U. S. Leaders at Saboteur Trial

Attorney General Francis Biddle, J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, and Daniel Ristine are shown seated around a table in the courtroom in Washington as they listened to the proceedings of the famous saboteur trial. This is the trial of the eight Nazi saboteurs who were landed in this country by submarine for the express purpose of wrecking America's war machines. Caught by the FBI before they could fulfill their mission, they faced trial as spies. Speaking over the radio, Hoover declared that those who gave these eight Nazis aid were traitors to their country.

The meeting will be held at the Cub Hut, located at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sandifer. Mr. and Mrs. Sandifer join the members of the Baptist Church in extending a cordial welcome to the people of Margaret, Thalia, Foard City, Black, Vivian and the Rayland communities, as well as Crowell people, to attend this revival. "Conditions are ripe for an old-fashioned, soul-stirring revival meeting," Mr. Sandifer said, and he hoped such a meeting would be the result.

Members of the Baptist Church have been holding their evening services at this place for several weeks and they appreciate this opportunity given by Mr. and Mrs. Sandifer as it affords an ideal location for an open-air meeting at night.

One-fourth of all the drownings that occur during the year occur during the month of July.

The best life guard to every swimmer is his own common sense.

According to the National Safety Council July is the worst month of the year for accidents.

THANKS A MILLION

Out of an humble heart that is bubbling with joy and overflowing with appreciation, I just want to say thanks a million. Yes, a million times thank you, for the wonderful vote that you gave me in last Saturday's election. I appreciate beyond measure the good vote that I received in each and every box in the entire district, but I am extremely grateful for the overwhelming majority that you gave me in Foard County and also at Truscott. I am happy to admit that it was this very outstanding expression of your confidence in me that made it possible for me to be elected as your state representative.

I will always be grateful to each and every one of you and assure you that I will be working for the people of my district and the best interests of the state of Texas.

Thirty thousand factories in this country are engaged in making war stuff. Most of these have switched over from civilian production.

An interesting disinterested scientific test was made recently of the several leading brands of cigarettes.

At the end of the two weeks set for the scrap rubber drive a total of 192,000 pounds of scrap rubber had been collected.

It begins to appear that the emphasis in this war will have to be put upon big planes that can go anywhere.

WPB Chief Testifies on Rubber

Donald M. Nelson, director of the War Production Board, is shown facing the congressional subcommittee before which he testified on the rubber situation.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

The United States is attempting a rationing program. The purpose of the program is that those items of which there is a scarcity shall be controlled to the extent that everyone may have a share of them.

This in brief is the purpose back of the whole rationing program. This thought should be held in mind by every individual when he is tempted to rebel or fail to cooperate completely with the rationing program.

Any man who can meet his payroll and taxes and make out the multitude of reports required these days, may without egotism, consider himself a successful business man whether or not he has anything left for himself.

Two great wars have proven the fallacy of the position of unpreparedness that has too long been the policy of this nation.

Frank Phillips Issues Statement Regarding Oil Company

The following statement was released today by Frank Phillips, chairman of Phillips Petroleum Company:

The affairs of this company and its connection with the synthetic rubber program have been widely publicized during the last few weeks in the public press and in the Congressional Record.

The erroneous statement has been made that the war production board has cancelled a contract with Phillips Petroleum Company to design, construct and operate a plant for the government to manufacture butadiene.

This company has a contract with Defense Plant Corporation and Rubber Reserve Company to design, construct, and operate a plant for the manufacture of 45,000 tons of butadiene per year.

The Rubber Reserve Company has asked that we withhold further purchases and give consideration to every possible means of reducing the amount of critical metals required for our project.

The latest estimated requirement of new metals necessary to construct the butadiene plant alone is 11,159 tons.

The statement has been made that no petroleum company has yet perfected a process for the manufacture of synthetic rubber from petroleum.

A large portion of the affiliate company's production of synthetic rubber is now being used in the manufacture of leak-proof gasoline tanks for military aircraft.

been done. More than 150,000 man hours of engineers, chemists, and other trained technicians have been devoted to this work.

Infant Mortality in State Reaches Lowest Level

Austin. — Figures released by the Bureau of Census reveal that the Infant Mortality has reached the lowest level in the history of the State, said Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The evidence now available seems to indicate that the greatest reduction occurred in the southern part of the state where the State Health Department has been waging an intensive drive to protect the health of babies.

