The county rate for 1937, compared with the 1936 rate, is divided as follows:

The valuations for the county as shown above show a decrease of about 15.50 or slightly over one and a half per cent beneath last year's total. According to the figures from the assessor-collector's report, the total valuations, including both real and personal property, amounted to $3,961,874 for 1937 taxation purposes.

Members of the Commissioners' court, who set the 1937 tax rate, are County Judge Vance Swaim, Chairman; J. R. Ford, precinct No. 1; W. A. Dunn, precinct No. 2; A. B. Barker, precinct No. 3; and M. Marr, precinct No. 4.

The Crowell city lake was drained Monday of the little water it contained and between two and three thousand game fish were placed in the Crowell Country Club lake.

Many of the fish were caught near the drain pipe as the water ran through it and others were caught by nets after they had gone through the drain into a small reservoir north of the dam. The water was so low that many of the fish were caught by hand.

County Agent Gives Treatment for "Roup" and "Cold" Among Chickens

Many requests have come to the office of County Farm Agent John Nagy recently for information on how to treat roup and other fowl diseases. The following article has been prepared by the agent:

"Draughty and poorly ventilated houses are probably two of the most common causes of 'roup' and 'cold.' Badly located openings, cracks in rear wall of house back of roosts, etc., permit draughts to blow on the fowls at night and cause them to 'catch cold.' Fowls are more susceptible to catching cold at night than while actively exercising during the day time.

"In dealing with 'roup' and 'cold,' prevention is more important than cure. In well managed and cared-for flocks, these diseases are never sufficiently prevalent to cause much concern. Therefore, it can readily be seen that prevention is comparatively simple. If houses are so constructed as to be free from draughts, well ventilated to provide plenty of fresh air, are not over crowded, are kept dry and clean, and the fowls are fed properly, very little trouble with 'roup' and 'cold' will be experienced. General sanitary precautions which apply to all infectious diseases apply also to 'cold' and 'roup.' These consist of cleanli-

Foard County to Receive Drouth Aid; Project Plans Submitted by City, County

Rates to Be Adjusted by Commission

Foard County was listed among twelve counties in north-west Texas to receive drouth aid from the Federal Government, according to information from Washington received Wednesday.

Other counties to receive aid were Archer, Childress, Clay, Collingsworth, Cottle, Hardeman, Jack, Montague, Wichita, Wilbarger and Wise. This was the first designation of Texas counties in drouth territory since the drouth began, but it is understood that others are to be added.

Designating the counties as drouth counties will facilitate the work of government agencies which are taking steps to aid farmers in areas severely affected by drouth, according to the department of agriculture.

The district WPA representative at Wichita Falls listed Childress, Hardeman, Wichita, Foard and Cottle counties in the greatest need with ten to twelve thousand persons in the district who must have immediate relief. More than 8,000 in the district are now waiting chances at the 3,000 jobs available under the government's program.

Water for Drinking Should be Purified

A recommendation to the people of Crowell regarding the purification of the drinking water has been made by Dr. J. M. Hill, Foard County health officer, and Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

The recommendation given is as follows: "In order to be sure that your drinking water is safe and free from disease organisms, it should be boiled thirty minutes before it is used for drinking purposes."

Projects Submitted

Government projects to provide work for drouth-stricken farmers and other unemployed of the county have been submitted to proper authorities for recommendations and approval. A map showing the possibilities of a pipeline to obtain water from Pease River was submitted by the Crowell City Council for recommendations from government authorities.

Whether the project is possible or practical has not yet been determined. Investigations have been made and are being made by government agents and engineers.

Other proposed projects have been submitted by county officials. The exact form of the relief for the Texas counties named in the drouth stricken area has not been determined.

Fire Department Makes Run Friday; Starts From Trash

The Crowell fire department made its second run since the serious water shortage Friday of last week to put out a fire which caused damage other than burning a pile of scrap lumber.

The fire was never out of control of the firemen who used none of the city water but controlled the fire with the chemical truck alone. It caught from a burning trash pile in the yard of O. W. Davenport. A high wind scattered the trash pile until assistance from the fire department was necessary.

The only damage done was the loss of several posts holding up a wire fence, and a telephone post near the scrap lumber was damaged slightly.

Six Rooms Are Added to Undertaking Department at W. R. Womack's Store

Remodeling and rearranging of W. R. Womack's store, which was begun several weeks ago, is nearing completion, according to Mr. Womack, owner and manager.

