Fourth Registration, Men from 45 to 65, Will Be Held in Foard County Monday, April 27; Time, 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.

All men between the ages of 45 and 65 in Foard County will register under the Selective Service Act on Monday, April 27, at the places designated below, according to information released this week by J. R. Beverly, chairman of the local Selective Service board.

Registration booths open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., and the men in charge are as follows:

Crowell, court house, L. A. Andrews; Foard City, club house, J. R. Halbert; Margaret, Bradford's store, H. L. Ayers; Thalia, school house, A. B. Wisdom; Vivian, Carroll's Station, Harry Easley; Good Creek, school house, A. L. Davis; Rayland, Gin office, J. H. Robertson. Governor Coke Stevenson has issued a proclamation calling upon all men in this state who had attained their forty-fifth birthday before Feb. 16, 1942, and have not attained their sixty-fifth birthday on April 27, 1942, to register as of their home address.

General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service director, pointed out this week that although the men affected by this registration are not liable for military service under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, they will be registered in the same manner as men who enrolled in previous registrations.

Local boards will conduct the registration with the assistance of volunteer registrars, and will record the same information on registration cards as was required in the first three registrations. Registration cards will be buff in color and there will be no substantial change in form.

General Page also said that since registrants are not liable for military service, there will be no national lottery and no order numbers will be assigned, although the registration cards will be serially numbered by local boards. Any person in doubt as to whether or not he must register should consult the proper registration officials and register if they deem it advisable.

Our Soldier Boys

With this week's issue, The News is starting a new feature which it hopes will be of much interest to the readers. It is a Soldier Boy column and will contain news concerning the whereabouts and activities and the comings and goings of the sons and daughters of Foard County residents who are serving their country in any of the many branches of the service.

Of course, only news which is deemed advisable to print, will be published, for it is indeed the desire of this publication to adhere strictly to the regulations of the government on publicity. In order to make the column as interesting and newsy as we hope it will be, we are asking the help of all families with representatives in the service, and will appreciate it very much if they will drop by and tell us or write us a note or call up over the telephone, when they have news of interest to others.

Edward Gafford, who is in the mechanical division of the U. S. Air Corps at Randolph Field, San Antonio, has recently been promoted to Sergeant. When Edward first enlisted in the Army two years ago in July, he was connected with the Cavalry, and last October he transferred to the Air Corps.

Pfc. Leland E. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Porter, who is stationed at Fort Bliss, near El Paso, is at home on a ten-day furlough. He has been at Fort Bliss for three years and is in the 1st Field Artillery. Mr. and Mrs. Porter have another son, Elmer Porter. He served for three years and was made a corporal, however, he was honorably discharged on Aug. 7, 1941. He is now stationed at El Paso in the 1st Cavalry Division.

James Erwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Erwin, who was at home on a leave from Tuesday of last week until Sunday, left from Wichita Falls for San Francisco Sunday afternoon. His parents accompanied him to Wichita Falls. James is a first class fireman on the U. S. S. Louisville, and his work is in the Refrigerator department. He has been in service for the past nineteen months, having enlisted on Oct. 4, 1940. During the time since his enlistment, he has done, principally, overseas duty. His arrival in Crowell came as a complete surprise to his parents.

In a letter to The News from Mrs. Wayne Diggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Diggs, he states that he is situated at Camp Cooke, Lompoc, Calif. He says that he is well and would appreciate letters from friends at home.

Mac Boswell, formerly of Crowell, is in Camp Barkeley, near Alameda. He is in the Medical Regiment Training Center there

W. P. A. Project in Precincts 3 and 4 to Be Delayed

In the issue of The News as of March 26, it was announced that the W. P. A. project in Precincts Three and Four entailing road improvements, including structures, would be commenced immediately upon completion of the job then in operation in Precinct One. This information had been forwarded to Judge Leslie Thomas and the Commissioners' court by the District Office at Fort Worth. Shortly after this information had been forwarded, the State Office informed the district office that the use of critical materials on non-defense jobs should be eliminated from all projects to conserve those materials for war industries.

As the structures on the road improvement project were to have been of concrete, re-inforced by steel, naturally such project did require the use of critical materials, consequently, it fell within the provisions of the ultimatum as issued by the State office.

It was suggested by the State office that the project be revised to meet existing conditions, that is, to eliminate the use of critical materials, which suggestion the court took under consideration, but prior to the time that any revision could be made, the court was again informed that no project other than a certified National Defense one could be commenced, but that when possible, further consideration would be given to the Foard County proposal. Therefore, at the present time the project in Precincts Three and Four will not be placed into operation, however, the project will be revised so that if and when conditions are such that it can be operated in the county, an immediate work authorization order can be issued.

