It must have been a matter of grave consequence judging from the facial expression of Rep. Luther A. Johnson of Texas, right, who whistles into the ear of Rep. James A. Shanley of Connecticut. Johnson probably wears a happier look now, for the arms embargo repeal, which he backed, was adopted. Shanley advocated retention of existing embargo legislation.

NINETIETH BIRTHDAY OF OLDEST FOARD CO. PIONEER RESIDENT CELEBRATED TUESDAY, NOV. 14

The most densely populated section of Foard County Tuesday was at the farm home of J. G. (Uncle John) Thompson three miles north of Thalia when approximately 350 relatives and friends gathered there to join in the celebration of the ninetieth birthday anniversary of this venerable citizen. Mr. Thompson has made his home in Foard County and on the same farm for 65 years and has worked shoulder to shoulder with other pioneer citizens to make Foard County what it is today—a happy and well developed community. He is in good health, erect and appears to be a man many years younger. His only deficiency is in his eyesight which is impaired to the extent that he cannot read. A recent picture of "Uncle John" will appear in this paper next week.

At the noon hour barbecue and a bountiful picnic dinner were served in the yard of the home of the large crowd with thanks being offered by L. E. Garner of Hannah. A huge birthday cake with "90" in icing adorned the table. Following the dinner and preceding the afternoon program, a visiting period was enjoyed. Many of the friends present had known Mr. Thompson and his family for more than a half century and incidents that occurred during this long period of time were discussed.

The program was under the supervision of Mrs. C. D. Haney and the following numbers were given:

Song by group led by Mrs. Chas. Thompson; original poem by Mrs. Harley Capps, (eulogy to Mr. Thompson); song, David Jackson; reading, David Haney; recitation, Mrs. Chas. Thompson and Mrs. T. B. Klepper; accordion solo, Jimmy Johnson; duet, Rudell Blevins and Mrs. C. D. Haney; accordion solo, Norman Younger, accompanied by Lavoy Burke.

Quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Gray, Norman Gray and Chas. Blevins; reading, Mrs. Chas. Thompson; reading, Mrs. C. D. Haney; duet, Rudell Blevins and Flora Belle Blevins; original poem, "Take Me Back to Dear Old Texas," S. P. McLaughlin; quartet, Hiram Gray, Norman Gray, A. Y. Beverly and Chas. Blevins, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," benediction, G. A. Neill.

All of Mr. Thompson's six children were present for the celebration and are as follows: Mrs. H. W. Bannister, Thalia; H. N. Thompson, Levelland; Mrs. Grover Nichols, Black community; Mrs. T. N. Abston, Thalia; Mrs. E. H. Abston, Thalia, and John Thompson Jr., Thalia, who, with his family lives at the old home with his father.

Guests from various other places were: J. C. Swinford, Wichita Falls; Mrs. Grace Watts, Olustee, Okla.; Mrs. Della Colville, Elmer, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Covington, Frisco, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Thompson, Mrs. Maud Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ealy, Plano, Texas; Mrs. Mary Palmer, Fort Worth; N. A. Rouch and Chas. Crowell Man Owns Hand-Made Socks; Made By Mother

A. D. Hestand of Crowell has in his possession a pair of hand-made cotton socks which were knitted by his mother 34 years ago. Mr. Hestand stated that the heavy socks had never been worn, and probably never would be, as a pair of hand-made socks are fast becoming rare.

Mr. Hestand said that his mother corded the cotton, spun the thread and knitted the socks by hand and after making them, never threaded up her spinning wheel again. Since the socks were the last things that his mother ever made Mr. Hestand feels that they are his most prized possession.

The socks look much like the heavy socks made by present-day machinery and the pattern is near perfect.

WILDCATS TO PLAY GREYHOUNDS IN DISTRICT 9-A GAME ON GRID AT THROCKMORTON FRI. NIGHT

Crowell High School's Wildcats will invade Throckmorton Friday for a game with the unpredictable Greyhounds at 8 p. m. with the grim determination to further establish themselves in the minds of the fans and sports authorities as nearly as strong, if not as strong as the leading teams of the district in spite of defeats by Burk Burnett and Chillicothe.

This point was brought out in full strength last Friday when the Wildcats smothered the Seymour Panthers by a 24-7 score, which is the largest tally rolled up over the Panthers this season. In this game, the Wildcats had the most powerful ground attack Seymour fans have seen this year.

In the approaching game, the interest will again shift to the backfield for a duel between John Lee Orr and Que Meason. Wildcat backs whose brilliant play has not been equalled this year, and Worthum Loyd, sleek Greyhound back who received all-district honors last season and who has been burning up the gridirons this season. Orr has run at least 50 yards for a touchdown in each conference game.

