Day Meeting at Black School House Celebrates 90th Birthday Early Settler of This Section

A large crowd assembled at the school house Saturday to celebrate the 90th birthday anniversary of A. N. (Jus) Cordell, pioneer settler of Foard County and founder of the first school house in the Black community back in the late eighties. The present building is the fourth building erected for school purposes. Mrs. W. W. Nichols, a resident of the community, has taught three of them, it was brought Saturday. The first teacher, Miss Ora Grimm, deceased, brother, Orville Grimm of this community, was present at the celebration. The Grimm family was among the early settlers of the community. Others who taught in the school up to 1891, when the school was organized, were the late Mrs. Steve Roberts, (Miss Beatty), Dr. J. D. Stovall and S. P. McLaughlin. Mrs. Thomas, Crowell attended the program of the celebration with a talk concerning the wonderful spirit and energy of the pioneer settlers, and at that time introduced the late Mr. Roach. Mr. Roach acted as master of ceremonies for the remaining number on the program. In the evening S. P. McLaughlin recited an original poem based on the steel bridge built across Pease before Foard County was organized, which he helped to build, and Mrs. Henry Fish of the community sang "That Old Faded Daddy of Mine." A vocal quartet composed of Ebb Seales, John Rasmussen, King and J. P. Davidson. (Continued on Page Five)

Allee Well Shot with Perforating Gun Wednesday

Volume of natural gas flow in the wildcat oil test drilled on the farm of Mrs. J. M. Allee, six miles northeast of Crowell, was increased 300,000 cubic feet Wednesday when the well was shot with a perforating gun at a depth of 2,309 feet. This test was drilled to a depth of 3,400 feet by the Foster Petroleum Co. of Bartlesville, Okla., and was completed Jan. 25. Baldwin & Reed of Wichita Falls were the drilling contractors.

The open flow of natural gas from this well is now 1,800,000 cubic feet.

Raspberry Well Plugged Thursday at 5,736 Feet

After reaching a depth of 5,736 feet in the test drilled by the Ohio Oil Co. on land belonging to Mrs. J. B. Raspberry 15 miles west of Crowell, operations were suspended last Thursday and the well was plugged as a dry hole.

The contract depth of this hole was 5,000 feet with J. F. Postelle of Odessa as the drilling contractor. When the 5,000-foot depth was reached without any oil showing, it was decided by the operators to go 1,000 feet deeper.

It is reported that leases on approximately 7,000 acres of the 10,000-acre block were paid up last week.

Wildcats Close Spring Training Period Wednesday

Two Scrimmages Featured in Last Week of Practice

Coach Grady Graves and his Crowell Wildcats completed the spring football training period with the workout Wednesday afternoon and the suits were put away until September 1, when the boys will return for the fall practice shortly before the opening of the 1940 season.

Two scrimmages featured the last week of the training. One of the scrimmages was between the Wildcats and the local all-stars, which the Gravedmen won 18-0, and in the second, the Wildkittens blasted the high school Rough Necks by a 25-6 score.

Short Training Period

This is the shortest spring training session ever held for the Wildcats, due to the new interscholastic league rule allowing only one calendar month for spring practice, however, within this short time the team has shaped up fairly well and should help Coach Graves a great deal in getting the team to function as a unit next fall.

At the conclusion of the workouts, it appears that Joe Wells has the inside track for the center position, with Alton Roark looming as a strong reserve for the same spot.

At the guard positions, Daniel Briscoe and Bob Spears are looking good, however, Eugene Everson and Rudolf Halenack also have good chances to make the starting lineup in these places. Charlie Thompson, T. L. Owens, Murrell Diggs and Harold Canup should hold the tackle positions in good style next fall.

Junior Haseloff, W. D. Hudgens, Wilburn Davidson and H. A. Phillips played most at ends, but J. T. Hughton and David Parkhill also should see some service in the wing positions next year. A. Y. Olds, Bill Ownbey, Leroy Gibson, Duane Capps, Albert Bird, DeWitt Cauthan, Ralph Flesher and Charles Nelson round out two complete backfields that will make the Wildcats an offensive threat next fall.

Others who have been practicing during the past month are Dan Pechacek, Paul Vecera, Lowell Campbell, Ray Davis, Kenneth Archer, Clifford White and Wayne Cobb and will help out the reserve strength of the squad. All of these boys, with the exception of Cobb, are Freshmen and will be members of the 1940 junior team.

All-Star Scrimmage

The Wildcats marked up their third victory over the Crowell all-star eleven in four starts Monday afternoon by an 18-0 score to open the last week of practice.

The ball was put in scoring position for the first touchdown when a pass from Olds to Ownbey placed the oval within the all-star's 5-yard line, and on the second play Olds spun through (Continued on Page Four)

New Supply of Water Is Being Developed by City

Possibly Enough to Avoid Threatening Water Shortage

Work of developing a new and additional water supply for the City of Crowell at the pump station northwest of town is progressing and prospects for more water are bright at this time, according to a statement by Mayor C. T. Schlagal Wednesday.

Development of more water for city consumption is being rushed as a protective measure to avoid a shortage of water as has been experienced here once in the past because the level of the City Lake is at its lowest level in several years. Water in the lake will be exhausted within a comparatively short time provided it is not replenished by a heavy rain in the near future.