It is thought by the District and State officers that most of the eligible men on W. P. A. can secure local work sufficient to enable them to meet their needs during the present National emergency.

He states that he will operate a first class, up-to-date bakery for Crowell and will appreciate a liberal patronage for this local institution.

Mr. Kane does not have a family and he has secured a room at the home of Mrs. W. C. McKown. ## Sugar Rationing Registration Will Be Held May 4, 5, 6 and 7; Trade Registration to Be Held April 28-29

Official notification has been received by County Judge Leslie Thomas and the County Rationing Board that sugar rationing registration is to be held for consumers on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th days of May, 1942, and that Trade Registration which includes wholesalers, retailers, industrial users and institutional users is to be held on the 28th and 29th days of April, 1942.

In accordance with such notification, arrangements have been made in compliance with the request of the State Rationing Administration for consumers registration to be held in the elementary schools of the county where school is held and for trade registration to be held in the office of the County and District Clerk of Foard County, at Crowell.

The County Clerk has already received a number of supplies for the registration. The following registration stations will be available in the county for consumer registration: Note: (All persons must register in the school district where they reside if school is held in such district. If school is not held in such district, then to the district to which such school is contracted or transferred. County Line districts shall register in the district where school is held.)

One-Act Play Cast Wins 10th District Title for Crowell High School in Tournament Held Here Friday Night

In the presentation of the One-Act play, "Sun-up," at the District 4 One-Act Play tournament which was held in the Crowell High School auditorium on Friday night, the Crowell cast walked off with a victory for the tenth time. Quanan ranked second with "Two Crooks and a Lady," while Carey was third in its presentation of "Shame the Devil."

TSCW Speech Director Judge Prof. Emory Horger, head of the speech department of Texas State College for Women at Denton, served as judge for the tournament. Mr. Horger has acted in the same capacity for the One-Act Play tournament at Crowell before and he is considered as one of the most understanding and competent critics of amateur play production in the state.

At the conclusion of the last play, the judge gave a few explanatory remarks concerning the qualities of the plays and of the value of such productions to the student, before he announced the all-star cast and the winner of the cup.

All-Star Cast

An all-star cast of six players was selected by the judge and Crowell received four of the six places. The all-star cast consisted of three girls and three boys. Helen Jo Callaway was chosen for her portrayal of the character of "Gram Cazel," June Billington as "Emmie Todd," Charlie Thompson as "Rufe Cazel" and J. T. Hughton as the Stranger. Others on the all-star cast were Bill Donahay of Quanan, who played the part of a villain, and Juanita Simpson of Carey who was "Miss Washington." The members of the all-star cast were complimented very highly by Prof. Horger. The cup for first place in the district was presented to the director, Mrs. I. T. Graves, who accepted it in the name of her cast.

The cast, with Mrs. Graves, will go to Canyon this week-end where they will compete in the regional meet. From the regional meet the winning play cast will go to Austin for the State competitive tournament.

Wednesday, May 29, Will Be Circus Day in Crowell

"Circus Day" with all the allurements of those words is coming to Crowell after a lapse of many years. Next Wednesday, the 29th, the Dailey Bros. Circus will erect its city of tents in Crowell, the big elephants helping the workmen do the work which requires three hours' time.

That all shows are not alike, and that there is much that is new in the circus world, are two facts the Dailey Bros. Circus proves every day. Due to the wars abroad, all of the arena stars of the war-ridden countries have fled to America for work and many of these celebrities are now producing their exclusive sensational acts and mysterious novelties with the Dailey Circus.

One of the pleasing features with the Dailey Circus is the presence in the personnel of the company of a large group of beautiful young feminine aerial artists, any one of whom could win a beauty contest on account of her figure and her beauty. These young maids are not only good to look upon, but they will perform many dangerous stunts recklessly and yet gracefully and with ease.

The Dailey Bros. Circus this season may be said to be comprised of four distinct units. The dog and pony section will delight children and the dog fanatics; the wild west part of the very beautiful display of the very beautiful, trained, and drilled of the cute Shetland ponies will please admirers of horse flesh; the standard high class three-ring circus performance itself will be the tops of the two hour show. Throughout the program the repeated appearance of the company of clever clowns and the lively, tuneful music by the circus band will help to make the entire performance one not soon to be forgotten.