In this match, Orr and Meason will pit their speed and broken

FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY FOR EARLY SETTLER

Mrs. L. O. Sanders Dies In Daughter's Home At Canadian

Funeral services for Mrs. L. O. Sanders, 77, resident of Foard County for 28 years who died in the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. D. Moseley, in Canadian Thursday night, Nov. 9, at 11:30 o'clock, were held in the Crowell Methodist Church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Sam Thomas, pastor of the Canyon Methodist Church, officiated and was assisted by Rev. E. L. Yeats, pastor of the Crowell Methodist Church, and Rev. W. B. Fitzgerald, pastor of the Crowell Baptist Church. Special music for the funeral was a duet rendered by Mrs. C. W. Thompson and Mrs. T. B. Klepper.

She was buried in the Crowell cemetery at the side of her husband who died in Crowell in 1912. The Womack Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Pall bearers were Floyd Thomas, Edgar Womack, H. E. Ferguson, D. R. Maree, C. C. McLaughlin and Frank Meason.

Miss Virginia Lee Harris was born in Lee County, Virginia, on August 20, 1862, and moved to Texas at the age of nine years with her parents and settled at Old Boston, Bowie County. Here she was married to L. O. Sanders in 1883 and eleven children, five of whom survive, were born to this couple.

Mrs. Sanders moved with her family to Limestone County for a short time before coming to Foard County in 1908. She settled in Crowell and made this city (Continued on Page Four)

144 Red Cross Members Secured First Day's Drive

The campaign to secure memberships in the American Red Cross for this county was started Wednesday morning with a breakfast in a downtown cafe, with 144 members being secured by workers during the first day of the drive, according to a report by Jack Seale, Red Cross Roll Call chairman, this morning.

All workers had not reported at this time, but it is expected that the quota of 250 will be obtained within a short time.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

Thursday, November 30, was officially proclaimed as Thanksgiving Day for Crowell last Tuesday by Mayor C. T. Schlagal, and will be celebrated on that date.

This is probably the first time that a Thanksgiving Day has ever been proclaimed for this city and came as the result of President Roosevelt's recent action in setting Thanksgiving one week ahead, on November 23.

President Roosevelt's move did not meet the approval of all the state governors and for the first time in the history of the United States, the states will be divided in their Thanksgiving celebrations.

Twenty-two states will celebrate on November 23, the new date; twenty-four will celebrate traditionally on November 30; Texas will have two Thanksgivings and Mississippi is undecided.

Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel did not endorse either date, but left the decision to the cities, and since the governor did not settle the matter, numerous mayors over the state are proclaiming one of the two days as the official holiday for their respective cities.

The question of which day to celebrate recently arose among the people of Crowell and was fast becoming one of the most discussed questions until the date was officially set by Mayor Schlagal as November 30 in the following proclamation:

"WHEREAS, heretofore, the City of Crowell has observed November 30th as Thanksgiving Day, and

"WHEREAS, some states and cities have by proclamation set aside November 23, as their Thanksgiving Day, and

"WHEREAS, such has resulted in confusion as to which date we are to observe as Thanksgiving Day,

"NOW, THEREFORE, in order to end such confusion, I, C. T. Schlagal, Mayor of the City of Crowell, do hereby officially proclaim, designate and set aside Thursday, Nov. 30, as our official Thanksgiving Day."

Signed, C. T. SCHLAGAL, Mayor.

TWO MEN CONFESS TO ROBBING THREE STORES IN FOARD COUNTY; HELD IN COLORADO CITY JAIL

WILDCATS WIN OVER PANTHERS BY 24-7 TALLY

Seymour No Match for Crowell's Strong Eleven

Coach Grady Graves' Crowell Wildcats roared back into the prominence that should have been theirs all season, and again proved that Burk Burnett and Chillicothe were lucky to catch them badly crippled, when they humbled the powerful Panthers at Seymour by a 24-7 score, a much larger margin than either the Bulldogs or Eagles, district 9-A leaders, were able to register over the fighting Seymour lads.

Crowell drew the first blood on the second scrimmage of the game when John Lee Orr added another long touchdown run to his district record of long runs. He took the snap from center and skirted right end behind perfectly-timed blocking to race 80 yards for a score.

Seymour retaliated to show promise of giving the Wildcats a real battle when Reeves, Panther center, intercepted Orr's pass deep in his own territory and returned it to the Crowell 35, from which point the ball was worked to within one yard of the goal line and Plummer crossed the goal line on the second try. Plummer kicked the extra point and the Panthers led the Wildcats nearly all the way in the "thrill-a-minute" first half.

The Seymour lead was erased in the middle of the second period when Dick Smith, Crowell right end, dropped back and shot a beautiful pass to Wayne Canup, nimble Wildcat all-district wingman, to pick up 45 yards and a touchdown.

From that period of the game on, the Wildcats completely outclassed their opponents and struck twice more to dig into pay dirt.

The third Crowell touchdown came when Que Meason, the district's outstanding halfback, started through right tackle from the Seymour 12, reversed his field and danced his way to the goal line, leaving in his wake a string of dumbfounded Panther tacklers.

