W. T. McKeever of Tulsa Succumbs at Thalia Wednesday

Funeral Services Held in Tulsa at 4 o'Clock Saturday

W. T. McKeever, 66, of Tulsa, Okla., passed away in his sleep at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Marlin Woodson, at the Shell Oil Co. lease north of Thalia early Wednesday morning of last week. He has been visiting his daughter and husband for about two weeks.

Funeral services were conducted in the Wheeling Avenue Christian Church in Tulsa Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock with the pastor in charge. Interment followed in Rosehill Cemetery.

Mr. McKeever was born in Greeley, Colo., Feb. 6, 1877. He was married to Anna Nelson in Brown County on Oct. 19, 1902. Seven children were born to this couple, five daughters and two sons, all of whom attended the funeral with the exception of two.

Survivors include Mrs. McKeever of Tulsa and the following children: Miss Lillian McKeever of Tulsa; Mrs. Marlin Woodson of Thalia; Mrs. M. F. Fanning of Beverly Hills, Calif.; Mrs. Leslie Marcorde, Burbank, Calif.; W. H. McKeever, Los Angeles, Calif.; T. A. McKeever, Santa Monica, Calif.; Mrs. C. A. ## Foard Farmers Are Members of F. S. A. Farm Ownership Club

Recognition has come to fifteen Farm Ownership borrowers in the three counties served by the local FSA office, according to Julian Wright of Vernon, F. S. A. supervisor. During 1942 these borrowers paid $1,000.00 or more on the land that they had purchased under the Bankhead Jones Farm Tenant Act during the past year. Some of these farmers are from 5 to 10 years ahead of schedule.

Foard County's five farmers, who received this distinction were: J. M. Barker, Samuel E. Croshaw, Cecil E. Dunn, Charlie E. Reynolds and Luther Tampion. Wilbarger County had three farmers who received certificates of membership. They were: Dale Baldwin of Rayland Community, Walter Skipworth of Farmer's Valley and Morgan Price of the Five-in-One community.

Hardeman County had seven farmers to receive membership certificates. They were: Clifton R. Hargeshelmer, Ivan B. Ketchersid, Phillip Mackop, Leonard Wall, Therie Wall, Walter W. Waiser and Loyd West.

Under the payment plan selected by most of these farmers they are permitted to pay large amounts on their farms in good years and in this way build up a reserve for the lean years. These farms were bought with funds from F. S. A. and allowed 40 years to pay if needed. Many of these are going to pay out in from 5 to 10 years. These borrowers are taking advantage of the fine system of making payments on their farms in order to build up security for the future.

The Thousand Dollar Club is composed of the FSA Farm Ownership borrowers all over the nation who paid $1,000.00 or more on their farms in 1942. Their names are inscribed on the roll of the Club in the Regional Office of the Farm Security Administration at Dallas, Texas.

A 10 per cent reduction in domestic and commercial use of electricity would save over 4,000,000 tons of coal or its equivalent annually and more than 75,000,000 lamp bulbs.

7,100 Bales Cotton Ginned in County from Present Crop

Cotton ginned in Foard County from the 1943 crop had reached a total of 7,100 bales up to Wednesday at noon, according to figures obtained by The News from the gins at Margaret, Rayland, Thalia and Crowell. About 80 or 85 per cent of the crop has been ginned, according to the managers of the gins.

In some communities the crop is about one-half what it was in 1942. In other places, it is almost up to that of last year. On account of the scarcity of pickers, some farmers have built sleds and gathered their crops in that manner and, where conditions were favorable, it proved a success.

In spite of the extreme dry summer, Foard County's cotton crop has turned out a fair yield.

Discarded Clothing and Rag Drive to Start November 22

According to information received from the War Production Board by Mrs. R. S. Carroll, chairman Women's Activities of Foard County Salvage Committee, there will be a discarded clothing and rag drive commencing Nov. 22 and continuing through Dec. 4. This drive is for Foreign and Domestic Relief, also for war purposes.