Maternal and child health is but one phase of the work being done by the State Health Department in their campaign to reduce illness and death. Other activities are

If everyone in the country were like Bill Smith and Mary Jones, then a rationing program would not be possible unless there should be installed throughout the country a gestapo or secret police similar to that of Germany whose common punishment for violation of the dictator's orders is the firing squad.

Fortunately everyone is not the same as Bill Smith and Mary Jones. Fortunately only a few like these two seek to evade and cheat and beat the program.

It is foolish on the part of anyone to do any less than comply to the best of their knowledge and ability. First, because the whole program is set up for their own protection, and the extent of their protection depends upon the measure of compliance they accord it.

Another reason why the rationing program should receive the patriotic support of every citizen is that to fail to give the program support is to play into the hands of the enemy by hurting our own cause at home.

Let us all remember that the rationing program, if it is successful is going to be so, not because of fear of the law, so much as simple patriotism and love of this country and its way of life.

A WEEK of the WAR

President Roosevelt told his press conference he is considering asking Congress for more effective controls to keep down the cost of living, including wage controls.

The national situation as regards the cost of living must be kept in line, he said. The one criterion that must be kept in mind is what it costs the average family to live.

The War Labor Board announced a formula for a national wage stabilization policy designed to maintain workers purchasing power at January, 1941, levels.

The WLB ordered an increase of 34 cents a day, retroactive to last February, for 157,000 "little steel" workers.

Labor Supply

War Manpower Chairman McNutt reported approximately 12,500,000 persons were working in direct war employment on July 1.

He estimated 5,000,000 more will be added to the industry forces during the last six months of this year.

The War Front

A communique from Cairo, Egypt, reported Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, formerly commander of the U. S. Army Air Forces in India, is now commander of U. S. Air Forces in the Middle East.

Gen. Brereton said American heavy bombers carried out 21 tactical missions in 36 days with the loss of only three U. S. planes.

The Navy announced 13 Japanese ships have been sunk or damaged since June 3 in Aleutian waters, and at least seven enemy aircraft have been destroyed.

The Navy reported damage inflicted on the enemy during the battle of Midway June 3 to June 6 included: approximately 4,800 Japanese killed or drowned.

Foreign Relations President Roosevelt formally proclaimed a state of war with Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria, making nationals of those countries residing in the U. S. subject to regulations governing other enemy aliens.

Army and Selective Service The Army Air Forces' present accident rate is 68 per cent lower than in 1930 and 10 per cent lower than the average rate for the 10 years between 1930 and 1940.

Whether might alone makes right will be decided on the battle field in this war. And you, whether you employ, or are employed, hold the answer to whether innocent, peace-loving, God-fearing peoples may be free in generations to come to work and worship as they please.

You should avoid waste. You should follow peacetime buying practices, as nearly as you can, refraining from making purchases to store away, keeping in mind the importance of conserving, especially those things vital to the armament program.

You should accept war news—the bad with fortitude, the good with reaffirmed resolution to not slacken your efforts in doing your part to see this war through to a victorious end.

Every American who loves liberty desires to see our foes' weapons silenced forever. Every American who loves liberty should help crush the menace to our privilege of self rule that is being projected by the Axis war lords.

To that end, then, all of us must devote our resources, thought and energy with profound earnestness, for the defeat of our enemies is a job which calls for the co-operation of everyone — make no mistake about it!

OUR DUTY: TO FIT THEM TO FIGHT Our boys — your sons, your husbands your brothers, your grandsons — are going to the front to do your fighting for you. You want them fitted to fight, don't you? We cannot do for them what they will do for us. To them we will owe our liberty and all of the fine things that go with living in free America. The least that we can do is to make certain that they are fully armed, well fed, and adequately clothed. It is our duty to bend our efforts and our resources to help supply them in such quantity that they will not want for a single thing. Let's get busy — work harder, buy all of the Defense Bonds and Stamps that we possibly can buy.

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 2.

The Golden Text is: "Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you" (II Corinthians 13:11).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (I John 4:16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love" page 275).

Weekly Sermon

By the Rev. Warren Filkin, Ph. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

Three Necessities
The word "must" appears three times in the third chapter of John's Gospel, and three necessities are made clear through this little word.

The first necessity is, "Ye must be born again" (v. 7). This is the necessity of the sinner. The rich and poor, wise and unwise, old and young—everybody, everywhere, must be born again. This is necessary because every one is a sinner. He is a sinner because he has chosen sin. Isaiah 53:6 says: "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way." We have had our own way and have left God out of our thinking. We must all be born again or be lost forever.