The Volunteer Fire Department has need for money to help improve the efficiency of the department and the men are hoping for an ideal day and the old-fashioned circus crowds in Crowell, Wednesday, April 29th. The performances will be given regardless of all weather conditions.

By the compromise of 1850, Texas accepted $10,000,000 for its claim to all land north and west of the present boundary lines of the Trans-Pecos region and the Panhandle.

The University of Texas was opened in 1883 at Austin, during the administration of Governor John Ireland.

HISTORY

Birthday of John James Audubon—April 26.—John James Audubon, the naturalist, was born April 26, 1785, at Les Cayes, in what is now the Republic of Haiti. He was the son of Captain Jean Audubon, an officer in the French Navy. Audubon was educated in France, coming to America in 1803 and locating on a farm of some 300 acres which his father purchased near Philadelphia during the Revolutionary War. The village near the farm has since been named Audubon in his honor. He spent ten years on his father's farm studying birds and making sketches of them. He did not succeed as a farmer and after making several attempts to enter business in Louisiana and Kentucky finally lost his property. Following this he supported himself by giving dancing lessons and painting portraits. In 1826 he went to London to arrange for the publication of his book on birds. He obtained enough money in subscription by 1827 to warrant the publication of his "Birds of America." Later he published "Quadrupeds of America." He died in New York City, January 27, 1851. He was buried in Trinity cemetery, near which a park named for him was later laid out. His widow survived him for many years and maintained herself by conducting a school in her home for little children. Among her pupils was George Bird Grinnell, a son of a neighbor. Grinnell later became editor of "Forest and Stream," and in 1886 he organized a society for the study and protection of birds which was called the Audubon Society. Branches of the original society were formed and afterward a National Association of Audubon Societies was organized. The association maintains many bird sanctuaries and organizes school children into bird study groups. It is affiliated with similar societies in twenty-three other countries. There are three thousand, five hundred Junior Audubon clubs in this country.

There Must Not Be A Let-Down in Sales of Defense Savings Bonds

General Douglas MacArthur, in assuming command of the Allied Forces in the Far East, said in part:

"I have every confidence in the ultimate success of our joint cause. But success in modern war requires something more than courage and willingness to die. It requires careful preparation. "This means the furnishing of sufficient troops and sufficient material to meet the known strength of the potential enemy. No general can make something of nothing. "My success or failure will depend primarily on the resources which the respective governments place at my disposal. My faith in them is complete."

That statement emphasizes a condition that requires speed, speed and more speed in converting our tremendous resources into airplanes, tanks, guns, and ships and the transportation of these implements of war to the place of action where their use by our fighting forces will be most effective in administering a disastrous defeat to the enemy. The need is urgent; the task is difficult. It means that every individual must do his utmost and make whatever sacrifices are necessary to protect national security. In performing that duty we must spare time, energy, or money for none of these would have value without liberty and freedom of action.

An essential factor in that effort is providing the funds to pay for the materials produced. The President has estimated that war expenditures during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, will rise to $6 billion dollars, and only a part of that enormous sum can be raised through taxation. The remainder, of course, must be obtained by borrowing, but so far as possible, it should be provided by the public out of current income, as that method of borrowing will create the least disturbance to our economy. That means that sales of Defense Savings Bonds must rise to higher and higher levels as war expenditures increase and as national income expands. Every person is urged to buy Defense Savings Bonds regularly.

Don't fail to hear the special broadcast tonight over the Blue Network from 10 to 10:30 p. m. Ewt., when Secretary Henry Morgenthau Jr., Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard and leaders of business and labor organizations discuss the National War Bond Quota System and the Ten Per Cent Payroll Savings Plan.

HE HAS HIS OWN TROUBLES

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

As the war goes on, rationing is going to be applied more and more to the articles of civilian use. Necessity is going to compel this. The resources of this country, great though they are, are not great enough to permit to be super-imposed upon our industrial order, the war program. One or the other is going to have to be curtailed, and it is reasonable to assume that it will not be the war program.

Beginning with automobile tires, the program is going to be extended rapidly to other items. Already sugar, bicycles, automobiles, typewriters, washing machines, and many other items have been affected. The list will continue to grow and will grow much more rapidly in the future than it has in the past.

Faster than we realize we are going to be called upon to give up many luxuries, and many of the things that we have come to look upon as necessities. Now that the movement has started the War Production Board has given war production the green light and ordered full speed ahead. Nothing is going to be allowed to stand in its way. Nothing should be permitted to stand in its way. The War Production Board will be derelict in its duty if it permits anything to stand in the way of the maximum production of war material. I would not expect labor, capital or the private individual. There is just one job ahead of us, to win the war. If any group loses this war, we will all lose it.