Clothing is urgently needed to help clothe and rehabilitate people in liberated countries abroad and in the United States. Most all items of clothing are needed, ranging from infants' to men's and women's garments, except shoes, hats, caps and galoshes. Clothing that is outmoded, even though slightly in need of repairs, is acceptable and any type of clean rags.

Garments need not be cleaned or repaired, as the Government requires that all garments must be dry cleaned before being used. There will be a committee in each rural community to assist in the collecting clothing, and if the donors desire, they can bring them direct to the basement of the court house, where a place is being set up to classify and ship.

Hub Fish Assisted with War Chest Drive in Vivian Community

In the advertisement in The News last week expressing thanks and appreciation for the fine work done by the workers of the county in putting over the War Chest drive in such a splendid manner, due to an oversight, the name of Hub Fish was not included on the committee of the Vivian community along with Hartley Easley and Frank Allison. Mr. Fish canvassed the north side of the community and did an excellent job and it is regretted that this error was made in the material furnished for the ad.

All-Day Meeting at the First Baptist Church Sunday Will Include Laying of Corner Stone and Dedication Services

On Sunday, November 21, dedication services of the rebuilt Baptist Church will be held at the church in an all-day meeting. The church has been erected since the tornado which tore the old structure away on April 28, 1942. All debt has been cleared on the beautiful new building and furnishings, and dedication ceremonies will be observed.

The service will begin with Sunday School at 9:45 Sunday morning with a goal of 200 present. Worship service at the 11 o'clock hour will include the song service, special music by Mrs. A. F. Wright and a message by the pastor, Rev. Otis Strickland. At 12 o'clock, the corner stone will be laid, and Mrs. N. A. Crowell, the only charter member of the church still living, will place the receptacle in the corner stone.

Mrs. H. D. Nelson Given Air Medals for Missing Son

Because he has been reported as missing in action since April 10, the Air Medal and two Oak Leaf clusters awarded to Sgt. Harvey D. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Nelson, for outstanding achievement in line of duty, were delivered to Mrs. Nelson, his mother, in appropriate, impressive ceremonies at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the presence of a large crowd of friends.

Clint White, John E. Long, D. R. Magee and L. A. Andrews, representing the Gordon J. Ford American Legion Post, served as ushers for the occasion. Mr. White was also program chairman. The presentation was made by Col. John R. White of the Chidress Army Flying Field, to whom the awards were sent by government authorities.

The color guard, composed of Staff Sgt. J. A. Pearce, Staff Sgt. P. H. Jackson and Cpl. C. H. Mason, preceded the family and stood on the platform. To represent the crew of a Flying Fortress like that of which Sgt. Nelson was a member when last seen, were the following from the Chidress Field, who had honorary seats: Sgt. J. W. Flannigan, Cpl. Willie A. Bell, Pfc. Paul Bellinger, Pfc. Joseph Duxa and Pvt. Samuel Newell.

Mrs. Paul Shirley played "The Army Air Corps" as a prelude, after which "America" was sung by the audience. Rev. Otis Strickland, pastor of the church, offered a prayer. A men's quartet composed of John Rason, Sam Mills, Ebb Seales and E. A. Dunagan sang "Near the Cross." Mrs. W. B. Johnson gave a beautiful reading, entitled "The Honor Roll." I. T. Graves, superintendent of Crowell schools, paid tribute to Sgt. Nelson, familiarly known to homefolks as "Junior," attesting to the fact that he was an outstanding boy, with integrity, high ideals and honorable in every respect.

Col. White, in presenting the medals to Mrs. Nelson, explained the significance of each honor and said the highest compliment to one who had made the sacrifice necessary in winning the awards. Sgt. Nelson participated in five sorties in the North African theatre of war, as a gunner, before his plane went down.

The pianist played the National Anthem as the closing number. The Air Medal is composed of a bronze plate in the form of an eagle with two small airplanes thereon. On the reverse side is engraved the grade, name and organization of the recipient. The plate is suspended from a silk moire ribbon in blue and gold colors, blue predominating. The two oak leaf clusters are tiny pins and attached to the ribbon. The oak leaf clusters represent the same noble achievements as the Air Medal.

