Vernon Invades Crowell Friday Night to Meet Wildcats in Game To Decide Leader of "Big Six"

The Northwest Texas Basketball Conference spotlight will be focused on the Crowell gymnasium court Friday night when the two undefeated leaders, the Crowell Wildcats and the Vernon Lions, tangle at 7:30 o'clock to decide the holder of the top rung of the conference ladder.

With little more than the meeting of the two leaders to make this game a "natural," interest in the match will be intensified by the rivalry that has sprung up between the Wildcats and Lions during the past few years.

Not only must one of the clubs fall from the top rung of the ladder but also one perfect conference record will be shattered and the teams will take their places on the floor tomorrow night to do battle with those thoughts uppermost in mind.

It would be difficult to name either team as the underdog in the approaching scrap as the records of the two clubs are nearly parallel, however that of the Wildcats is a little the most impressive, but that will not place the Crowell team as the favorite if one is to take into consideration the games played between the two teams during the past two years.

Vernon has defeated Wichita Falls, Quannah and Childress in conference play, while the Wildcats have victories over Quannah, Electric and Quannah. Coach Grady Graves' cohorts have not yet played the Coyotes but their wins over Quannah and Childress have been far more impressive than those of the Lions.

The Wildcats will enter the fray Friday with an excellent record. They have played twenty games this season and have tallied 772 points to their opponents' 412. Crowell has suffered only two defeats, one to Altus, Okla., by 2 points and one to Turkey by 3 points, however, these defeats have been avenged. Altus invaded the Crowell court recently and the Wildcats took great delight in rolling up a 30-18 victory over the Oklahomans. The local boys had their chance to avenge their second defeat at the Matador tourney last week and defeated Turkey by 3 points to win the championship. The third meeting of the Wildcats and Turks came last Monday night when Crowell was host to Turkey. In this game the Wildcats piled up a 12-point victory over the team that had placed a black mark on their record.

Turkey Bows to Fast Wildcats By 38-26 Score

Smooth Offense and Strong Defense Too Much for Opponents

The Crowell High School Wildcats rang up their 18th victory here Monday night by defeating the Terrible Turks from Turkey by a 38-26 score in a practice game. Turkey is the first team to score more than 18 points against the Wildcats on their home court this season and that mark was passed in the fourth quarter.

As has been evident in every game the Wildcats have played this season, the reason for the victory can be traced directly to the powerful Crowell defense backing a smooth working offense. The Turks are renowned for their high scoring sharpshooters but in the three meetings of the teams these snipers have been pretty well bottled up.

With the game Wednesday night, the Wildcats took the "su-gar" match from the Turks and (Continued on Last Page)

Bones of Ancient Monster Found in Gravel Pit Bank

A few bones which no doubt belonged to a prehistoric monster that roamed this country in the dark ages were uncovered last week by Carl Howrey in a gravel pit on the Thompson farm near Foard River northwest of Crowell.

One of the bones, and the one that is in the best state of preservation, was a tooth, and the second was a joint.

The bones were found as the bank of the gravel pit was being cut back and their form was

Wildcats Go to Thalia Tonight To Play Tigers

Tigers Win Second At Shamrock Cage Tourney Saturday

The game that will be of interest to more basketball fans in Foard County this year will be played in the Thalia High School gymnasium Thursday night (tonight) at 7:15 o'clock when the Crowell Wildcats and the Thalia Tigers meet in a practice game. This game was postponed from Wednesday due to the death of a Thalia citizen, George M. Doty.

Both teams are leaders in their respective league races and both have excellent records so some observers term the series as one for the mythical county championship. A county tournament is not necessary in this county as both the Wildcats and Tigers will represent Foard County in the district. (Continued from Page Four)

Cattle Man Lost 3 Days in Breaks West of Crowell

Debbs Walker, 21, of Paducah, who was lost in the breaks on the Triangle Ranch about 20 miles west of Crowell since last Saturday, was found Tuesday morning and was reported to be in fair condition after his exposure of over sixty hours in the freezing weather which had gripped this section during the past several days.

Walker and two other Paducah youths had gone to the ranch for a load of wood. They had motor trouble and Walker was left with the truck while the others went after repair parts. When they returned, Walker was gone.

A posse of Foard and Cottle County men, led by Sheriff C. A. Brooks and Deputy Wylie Ellis of Paducah, searched the breaks Sunday and Monday. At one time Monday night, it was feared that the man had frozen to death.

Ben Franklin Hunted for Frogs Like "Airless Joe"

The story of "Airless Joe," toad frog which was released recently after spending the past twenty years in a concrete slab at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Todd in Crowell, caused considerable comment, but evidently the finding of frogs such as "Airless Joe" is not new because Benjamin Franklin hunted for frogs that came from solid stone in 1781.

In comparison to what "Airless Joe" and the frogs hunted by the statesman went through, "Joe" had it easy. A frog found in solid stone has to be entombed for a great many years longer than the Crowell freak spent in the concrete because in that instance the stone had to form around the frog instead of it being placed in fresh cement.

