined the baseball strike, Rose had tied Stan Musial's National League career hit record, with hit No. 3,630. Now, he's waiting for his record-breaking hit No. 3,631. He doesn't know how long he'll have to wait!

In the old song, "Take me out to the ball game" are the words: "And it's one, two, three strikes you're out, at the old ball game." The players have called their third strike in less than a decade; so, we think they should be relegated to the bull pen and issued C-rations, at least until they can "see the light of day"!

Wheat Harvest In Final Stages

Within a few days, maybe hours for some, wheat harvest would have been past history for the Munday area. But the showers came Monday morning!

Most elevators in the area reported only a "smattering" of grain remained in the fields after last weekend. Only some cleaning up remains; although, some fields of oats remain to be harvested.

With their major operations completed, combine crews began cleaning up their premises, getting ready to "hit the combine trail" to the north for several weeks of operations.

Well over a million bushels of wheat were harvested locally in what was deemed a very satisfactory yield.

Reports from elevator operators were: Farmers Grain Co-op, Munday--About 99% complete Monday. Some three or four customers have some scrapping to do. Dry-land wheat yields ranged from 30 to 50 bushels per acre. Irrigated wheat as high as 70 bushels.

Knox Prairie Seeds, Munday: Only 125 to 130 acres remained to be combined Monday. Rail car situation excellent this year. Average yield upwards into 30 bushels, with some from 40 to 50 bushels. One farmer reported 58 bushels on dry land. Around 250,000 bushels received by the elevator.

Myers Grain Co., Rhineland: We're just about through. Total of 238,265 bushels received. Yields from 35 to 40 bushels per acre.

Goree Producers Grain: Very little grain remained in the fields Monday. Total receipts around 368,800 bushels. Average yield in the Goree area, 35 to 40 bushels per acre.

Water Detention Pond Discussed By Council

The City Council of the City of Munday, Texas met on June 9, 1981 at the Munday City Hall at 8 p.m. in regular session.

Members present: Mayor James W. Reid and Aldermen Larry Smith, M. M. Booe and Ray Lynn Hardin.

Members absent: Aldermen Donald Hobert and A. Dale Selzer. Mayor Reid called the meeting to order. Minutes of the June 9, 1981 meeting were read. Smith moved for approval. Hardin seconded. Carried.

Jerry Smith, Engineer for C. O. G. met with the Council in regard to a detention pond plan for North Park and adjacent areas. Purpose of a detention pond, he said, is to impound water at flood stage, hold and let water run out slowly, in this case into the storm sewer.

He proposed approximately a 10 acre ft. pond requiring moving approximately 16,000 yards of dirt. Estimate to move was approximately $1.10 per yard. Also required would be drain pipe (approximately 350' of 8" and 400' of 10").

Purchase of land on a perpetual easement would be required. This will work, Jerry said, and existing overflow drainage South as it now stands (normal drainage) would be unaffected should the pond fill. It will work as it is. Preliminary drawings were presented. In regard to the landfill requirements as made in a recent letter from the State Health Department, Jerry recommended we do our best to comply.