According to letters received by Mrs. Johnson, Lieut. Johnson's plane was badly damaged by anti-aircraft fire, and he was forced to make an emergency landing in the water ten miles off the shore of an enemy island. quired to report such holdings on or before December 1 to their nearest Federal Reserve Bank. Practically every type of property must be reported—real estate holdings, cash assets, foreign currency, foreign securities, interests in foreign organizations, patents and trade mark agreements and contracts. Order can be returned more rapidly, as territories are reoccupied, if military authorities have such information at hand, states the Treasury Department. All information will be confidential and will be available only to accredited representatives of the Treasury. Simplify Gas Rationing All "B" and "C" gasoline coupons issued after December 1 will be worth five gallons each, compared with the present value of two gallons for coupons of those types in the east and midwest and four tons in the far west. This means "B" and "C" books will contain fewer coupons than in the past, but each coupon will be good for more gallons than before. No increase in the amount of gasoline allowed is involved. Farmers To Get Batteries Approximately 20 per cent of the fourth quarter production of flashlight batteries will be distributed to farmers, according to WPB. This makes enough batteries for about normal rural consumption available through farm outlets. Fertilizer Outlook American farmers will have more nitrogen and slightly less potash in the 1944-45 "fertilizer year," than they had in the previous year, according to testimony of WPB officials before a senate sub-committee on agriculture and forestry. Farmers should have four tons of nitrogen for every three they had last year, according to present indications. WPB is endeavoring to make additional quantities of potash available for agriculture in 1944-45. Step Up Truck Production A four-fold increase in its 1944 civilian truck production program has been announced by the War Production Board. So important is this program that it has been given priority ratings equal to aircraft and high octane gas. Provisions are also made for production and replacement parts for civilian use. In spite of the four-fold increase, the new goal of 123,492 trucks is still far short of the pre-war production of approximately 700,000. To Store Meat For Shipping A wider variety of rationed meats will be available to the housewife during the low ebb of meat production next spring under a rationing plan recently announced by OPA. Meat wholesalers will be loaned points to fill their storage freezers with veal, lamb, mutton and the lower grades of beef between now and mid-January, the peak period of meat output. Urges Farmers To Cut Trees Harvest of war-needed lumber and other wood products from the 139,000,000 acres of productive woodland on farms can be sharply increased without danger (Answers on page 7).

Under normal conditions a good roof will last 10 to 20 years or more. The small saving in cost between the best roof and a poor one may mean the loss of 1/4 to 1/3 of the life of the roof in addition to the damage and inconvenience it causes in the meantime. Application is just as important as the quality roofing. For assured roof satisfaction don't let anyone but an experienced roofer apply the roof to your property. Our 75 years experience taught us to sell nothing but the highest quality roofing on the market.

State-Wide "Health for Victory" in State Opened November 6

Austin, Nov. 6.—Inauguration of a state-wide "Health for Victory" campaign, designed to maintain the civilian population of Texas at the peak of productive capacity and to protect members of the armed forces stationed here, was announced today by the State War Office.

In a letter to all county judges and mayors of Texas, who serve as the local co-ordinators of war activities, Governor Coke R. Stevenson, chairman of the National Defense Committee for Texas, expressed concern over the public health situation existing in many sections of the state.

The state-wide campaign was organized following conferences of officials of the state.

The state-wide campaign was organized following conferences of officials of the State War Office, the Governor's Staff, and representatives of the State Health Department, at which detailed reports from all parts of Texas were studied.

It was revealed that in between 75 and 100 communities emergency sanitation and health programs have been started already by state and local health authorities, in collaboration with other public officials, civilian defense organizations, commercial and civic clubs.

The view was expressed, however, that "a united effort, on a state-wide basis, must now be undertaken if we are to cope with the problem of maintaining public health and safety."

