Over Half of County's Red Cross Chapter Membership Quota Filled

Little more than half of the quota set for the membership of the Foard County Red Cross Chapter has been reached, according to information released by R. Seale, chapter Roll Call man. The local chapter's quota is 250 members.

More Workers Needed
Seale also announced that more workers are needed in this drive. Any person in the county or in any of the various communities of the county who is willing to volunteer for this work is invited to contact Mr. Seale as soon as possible.

Mr. Calloway has been slowed down due to cold weather which has set in this county last week. It is the aim of the workers to complete the drive which was continued until next week.

Co-Operation Urged
A telegram which was received from Mr. Seale from Norman H. Seale, national Red Cross chairman, this week follows:

The central committee today urged the greatly increased responsibility of the national Red Cross in the national and international programs, and that the program, civilian and military necessities, a very real membership increase. I am confident you and your associates will patriotically make an extra effort to reach every man and woman in your jurisdiction with invitation to join. Time is of the essence. The next two weeks are critical in determining the strength of the Red Cross for the critical months ahead."

Record of Local Wildcat End is Best in State

Associated Press Features Junior Haseloff Last Week

Junior Haseloff, end of the Crowell High School Wildcat eleven, jumped into prominence in Texas high school football circles when Harold V. Ratliff, Associated Press writer, picked up his outstanding gridiron record and spread it over the country to papers served by the Associated Press.

Following is a part of the article as written by Mr. Ratliff: "Crowell, Nov. 15 (AP)—As an end, Junior Haseloff is a star halfback—and vice versa. "The critics rave about John Kimbrough of the Texas Aggies (Continued on Page Five)

Todd Stars in Redskins' Win Over Chicago

Crowell Youth Takes Lead in National Pro League Scoring

Dick Todd of Crowell pulled another game from the fire for the Washington Redskins in their 7 to 3 victory over the Chicago Bears in Washington, D. C., last Sunday.

Todd scored the touchdown to put his team ahead with a sensational catch of a pass and a 20-yard sprint. Not only did he put his team ahead, but late in the game he saved their lead by dropping a Bear back on the Washington 1-foot line with a spectacular tackle.

They were all taken to a Floydada hospital for medical attention. Mrs. Hayden Ford was the most seriously injured as she received a broken collar bone and three ribs were also broken. She also suffered internal injuries. Mrs. Ford was brought to her home in Crowell Sunday.

America Celebrates Thanksgiving

Doubt fills the hearts of millions of men and women this week. In hundreds of thousands of homes bewildered Americans making plans for the dear familiar feast of Thanksgiving are asking themselves: Why? Why Thanksgiving? As human beings we would be callous to give thanks merely because we have been spared Europe's sufferings. That would not be Thanksgiving but smugness and complacency.

Should we give thanks then because our November skies are happily empty? Because our children play tag and football instead of digging air-raid shelters? Because our menfolk are safe with us on this day of days, secure at their own firesides? Because we have plenty on our tables?

Perhaps. All these things cannot fail to make us thankful. But the spirit of Thanksgiving, the consecration of the holiday itself, is also, and perhaps primarily, one of obligation. Thanksgiving calls upon us to share. It teaches us on this day that no one should go hungry. There are many things we cannot share at this moment with our fellow human beings across the ocean. We cannot share our abundance or our security, our peaceful churches, or our serene and happy homes. These are, unfortunately, beyond our power to give.

But we in America must realize that, perhaps alone of all the people on the earth, we have something at this moment with which an unhappy world will be desperately in need of sharing in the years to come when the guns are silent. And in giving thanks for the plentitude of these spiritual values which we possess, we must resolve anew to treasure and cherish them against that time.

We love peace. We love democracy. We believe the little man has a right to speak and be heard. Our sense of justice is as yet and forever, we hope, unclouded by passions. As a people we are generous. We are strangely imbued with the belief that every man deserves well at the hands of every other man—a belief which seems to be sadly out of date in much of the world.

We know that there is much of injustice in the Old World, a great deal of which stems back through confused years to harsh treaties, in themselves seedbeds of hate. We know now to our sorrow that these hatreds cannot be resolved save by the sword. Yet we like to feel that it could have been otherwise and we dare to hope it can be otherwise again.

But we must do more than hope. The time will come when the calm counsels of America will be desperately needed to bring not only a just peace but a merciful peace so that the world may again and for all time turn its back on war.

And so, at this time, on Thanksgiving, it is not enough that we give thanks to the benevolent Providence that has spared us. In our hearts we pray that we may be permitted to hold fast to all those fruits of two thousand years of civilized endeavor: Peace, Democracy, Justice for all men and all nations. These things blossomed once in the Western World. They will flower again, but only if we cherish the seed, ready to cast them, when the time comes, on scarred and hungry soil.

Judge C. Y. Welch Speaks at Legion Meeting Mon. Night

Judge C. Y. Welch of Quanah addressed American Legion members and friends at a gathering at the Deluxe Cafe Monday night when a banquet of fried oysters with hot mince meat pie as dessert was served at 7:30 o'clock. Judge Welch was accompanied by Mrs. Welch.

