SIDELIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES
Member of Congress from Texas

The new farm program is designed to give agriculture a place of equality in the national picture. No thinking person can deny the need for such a program.

The well-being of agriculture is necessary if the nation is to prosper, and it is the well-being of agriculture that is the purpose of the farm program.

The new legislation contains the following features:

(1) It continues the soil conservation program, improved and simplified. Every man, woman and child in America is interested in the conservation of the soil.

(2) It provides a fund out of tariff collections to be used in the building up of our foreign markets for farm products, as well as for widening the distribution of such products in the United States.

(3) It provides for loans on various farm commodities to prevent price collapse and to prevent scarcity.

(4) It authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to apply for corrections in freight rate discriminations against farm products and to fight such applications through to a final conclusion.

(5) It makes provision for finding new uses and new outlets for farm commodities and the products thereof and for a research laboratory in each major region.

(6) It provides that the farmers, by a two-thirds vote, may establish marketing quotas on corn, wheat, cotton and rice, to be effective only when there are surpluses above what the market will absorb both here and in foreign countries.

(7) It increases the share in conservation payments to small farmers and tenants and sets a limit on the payment which large producers can receive.

(8) It provides protection for tenants and prevents landlords who reduce their tenants without justification from getting any part of the payment that would otherwise go to the tenant.

I have insisted from the very first that the farm measure should contain provisions which would assure fair treatment to small farmers and tenants so that individual farming will be encouraged.

The provision for enlarging our foreign markets is one of major importance. I believe that it is much better to pay a slight loss on shipments to countries which do not produce a commodity than to refrain from producing that commodity and thus lose the labor and commerce connected with its production.

The measure is not all that some of us would have liked, but I feel that it is a step in the right direction. It provides the fundamentals for a long-range farm and ranch program and can be improved in the light of our experience from year to year.

Entered at the Post Office at Crowell, Texas, as second class matter.

Crowell, Texas, February 24, 1938

God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and discipline.—1 Timothy 1:7.

Annually over 400,000,000 tons of top soil is carried into the Gulf of Mexico by the Mississippi River to be lost forever. No more eloquent or logical argument could be presented for soil conservation.

The government, which operates the post office, has a law providing that no one can enter into competition against the post office. It is against the law for an individual to carry a letter from one town to another. It is also against the law for a firm to hire some one to deliver monthly statements. This can only be legally done by some one continuously in the employ of the firm.

Germany has announced that she expects to recover her colonies lost in the World War and will maintain this objective. When Germany gets her colonies back, as she doubtless will, everything will be restored to the same condition that it was before the war except in this country there will still remain a mountain of debt caused by the war, thousands of maimed and crippled, and physically handicapped men, and long rows of white crosses in a cemetery on foreign soil which mark the burial place of American soldiers.

A good driver keeps his eyes on the road while he is driving. A poor driver turns his head to talk with other passengers in the car. This type of driver is never safe.

Inside Nazi Germany

As presented by The March of Time, brings home the full truth for perhaps the first time. Ex-Ambassador Dodd says: "The members of every American family, young and old, should by all means see 'Inside Nazi Germany,' as it tells the truth about Hitler and Hitler's government." Senator Pittman says: " 'Inside Nazi Germany' shows exactly what happens when a dictator takes control of a nation. I think it highly desirable that this picture be seen by every American." "Inside Nazi Germany—1938" will be shown as an added attraction at the Radio Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, March 9 and 10. Feature picture will be "Man Proof."

born to them and three survive. They are Harvey Lee Cannon of Fort Worth, Mrs. O. N. Baker of the Foard City community, and Boyce D. Cannon of Woodburn, Oregon. One child died in infancy and Clyde Ernest Cannon died here 16 years ago at the age of 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon rented a farm north of Plano one year, moving from there to Richardson, Dallas County; from there to Cooke County and then back to Collin County. After living near Dallas for five years, they then established their home for three years with Mrs. Cannon's mother in Plano, after the death of her husband.

Later they moved back to Tarrant County for five years, then to Cooke County for eight years, before moving to Foard County in 1917, where they settled on a farm two and one-half miles west of Crowell. They lived there until coming to Crowell on Nov. 13, 1926, at which time they established a sandwich shop. He was still actively engaged in this business when stricken with pneumonia about three weeks ago.