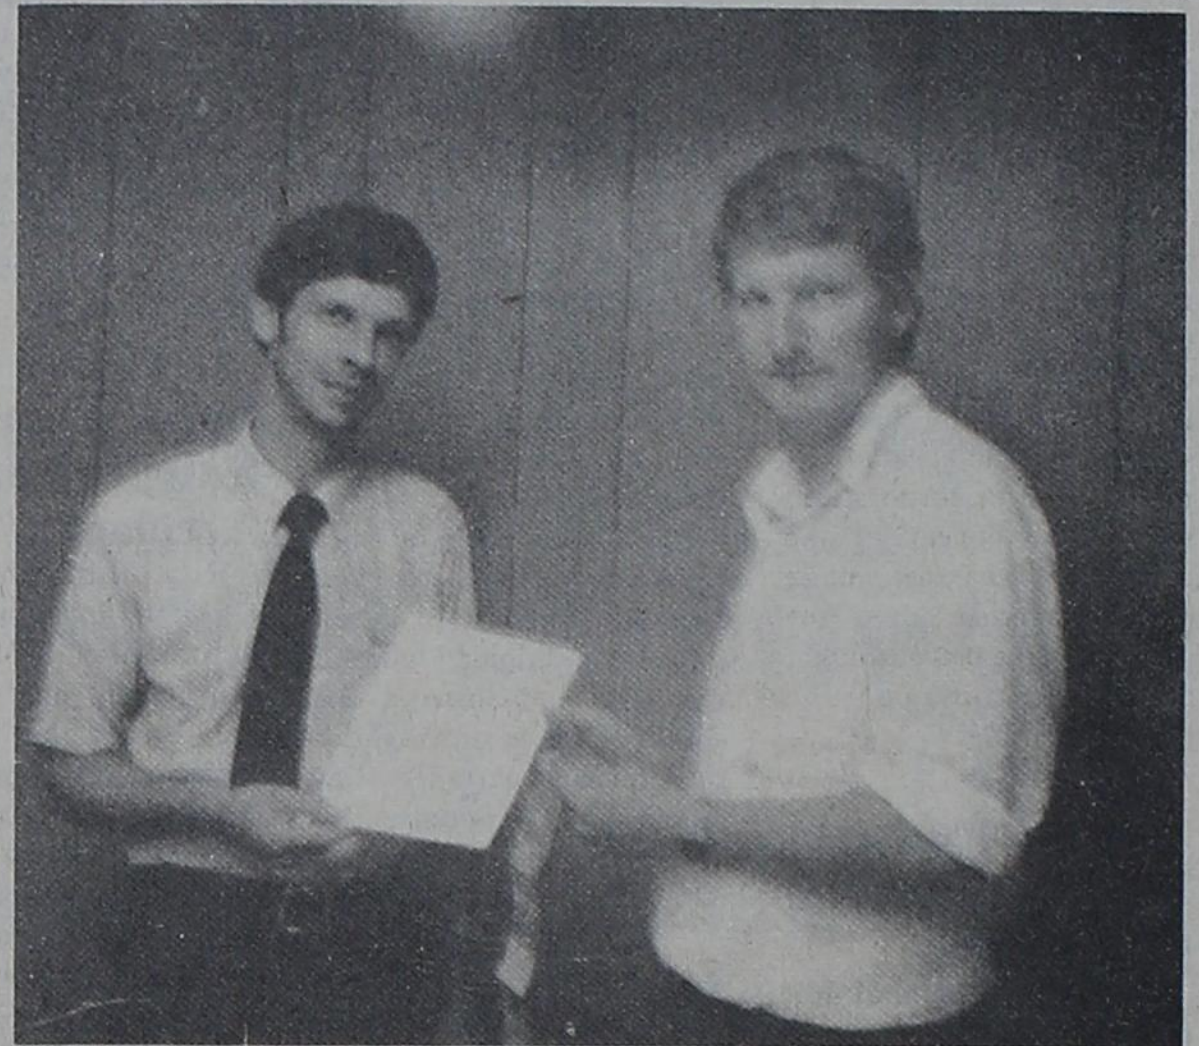

Also recommended was a County Wide Landfill. Requirements will be more strict as time goes on, probably no burning allowed, and this is best in the long run, he said. The Council will review North Park pond recommendations for possible later action.

J. H. Amerson, President, and Jeanie Carden, Manager of Munday Housing Authority met with the Council. Also present was John Herman Farr of Seymour Housing Authority and Mary Roberson of the Abilene F. H. A. office. The Munday Housing Authority manager requested that the 24 units of Munday Home Development Corporation be transferred to Munday Housing Authority; also, that the

Classified Ad Did The Trick

Mrs. V. F. Burnison called to let The Courier staff know that a classified ad she placed in last week's issue did her selling for her. She sold the item Thursday.

We were happy to know Mrs. Burnison's sale was completed due to the ad. We also thought it very nice of her to take time out to say, in her words, "You are appreciated." Thanks, Mrs. Burnison, we needed that.

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm reminds young persons that he is presently receiving applications from young persons interested in competing for nominations to the service academies, for the classes entering July 1982. The service academies are the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland; the Military Academy at West Point, New York; the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colorado; the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York; and the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Connecticut. These institutions offer an excellent education and a great opportunity for young persons wishing to serve their country through a military career.