With few exceptions the rationing program is being graciously accepted. Most people are glad to make the sacrifice if they feel that the thing they are giving up is going to speed the war program, or is needed by the men on the firing line. There is only a few who rebel against making the sacrifice or try to circumvent the rationing program. There are a few industries that still seek to gouge the government for profits. There are still labor leaders who stand back and say, come what will, let others give up anything they choose even to the shirt off their back, but we will not give up a thing. We will not make a single sacrifice of any kind. If we are forced to, we will walk out, or sit down, or slow up the program. We have the whip hand and intend to use it if we are called upon to sacrifice. For each point of increase in cost of living we will demand, and have, an increase in pay—or else.

There are others whose attitude is identical to these though they lack the power to enforce it upon their country in its hour of need.

Fortunately these are far in the minority. The great majority of the people in this country welcome the opportunity to make a sacrifice for the war program. They feel that in doing so they are giving something of themselves in the effort to defeat the oppressor and maintain the way of life that we know as liberty upon the earth. These people will get along with the poorest of substitutes, they will eat cheaper food and less of it. They will wear clothing made of inferior substitutes. They will pay higher taxes and will buy bonds out of money that they could well use for other things.

I believe that to the extent to which this is done will the people of this country benefit from the war. It will cause them to stop, and think, and look upon things from a new and different angle. It will be not unlike a period of forty days fasting in which they will have an opportunity to realize what a wonderful country they live in, and what a wonderful way of life is the democratic way of life. It will be one of the intangible heritages of the war that will remain after victory finally comes.

The first national election held in the Republic of Texas in September, 1836, resulted in the overwhelming victory of General Houston over Henry Smith and Stephen F. Austin.

Children Should Be Immunized Against Contagious Diseases

Austin.—Commenting today on the wide spread interest and co-operation shown by Texans in the observance of Texas Children's Week, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said that America has no better safeguard for her future than the promotion of good health in the youth of today. "Americans have done a great deal in the past to make the United States a better and safer place in which to live the all-important years of childhood," Dr. Cox said, "but in spite of all of this, American childhood has not yet been made as safe as it can be."

Dr. Cox pointed out that the national emergency naturally adds to the health hazards that already exist and urged parents of every child in Texas to make sure that their children have been immunized against such preventable diseases as diphtheria and smallpox. Dr. Cox stressed the fact that although most babies are born physically sound, the foundation for future health is laid in the first six years of life. All parents must realize that raising child health standards is a job for them especially, Dr. Cox said, and added that it is better to keep them from getting sick than to try to save their lives when they are ill.

Milkweed Poison to Young Turkeys

A mouthful or two of whorled milkweed may kill a young turkey in a few hours. Because of its deadly character, George P. McCarthy, poultry husbandman of the A. & M. College Extension Service, advises raisers to eradicate the plant from turkey ranges before young birds are turned out. Ranchmen long have known that this species of weed kills cattle, sheep and horses on the range each year, and have destroyed the poisonous plant wherever found. Recently, however, a killer milkweed has been proved a killer of turkeys and chickens as well. Immature, tender milkweed plants prevalent in the spring seem to be more deadly than more mature ones.

The first popularly elected administration of the Republic of Texas was inaugurated when the first Congress of the Republic met in Columbia in October, 1836.

cluding persons temporarily absent therefrom) who are related by blood, marriage or adoption.

Who is the correct person to apply? 1. Persons of any age who are not a part of any family unit. (A parent, guardian or responsible adult must apply for such persons under 18 years of age who are not self-supporting, and may apply for invalids who are not members of family units, and not confined in institution.) 2. Persons who are applying for every member of a family unit. (Such applicants must be 18 years of age, or married persons, if under 18.)

Illustrations: 1. A person who is not a member of a family unit, if he is temporarily away from his home during registration, should not apply for his war ration book separately; the person applying for the other members of his family unit should also apply for him. For example, if a traveling salesman, who is not a member of a family unit, may apply at any place he may be at the time of registration.

2. A person who is a member of a family unit and, who is temporarily away from his home during registration, should not apply for his war ration book separately; the person applying for the other members of his family unit should also apply for him. For example, if a traveling salesman is away from his home for a week or two he should be considered as a member of his family unit in spite of the fact that at the time of registration he is not at home.