In spite of the fact that the supply of the lake might give out, it is now felt that with this new water, added to that in the old wells, will be enough to carry the city through a water shortage.

At present, the City of Crowell is obtaining a portion of its water supply from the City Lake and the remainder from the wells. Mayor Schlagal took the opportunity in his statement to assure the people of Crowell that the water they are now using is pure, as it is chlorinated with each stroke of the pump.

Joshua's Challenge to a Decision

Text: Now, therefore, fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the Lord. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve: whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.

These two verses set forth one of the most striking and forceful challenges recorded in Scripture. The place of meeting and the setting for this call to serve are significant. It was so momentous an occasion as to bring to the appointed meeting place all the dignitaries of Israel. All the tribes of Israel were there, the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers. All were present for this final word of exhortation from their aged leader.

Consider the man around whom the scene centered. It was Joshua, the aged war veteran, political and military leader of Israel, but spiritual leader as well, a man who had years of fruitful service behind him. Notice that this arresting challenge came not from a weakling, not a defeated and vanquished leader, but from a conquering hero.

Observe also, where the gathering was held. It was at Shechem, the place where other great decisions had been made, a place which held many sacred memories for the people of Israel. Shechem was the place on which Abraham first raised an altar to consecrate the spot to the living God; the place where Jacob buried the strange gods in token of his resolution to forsake idols.

The very scene of Joshua's call for decision was one which would impress the people with the solemnity of the occasion and would bring to their minds their consecration of other days. What was the challenge that Joshua sounded forth? Just this: "Choose you this day whom ye will serve." The greatest challenge that can come from the lips of any man, and the greatest challenge that can search the heart of any individual is to decide once and for all the object of their lifelong allegiance.

And this call to service did not die on the lips of the faithful servant who uttered it then. It comes ringing down the ages to challenge your heart and mine. Have you accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as your Saviour, and thus placed yourself in a position where you can serve the living God? God gave His only begotten Son to die for you, His Son who took your place on the cross and who suffered the penalty for your sin. Is He not worthy of your utmost devotion? "Choose you this day whom ye will serve."

Boys and Girls Week

John L. Griffith of Chicago, Ill., "Big Ten" Athletic Commissioner and chairman of the National Boys and Girls Week Committee for the United States, in a statement to the press this week, commented on the unusually large number of organizations and agencies which are making plans for extensive participation in Boys and Girls Week for 1940.

"It is apparent," said Mr. Griffith, "that the great majority of adults are keenly aware of the fact that if the youth of today can be given the proper counseling and assistance, they will undoubtedly grow up to be good citizens of correspondingly good communities."

Connally for Strong Navy; Assures Peace

"A strong Navy is costly, but not as costly as a war" was the statement of Senator Tom Connally, but it appeared to be the feeling of practically the entire Senate as that body passed a Naval Appropriation bill last week by a vote of 63 to 4 which calls for the building of 19 fighting ships.

Senator Connally told the Senate that he had always been in favor of a strong navy. He said, "I think the United States should have the best navy in the world. We are flanked by two oceans, and the only way in which we can protect ourselves is by dominating those two oceans. A navy costs a great deal of money, but does not cost us as much as a war would cost us. I think it is the duty of the American people to provide an incomparable navy, one which will have no superior on the sea, and I am prepared to vote the necessary funds."

"It is my belief that we cannot rely upon any one arm. We have to have a balanced fleet; and the basis of the fleet is the heavy battleship; then the fast cruisers; the cavalry of the sea; then the destroyers for more mobile employment; then submarines; and, finally, aircraft."

Speaking about our involvement in the war, Texas' Junior Senator said, "The United States is not going to become involved in the European war. The only way we could get in it would be by some foreign nation attacking us, and no foreign nation is

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

Fifty and a hundred years ago in this country it was a common practice when agriculture became started out in one section, because of increasing taxes and depleted soil fertility, to pull up stakes, load the possessions into a covered wagon and move west into a new country.

Here new claims were staked out, new homes and schools built and new settlements opened up. After a time the problem repeated itself and the children and grandchildren of the pioneer followed the practice of their fathers and grandfathers and in turn loaded the family possessions into a covered wagon, pulled up stakes, bid goodbye to friends and journeyed further west where the routine of their fathers and grandfathers was repeated. When they reached the Pacific ocean there remained no more frontiers, no new land where new homes might be built.

Agriculture then was on its own. No longer could it run away from its problems. It had to stay and face them and solve them. That is what is taking place today.

This solving of agriculture's problems is not going to be easy. There is nothing simple about it. The solution is not going to be worked out in a day or a week. It is going to require years to accomplish it.

The problem is a serious one but by no means impossible of solution. I believe when it is finally solved that the agricultural industry is going to be on a saner and a sounder and a firmer foundation than it has ever been before. No problem has ever been solved by anyone by running away from it. This is what agriculture has been doing all these years.

Now that the problem must be faced the fault will be discovered and corrected, and because it will be corrected a new day is dawning for agriculture and the farm.