In order for Congressman Stenholm to consider applicants, a candidate must meet these requirements: (1) Must be a U. S. citizen; (2) Must be over 17 and under 22 years of age on July 1, 1982; (3) must be a legal resident of the 17th Congressional District; (4) must never have been married; (5) must be physically fit, including excellent eyesight; (6) must have a good overall high school record.

Couple Exchanges Wedding Vows In Saturday Ceremony

Tena Josselet and Danny Myers pledged marriage vows in a candlelight ceremony, Saturday, June 13, 1981 at three o'clock in the afternoon in Saint Joseph Catholic Church in Rhineland. The ceremony was performed by Father Brendan McGuire, O. S. B. Altar boys were Bryan Kuehler and Tim Kuehler.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koenig and the late Wayne Josselet are parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Billie Jake Myers and the parents of the groom.

The church was decorated with the traditional arch covered with ivy and mixed spring flowers. The arch was flanked by matching candelabras entwined in ivy. The pews were marked with votive candles trimmed with ivy and pink and orchid bows.

Kent Josselet, brother of the bride, was candlelighter.

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father. She wore a gown of silk organza accented with Venise lace. The dress had an empire bodice accentuated with a Queen Anne neckline. From the bodice, it fell into a semi-flow skirt, which had repeats of lace and pleats, and then into a scalloped chapel train. The dress was completed with Victorian sleeves caught at the wrist with lace bands. The bride's chapel length mantilla was edged in Venise lace and attached to a lace Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses, miniature orchid carnations, daisies, baby's breath, fern, and lemon leaves.

In addition, the bride also carried the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. For something old the bride wore a diamond necklace which belonged to her mother. Her dress was something new. For something borrowed, the bride wore a ring which belonged to her sister. This ring had the diamonds out of the wedding ring her father had given to her mother on June 13, 1954. Her something blue was her garter, and she wore a penny in her shoe.

Salwa Choucair and Julie Partridge presided at the registration table. Rice bags were handed out by Dana Reeves of Marietta, Oklahoma and Laura Burnett of Munday.

The bride's table was covered with a candlelight satin cloth overlaid with tulle and lace. The appointments were of crystal accented by a silver candelabra. The bride's cake was three tiered, in candlelight, topped with a fresh colonial nosegay. There were pink and orchid rose mints, as well as punch, served from the table. Cathy Cartwright and DeeDee Kuehler served.

The groom's table was covered with a pale yellow cloth overlaid with tulle and centered with a purple candle surrounded by purple and beige silk flowers. Appointments of pewter and crystal were used. The groom's cake was a chocolate sheath topped with a horseshoe and purple grapes. Coffee and nuts were also served. The groom's sisters, Darla and Caroline Myers, presided at the table.

The groom's family hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Knights of Columbus Hall. A delicious home-cooked meal was thoroughly enjoyed.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Munday.

Munday Soon To Be Seventy-Five Years Old

Early in the year 1981, Nolan and Ursel Phillips reminded us of the fact that in July, 1981, Munday will be 75 years old. That time is fast approaching and even though no formal celebration is planned for this year we can all get a "Happy Birthday" attitude and our community spirit "in gear".

The Phillips were reminiscing by turning the pages of their old scrap book when they came across the clipping of July 19, 1956, issue of the Wichita Falls Times and Record News which gave a description of the "My Home Town" production which was staged to celebrate the 50th birthday of Munday.

Those of you with twenty-five-year-old memories can well recall the spectacular, written and produced by our own Mrs. Travis (Mary Ann) Lee, with all local actors and actresses. Mrs. Lee composed all the music in the production, too. The show was presented on Friday night, July 20, 1956, at Scruggs Field.

The cast count of 60 citizens were only a part of the better than 200 local people who did different chores, little and big, to make the show a reality. One of the most outstanding of these had to be Travis Lee. In our opinion, it would take a pretty good man to live with the lady who was working night and day (as well as hopping out of bed with an idea once she did retire) trying to get the show completed.