The undertaking department has been partitioned off into several rooms, the woodwork, both inside and outside of the front, has been repainted, ventilating windows have been made, and other changes have been made.

Six rooms divided by a wide hall have been partitioned off in the undertaking department. A large 21x24 feet display room for caskets and vaults has been built. Each casket is placed on a special stand and will be draped. Two kinds of vaults handled at the W. R. Womack store, "Champion" marble finish vaults, and Clark's "Custodian" vaults are also on display.

The caskets are to be attractively arranged so that they may be easily inspected by visitors to the undertaking department. A formal opening of the undertaking department will be held as soon as it is complete, Mr. Womack said. Visitors will be invited to the opening and interesting demonstrations will be given by Mr. Womack and representatives from wholesale companies whose merchandise he handles.

Rates to Be Adjusted by Commission

Plans are nearing completion for water to be shipped into Crowell as soon as freight rates are adjusted by the state railroad commission, according to members of the Crowell City Council.

Communications from both railroad and commission authorities have indicated that adjustments will be made at an early date. Four of the necessary eight water cars have already been obtained and stationed at Knox City, from which place the water will be shipped.

A communication from officials of the Santa Fe Railway Company stated that it would haul the water at the emergency rate of 50 per cent of the regular rate provided the proposition was satisfactory with the railroad commission. They also stated that application had been made to the commission. Commission authorities stated the rate would be granted provided it was requested by the railroad executives.

WILDCATS TO START WORK MONDAY WEEK

Football training for the pre-season period will begin Monday, August 17, with prospects dimmer than they have been in 5 years. Coach Grady Graves said this week.

Not one of the 1935 regulars are back with only one squadman back for seasoned material. Only raw recruits will greet Coach Graves when he starts his work in developing his 1936 grid machine.

Graduation and eligibility rules eliminated the entire veteran squad. Robert Thompson, tackle, who was a member of the squad last year will be among the rookies when they report a week from next Monday.

The team will be in fair condition by the time the official district competition begins with Crowell venturing to Paducah October 1. The first home game will be with Iowa Park the following week-end.

Four Receive Burns By Gasoline Flame

Dan Hines and Charles Stuart Clark of Crowell and Charlie Reagan and son of near Truscott received burns Monday as gasoline fumes ignited as they attempted to set a dynamite fuse in a well on Dr. Hines Clark's farm about 15 miles south of Crowell in Knox County.

Dan Hines received first degree burns on his face and Charles Stuart on the face and hands, and both are in the Quannah hospital for treatment. Mr. Reagan and son received only slight burns.

The dynamite fuse in the well failed to set off the explosive so gasoline was poured into the well. A match, which was to set the gasoline on fire to burn the fuse, ignited the fumes from the gasoline and burned the four persons. Gasoline in containers on the ground by the well also caught on fire.

Dan Hines and Charles Stuart are reported as improving from latest reports this morning.

VARIETY OF USES FOUND FOR OUTPUT OF BEESWAX

Beeswax, the main by-product of honey, also has a wide variety of uses. In addition to its extensive use in manufacturing church ceremonial candles it is employed in making wax polishes, modeling waxes, ointments, certain types of paints and inks, etc. In early times when the chief source of artificial light was the candle, says Pathfinder Magazine, the beeswax candle was much preferred to a tallow one because of its higher melting point and the fact that it gave off little odor.

The high commercial value of beeswax as the base of wax polishes is due to its fine texture and this has been known to the Old World for a long time. Many European and Japanese waxes are still derived from this source.

Industrial chemists who have made laboratory studies of the bee and its products find that in addition to levulose, supposed to be the sweetest of sugars, honey contains such minerals as magnesium, iron, sodium, lime, etc. And while they say they do not expect honey and beeswax to ever become more important industrially, it is significant that they continue their researches into the subject.

 Crowell, Texas, August 6, 1936

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.—Psalms 40:4.

The postoffice department has been referred to as the efficient arm of the government. Inasmuch as this department has a deficit of many millions a year, it is not to be wondered that private industry dislikes to see the government enter other lines of business. Private business labors under the disadvantage of being unable to secure extensive deficiency appropriations when the end of the year finds the cash reserve all gone and a lot of bills on the desk to pay. The deficit could be lessened a great deal each year if the government would quit furnishing stamped envelopes with a return card printed on them about the price of the stamps and envelopes and give back to the printers of the nation a part of the printing business they need and have lost. Some business men refuse to use stamped envelopes printed by the government.