A. Y. Beverly, commander of the Gordon J. Ford Post of the American Legion, was in charge of the program. Others present besides active members of the local post were L. G. Andrews, Gilbert Lankford, Miss Elsie Vececa and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Klepper.

Judge Welch's talk concerned America and he stressed the urgent need of the present preparedness program to keep this nation a land of the free. He stated that "if people want to be Communists, they should be sent back to Russia where they belonged."

Talks were made by local Legionnaires in connection with the building up of the interest and membership of the local post. Present officers are: A. Y. Beverly, commander; Ebb Seales, vice commander; John Long, adjutant, and C. B. Graham, service officer.

NEW CAR REGISTRATIONS

The following new automobiles were registered in the office of the tax assessor-collector during the past week:

91st Birthday

The 91st birthday of J. G. Thompson was observed at his home in the Thalia community on Thursday, Nov. 14, where he has lived since 1886. Mr. Thompson has good health and is very active for a person of his age.

The Crowell High School Wildcats will close their 1940 football season when they meet the Throckmorton Greyhounds Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in what is headlined as the outstanding game in District 9-A this week.

Thanksgiving Game
This game was originally scheduled to have been played on Friday night but with the designation by the mayor of Thursday, Nov. 21, as Thanksgiving Day, officials of both schools agreed to play the game on Thursday afternoon.

Much in Store for Fans
Much will be in store for fans of the section attending this fracas because the meeting of the Wildcats and Greyhounds always gives much in the way of thrills and excitement.

During the past years these games have always been the hardest fought of any in the district. In 1939, the Greyhounds held a favored Wildcat team to a 7-0 score and in 1938 when the Crowell eleven ran rough-shod over the teams in winning the championship, Throckmorton gave the Wildcats their hardest game by holding them to a score of 19-0. The most heated contest ever played by these clubs was in 1937 when Crowell went to Throckmorton and the Greyhounds surprised everyone by holding the Wildcats to a one-point margin, 7-6.

Playing for Second Place
There are no championship hopes involved in the game Thursday afternoon, but just as much interest is being shown as Crowell and Throckmorton will be playing for second place. At present, the Wildcats are undisputed holders of second place in the conference standing, and Throckmorton is tied with Archer City for third place. But a Greyhound victory would throw Crowell and Throckmorton into a tie for second place.

Haseloff to be Watched
It is expected that fans will again be watching the play of Junior Haseloff, Crowell right end, since an Associated Press dispatch last week placed him as the leading average ground gainer in Texas schoolboy football and compared him with such stars as John Kimbrough of Texas A. (Continued on Page Five.)

Cotton Referendum Election Will Be Held December 7

All farmers who produced cotton in 1940 are eligible to vote in the December 7 referendum to determine if cotton marketing quotas will be in effect on the 1941 crop. H. R. Zeibig, chairman of the Foard County AAA committee, points out.

Under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, marketing quotas are applicable to all cotton except that with a staple length of 1 1/2 inches or more. Each 1940 cotton producer, whether owner, tenant, or sharecropper, will be entitled to one vote.

The County AAA Committee will be in charge of all arrangements for the referendum in the county, and the voting will be (Continued on Page Five)

Up until the present war no bassoon had ever been made in this country. These instruments were all made in Germany by hand, and, because of this fact no two had the same tone or were repairs and parts interchangeable.

With the coming of the war, manufacture of bassoons was begun by the Conn instrument company of Elkhart, Indiana. The fact that the American company will use mass production methods will result in a uniformity of the instruments, and interchangeable parts. The American made bassoon will sell for $395, compared with a price range of from $300 to $700 for the imported instruments.

In the late 20's when men suddenly ceased wearing separate collars and began to wear shirts with collars attached, the Cluett, Peabody & Co., makers of collars, found their business slipping rapidly away. The company turned to the manufacture of shirts, underwear, ties and handkerchiefs. Collars, which once represented the large part of the business, now represent but 8 per cent of the total volume. In 1931 Sanford L. Cluett invented the process known as Sanforizing. Sanforized fabric is guaranteed to shrink less than one per cent in a life time of wear and laundering. Cotton, linen, wool and rayon may be sanforized.

"Fisherman's Luck"

Hardy fishermen, dragging in their strong cotton net, bring in an unwanted catch—a floating mine—in this painting by the noted illustrative artist, Anton O. Fisher. Long known for its strength and endurance in the fishing industry, cotton likewise plays an important part in naval war, with cotton cellulose probably serving as the base for the explosive in the fisherman's mine. Clothing for sailors, canvas for deck coverings, cellulose for explosives—all are products of cotton.

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him.—James 1:5.

We note some concern is being expressed over the decreasing birth rate in this country during the past 25 years. This, we believe, is a matter that will adjust itself. The time will come when a new interest in babies will pervade the country and the birth rate will increase because the homes of the country want the babies. It is better that babies come to homes that actually want them and can care for them than it is that they come into the homes where they are not wanted and where the means for caring for them are lacking.

Hitler, who started out to conquer the world, is already calling on every nation to help him, who will listen to him.

The army, it is reported, will need 4,000 nurses. Here is a job for 4,000 girls.