Through song and pantomime the show unfolded a continuation of nine episodes, the first on stage at 8:30 p.m. that evening. Major events in Munday's history were depicted since the City was chartered in July, 1910. Historical skits were interspersed with many entertainment numbers on the lighter side.

When the performance ended with "My Home Town" being sung by the entire cast as the finale, many a heart swelled with community pride because truly, Munday was their "home town".

It is our opinion that reminiscing is good for all of us. Time has a way of helping to heal wounds, hurts, and personal losses in our lives. We can then look back on some incident and maybe see a side of it that we were not able to see at the time it happened.

So we hope it is with all the ones who worked so faithfully on the production for Munday's 50th birthday. Time also has a way of making our memories grow sweeter, and the people involved with the downright labor of the show can easily remember the marvelous night when the show went on—not dwelling on the hot, sweaty days they spent making preparations.

After all, this is as it should be. One does not enjoy talking the past with a person who only remembers the "bad" happenings. What good is talking of "days gone by" unless you can come forth with a chuckle occasionally?

With this article, it is our purpose for those of you who have hung on to the memories to now talk about the good times of life in Munday and hold on to a close community spirit.

The name, "My Home Town" went on to be chosen for the title of the newly published history of Munday. It is that compilation that took so very much time of members of the historical committee that it was virtually impossible to plan a diamond jubilee celebration. However, it is very fitting that the book was published during the year of our 75th birthday.

Mrs. Callie Ann Combs, manager of Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, stated, "We feel there is a possibility, with the history book now a reality, that we can plan a birthday celebration for our community next year during the summer months. It takes an unbelievable amount of preparation for this type program if it is done right, and the time was simply not available this year."

So let us all just take a jaunt down memory lane come July, 1981, and contribute a little extra time and talk to "Our Home Town".

Low Income Elderly May Receive "Cooling" Aid

Low income families containing members age 65 or older may receive needed assistance in July to help in cooling their homes. Under the cooling phase of the federally-funded Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP), the Texas Department of Human Resources (TDHR) proposes to make a one-time-only payment to qualifying Supplemental Security Income, food stamps, and Aid to Families with Dependent Children households.

The program established by Congress in 1980 provided assistance this past winter to approximately 475,000 needy families by distributing $25 million in benefits. Because of the harsh effect of Texas summer heat on elderly persons, participation will be limited to low income households containing elderly persons.

Under TDHR's plan, those households with elderly persons not receiving an automatic payment, may apply between August 3 and August 31, 1981. Each county in Texas will have a designated location where members of such households can apply.

A household's resources cannot exceed $1800 for one person or $3000 for more than one person. The value of a homestead, cars, personal and household belongings will not be considered as resources. All household income must be verified.

Mrs. Blanche Nelson of Weatherford visited in Munday during the weekend and attended the reunion of the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Matthews, Sr. held in the Munday Community Center.

Why gas is plentiful:

Two New Sources

There's enough natural gas in proven and existing reserves to heat America's homes and run its factories for many years. And now gas is flowing in enormous volumes from two new sources: the tight basins and the deep basins right here in Texas and Oklahoma. Experts believe each of these sources could double the nation's proven supply. And our pipeline system will let us deliver your share of this gas efficiently and economically. It's another reason to be glad you're served by the Lone Star system.

Gas. It's plentiful, efficient and right for the times.

Four-Letter Words

A few years ago there was quite a stir and discussion about the use of four-letter words. The words that evoked the discussion were vulgar and obscene so the idea got around that good people did not use four letter words. One day a sign appeared on the fence that surrounded a construction site: "All four-letter words aren't bad!" Then there appeared a list of four-letter words that challenge the very best in us.

Four-letter words will continue to be with us. Some of these will never be used by persons who have any sense of decency; but others should be used more frequently in our speech and observed more faithfully in our living. Each of us will choose the words (including four-letter words) which we will use, and the ones we choose will determine the direction of our lives—whether we will ally with a clean, new world or buried in the garbage of the old. Let us look at some of the four letter words we must choose between.