With a good lead marked up, the Wildcats settled down to a defensive game in the second half, but reared up once more in the third quarter to push over another touchdown. After the ball had been placed in scoring posi-

Sheriff A. W. Lilly's search of several weeks for robbers who entered the Crowell Service Station and Owens Auto Supply in Crowell and the Farmers' Service Station in Thalia was brought to a close this week when two men who had been arrested in Colorado City, confessed to the three burglaries in Foard County after local officials had traced the offenses to them.

The men gave their names as Walter LeMay of Dallas and Otis Mize of Colorado, Texas.

The signed confessions told that the men entered the business establishments in Crowell through rear windows and took five truck tires from one place and about 500 spark plugs from the second. The men told of entering the Farmers' Service Station in Thalia about a week later and taking three or four cases of motor oil.

They stated that they sold the stolen articles to a man in Jacksonville, Texas. Sheriff Lilly stated that a part of the stolen merchandise had been recovered in that city.

LeMay and Mize are being held on burglary charges in the Colorado jail and complaints concerning the robberies in this county will be submitted to the Foard County grand jury for investigation in February, 1940.

CONGRESSMAN HOME

Official business has required Congressman Ed Gossett of this district to remain in Washington several days following the adjournment of this special session of Congress. Mr. and Mrs. Gossett and the Congressman's secretary, S. H. Sinclair of Denton, arrived in Wichita Falls on the fifteenth.

Offices 206-207 in the Federal Building, Wichita Falls, will be occupied by the Congressman until the regular session of Congress convenes on January 3. Mr. Gossett will be in his office in the Federal Building from eight in the morning until ten at night every Monday, during which time he will be glad to see all persons who have any matter to discuss with him.

The latter part of every week will be used in keeping appointments and visiting about in different parts of the fifteen counties of the 13th Congressional District.

tion by a 17-yard run by Meason, he again hit the line for an additional yard to place the oval on the Panthers' 9, and Orr drove through right tackle, slipped through the secondary and crossed the goal line standing up.

After the Seymour score, the Wildcat defense piled up the Panther offense consistently and completely and the hosts were

Test Will Be Made On E. M. Gamble Farm Near Crowell

Location for Foard County's first deep wildcat test in several months was staked on the E. M. Gamble farm six miles northeast of Crowell this week. Drilling material is expected to be moved onto the location during the next few days.

The test will be made by the Foster Petroleum Corporation of Bartlesville, Okla., and it is reported in Crowell that George Kimbell of Wichita Falls will be the drilling contractor. Mr. Kimbell is known in this county as he has drilled several tests near Crowell.

The Wildcat test will be known as No. 1 E. M. Gamble and is located 330 feet from the north and west lines of southeast quarter of section 314, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. Survey, abstract 1399.

A rotary rig will be used on the test and an article in a daily newspaper stated that the test would be drilled to a depth of 4,500 feet, but it is reported here that the hole will be drilled to the Ellenberger formation, which is expected to be beyond 4,500 feet in that section of the county.

Sandifers Honor Tenant Farmers With Barbecue

A mutton barbecue was given last Friday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sandifer in a large mesquite grove on the A. D. Campbell farm honoring their thirteen tenant farmers who cultivate 2,500 acres of land in Foard and Crosby Counties, 2,340 acres being in Foard County. The Sandifers own 2,752 acres of land with the above amount in cultivation. The barbecue was prepared by Archie Campbell, who was assisted by Dock Borchardt, and it was served on a long table to the families and other friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sandifer from Crowell and Vernon. The barbecue was supplemented with barbecued chicken, hot coffee and cookies.

M. S. Henry acted as master of ceremonies and presented Mr. Sandifer who expressed his appreciation of these farmers who have co-operated with him in the successful operation of his farms, many of them for a long period of years. AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE COMPANION TO THOUSANDS

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine. "It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in The American Boy Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommended The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Foreign rates 50c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. 21-2t

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS

Philanthropy, like charity, must begin at home; from this center our sympathies should extend in an ever widening circle.—Charles Lamb.

Where there is the most to God, there will be the truest and most enlarged philanthropy.—Robert Southey.

Common Cold Often Leads to Pneumonia

Austin. — Potential victims of pneumonia, and families concerned, hold one of the keys to reduction of the death rate from this disease, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. It is estimated that each year 25,000 Texans suffer an attack of pneumonia.

As a means of prevention, people should guard against the common cold, neglect of which often leads to pneumonia as a complication.

Persons who develop pneumonia will have the best chance for recovery by knowing the symptoms of the disease and placing themselves under treatment promptly after onset of illness. Typical beginning symptoms include a severe chill and fever, stabbing pain in the chest, cough with rust-colored or blood tinged sputum, nausea and vomiting, loss of appetite.