New land frontiers are gone. It is no longer possible to seek virgin fields and fertile soil and start over again as the fathers and grandfathers did. This way is closed. But in my opinion there has come in place of these, new frontiers, frontiers that hold even greater possibilities than were afforded the pioneers of old in the rolling prairies and in the fertile forest clad hills. These new frontiers are going to give to the farm industry its rightful place in the sun with other industries. Instead of forever running from its problems it is going to stand on its feet, look the world in the face and fight for its rightful reward.

These new frontiers are going to be found on the farms themselves. They are going to come in the form of better management, of a more intelligent study of the industry and its problems, in soil and water conservation, in a program of production balanced to consumption, in the development of foreign markets and in the wider use of farm products in industry.

These things, I think, are the new frontiers of the farm industry. In my opinion they hold greater possibilities for the future than the old frontiers ever held. Their possibilities are limited only by the measure of human intelligence applied. They promise a new day, a safer and a more secure day for agriculture. They are going up ever new and ever more promising vistas to the next generation and the next. They are the final and the richest frontiers of the industry.

going to attack us, especially if it knows we have a navy capable of meeting its navy and destroying it, and that is what we have."

Scouting Notes

BENNETT COCKSEY Field Scout Executive

Today, there are over a million boys in America that are registered with the Boy Scouts of America. An organization that America is proud of and an organization that is American in every respect, and out of this organization are to be the leaders of our country in the years to come.

Scouting as set forth in the original certificate of incorporation under the laws of the District of Columbia, dated February 8, 1910, and restated in Section 3 of the charter granted by Congress June 15, 1916, as follows—"That the purpose of this corporation shall be to promote, through organization, and co-operation with other agencies, the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in Scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance and kindred virtues, using the methods which are now in common use by Boy Scouts," by placing emphasis upon the Scout oath and law for character development, citizenship training and physical fitness.

In the program of the Boy Scouts of America, the boy has an opportunity to have those religious, social, and physical activities that are so vital in the building of the character of men. In Scouting these experiences are real to him. Scouting is a game. Camping is one of the major parts of the program, a purposeful game for Scouts in which the goal is character building and citizenship training, to develop self reliance, resourcefulness, the spirit of helpfulness and co-operation, and to prepare boys for useful enjoyment of the out-of-doors. The advancement program of the Boy Scouts takes the boy from a Tenderfoot to an Eagle Scout and then in leadership of a Troop of Scouts. The merit badge program consists of 110 different subjects in which the boy is interested, training him in the particular field of work, along with the many other things of interest.

Crowell is making wonderful advancement in the Scout program. At the present time there is a Girl Scout Group, and a Pioneers Group, for the younger girls. There are two Boy Scout troops and a cub pack; also a senior Scout unit, and plans have been made for a Negro Scout troop. In the District, outside of Crowell, there are Boy Scout troops at Rayland, Thalia and Truscott.

The success of such good work with the youth of this county can be contributed to the patrons who are willing to give their time and money to the betterment of our boys and girls.

The leaders who have active part in the development of the Scout program in Foard County are: Girl Scouts and Brownies, Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick and Mrs. George Self. The district committee for the Boy Scouts of America—John Rator, chairman; Jack Seale, secretary; Claude Callaway, vice chairman; John E. Long, commissioner; Vance Favor, leadership training; J. R. Beverly, organization and extension; Dr. J. M. Hill, health and safety; advancement, A. Y. Beverly; W. B. Tysinger, camping and activities; J. A. Stovall, finance. Scoutmasters — R. C. Womack, Harrell Rea, Granville Lanier, all of Crowell; J. H. Robinson and Tom Lawson of Rayland; Tom Abston of Thalia; and Ozzie Turner of Truscott. C. P. the center of the line to fall into the end zone. The place kick for extra point was wide.

With the exception of this touchdown, the first half was scoreless, but the Wildcats struck twice in the last half.

Owney climaxed a drive when he cut through left tackle for about 15 yards and a touchdown. A plunge for the extra point failed.

The third touchdown was made by Gibson, who carried the ball over after a sustained drive from the 40-yard line. Gibson failed to register the extra point on a line play.

Wildkittens' Game

The Wildkittens dropped the high school Rough Necks Tuesday afternoon, 25-6, in the final scrimmage of the spring season.

They tallied three touchdowns in the first half. Albert Bird scored first on a line play and the second came from a pass from Charles Nelson to Wilburn Davidson. The last one for the first half was made by Ralph Flesher who skirted left end to score. The last Wildkitten score came in the last half when Bird drove straight through the line for pay dirt.

The Rough Necks' score was recorded in the last half when Mike Bird took a short pass from Daurice Ray Naron on fourth down and raced about 70 yards for the touchdown.

Lineups

The lineups for the teams follows: Wildkittens — ends, Davidson, Hughton and Parkhill; tackles, Thompson and Canup; guards, Everson, Halenak and Pechacek; center, Roark; backfield, Bird, Cauthan, Flesher and Nelson.

Rough Necks — ends, Nichols and Pierce; tackles, Cavin and Stephens; guards, Diggins and Hairston; center, Lewis; backfield, Ely, M. Bird, Naron and Nelson.

