The post office will remain open until they are all delivered or long as the veterans are there to receive them, Mr. Spencer said. The addressee will be required to sign a receipt upon his obtaining the "baby bonds," and this receipt along with another card must be returned to the post office.

Farmers and Business Men Will Hear Matador WTCC Head At Banquet Monday

The Farmers and Business Men's Association will hold its regular monthly banquet Monday night, after skipping its regular meeting last month, according to Amos W. Lilly, president of the organization.

The place for the banquet has not been definitely determined as yet, Mr. Lilly said. The banquet was not held during the month of May because of a motion passed by the association to cancel the regular meeting due to the extra activities of the organization during the Forty-fifth Anniversary Jubilee of Foard County held the latter part of April.

At the last meeting of the "Horse Traders" D. R. Magee and Pete Bell were appointed by the president to make up a committee to sell the banquet tickets. John Rasor and J. M. Hill were placed on the program committee.

Committees are to be appointed soon to be placed in charge of the food and the place for the banquet. Several important discussions will be introduced at the meeting Monday night, the president stated. The new road from Crowell to the Knox-Foard County line and the possibility of having the daily mail sent to Crowell earlier than the present mail schedule are questions to be brought before the meeting of the association.

The president of the Matador Chamber of Commerce will be one of the main speakers on the program, Mr. Lilly said.

558 SIGN WORK SHEETS BEFORE PERIOD CLOSES

95 Per Cent Old AAA Farmers Are on Dotted Line

Five hundred and fifty-eight work sheets had been filed by Foard County farmers by yesterday afternoon, the deadline for filing out the sheets, according to information received from the county farm agent's office.

This number represents about 95 per cent of the number of signers of AAA contracts. The filing of a work sheet qualifies the farmer to receive government payments in connection with the Government's new deal Soil Conservation program provided he complies with the other regulations of the farm plan. However, this does not obligate the farmer to abide by the new plan if he does not desire to do so, John Nagy, county agent, said.

According to the new plan, to be eligible to receive soil conservation or soil improvement payments a minimum of 20 per cent reduction or a maximum of 35 per cent reduction must be made in the cotton acreage and a reduction of 15 per cent in the acreage of other soil depleting crops.

The deadline for the sign-up period was first set at May 7, then extended to May 23 and a second extension placed the final deadline at June 10.

About 293,000 Bushels of Wheat Harvested in Foard County by Wednesday Noon

The 1936 wheat harvest in Foard County will be over practically by the end of this week with approximately 90 per cent of the crop already harvested was the general prediction made by grain dealers of Crowell Wednesday afternoon.

A preliminary check-up on the yield of the county showed that about 293,000 bushels of wheat had been harvested and handled through the elevators of Foard County. By the time all the crop has been combined, the total number of bushels will be well above the 300,000 mark. This figure surpasses by about 25,000 bushels the estimates made by most of the dealers two weeks ago.

This total was estimated from the total amounts handled by the three elevators of Crowell, Foard City and Margaret.

The quality of the wheat this year is well above the average, according to the wheat dealers. Practically the entire crop was No. 1 wheat which must register a test of at least 60. Much of the wheat has tested as high as 64.

The market for the grain has been steady during the harvest. It opened at about 77c and in the last two weeks has been steady to about 2c lower per bushel. Most of the wheat this year is selling 5c to 7c higher per bushel than it did last year.

With the exception of a few loads which will come in the first of next week, the harvest this year will be over by the time it started last year. Late rains delayed the harvest last year by about two weeks while dry weather this year had a tendency to cause an early harvest.

For the first time in many years wheat was harvested before June first.

August 22 — Date of second Primary.

September 7 — State executive committee meets to canvass returns for candidates for state offices.

September 8 — Meeting of state convention, to announce platform and nominations for governor and state offices.

November 3 — Day of general election.

November 13 — Candidates should file report of expenses with the county judge, within ten days after a final election.

College Station.—Three supplementary recommendations of the Texas State Committee of the Soil Conservation program have been approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, it was announced today by A. L. Smith, executive secretary of the State Committee, and Jack Shelton, vice director and state agent of the Texas Extension Service. The first of the recommendations approved is that the term "soil-conserving crops" has been ruled to mean any crop on crop land upon which an approved soil-building practice is carried out in 1936, and from which no soil-depleting crop is harvested in 1936. The second recommendation that was approved for the State of Texas states that sorghum or millet when seeded on crop land between January 1, 1936, and July 31, 1936, and all the crop is plowed or plowed under, providing that all the requirements for grant are complied with.

tween January 1, 1936, and July 31, 1936, if all the crop is left on the land or plowed under, will be regarded as a soil-conserving crop. The third approved recommendation is in regard to a soil-building practice which states that sorghum, sudan grass or millet receive a soil-building practice payment at the rate of $1.00 per acre when seeded on crop land between January 1, 1936, and July 31, 1936, and all the crop is plowed or plowed under, providing that all the requirements for grant are complied with.

be returned by the postmaster.

Positive Identification

Special instructions have been given postal employees to have positive identification before the bonds are turned over to their respective owners.