Mr. Cannon was a member of the Methodist Church for many years and had been affiliated with the Crowell Methodist Church since coming here. He was a good citizen and made many friends in this community during his 21 years residence here.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home here on Feb. 24, 1934.

Survivors include his widow, three children, three granddaughters, Mrs. W. O. Tyson of Eastland, Miss Marie Cannon of Gainesville, and Mrs. Howell Hallmark of Wink; four grandsons, Johnnie and Lowell Baker of Foard City, and Boyce Jr. and Clifford Dean Cannon of Woodburn, Ore., and one great granddaughter, Patricia Jean, of Eastland.

Out-of-town relatives and friends here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Tyson and small daughter of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Hallmark of Wink, Mrs. S. B. Ray and son, B. B. Ray, and Miss Ruby Goodnight of Fort Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Taylor who live in the extreme east part of Foard County.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—The decision of the United States Supreme Court in the celebrated Laredo gas rate case, together with another decision expected during March in the equally long-drawn out Lone Star gas rate case, is expected by members of the Texas Railroad Commission to affect directly the gas rates paid by hundreds of thousands of Texas towns, cities and villages throughout the state. The Laredo decision was a complete victory for the State, upholding, according to Rail Commissioner Ernest Thompson, the method and procedure utilized by the Railroad Commission in determining valuation of gas properties and fixing rates. The Lone Star case, affecting 300 towns, Thompson says, followed the pattern laid down in the Laredo case, although there are different legal questions involved. The battle to lower gas rates, instituted by Thompson shortly after he took his place on the Railroad Commission, has been bitter and lengthy, and that it must be fought out to the bitter end was indicated at the weekend, when subsidiaries of the Lone

Local Cagers—

There were surprisingly few lopsided scores in thirteen games played in the tourney. The largest score was set by Carey, who blasted Medicine Mound from the race Thursday night, 49-27. Carey later defeated Matador, 36-28, in the preliminaries and then beat Quail, 37-35, in the quarter-finals. In the semi-finals the Cardinals rolled up a 23-12 victory over Quitaque to enter the finals with Crowell.

Crowell's Wildcats did not play until the quarter-final round Saturday morning as they were given a bye when Silverton, Crowell's first scheduled opponent, did not arrive. This game was with Estelline, who was also given a bye when Dumont did not arrive, and the Crowell lads rang up their first victory over the Estelline cagers, 33-28. Childress bumped Wellington to meet Williams, who was also given a bye by default, in the quarter-finals. Williams downed the Bobcats by one point, 20-19, to enter the semi-finals with the Wildcats.

Kelsey Out Richard Kelsey, Crowell forward and goal garner, was unable to take part in the Williams game and one-half of the Carey scrap. He played in Crowell's first game of the tourney against Estelline and hit the basket for 15 points, but was forced to be given medical treatment for an infected foot received in the Thalia game two weeks ago. Although he had little use of his leg and ran high fever Saturday, he played nearly a half against the Carey cagers and registered 8 points before he was forced to retire from the fray.

Star Companies obtained from Judge W. L. Thornton in District Court at Dallas, a temporary injunction restraining the commission from assuming concurrent jurisdiction with incorporated towns and cities in rate matters. The Commission contends it has under the State law, concurrent jurisdiction, while the gas company asserts only the cities and towns may regulate rates. The Laredo case furnished political ammunition for both Thompson and Attorney General Bill McCraw, both gubernatorial candidates, as Thompson wrote the Laredo order, while McCraw defended it in the supreme court. Honor Enough For Woodul "Never again, I hope," remarked Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul as he ended his sixteenth term as Acting Governor of Texas, breaking all records in the history of the State. The return of Gov. Allred from President Roosevelt's luncheon in Washington enabled Woodul to return to his campaigning for Attorney General. During his 16 terms as Acting Governor, the Houston solon has had opportunities to name many colonels, cut a few ribbons and make other public appearances which ought to prove helpful in his campaign for Attorney General. Political Scene Muddled Awaiting further action by the principles in the Governor's race.