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

It is a common thing today to hear public speakers and writers say that they deplore the modern trend and say that the country is going to the dogs because of the breakdown of the modern home. Purveyors of this type of doctrine point out that divorce is on the increase, that there are more broken homes than there has ever been in the history of the country. They deplore the fact that the young people are not content to sit around the house after the sun goes down until bed time, buried in Pilgrim's Progress or some similar classic, or engaged in knitting or piecing quilts. They deplore the fact that young people prepare to go to the village picture show, a neighboring dance, or a car ride over the smooth highways. This, they say, is evidence of decadence, and a breakdown of the moral fibre.

The fact that father and mother have a few outside interests that take their minds off the monotony of routine is an evidence that home life, as it has been known in the past, is on the way out, that it is gradually disappearing from the American way of life.

I do not join in the fear that the American home is on the way out, or that because of present day American home life, the country is headed for the rocks. It is true that both parents and young people spend less time at home of an evening than did their parents and grandparents. It is true that few young people are content to remain at home after the evening meal and bury themselves in a book, to knit, or to piece quilts. It is also true that few parents are content to remain at home every evening and compel their children to remain at home and sit in a group about the family fireside reading, studying or quietly working.

I do not deny that there might be some virtue to such a practice. It might result in a group of children all growing up to be fine, moral, high principled industrious men and women. Such a practice, however, does not guarantee that such will be the result.

I believe that times have changed and that we are never going back to the old way of doing things. The homes of this country are never going back to the old customs, however commendable and desirable they might have been. I believe that the new age is here to stay, and that the basic integrity of the human race is going to be sufficient to meet the new conditions and the new demands, and build out of it a race of people just as strong, just as sturdy, just as moral, just as ethical, just as high principled, just as honest, just as industrious, as came out of the homes of fifty and seventy-five and more years ago, in which existed all of the things which the critics of all the present order seem to believe are necessary and fundamental in home life.

In fact, I question if the homes of fifty and seventy-five years ago would fit young people for the new order and the new scheme of living as well as does the modern home with its wide variety and contacts, imperfect though it is in many ways. I have faith in the new order.

UP TO HIS OLD TRICKS

Eagles Win District 9-A Championship

The Chillicothe Eagles won the District 9-A championship last Thursday night with their 19 to 0 victory over the Seymour Panthers, while at the same time the Crowell Wildcats were dumping the Iowa Park Hawks, 18-8, to win undisputed command over second place.

However, the Wildcats must have a victory over the Throckmorton Greyhounds here Thursday afternoon to take second place. A Greyhound victory would throw the two clubs into a tie, as Throckmorton is at present tied with Archer City for second place.

Last Week's Results: Crowell 18, Iowa Park 8, Chillicothe 19, Seymour 10, Archer City 0, Throckmorton 0.

This Week's Games: Throckmorton at Crowell, Archer City at Seymour, Holliday at Iowa Park.

Local Gridders Overpower Iowa Park, 18 to 8

Fans Brave Icy Winds To See Wildcats Win Over Hawks Thurs.

Coach Grady Graves' Crowell Wildcats spent more than two quarters in beating down a stubborn Hawk defense before winning their sixth District 9-A conference game at Iowa Park last Thursday night by a score of 18 to 8.

Cold, icy weather hampered the play of both elevens during the game, however, the Hawks, running true to form, had their fun in the first half and held an 8 to 6 lead at the half time. Warmed up and pepped up, the Wildcats swung into their stride to completely dominate the game within a short time after the kickoff opened the second half.

For the first time this year, the Wildcats showed that they really had a passing combination. The Crowell boys tried 15 passes, completed 9 for 163 yards. Three throws were incomplete and one was intercepted.

The Wildcats led the Hawks in first downs and yardage gained throughout the entire playing time.

Hawks Take Safety

Crowell took the opening kickoff with Olds returning the ball from the 8 to the 35, and from there the Wildcats rolled down to the Hawks' 42 and Ownbey punted to the 25. With Banks' return of 15 yards, Iowa Park took over on their 40 and a few plays later Barbour kicked to the Crowell 3 and Olds returned to the 10. The Wildcats picked up 10 yards but a 15-yard holding penalty set them back to their 5. On the following play, Crowell attempted to kick out of danger, but the ball got away from the center and went over Ownbey's head and off the playing field to give Iowa Park a safety.

The Hawks returned the following kickoff from their 48 to the Crowell 45 and drove to the 34 before having to punt. The end down last Sunday, which was his 8th. Following is a part of an Associated Press release of Tuesday:

"Dodging Dick Todd, a mite among mountainous men, is proving that you can weigh 165 pounds and play with the best of them in the National Professional Football League.

"He's the toughest little man in football," said George P. Marshall, president of Todd's team, the Washington Redskins.

"If ever a little man stood out among the others in a football game, it was Dodging Dick as the Redskins nosed out the Chicago Bears, 7-3.

"There have been several small men who can go with the best of them on defense," Marshall said, "but you don't see many of them standing out on offense."

"Todd scored the Redskins' touchdown against the Bears when he caught a pass from Frank Filchock and dodged his way through five Bear tacklers.

"Later he saved the game by catching George McAfee from behind and bringing him down feet from the goal line.