Veterans on Routes

Veterans who live on the rural routes who are entitled to bonus payments will obtain their bonds as the mail is delivered Tuesday morning, June 16. They must be positively identified by the carrier. If they are not known by the carrier, they should have others to identify them to the carrier.

The bonds may be cashed through the postmaster. He will give the veteran a receipt for the bonds, send them to Dallas to the Federal office from where they were distributed and a check will be mailed directly to the payee.

For immediate cashing, the bonds may be taken to Wichita Falls. Authorities there, however, have asked that the veterans be able to produce identification without a doubt.

If the bonds are not cashed before June 15, 1937, they will draw 3 per cent interest. If they are cashed prior to that date, they will not draw interest.

WPA Labor Rolls Now Include 96,143 Texans

San Antonio.—Now enrolled in free classes conducted by the Works Progress Administration emergency education department are 96,143 Texans. H. P. Drought, Works Progress Administrator for Texas, reported today.

Employing 2,040 needy teachers, the program offers a variety of educational opportunities for adults, Drought said.

Largest number of students are attending general adult education classes, with an enrollment of 45,509. Literacy classes are teaching 24,185 to read and write, while vocational instruction is helping to rehabilitate 23,772. Classes for parents reached 1,352 Texans and nursery schools enrolled 766 preschool youngsters. Training for workers is extended to 559 persons.

Emergency college centers, enabling young people who are financially unable to attend regular college to receive the benefits of college work, are being attended by 631 boys and girls.

Expressing gratification for the results of the program, Drought said: "It is difficult to estimate the value of this service in counteracting the psychological effects of unemployment and enabling nearly one hundred thousand Texans to broaden their understanding, develop skills that will keep them out of the ranks of the unemployed, and help them adjust themselves to new economic conditions."

ONE CENT A MILE

SAINT JOAN OF ARC WAS A GENTLE PEASANT GIRL

San Joan of Arc, a gentle peasant girl who led the soldiers of France to victory at the siege of Orleans, was born in the village of Domremy, in 1412. While her brothers and sisters were sent out into the fields with their father, her mother kept Joan at home for the spinning and weaving. Thus she grew to strong and comely girlhood, known throughout the village for her gentleness, charity and piety, notes a writer in the Philadelphia Record.

Driven by visions (revelations from Heaven she believed them to be) to leave her home and make her way to the court of the uncrowned king of France, she prevailed upon him to accept her as the rescuer of his country. Clad in full armor, with sword and banner, Joan of Arc was mounted on a charger at the head of the French troops. Fired by her courage, they marched on Orleans, defeated the English and then marched on to Rheims.

There, with Joan at his side, Charles VII was crowned king of France in the cathedral which was damaged almost 500 years later by the Germans in the World War. Joan's success was short lived, for in May, 1430, she was captured by the English, imprisoned for a year and on May 30, 1431, she was burned to death in the market place at Rouen. Twenty-five years later she was found innocent of the charges against her, and in 1919 she was declared a saint.

"Entangling Alliances"

Washington, in his farewell address, published September 17, 1796, said: "Why forego the advantages of so peculiar a situation? Why quit our own to stand upon foreign ground? Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalry, interest, humor, or caprice? It was Jefferson who said, "Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations—entangling alliances with none." This was in his first inaugural address, March 4, 1801.

State Agricultural Council Organized Bushels—

The first load of wheat that was brought to the Farmers' elevator was produced by R. H. Cooper, and it was raised about 2 miles northeast of Crowell. It contained 44 bushels and was brought in May 29.

M. L. Hughston harvested the first load that was brought to the T. P. Duncan & Son elevator. It was brought in Saturday, May 30. It was produced about 5 miles east of town and a $10 premium was given for it. It contained 79½ bushels.

The first load of wheat to be harvested in Foard County last year was June 15 by Felix Jonas on the J. H. Lanier farm six miles east of Crowell. Harvest last year was delayed about two weeks because of heavy rains.

The first loads of wheat for the five preceding years are as follows:

1930—June 6, John Carter.
1931—June 9, E. V. Halbert.
1932—June 1, Jim Shook.
1933—June 1, Les Hammonds.
1934—June 1, Dwight Campbell.

300,000 Work Sheets Filled Out by Farmers of Texas; ¾ Acreage

Approximately 300,000 work sheets have been filled out by Texas farmers to participate in the Agricultural Conservation Committee upon surveying reports from county agricultural agents up to June 1.

Members of the State Committee further pointed out that the 300,000 work sheets represent about 75 per cent of all Texas farm acreage.

They said that out of the 500,000 farms in the State, some 400,000 should be eligible to receive grants.

It was for the purpose of giving farmers more time to sign up work sheets that June 10 was set as the final date in Texas.

VETERANS SAVE SOME OF IT!

After years of self denial . . . doing without those things that add so greatly to the joy of living . . . it is hard to resist the temptation to "cut loose" when a considerable sum of money comes suddenly to hand. But, to resist is the more prudent way . . . and pays most in the long run.

No sensible person would urge you to forego the purchase of a few luxuries . . . to miss the thrill of a little interlude of showing yourself a good time. We urge no such Spartan resistance to a natural impulse.

But we do urge you to refrain from spending it all. A fair portion of your money—some of the bonds with which you will be paid—if put safely away, will provide a competence of great value to you and yours in later years.