Sudden onset of symptoms as described should cause the patient and members of the family to suspect the possibility of pneumonia. Rusty sputum, usually a sign of inflammation in the lungs, naturally gives rise to the question as to the cause of sickness. Examination of the sputum in a hospital or public health laboratory which serves as a pneumonia typing center, frequently shows the presence and type of the pneumonia germ, and makes clear the exact nature of illness.

Science has found effective means of combatting pneumonia, through the use of proper serum and medicine. To be most effective, these treatments must be given early and after the exact cause of the inflammation has been determined.

During 1938, pneumonia deaths numbering 4,129 were recorded in Texas and it is necessary for all people to arm themselves with knowledge and to co-operate in measures to decrease the pneumonia death toll.

Occasionally we hear some one with a pessimistic turn of mind contend that the world is not getting any better and that in the past two or three thousand years it has made little progress. We do not agree with this school of thought. We think the world is a great deal better than it used to be and people are better than they used to be. It hasn't been so long ago that the popular form of amusement was to send two gladiators into the arena to fight until one or both of them were killed. This was varied by sending in starved wild animals to tear humans to pieces before the eyes of the cheering crowds of men and women. Today bigger crowds than ever witnessed a gladiatorial combat gather to see two top notch baseball teams contest for victory and in a hundred places in the country great crowds turn out to football games. The thrills are every bit as great as they were in the old gladiator days, and an entirely different spirit pervades the event.

If we can read between the lines Herr Hitler feels himself slipping. He did not realize that in giving Stalin a slice of land, Stalin might like the sump and want more. That is just what has happened. Instead of merely accepting the crumbs from Hitler's table, Stalin is figuring on helping himself to a slice of Central Europe, and the thought of it is giving Hitler bad dreams.

If your preacher preaches on an average of but one good sermon a month it will pay you to attend church the other three Sundays and sit through a dull sermon. One good sermon that strikes down a man's alley may change his whole outlook on life, and no inconvenience is too great if it will give one a new outlook upon living.

The French Maginot line of defense is not simply a line of forts built on top of the ground. It is an immense concrete series of tunnels one above the other extending eight stories below the surface of the ground. Each of the eight stories is devoted to a certain purpose. The line extends from Switzerland to Belgium. One story or floor is equipped with tracks through which full sized railway trains run the entire length of the line. One floor is devoted to living quarters for the soldiers, one to a complete hospital, two to ammunition, one to supplies. Soldiers can enter the line and live there for months without ever leaving the place. The system of tunnels is air conditioned and protected against any type of gas. Its construction has taken years of time, millions of money, and surpassing engineering skill. It is believed to be the most impregnable stronghold in the world. Guns and other equipment are all operated by electricity generated in the power plants far below the surface of the ground.

It doesn't take much of a town booster to boost when the home team has a winning streak. The kind of a booster whose boosting is worth while is the fellow who boosts when the home team is in the cellar. Its that way with a lot of things. The fellow who slaps us on the back when we are riding on top of the wave isn't nearly so helpful or welcome as the fellow who comes around when we are discouraged and gives us the glad hand and tells us he believes in us.

In placer mining the miner takes a large quantity of gravel and washes it carefully to find one fine grain of gold. He is happy if he finds a grain in each washing. Life is like that. We hear much and read much and see much to get one fine grain of gold that will contribute to the richness of the beauty of living.

The wage-hour law is forcing many of the smaller dairies throughout the country to issue but five papers a week instead of six as was formerly the case. It is just another example of the government trying to control business in which it has no investment or responsibility.

It is always a cross to a mother that she works without result for years to get her son to wash behind his ears, and some young girl comes along and gets the job done without even mentioning it.

Igloo Dwellers Go Modern—in New York

The Mayokoks, only full-blooded Eskimo family in the United States, were saved from a dangerous 7,000-mile journey to blizzard-swept Cape Prince of Wales, Alaska, when the husband found a new job. 10,764 Cases of Smallpox Reported in Last Nine Years

Austri.—Since 1930, smallpox has cost the people of Texas many thousands of dollars, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

During the nine-year period 1930-1938 smallpox cases totalling 10,764 were reported; undoubtedly additional cases occurred which did not receive medical care and were not reported. Failure to vaccinate is the chief reason for the occurrence of the disease.

For "budgetary as well as humanitarian" reasons, the State Health Department urges parents to have their children vaccinated now, early in the school term.

Considering the time lost, the long period of sickness and isolation, the inconvenience, the danger of complications or permanent scars resulting from the disease as compared with the little inconvenience of vaccination, one can readily see that prevention of smallpox is a good investment in good health.

Smallpox is highly communicable and spreads rapidly from the infected person to others who are susceptible. On the other hand, persons with evidence of successful vaccination or revaccination, performed in recent years, need have no fear of either the mild or virulent form of the disease.