The man who merely lost his earthly possessions in the depression, but kept his courage and his fighting spirit is not whipped or beaten. There is much here ahead for him for the future. He is a wiser man. He has a chance to come back. But the man who has permitted the loss of earthly possessions to whip him, to break his spirit, to take from him his hope and his vision, has lost everything. Until he regains these there is no use trying to come back. We are only whipped when our heart is whipped.

There are few things so irritating as narrow mindedness. No one has a corner on all the wisdom. Many people have good ideas and the harmonious combination of the good ideas of all the people who are active in the building of a good community will accomplish much. What every community needs is more people that will shoulder the responsibility of good citizenship and work untiringly for the things that the community needs.

When a man gets to a point where he can turn a collector down without any regrets or ceremony, it is a good time to think about cutting him off the credit list, and that is usually done. A good credit rating is something that every man should cherish.

Some men have been ruined because of lack of credit, but more men have been ruined because they had more credit than their management ability entitled them to, and when they got out on the end of the limb it broke before they could get back.

Some folks forever strive to force the world and all those about them to conform to their way of doing and thinking. It can't be done. Most people resent having their lives ordered for them.

There are few pleasures in business that exceed that of having an employee who is cheerful, and willing, and an uncomplaining worker.

Relief Offices to Take Applications For WPA Workers

Austin.—Texas Relief Commission offices will be open in the various counties by August 1 to receive applications of persons desiring to be considered for Works Progress Administration jobs. Adam R. Johnson, director of the Texas Relief Commission, has announced.

Upon the request of Works Progress Administration officials, the Texas Relief Commission has agreed to undertake the task of determining the need of persons who apply for WPA employment, Johnson said. Expense of this service will be paid from federal funds.

In addition to performing this service for WPA, the Texas Relief Commission will continue to sponsor surplus commodity distribution contingent upon the continued operation of counties in employing approved case workers, it was explained. Applications for WPA employment or for surplus commodities will be filed and cleared through the same office.

Eligibility for WPA employment or for receipt of surplus commodities is determined upon a basis of need, Johnson explained. Although it is no longer required that a job applicant be a former relief client, present need must be definitely established.

"WELL TRAINED SERVANT"

Ads are most polite, points out the Westside (Ga.) Journal. "Newspaper advertising does not shout at you when you are trying to concentrate on something else; it doesn't obscure and mar the landscape; it doesn't interrupt your enjoyment of a good grand opera program; it doesn't clutter up your mail and waste baskets; it doesn't make you turn to page 37 and then shuffle through 18 more pages to finish the story; it doesn't clutter up your front yard or obtrude itself onto the seat of your motor car on Saturday evening. Newspaper advertising is like a well-trained servant—never intruding or making itself obnoxious, but always quietly at hand ready to give service when called upon."

Borger Cafe Cashier Now Starring With Ft. Worth Frontier Show

Fort Worth.—Sky-rocketing to stardom with the Fort Worth Centennial, Fay Cotton, who until her selection as Texas Sweetheart Number One was a Borger Cafe Cashier, is to get a chance in Hollywood. Rufus LeMaire, Hollywood film executive who formerly lived in Ft. Worth, announced he will take the comely brunette into the movies when she is through in the Casa Manana Show of the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial. Miss Cotton plays opposite Everett Marshall and in one of her numbers wears the $5,000.00, 18 karat gold metallic dress made by Whitting and Davis Jewelers. It weighs 40 pounds.

Asked what he thought of the Borger girl, he said unhesitatingly: "I'm going to take her to California—that's what I think of her. She's beautiful and I think she will be a success."

"I wouldn't think of interfering with the show here, but when it is over she will have a contract of her own."

LeMaire, who came here for the official opening of the show Saturday, left last night. "People in Texas don't realize what they have," he said. "Shows that can be seen here for $1 would be cheap at $5 in New York."

"I've been all over Europe and seen the best shows at Drury Lane, Vienna and Budapest, but I've never seen anything to compare with the Fort Worth show. I'm proud of Fort Worth."

"The colors, costumes and lighting are superb. Texas people have never had an opportunity to see such a show as that in Casa Manana and I don't think there ever has been one like The Last Frontier."

World's Deepest Oil Well Looms in State of Louisiana

Abbeville, La.—Eyes of oil men and geologists are focused on this Gulf Coast town as drillers prepare to push to completion what promises to be the world's deepest oil well and the maximum penetration to date of the earth's crust, reaching to a depth of almost two and one-half miles.