In "Benjamin Franklin," by Carl Van Doren, it tells of frogs being found in solid stone in a Paris, France, quarry. Following is a part of a paragraph taken from page 659 in a chapter which tells of Franklin's life in Paris:

"On 6 April (1781), being with Chaumont at his quarry in Paris, Franklin questioned the men about some living toads they claimed to have found shut in solid stone. He supposed, if the workmen were correct in what they thought they had found, that the toads may have needed no food because they had not respired and so had lost none of their substance."

This interesting bit of information concerning the long entombment of frogs was brought to our attention by Duke Wallace of Crowell who recently completed reading "Benjamin Franklin" and when the story about "Airless Joe" was pointed Mr. Wallace recalled reading of such frogs in the book.

Home Demonstration Agent Tells of Improvements in County's Farm Homes in Annual Detailed Report

This is the second and final installment of the annual detailed report of the Foard County home demonstration agent, Miss Joeline Vannoy. In this installment, Miss Vannoy tells of the improvements in kitchens, bedrooms, yards, clothing, poultry and whole farm demonstrations in the county during 1939.

Kitchen Improvements
The Kitchen Improvement Demonstration was carried in the county for the third year. A demonstration in each of the six home demonstration clubs completed her plans and had an achievement event. Eight other kitchens in the county reached the status of a demonstration. With the seventy-seven kitchens that were improved the first year, and the twelve that were added and eighty-six that were added and improved last year, and the twelve that were added with the 86 that were improved, over a hundred and twenty-five kitchens have been improved over the three-year period without duplications.

Goals were worked by each member of what improvements she could make in her kitchen. A great many goals, however, centered the use of the kitchen, refrigeration, and the care of the kitchen. Since these had not been emphasized in the two preceding years, programs and demonstrations were built around them.

In studying refrigeration the home demonstration club members as a whole seem quite impressed over the amount of food that might be saved in the form of left-overs through adequate refrigeration. Most of them were also quite amazed at the amount of food that could be stored in a refrigerator by using dishes that would fit neatly in the box. Since this demonstration in May, twenty-four refrigerators have been added, twenty-two of which are mechanical, most of which are kerosene burning.

Crowell Wildcats Win Matador Cage Tourney for Fourth Time Saturday With 28-25 Victory Over Turkey

Coach Grady Graves' Crowell Wildcats won their fourth Matador basketball tournament championship last Saturday night when they defeated the Terrible Turks from Turkey by a score of 28 to 25.

Dick Smith Honored

Dick Smith, Crowell captain and guard, was awarded the highest honor that is made to an individual player at the Matador tournament, that of being the outstanding player of the tourney.

The awarding of this honor is based upon three things, sportsmanship, team work and individual skill.

Dick Todd Makes Award
Dick Todd of Crowell, former Texas Aggie football star, and who played during the past season with the Washington Redskins, was introduced by Supt. Tunnell of Matador and made the award to Smith. Todd attended four of the Matador tournaments while playing with the Crowell Wildcats and was voted as the most outstanding player there one year.

All-Tourney Teams
The Wildcats placed more players on the all-tourney teams than any other quintet of the meet. Two Crowell boys landed on the first team and one on the second. The teams are as follows:

First Team
Smith of Crowell.
Fitzgerald of Crowell.
Johnson of Turkey.
C. Johnson of Turkey.
Sossoman of Medicine Mound.

Second Team
Russell of Crowell.
Eason of Vernon.
Byman of Flomot.
Vaughn of Roaring Springs.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
A marriage license was issued from the office of County Clerk J. A. Stovall to Lonnie Joan Halenack of Crowell and Miss Julie Kubicek on Jan. 19.

A last minute rush of poll tax payments is expected in Foard County during the remaining few days in which voters can pay their poll taxes, according to a report from the tax assessor-collector's office in Crowell.

January 31 Deadline
Voters of the county appear to be lax in paying their poll taxes, but this matter should be given attention soon, as Wednesday, Jan. 31, is the last day in which the receipts can be obtained.

Few Poll Taxes Paid
The report showed that only 694 citizens of the county had paid their poll taxes Tuesday afternoon. There have been 1,861 poll taxes assessed for 1940 and this means that 1,257 voters should pay the fee during the next five days. A total of 1,257 voters cast their ballots in 1938.

Many Important Elections
The above figure is expected to be exceeded in the 1940 elections as candidates for many important offices will be voted upon, which includes the presidential election.

Few Candidates Announced
An unusually low number of candidates have announced in Crowell for district and county offices, however, a large number is expected to make their announcements for these offices in the future. To date, there have been only twelve persons announce in Foard County for district and county offices.

Those who have already made their announcements are as follows: Leslie Thomas for county judge; Mrs. Ruth Marts for county treasurer; J. A. Stovall for county and district clerk; A. B. Wisdom for commissioner of precinct No. 1; E. G. Grimsley for commissioner of precinct No. 2; A. L. Davis for commissioner of precinct No. 3; Hartley Easley for commissioner of precinct No. 4; H. E. Fenzon for justice of the peace, precinct No. 1; Frank Moore for public weigher, precinct No. 1; Curtis Renfro of Vernon and T. Jean Rodgers of Quannah for district attorney, 46th judicial district and W. D. Chapman, commissioner of precinct No. 1.