In a statement accompanying the Governor's bulletin to local officials, the State Health Department expressed concern over the increase in typhus fever throughout Texas. Rats have been responsible for the spread of this disease, the statement said, and trapping, poisoning, and rat-proofing were recommended in all communities.

Emphasis was placed also by the Health Department of the importance of educational and instructional work to combat typhoid, dysentery, and other filth-borne diseases which are spread through contaminated water and food.

The toll in Texas manpower which malaria is taking was noted. A certain type of mosquito is the sole agent of transmission of this disease, the statement said. Other types of mosquitoes were characterized as conveyors of dengue fever and many become the vectors of yellow fever.

The Governor called upon the local leaders to inaugurate campaigns immediately in their respective jurisdictions, organizing such committees and developing such plans as may be indicated to handle the various local situations. The communities were offered the services of public health sanitarians, members of the staff of the State War Office, and representatives of other state agencies.

Particular attention was given to the importance of collaboration with local American Red Cross chapters in programs of nursing, nurse's aides, and first aid, which, the Governor said, took on more and more significance due to the serious shortage of doctors and nurses and hospital facilities.

HISTORY

Promulgation of the Monroe Doctrine.—December 2: The idea of the Monroe Doctrine was first presented to the American people on December 2, 1823, in President Monroe's annual message to the Congress. The message announced the opposition of the United States to any move on the part of European nations for the extension of control over territory on the American continent. In referring to their existing disputes between the United States on one hand and Russia and Great Britain on the other, President Monroe said: "The American continents are henceforth not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by any European powers." In reference to the proposed action of the Holy Alliance to assist Spain in recovering control over South American countries which had rebelled against Spanish rule he said: "With governments who have declared their independence and maintained it...we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them or of controlling in any other manner their destiny by any European powers in any other light than a manifestation of unfriendly disposition of the United States." This declaration, bold, courageous and unequivocal for a young nation such as the United States to make, was approved by Columbia, Brazil and Argentina at once. Later in pursuit of the policy announced in the Monroe Doctrine the French were asked to withdraw from Mexico, where they had set up a monarch with Maximilian on the throne. It was also cited as justification for the demand by President Cleveland that the boundary dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela be settled by arbitration for the protection of the rights of Venezuela.

President Roosevelt's plan for the returning soldier should not be regarded as political. It is not a controversial matter. Our mistake in properly caring for the soldier following World War No. 1 should not be repeated.

Ed Gossett Speaks Against Strikes

In a speech on the floor of the House of Representatives on Nov. 1, Representative Ed Gossett had the following timely remarks to make concerning the pending railroad strike: "Mr. Speaker, it is quite ironical that in the same mail this morning each member received a 15-page closely printed brief purporting to justify the pending threat of a strike by the railroad organizations, and also a reprint of a famous advertisement entitled 'Missing,' showing a picture of a little boy, whose father was killed in action, climbing the stairway to an empty bedroom. "Most members of the railroad labor organizations are high class, good American citizens. I cannot believe they seriously entertain the threat of a strike. No man with a heart could read this advertisement 'Missing,' and contemplate American casualty lists, and then strike against the country for which our finest young men die. "Mr. Speaker, 95 per cent of all good Americans will agree that any man who will now deliberately and wilfully strike in a vital war industry not only injures the cry man in uniform, but is a traitor to his country."

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

At the present time the country is faced with two big labor strikes, one by the coal miners and one by the railroad workers. Both strikes are being called at the most critical time in our war effort. A stoppage of work in either the mines or in our transportation system, even for a short time will seriously cripple the war effort.

Due to this critical condition the sympathy of the country is not with the strikers. The people of the country as a whole who are doing their best to win the war feel that this is no time to call a strike.

If inequalities do exist and a standard of living is threatened they can be worked out. The present administration's sympathy for labor is well known. Labor has received more concessions from it than any other administration. There has not been an instance in which labor has shown to the present administration a real need that it has not received consideration and the administration's support. In many instances I might add that it has appeared to the man in the street that the administration is definitely for labor—ever to the point of being anti-capital and anti-business management.