Because of the infectiousness and rapidity of spread, smallpox can reach the epidemic stage and endanger whole schools and parts of communities. Prevention of such epidemics is time-saving, money-saving and sometimes life-saving for the individual; the family and the community simultaneously benefit.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

The average American home of today fails in its responsibility to the young people in it in that it fails to teach four simple virtues without which no young person is fitted to meet and cope with the complex social order found in the world today. No parent, of course, fails deliberately to impart these virtues to his children. Many are not aware that they do fail. Many make the best effort they know how and too many make no effort at all.

I would not seem to create the impression that to instill these four virtues in a child is easy. It is one of the most difficult things that any man or woman is ever called upon to do—and also the most important.

The first of these virtues in a child is easy. It is never easy. It is one of the most difficult things that any man or woman is ever called upon to do—and also the most important.

The first of these virtues is Discipline, the yielding to and obedience to authority. It is necessary in the life of every individual. The recognition of and the intelligent application of authority in the home carries over into later life and expresses itself in obedience to civil and to moral law. It supplies the quality most needed in life when the real problems come up and must be met. It determines whether the individual, when difficulties arise, shall meet and overcome them or be a quitter and turn and run.

The second virtue, not generally enough taught, is self denial. Many young people grow up without ever coming to learn what self denial really is. Their every whim is gratified. It is little wonder that they grow up without any knowledge of self denial and find it so difficult to meet when life finally presents it, as it invariably does.

The third virtue that should be taught is thrift—the value of money and of time. This is another foundation stone that every successful and efficient and effective life possesses. Without it success and effective living is not possible.

The fourth virtue that the parents of every home should teach the boys and girls as they grow up in the family circle, is courtesy. There is no grace that becomes a young man or a young woman more than simple courtesy, and there is no finer place to learn it than in the home and in the family circle. Courtesy not only creates an atmosphere in the home and a consideration for the other members of the home but it is the crowning accomplishment when the young man or the young woman goes out into the world and expresses naturally this social grace.

It is unfortunate when one considers the value of these virtues and their necessity in life that our scheme of education has not included a course in home making, the training of children and child psychology.

In my opinion we are neglecting a matter that is more important than Latin and Geometry and Algebra and Chemistry to ninety per cent of the parents and the children in the homes. We are failing to teach the thing that would be interpreted into terms of human living and because of it every year thousands of young parents face the problem of setting up a home without even the elementary knowledge of what is going to be required or of how to teach it to the children who will come to these homes.

The practice contains neither wisdom nor intelligence and cannot be justified nor defended in a world possessed of the complex social order that is ours today. We are teaching the things of little importance, failing to teach the vital things of life and living.

an average of 20 bushels per acre.

Mr. Sandifer introduced his great nephew, C. D. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Campbell, who entertained the visitors with two clever readings.

F. E. Diggs is the dean of this group of tenant farmers. He has lived on a Sandifer farm four miles northeast of Crowell for the past twenty years. He cultivates 295 acres. O. D. Rader and C. W. Carroll are next in years of tenancy. Mr. Rader has farmed 320 acres of land in the south part of the county for the past sixteen years. VIVIAN H. D. CLUB

"Hens should be culled and those not producing should be sold or eaten at home," Miss Joellene Vannoy, home demonstration agent, told the Vivian Home Demonstration Club which met with Mrs. Roy Young Thursday afternoon, Nov. 9.

"In cooking a chicken that is tough," continued Miss Vannoy, "add one tablespoon of vinegar to make it tender. If the chicken is put on to cook in cold water, the broth will have a better flavor."

The club voted to have a bazaar at Crowell following Thanksgiving to help replenish the club treasury.

Miss Vannoy gave a demonstration on killing and dressing a chicken. She also cooked a chicken and served it to the members and visitors who were Mrs. Mary Young, Misses Dorothy Nell Beggs and Mildred Fish.

The club will meet with Mrs. H. H. Beggs all day Nov. 23.

Fraternities and Sororities at Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, for years have followed the practice of requiring freshmen to go to the football stadium hours before a game to "warm up" a seat for some upper class man. The practice was recently broken up by Ted Payseur, ticket manager of Northwestern University.

RENEWALS

The News received three renewals from out of the county the first of the week. One of them was from J. R. Coffman of Star Route, Hot Springs, N. M., which makes the forty-first time Mr. Coffman has renewed for the paper. He was three days early this year since for the past two years we have been receiving his renewal on Nov. 16. This year it was received on Nov. 13.

Another renewal is that of R. G. (Guy) Hunter of Wheeler, Texas. Mr. Hunter says, "Although I have been away for years, I find a great deal to interest me in your paper." Glad you do, Guy.

G. D. Owens, who moved to Lubbock many years ago, but never sold his Foard County farm, sends his check from Southland where he is living with a son. Mr. Owens visits here several times during the year.

After the demonstration, games were played. Three new members were present: Virginia Hammonds, Doris Ferguson and Jimmie Hammonds.

MARGARET H. D. CLUB

The Margaret Home Demonstration Club met Friday, Nov. 10, in the home of Mrs. W. A. Dunn with nine members and one visitor, Mrs. Sam Bell, present. Christian Science Services "Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 19.