State's Tourist Catch to Reach 330 Millions

Texas, always one of the outstanding tourist states in the country, should garner at least $330,000,000 from out-of-state travelers in 1940, it was estimated recently by Joe H. Thompson, director of Continental Oil Company's Conoco Travel Bureau.

"Approximately 5,700,000 tourists should cross the state's borders this year," Thompson predicted, "and their expenditures should be about ten per cent greater this year than last."

Thompson's estimate for a ten per cent increase is based on improving economic conditions throughout the country, with rising employment and greater payrolls, and on the restrictions to foreign travel which will undoubtedly increase travel over this country both by citizens of the United States and by visitors from South America and other foreign countries. Repetition of the New York and San Francisco fairs is expected to exert about the same stimulus to travel that was felt last year.

The Conoco Travel Bureau is the largest free service tourist organization in America and is in constant touch with travel trends throughout the entire United States. The statistics which Mr.

New Fire Extinguisher

Gas under pressure is used in a new fire extinguisher to blow easily decomposed, powdered salt at the flame. Water damage is completely avoided, and since the powder used is a bicarbonate specially treated to flow freely, there is no hazard from toxic vapors. Gas pressure, furnished by liquid carbon dioxide or compressed nitrogen, is sufficient to blow powder through a permanently stalled piping system or through a hose and nozzle as required. Since no water is used, danger of freezing is completely avoided even in the coldest weather.—Tarian Magazine.

Tire Company Begins Spring, Summer Drive

Local Ad Campaign To Begin in The Foard County News

Opening gun in The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company's Spring and Summer advertising campaign on tires begins this week with a 30-inch advertisement in The Foard County News.

Feature of the campaign, which is timely because it starts at the beginning of one of the largest driving and holiday motoring seasons forecast in the history of the country, stresses safety, urging that motorists avoid trying to save money by attempting to cash in on the last 10 per cent of the mileage in their tires, when they are likely to run into 90 per cent of the trouble they may expect in the product's total life.

In other words, pointed out Mr. Crowell, who has been selling Goodyears for 11 years locally, "the car owner would be much better off and save more, not only in time, and actual outlay of cash, but insure for himself and his family real safety if he would not try to run his present tires out to the last dime-mile.

"We have what we term a 90-10 offer, as our contribution toward reduction of accidents due to tire blowouts," Mr. Crowell added, explaining that, "we offer to pay for those danger miles while the car owner can ride on safe new Goodyears.

"Owners should drive in for a free inspection which does not obligate them in the slightest," Mr. Crowell declared. He further added that the new tires are guaranteed in writing, not for any specified length of time, but for their full life, without time or mileage limits.

Mrs. A. W. Owens spent the first part of the week in Leveland with her sister, Mrs. B. E. Helton, who is ill.

BRAGGING COSTLY

For talking out of turn to a friend of a state game warden, an Oklahoman recently found himself paying a fine of $100 for hunting in Texas on a $2 resident license. It is possible he would not have been apprehended and would have saved the difference between a $25 non-resident license, but he bragged once too often; a State Game Warden investigated, obtained the aid of federal officers and just about had his case complete when the Oklahoman heard about it, drove more than 100 miles to Wichita Falls, entered a plea of guilty and paid the $100 fine.

In the afternoon Mrs. C. W. Thompson and Mrs. T. B. Klepper, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Shirley, sang, "Palms of Victory." Mr. McLaughlin recited another poem composed jointly by himself and J. H. Lanier, the last two verses of which comprise a song, "Give Me Back My Dear Old Texas." This was sung by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Klepper, again accompanied by Mrs. Shirley. Mrs. A. L. Rucker wrote the music for the song.

H. E. Ferguson sang two cowboy songs, which were reminiscent of the cowboy campfire. Mrs. Claude Callaway rendered a vocal solo, "Was That Somebody You," accompanied by Mrs. Shirley. Mrs. N. J. Roberts cleverly gave a backward glance at the changes that have taken place in the past several decades. Mrs. J. H. Olds told of an ice cream supper held at the school house in the early days. Mrs. Clyde Cobb called the roll of former pupils and Otis Teague of Fort Worth was among the visitors from a distance who attended school at the first school house. Two quartet numbers were rendered by Charlie Blevins and two daughters, Ludell and Edith, and J. P. Davidson. "Ivory Places," was given as a vocal solo by Evelyn Jean Scales, and Mrs. Henry Fish rendered two vocal numbers, playing her own accompaniment on the guitar.

Band music for the day was furnished by the Five-in-One school band under the direction of Henry Teague.

To Enforce Fraud Provisions of Unemployment Act

"Beginning immediately we will file criminal charges against claimants who make false statements to secure unemployment compensation," Roy Epperson, District Supervising Examiner, said this week as he served notice of the tightened enforcement of the fraud provisions of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act.

Mr. Epperson said that he had received orders today from Orville Carpenter, Executive Director of the Texas Commission.

"We will file criminal charges against any individual guilty of misrepresentation or nondisclosure of any fact resulting in payment of jobless benefits when such benefits are not due him," the supervisor declared.

Executive Director Carpenter stated that the Texas Commission would be uncasing its efforts to uncover cases of misrepresentation. He informed Roy Epperson that no exceptions were to be made and that charges were to be filed in every instance.