"Todd is playing his second season with the Redskins and is leading the league in scoring, having made eight touchdowns."

Todd, up until the game last Sunday, was second with average yards gained with 6 yards per try, and was second in pass catching. Statistics have not been released since the last game.

On October 24 the 40 hour week began to apply to those industries coming under the provisions of the Wage-Hour law.

Mills Gallops 49 Yards

The Wildcats were forced to kick and Iowa Park started an offensive that was to bring a touchdown. The Hawks advanced the ball to the Crowell 49, and Mills, speedy halfback, sprinted through right tackle and reversed his field to gallop 49 yards to the goal line. Barbour's place kick was no good but Crowell was trailing 8 to 0.

Wildcats March for Score

Deciding that something had to be done quick the Wildcats launched a 61-yard drive to close the margin in the score. Olds returned the kickoff from the 8 to the 39. Hudgeons took a beautiful pass from Gibson to place the ball on the Hawks' 24. On three plays, Olds carried to the 8 and an offside penalty against Iowa Park put the ball on the 4. Olds lost a yard, but on the next try he carried to the 1 and then plunged through left tackle to cross the goal line. Olds' kick was low and partially blocked.

Crowell kicked the ball to the Hawks' 22 and Banks fumbled on his 38 and Crowell recovered. The Wildcats drove to the Hawks' 8 yard line and lost the ball there on downs, however, Crowell missed a first down here by only a fraction of an inch.

Wildcats Take Lead

Crowell took the opening kickoff of the second half with Olds returning the ball to the 27 and from there the Wildcats marched 63 yards for a touchdown which was climaxed with Crowell's first outstanding passing attack of the season.

A running attack featuring Olds and Haseloff carried the ball to the Hawks' 30. Gibson passed to Haseloff who took the ball over the goal line, but the officials brought it back to the 11 where they ruled that Haseloff stepped out-of-bounds. Olds made 5 and Haseloff lost 3. Gibson shot a quick pass to Haseloff for 9 yards and a touchdown. Olds' place-kick was again low, but the Wildcats were leading 12-8.

Barbour fumbled the kickoff on his 42 and Crowell recovered. Olds passed to Hudgeons for 15 yards. Gibson lost 1 and then picked up 10. Crowell received a clipping penalty to put the ball on the 25. Gibson passed to Haseloff for 17 yards. Olds fumbled to stop Crowell's threat and Iowa Park recovered. On their only scrimmage of the third period, the Hawks picked up 9 yards.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Hawks gave Crowell a scare when Mills intercepted a Wildcat pass and returned it about 35 yards to the Crowell 31 before being dragged down. Here the Crowell boys threw a stiff defense and Barbour got off a short, out-of-bounds kick to give Crowell the ball on its own 25.

54-Yard Quick Kick

The Wildcats failed to gain on two tries and the toe of Gibson brought Crowell off of a spot when he booted a quick kick over the Hawks' safety man. The ball was killed 59 yards from the line of scrimmage to place the Hawks on their own 21. Barbour got off another short punt and Crowell took over on the Iowa Park 40. From here the Wildcats scored their last touchdown. Haseloff circled right end for 12 and Olds skirted left end for 28 yards to the Hawks' 6. Olds made 4 and then failed to gain. On the next play, Olds drove through the line for the score. Gibson passed incomplete to Haseloff to place the score at 18-8.

Shortly after this score, the toe of Gibson was called upon to put the Hawks deep in their own territory. Crowell took possession of the ball on its own 46 by virtue of Olds interception of a pass. Gibson got off another quick kick which rolled over the goal line 54 yards away.

With the Hawks so deep in their own territory, Coach Grady Graves turned the remaining minutes of play over to his second stringers.

The Haskell County boys started scoring about midway of the first period and were leading 20 to 2 at the half.

A. Smith led the offensive attack for the Truscott lads by scoring their lone touchdown on a pass from Massingill and accounted for one safety and assisted Captain Cook in another.

Truscott finishes the conference season with its game in Benjamin on Wednesday afternoon. Mattson and Vera, both undefeated in conference play, tangle at Mattson Thursday afternoon for the conference title.

late in the first period after recovering a fumble on the Redskins' 38. They pushed the ball to the 30 and Jack Manders booted the ball between the goal posts.

In the second period, Filchock passed to Todd on the Bears' 22 and Todd dodged five would-be tacklers and raced for a touchdown. Bo Russell kicked the extra point.

The Bears battered at the goal line all during the second half but were never able to penetrate the Redskins' goal-line defense and with one play late in the game the Bears nearly took the game and were turned back by Todd. Twenty-five seconds remained when McAfee took a pass on the Redskins' 12 and was nailed one-foot short of pay dirt by Todd.

Wildcats Favored
The Crowell Wildcats will be slightly favored in the game here Thursday and his nod from the dopsters comes from the comparison of the records of the two teams. The margin of Crowell's advantage is cut deeply due to the fact that the Greyhounds have never paid much attention to hope when they tackle the Wildcats.

Last Game for 12
This game will be the last high school football game for twelve Wildcats and nine of these boys are starters.