The well, Continental Oil Company's Alvin Hebert 1, has already been drilled to 10,956 feet, with a record "string" of 7-inch casing, or piping, cemented at that depth. Its objective is a virgin petroleum pool in the geologically ancient Oligocene sands, believed to be within drilling reach. Continental Oil Company's engineers at the scene believe the well is in condition for drilling to 13,000 feet at least.

The final push toward completion, beginning this week, will coincide with the 77th anniversary of climax operations on the Drake well in Titusville, Pa., first ever drilled, which was brought in as a producer in August, 1859, at the then record depth of 69 1/2 feet.

SAFETY SLOGANS

Always drive in a position that you will be prepared for instant action on brakes and wheels. Don't drive in a slouched position with one hand on the wheel. Never run a car faster than you can drive it. If you are at all nervous you are driving too fast. This places the driver in a position to put full strength into a quick turn in the opposite direction should emergency demand it.

LOCAL TEAM DOWNS KNOX SQUAD 19 TO 16

Bats Barked as 37 Hits Pounded Out; 15 Go For Extra Bases

The Crowell baseball nine scored 19 of the 37 runs in their game at Truscott Sunday to capture the third and last of a three-game series with the heretofore top-notchers of the Cotton Belt League and to take the series 2 to 1. The win enabled the Crowell lads to move into a tie for first place with the Knox County lads and the Medicine Mound squad.

Bats boomed consistently throughout the game on both sides as Crowell men connected with safeties 18 times for 19 runs and Truscott players hit 19 times for 16 tallies. Ten of Crowell's hits went for extra bases. Ten errors, six by Crowell and 4 by Truscott, assisted in running up the near three dozen scores.

B. Abbott and H. Green drew the assignments at the mound for Truscott and Crowell respectively. Both hurlers used their slow ball, but both were sent to the showers in the sixth and seventh inning. Green struck out six men in the first six innings and Rogers fanned two after he went in. Crowell lads registered 3 strike-outs. A. Myers relieved Abbott in the seventh inning, but failed to hold the Foard boys.

Crowell managed to cross the plate only once in the first inning as three men walked and Norman, second man up, doubled. With the bases loaded and only one out, Abbott tightened down to retire the side with no more scoring.

Truscott retaliated in their half of the first to score twice on three hits, one a triple by first baseman Abbott.

Crowell went scoreless in the second as Manager Myers' players drove across 5 runs on 4 hits to take a 7 to 1 lead. Crowell scored two in the third as Truscott went scoreless to narrow the margin to 7 to 2.

Crowell chalked up 7 runs in the first of the fourth as the nine batted around. Rushing knocked a four-bagger to count in the scoring and Rogers received two of his three hits in the inning. A free pass and a hit batter aided in planning the runners on base.

Truscott tallied once in their half to bring the count to 10 to 8 at the end of the fourth. Neither team scored in the fifth, but Truscott started a batting rampage in their half of the sixth to net 5 runs on 6 hits, one of them for 2 bases and one for 4.

The seventh inning was another big one for the Foard County lads as half a dozen hits produced as many runs. One of the hits went for three bases and three more went for two. Truscott scored two in the last of the seventh when Moss hit a home run with W. Myers on first. At the end of the seventh the score stood 16 to 15 for Crowell.

The eighth was quiet as both machines crossed the plate once. Truscott went scoreless in the ninth after Crowell scored twice on a base on balls, a hit batsman and a two-bagger.

Moss, Truscott center fielder, captures batting honors with a home run, a double and two singles. W. Myers was second for Truscott with a homerun and two singles. L. Abbott tripled, doubled and singled in 6 trips.

The Crowell batting barrage was led by Rogers and Norman. Norman netted a double and two singles in 7 trips and Rogers three singles in 5 trips. Rushing pounded out a home run and Junell, Ashford and Sloan were good for triples.

Henry Abbott of Truscott at the plate and Tom Beverly of Crowell on the bases did expert umpiring with little trouble from players and fans.

KARAKUL SHEEP SACRED

Karakul sheep have been regarded as sacred by Brahmans, Buddhists, and Mohammedans, notes a writer in the Detroit Free Press. They are the first animals mentioned in the Bible and historians consider them the first animals to have been domesticated in pre-historic times. To the Bokharan, each part of the sheep has a symbolic meaning. The skull is regarded as the seat of knowledge, the vertebrae as the staff and flexibility of life, etc., and on sacred pilgrimages the roadside is hung with these parts which the pilgrims touch.