For this reason the feeling quite generally is, that labor, if its demands are just and fair and necessary for the workers will be given due consideration and relief by appealing to the administration.

The big problem before the administration is to prevent inflation and runaway prices. So far their effort has been successful. A comparison with prices during World War I will show at a glance just how successful the effort has been. True there has been inequalities, there have been failures. The plan has not worked one hundred per cent, but it has worked to a great degree. Up to the present time there has been no alarming inflation, this notwithstanding the fact that there is a great cash reserve in this country which might bid for goods and a marked scarcity in many items. This situation is a perfect set-up for inflation. It needs but the lifting of the hand of restraint to sweep the country. Those of us who went through the last war know that once the tide of inflation breaks loose it knows no bounds. Prices skyrocket over night. The pay day that follows, as those who went through World War I know, takes all of one supposed year and more. It wipes the platter clean.

There is scarcely a person in this country who is not carrying an extra burden because of the war. They are doing more work than they ever did in peace times, and are receiving for their efforts merely a living. They are denying themselves in an effort to comply with the war time program and are doing it cheerfully and gladly because they feel that it is their fair contribution to the war effort. They expect to make some sacrifices and would not feel right if they did not. Their interest in the country and its welfare compels it.

I am not presuming to say that demands for increases are not justified. No one except those who have an opportunity to study both sides of the controversy could answer this, or would be in a position to render judgment. The point I am trying to make, however, is that if the demand is fair and right, the increase can be secured through administration action. The war powers of the President are sufficient to secure this. His administrative background is evidence to the whole country that he will champion any fair demand. He will bend backward to favor a just demand from labor. This is no time for any group to attempt to show its power. With a war on our hands and our man power at the battle front we at home should be willing to match their effort and their sacrifice with the best effort possible and a comparable sacrifice.

Electricity used for cooking can be saved if the range is kept clean and properly adjusted. The range should not be used for heating the kitchen.

30 YEARS AGO IN THE NEWS

Items below were taken in whole or in part from the issue of The News of Nov. 21, 1913:

Lee Allan Beverly and Elmer Garlinghouse, two Crowell boys, have been experimenting with wireless telegraphy for some time, but no one knew until recently what they had really accomplished. The boys have been erecting towers here and there about town, but it was not generally known that they were actually talking to each other over wire until a few days ago when they began the erection of a tower sixty-two feet high. They now have their instruments working nicely, and when the tower is completed, they expect to erect one out in the country and attempt to talk to each other at a greater distance than they have heretofore.

Foard City now has a station agent. Owing to an increase of business at that place, the Orient Railroad Company has seen fit to make an agent's station of Foard City which will relieve the agent and other employees at Crowell.

Claude Cooper, a Crowell boy, who has been trying out with the New York Giants, will be retained by that club for the coming season, according to an Associated Press report to a St. Louis paper. Claude is a fine player, and it is gratifying to his many Crowell friends to learn of his success in the base ball world.

Rev. R. A. Stewart, the new Methodist pastor, will preach his first sermon here Sunday. Let every member, and others, too, who feel disposed to do so, come out and hear him.

We are in receipt of a letter from Tully B. Klepper asking us to change the address of his paper to 843 Maple Ave., Los Angeles, Calif. Tully says he gets The News regularly and that he enjoys it fully. All right, Tully, it's changed and here she goes.

W. B. Carter and wife came up from San Angelo Sunday to visit friends and relatives. Mr. Carter returned Sunday to be at his post of duty with the Orient, while Mrs. Carter remained to prolong her visit.

Bryan O'Connell celebrated his 12th birthday at his home last Thursday. He invited a number of his little friends, and they played various games and indulged in other amusements.

Dr. Hines Clark and family have moved into their handsome new home on the corner of Foard and Denton streets. They simply are at home to their friends, too far as that is concerned. The News joins the large throng of friends who are congratulating them in the possession of a handsome home after having lost their other one by fire last summer.