The Wildcats finishing their high school careers with the game Thursday afternoon are as follows:
A. Y. Olds, who has filled the quarterback spot for the Wildcats this season. This is his second year with the Gravesmen, having been a reserve last year. Olds is one of the outstanding backs of the district and is the Wildcats' leading ground gainer and scorer.
Leroy Gibson, right halfback, who is finishing his third year with the Crowell team. Gibson was a regular last year and his football knowledge and experience has been very valuable to his team. A left-hander, Gibson has headed Coach Graves' passing attack and is an excellent quick kicker. He has made kicks ranging 68 yards, 54 yards and on down.

Bill Ownbey, right halfback, is also finishing his third season with the Wildcats. Ownbey, like Gibson, is a jarring blocker and is one of the hardest runners of the conference. Ownbey is the best punter uncovered by Coach Graves in some time. He is a good "coffin corner" and long distance kicker. His average is among the best in the district.
Duane Capps, fullback, is playing his first and only year with the Wildcats. Transferring into the school district, Capps was ineligible for play last year but was ready for competition this year. He fit into Coach Graves' backfield nicely because of his weight and speed, and nicely carrying out the duties of a team's unsung hero spot; that of the blocking back. He has played in every game this season and figured in Crowell's victories this year.
Junior Haseloff, right end, is also finishing his only year with the Wildcats, but during this season he has become one of the outstanding ends of the state. Not only is he one of the finest defensive ends to be found in high school football, but he has a better average yardage gain than any back in the state.

W. D. Hudgsons, left end, leaves the club after two years. He is also a powerful defensive end and figures in Coach Graves' massing attack. With his loss, the Wildcats are without a seasoned end for next year and this is likely to be one of Coach Graves' biggest headaches in forming the next Crowell team.
Joe Wells, center, arose from the Wildcats reserve list of last season to become the finest pivot man of the district and possibly the section. Wells has not been outplayed by an opponent this carried out as in any other election. Mr. Zeibig says. The committee will choose 3 local farmers to serve as the referendum committee in each community. Convenient voting places will be provided for all communities where cotton is produced.

The county committee will designate the voting place in each community and see that a ballot box is provided at the polling places. Voting places will be open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on the day of the referendum. Voting will be by secret ballot, which means that each farmer will mark his ballot privately as in other elections.

"The question to be decided December 7 is whether marketing quotas will be used in connection with the 1941 cotton crop," Mr. Zeibig states. "If two-thirds of the voting farmers approve, quotas will be in effect and will apply to all States, counties and communities where cotton is produced."

He urges Foard County farmers to consider the quota provisions and the present cotton situation closely and to vote their own convictions. He emphasizes that, regardless of how they vote, all eligible growers should cast their ballots to make the vote as representative as possible.

TO FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Carroll and W. W. Carroll of McKinney spent the week-end with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Roy Archer, and Mr. Archer and family. On Sunday the entire party went to Olustee, Okla., to attend the 76th birthday celebration of R. G. Carroll's brother, W. T. Carroll. There were 56 in attendance at the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll and their son returned to McKinney Monday.

The DuPonts control a fortune estimated at five billion dollars, of which $565,000,000 is in stock of 200 different corporations, which in turn control General Motors Corporation.

He plays as a roving center to back the line and watch passes. His defensive play, in spite of his 136 pounds, is as good as any center Crowell has produced.
Much can be said about the play of Daniel Brisco, guard. Never has he complained about jolts and jars received in his blocking duties and defensive play. He has received little praise for his excellent work this year and has done more toward Crowell's excellent record than could be seen from the sideline. His teammates have nothing but praise for this scrapping Wildcat and he is as good a guard as can be found in the district.
Another player who has had a lot of experience and will be difficult to replace is Murrell Diggs, tackle. Diggs has been listed as a tackle but has been doubly valuable to his team due to his ability to fill either tackle or end position and has even played a little in the backfield. He has also done kicking from placement to put the ball in play and has done much good with his toe by placing the ball deep in opponents' territory. Diggs is finishing his second year with the Crowell club.

From the reserves of the team, there will be Ralph Flesher, Wilburn Davidson and Maurice Naron leaving the club. Flesher has seen a lot of service during his only year with the Wildcats and has been valuable because he was a strong reserve. Davidson saw service at an end position and with the scarcity of wingmen next year, his loss will be keenly felt. Naron played as a reserve in the backfield, however, like all backfield reserves he was forced to remain on the sideline most of the time, but his speed aided a tiring backfield when he got into action.

with his 449, but, after all, Kimbrough only has to play full-back and besides it required 120 tries to roll up that yardage.

"Haseloff holds down two positions for Crowell High School. "In the first place he's the greatest wingman in this school's history. In the second place he is the top average ground gainer of Texas schoolboy football—in which about 20,000 youngsters participate.

"In the third place he needed only 41 tries to make 437 yards, just one-third of Kimbrough's carry and only 12 yards short of his total.

"While he isn't doing the blocking and tackling, the 170-pound Haseloff whirls to the other side on an end-around play.
"In addition to his average of almost 11 yards per try, he has caught eight passes for 139 yards and has scored 36 points, which would be a mighty good season for a halfback."

The farthest point from which it has been learned which the Associated Press story featuring Haseloff was used, was Washington, D. C. A clipping from the Washington Evening Star was received here this week from a girl in that city.