Springs in Canadian Rockies

The five chief springs in the Canadian Rockies have a total flow of about 1,000,000 gallons a day, and issue from the ground the year round at temperatures ranging from 78 to 122 degrees Fahrenheit. The chief constituents of the waters are calcium sulphate, or gypsum; calcium bicarbonate, or sulphate, and their therapeutic value is high. Winter weather does these water.

THREE TEAMS TIED FOR FIRST IN COTTON BELT

Eldorado Nine to Visit Crowell; Truscott Goes to Mounds

Results from last Sunday's games knotted the-standing in the Cotton Belt Baseball League with three teams tied for first place and two tied for fourth.

Crowell's victory over Truscott brought both nines into a tie with eight victories and seven losses. It was the third of a three-game series with the Foard County squad taking two of the contests.

Medicine Mound's victory over Paducah brought her up into the same standing with Crowell and Truscott. Eldorado's loss to Quanah brought the two teams to even terms both of them standing at the 500 per cent mark.

Paducah bowed to the Mounds and moved deeper into the cellar, a game and a half below her nearest neighbor with only four more games to go before the official schedule comes to an end.

The Standing
Team	W	L	Pct.
Crowell	8	7	.533
Truscott	8	7	.533
Medicine Mound	8	7	.533
Quanah	8	8	.500
Eldorado	7	7	.500
Paducah	6	9	.400

Results Last Sunday

Crowell defeated Truscott at Truscott 19 to 16 in a slugging battle; Medicine Mound journeyed to Paducah to defeat the Cotton Belt nine 9 to 5; and Quanah tromped Eldorado in Oklahoma territory 8 to 5. All three losers were defeated on their own diamonds.

Games Next Sunday

Eldorado comes to Crowell for a game next Sunday; Paducah visits Quanah; and Truscott travels to Medicine Mound.

The City Council hereby requests the co-operation of the Citizens of Crowell in the following:

We have had two fires in the last few days, both caused from burning trash in the open or in barrels. The City Council requests that you store your trash in a safe place and wait for a rain before burning any trash, as burning trash now seems to be a big fire hazard.

Water from Knox City will be here as soon as the railroad can make delivery. The rate for this water will be $2.00 minimum for 1,000 gallons or less, and $2.00 per thousand for all over 1,000 gallons per month. The sewer charge will be the same.

Your help and co-operation will be appreciated by the City Council much more than your knocks. Everyone in Crowell should realize the seriousness of the conditions in Crowell at this time, and that knocking at the members of the City Council and city employees will not help matters in the least, but co-operation from everyone will be a big help.

As the water from Knox City will not be treated here in Crowell, all city water customers are hereby warned and advised to boil all drinking water.

Wildcats—

Five-Year Record

During the last five years the Crowell High School Wildcats have nabbed two district championships, two bi-district championships and one regional championship for an enviable record. The only team to beat them during the five years was Olney, who since the end of last football season has joined the ranks of Class A competition.

The 1936 eleven will be built entirely from the 1935 B team which did a little better than break even in its six contests. The B men won three games, lost two and tied one. They snatched two from the Paducah B club, split a pair with Vernon and lost one and tied one with Quannah.

Much of the team's future will be based on whether or not Raymond Gibson returns to school this fall. The backfield man lettered two years, 1933 and 1934, but was ineligible during 1935. If he returns, he will probably take over the signal calling responsibilities.

Graves to School

Coach Graves left Sunday for Fort Worth where he is attending a coaching school at Texas Christian University under the direction of Francis Schmidt of Ohio State University, formerly of T. C. U., and Bernie Moore of Louisiana State University. Other famous coaches will be on the teaching staff. Lectures will be given each morning and the afternoon will be devoted to actual coaching.

A special game showing two schools of coaching will be played Saturday night.

will amount to more than $600 in state money and between $64 and $96 in county money.

Only seven grades will be taught at the Margaret school this year.

Beaver School Transfers

The entire Beaver school has transferred to the Crowell school to add another 16 pupils to the school. This will bring more than $300 to the local school in state money and between $32 and $48 in county funds.

Dale Jones has been given the contract for transporting the pupils here. No school will be held in the Beaver district next term.

With the transfer will total more than 100 miles which entitles the school to an additional amount of funds for transport costs, L. A. Andrews, secretary of the school board said.

Claytonville Transfers

The entire Claytonville school transferred to Foard City again this year. This is the second year that this transfer has been made.