3. If a person 18 years of age or over has left home to attend college, he should apply for and get his own book in the town where he is residing during the school year. His father or mother must not apply for him as a member of their family unit.

4. On the other hand, if a person under 18 years of age has left home to attend school or college and is not a member of a family unit his father, mother or legal guardian must file an application for him. A person is entitled to a war ration book in spite of the fact that he may eat all of his meals at a restaurant, boarding house or similar place, and has no present intention of buying any sugar. The war ration book may later be used for some other product which may have to be rationed and at that time he may need the book for that product.

At the time of registration, each person is permitted to have two pounds of sugar, for which no stamps will be removed. For the next four pounds on hand for each person, stamps will be removed at the rate for one stamp for each pound. In other words, if any person has more than 6 pounds of sugar on hand, (resolving all fractional pounds in favor of applicant), he or she will file application but will not receive a war ration book at the time of registration.

In the case of family units, multiply by two, (permitted pounds per person), the number of persons in the family unit. Subtract this amount from the total pounds of sugar on hand. The balance represents the "excess sugar" on hand, for which stamps must be removed at the rate of one stamp per pound. The removal of these stamps must be prorated as evenly as possible among the total number of books, (one book to each person), issued to the members of the family unit. For example:

(a) 15 pounds of sugar on hand, three persons in family, times 2 pounds permitted by person which would equal 6 pounds, total family allowance, 15 pounds on hand minus 6 pounds, total family allowance, which would leave 9 pounds "excess sugar." In this case it will be necessary to remove stamps representing "excess sugar" from the three books. Therefore, three stamps will be removed from each of the three books.

(b) 20 pounds of sugar on hand, three persons in family, times two pounds permitted by person which would equal six pounds, total family allowance. 20 pounds minus 6 pounds leaves 14 stamps for the three books, however, removing the highest permissible number of stamps (4) from each of the three books would result in the removal of 12 stamps. Therefore, no books can be issued to any person in this family unit. A child is entitled to the same amount of

GAMBLEVILLE 4-H CLUB

"It is important to have good proportions in a hand towel," said Miss Joellene Vannoy, county home demonstration agent, to the members of the Gambleville Girls' 4-H Club when they met at the school on Wednesday, April 15. As a rule, a hand towel is made one and one-third to one and one-half times as long as it is wide. The width of the hem depends upon the side of the towel. For example, a towel 15 inches wide and 27 inches long should have a one inch hem.

The frame garden which the 4-H boys and girls have made south of the school building has radishes, onions, lettuce, mustard and parsley growing in it. The next meeting will be held April 29 at 9:30 a. m.

Spring Training for Football Team Finished Last Thursday Afternoon with a 19 to 12 Victory Over the Seniors

The Crowell High School football boys brought their spring training to a close last Thursday with a 19 to 12 victory over the Seniors. It was Arnold Smith's passes, end runs and line smashes that made the difference. However, Bobby Spears looked just as good for the Seniors but he failed to obtain the blocking that Arnold received. Spears made the first Senior touchdown on a line play through right tackle and the second on a seventy yard return of an intercepted pass. Smith plunged all three of the Regulars' touchdowns over after passes and end runs had placed the ball in scoring territory. Clifford White looked the best on the receiving end of the passes. Paul Vecera and Kenneth Archer, outstanding blockers for the Regulars, were seriously handicapped due to injuries. Gordon Erwin and C. J. Kelton did the best tackling for the High School. T. L. Owens and Charlie Thompson did not get to play for the Seniors. Harold Canup, Fred Pierce and Charles Nelson, all Juniors, but ineligible next fall, were allowed to play for the Seniors. Albert Bird, ace ball carrier for the Regulars, was forced to miss the game on account of an arm infection.

Coach Grady Graves was well pleased with the spring training and expressed hope of Crowell High School having another outstanding football team next fall.

Yes, vaccine prepares you to beat trouble... now how does this oil work that principle?

Like a plague, modern driving conditions are widely attacking motor oil—wasting it away. Nature can't modernize her oil. And the best refining even weakens certain natural "immunities"...

BUT CONOCO Nth OIL makes it all up—and then some—with its modern man-made preventives. They get the credit for its healthy record of more than twice the mileage averaged by five other fine oils in a Death-Test lasting till engines burned up.

The rival oils, in identical cars, under impartial observation, braved blistering Death Valley with a strict 5-quart fill apiece and no more. One gave out when Conoco Nth was still more than two-thirds up! None came closer than a bare 58% of Conoco Nth mileage!