Every eligible voter of Foard County is urged to pay his poll tax in order to have a vote in the 1940 elections as it is your privilege and duty to take part in the government affairs. Every voter should be ready to vote for the candidate of his choice in the 1940 elections.

The poll tax figures given above are by no means the totals as there will be a number of voters who will cast their first votes, who are exempt, and those who have reached the age to be exempt from poll tax payments. Those who will cast their first ballots upon reaching the age to vote should obtain their exemption receipts at the office of the tax assessor-collector as soon as possible.

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hastwell)

A Big or A Little Man: I have in my back yard a trumpet vine that is growing upon a trellis. Each summer the vine completely covers the trellis with a great mass of dark green leaves and orange red flowers. Though a hardy and a profuse growing plant, I have noticed that it never grows higher than the trellis that supports it. Now and then a long tendril reaches out as though it would lift itself nearer to the sun, but gaining weight it drops back and trails toward the ground in a long festoon. My neighbor across the way has the same kind of trumpet

Victims of Social Diseases Should Get Correct Information

Austin. — America's public health forces in the campaign against syphilis and gonorrhea are at present concerned with the legion of opportunists who see in the campaign against these diseases a chance to cash in on the misfortune of others. Stressing the importance of correct information about the venereal diseases and how they spread, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said that "not until every thinking man and woman knows the simple facts about syphilis and gonorrhea, how to avoid them, and what to do if infected, can permanent gains be realized against them."

San Francisco Opera Co. Ballet Coming to Wichita Falls

Wichita Falls, Jan. 22.—Northwest Texas is becoming more "ballet conscious," as evidenced in the demand that brings the San Francisco Opera company ballet to Wichita Falls Monday, Feb. 5. The Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo proved the outstanding success of the 1938-39 cultural entertainment season. The San Francisco ballet, though not as old and as famous, will prove even more popular is the opinion of its sponsors, members of the Wichita Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In the first place, tickets have been priced so that every one may attend the ballet. In the second place the repertoire of the San Francisco company is less classical. "We do not hope to make money from this engagement. It is part of our year's objectives to bring the finest entertainment to Wichita Falls and its area neighbors," Harold Story, Jaycee president, explained. "We are making another art, music, beneficiary of the ballet's appearance. All proceeds will go to benefit the Wichita Falls Civic Symphony Orchestra—an orchestra which, incidentally, includes musicians from other communities."

The community plan under which the San Francisco dance company operates is worthy of patronage, because some day Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, perhaps even Wichita Falls, may wish to pattern after it a like sponsorship of a dance training school.

Out-of-town reservations may be made by writing Mrs. Hal Yeager, Box 1082, Wichita Falls. Ticket prices are $2, $1.50 and $1 for the lower floor and first balcony and 50 cents for the second balcony.

The San Francisco ballet has as its ballerina the famous Janet Reed and as its choreographer and director Williams Christensen. Although the ballet is principally American, it is a thoroughly cosmopolitan company.

Cold Snap Delays Shelterbelt Planting

Wichita Falls, Jan. 23.—(Special)—A prolonged cold spell, one of the longest on record in Northwest Texas, has caused a complete cessation of planting and related activities on the Shelterbelt Project, according to W. E. Webb, State Director of the Prairie States Forestry Project. "Experience has shown," says Mr. Webb, "that a major cause of loss in newly planted trees is often the freezing of the roots at the time of planting. While it is true that the ground often freezes for a depth of several inches to several feet, depending on the severity of the winter, trees which are established and already in the ground seldom suffer losses from this cause. Results are very different, however, where the roots are exposed to the air during freezing temperatures, and every effort is made to prevent losses of this kind during the planting operations."

During this period of enforced inactivity so far as planting operations are concerned, very effective use is being made of labor on the project by concentrating on rabbit and other rodent control work. As a matter of fact, rodent control operations are usually much more effective during periods of this kind when ordinary sources of food supply for the rabbits are not available.

In the meantime, applications for new plantings are being received every day, and from all indications the flow of applications will increase as the weather becomes more favorable. Applications are mainly for the standard, multiple use shelterbelt consisting of 10 rows of assorted trees, although in some cases, depending on the need, size of farm, and other factors, a lesser number of rows are planted.

Sincerity is the indispensable ground of all conscientiousness, and by consequence of all heartfelt religion.—Immanuel Kant.

Wildcats Dump Quanah Indians By 45-24 Score

The Crowell Wildcats breezed through their game at Quanah last Thursday night to ring up a 45-24 victory over the Indians to maintain their undefeated record in the Northwest Texas Basketball Conference.

Getting off to a bad start, the Wildcats were never able to register a very big lead over the scrapping Indians in the first half which ended with Crowell out in front by 8 points. In the second half, the local cagers, led by Tom Andrews, forward, who tallied 23 of Crowell's points, came to life and soon had the Indians helplessly smothered under a top-heavy score.

Tourney Finalists After suffering a 2-point defeat at the hands of Five-in-One on Wednesday night of last week, the tiny Tigers bounded back to win second place in the Shamrock cage tournament last Saturday.