Saturday, August 1, was the last day for transferring scholars from one school district to another. Five days after the deadline for transferring are allowed for the applications for transfers to be withdrawn if the applicants desire.

Six Treasury Checks For Unemployment In Six States Issued

San Antonio.—Six United States Treasury checks totaling $498,983.48, to cover the cost of administering the unemployment compensation laws of New York, New Hampshire, Oregon, Indiana, Mississippi, and Alabama for the fiscal quarter ending September 30, have just been issued, according to Oscar M. Powell, Regional Director, Social Security Board, who has just returned to San Antonio following an official visit to Washington where he conferred with members of the Social Security Board and Directors of the various Bureaus relative to administrative matters in Texas, Louisiana, and New Mexico.

"Nearly 4,500,000 workers will be protected against the hazards of unemployment in these six states," said Powell. "The check issued to Mississippi is the first for this state for the administration of its unemployment compensation law. The five other states have received grants for administrative purposes before."

Mr. Powell stated that unemployment compensation laws of all these states have been approved by the Social Security Board. Under the Social Security Act, the Federal Government makes grants to the states to administer an unemployment compensation law which has been approved by the Social Security Board, provided it sets up administrative machinery designed to give workers their full rights under the law. The purpose of unemployment compensation enactments is to pay weekly benefits to qualified unemployed workers when due. The issuance of the checks to New York, New Hampshire, Oregon, Indiana, Mississippi, and Alabama indicates that the Social Security Board has approved the plans and estimates of administrative agencies of these six states to carry out this purpose. Texas does not as yet have a law which will enable this state to receive benefits from the Federal Government for the unemployed in accordance with the Social Security Act.

per thousand gallons. Knox City authorities agreed to furnish the water and pump it into the cars at 12c per thousand. Two dollars per thousand gallons will just about take care of the cost of the water, the freight, the pumping of the water into the lines and the waste, provided the railroad and commission authorities agree. C. T. Schlager, mayor, stated.

The water that has been provided for the city since water from the lake has been cut off was furnished by the city wells two and one-half miles northwest of Crowell. A reservoir which has been dug recently to a depth of about 18 feet is furnishing about thirty thousand gallons of water per day.

Government Project

A map showing the possibilities of a water pipeline from Pease River to Crowell has been submitted by the City Council for investigation by WPA authorities for information concerning the plausibility of such a project to be built by government labor.

An apple does not die when picked from a tree, but failure to control its respiration shortens its life. Fruit growers and handlers slow down the respiration of apples by putting them in cold storage.

Harvested fruits and vegetables—like animals—respire by taking oxygen from the air and giving off carbon dioxide, water, and waste products, and generating heat. Other living processes continuing after harvest change the constituents, flavor and color.

Too rapid respiration causes fruits and vegetables to lose their freshness. In cold storage the rate of respiration usually doubles each time the temperature rises 18 degrees F. above the temperature recommended for keeping them fresh, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Respiration usually affects the flavor of fruits by breaking down and exhausting most of the carbohydrates and acids. When this occurs in an apple, it becomes overripe, mealy, and practically worthless—succumbing to senility if not previously destroyed by fungus rots.

Too much, or too little humidity in cold storage air also affects the quality of fruits and vegetables. Cold storage air with 85 to 88 per cent moisture usually gives best results. This moisture percentage is about the same as that in the tissues of these products. If the relative humidity of the cold storage air falls lower, fruits and vegetables dry out, wilt, and shrivel. If raised above, they tend to mold and are easily damaged by fungus rots. Celery and onions, however, are exceptions to the general rule. Celery requires a higher humidity to keep it from wilting. Onions must be kept drier to prevent them forming rots.

Eyes in Swiss Cheese Are Basis of Quality

When people ask for Swiss cheese in a store or restaurant, they expect to get a full-flavored product with the characteristic holes or "eyes" running through-out the piece. Both domestic-made Swiss style cheese and imported Swiss cheese have these eyes. They are so distinctive that Swiss cheese is graded and the price is determined to a considerable degree by the appearance of the eyes.

Yet, says Dr. L. A. Rogers, of the United States Department of Agriculture, the terms "domestic" and "imported" Swiss cheese are sometimes misused. When a restaurant patron asks for "imported" Swiss cheese, he usually gets the kind with eyes, and it may be either domestic or imported. If he asks for "domestic" Swiss cheese, he will most likely be served "processed" cheese, an altogether different product—made by grinding up Swiss cheese with Cheddar cheese, melting the mixture, and running it into molds to form a convenient brick or package for marketing, and slicing for sandwiches. This "processed" cheese has no holes or eyes and differs in flavor from the domestic or imported Swiss cheese.