Two of these four-letter words we must choose between are "good" and "evil". In some instances the choice for us is easy because the distinction is clear; but there are times when the black and white merge into a gray making our decisions and choices difficult. For instance: Money - is it good or evil? Some would say in answer to the question, "It all depends..." and that is the way I see it. It all depends on how it is used. In our society some money is necessary if we are to live, but money has a tendency to corrupt—either the possession of it or the desire for it.

There are other areas of our living that would be termed "good" or "evil" depending upon how it was used. Each person must make the choice between what is good and evil; but the choice is more easily made for Christians who live in the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Two more four-letter words that make a difference in life are "love" and "hate". Jesus instructed his followers to love others, even their enemies, and do good to those who would harm them. Now that's a big order—one that is difficult for us to put into practice. But to love persons regardless of the way we have been treated is a mark of being Christian. In First John the writer said: "We love, because God first loved us." (4:19) What miracles are experienced in life as people decide to love rather than hate.

Two more words that have four letters that we are called to make a choice between are "Lord" and "self". Making our choice between these two words determines our priorities, what is important to us. In the decade of the sixties the Christian world was shocked by a claim of some theologians that "God is dead!" This announcement shook the Christian Church more than anything I can recall in the last thirty or forty years. Many people were vocal in their criticism, but some of those people who criticized the most had been living for many years as though God was dead—you see when we live selfishly we are living like God is dead.

Is God really alive for us? Does he really matter in our choices and decisions? Eight hundred years before Christ, the prophet Hosea wrote, "Hear the word of the Lord, O people of Israel; for the Lord has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or kindness and no knowledge of God in the land; there is swearing, killing, stealing, and committing of adultery; they break all bounds and murder follows murder." (Hosea 4:1-2) Does it sound like he read our morning paper?

What is central for us? What priorities do we have? Is life organized about "self" or the Lord? When John the Baptist realized the presence of Jesus in the midst of the people he told his followers, "He must increase, I must decrease." (John 3:30) That's the way it ought to be for us. The Lord, not self, ought to be central for us when we take for ourselves the name Christian.

"All four-letter words aren't bad!" The message on the wall at the construction site was true—there are a number of good four letter words. The ones we choose to keep will determine the direction of our lives. If we choose good over evil, to love rather than hate, and make the Lord the center of our living rather than self—then we will choose still another four-letter word: Life—the abundant life found only in Jesus Christ.

Mrs. W. P. Farrington, Former Resident, Dies

Mrs. Wm. P. (Charlotte Craft) Farrington, 94, well known pioneer resident of Munday, passed away on Tuesday, June 9, 1981, in St. Petersburg, Fla., after having been in ill health for some time. She was one of the "grand ladies" of pioneer days in Munday.

Born on December 9, 1886, in Albany, Ky., she came to Texas with her parents when just two years of age. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Craft, settled on land three miles east of Munday which was later known as the Otis Simpson place.

Mrs. Craft later operated a boarding house in Munday. An interesting event was that a young doctor, W. P. Farrington, who had just graduated from Vanderbilt Medical School, arrived in Munday by buggy, enroute to California, and inquired of a hotel. He was directed to the boarding house, and while looking at his room he met Charlotte.

A whirlwind courtship ensued; the couple was married nine days later, in 1906, and Dr. Farrington established his practice in Munday, instead of California. Mrs. Farrington assisted her husband in his office, and they were a very congenial couple.

Following Dr. Farrington's death in May 1937, Mrs. Farrington continued to make her home in Munday, having a part in the town's religious and social activities. She was a faithful member of the First United Methodist Church for many years.

Her two sons became doctors. Dr. Charles Farrington, an orthopedic surgeon, established practice in St. Petersburg, Fla., while Nollie (now deceased) specialized in diseases of the eyes, nose and throat, establishing practice in New Orleans, La. Mrs. Farrington would spend the summers in Munday and the winters with her sons, finally making her residence in St. Petersburg in 1972.

Graveside services for Mrs. Farrington were held at 10 a.m. Thursday, June 11, 1981, at Oakwood Cemetery in Huntsville, with Rev. Thomas Holcomb officiating. She was laid to rest beside her husband. Immediate survivors include her son, Dr. Charles Farrington of St. Petersburg, Fla.; four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Survivors remaining in Munday are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. (Lucille Neff) Smith Jr. and their family.