The second necessity is the need of the Saviour. "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up; that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life" (vv. 14, 15). That men have sinned is a tragedy; but there is good news in the fact that Christ died for all men, and that He desires all men to be saved. Jesus reminded his hearers of the story of Israel in the wilderness when bitten by poisonous snakes. Moses asked God what to do, and he was instructed to make a serpent of brass and put it on a pole so that all could see it. All who looked on it were healed. Even so Christ was lifted up on the cross, and whosoever looks to Him in faith shall not die eternally, but have everlasting life.

The third necessity of John 3 is for the Christian. John the Baptist showed his true greatness when he said concerning Christ: "He must increase, but I must decrease" (v. 30). That is the need of every Christian—to let Christ have His complete way and will in his life. Charles Haddon Spurgeon, the great London preacher, wrote: "It takes more grace than I can tell, to play the second fiddle well." But that was what John the Baptist was willing to do for Christ. And that is what every one of us who desires to be a blessing for Christ, must do. We must be willing to say to our Lord, "None of self and all of Thee."

Your Horoscope

July 27, 28.—You have a keen mind, are an independent thinker, and your intention is generally in the right direction. You are a most enjoyable companion, somewhat fiery and excitable at times. You are very affectionate to those you love, and have many true friends.

July 29, 30, 31.—You can adapt yourself to most any conditions, and are usually successful in most of your undertakings. You love fun and recreation, and are fond of prying into the affairs of others. You have a deep religious nature, of dress and finery. You are sociable, companionable, and love to travel.

August 1, 2.—You want everything nice in your home, and spend money freely on your home and family. You have some business ability and are not afraid of work. You have some curiosity but nevertheless the necessity of accepting Christ's teaching that they might be thus prepared to die. The importance of living was not mentioned except as a means of preparation for death. Such a philosophy did not appeal to me then and does not now. I would rather think of Christ's teachings as a plan by which to live and by which man may get the fullest measure of living out of life. Living and building a better life in accordance with Christ's teachings is a constant challenge to the best in every man. It is a challenge to his creative instinct. It appeals to his desire to excel, to build something better today than he built yesterday, to build something better tomorrow than he built today.

"I Learned about LIGHT in a BLACKOUT!"

That's what a man wrote in a very human letter.

- "We had our first practice blackout here recently," he added. "For twenty minutes, my family and I sat in total darkness. The seriousness of war hit us all harder than ever before."
- "Then, when the all-clear sounded and we turned the lights back on, warmth and reassurance came into the room. That made me realize that whatever I spend for electricity, it's still about the cheapest thing I buy."

- Here in West Texas, where blackouts have been few and far between and the war seems far away, a lot of folks take electricity for granted until something reminds them how dependable and cheap it really is. If yours is an average family, you're getting about twice or three times as much electricity for your money as ten to fifteen years ago.
- The reasons why this service is so cheap and so dependable go back to the way America works—a way we're all fighting for now. A way of life in which free men have an opportunity to create and produce and succeed in proportion to their individual contribution.
- Your Electric Servant grew up that way—steadily making more jobs, serving more homes and people and lowering rates—under efficient business management. Because it has done its part of the job well, West Texas has the electric power to attract military training camps, flying schools and war plants. West Texas today is helping produce the men and material that promises a permanent blackout for the Axis dictators!

Miss Marie Cates Wed to Leon Callaway Sunday Morning

Miss Marie Cates, daughter of E. M. Cates of Thalia, was married to Leon Callaway, son of W. L. Callaway of Foard City Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock at the home of Judge and Mrs. C. J. Callaway.

Rev. W. B. Fitzgerald, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Crowell, performed the single and ceremony in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Callaway, uncle and aunt of the groom and Mrs. Henry Sprinkle, the groom's sister. The bride was attired in a costume suit of ash of roses with navy accessories.

Following the marriage, the couple was accompanied to the home of the bride's parents by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fox. A four-course dinner was served at the Cates home, after which the wedding party went to Quannah where the bride and groom left by train for a trip to Los Angeles and other points in California. The bride's going-away dress was a costume suit of navy and gold. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Callaway will make their home in Crowell.