Teams that entered the Shamrock tourney were Alanreed, Wellington, Mobeetie, Shamrock, Memphis, Thalia, Miami, Kelton, McLenn, Brisco, Pampa, Phillips, Perryton, Canadian, Wheeler, Panhandle and Lefors.

Thlia defeated the Pampa reserves in an exhibition game, 28-7, and then defeated Shamrock, 44-27. In the semi-finals, the Tigers nosed Wellington out 25-24 but suffered a defeat in the finals at the hands of Pampa by a score of 27 to 13. In spite of forfeits by Memphis and Miami to Thalia, the Tigers rolled up 100 points while holding their opponents to 85.

Joe McKinley Honored

Joe McKinley, captain of the Tigers, was selected on the all-tournament team and was awarded a gold basketball. In the final game with the Thalia boys playing a man-to-man defense, McKinley held his man to a lone field goal and at the same time tallied over half of Thalia's points. The Thalia quintet was reported to have been the most popular team at the tourney.

In addition to the Five-in-One game mentioned above, the Wilbarger County lads scored an upset victory over Thalia, as the Tigers had previously defeated the Five-in-One quintet on the same court by a 38 to 8 score. This loss could be attributed partly to illness of some of Thalia's players and also to the fact that the Tigers could not connect from the free toss line. They missed 17 attempts at gratis throws awarded them. The game was rough and replete with fouls as 28 fouls were called by Referee Pat Gerald.

Tigers Go To Pampa

Pampa officials were so well impressed by the Tigers' ability to handle the ball and their mastery of other departments of the game, in spite of their small stature, that they invited the team to play two games at Pampa in February. The Pampa coach remarked that they would advertise the Tigers as a "little House of David" team, for he said that the Thalia boys could pass the ball better than the House of David team which Pampa played last year.

Win Over King's High

The Tigers continued their winning ways Tuesday night by defeating King's High, 33-31, on King's High court. This boosts the Tigers' percentage to .600 at the half-way mark of the Tri-County League schedule. Five games remain for the Tigers. Two will be played on their home court and three away.

Due to cold weather for the last few games, the attendance at the home games has not been up to par, but Thalia officials hope that larger crowds will be coming out to get behind the Thalia team and give it some encouragement comparable to that they get away from home. Any team can play better with the home folks backing it to the limit. The gym is comfortable, even in coldest weather, so the fans can enjoy the games.

The next home game will be with Medicine Mound Monday night, Jan. 26, at 7:15 o'clock. The admission will be ten and fifteen cents.

One of the big troubles today is that there are too many people who believe that the government should support the people instead of the people should support the government.

One of the problems of the Harvey restaurant system, that provided a chain of eating houses along the Santa Fe railroad system, was the fact that so many of the young women quit the service each year and got married. The Harvey system selected its young women employees very carefully and they were in much demand as homemakers. The same situation faces the companies operating air travel routes in regard to their hostesses. These young women are selected with painstaking care and many of them each year marry employees of the air ports, pilots and even passengers on the planes they serve. One company reports the loss of 300 such hostesses by marriage in one year. An airplane hostess must be a certain height and weight and age, must not wear glasses and must be a registered nurse.

The man who can preserve a neutral spirit in thought and deed in the matter of the invasion of Finland by Russia does not live in America. There is, in this country, not only the kindred feeling that one democracy has for another democracy, but there is also a genuine respect for the little country who, surrounded with other nations who chose to repudiate their war debt, has met every payment on the date it is due. That spirit, whenever it is found, deserves to be protected and defended.

Some members had either used or had seen almost every type of small and large equipment that was shown and their eagerness in telling how well they work seemed to make others more enthusiastic to secure them by merely watching the agent demonstrate their uses. One hundred and fifteen women have added at least two new pieces of equipment to be used in the cleaning process around the kitchen.

which showed how the storage might be practically doubled by the addition of narrow shelves between the wide ones which are usually placed twelve to fifteen inches apart.

At least one-half of the home demonstration club women of Foard County use dish drainers after the demonstration of a year ago. A very common remark is, "Now, I have more time for doing the things that I want to since I let my dishes drain."

A training school on refinishing floors, walls, and woodwork was held in Crowell in May. All of the demonstrators and several co-operators attended. At this time the agent demonstrated different steps in refinishing woodwork suitable for kitchens by using different blocks of wood.

Two of the six achievement events were held in the homes at night and about thirty men attended each of them. October 31, thirty-five club women of the county visited all six of the kitchens of the demonstrators. The general comment was upon how clean they appeared and how easily they looked like they could be kept shining in appearance.

Interior home improvement has into other rooms of the house even though no special emphasis has been carried into other rooms of the house, though no emphasis has been placed upon them this year. Eight bedrooms have been added and thirty-six improved. Six living rooms have been added and fourteen improved. Twenty-two windows have been added and twenty-one steps and porches have been repaired. Sixteen houses have been repainted and eight houses have had new roofs. In at least five instances the entire house has been remodeled due to starting to remodel the kitchen.