Get this same Conoco Nth oil for the Spring change that your engine must have. You'll be getting the added modern synthetic, Thiakene inhibitor, to forestall the fouling attacks of highest engine speeds and pressures. Instead of breaking down into so-called varnish, gums and worse obstructions, your Conoco Nth oil can stay more like its own good self—to help your mileage stay up.

The out-and-out Death Valley victory proved it—and proved once again that an OIL-PLATED engine lives long. OIL-PLATING, a recognized Conoco advantage through the years, comes from the other great synthetic in Conoco Nth. This exerts magnet-like action to envelop inner parts in close-bonded lubricant that doesn't all quickly drain down. Instead it stays plated in place—much as any other plating—and that's what the conventional movable oil film slides on!

You're one more remove from excess wear—from the hazard of repairs and delay these days. You're up to the Nth degree of oil mileage for your car. Change now at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station, Continental Oil Company

THOUGHTS ON SPRING

And Spring is here! And here comes that lacy, lacy-daisy, lacy-daisy-daisy-daisy, feeling again.
 I am sitting quietly in the study hall, as I decide to gaze out the window and see what sorts of spring I can see among the various students.
 One is my left side Bill Owens. What could be the cause of that blank expression on his face? Could it be love? No, I am inclined to think that it is just that spring madness creeping through his veins.
 Now I look toward my right and observe Wanda Evans gazing wistfully out of the window. That look seems to say, "Gee, I wish school were out." But I really don't believe Spring has anything to do with that gaze.
 There sits Marjorie Young very industriously studying. Spring doesn't affect her in the least. No! So now she nods and almost goes to sleep over her books. That same old spring fever.
 Outside, the birds are singing, the grass is growing, and the flowers are blooming. There of the sweet signs of spring I know of, but it's good to be alive! Makes you want to dance or something.
 Now would you look at that; that Lee J. Stone and Sam Franklin have gone to sleep. Can you imagine anyone going to sleep on such a day as this? Ah, I just can't imagine such a thing. Kinda funny, but a bad idea, don't you think? Ah! Ah!
 Fish-on. There's Miss Cogdell making the rounds making everybody up. Oh, she'll get it sleep tonight! Ah, spring.

THE "SLAP-A-JAPS CLUB"

The Slap-A-Japs met Thursday, April 14. The house was called to order and the minutes of the last meeting were read. The minutes were correct and it was found that the Army's side was eight stamps ahead of the Navy. The following musical program was then given:
 Song, "Dear Mom," sung by Marjorie Brock and Wanda Evans.
 The group sang "Rose O' Day," "White Cliffs of Dover," and "Deep in the Heart of Texas." Lesley Gilliam played a piano solo and Helen Callaway gave a reading, "She's Boy Crazy."

DISTRICT CHAMPS

You know! We went Of course, we have reference to the District One-Act Play Tournament, which, if you are still in the dark, was held here last Friday night, April 17. Those participating in the tournament named as ranked were: Crowell, first; Quanah, second; and Carey, third. Those named on the all star cast were "our own" Helen Jo Callaway, Jane Billington, Charlie Thompson, and J. T. Hughton. Also Bill Donahue of Quanah and "Miss Washington" of Carey, were named as All Stars.

The judge this year was Prof. Horger, head of the Speech Department of T. S. C. W. Denton. This district feels honored in having this noted speech professor as judge.
 Members of the "Champ" cast are: Helen Jo Callaway, Jane Billington, Charlie Thompson, Roy Joe Gates, Billy Bruce, J. T. Hughton, Billy Short and Earl Carter. They play and direct, wish to express their sincere appreciation to Glendon Hayes and Laurice Ray Naron who acted as stage managers. Without their help, we would probably have ranked third, for it was their labor and ingenuity that made the play go off as it did. Thanks a lot! Also we want to express our appreciation to all of the Crowell students for their help and encouragement.

The Crowell student body wants to wish all Crowell participants at Canyon the best of luck.

CAMPUS CHAT

Here we go on another week of CHS's same old gossip column. Since not one thing of importance has happened, I am going to use my imagination to a certain extent.
 Naturally, who was seen Saturday night but our own little Butch and June; Shorty (The Thick) and Margie. Seems as if they appeared another time this week—none other than Thursday night. What's all of this coming to?

Joan Orr's little soldier boy was in town this last week-end. Good luck to you, little.
 Virginia Thomas, John Clark Long, Margaret Claire Shirley, and Hugh Longino made a cute foursome at the plays Friday night. They seemed to enjoy all the plays.