The methods used in making Swiss cheese in this country are the same as those used in Switzerland except that in many American factories the gas-forming bacteria which make the "eyes" are controlled by exact amounts of laboratory cultures. Much of this cheese is of excellent quality. If it suffers by comparison with imported Swiss cheese, it is because all grades of American Swiss cheese are marketed, whereas Switzerland sends only carefully selected cheese to this country.

Texas Legends and Folklore

By Olive M. Johnson, Director of Speech Arts North Texas State Teachers College

Our Duty in Preserving Our Folklore
Texas legends furnish an inexhaustible supply of material for artists, authors, poets, and dramatists. They await the hand of a Washington Irving, a Whittier or a Joel Chandler Harris to turn them into imperishable literature. The outlook is heartening, for there is a growing interest in native literature. Professor J. Frank Dobie of the University of Texas, and Dr. Rebecca Smith of Texas Christian University are encouaging the study of folklore and of the literature of the Southwest. There is yet to be unearthed a mass of material on the life, manners, customs, beliefs, and institutions of the Southwest. There are unrecorded cowboy songs, negro songs, games, old-field lore, tales of the border Mexicans, of rangers, of Jean Lafitte, the Robin Hood of the Seas, and of legendary heroes like Strap Buckner, Jesse Holmes, Paul Bunyan, Mustang Gray, and Pecos Bill. There are customs, superstitions, weather signs, yarns about birds and snakes, Indian myths and legends, the origin of place names, and lore of the high plains, the Gulf coast, and the brush country. Surely, as Bryden said of Chaucer's tales, "Here is God's plenty." It would be a very great pity if such interesting native culture should be allowed to sink into oblivion. This lore is an integral part of Texas and should be preserved for future generations. It is plainly our duty to record these fleeting traditions before time has effaced them, and this duty we conceive to be one of the greatest obligations and opportunities of the Texas Centennial.

Amendments to State Constitution To Be Voted on in General Election

S. J. R. NO. 14
A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas fixing the salaries of certain constitutional officers by amending Section 5 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Texas fixing the salary of the Governor at Twelve Thousand ($12,000.00) Dollars per annum; by amending Section 22 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Texas fixing the salary of the Secretary of State at Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars per annum; providing for its submission to the voters of the State of Texas as required by the Constitution, and making an appropriation therefor. Be It Resolved By the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Section 5 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereafter read as follows: "Sec. 5. The Governor shall, at stated times, receive as compensation for his services an annual salary of Twelve Thousand ($12,000.00) Dollars and no more, and shall have the use and occupation of the Governor's Mansion, fixtures and furniture; provided that the amendment shall not become effective until the third Tuesday in January, 1937."

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS

According to figures compiled by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, farm income in May, 1935, was the highest for that month since 1930. The extension of the 3 1/2 percent interest rates on $2,000,000 of farm loans will result in a saving of $2,000,000 during the next year in interest to farm borrowers. A new government custom regulation abrogates the $100 tax free exemption that formerly applied to alcoholic beverages brought into this country by travelers. A returning traveler may now bring in only one gallon free of tax. The federal duty on alcoholic beverages imported into this country is $5.00 a gallon. To this is added a $2.00 state tax. During a period of three days being installed in the Washington Monument at Washington, D. C., some 3,900 visitors climbed the stairs in the 555 foot spire to get a birdseye view of Washington, D. C. There are 900 steps in the spiral stairway.

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS HISTORY

1823-On August 4 Stephen F. Austin and Baron de Bastrop reached Sylvester Castleman's and the settlements on the Colorado River. In a proclamation issued by Bastrop, he stated his position as commissioner and gave authority to Austin as supreme civil, judicial, and military officer until constitutional order could be devised. 1832-A battle was fought on August 2 at Nacogdoches between the Mexicans under Col. Piedras and the Texans under Col. Bullock. The refusal of Piedras, commander of the garrison at Nacogdoches, to favor the constitution of 1824 led to the battle. He and his 310 men were taken prisoners. 1836-On August 4 Austin wrote a letter to General Rusk in which he said that he consented to be a candidate for the presidency "for only one reason, which is that I believe I can be of material service in procuring the annexation of Texas to the United States."-Texas State College for Women (CIA.)