Bedrooms
In June, the home demonstration agent met each club one time and gave demonstrations on making down or feather comforts. Since then thirty-four people have utilized old quilts and feather beds and made them into comforts. During the time that they were being made some of the women in Crowell expressed a desire to learn how to make them; therefore in December the home demonstration agent gave a demonstration in the office on making them, and from all reports at least twelve of the women who came to the demonstration made them for themselves or gave them for Christmas presents.

In October, the home demonstration agent met each of the six clubs and gave demonstration on making mattresses. Since then, fifty-two mattresses have been made, six of which have been for non-club members. The Foard County exhibit at the State Fair of Texas consisted of three children's bed mattresses in different stages of completion. They were made in the agent's office by a committee from the County Home Demonstration Council and at that time fifteen women from Crowell watched the demonstration, since they thought they might make some mattresses.

Yard Improvement
One yard demonstrator was enrolled in each of the 6 home demonstration clubs. Each of these had a yard plan at the beginning of the year and all six were completed to a certain extent in the fall. Achievement events were held at five, since one of them moved away in the late summer.

Each club member set up her own goals but most of them were based around a clean up program, making walks and drives, and selecting shrubbery that is adapted to this county.

During January a program was given on Planning the Farmstead, with emphasis on those things which could and should be done without special expense. In fact, one of the members called it, a clean up program. Previously the women have looked at yard improvement work as something that required a lot of money and quantities of water that they did not have.

Several hints on nature shrubs were published in January and many of the women came to the office for further information concerning them and other shrub planting information.

The method demonstration for February was entitled "What Can I Grow Here?" and included both native and nursery stock (trees, shrubs and flowers), which are hardy enough to grow in this county without very much water. Twelve native shrubs and about twenty nursery shrubs adapted to the county were shown at the meeting, and instructions were given for transplanting, as well as the care of them and arrangements for foundation and screen plantings. The material was illustrated through the use of the shrubs themselves, pictures and plans made in the yard where the meeting was held.

In April the method demonstration was on building walks. Such material as flagstones, crushed stones, cement, gravel and cinders were suggested as suitable materials for building walks and drives, but the emphasis was placed on flagstone for walks since they are rather abundant in this county.

The results on the clean up program can readily be seen for at least eighty-five members have been instrumental in getting the farm machinery removed from the front lawns, junk removed and burned, fences straightened and other similar improvements.

The women over the country as a whole, as well as the men, seem to be growing more conscious of the use of the native shrubs in landscaping. Part of this has been brought about by the highway department setting up an exhibit to take to a district meeting in Childress in May, and the home demonstration club members helped to a large extent in securing them. At that time the exhibit consisted of thirty-five shrubs and ninety wild flowers. Very few of the people in Crowell realized, however, that as many kinds of shrubs and flowers as were exhibited could be found in some part of the county.

A county tour of 1939 demonstrations was held October 31, and at this time five yard improvement members of all of the clubs in the county. The women on the tour particularly enjoyed getting small plants and seeds from the yards which they visited, and each of them went home much more enthusiastic over improving her yard next year, since she saw what could be accomplished both with and without water.

Since the past year has been very dry and hot winds blew so much during the summer the percentage of shrubs and trees that lived was lower than it would have been otherwise. At present 184 nursery shrubs planted are living and 258 native shrubs are living. The thousand, two hundred and ten trees are also living. The total amount spent on yards was $310.40.

Some one has expressed the opinion that this is the greatest "Next year" place that exists, for the people never become discouraged but that they are eager to try again the following year. With this attitude a great many more yards should be improved in 1940.

Clothing

Plans for the clothing demonstration for the year included demonstrations on grooming, social relations, introductions, table service and simple problems in construction and care of clothing. The girls set their own goals after the demonstrations and since the reorganizations of the clubs in the fall of 1938, the plan has worked very nicely, for a larger majority of the girls have completed goals that when set ones were made at the beginning of the year.

Early in the year the girls started working on grooming, with each girl selecting a goal for herself. Some of these were to keep nails attractive, which included breaking themselves of the habit of biting the nails, care for the hair properly, take good care of the teeth, work on posture, and others. At the close of the year improvements in at least four-fifths of the girls' appearance can be detected.

Since the average age of the girls is only eleven, very simple construction problems were attempted. First head scarfs were made by the girls and the agent gave a demonstration on wearing them in six different ways. Next, kitchen aprons were made, and at that time only sixty-four girls were enrolled in the clubs of Foard County and sixty of them made aprons. The last construction problem was a slip, gown, or halter, and it was started at the last meeting in November.

Sewing boxes were made and equipped by the girls.

First Methodist Church
We were happy to see so many present for our services Sunday. We are very sorry that so many have been sick and hope that all may soon recover and be able to come back to the services of the church.

We have had our first quarterly conference and the district superintendent was very much pleased with the progress that has been made in the beginning of the new year. You have made possible this fine record by your co-operation in the matter of finances and attendance. The board of stewards and the pastor wish to express their thanks for this fine co-operation which you have given.

We wish that every member would come to the services of the church. Your attendance is a help and we shall strive to be helpful to you. Make it the practice of your life to be in your place each Sunday and marvelous things will take place in your life and the lives you touch.

As pastor of the church it is my sincere desire to be of help to each member. If you have a problem in your home, or in your life, the pastor is always glad to discuss and pray with you over such problem. May the blessings of God keep each one of you.