The Golden Text is: "What know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?" (1 Corinthians 6:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him" (1 John 4:9). The Lesson-Sermon also in-never able to jockey the ball in to scoring position again.

Johnson Shines As was expected, the game featured the play of Oran Johnson, who definitely proved his title to the district's most outstanding tackle, over Starkey, Seymour's three-year all-district guard.

Starkey was easily the Panthers' most outstanding lineman, but his play fell short of that of Johnson's and there was very little difference between Starkey and Crowell's guards, Murphy Solis and Frank Dunn.

Next in ranking for play in the tackle positions was Charlie Clark, Wildcat left tackle, whose performance was dimmed only by that of his team mate.

The Wildcats also proved last Friday night that they had a pair of the district's best wingmen, Canup and Dick Smith.

First Quarter Seymour opened the game with a kickoff. Gibson took the kick on the Crowell 10 and returned about 15 yards only to fumble and Crowell recovered on the 21. Orr ran at the center of the line and fumbled but the ball was kicked by a Panther lineman and Crowell took the ball on its own 20.

On the second play of the game, Wildcat blockers took Orr into the open around right end and Orr outran several Panthers for 80 yards and Crowell's first

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hastwell)

The Enduring Beatitudes: The Sermon on the Mount is easily one of the greatest addresses of all times. To properly appreciate the Sermon on the Mount one must consider it under the conditions and the age in which it was delivered. For centuries the world had been steeped in Jewish formalism. For generations the laity and the church had recognized the dictum of an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. What one thought in his heart counted but little. It was only the overt act that brought condemnation and punishment. This philosophy had become the accepted way of living and under it greed and malice and hatred and covetousness and deceit and intrigue were the common way of life. It was into this atmosphere that Christ projected the Sermon on the Mount. Every sentence of it was a contradiction to the accepted way of living of that day. The world has not yet comprehended all that the Sermon on the Mount means. It is still a perfect code for man to live by. Two thousand years, twenty centuries of time, have not erased one sentence nor caused one precept to become obsolete. It still stands as one of the greatest addresses of all time.

cludes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is neither growth, maturity, nor decay in Soul. These changes are the mutations of mortal sense, the varying clouds of mortal belief, which hide the truth of being" (page 310).

touchdown. Canup attempted to pass for the extra point and fumbled.

Following the kick off, the Panthers were held for downs and forced to punt from their own 29. Orr returned the punt from the Crowell 20 to the 43. In a short drive, Orr and Meason took the ball to the Seymour 41 and Meason punted to the Seymour 7.

On the third play of the series, Nelson fumbled and Johnson recovered for Crowell on the Seymour 12. Meason picked up 2, and on the next play, Reeves, Seymour center, intercepted Orr's pass and galloped to the Crowell 38 before being dropped by Dunn.

On three runs at the center of the line, Nelson gained 15 yards and Plummer crashed through right tackle to go to the 1-yard stripe. Nelson failed to gain and on the second down, Plummer plunged over the goal line. Plummer kicked the extra point to put the Panthers out in front.

Orr returned the kickoff from the Crowell 10 to the 34 and Meason punted from his 40. Smith killed the ball on the Seymour 32. Nelson picked up two yards as the quarter closed.

Second Period On the fourth down, Seymour punted 16 yards and Orr returned to the Crowell 45. After being able to gain only 4 yards, Meason's punt from the Panthers' 47 was blocked and rolled out of bounds on the Seymour 45.

Three plays netted Seymour 8 yards and Plummer punted to Fitzgerald on the Crowell 21. On the first play, Meason set the Panthers back deep in their own territory. His punt went over the safety man and rolled out on the Seymour 10-yard stripe after traveling 69 yards.

A line play yielded 3 yards for Seymour and Crowell drew a 5-yard penalty. Connor fumbled and Crowell recovered on the opponent's 19. Orr failed to gain and Meason picked up 6 yards on two tries. On the last down, Orr dropped 3 yards and Seymour took the ball on its own 16.

Running at the line three times, Connor gained 8 yards. Orr took the punt on the mid-stripe and returned to the Seymour 45. On the first play of the series, Smith dropped back and shot a pass to Canup who raced about 25 yards to cross the goal line. Canup's kick was blocked. Crowell 12, Seymour 7.

Smith kicked to the Seymour 10 and the ball was returned to the 26. After gaining 2 yards, Seymour punted out of bounds on its own 41.

Orr made 5. Meason fumbled and lost 7. Following an incomplete pass, Meason punted off the playing field on the Panthers' 4. On the first play, Seymour punted to its own 34.

Meason cut through left tackle for 11. Olds tried the opposite tackle for 8 and then added 2 more at left end. Running from the Seymour 12, Meason slipped through right tackle, reversed his field, skipped away from a half dozen Panthers and crossed over onto pay dirt. Again Canup's kick was blocked. Crowell 18, Seymour 7.

