Keep it Quiet

Can folks sitting in your car hear your motor when it is idling? Yes? No?

Chances are the noise means wear. Wear means that you haven't been getting all the lubrication you have been paying for. What every motor needs, right from its first day of operation, is quality oil. The word is over-worked, but quality is still the only single word to describe Phillips 66 Motor Oil, Phillips finest.

It is noted for its clean quality . . . for its minimum of carbon-forming residue . . . for its richer, long-lasting body with high-degree alkalinity. So it keeps the innards of your motor much cleaner.

Next time, drain and refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil, the economy champion. It's concentrated! . . . This year's big value in car lubrication. Look for the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

WHY INSURE AGAINST HAIL?

1st. Statistics show that the hail loss to growing crops is several times greater than the fire hazard to farm buildings.

2nd. Hail is purely a physical hazard and unlike the fire hazard no precaution can be taken or care exercised to minimize the risk.

3rd. Farming is no all net profit; a small grain crop of $3,000.00 in value probably represents to the farmer when marketed not more than $500 to $1,000.00 in net profit, as the balance is necessarily expended in the purchase of machinery, harness, seed, hired help and the family living expenses from one fall to the next. A loss of the crop by hail means the loss, not only of the season's profit of $2,500 to $1,000.00, but the $1,000 or $1,200 or more represented by the season's outlay as well. As a business proposition it is more foolish for a farmer to be without hail insurance than it is for a merchant in town to be without fire protection, as vital business interests are endangered in either case.

Towns grow because of the application of young and progressive ideas as expressed by young men. A town that is dominated by old men who have lost their vision will be shunned by young men. The young men who grow up in such a town will leave it at the first opportunity and cast their lot elsewhere. At least the young men who have energy and ambition.

No good workman likes to do a "cheap" job of any kind. Tell a good workman that you want a "cheap" job, and just thrown together, and he will at once lose interest in the task. There is that about a good workman that causes him to shrink from doing cheap and shoddy work. It goes against the grain, as they say.

As a rule a committee is effective in proportion as it is small. A committee of two is twice as much and do it twice as quickly as a committee of four and when a committee is composed of as many as eight it seldom gets anything done.

SAM'S FLOWER GARDEN
 (An editorial from the Rotary Magazine.)

Easy to do. But what a difference it made on busy Stephenson Avenue, Iron Mountain, Michigan, Sam Cudlip spaded up the space between the sidewalk and the curb alongside his drugstore and planted an old-fashioned flower garden. On a hot, busy business street in mid-August it was the brightest, cheerfulest thing in sight, and stirred the editor of a local service-club paper to utter this thought, which we wholeheartedly commend and pass on:

"What better program could be devised by this club for the spring months than planting some flowers in some of the unsightly places that are now eyesores to all those who would like to be proud of the city?"

Few articles cost less than a packet of flower seeds. Few forms of exercise are more stimulating than spading up a bit of soil in

Speakers Urge State Plan To Court Industry

Dallas.—Increasing sentiment for marshaling all Texas interests—industrial, political and social—behind a more realistic and aggressive program for industrial development of the state is seen by the All-South Development Council in the tenor of addresses made here before the Institute of Natural Resources and Industrial Development.

The task of placing Texas in the dominating position which its wealth of resources, population and marketing potentials, and climatic and other advantages justify, said R. L. Thornton, president of the Mercantile Bank of Dallas, is one for all of Texas, for all would share in its rewards. He said the task "demands the prompt beginning of a well-organized, consolidated, continuing program."

That there is no lack of independent agencies, commissions, associations and other industry-developing bodies in the state was acknowledged by Louis W. Hickey of Dallas, representing the Associated General Contractors of America. But he emphasized that the time has come for consolidating them into a state-wide group, determining positive policies by the state to support their efforts, and terminating the period of talk in favor of a period of productive action.

Both speakers pointed out that there is plenty of native Texas capital ready to go to work in new industrial fields, and that out-of-state industries are finding increasing demand for many raw materials still dormant in Texas, but warned that capital, like labor, merits a just return and cannot be expected to venture without reasonable expectation of legitimate profit.