Notice will be given every unemployed individual claiming benefits of the provision of the Texas Act for filing of criminal charges in cases of misrepresentation or nondisclosure.

"Failure to report pertinent facts is a positive violation of the law, and prosecutions will be investigated immediately," Mr. Epperson said.

The supervisor advised claimants to report all their earnings while filing claims, to report any part-time or self-employment, to disclose receipt of Workmen's Compensation insurance, old age benefits, old age assistance, wages in lieu of notice, and vacation pay. Also, they should reveal any fact having a bearing on their availability for work or their ability to work.

The cost of living in June was 2.3 per cent lower than in June, 1938, and 14 per cent lower than in June, 1929, but 18.1 per cent higher than the low point in 1933 according to National Industrial Conference Board.

The birth rate in the United States has declined from 25.1 per 1,000 in 1911 to 17.9.

League of Nations statistics show that the births in France last year were 612,000 compared with 640,000 in 1935.

Most old physicians are more or less proud of their long experience. As I look back over my triumphs and failures of 42 years of practice, I can not forget that I have learned many valuable things, which I may be pardoned for passing on to you.

I have never seen a cup of mild coffee at breakfast time do any harm in any condition of ill health whatever. It is a refreshing and a wholesome stimulant which I am ready to recommend in any case, especially for old or feeble patients.

Winners of Contest "Know Your Texas" Will Tour State

Dallas, Texas, April 22.—A streamlined tour of Texas from the oil fields of East Texas to the Great Plains, across the Rio Grande River into Mexico, and on to the Gulf Coast will start from Dallas on Monday, June 10, for the forty-eight school children of the state who win awards in the Know Your Texas Contest, sponsored by the Texas Almanac and the Dallas Morning News.

The winners of the all-expense tour, the first of its kind to be conducted by the Texas Almanac and State Industrial Guide, will gather in Dallas on Saturday, June 8, for a dinner complimentary to the prize winners and their parents who might desire to make the trip with them to Dallas.

Other towns which are expected to extend invitations to the party will be visited.

The pupils will make a tour of Dallas on Sunday, June 9. Early on Monday, June 10, they will leave in two air-conditioned Bowen Motor Coaches for their circle around the state.

Accompanying them will be Arthur L. Maberry, deputy state superintendent at Tyler, Mrs. Maberry, and other attendants including a nurse. The WFAA sound truck will make the tour with the buses for broadcasting.

The tentative itinerary includes Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Vernon, Lubbock, Odessa, Pecos, the Davis Mountains, Fort Davis, the McDonald Observatory, and Alpine. The young travelers will follow Highway 90 into Sanderson and the Roy Bean country dipping into Mexico either at Del Rio or Eagle Pass. San Antonio will be reached either through Lyville or the Winter Garden section depending upon where the tour crosses the Rio Grande.

Present plans route the boys and girls through New Braunfels to Austin, where the Capitol, the University of Texas and other institutions will be visited. A stop will be made at the Lost Pine Park at Bastrop, and the tour will continue to LaGrange, the old Baylor University ruins, and Washington on the Brazos where the Texas Declaration of Independence was signed.

A visit to Houston, including San Jacinto battlefield and museum, and Galveston will be followed by a swing through the Piney Woods of East Texas probably via historic Huntsville and Nacogdoches, Lufkin where the new paper mill is situated, and the great East Texas Oil Field with stops at Henderson, Kilgore and Longview. The last leg of the journey will be through the rose garden country including Tyler, and Grand Saline where one of the nation's greatest salt mines is located.

The all-expense educational tour will be awarded to two pupils between the fourth and eleventh grades, inclusive in each of the twenty-four state supervisory districts of the state. The contest is based upon school use of the 1939-40 Texas Almanac and the State Industrial Guide. Each pupil who enters the contest must select and answer twenty of the 130 questions in a Guide Booklet, write a 100 word essay on how the Almanac and State Industrial Guide can help

Shelterbelt Trees Need Cultivation

Wichita Falls, April 19. (Special)—"It is easy to plant a tree right but in order to make it live, it must be cultivated," stated W. P. Webb, State Director of the Prairie State Forestry Project today. Mr. Webb was speaking of the trees in the Shelterbelts planted in Northwest Texas since 1936.

There will be approximately 1,850 million of shelterbelt at the completion of the planting season with over 14,000,000 trees in them. The trees are planted with the roots down in soil moisture, moisture that weeds of every type and description are greedily absorbing and robbing from the plants.

Knocking these weeds down—plowing them under before they get to any size, may mean the difference between a successful shelterbelt and a failure.

Mr. Webb urges every farm operator with a shelterbelt to get after those pesky weeds and get them now.

Chevrolet to Be Exhibited at Both Worlds Fairs

Final plans for Chevrolet's participation in the two 1940 Worlds Fairs have been completed, it has been announced by William E. Holler, general sales manager. Chevrolet will sponsor improved and enlarged exhibits in the General Motors displays in both the New York and San Francisco expositions.

In the East, the Chevrolet display will be designed to harmonize with the General Motors exhibit, highlight of which is the now famous Futurama. The 25-000,000th General Motors car, which is a Chevrolet, is among the features added to the New York exhibits.