Knox County Clubs Hold Achievement Day at Benjamin

Miss Lucile King, County Home Demonstration Agent, assisted by the Benjamin club, was hostess to the Home Demonstration Clubs of Knox County in an achievement day program, Friday, Nov. 5, in the assembly room at the court house.

It was the culmination of the club year's goal of "Eat it up, wear it out, make it do, or do without." Talent, ingenuity and skill were the highlights of the innumerable objects of arts and crafts on display.

The eight clubs of the county each had a booth in competition for ribbons awarded on booth, clothing-handwork, feed, and home improvement.

Program for the day: Clubs met at 10 a. m. Each club drew for place and arranged their booths. Articles were limited to work done by club members during the present club year. A covered dish luncheon, provided by the several clubs, was served at noon, at which Mrs. J. W. Milton of Benjamin, gave the invocation. At three o'clock till ten the doors were thrown open to the public and the mood of praise was ample reward for work well done, and a high tribute to the expert leadership of Miss King.

Mr. Dunkle, County Agent, gave a most instructive demonstration on home-made chick brooders, using his own finished product, which merits a blue ribbon for achievement.

Both Mr. Dunkle and Miss King took pictures throughout the day. The judging and awards was by Miss Kathryn Sands, Home Demonstration Agent of Haskell; Miss Margaret Wilkerson, Home Demonstration Agent of Seymour; and Miss Annie Mae King, teacher of vocational home-making, of Munday.

Awards were as follows: Booth, Sunset first, Brock 2nd; Truscott 3rd. Foods, Union Grove 1st, Truscott 2nd, Sunset 3rd. Home Improvement, Sunset first, Brock 2nd, Truscott 3rd. Clothing and Handwork, Varg 1st, Gilliland 2nd, Sunset 3rd.

Health of Young Children Should Be Guarded in Winter

Austin.—Seasonal health hazards for young children are to be guarded against in the wintertime as carefully as they are in the summertime in the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Every mother is familiar with so-called summer complaints which affect small children but certain winter diseases can be just as harmful and are just as likely to make their appearance unless proper precautions are used," Dr. Cox said.

In the group of winter diseases Dr. Cox included influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, and even diphtheria when a child has not been immunized. Any such disease affecting a child's respiratory or breathing system is apt to be very serious and only too often fatal. Pneumonia, for example, develops from a neglected cold or may follow a severe case of measles or whooping cough. Bronchitis condition may also prove to be an after-effect of these diseases and these respiratory ailments are much more difficult to combat successfully than the digestive ailments which are prevalent in the summertime and known as summer complaints.

"These winter diseases are especially dangerous to babies and very young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread from the secretions of the nose and mouth. Children are not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints and the first line of defense against them is to strengthen the child's power of resistance against disease." Dr. Cox advised. "The second step is to keep them under medical supervision and the third is to make sure that they avoid contact with those who have coughs, colds, or fevers."

Food Administrator Marvin Jones Makes Statement on Feeds

Statement by War Food Administrator Marvin Jones on the Protein Concentrate and Feed Grain Situation released recently follows: "Considerable confusion has arisen as to the protein concentrate situation as well as some of the other livestock feeds. This confusion is the result of a great deal of misinformation and rumor."

"The War Food Administration is endeavoring to handle these concentrates through the regular commercial channels. However, it has authorized Commodity Credit Corporation to direct the shipment of 20 per cent of all kinds of concentrates in an effort to take care of emergencies. The physical distribution of this 20 per cent is left in the hands of the trade unless an emergency should arise that would justify the War Food Administration stepping in to handle it. In that case, the 20 per cent would still be handled by the trade under the direction of Commodity Credit Corporation.

"Certain safeguards have been instituted to prevent the hoarding of protein concentrates by speculators, such as the accumulation of large stocks. This should prevent the accumulation of more than 15 days' supply by anyone with the exception of livestock feeders who can stock 30 days' supply, and ranchmen who are permitted to stock their season's supply because of the necessity of getting this feed to their ranches or feed lots before they are prevented from doing so by the snow."