Commenting on the successful raising of cotton, cattle, corn, wheat, sugar and rice and citrus fruits, long Texas agricultural standbys, and the "gratifying development" of timber, oil, sulphur and gas resources, Mr. Hickey pointed out that there has been little systematic endeavor applied to "the vast wealth of as yet untouched resources." He said developer of these resources had being their time, efforts and money, and surely deserved the rewards they gained; indeed, were it not for the perfectly legitimate prospect of private profit it would be idle even to talk about the development of resources and industry.

Attention was called, the Council's report said, "to the strides being taken in the field of industrial chemical research, and the opportunity for applying to Texas the practical and profitable results of this research. Industry needs the agricultural and mineral resources of Texas, both those developed and those latent, in its many new products and processes, it was pointed out.

"Anybody who reads trade journals," Mr. Hickey said, "know what other states and groups of states are doing in the field of trying chemistry and agriculture to industry, to the tremendous advantage of all three pursuits; yet he is forced to admit that Texas, with probably more latent assets than any other, is doing nothing."

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
 BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—With Karl Crowley of Washington, solicitor of the Postoffice Department, definitely entered as a candidate for Governor, and Bill McCraw and Ernest Thompson at work on platforms which they expect to make public within ten days, the week-end saw the Governor's race in Texas pretty well shaped up. Only the action Jim Ferguson planned to take remained a doubtful factor. The Ferguson enthusiasts insistently circulated reports here that Mrs. Ferguson will enter the race, and will make her announcement "in a few days," but this is the same story they have been telling in the Austin Hotel lobbies for weeks. Some newspaper speculation that "Farmer Jim" might support Crowley was heavily discounted here, because Crowley's announcement, if it reflects what he believes in, is diametrically opposed to most of the things that Ferguson stands for. Of late years, Ferguson has advocated the sales tax, almost to the exclusion of every other issue. There was nothing in Crowley's announcement to indicate he embraces the Fergusonian school of political thought. As a lone wolf, the experts here do not concede Crowley a place as a leading candidate, unless he surprises the folks and turns out to be a super-campaigner. His slashing attacks upon utilities and natural resource developers are not

The items below were taken in whole or in part from the issue of The Foard County News of April 6, 1923:

The Crowell High School baseball team continued its brilliant season last Friday by defeating Paducah to the tune of 8 to 5, thus taking two of the three games played with that high school.

With the aim of giving its advertisers the best service to be had in newspaper work The News has purchased a stereotyping machine with a 3-year mat service at a cost of several hundred dollars. It is The News' plan to make the ads it carries so attractive that they can not escape the eye of the reader.

Mr. Conn of the Department of Education, inspected the schools of Foard County that had made application for State aid this week. He arrived on Thursday and after inspection allowed the following schools the amounts listed below: Gamble, $295; Black, $185; Jameson, $260; Rayland, $335; Foard City, $265; Clayton, $255; Beaver, $205.

Col. J. G. Weatherspoon has become a member of the McCaskill Land Company and is now actively engaged in that business. Mr. Witherspoon and Mr. McCaskill compose the individual members of the firm and Mr. McCaskill will operate on the outside while Mr. Witherspoon will have the management of the office.

At the city election Tuesday the following results are officially reported: For mayor, C. T. Schlagal, 197; Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin, 79; For Marshall, R. J. Thomas, 121; P. S. Lovelady, 113; B. T. Meason, 43; For City Secretary, Roy Ricks, 271; For Aldermen, E. Swain 229, J. C. Self 211, A. R. Sanders 172, Duke Wallace 126.

A deal was closed last week and took effect April 1, whereby the White Front Confectionery became the property of John Bell and Arthur Campere, Zeke Bell relinquishing ownership and management of the business.

calculated to enlist the interest which contribute most liberally, as a rule, to campaign funds; and even the candidate himself did not appear to be very hopeful of his success. His talk of $2,000,000 campaign funds for Thompson and McCraw drew a laugh, and McCraw, talking off the record, remarked: "If he'll show me where there is a $2,000,000 campaign fund, I'll give him half of it, and get out of the race."

McCraw Off To Florida
 The Attorney General was scheduled to leave the state for several weeks about April 11, to appear in a hearing on the Green estate tax case at Miami, Fla. He was planning to announce his platform before he leaves, and resume active campaigning soon after his return.

Thompson, preparing also to announce a platform, was busy making arrangements for the opening of his campaign at Waco, April 12, where supporters from many Central Texas counties will gather to hear him fire his opening gun. Crowley has returned to Washington, to wind up his affairs and resign from his Federal job, since Federal regulations require such action when employees enter an elective political race.