In San Francisco, too, Chevrolet is arranging elaborate displays. It is completely redesigning its lay-out, employing unique mirror and light effects. Background for a car display is composed of golden mirrors mounted on a triangular frame. As these triangles turn and a new side is presented, the mirrors change in to a winter and then a summer scene, so that the car is presented in typical year-round backgrounds.

West Texas C.-C. Convention to Be Held May 16-17-18

Big Spring. — Red-letter dates on the West Texas calendar for May are Thursday-Friday-Saturday, the 16th, 17th and 18th. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be convening then—its 22nd annual session with Big Spring as host.

Though the convention is nearly a month away, things are happening nearly as rapidly as if the delegates were already thronging the hotel lobbies. Program has been announced for the first business session, a transportation group conference with Jerry Sadler, railroad commissioner, as the speaker. Details are in the making for an All-Youth Parade on Friday, May 17, in which more than 1,000 Boy Scouts, 4-H Club members and Future Farmers of America will march with banners proclaiming the blessings of the "American way of life." Mrs. Dorothy Lawrence and her Big Spring committee are working on the night shows—the annual convention Revue at which sponsors from West Texas towns are honored. It is announced the four night dances will be played by Joe Buzzze's orchestra of Waco and Floyd Graham's stage band from the North Texas State Teachers' College at Denton. In addition to all of this, convention committees have been appointed, and entries are pouring in from sponsors, the My Home Town contestants, and West Texas bands.

Tuberculin Skin Testing Programs Should Be Conducted

Sanatorium, April 23.—It is possible for a child to have tuberculosis and react negatively to the tuberculin skin test, according to Dr. J. B. McKnight, superintendent of the 1,000-bed State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, seventeen miles northwest of San Angelo.

Dr. McKnight explained that most infected children would react in a positive manner, but occasionally a child will have a negative reading. "Like other tests," said Dr. McKnight, "the tuberculin skin test is not infallible and children associated with advanced cases of pulmonary tuberculosis almost invariably receive the infection. Many of these children are in need of preventive treatment."

Dr. McKnight declared the tuberculin skin test is the best method for finding children infected with tuberculosis, and urged that tuberculin skin testing programs be conducted by schools throughout Texas. Positive reactors and children known to be closely associated with tuberculous adults should be separated immediately from the source of their infection, Dr. McKnight believes.

Dr. McKnight pointed out the State of Texas has spent more than $250,000 in erecting one of the largest and most modern children's hospitals in the South at the State Sanatorium to care for tuberculous children. Children admitted to the preventorium are removed from contact with tuberculous adults and are taught how to escape actual tuberculosis.

SENIOR DAY

Bax Johnson and Mrs. H. Johnson, the senior class mother, announced that the seniors are to go to Galveston for the high school at 4 p. m. today. During the class meeting Mrs. Johnson discussed some of the things that the seniors are expected to do, and Brown described some of the points of interest along the route to Galveston. Some have made arrangements to take the trip. The arrangements include $4.00 and you're looking for a scrap. You will see the seniors who will go to Galveston, that the seniors have been called off on account of the lack of money. The seniors have $25.00 from the merchandise they collected from sale of neighbor's trees. Wish the seniors may need it before their return.

Confucius says: In spring young man's fancy isn't he? Man who put clock on oven has hot time.

The teacher at Cherokee was trying to impress upon his class the advantages of "peace and disarmament."
 "How many of you boys object to war?" he asked.
 "Up went several hands."
 "Billy, will you tell the class why you object to war?"
 "Cause wars make history," replied Billy, soberly. (This was sent to Miss Cogdell through the mail.)

Think this over: Why was I born? Why am I living? What do I get? What am I giving?

CAT'S CLAW

Scratch, scratch—a new romance is springing out in dear ole CHS. Here it is, Betty Zeibig and Billy Owens.

Busy, busy, busy. That's what Marjorie Young is. She is busy listening to boys asking her for dates. I heard that Paul Vecera, Lowell Campbell, Simp Davis and Bill Owens asked her for dates to go to the "Freshman" picnic. Popular! That's not the word!

Boo, Hoo! Broken up! Yes, but definitely. That's what has happened to Bee Hughton and Jesse Whitfield. After such a long time, too. Who's fault could it be? We're very sorry!

What is it that attracts a certain group of girls to Margaret? It seems that several girls spent the day there last Saturday and did they have a good time! Whew! We want to know who that cute, classy little girl Hank Saunders was sporting around Saturday night? Could she have hailed from Paducah?

Poor "Lucille!" It was a pitiful looking sight, when I came to school this morning! It had been abandoned! The reason? A flat! Yes, already!

When you walk down the halls of ole CHS, you won't have to wonder why everybody is smiling. It's because they had such a wonderful time at the Junior-Senior banquet. It was a gala affair.

We, the Cat's Claw, would come out into the open with all their troubles so that we would not have to stay up so late at night looking for something printable! We want you to know right now that all we have said this year in this column has been for fun only! We hope there will be no hard feelings! Really, we do!

Watch for our names to appear in two more issues.

KITTY.

DID YOU KNOW—

That there are only three more weeks of school besides this one?

That there is still time to bring up those bad grades?