"The Last Frontier" Pictures Southwest Hundred Years Ago

Fort Worth.—Texas and the Southwest as it was 100 years ago is pictured in a highly exciting spectacle, known as "The Last Frontier," at the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial that opened recently. This western saga set to music expresses the history of Texas and the Southwest. It is not a re-creation, nor a rip-roaring dramatization that every Westerner will love as a part of the background which he lives, it is also a show that thrills the Easterner.

The showman about whom much of the show revolves, was given an unexpected opportunity to demonstrate his resourcefulness at the opening performance when Sunday, one of the horses in the broncho-busting episode, bucked himself and Chuck Williams into the pool at the foot of the waterfall. The crowd got back in its seats after the rider crawled out of the pool and the cowboys in the arena roped the horse, dragged him from the water and helped him to his feet. Neither was hurt.

The show is notable for its sequence of western pictures alone, for the train of prairie schooners that comes winding down out of the mountains, for the breath-taking lightning on the longhorn herd as it disappears up the trail.

The sonorous voice of Capt. Irving O'Hay gives the background: "Many, many moons ago, the smile of the Great Spirit beamed upon the land of that red man. Great herds of shaggy buffalo thundered westward."

And as the spectacle unfolds, the audience experiences the beauty of its water fall, of the little young square dancers forming a wagon wheel and a star, of the indescribably appealing music that Producer Billy Rose and his staff have added to the songs of the West.

It experiences the thrills of an Indian attack on the wagon trail, of one of the schooners leaving the

When Billy Rose set out to produce a new kind of circus he did. Truly it may be said that "Jumbo" is the first up to tradition in the sawdust ring in 100 years. As Brainy Bowers, the comic character in the big show observes with scorn, "Women? Women in a coikus? Dames wid big muscles. No sex appeal. Sex appeal, dat's what dey want." And that's precisely what they get in "Jumbo" which is one of the main attractions at the Fort Worth Frontier.

WHEAT LOANS NOT AVAILABLE AFTER AUG. 31

Applications Taken at Attorney's Office By Alma Walker

Emergency seed wheat loans to the farmers of Foard County through the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Administration may not be obtained after August 31, according to C. Hogan, field supervisor, who was in Crowell Tuesday morning in connection with the government lending program.

Farmers wishing to make applications for loans may do so at the office of the county attorney. The applications are taken by Miss Alma Walker.

The maximum amount which any farmer may obtain is $200. Since June 8 about 36 farmers have obtained loans through this agency and most of them were for the maximum amount. Between six and seven thousand dollars has been loaned to the farmers of this county since the first of June, Mr. Hogan stated.

Emergency crop loans will be made only to farmers who cannot obtain credit from any other source, as provided by regulations issued by the Government of the Farm Credit Administration. The money loaned is limited to the farmer's immediate and actual cash needs for growing his 1936 crops.

No Unpaid Loan
Farmers are not eligible for emergency crop loans if they can borrow from an individual, production credit association, bank, or other concern. Farmers will also be considered ineligible if they have an application pending with Resettlement Administration, have received assistance from that organization this year or are indebted to the Resettlement Administration for an unpaid loan.

The security for an emergency crop loan will consist of a first lien on the crop financed. Landlords or others having an interest in the crop to be financed will be required to waive their claims in favor of a lien to the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration until the emergency crop loan is repaid.

Due Next Year
What loans will come due August 31, 1937. The regular rate of interest of 5 1/2 per cent will be charged.

Swimming Hazards Should Be Heeded at All Times for Safety

Austin.—In Texas, during 1935, there were 371 deaths from accidental drowning, according to records in the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. This is an increase of 54 over the number reported for the year 1934, and an increase of 85 over the number reported for 1932.

"While water sports are the greatest of all sports during the summer season, they present certain hazards which should be heeded," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. "Accidental drowning would not occur if each individual respected the fact that water is not man's natural element, and governed his activities in the water by standards of safety."

"Certain precautions should be taken by all swimmers:

1. Never swim alone—especially in deserted places where no rescue is available in case of an emergency.
2. Do not let young children go out in deep water even if they know how to swim, unless some older person proficient in life saving, is with them.
3. Do not go in bathing directly after eating. Wait two hours before taking the plunge.
4. Do not dive in unfamiliar places until you are sure of the depth of the water and the absence of rocks.
5. Do not overtax your strength—work up gradually to a long swim by strengthening the muscles first.
6. Do not swim when fatigued.
7. Do not create a hazard for other swimmers by childish pranks and smart tricks.