Phares Is Ousted
 Capt. L. G. Phares, organizer and chief of the State Highway Patrol, fell victim to the political storm which has broken about his head several times in recent years this week, and was removed from the Highway Patrol job by the Public Safety Commission. He will be assigned some inferior post in the department, members of the commission said. Capt. Homer Garrison, who has been Phares' aide, the Commission reported he was recommended for "incompatibility and lack of co-operation with other units of the Department." The action is an aftermath of the bitter political rivalry that has existed between the Highway Patrol and the Rangers, ever since they were combined under one directing head. Phares was named first director of the department of public safety, but only after a bitter fight made by Rangers and their friends, and he finally succumbed to this pressure and resigned after a short service, returning to the Highway patrol job. Phares, ill at his home, has asked the Commission for a full explanation of his removal.

 Simple burial rites of the Episcopal Church, with burial at Houston for Col. Edward M. House removed from the Texas political scene one of its most influential figures, following his death in New York. Col. House, a mysterious figure who disliked publicity, was the "maker" of three Texas governors, and rose to be the closest friend and adviser of Woodrow Wilson, in whose cabinet he placed three distinguished Texans, President and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, and many high ranking foreign officials, sent floral offerings for the final rites of the soft-spoken Texan who wielded a powerful influence in national and international affairs after graduating from his political apprenticeship in Texas.

April 4 to 11 Is Proclaimed Crippled Children's Week

Dallas.—Heralded by an official proclamation by Governor James V. Allred, the sale of Easter Seals for Crippled Children commenced throughout Texas April 1st. The Governor, who bought the first Easter Seals, has proclaimed the week of April 4 to 11 as Crippled Children's Week in Texas.

Abe Goldberg, Port Arthur philanthropist, who is in charge of the state organization for the sale of seals, announces that more than 100 Texas counties have been fully organized and are ready for the campaign. The goal in Texas is $50,000 to aid crippled children, and the campaign is under the auspices of the Texas Society for Crippled Children, of which Chas. F. Ashcroft of Sulphur Springs is president.

Millions of Easter Seals, selling at a penny each in sheets of one hundred, have been distributed throughout the state to organizations and individuals interested. The seals this year are in yellow, blue and white, showing a crippled girl watering an Easter lily.

Seedless Fruits

The Spaniards planted orange trees in Brazil at an early date, but it was not until about the year 1829 that there appeared near the village of Bahia, Brazil, a form of seedless navel orange, since known as the Bahia navel. The first trees of this kind in the United States were sent from Brazil to the government propagating grounds in Washington, D. C., in 1870. The cause of the freakish development of the navel orange is unknown. Under scientific breeding, the improved fruit has been produced. The production of the seedless varieties of grape is the result of centuries of development by growers, through grafting, cross-fertilization, selection, etc. These seedless fruits are propagated by the means of bud grafting instead of by seeds.

Her fame as an emotional actress is impressed on everyone's mind, but to see Hepburn in a comedy situation is appealing to the imagination and to see her cast opposite Cary Grant, who is already established as a top-rate comedian, assures her success in this radical change from her previous pictures.

Sunday services at 11 a. m.
Wednesday evening services at 8 o'clock.

Sunday, April 10, 1938. Subject: "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"
The public is cordially invited.

Christian Science Services
"Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 10.

The Golden Text is: "The light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound" (Isaiah 30:26).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Therefore harken unto me, ye men of understanding; far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity" (Jobe 34:10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sickness, sin, and death, being inharmonious, do not originate in God nor belong to His government" (page 472).

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

The Call—Then and Now: In the manner of choosing his workers and sending them out to carry his message and his program to the world, Christ teaches a number of splendid lessons that might be aptly applied to the work of his program today.

The first lesson is to be found in the fact that the men who were invited to become his followers came willingly. They did not offer excuses. They did what they could in the best way that they could. The second lesson is to be found in the fact that these workers were selected from the very ordinary walks of life, men who were busy from daylight until dark in pursuit of their daily callings. They had no special training, no special education, no cultural attainments. The third lesson might be found in the fact that when Christ sent out his workers without money or means, without even an extra coat, I often think of these things when requests are made for workers in the church, and the promotion of its program are met with refusals and excuses, and one of which just as truly might have been given by the men whom Christ called. I wonder what would have been the result, if, instead of responding to the call, they too, would have offered, instead of excuses, I wonder too, what would be the result today, if, instead of offering excuses, workers would respond in the spirit that the disciples did.