Billy Bruce can't seem to get his mind on anything except Glenda's haircut. Poor Bruce!
 We are wondering where Bill Smith is. We haven't seen him in a week now. Maybe Billie Nichols could help us. Could you, Billie?

Virginia Thomas is keeping "cell" single, an ex-senior, close company lately. Tuesday and Sunday nights both. Wow! You know they sometimes call him "Scraw."

J. T. Hughton and Mary Edwards were seen together Sunday night. It seems that J. T. had a hard time getting his car to go in reverse.

Margie Davidson and Shorty Roark have really got it bad. They are seen together constantly. In fact, what night last week weren't they together? Monday night.

Charlie Thompson seems to have a standing Sunday night date with a certain girl named Shirley. As they have been seen together for the past Sunday nights.

Lowell Campbell has finally disclosed his other name. I'd like to introduce you to Robert Lowell Campbell. Pleased to meet you, Robert.

Billy Bruce is still carrying the torch for Betty Johnson, and if my eyes are right, the torch is burning at both ends. Get it? John Thomas Raker has returned Glenda's big picture and she has returned all his rings.

It seems that "Somebody else is taking his place."
 Rara Duggs often mentions the name of "Buster" something or other. Say, who is he, anyway?

Tom Alton Andrews, H. K. Edwards, and Dick Smith, old ex-seniors of CHS, visited Crowell High on Monday.

Margaret Claire Shirley had better watch out. You see Mike Rastover's old name, Betty Sue Norman, has just "washed" in from Corpus Christi.

Who was that I saw Mary Edwards in the car with Saturday night. Couldn't have been "Tast" Sandlin or could it? You know they would make a cute couple. Get it, "Tast"?

Estelle Autry seems to have captured the heart of Jimmie Gates. It was evident long before this.

"Senior Day" next week. The long waited for event to be spent in Verman, Texas, that little metropolis just thirty miles east.

 Albert Bird: Yes, ma'am, he peppered the enemy and took the citadel by assault.
 Miss Cogdell: Sit down, my lad, I'll have no snuff from you.

The class in public speaking was to give pantomimes that afternoon. One fellow got up when called on, went to the platform, and stood perfectly still.

Mrs. Graves: (After a minute's wait for something to happen.) What do you represent?
 Billy Bruce: I'm imitating a man going up in an elevator.

Bob Gouin: Have you seen my Yankee Wanderer?
 Tommie Weaver: What's that?
 Bob: (Pulling out his watch.) My watch. Think it out and wonder what time it is.

Although you have a positive, sensitive nature, you are sometimes easily led and influenced by the minds and wills of others. You like to wear the clothes and set a good name. Those in whom you are interested will never want for anything while you have enough.

April 23, 24.—Before you get up in the morning you should make your plans for the day and stick to them, as you are influenced by the minds of others, much against your will. You are shrewd and decisive when you act on your own initiative. You love ease and delight in being shown attention.

How to take care of Your Electric Washer

Don't overload the washer, or use it to wash out just a few small pieces unless necessary. Drain immediately after using. Rinse thoroughly. Rolls and frame of wringer should be wiped dry. Release pressure on rolls when not in use. Leave cover off tub until all dampness has evaporated. Cord should be wiped dry and carefully wound on books. In using wringer, take care that no objects are left in pockets or metal buckles are allowed to scar or nick the rubber rollers.

How to take care of Your Electric Heater

No special care is required for an electric hot water heater. If properly installed, you can forget it. It will take care of itself. But be sure the thermostat is set to give the correct temperature. Keep it in operation all the time. (Since it's automatic, turning it off and allowing the water in the tank to cool, then reheating it, uses more current than continuous operation.) If you live in a section where the water is extremely "hard," it occasionally may be wise to have the heating element taken out and the lime deposit removed. Other than this, there is nothing for you to do except don't waste hot water by letting it run down the sink.

BE GOOD TO YOUR ELECTRIC APPLIANCE AND THEY'LL BE GOOD TO YOU

NEW METHODS of efficiency and economy are being worked out to provide an ample supply of light and power for military training camps and wartime industries in this West Texas country in addition to your home and business. But the factories that once turned out an abundance of electric appliances today have been converted to production of war materials. Since these appliances are vital in maintenance of civilian morale and in conserving time and energy for wartime work, it is essential that we all take steps to prolong the usefulness of the appliances now on hand. We are offering some suggestions to help you make them last.