The half ended shortly afterward with Seymour in possession of the ball on the Crowell 30.

Second Half Williams kicked to the Seymour

25 and Nichols returned to the 39. After gaining 7 yards, Seymour punted and Orr returned the ball 14 yards to his 34. Williams passed incomplete. Orr circled right end for 16. Meason failed to gain and Orr lost 6. Orr gained 6. For the second time, Meason's toe placed the Panthers in a hole when he punted from the Seymour 45 and the ball rolled to the 2-yard line and came to a stop. The ball was returned to the 9.

After failing to gain, Seymour punted and Fitzgerald returned to the Seymour 27. Orr passed incomplete and Meason circled left end for 12. Meason gained 1, and Orr, starting from the 9-yard line, drove through right tackle to cross the goal line standing up to end the night's scoring. Canup's pass for the extra point was incomplete. Crowell 24, Seymour 7.

After this period of the game, the Wildcats settled down to holding the Panthers and depending upon the toe of Meason to keep the Seymour boys in trouble. Seymour was unable to get its offensive started, due to brilliant work on the part of the Crowell linemen, and never threatened again. The Panthers failed to penetrate the Crowell 20-yard line during the remainder of the game.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPEIRS JR.

—Pensions for the aged are to be the major issue in Texas this week. Austin seethed with discussion of the prospects of a special procedure being tried by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, having to get agreement from majority of legislators on his tax proposal, checked the book back to the solons, by stating he will not call a session unless the legislators agree to pass a specific tax bill. Leaders of the anti-sales group, joined by several members who supported the constitutional sales program of the special interim Gov. O'Daniel, were sequestered by mail to an omnibus bill, similar to the one passed in the House, and killed in Senate committee, at the regular session.

Observers here discounted probability of getting solons to their hands in advance by a vote for any bill, and special interest lobbyists conducted a high-pressure drive throughout the State to mobilize sentiment behind a movement to see any special session.

November Pay-Off

Meanwhile, Texas pensioners to the total of 121,646, were assured number checks averaging $8.24 with the approval by the Social Security board of grant for the month from the State. The new setup of the State Welfare Board has not been approved by the Security Board, but the November grant was okayed regardless.

Indication of growing opposition to the economic lunacy wild-eyed pension schemes.

NOTICE TO CITY TAX PAYERS

The City of Crowell is allowing 3 per cent discount on the 1939 City Taxes if paid during the month of November and 1 per cent discount if paid during the month of December.

The City Council requests that the City Tax Payers make an effort to pay their City Taxes.

elsewhere in the United States was seen in the defeat by substantial majorities, of the $50-a-month-for-all-over-60 plan in Ohio, and the "ham-and-egg" or $30-every-Thursday brainstorm in California. Voters apparently are becoming gradually aware that unless reason is applied to the social security program, it will bankrupt those who have to pay the taxes to support Utopia.

State Eyes Dallas

Throughout Texas, spectators are watching with interest a political situation in Dallas, where James Aston, 28-year-old city manager, former A. & M. football star, is handling an issue that is full of political dynamite. A group of Dallas firemen brought suit against the city to collect alleged back pay for "overtime" which accrued after the state law fixing maximum hours and minimum wages for city firemen was enacted. Aston, backed by the City Council, retaliated by slashing the city's contribution to the firemen's pension fund to meet the claim of $165,000, if the firemen win. He also delivered an ultimatum to the firemen that all must resign from the Dallas Firemen's Union, an A. F. of L. affiliate, by November 23, or lose their city jobs. Aston is the youngest manager of a large city in the United States, and his handling of the ticklish issue in Dallas is regarded as having a large bearing upon his future.

That the State doesn't have all the economic problems was indicated, also, when it was announced Dallas County's general fund overdraft had mounted to the unprecedented level of $849,516, and county politicians asked Attorney General Gerald Mann to okay a scheme to refund the debt by issuing warrants, without a vote of the taxpayers. Ex-Attorney General Bill McCraw previously had held such a refunding scheme was illegal.