Friends of a woman were forced to stand by and watch her burn to death in her car on highway 10 in Kansas recently. A careless driver collided with her car puncturing the gasoline tank and causing it to catch fire. A terrible price to pay for some one else's carelessness.

You're whole and healthy one second and the next you are lying in the dust beside the road your leg broken with a compound fracture, and the jagged ends of the white bones protruding through the quivering flesh, and your warm life blood forming a dark pool in the dust. This is the history of many an accident caused by carelessness and too much speed. It could easily be a history of your accident, if you are ever careless or drive recklessly.

If you doze as you drive you may wake up in heaven—if you have been living right.

Watch your speed. Don't overdrive your ability. It requires but a split second to crash your car through the windshield and send you through life with your ears shorn off.

holders of a bank either directly or indirectly.

The amount loaned to one borrower without adequate liquid security should be stringently limited to an unquestioned margin of safety.

I am also opposed to the practice in this country of permitting a bank to capitalize fifty thousand dollars, receive four hundred thousand dollars of deposits and then proceed to loan three hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the depositors' money on the judgment of a banker and a board of directors who are loaning one dollar of their own money to six of that of the depositors.

The capital should be considerably larger and the personal risk of those who sanction the loans more substantial.

I do not charge that our bankers and bank directors, or any bankers or bank directors, were deliberately dishonest. I do believe that many of them were not bankers or good business men. This and wrong banking policies and inadequate legal safe guards were responsible for most of the losses.

The laws can be changed to protect the depositor, but there is no process of law that will make business men of a board of directors who are not business men.

Mr. Connell: "Is James going to college this year?" Mr. Welch: "Yes," replied Farmer Welch. "It'll cost something to send him, but it'll be worth a good deal to keep him from interfering with practical work around the place."

THE BRAIN BUSTERS

Brain Busters, and you're not listening to Mineral Wells either, but this is coming to you directly from the class rooms of the Crowell High School. Rather than using "Happy Days Are Here Again" as a theme song, the CHS students are now singing "Six Weeks Exams Are Here Again." This will be the last six weeks exams that will be given before the school term ends. Everyone should stay home this week and try to make your grade; at least stay at home and everyone will think you are studying anyway.

These exams, or brain busters, are really not as terrible as all students think, just use your imagination and think you are doing something you really want to do. Everyone surprise Mr. Graves and make good on all your exams. It really won't hurt you.

Know Texas

Oil Marches On
 Denton.—Oil continues to wave its shiny black flag over Texas. Six refineries have been built in the state since April of last year, including some of the largest plants yet constructed.

Furthermore, the largest investments in any one group of industries have been made in the establishment of petroleum refineries producing asphalt, gasoline, distillate, fuel oil and other products.

Farm Income Higher

Recession fears may be partly quieted by the quotation of farm income figures for January of this year, which showed a nine per cent increase over January of last year. In other words, the computed farm cash income of Texas for January, 1938, was $21,500,000 compared with $19,750,000 in 1937.

Attention Pessimists

"Building for the future" is a reality as well as a slogan in Texas, if the amount of building permits is a true indication. Not including public works, a total of $4,475,942 worth of permits were issued in January, 1938. The largest amount was in Houston, where $1,177,795 went into construction work, and the next was in Dallas, with $965,543 worth of permits.

Oldest Town Crosses River

Denton.—Two distinctions belong to the town of Ysleta, that being the oldest town in Texas and also of having moved magically across the boundary line between Mexico and Texas without changing the location of a single building. Founded in 1882 on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, the town changed banks in 1850 when the river unexpectedly transferred its channel and detoured around to the other side of the town.

Sweeping Up Business

Brooms and brushes may be a pain to the housewife, but they are signs of industrial progress to Texas business men. According to the Biennial Census of Manufacture of 1933, Texas ranked second among the states in the number of factories manufacturing brooms and brushes. In 1936 a total of 38 plants reported production as compared with 22 plants in 1933. There is now a Texas Broom and Brush Manufacturing Association, organized in 1937 for the purpose of developing the industry.