WHAT THE CCC IS DOING

Fifteen hundred CCC camps, each containing 200 boys, staffed with men trained in administrative and executive duties, provide employment, training, and health surroundings for 300,000 boys the year round. Over 2,750,000 have been members of the Corps since its organization in April of 1933; in Texas alone, over 135,000 have been selected, returning to their families over $40,000,000.00.

Each County Welfare Agency has the responsibility to carefully select only the very best available boys; those with anti-social ideas are not desired as members of the CCC. Good citizenship is stressed and boys are returned home with a greater understanding of their responsibilities, trained to work, healthy and ambitious as a result of having been members of the Corps. In our national preparedness one of the first needs is to have strong, healthy and alert citizens, and this is what is being accomplished by the CCC. Their outdoor life tends to toughen and build them up and become immune to diseases. The educational programs develop their minds and awaken ambitions toward the better things—the American way of life.

Applications for enrollment in January should be made at once with the County Welfare Worker.

Co-operation to Control Venereal Diseases Announced

Austin.—The Texas State Health Department will co-operate with the Army, Navy and United States Public Health Service in active control of venereal disease in areas where armed forces and national defense employees are concentrated.

Dr. Cox pointed out that "infections among military personnel originate in the civilian communities. Recent experience indicates that the venereal disease rate in a given military command reflects the efficiency of the venereal disease control program in adjacent communities."

"Effectively carried out," Doctor Cox said, "the eight-point cooperative program will contribute substantially to the physical fitness of men in the armed and industrial defense forces."

Doctor Cox quoted statistics showing that 350,000 officers and men—the equivalent of 23 divisions of 15,000 men each—were treated for venereal disease during World War I. "More than six-and-a-half million man-days were lost to the Army because of syphilis and gonorrhea. Much of that lost time could have been avoided," Doctor Cox emphasized, "if facilities had been provided for proper venereal disease control."

COTTON ALLOTMENTS

College Station, Nov. 18.—Barving unforeseen circumstances, every cotton farmer in Texas will be notified of his 1941 cotton allotment prior to the Southwide marketing quota referendum December 7.

The task of informing counties in the state of their allotments and the subsequent breakdown of the county allotments for the individual farms is well under way, E. N. Holmgreen, state AAA administrative officer in charge, has announced. In a series of district meetings over the state this month, the AAA official is urging the county committees to make every effort to notify producers of allotments.

In general, allotments under the 1941 program are running about the same as under the 1940 program, Holmgreen said. In most cases the allotment for each farm in a county is a fixed percentage—uniform for the county or administrative area—of the farm's cropland. No allotment will be less than 50 per cent of the 1937 planted plus diverted acreage, provided that no allotment is thereby increased to more than 40 per cent of the farm's cropland. No allotment, however, will be larger than the highest cotton acreage planted and diverted in any of the past three years.

Purpose of the referendum December 7 is to determine if marketing quotas for cotton will be in effect in 1941. To become effective, quotas must be approved by two-thirds of the cotton producers voting in the referendum. All persons who shared in a cotton crop in 1940, with a few exceptions, are eligible to vote.

Christian Science Thanksgiving Services

The annual Thanksgiving Day Service of Crowell Church of Christ, Scientist, (or the Christian Science Society), will be held at 11 o'clock, Thursday morning, November 28, 1940. Similar Thanksgiving Day Services are held by The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and its branches throughout the world. The order of service includes the reading of a Lesson-Sermon on the topic of "Thanksgiving." Opportunity is also offered those present to give testimonies appropriate to the occasion.

The Golden Text is: "Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness" (Psalms 97:12).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say Rejoice... Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God" (Philippians 4:4, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Whatever inspires with wisdom, Truth, or Love—be it song, sermon, or Science—blesses the human family with crumbs of comfort from Christ's table, feeding the hungry and giving living waters to the thirsty" (page 234).

Made Nigh to God

Text—But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.—Ephesians 2:13.

The Bible teaches us that man was made in God's image, that is, God-like, and therefore destined for the highest happiness and the greatest good. We need neither the witness of the Bible nor of history to tell us that something went wrong—certainly not with God, but with man. We need only consider the tragic present and the ominous future to understand this. For we seem to have hit the bottom in baseness, selfishness, savagery, ungodliness of all sorts in this the twentieth century.

What caused this separation between God and man which brought man so low? "Your iniquities," says the prophet, "have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you" (Isa. 59:2). Man cannot live and be "himself" without God. To be separated from God means to be without that Godlikeness which was originally part of man. It left when sin came in. With sin came the devil. And the devil has dominated human life and action ever since. As Paul puts it: They "changed the truth of God into a lie" (Rom. 1:25); they refused to have God in their knowledge, and God gave them up to their "being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness," envy, murder, hatred of God (vv. 28-30).

Yet God devised a way to bring men near to Him again and restore His image in them. He couldn't do it His own purpose or deny His great love by leaving man to himself. We are made nigh in Christ Jesus, by His blood which blots out our sins, restores us to God, and makes us like Him once more—partakers of the divine nature.