Austin seethed with rumors this week, as Gov. Allred and Attorney General McCraw, back from Washington, exchanged further verbal barrages. The Senate investigation committee probe of the Land Office, the issue that has furnished most of the political fireworks for several weeks. Allred appeared winner of the preliminary rounds, as Land Commissioner Bill McDonald has cancelled two of the disputed oil leases on State lands, while McCraw filed suits to cancel nine others—as demanded by Allred. The hotel lobbies buzzed with rumors that Allred was preparing to announce for a third term, and the Governor declined to comment. He took a final shot at McCraw, as he made reference to McCraw's reputed former Klan activities, when he told correspondents asking about his plans: "I'll wait until Bill McCraw comes out from under his bedsheet." The Governor gave further evidence that the Federal judgeship issue is not entirely out of his mind at his press conference, when he remarked, commenting upon his advice to the San Antonio pecan strikers to seek a court injunction against police interference with their pickets: "The rangers couldn't do anything to help them. What they need is judicial authority—and that is something I haven't got—yet," the Governor said. Pension Methods Questioned Of particular significance to Texas politicians who are urging "pensions for everybody" was the announcement from Washington this week that State officials of Oklahoma have been summoned by the Federal Social Security Board—which puts up half the pension money in all States—to show cause why they shouldn't be deprived of Federal pension funds because of failure to obey the Federal regulations. The Security Board charges that Oklahoma's administration of its pension law has been lax and discriminatory, needy aged being denied, and persons not needy drawing pensions. Oklahoma has the highest percentage of aged persons receiving pensions of any State in the Union, with Texas ranking a close second. Any relaxation of the Texas regulations, State officials claim, will result in cutting off of the Federal pension aid, amounting in Texas to about $9,000,000 a year. The Texas pension roll numbers around 113,000 persons at present. Texas Officials Protest Protesting against a resolution by Senator Nye in Congress, which would transfer control of all coastal water to the Navy Department, several Texas officials were in Washington this week. MEMBER how crude the old family bus of a decade or so ago seems today? Cost three or four times as much to operate as the present efficient machine. Well, Sir, the same is true of electric refrigerators. They blazed the trail, bringing the greatest domestic improvement of all time into every other West Texas home by 1937. So now, in 1938, there is no comparison with those pioneer models. Electric refrigeration of today gives absolute food protection with temperatures around 40 to 45 degrees—the only safe temperature. No other form of mechanical refrigeration can offer this guarantee at any price. But Electric Refrigeration gives that guarantee at a cost which drops to less than 3 cents a day!

The Act provides that wheat loans are to be made to farmers in any year in which the farm price of wheat on June 15 is less than 52 per cent of the parity price of wheat, or in any year in which the normal domestic consumption and exports of about 700 million bushels. These loans are to be made by the Commodity Credit Corporation and are to be made at between 52 and 75 per cent of the parity price at the beginning of the marketing year.

Marketing quotas are provided in years when the total supplies of wheat exceed approximately 950 million bushels. Marketing quotas when approved by a two-thirds majority of farmers in a referendum, will apply to all commercial wheat growers. Farmers who produce less than 100 bushels of wheat are exempt from the quotas.

Applications for 1938 Crop and Feed Loans Being Taken

Applications for emergency crop and feed loans for 1938 are now being received in Crowell by Miss Alma Walker at the loan office on the south side of the court house square.

The loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers who cannot obtain credit from any other source. The money loaned will be limited to the farmer's immediate and actual cash needs for growing his 1938 crops or for the purchase of feed for livestock, and the amount which may be loaned to any one farmer in 1938 may not exceed $400.

Farmers who can obtain the funds from an individual, production credit association, bank, or other concern are not eligible for crop and feed loans from the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration. The loans will not be made to standard rehabilitation clients whose current needs are provided for by the Farm Security Administration, formerly known as the Resettlement Administration.

As in the past, farmers who obtain emergency crop and feed loans will give as security a first lien on the crop financed, or a first lien on the livestock.

Where loans are made to tenants, the landlords, or others having an interest in the crops financed or the livestock to be fed, are required to waive their claims in favor of a lien to the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration until the loan is repaid.

Checks in payment of approved loans will be mailed from the Regional Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office at Dallas.

TRE WASP
 Buzz, I traveled some distance last week-end to get the dirt make my nest.
 I saw eight girls and a lady hiking down the highway out thirty miles from home. I then got into a car and ride away. When I got into Quanah, they were there. A little later the Crowell cars took the hitchhikers home.

JOKES
 "What kind of work is your sister's boy friend engaged in, Willie?"
 "I think he prints free theatre tickets?"
 "What gave you such an idea?"
 "Well, I heard Sis say he was always making passes."
 "Has your wife changed very much since you married her?"
 Mr. Todd: "Yes, my friends, my habits and my hours."