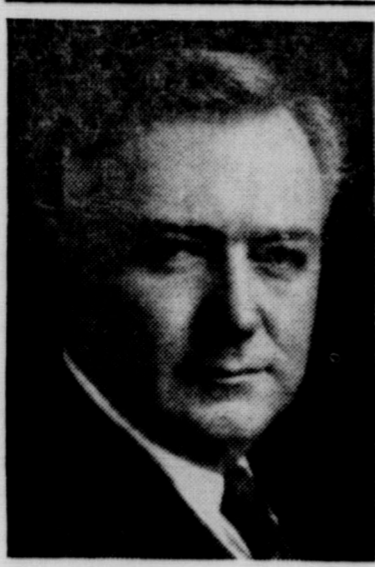

Hot Check Law In Doubt

Attorney General Gerald Mann ruled the new hot-check law, enacted at the regular session is legal until some court throws it out. Mann, declaring he never ruled against a criminal statute, if there was any basis of doubt at all, indicated he believed the law violates the State and Federal constitutions. Sponsors of the law are rather unhappy about it, because under its terms, the holder of a hot check cannot file a charge against the maker, collect the debt, and then drop the charges, as was heretofore the custom. Most hot-check holders don't want to send the check passer to prison—they just want to collect the debt. Much ado about nothing is the best description of the work of the House committee headed by Lon Alsop, to revise the rules of the lower legislative body. New rules will have to be adopted by any succeeding legislature. There is a normal turnover of 50 per cent in House membership, and next time, it probably will be higher. New members will probably not approve the proposals of the committee service and other powers of "freshmen" members, and the "freshmen" will have the votes at the next regular session. The committee session here was attended by Alsop, Bryan Bradbury, Ahlberg, E. H. Thornton, Galveston; DeWitt Hale, Farmersville, and Jim Taylor, Kerens.

May Be Right

The man who can't laugh is a menace to any community.

Elmer F. Andrews has been dismissed as director of the Wage-Hour law and Lieutenant Colonel Fleming, army engineer, put in his place. Reasons given are that Andrews did not know to Secretary of Labor Perkins and did not administer the law as ruthlessly and as harshly as she desired. There is considerable resentment against the vindictive attitude of the administration in regard to the ruthless application of the law. The administration, if it has its way, will make of the law an old-fashioned N. R. A.

Our Weekly Sermon

The Christian and Trench Warfare

Text.—But this I say, Be constantly conducting yourselves within the sphere of the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the cravings of the flesh. For the flesh has constantly a strong desire to suppress the Spirit, and the Spirit has as constantly a strong desire to suppress the flesh, and these are entrenched in a permanent attitude of opposition to one another, so that ye may not do the things that ye would desire to do.—Galatians 5:16, 17.

The above translation has been made after a careful study of the Greek text from which the English Bible is translated. It uses a few more words than the Authorized Version which we use, but is true to the Greek. These verses present the way of victory for the Christian, victory over sin.

The believer is to walk in the sphere of the Holy Spirit. When a sinner puts his faith in the Lord Jesus as his own personal Saviour, the Holy Spirit comes to take up His abode in that person's heart. The work of the Holy Spirit is twofold. First, His ministry is to put sin out of the life and to keep it out. Second, He produces in the child of God His own fruit (Gal. 5:22, 23). But in order for Him to do that work for and in and through the believer, the believer must walk in the sphere of the Spirit. He must see to it that every thought, word, and deed must be directed and controlled by the Spirit. He must not allow any thought, word, or deed to be outside of that which the Spirit desires. He must yield himself to the control of the Spirit, so that the Spirit may do His work in his life, so that Jesus may be glorified. If he does that, God promises that the Christian will not fulfill the cravings of the evil nature. How all this works is told us in verse 17.

When God saves a sinner, He breaks the power of the sinful nature. Before we are saved, that nature forces us to keep on sinning. But after we are saved, its power is broken, and we do not have to obey it. God does not take it away, however; He allows it to stay with us. But its power is broken. We do not have to obey it. This evil nature, or flesh, as it is called, wants the Holy Spirit from giving us victory over sin and producing in us a Christian life. It wants to put the Spirit down. These two, the evil nature, and God, the Holy Spirit, have dug themselves into trenches in the believer's heart, the evil nature when we were born the first time, the Holy Spirit when we were born again, the second time. These are opposed to each other in a trench warfare. Of course, the evil nature is not powerful enough to put down the Holy Spirit, for the Holy Spirit is God, and He therefore is all-powerful. Because He is all-powerful, He can always put down the Spirit down, and prevent it from beginning evil into the life of a Christian.

But why then, you may ask, does evil come into the life of a Christian at times? The answer is, because the Christian is depending upon himself and his own strength to keep sin out of his life, instead of trusting the Holy Spirit to do that for him. When the Christian tries to defeat sin himself, he gets in the way of the Spirit. The Christian's part is to stop trying to defeat sin and turn the battle over to the Holy Spirit. He must definitely will not to sin, and he must definitely will to do right, and then he must definitely trust Him to put down the evil nature and give him the power to do right. That is the way to victory over sin. It is not by might nor by one's own power, but by the Holy Spirit, that we get this victory. The trench warfare is between the evil nature and the Holy Spirit. Our part is to keep out of the way and trust the Spirit to fight for us. He never fails the child of God who depends upon Him.

Texas Youth Builds a Place to Worship

(1) This "Chapel in the Woods" on the campus of Texas State College for Women was constructed of native gray limestone by NYA boys ranging in age from 18 to 25. Primarily a place for individual worship and meditation, the chapel will also be used for many ex-student weddings.

chapel art projects, have contributed to the design, decorations, fixtures, and furnishings. General theme of the art work is woman ministering to the needs of the world.