FAMILY REUNION

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Christian Sunday at which time all their children and a few friends were present.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barton and sons, Billy, Johnny and Kenneth, of Elberta; Mr. and Mrs. George Christian and son, Larry, of Vernon; Jay Christian of Lubbock; Otto Christian who leaves soon for Camp Walters, Clark and Victor Christian, N. J. Jones, his mother and James Jones of Foard City and Jimmy Jones of Vernon.

In the afternoon, the following guests called: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Powers and daughter, Gene and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lyons.

Shower to Honor Mrs. J. M. Glover

Mrs. J. M. Barker and Mrs. Virgil Johnson of Foard City were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Barker last Friday afternoon with a love shower in honor of Mrs. J. M. Glover, who is leaving soon for Tennessee for an extended visit.

A short program was rendered, the first number of which was a song, "Yours," by Misses Marjorie and Mildred Marlow. A poem, "I'd Like to be the Sort of Friend You've Always Been to Me," was read by Mrs. Grady Halbert, and "White Cliffs of Dover" was sung by the Misses Marlow.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service presented Mrs. Glover with a traveling bag and the bag was filled with the gifts. Punch was served before and after the program.

The following ladies were present: Mesdames Glover, Lawrence, E. V. Halbert, Grady Halbert, G. E. Mills, W. L. Johnson, Laura Johnson, A. W. Barker, Lewis Sloan, Luther Jobe, R. B. Lilly, Luther Marlow, Glenn Shook, R. E. Sparks, Blake McDaniel, Virgil Johnson, J. M. Barker, Mrs. Ruth Bevers and Marjorie and Mildred Marlow.

WESLEYAN GUILD

The Wesleyan Service Guild met in the home of Miss Dorothy Ewin, Thursday evening, July 23, with fifteen members present.

The meeting opened with group singing of "Abide With Me" and "Holy, Holy, Holy." Miss Florence Black who was in charge of the program, presented Miss Blanche Hays, who gave the devotional. She stated that we are looking for the Christian outlook on life.

"Customs of a Dark Continent" was presented by Miss Wilma Jo Lovelady. She told the story of how an alligator had bitten a native woman, and the superstitions that the natives had regarding the use of a hypodermic needle, and of giving medical aid by an American missionary who was a doctor. After the wound healed the African tribes present were convinced that medical assistance was necessary. Hence, one ancient precedent was broken down.

Miss Lottie Russell talked on "South Africa." She stated that part of this country was at an elevation of three thousand feet, and had a mild climate, and the civilization is modern in every respect. Most of the country is free of wild animals, and there is one game preserve with every type of animal. No hunting is allowed, but visitors are permitted to visit it once a year. The religious interests are in a healthy and growing state. There are eight denominations, but the church must have a voice in the government.

The hostess served delicious home-made ice cream and cookies. The next meeting will be at 8 p. m. Thursday, Aug. 13, in the form of a covered dish supper, on the grounds back of the Methodist Church.

Roberts Thanks His Supporters

I am indeed grateful to all my friends and supporters of the 11th district for their vote and support in last Saturday's election. Although the vote was not sufficient to return me as your representative, I appreciate the fact that I carried three out of the four counties in my district.

All the wounds inflicted during my short campaign have already been healed, and I have only the kindest regard for those who did not see fit to support me and still count them as my friends.

It has been a great pleasure to serve you as your representative for the past two terms.

Yours sincerely,

War Production Board, declares that the winning or losing of the war may depend on our ability to collect and move the scrap metal to the mills.

It is expected that the campaign in this state will result in a large collection of the urgently needed scrap, which otherwise can not be readily obtained from outlying communities, farms, ranches and other properties.

"There is no doubt but that a great many tons of steel scrap can be collected in Texas in this manner," representatives of the Roadside Development Program said. "The Highway Department workers in the field will be on the lookout for the scrap metal deposited on the right-of-way line of highways by citizens and will collect it in highway trucks for shipment to mills from a central point in each area."

The shipment of scrap to mills has been retarded in the past by high freight rates, according to Mr. Mullican of the WPB, but these have been substantially reduced and the Government is working to arrange further reductions in an effort to help get the much needed material to the foundries.

The War Production Board points out the following scrap equivalents as essential in the manufacture of armament:

Five pounds, 4 hand grenades
420 pounds, 210 rifles (.30 cal.)
850 pounds, 150 light machine guns; 2 tons, 8 anti-tank guns (3.7 MM.); 15 tons, 1 tank; 12,000 tons, 1 battleship.

According to soil surveys covering more than 60 per cent of the state, Texas has over 100 series of soils including more than 500 soil types.