MR. and MRS. DANIEL DALE BARNARD

Chamberlain, Barnard Vows Exchanged In Kansas Ceremony

The Trinity Heights United Methodist Church in Newton, Kansas provided the setting for the exchange of marriage vows between Dana Gaylene Chamberlain and Daniel Dale Barnard at three o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, June 6, 1981.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Cooper Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Duane Barnard, all of Newton. Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Dave Jetton of Munday and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Oneal of Seymour.

Rev. Bill Landis officiated the double ring ceremony before an archway with a circular ring of candles and twin hurricane candelabras which were entwined with greenery and silk roses. A basket of peach and white silk roses centered the altar before the unity candle. Wicker baskets of greenery, peach and white candles on the communion altar and a kneeling bench centered with a white Bible, belonging to the bride's late great-grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Moore, completed the decor.

Mrs. Tom Adrian provided the organ music. Kenna Cotton and Lisa Schill were soloists. Other musicians were Mrs. Steve Williams and Mrs. Ralph Malin, hand bells. Lighting tapers were Jimmy Jetton of Plano, cousin of the bride, and Leslie Bookout of Augusta, Kansas.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with an overlay of organza. The gown, designed and made by the bride's mother, featured a fitted empire bodice and Queen Anne neckline with a flowing skirt extending into a chapel train with a wide edging of alencon lace. The long organza Bishop sleeves extended into pointed cuffs which were covered with hand applied lace. The entire bodice was re-embroidered with lace roses, which were also scattered on the skirt and down the center of the sleeves. Her veil of sheerest illusion, edged and applied with lace roses, was attached to a crown of lace and seed pearls. She wore a diamond cross necklace, a gift from her father to her mother, and carried a bouquet of peach and white silk roses.

Mrs. Earl King of Newton was matron of honor. Mrs. David Barnard of Newton, sister-in-law of the groom, and Kenna Cotton of Goree, cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaids. They were attired in identical floor length dresses of peach qiana. They were fashioned with an empire waist and a darker peach overbodice of crystalan sheer with full sleeves. Coordinating qiana cuffs and trim accented the dresses. Each carried a long-stemmed peach silk rose and wore peach roses in her hair.

Eric Murphy of Newton served as best man while David Barnard of Newton, brother of the groom, and Scott Chamberlain, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen. Kipp Cotton of Goree, cousin of the bride, and Kurt Bookout of Augusta, Kansas, seated guests. Ring bearer was Carrie Bookout of Augusta.

The reception table was covered with a white linen embroidered tablecloth, designed and embroidered by the bride's mother, and centered with a mirror on which were three stemmed crystal candleholders with peach bows and streamers extending to the bride's bouquet with white ceramic doves on each side. Ivy and peach and white silk roses surrounded the mirror.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. George Cotton of Goree, Mrs. Garon Jetton of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Jimmie J. Jetton of Plano, all aunts of the bride. Registering guests was Miss Lori Anderson of Newton. Amy and Danell Oliver of Wichita, Kansas distributed scrolls and rice bags. Mrs. Wayne Bookout of Augusta and Mrs. Doug Oliver of Wichita assisted at the reception.

Both the bride and groom are 1980 graduates of Newton High School. Following a trip to points in Colorado, the couple will make their home at 8202 N. Sheridan Blvd., Apt. 1610, Westminster, Colorado. The groom is assistant manager for Alco Discount Store in Commerce City, Colorado.

Parents of the groom were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the church on the evening preceding the wedding.

Wheat Report

Harvest progressed rapidly in the early part of the week, but was quickly halted with rain returning to parts of Oklahoma and Texas. Very hot temperatures early in the week hastened the drying of the wet wheat fields which had received eight to nine days of continuous moisture. By the end of the week, combines had once again returned to the fields, progressing slowly as high humidity and scattered rain delayed cutting each day. Weather forecasts continue to call for warm temperatures, but the continued possibility of rain. Initial receipts of new crop wheat indicate the rain has not damaged the wheat crop with good color, test weight and near-average protein reported in most areas.