How to take care of Your Electric Refrigerator

Some older models should be oiled every six months. Those with belts should be checked and new belts installed if needed. Condensers in all models should be cleaned once a year. Defrost at regular intervals, allowing the ice to melt rather than using an ice pick. (There's danger of punching a hole in the metal or freezing coil.) Close the door quickly after putting in or taking food out, using care NOT to touch rubber insulating seal around door with greasy hand. (Grease causes the rubber to deteriorate.) Let the cool before putting in refrigerator. Be sure that motor shipping bolts are fastened to prevent damage in transit when moving to new location. Careful with ice trays—it's difficult to get new trays of any kind. Wash inside of refrigerator with baking soda and water whenever defrosting to prevent food odors.

How to take care of Your Electric Range and Small Appliances

Plan menus so that entire meals are cooked at the same time in oven or thrift cooker. In top-burner cooking keep burner to low as soon as boiling begins. Be sure to turn off burners off when through using them. Don't allow liquids to boil over onto the cooking coil. (Metals in coils include copper and magnesium oxide and are hard to replace.) Wash outside of range with warm soapy water when cool. Food spilled over on surface cooking coils should be burned off. Wipe oven with damp cloth and remove food spillage after it cools.

Take good care of your small appliances because parts are becoming hard to replace. For example, the bristles in your sweeper come from China—or did. Not any more. And rubber belts and cords. You know about rubber and copper. Even electric elements in all appliances and switches for lamps are becoming scarce. So take care not to abuse them. All lamp and appliance cords should be handled a bit more carefully. Keep them off the floor if possible so they won't be trampled, knotted or kinked, causing the rubber insulation to break.

Weekly Sermon

By the Rev. J. O. A. Luckman, Acting Director of Extension Department, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

Salvation Simplified

Two questions are ever before us these days: How can I save? How can I be safe? We are urged to save paper, tin, time and money. Think of what was done to save men at Dunkirk, to save Singapore, and how much is done to save life. Doctors try to save the sick, even though it means prolonged life as a cripple.

To be a question, How can I be safe? Many suggestions are offered—safety devices which are planned for tenants, travelers, and employees. How much time, effort, and money is spent to develop these in order that people may feel safe. But there is one thing we cannot save and which cannot be safe apart from the work of another—it is our souls. The ordinary things of life and their keeping are given much time and thought, yet we often give little thought to the welfare of our souls, even though their salvation is very simple. Indeed, it is as simple as the Lord Jesus Christ could make it. Let us look at Luke 23:39-42, which tells in three simple statements how our souls may be saved and safe now and forever.

And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us. But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise. In the first place, the penitent thief could not lift himself "by his own boot straps" to make himself any better. He was nailed to

Children's Week Will Be Observed April 19th-25th

Austin. — Children's Week, April 19-25, should focus the attention of the community on prevention of delinquency, according to Mrs. Violet S. Greenhill, chief of the state division of child welfare. Rehabilitation of young people is enormously expensive, compared with the cost of an adequate preventive program, she said. There are now 586 boys in the Gatesville State School and 220 girls in the Gainesville State School for Girls. Too often they return to communities not prepared for their future care and protection, it was pointed out.

"What Texas needs," said Mrs. Greenhill, "is a constructive program for well established juvenile courts or courts of domestic relations, probation courts, foster homes, case work services to meet every exigency, and more adequate provision for aid to dependent children."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord" (Psalms 118:17). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy. "The Bible calls death an enemy, and Jesus overcame death and the grave instead of yielding to them. He was 'the way.' To him, therefore, death was not the threshold over which he must pass into living glory" (page 39).

B&PW Club Have Spring Banquet

A long banquet table with a lovely bouquet of spring iris in the center and small potted begonia plants in full bloom as favors, brought sincere exclamations of "How lovely," from the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club Thursday evening, April 16, as they entered the dining room of O'Connell's Lunch Room. A beautiful arrangement of Texas Bluebonnets from the garden of Mrs. T. M. Beverly decorated the piano.

Miss Alma Walker, mistress of ceremonies, Miss Blanche Hays and Mrs. Mae Solomon as hostesses, entertained the club with one of the most interesting banquets of the year. Miss Ruby Lee Bevell, guest of the club, sang "White Cliffs of Dover" and Mrs. Inez Spencer played a violin solo, "Schubert's Serenade," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Solomon.

Each guest was given a subject about which she knew little or nothing and was asked to give a two minute talk upon that subject. The result proved that "Give a woman a chance and she will tell you all about it." The program was brought to a close with a lively sing-song.