Still Wearing the Pants

Legislation for equality of the sexes has gone a long way since pre-suffrage days, but Texas laws show that there are still a few hang-overs from that era. A woman in Texas cannot convey property, even to her husband, except in his presence. However, even if the property is acquired by both husband and wife during their marriage it can be conveyed by him, without the presence or consent of his wife, except in the case of a homestead. Just as his presence is required for these transactions, his absence is required when a woman makes an acknowledgement before an official, such as signing a document before a notary public, since presumably he would influence her decision. Various other distinctions are made between men and women, one well known instance being that women cannot sit on a jury in this state.

Although twelve Texas writers are listed in the 1936-37 Who's Who, there is not a single Texan on the list of Pulitzer Prize Winners since these awards were originated in 1917. John Francis Knott, Dallas News cartoonist, won honorable mention for the best newspaper cartoon of 1937, but otherwise Texas is absent from the Pulitzer roll call. Since Texas has until now been an active rather than a contemplative state, some predict that her next decade will show greater progress in the fine arts and sciences.

The principal reason for the lack of development of domestic manganese, Washington hearings have shown, has been the comparatively low metallic manganese content of American ores. It was also brought out that the 1935 reciprocal trade pact with Brazil, cutting the manganese tariff rate in half and applying also to other foreign sources, principally Russia and Africa, had stagnated domestic production just when new concentrating processes were giving promise of making manganese mining here worth the effort and investment.

Besides the Miller bill there are concurrent resolutions in House and Senate calling upon the Secretary of State to remove manganese from the commodities coming under the Brazil agreement and to exclude it from proposed new tariff treaties. Testimony before the Senate Military Affairs committee was to the effect that, with only that tariff protection, a domestic industry utilizing several now "concentrating" processes would develop within a few years to the point of making this country self-sufficient in manganese. It was pointed out, though, that American ores could not be developed on short notice for "emergency" use.

With the success of these moves, the Council's report said, Texas would be in position to bid for a large share of the 65,000,000 manganese of employment and $21,600,000 in payrolls that compilation of such a domestic manganese reserve would bring, and a favorable official attitude toward these undertaking this and kindred development enterprise would be an important factor in attracting this, as well as other types, of industrial investment.

Your Horoscope

April 2, 3, 4—You would make a good artist. You prefer to be left alone to think out your own ideas in whatever occupation you decide to take up. You are sometimes disappointed at the outcome of an undertaking though you have started out on it with much enthusiasm. You are fond of society, if it is composed of intelligent people, but do not like to listen to small patter as you call it.

April 5, 6—You like to argue and serap for your rights and can be very caustic, when interfered with. You are stubborn, self-willed, and often impulsive to an extreme. Having a strong conviction as to what you believe is yours, you will fight for it to the end, even though there is nothing left in it either for you or for the other party when you get through.

April 7, 8, 9—You are ambitious both for those dear to you and for yourself. It is your ambition to leave your family well taken care of if anything should happen

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS

Condemn the fault, and not the actor of it.—Shrkespears.

O, it is excellent to have a giant strength; but is tyrannous to use it like a giant.—Shakespeare.

There will be many electric appliances among your wedding gifts such as toasters, waffle irons, percolators, grills and lamps. They'll all be useful. But you still will have the problem of cookery, washing and ironing, and refrigeration. So we invite you to call on our Home Service Bureau to help solve this problem. Remember that we have special long-time terms for just such households as yours.

The modern electric range produces delicious cakes and tarts without the necessity of spending laborious hours in the kitchen.

GOOD CREEK H. D. CLUB

The regular meeting of the Good Creek Home Demonstration Club was held Wednesday of last week with the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Myrna Holman, present.

The three important principles of water supply for the farm home, stated Miss Holman, are first, having a supply of clean water; second, a convenient and serviceable equipment for furnishing running water in the house; third, this convenient supply of safe water should be obtainable with economy.

For water to be clean it must be pure. This can be obtained by locating cistern or well away from out buildings and where they won't drain toward cistern.

A pump is the cheapest and most convenient way of getting water to the kitchen if cistern or well is not located over 200 feet from the kitchen.

By using a fifty gallon barrel, a garden hose and a hand pump, water can be pumped to the kitchen for from $3 to $7.

The club voted to have an all day meeting April 15, with Mrs. E. M. Cox.