But it makes us near to each other, too. Enmity with God makes men enemies among themselves. Nothing is plainer than this. Only in proper relationship to God can men be in proper relationship to each other. It breaks down all barriers. The Holy Spirit came down on Pentecost to form a new fellowship among men. All classes, and colors, and climes met and mingled on equal terms bound by a common love and purpose. In Christ there was to be neither Jew nor Greek, bond nor free, but Christ was all in all.

There is only one hope for men and for the world. Men must get back to God. Thank God there is a way—the blood of Christ which draws us near to Him and to each other in love. How desperately the world needs it! It is the only way, and every one must choose it for himself. Have you chosen that way?

Christian Science Services

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 24.

The Golden Text is: "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard; which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved" (Psalms 68: 9).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (II Corinthians 5:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Hold thought steadfastly to the enduring, the good, and the true, and you will bring these in—your experience proportionate to their occupancy of your thoughts" (page 261).

Wisconsin Turns Waste Lands Back to Woods and Streams

Far from a loss, reforestation of more land than the entire area of Massachusetts is actually showing Wisconsin a profit, William F. McDermott writes in the current Rotarian Magazine. Over one-seventh of the state is now withdrawn from maul gainful use—permanently.

"What happened is part of Wisconsin's ingenious plan to save money; to improve the health, education, and opportunities of its rural population; and to restore its natural resources by acquiring wilderness settlements and submarginal cutover farms on a vast scale," Mr. McDermott relates. "It is done by tax delinquencies and abandonment, by purchase and trade, and by turning the land back to Nature."

In one instance, Mr. McDermott shows, the purchase of one struggling community cost the county $7,500 an (saved a total of $21,600 in cost of schools, roads, and relief annually. The community had paid $276 in taxes.

This attack on the problem is made possible by Wisconsin's unique zoning law which, as Mr. McDermott says, "permits, but does not compel, counties to regulate an undesired their land to forestry, agriculture, and recreation."

Where Nine School Children Died

Nine school children died here in a fire which destroyed a mission school in Breathitt county, in the hills a little distance from Jackson, Ky. The school, known as "Little Mission," was maintained by the missionaries and was undenominational. The children who died were in their beds on the second floor when the fire started.

Washington, Nov. 20. — The eyes of the American public was brought from all parts of the world to the general election. GREETINGS

As Thanksgiving nears, once again we turn to old friends and to newly made ones . . . to thank them. We are grateful for their praise along the way . . . for their boosts in our behalf . . . and for their earnest and helpful criticism.

A VISION INTO THE FUTURE

The years have rolled around, until the date is 1960, and Hecate (queen of the witches, you know), has mounted her broom-stick, and then to the sky! Whee-o-e!! Her mission? Ah, and what a mission! She has undertaken a very interesting errand. She is traveling the world over, and taking a peep at all the graduates of 1941 to see what they are doing in the year 1960. She has to travel far and wide, ah yes, for the graduates of CHS all make history in this old world of ours. "Specially the 1941 class!"

By the way, the broom stick is the very latest in modern broom sticks. Only the best witch society can afford them! You should see Hecate's! A yellow convertible broom stick with a three-toned horn. To say nothing of a collapsible ice box. And guess what? Press a button—what happens? Zzzzzzz—and there's hot water! Chee, what'll they think of next? The very latest indeed in broom sticks. (Only thing it won't do is—sweep. Aw, who cares?)

Do you wish to take a look at that log-book that Hecate carries under her arm? You do? Then you may!

She's keeping a record of where they (the former seniors) are, what they are doing at the time she visits them, and what they have to say, if any!

Let's read!

Groesbump, Alaska: Harvey Crosnoe, well known gold prospector, who has just hit the jackpot. And after 25 years, too! Says he: "At last! Now I can buy some tobacco!" Mr. Crosnoe retired from teaching agriculture.

Hollywood, Calif.: Dotie Pickett. Known to her box office public as Hedy La Smear, has taken the place in pictures of Mae West. Remark: "M'Up 'n see muh sum' time-Sucker!" (One look, and you will go!)

Allsaints Ville, Tenn.: Betty Kinsey, Home Economics teacher in Allsaints Ville High School on week days, helps operate "Aunt Hester's Kindergarten" on Saturdays, teaches Sunday School in Little Red Church on Sunday, and—unknown to her friends, owns half interest in "Slug's Pool Hall." Remark: "I'm going to retire next fall and start a crusade against beer!"

THANKSGIVING

At no time since our first Thanksgiving have the people of the United States had so much to be thankful for. Peace. What a small word; yet so big and significant.

Since we have shown ourselves willing to do away with tradition by electing our president for a third term, why not co-operate with our president and celebrate the Thanksgiving that he has set aside. It should make no difference what day we give thanks for our blessings. After all, we are known as one people, united—why not live up to our name?