On the demand side, numerous foreign countries inquired for U. S. wheat and purchased approximately 7.4 million bushels of various classes of wheat. Additional inquiry is expected next week from Japan, Brazil, Haiti and Sri Lanka. Potentially large buying from the U. S. S. R. is now possible as the U. S. and Russia met in London, where the U. S. opened the way for three million tons of wheat and three million tons of corn to be made available by September 30. The U. S. also agreed to allow the U. S. S. R. to purchase like quantities for the year beginning October 1, 1981 through September 30, 1982.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture released crop estimates during the week, and predicted the U. S. winter wheat crop at 2.013 billion bushels, down 3% from the previous forecast, but still a record. The supply/demand estimate by the U. S. D. A. projected wheat prices to average $3.80 to $4.40 per bushel, up ten cents from the previous projection, and exports at 1.675 billion bushels, up 100 million bushels from earlier forecasts.

Exports for the week ended June 4, 1981, were 22,883 for wheat, 34,170 for corn, 13,701 for beans and 4,724 for sorghum (figures are in thousands). Being the first week of the marketing year, some exports were credited to the 1980-81 marketing year. Wheat exports for 1980-81 finished at 1,437,392,000 bushels, which is roughly 133 million bushels greater than 1979-80. Exports for the 1981-82 marketing year are projected to be 240 million bushels greater than this year, and a record amount of exports.

APRIL'S ADVICE Nonfat Dry Milk A "Magical" Ingredient

Short on time and food dollars?

Nonfat dry milk can make "magical" mix items in almost no time—at almost no cost.

With careful planning, it's possible to keep the cost of homemade mixes below that of commercial products.

"MAGICAL" MIXES
Here are some of the mixes you can whip up ahead of time using nonfat dry milk: quick-bread mix, biscuit mix, muffin mix and cookie mix. That's not all.

Want economical hot cocoa in a hurry? Make a mix of cocoa, nonfat dry milk and sugar. When you're ready for hot cocoa, just add hot water.

"FOR-REAL" NUTRITION
A good part to this whole idea is that it really isn't magical at all—it's "for real", of course, and the absolutely best thing is its nutrition "no-nonsense".

Nonfat dry milk is the most economical form of milk consumers can buy, and it can replace whole milk in many products.

It contains about half the calories of whole milk, and some instant nonfat dry milks contain added vitamins A and D.

The nutritional quality of many baked products, in fact, can be improved by adding extra amounts of nonfat dry milk to the recipe.

These products tolerate the extra nonfat dry milk with no adverse effects on eating quality.

VERSITILE VARIATIONS
Even more versatility is yours when you use nonfat dry milk for these menu variations:
Use it as an extender for hamburger and other ground meats. For meat loaf and ground-meat casseroles, use about 1/4-cup per pound.

Use nonfat dry milk as an extender for omelettes and creamy soups.

Use it to make whipped toppings for frozen and chif-fon desserts and salads—beat equal amounts of the powder and ice water into stiff peaks.

Finally, make your own "magical menu mixes 'n matches" with the wizardry of today's economical, nutritious nonfat dry milk.

Thank You

I want to thank the Munday firemen, my friends, and neighbors who helped in any way in fighting the fire that practically destroyed my home on May 26.

I drove to Knox City to a Retired Teachers meeting and while there, my daughter-in-law came for me, saying my house had burned and was almost destroyed. When I arrived home, I found most of Munday's volunteer firemen working as fast as they possibly could, trying to save some of my household treasures, collected over a period of nearly 44 years. Because they cared, they attempted to save some of my family photos and most of my cherished pieces of furniture.

It was a devastating and heartbreaking experience, but the concern of the firemen, neighbors, and friends made it possible for me to overcome the sorrow of losing my home and possessions. After all, houses and furniture are merely "things", but friends and loved ones are people, and I am very glad that no one was hurt. I am also very glad that I have so many loving friends, and I want to say "thank you" for the many kind acts and help shown me the last few weeks.

To the kind, brave firemen, I say "thanks" for leaving your places of business to fight a dangerous fire and try to save my home. I hope I can show my gratitude and appreciation by being a loving friend to each of you in the future.

May God bless each of you,
Euris Reed