Christian Science Services
"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 28.

The Golden Text is: "O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee. I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth" (Isaiah 25:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Have not I written to thee three excellent things in counsels and knowledge. That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?" (Proverbs 22:20, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "The understanding of Truth gives full faith in Truth, and spiritual understanding is better than all burnt offerings" (page 285).

The Clock Outdone
Text: And Jacob served seven years for Rachael; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.—Genesis 29:20.

We find the clock a necessity. The home, the factory, the school, the railroad and other methods of travel all work by it. We have to employ timekeepers. Even hospitals must appeal to the clock in the interest of the patient.

But there is a life above time-keeping, for in our scripture we come upon one ancient way of making more than two thousand five hundred and twenty days seem "but a few days." Allowing three hundred and sixty days to the year, and considering that Jacob served his father-in-law (would be) seven years to win the heart and hand of Rachael in marriage, the almanac almost fades away. Something shortened to him the real length of time and did it astonishingly. How above animalism man appears!

It was personality over against time that worked the wonder. On the one hand was the woman, while on the other was the almanac. It was Rachael versus calendars. No one can read the account and avoid this conclusion. The woman was the reason. No wonder, for woman is immortal, and immortality includes eternity, and what is time contrasted with eternity! It seems early in human history to find this lesson taught, but there it is. No wonder, though, for personality is more evident than time.

The person, we can see her, but time is invisible.

The person, we can talk to her, but time will not respond.

The person, when disagreeable will cause time to grow longer, and when agreeable will cause the same amount of time to seem shorter.

The person, we can love her, but time has no heart to love.

Here then is the reason Jacob's seven years became so short—it was "for the love he bore to her." So personality can have a quality altogether above and beyond time. Is not this fact at the heart of Jesus' words when He said, "Before Abraham was I am?" To be sure He proclaimed His deity there, but time cannot touch it.

Pity the soul, well or sick, who finds time hanging heavily on his hands. Does he forget that he is immortal? Has he never so claimed peace with God as to count upon His goodness giving new meaning to every passing moment?

Struggling and striving among the tangle of events has he not halted and said that he must let God find and forgive and fill him?

The scene of Paul on the Damascus road was crammed with this fact. When the Lord said, "I am Jesus whom thou persecutest," the man sprang into new action with the address, "Lord"—"Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" Immediately we begin to see how this man could spend months in prison, where time would ordinarily seem a wearisome and crushing burden, and write to others while there, "Rejoice in the Lord." It was a case of personality well visioned, and the Person was his Saviour. After this, "Love Never Fails" because as a slogan to him; and it never fails to strip the burden from time. This Personality can deprive the pillow of its heat, exchange ease for pain, shorten the sleepless night hours, and subdue our sighing. "Jesus can make a bed of pain soft as downy pillows are." Time succumbs to this perfect Personality.

Have we Jesus Christ so accepted and loved that the calendar cannot make us worry? Let time seem long, He is more. Let time seem short, He is enough. Long or short, what does it matter, He is all. As forever is vaster than a day, so Christ is above time. And He is the Friend of sinners!

The road to fortune is marked with many detours.

TRUSCOTT MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Truscott Methodist Missionary Society had a most interesting World Outlook program Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 16. Mrs. Moore's meditation on "One Woman's Life" was impressive. Mrs. A. D. James favored the society with an interesting talk on Belle Bennet, an early Methodist Missionary in South America. An inspiring talk on "Letters of a Missionary" from Africa, was given by Mrs. T. B. Masterson Jr.

The society discussed plans for renovating the parsonage. Mrs. Solomon gave an interesting report on a recent meeting of the District officers in Chicago. Two delegates were appointed to attend the meeting in Chicago the twenty-ninth of January.

Members of the Society are beginning the New Year with a deal of enthusiasm. Several were present Tuesday. Goals were discussed at the meeting and everyone hopes to accomplish a great deal in 1940.

CAT'S CLAW

Anyone who went to the show last Wednesday night must have had a thrilling sensation when the lights went out—and I'll bet every boy there wished he had taken his girl. Which reminds me! What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

The art of being thorough in the things one does is to me one of life's most valuable accomplishments. It is such a seemingly little thing that many overlook it and never acquire it. They go through life without ever having acquired this little art that gives a touch of perfection and artistry to everything they do.

The art of being thorough begins with the simplest tasks one does, the student in the school, the young applicant for employment, the home worker, the new employee, and continues up the scale as far as man has the ability or the desire to advance.

Thoroughness is a habit—a habit that becomes an art that marks one as a skilled workman. It marks the difference between a prized employee and a slipshod, careless worker. It distinguishes the mediocre worker from the skilled professional and the artist.