"There is no regulation to keep a dealer from selling concentrates to anyone so long as he stays within these limits. Anyone wishing to purchase concentrates will do it in the same way he had always done it, and no certificate or permission is required."

"The total amount of concentrates this year will be greater than was used last year, although there will be less per animal unit than there was last year on account of the increased numbers of livestock. However, there will be about the same amount per animal unit as there was prior to 1940."

"As to other feeds, our estimates show about 3 billion bushels of corn, about 835 million bushels of wheat, 335 million bushels of barley, 1,150 million bushels of oats, 33 million bushels of rye, and 100 million bushels of grain sorghums. In addition to the feed produced in the United States we are importing wheat for resale for feed; and in addition, private importers are bringing in oats and barley from Canada. Also, feed is being brought in from South America to the extent that the shipping situation will permit.

"The feed situation will be tight but not desperate. Everyone should be discouraged from buying more feed than for his current needs. The crushing mills have only recently started up and some of them are still not in operation. They will be in operation throughout the winter, and protein will be available as soon as crushed.

"If everyone will take a reasonable attitude toward the situation, we will be able to take care of our livestock of all kinds in a manner that was normal to 1940."

During last summer members of the Junior Red Cross all over the country remained active in a manner that was normal to 1940. "Jeep" groups, under supervision of local chapters, summer camps and camps.

STUDENTS HELP RELIEVE MANPOWER SHORTAGE

Because Local Board No. 1 has been a very active organization in Crowell and because the defense factories have been begging for workers at very high wages, a serious man-power shortage has developed causing many business houses to close for the duration. Many Crowell High School students have taken part-time jobs help to remedy this critical situation. We have compiled a list of such part-time workers. Nearly a hundred students help their fathers on farms to raise food, which is our most important job for victory. Besides these, there are the following workers in the town: Raymond Hord, Beverly Hardware and Furniture; Elmer Boykin, Sam Crews Grocery (Truscott); Roy Joe Cates, Ferguson Drug; Bobby Cooper, Webbs Cash Grocery; Bill Bruce, Foard County News office; G. W. Johnson, Paul Bell and John Thomas Rator, Hancy-Riser Grocery; Billy Cooper, Cooper Service Station; Jimmy Hawkins, Telephone Office; Carl Steele, Crowell High School; Edgar Spears, Spears Blacksmith; E. L. Ballard, Ballard Feed and Produce; Kathleen Eddy, Liberty Cafe; Kenneth Archer, Texaco Service Station; Bob Gobin, Bird Dry Goods Store; Dan Campbell, Crowell Service Station; Sammy Jones, Reader Drug; and R. L. Thomas, Brooks Tailor Shop. Bill Cox, David Bowley, Martin Jones and Z. D. Shaw drive CHS school buses.

These students are doing their part by "filling in" for the soldier or some one in a defense plant.

As we look over the names of those who have given to our Junior Red Cross, we find that 85 per cent of our school has contributed. Four out of seven rooms are 100 per cent and the other three are very close. In all, $21.19 has been donated. We assure everyone who has given, even as much as one nickel, that is a worthy cause and your help is greatly appreciated.

STAMPS

The stamps bought this week are as follows: Kenner, $12.25; Motley, 17.55; Myers, $3.20; Mansard, $3.00; Sloan, $3.95; Johnson, $1.90; and Graves, $1.65.

If you forget to do your share this week, then please remember that buying a war stamp is not a thing to be sneezed at! Next week let's invest our money in stamps and bonds. It is a grand investment.

IF I'M WRONG, SUE ME

Bill Bruce

Of course, every good CHS student firmly believes that the Crowell Wildcats will win their games, but that is no reason why they should agree on the college and AA football winners. And believe, good reader, they do not. There are two very distinct factions that have developed in the school: the Texas University fans and the Texas A & M fans. These two are continually arguing the outcome of the big turkey day classic. Unaccustomed as I am at picking football winners, I shall stick my neck out and predict a decisive victory for the Longhorns. This is against the better judgment of the regular sports writer of this paper, I need, along with Alton Griffin, Raymond Hord, Bob Gobin, and many others. Bill Short believes that the "tea sippers" will be absolutely no match for the "share croppers" from Aggieland.