LIBRARY NOTES

Faith Baldwin, a very popular author of the latest fiction, began writing at the age of six, but it was not until she was eighteen that she really began her career with a poem published in "The Cavalier." From 1914 to 1916 she attended school in Germany; when she returned, she engaged in work and wrote her first novel. Since that time, she has written hundreds of short stories, novels, and one book of poetry. Her home is in Brooklyn. She enjoys fishing and spends one month every summer on the St. Lawrence River.

The library has copies of a large number of her novels and short stories. Her latest novel, "Star on Her Shoulder," has recently been added. This, like all her other stories, has been readily accepted by the readers of present-day fiction.

government wants cotton reduction and this will mean planting of more grain crops, which will soon raise overproduction and in those crops. The marketing question might become an important question as cotton production is today, and boys who will later become farmers should be prepared for this, Mr. Moffett advised.

In his closing remarks, Mr. Moffett stated that FFA work taught future farmers how to put a farm on a paying basis. A farmer with this training knows whether his farm, livestock or poultry, are paying for themselves, and if they are not, he knows how to remedy the problem. Teaching boys how to use their time is one of the most important things taught in FFA work, he stated. Too often farmers do not know how to use their time, and money can not buy time. Time wasted amounts to nothing, but time put to good use will show a great profit, Mr. Moffett concluded.

Opening Ceremonies The program was opened by the chapter officers, Franklin Evans, Tommie Hasseloff, James Welch, Vernon Gibson and Sam Russell, who gave the duties of the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and reporter, respectively. Two numbers were sung by the FFA boys and their guests.

Jim Hill Erwin briefly summarized what a FFA boy should expect of his dad in carrying out his Vocational Agriculture work, and E. V. Halbert answered with what a dad should expect of his FFA boy.

The accomplishments of the Crowell chapter during the past year and the plans for the remainder of the year were narrated by Billie Russell. A vocal number was given by the Crowell FFA sweetheart, Miss Verne Joy, with Miss Helen Harwell as accompanist.

State President Speaks Oscar Dodson of Chillicothe, State FFA president, congratulated the Crowell chapter for its record during the two years it has been in existence and complimented the members for the interest they took in their work. He told of the manner in which the FFA work was carried on and gave the many divisions of the FFA. He stated that he had visited many chapters in the state but the Crowell chapter was one of the most outstanding in the state.

A humorous reading, "Hannibal Comes to Town," was given by James Welch, after which several musical numbers were played by Marion Crowell's orchestra, composed of Mr. Crowell, Miss James Adams, Henry Ashford, George Carter and W. H. Adams.

After Mr. Moffett's address, Superintendent I. T. Graves welcomed the visitors. In making a few remarks, Mr. Graves stated that parents had taught boys and girls practical work in the old days, but that at least part of this responsibility should be the school's and that Vocational Agriculture and Homemaking had been added to the curriculum of schools. Two years teaching of farm work in high school will not make great farmers but will make a better student of the soil by giving foundation work, he commented.

Mr. Graves pointed out that industry relies on farming and boys should be prepared for this great cause. The program was closed with the regular closing ceremonies of the chapter.

Ed Gafford turned in a performance that proved that he can handle the fullback position left vacant by William Simmons. Que Meason and Raymond Joy gave promise of being even better than they were last year after a year's experience. These two boys, teamed with John Lee Orr, who was not able to participate in the scrimmage, give great promise of composing one of the strongest backfields in the district next fall.

Leroy Gibson, south-paw backfielder, is learning the ropes fast and if he keeps his present pace, he should letter with ease next fall.

Bernice Fitzgerald and Wayne Canup, regular ends last year, featured in stopping the all-stars' drives, and their work so far in the training period could be used as a warning to other teams of the district that it will be dangerous to attempt a play around their positions.

At the tackle position two more veterans are found, Marvin McKown and Oran Johnson bring weight, speed and experience back to two of the important defensive positions of a team. Jack Bailey saw service in the scrimmage and in him Coach Grady Graves has a valuable substitute for the line positions.

"It's just a shelf," says Mrs. Lewellyn Morgan of the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club when asked about her recent storage improvement and then admitted it was the "handiest shelf on the place."

This shelf is ten inches deep and is built back of the flour and meal bins in the cabinet. These bins open like doors rather than pulling down. This shelf, built into this waste space, is used for a weekly supply shelf to hold those products from the cellar that are to be used in the week's menus, thus saving many trips to and from the cellar.