A writer sent a poem to an editor, who it seems, has little use for verse. The title of the poem was "Why Am I Alive?"
 The editor wrote, returning the poem: "Because you sent the poem by mail instead of delivering it in person."
 First: "Why do you call your wife Pegasus?"
 Third: "Well, Pegasus was an immortal horse and my wife is an eternal nag."

Professor: Take this sentence: "Let the cow be taken out of the lot."
 What mood?
 Student: The cow.
 Mamma, do angels have wings?
 "Yes, dear," replied the mother.
 "And can angels fly?"
 "Yes, dear."
 "Daddy said nurse was an angel last night. When will she fly?"
 "Tomorrow," replied the mother.

LOCALS
 A large majority of the students have been out of school on account of bad weather.
 A group of students attended a game meeting in Estelina last week-end.
 Ann Mabe had visitors from Fox City last week-end.
 Frances Davis had a visitor from Fox City Sunday.
 G. Graves and the basketball team attended the tournament in Childress last week-end.

NERVE IND—THEY WONDER WHY
 All the world is a stage and I the main actor—this from the lips of America's gad-about, the great American public who recently fun loving America discovered a new land on which to work its charms—Mexico and other Latin American lands. Thousands of Americans yearly now to Mexico—a land as ancient as the Orient and as ancient for the American traveler as anything antiquated.
 He climbs the pyramids, worshipping places of an ancient civilization, carves his initials in the sand covering at the top, and gleefully flicks a cigarette on the red steps. He goes to the float gardens of Xochimilco—he, great beauty seeker and lover of wild places—and forgets that Xochimilco is the remnant of the that separated Cortez from Mexico City Indians. The American actor drives on mountain highways and does chin-quivering act, forgetting it took the Indians ten years to lay highways by hand on perpendicular mountains 10,000 feet high in places. He rests his feet on the doors of the great cathedrals along "On the Road to Mandalay" and has no regard for the ship there which he believes is a furrier's. Later he wonders "why furriers don't like him." He wants publicity to Mexico through newspapers and at Pan American exposition was on for the purpose of bringing rats to those countries. The rat is commendable and one which will be more far-reaching than any other thing that can be probably, but until many Americans learn the liberal art of being, there is still much to be accomplished in Pan American relations.—The Bells.

FRESHMAN PARTY
 The Freshman class was entertained with a Valentine party by president, A. Y. Olds, in his home on Monday evening, Feb. 22. The party was planned as a well as society of its members, Miss Moseley, who was moved to Amarillo. Six tables of class members enjoyed playing hearts throughout the evening. The play-ended with a Valentine contest. Refreshments were served a Valentine box completed the evening's entertainment.

SCHOOL ATTENDS SHOW
 John Deere show which was particular interest to the Future Farmers, was enjoyed by the entire school Friday afternoon. An attraction was sponsored by Spotts, local John Deere dealer.

F. H. T. CLUB MEETING
 The F. H. T. Club met last Wednesday afternoon after school in the Home Ec. department. Mary Housouer and Beverly Hughston had parts on the program, and Mary Frances Bruce had charge of the games. Refreshments were served to about eighteen members of the club and the sponsor, Miss Ruth Patterson.

Was all they had to live on, but most of the time they had only love! The screen's most frolicsome threesome is loose in the daffiest of all film lunacies! From a Park Avenue pent house to a Greenwich Village garret . . . and back again . . . from love and pickles to caviar and hisses . . . it's the maddest, merriest romp of the year starring Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell and Robert Benchley in "Live, Love and Learn," which is showing at the Rialto Theatre for the last time tonight (Thursday).

Marjorie Browning: "I'd buy a trailer and go globe-trotting."
 Ada Groomer: "Some clothes and a car would be my first purchases."
 Juanita Johnson: "Buy me a cowgirl suit."
 Garland Raspberry: "I'd divide it with Joe and Jim so they would not have to beg so much."
 Ann Mabe: "I'd buy a car so I could hire a chauffeur."
 John Lee Orr: "I'd buy me a new hair cut."

FAMOUS GOLFERS
 Walter Raleigh who was always in the ruff. Samson, who couldn't break away from the links. Sam Adams, who staged the Boston Tee party. Magellan, who went around in 1591. Dan Boone, who shot birds in the Americas. Sir Galahad, who won the Grail Cup. Gen. Putman, who beat Howe out at the Bunker. Brutus, who made a hole in one.