That it isn't too early to start studying for those ever fatal final exams that just will come in spite of themselves?

That it wouldn't hurt to smile at the teachers once in a while? After all, they are human. Almost!

That miracles do happen and if you start studying now you still might pass—if you aren't now?

Did you know all that? You probably did, but why not put it into action?

FRESHMEN CELEBRATE

The Freshmen class celebrated the coming of Spring Monday evening with a picnic at South Pocket Park. Fifty class members took part in such games as "Spud," "chicken wing," "bottle relay" and others, so that a big enough appetite was around to do justice to the picnic meal which consisted of sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, cookies, soda pop and ice cream.

Accompanying the Freshmen were the sponsor, Miss Mildred Cogdell, and the class mothers, Mrs. W. B. Tysinger, Mrs. E. A. Evans and Mrs. H. K. Edwards, and Mrs. Roy Archer, who also helped in the entertaining.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—Withdrawal of Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commissioner, and entrance of the Fergusons in the Governor's race, many political observers here believe, raises a serious question of the ability of Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel to win renomination for a second term as Governor of Texas.

The Fergusons, all observers agree, will poll a considerable vote. It may be substantially lower than the big votes they collected during Jim's hey-day as a campaigner, but nobody here is willing to discount Jim's past record when he or Ma are the candidates, despite their failure to deliver the vote to other candidates they have supported. Sadler, too, will cut off considerable numbers of votes that went to O'Daniel last time, with his appeals to the old folks and his extravagant promises of wider social security benefits.

Thompson's decision to run for congress in his home district, where Marvin Jones will step out to become a Federal judge, has greatly strengthened the position of Harry Hines, highway commissioner, since most students of the situation agree that Hines and Thompson would have divided the "conservative" group of thinking voters, while O'Daniel, Sadler and the Fergusons are appealing to much the same group.

Hines so far has kept strictly away from extravagant promises, and his advocacy of an omnibus tax bill that will raise a moderate amount of revenue to carry out the present social security program, appeals to common-sense voters, since the state's recent legislative history reveals that an omnibus bill, with the tax load distributed among natural resources and other lines of business, is the only important revenue raising legislation that has gotten by the Legislature in many years. Allred used it successfully to get revenue during his administration, and neither sales taxes nor "single-shot" tax bills could be pushed through the House and Senate. Many believe that the same situation prevails today.

Indications here are that the O'Daniel advisors are becoming worried about their candidate's re-election. O'Daniel's establishment of a campaign sheet, which he calls a newspaper, the sloppy publicity over the O'Daniel gesture to the churches, in connection with his flour company's certificate scheme, and his rather desperate efforts to make some political thunder with some of his appointments, are seen as indications the O'Daniel camp is beginning to wonder what may happen in July. O'Daniel still has some big business support, based on a hope for another two-year stalemate on taxes; but he has largely lost the small-town businessmen who hoped for a "business administration" and got a sales taxer. Big business is very handy to have around, when campaign financing is to be done, but little businessmen cast more votes, and influence more of their neighbors, than corporation officials.

New Chief Justice

The appointment of W. F. Moore, of Paris, chief assistant to Attorney General Gerald Mann, as chief justice of the State Supreme Court, placed an able lawyer on the state's highest court bench. It may also have created a friendlier feeling among the supporters of the Attorney General toward O'Daniel, Grover Sellers, former Court of Appeals Justice from Texarkana, succeeded Judge Moore as Mann's chief aid, and he likewise, is an able attorney with eminent professional standing. One of the secrets of the remarkable record Mann has made as the chief's law officer has been his ability to select and induce capable attorneys to serve on his staff at the meager pay which is allowed assistants to the Attorney General. Judge Moore must stand for election to serve out the unexpired term of the late Justice Cureton (two years), and it is indicated he will have opposition. But the appointment gives him a distinct advantage.

Garner's Chances Dimmer
 Myron Blalock, former State Democratic chairman, and the ablest politician in the Texas Garner camp, is gallantly carrying on with his efforts to secure an instruction for the Vice President from the May State Democratic convention, but the effort resembles the resistance of the Finns to the Russian invasion. The Roosevelt forces, after crushing victories in the primaries in Wisconsin, Illinois, New York and elsewhere, haven't left Blalock much to battle for in Texas, except a complimentary "favorite son" instruction to the Texas delegation. Regardless of whether you like it or not, the strength of the Roosevelt forces throughout the country is overwhelming, and the Garner boom simply hasn't caught on.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Peroxide of hydrogen will remove perfume stains from linen bureau scarfs.
 Equal parts of white vinegar and soft water and a few drops of perfume make a good astringent.
 Add two tablespoons of shortening to the griddle cake batter and it will not be necessary to grease the griddle.

Winning Form

Mrs. Floretta D. McCutcheon, 52, world's champion woman bowler, demonstrates her winning form in New York city alleys. She has called 10 perfect "300" games since she took up the sport at the age of 35.