WHY TEACHERS GET GRAY

Six Weeks Tests have just passed. (Whew!) and papers have been graded. For your enjoyment (but not ours) we have collected a list of answers and definitions that didn't pan out. Donated from Ancient History:

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)
The Faith of a Child: I recall what faith I had as a small child in my father. To me he was omnipotent. There was no one stronger, there was no one kinder, there was no one as wise in all the world. Before I knew that things were bought with money earned by toil I felt that he was able to provide anything I might ask for, or need, or desire. When ever childish troubles or fears came I could quiet them all by going to him. In the darkness I was unafraid if he was there. When the fury of the storm lashed the scene, and the fierce, forked lightning burned in the inky sky and the thunder rolled and crashed I was unafraid if he was present. His presence calmed every fear, soothed every pain, healed every sorrow. This, I have often thought since, is the relationship that God desires his people shall have with Him, the same faith, the same trust, the same assurance that He will provide and that He will not fail. That neither darkness, nor storm, nor doubt, nor fear need have any terrors for one who has faith in God, like unto the faith of a child has in his father.

A GOING AWAY AFFAIR

Were you there? Of course you were. Practically everyone was there. Yes, I mean Thelma's going away party. It was a dance at O'Connell's. Everyone danced until their feet felt as if they were dead chunks of wood. The cause of the party was depressing since it meant that Thelma was leaving. She was given a necklace and an Old Spice Set. In the length of time she was here she made many true friends. Here's to you, Thelma!

TOOTSIE'S GONE

Say! What's the matter with everyone? Why do you all look so downhearted? Ooooo! Thelma's gone. Yes, gone! She came into our lives several weeks ago. She scarcely caused a ripple, she fitted into our school so well, but now that she is gone she has left a huge vacant place. Thelma, we miss you. Wherever you are, whatever you may do, remember that we will always be thinking of you.

MISCELLANEOUS THINGS ABOUT MISCELLANEOUS PEOPLE

Craig Sandlin seems to be quite a knock-out to some people (including me).

Seems as though a certain 6 boys got a little too hungry at Wanda Evans' party Saturday night, so as a remedy they just "snuck out" one of her gift boxes of candy and "et" it all up. Boys! You ought to be ashamed.

Craig Sandlin is really (Oh! "Seuse me, I've used him in this column once).

Mary Edwards really thinks she is strutting some because she got to step out with a certain football hero. Don't get up too high, Edwards—ever heard the story of the Three Little Bulls? (Don't let him feed you a line of bull!) Remember?

Ethel Hope Brown and Roy Joe Cates seem to be making corners on two wheels these days. Get it? (One handed driving).

Helen Crews entertained a group of her friends with a party Monday night. Oh, boy!

Say! Virginia Thomas seems to be losing her suitcase—pardon me, I mean grip. Hold tight Fay—you're sinking fast.

Jean Orr apparently is "off" boys for life—hard luck, Jean.

We were really sorry to bid Thelma Wylie a fond farewell. We bade her goodbye Saturday morning. Too bad, boys!

Bonita Liles has really changed. She seems quite interested in a certain Rev. Holt.

LARGEST EX-SENIOR BANQUET IN HISTORY

On Monday night, the eighteenth of November, the most gala affair of the season, or as far as that is concerned, of many seasons, took place in the Crowell Banquet Lodge. It was not only the most colorful, the most gay, the most beautiful, but the most exciting and interesting occasion ever to be witnessed. The delightful program was planned by the witty persons of Lila Fay Hudgens, Leota Murphy, Lou Martin, Mary Tamplen, Ray Burrow, H. C. Payne, Betty Johnson, Theda Wright, Charles Davis, Rudolf Halencak and Dorothy Greening. The master of ceremonies was none other than that "genial gentleman," Joe Wells!

Never did you hear more amusing anecdotes than those told by Mr. Harry Harwell, the first on the program. Then who should sing a solo entitled, "Our Love Affair," an old favorite, but our lovely "nightingale," Miss Sammie Gene Mills, who is the director of the "A Cappella Choir of America," that travels over the United States and will soon begin a tour of the world. Neomi Teal, famous ballet dancer and our "home town" girl, did for us, her favorite and the world's favorite ballet dance, "The Dance of the Rose." "Zoga," the great magician from Chicago, performed some amazing tricks, that to everyone seemed more like miracles.

In Crowell, Zoga is known as H. A. Phillips. Mrs. "Zoga" is the former Ludell Murphy. A comical skit was given by the vaudeville stars, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Owens. Mrs. Owens was our Mark Curtis before her recent marriage. Miss Reed Sanders (her pen-name), widely-read and known foreign correspondent, told of her experiences in the war in the Far East. She was flown here by her aviator and explorer husband.

A nursery was kept in the room at the back of the banquet hall by Mrs. Milton Evans, former Miss Joann Gentry. Little Jesse Mark III seemed to be the most advanced for his age. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill Jr. Like father, like son! (Oh, yeah!)

SHOCKS of grain in a moonlit field . . . Pumpkins . . . Turkey . . . Fruit. Those are the symbols of Thanksgiving, handed down by our ancestors. Today, though, we can be thankful for much besides a bountiful harvest . . . thankful for the American way of living that has grown out of private initiative and enterprise . . . thankful for the Freedom which has been inherited from those ancestors through reverence for the Constitution.

● And we can be thankful for the modern comforts of every-day home life provided by Electric Service, which has been made both plentiful and cheap. This is our contribution to Thanksgiving, this plus jobs for a thousand men and women and almost one-half million dollars annually in taxes.