JUNIOR PARTY
 The Junior class was entertained with a party in the home of Mrs. Adrian Thomson last Monday night, Feb. 14. There were thirteen class members present and the class mothers. A very delicious refreshment plate was served with the valentine colors carried out.

WONDER WHEN—
 We can have a broadcast without featuring Marjorie Browning and Joe Spencer?
 Joe Eddy will "Wake Up and Live!"
 Marjorie Spencer will come back to the fold?
 John Lee Orr will come up for air?
 Jim Whitfield will catch on?
 Franklin Evans will come out of the weeds and give the girls a break?
 Hall girls will tend to their own business even if they can't rate a date?

ADVICE
 Do all the good you can as you roll along. Life is a one-way street, and you're not coming back.
SO THEY SAY—
 If someone gave you a million dollars what would be your first purchase? Most of the students interviewed had a great deal of difficulty in deciding what they would buy first. Here are some of the student's initial investments (purely theoretical, of course):
 Billie Brown: "I would buy a pillow to go skating."
 Jim Whitfield: "I'd buy me a crack accordion and take lessons and serenade Sweet Pea."
 James Everett Long: "The first part would probably go for a hospital bill to pay for the shock."

SOPHOMORE PARTY
 The Sophomore class was entertained with a Valentine party in the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Fitzgerald Monday night, Feb. 14. Games of hearts were played and later refreshments were served to 20 members. Miss Vera Patton, sponsor, and Mrs. Frank Moore, class mother.
 The boy who is always trying to borrow trouble, finds that he has unlimited credit.

SOME SENTIMENTAL SHORT STORY
 Simon Stoddard, slim simple student, stood stock-still staring sullenly—suddenly saw Sadie Simpkins, "sweet sixteen," stepping sturdily.
 Sam Sloane, sly sport, sat surveying surroundings sadly, saw sublime Sadie sauntering slowly. Sam, seeking Sadie, saw Sadie seated silently, so Sam swaggered softly Sadie-ward.
 Sadie screamed—slapped Sam. Soon Sam sampled Simon's strength. Sam, Simon, struggled. Sadie shouted.
 "Strike Sam." Soon Sam sped swiftly somewhere.

 Summer's sun sank slowly. Stars shone shimmering. Sadie, Simon, sat strangely silent. Simon suddenly said something somewhat surprising.
 Sadie simply said, "So sudden!"
 Soon Sadie shared Simon's savings.
 So stops Simon's sentimental story.

HIGHLIGHTS
 It seems that two red headed people cannot get along. Any way Shorty and Wilma Jo fight all the time.
 We wonder why Daphny, when writing her news does not allow anyone to read it, afraid?
 We wonder who Theda's boy friend was Sunday night? Was he from Knox City?
 It seems that Elsie and Gilbert took in the sights of the great city of Quanah Saturday night.
 Aber was working Saturday night? Why? He doesn't always do that.
 It seems that Gerald is coming back into captivity, or at least he asked Helen for a date.
 Some of the CHS students have been eating a great quantity of snow the past week, mostly by force. Beware of Ruby Statter, Ed Gafford, Cecil Carroll, etc.

Slakes' Eyelids
 Snakes have vertical inner eyelids. Their outer eyelids are transparent and are fused together.

SENIOR PARTY
 The Senior class was entertained with a Valentine party in the home of Billie Brown last Monday night. Games of hearts were played. Sixteen members of the class were served refreshments by the class mothers, Mrs. H. C. Brown and Mrs. H. K. Edwards.

Your Mileage Merchant Advises . . .

Try to have the two cars slightly "staggered"—not exactly in line with each other. This often helps if bumpers lock, especially when the car with its bumper below can reach a drain or similar depression. Another way is for the car with its bumper on top to get up on a curb or "hump." That's all "just in case."

Now ask the poor fellow who wants your help to get into HIGH—keeping his clutch pedal down—letting it back gradually only after you get his car under way.

Push with your LOW gear. That's easiest on your car . . . for half a block. Then if the other fellow's car hasn't started, have him get into neutral and push him up to a nearby Mileage Merchant for Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze like yours. That can't help but get him started . . . Then the way to dodge further battery trouble, dangerous oil dilution—and embarrassment—is to get sure-starting Conoco Bronze all winter!