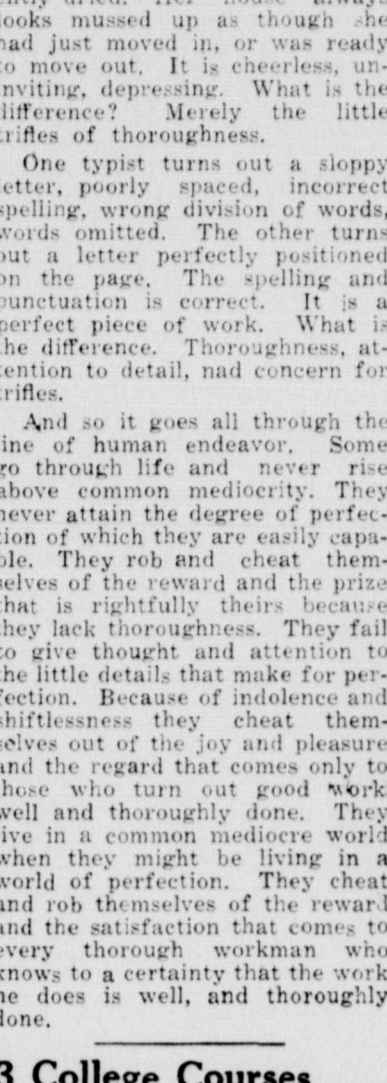

What is the difference between a good housekeeper and a sloppy housekeeper? Just a few trifles. The good housekeeper is immaculate. Her dishes are washed thoroughly in hot soapsuds and scalded in clean hot rinse water. Her glasses sparkle as though polished. Her knives and spoons shine and there is no food between the fork tines. Her stove and cooking utensils are spotless and free from a greasy feel and appearance. Her beds are neatly made. Her washing and ironing is neatly and cleanly done and neatly put away. Her furniture is dusted and there is about everything an orderly, an inviting appearance.

On the other hand her neighbor is known as a sloppy housekeeper.

got over us city-bred girls? Well, maybe a little speed. Or so it would seem, if you happened to be out motoring Sunday afternoon and two clouds of dust passed by. Just for your information that was several senior boys chasing several cute Thalia girls. (Ask me no questions and I'll tell you no lies.) Did you know that the Junior classes' most eligible bachelor has black hair and blue eyes? At least it seems that way from the notes I found in study hall the other day.

A kiss is just like hope, faith, and charity. To a young girl they're hope, to a married woman they're faith, and to an old maid they're charity. Ha! Ha! Heaven help those silly girls who giggle and act like fools when they get a note from a boy. Your'n, Kitty.

Shower Saturday Afternoon Honors Mrs. J. H. Lanier Jr.

Mrs. J. H. Lanier Jr., who was Miss Annie Mae Ellis before her recent marriage, was named honor guest at a lovely miscellaneous shower given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Harwell with Mrs. Harwell, Mrs. Byron Davis and Mrs. Julian Wright of Vernon as hostesses.

Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Earl Davis and the honor guest formed a receiving line and Mrs. Byron Davis presided over the guest register. The bride's book had a lovely white satin, hand-painted cover.

Miss Wanda Rose Liles sang, "Cathedral in the Pines," as the first number of the program. She was accompanied by Miss Dorothy Winningham. Mrs. Francis Todd gave two readings, "Gypsy Heart" and "Wives."

Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick poured punch from the pretty, lace-covered table in the dining room. Sweetpeas were used in the decorative scheme and a miniature bride and groom occupied a central position. Pink candles burned at either end of the table. The punch following the pink color motif was served by Mrs. Verne Walden and Mrs. Ragsdale Lanier. The buffet corresponded to the table with sweetpeas and pink tapers. Miss Anne Lee Long played piano music while the guests were being served.

A display of the many beautiful gifts was made in an adjoining room.

The Adelpian Club made a study of the Indian on Wednesday last week at a regular meeting held at the club house.

Mrs. Q. V. Winningham led the lesson, passing attractive hand-painted programs at the beginning of the meeting.

Mrs. W. B. Johnson's subject was, Pueblo Dwellers. She gave an interesting description of the Indian villages found in the reservations, describing their architecture and the life led by the Indian.

Wanda Rose Liles, accompanied by Dorothy Winningham, sang "Indian Love Call."

Mrs. Moody Bursey talked on Music and Art. She described their many arts and crafts, including basket making, weaving of all kinds, pottery and beadwork. Mrs. Bursey said that there was no one thing that the Indian loved so much as children, and much of their music is composed of lullabies.

Mrs. Winningham talked on Government Protection. She said that the Indian was our problem and our responsibility because we had made it so. Her talk centered chiefly around the two acts passed for the benefit of the Indian, the allotment act and the reorganization act. Mrs. Winningham said that our main problem was that of education, the Indian doesn't care whether he has an education or not, and that if we solve this problem it will automatically solve all the others.

Baby Beef Calves F. F. A. Members Show Good Gains

Good gains in weight have been reported on calves being fed for baby beef production by Glendon Russell and J. T. Hughtson, members of the Crowell Chapter, Future Farmers of America. The calves will be shown at the third annual F. F. A. project show to be held in Crowell in March.

A recent weighing revealed that the 70-pound calf being fed by Glendon Russell, had gained 250 pounds in 125 days. This is an average of two pounds gain daily. The 830-pound calf being fed by J. T. Hughtson had gained 190 pounds in 107 days, or about an average of 1 3/4 pounds per day.