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hastwell)

God Measures The Man: The prophet, Amos, spoke out against those of his time who accumulated great riches and lived in fine houses and oppressed the poor. It was not the purpose of Amos to condemn the possession of wealth but rather the misuse of it. There was nothing wrong in the acquisition and the possession of wealth 2,700 years ago when Amos prophesied, and there is nothing wrong in the acquisition and possession of wealth today. In the parable of the talents we are plainly taught that God expects man to make all that he can honorably make. God will not condemn anyone for the acquisition of, or possession of money, but he does hold responsible, men, for the wrong use of money. It is a common fault when this theme is discussed for us to think that God's condemnation against the misuse of money is directed only against those of large means. This is not true. The man with an income of only twenty dollars a week may be just as guilty of the misuse of money as the man with an income of a thousand dollars a week. It isn't a question of how much money one has, but to what use he puts that which he does have. The man of small means may be just as selfish, just as greedy, just as hard, as the man of great riches. God measures the man, not the money.

Junior-Senior Banquet, Crowning Social Event of High School Year, Held Thursday Evening, April 18

(By Mildred Cogdell)

The climax of the High School social year was reached at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, April 18, in the traditional annual Junior-Senior banquet. The affair was beautiful and entertaining and will long be remembered by those who attended.

In the basement of the Methodist Church, a veritable spring flower garden was created as a setting for the event. The tables were encased by would-be garden walls, which effect was given by salt cedar and other greens arranged over the sides of the room with flowers entwined. Guests entered under trellises covered in the same manner.

The platform was converted into a secluded garden spot and was the location for the Rhythm Ramblers of Vernon, who, through the courtesy of Ebb Seales, furnished music throughout the meal. Over the piano was a distinctive decorative feature, where, through a green background, the letters "C. H. S." brightly shone in red and white, the colors of the Senior class.

Canaries, placed throughout the banquet hall, added to the outdoor garden effect, with their frequent singing. The tables further carried the red and white color scheme. Red roses, red verbenas and white brides' wreath, were arranged at intervals down their length.

The programs were tiny red booklets, printed in white with white pages printed in red. Favours beside the plates were corsages of sweet peas made into quaint old-fashioned bouquets for the girls and a single blossom for the boys. The attractive red and white place cards were lettered by Truman Taylor, sophomore class president. Fruit drops, encased in white cellophane, were also placed at each plate.

The menu held the following delicious foods: fruit cocktail, baked ham, new potatoes, corn, green beans, pineapple salad, hot rolls, iced tea, brick ice-cream and cake, and was prepared by the Co-Laborers' Class of the Methodist Church and served by Sophomore girls of the Home-making department of the High School. The girls were attractively attired in white and wore red and white aprons and caps.

Billy Klepper, Junior class president, presided as toast master for the entertaining program which was opened with the invocation given by Rev. W. B. Fitzgerald. Joe Wallace Beverly, Junior class vice president, recognized the visitors and welcomed the Senior class members, honor guests. H. C. Brown, president of the Senior class, made the response. A very enjoyable part of the program was a sing-song led by S. Ozell Murdock, deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who was a special guest.

Following the meal, Thelma Lois Moore, Ruth Steele, Reed Sanders and Sammie Gene Mills sang "The End of a Perfect Day," accompanied by Mrs. Arnold Rucker. A clever class will was read by Joe Spencer and an equally clever class prophecy was given by Lois Pickett. Mr. Murdock sang "For You Alone," and an encore. Words of appreciation were given by A. Y. Olds and fitting remarks by Supt. I. T. Graves closed the program.

Places were laid for one hundred and forty guests, which list included the members of the Senior class; Mr. Murdock; the faculty of the High School and their guests; the president and the secretary of the school board and their wives; the Senior class mothers, and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brown and Mr.

Guests from Vernon Present Program For Harmony Club

The Musicians' Club of Vernon, represented by Mrs. L. D. Terrell, Mrs. W. P. Thomas, Mrs. L. A. Cummins, Miss Alljo Murchison and Miss Mattie Smith, presented a delightful program of Edward MacDowell's music at the meeting of the Harmony Club Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Kincaid, when Mrs. Kincaid, Mrs. Geo. Self and Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick were hostesses.

Mrs. Terrell was program leader and introduced the music with a biographical sketch of the noted American composer. She gave his early environment, stating that he was reared among the New Hampshire hills, and much of his music is expressive of the beauties of nature. Mrs. Thomas, who is president of the Vernon Club, played "A Scotch Poem" and "In a Post-Chaise," as piano solos.

Miss Murchison sang "Thy Beaming Eyes" and "A Robin Sings," and Mrs. Cummins sang "The Swan Bends Low" and "A Maid Sings Light." Both vocalists were accompanied by Mrs. Thomas.

Miss Smith played two numbers "From An Indian Lodge" and "To A Wild Rose."

Following the program tea was served from a spring-time table arranged in colors of green and white. A crystal bowl of bridal wreath, flanked with white candles in crystal holders, formed the attractive table decoration. Tea was poured by Mrs. A. L. Rucker, president of the local club. This was supplemented by a salad course, served by Mrs. Kincaid and Miss Kirkpatrick. A social hour followed the tea service.

The Right To Work

A civilization and an economic system which does not recognize its responsibility to answer this question of how work at a living wage can be furnished every individual, should be held in as great contempt as we used to hold the individual who had the attitude that he could go through life effortlessly and expect the world to look after him. — Eleanor Roosevelt writing in the Rotarian Magazine.