Two calves being fed by J. S. Owens are also showing good gains. One calf, a Hereford, has gained 260 pounds during the 120-day feeding period, an average of 2 1/6 pounds per day. This calf now weighs 850 pounds. The other calf, an Aberdeen-Angus, has gained 280 pounds during the 120-day feeding period. This calf, now weighing 830 pounds, has an average gain of 2 1/3 pounds per day.

The gains being made by these calves are said to be good considering the size of the calves. They are being fed balanced rations and are expected to make more gain daily in the future than in the past.

Old Wade & Butcher Razor Owned by H. A. Wesley of Margaret

The story about the old Wade & Butcher razor owned by J. M. Glover of the Foard City community, uncovers the fact that H. A. Wesley of Margaret is the owner of one of these rare old types of razors. Mr. Wesley estimates the age of his razor to be approximately 200 years old. The razor was given to his father, the late J. W. Wesley, by an old gentleman who was about 75 years old, in 1874 while the family was living at Independence, Washington County, Texas. This old man had not shaved in 35 years and his father and grandfather used the razor before him.

H. A. says his father gave him the razor in 1891 and he has used it irregularly ever since. It is too heavy to use regularly, although if anything happens to his regular razor Mr. Wesley can take the old razor and finish shaving.

This razor is just like it left the factory and it was hollow ground at the factory and has the original case. The blade is 10-16 inch wide and back 3/4-inch thick and 5-16 inch wide, which makes it real heavy compared with razors of today.

"Why such heavy backs on these razors, I do not know, unless the barbers of those times had to have a forcible weapon to use or slow pay, for it would not take much of a lick to cut a man's head off with one of them," Mr. Wesley stated.

with McAdoo Friday morning. The first string piled up a lead over the McAdoo lads and Coach Graves turned the three remaining quarters over to the reserves who finished with a 49 to 10 victory.

In their second game of the meet on Friday night, the Wildcats started defeat in the face for three quarters against the Medicine Mound cagers. Medicine Mound led by 5 points at the half and still held the lead at the close of the third period. In the final quarter, the Wildcats, led by Captain Smith, staged an offensive attack that completely bewildered their opponents. The Crowell boys struck fast and consistently in this period to hang up a 45 to 30 victory.

Their third match of the tournament Saturday morning with Quannah proved to be easier sailing and the reserves again saw action, this time for two periods. The Quannah boys entered play fresh as they rode into the semi-finals without playing a game, but were unable to cause the Wildcats too much trouble. This game ended 48 to 23 in Crowell's favor.

Turkey Blasts Vernon

Turkey rode through their preliminary games without much trouble, an dthe defending champions, the Vernon Lions, who had won the championship for the past two years, were not able to furnish the terrible Turks very much competition and were blasted out of the tournament in the semi-final by the big guns of Turkey, 39-21.

Final Game

With the stage perfectly set for the final game between two quintets who have been named as two of the strongest in West Texas, the Wildcats and Turks took the floor to furnish a game that kept fans roaring throughout its entirety.

The Crowell boys launched a smooth working offense, backed with the strongest defense exhibited during the tournament, to take a 15-5 lead at the end of the first period.

With a good lead, the Wildcats slacked their offense to devote all of their attention to protecting it, however, the Turks had whittled the lead two points by the half time, 20-12. Still devoting most of their time to blocking Turk shots, the Wildcats put on enough offensive steam to match their opponents to close the third quarter still leading 8 points, 25-17.

Stepping back into the offensive role with the start of the last frame, the Wildcats were off stride and their goal shooting was under par, however, they managed to fight off the scrapping Turks to win the game, 28-25.

This was possibly the best defensive game played on the Matador court and credit must be given Jack Fitzgerald, Wildcat center, for his excellent job of guarding the high-scoring Turkey center, Johnson. Johnson entered the final game with more than 60 points to his credit, but he was unable to sink a field goal in the first half, however, he did register a free shot. He had 7 points to his credit at the end of the game.

Turkey Game—

this was the biggest margin that either team has been able to pile up over the other. On Jan. 2, the Wildcats suffered their second defeat of the season when they traveled to Turkey and lost by three points, 21-19. The teams met the second time when they entered the finals of the Matador tournament last week and the Wildcats were victorious by three points, 28-25.

The first part of the game was played on even terms with the lead changing hands twice in the first quarter. The Turks struck twice to lead 4-0, but the Wildcats took the lead at 3-1 and the Turkey lads jumped ahead again at 6-5. A field goal late in the period gave the Wildcats a 7-6 lead at the end of the opening quarter.

The Wildcats never lost the lead but were tied at 7-7 and 9-9. After that point the Wildcat offense started bringing results and Crowell was leading 21-12 at the half. By the finish of the third period, the Wildcats had increased their lead to 31-19. With about three minutes of the last frame gone, Coach Grady Graves started replacing his tired starters and the local reserves held the floor for the last two minutes of the game.

The Crowell defense drew one of its hardest assignments this season in guarding the Johnson brothers of Turkey and 13 personal fouls were marked up against the local lads in holding Turk goal shooters to low scores, however, 4 of the fouls were committed after the reserves took the floor. Turkey finished the game with only 3 personal fouls on its side of the score sheet.