Another feature CHS students are watching this week is the Iowa Preflight-Notre Dame game because the former CHS star, Dick Todd, will be playing with the Navy team. Your contributor believes the Wolverines will play Notre Dame the closest game of their season.

There's no use beating around the bush, boys, for it seems Navy's winning streak over Army is all over when they encounter the Army.

It looks like a 13-0 win for Vernon when they clash with their old rivals, the Wichita lads.

BASIC ENGLISH

Basic English is a "language within a language." Winston Churchill thinks it might become an international language after the war.

When we explain the meaning of a word, we are not exactly using Basic English; but part of the words will be basic. There are only about a thousand basic words. If one word means the same as another, it is not used. There are several words that we could do without, and will in the future. The need for simple phrases and clear explanations will be even greater in the world of tomorrow than it is today. The airways and seas will bring the world closer together and all the languages in contact with another.

Already Basic English is being taught to the Chinese air cadets and has proved useful. After the war, some common language will be needed. In fact, it is needed already, so why wait for some new language when there are already about 200 million Basic English teachers? With a few hours practice, every English speaker can become a Basic teacher.

We do not have to be 100 per cent Basic, but if we use 90 per cent Basic, we can be understood, especially if we translate our non-Basic words into Basic. Basic is a way of learning English faster, easier, and a way of using it effectively among nations.

CHS TO OBSERVE HOLIDAYS

Uh, huh! We are going to have holidays. Even though many pleasures have been "cut" since the war, it has been decided that we will have Christmas and Thanksgiving holidays. School will be turned out from November 25 through November 29 for Thanksgiving, and from December 24 through January 3, 1944 for Christmas. Here's hoping everyone enjoys these holidays.

Dear Editor:
 As a student of Crowell High School I am offering this letter as criticism of the behavior of our students in the halls. As soon as the bells ring, there is a mad rush for the doors. When the stairs are reached, it is almost necessary to hold on to the banister in order to keep from going down into the wrong side. I really don't see the need of such a hurry just to go down from one class to another. As far as I can see it is absolutely unnecessary to hurry to classes anyway, just take your time and you will get there soon enough.

A High School Boy.

Dear Editor:
 During the last few years the tennis courts have continued to run down. They used to be very good and easy to play on, but now they seem to depreciate more every year. Only one of them is in good condition. I think it would be important to all if we all pitched in and helped clean them up. Some physical education groups might enjoy it. Tennis is a good, clean, healthful sport, and we should have enough courts to enjoy it thoroughly.

Sincerely,
 Tennis Player.

Dear Editor:
 I think something should be said about our school newspaper. To my opinion, we have a very good paper.

I have noticed that the first thing a group of students look at when they get the "News" is the gossip column. Everyone enjoys the news about other students; so why not make your paper more interesting by putting more gossip and jokes? Gaylon Parris.

Dear Editor:
 Many improvements could be made in our school. First, several of our windows need shades. In the study hall and in the class rooms on the east we have to move around from seat to seat to keep out of the sun. However, we do appreciate the fact that all our window-lights are in and the rest of our building is well kept.

I think we could be a little quieter changing classes and before the teacher comes to the classroom. If we were to have a visitor in school, he would not have a favorable impression of our halls.

We could be more careful with our library books and magazines, too.

As a whole, we have a wonderful school, and let's keep it that way.

Sincerely,
 Mentie Brisco.

SHAKE

Ever think about handshakes? You've experienced lots of them, but have you ever considered the differences in technique you encounter?

Now, there's the bone crusher, the fellow who grinds your ring right into the bone... or the shoulder dislocator who gives your arm a yank that makes you want to cross with a left to the jaw.

Then, on the opposite side, there's the very dead codfish grip; cold, limp and usually clammy. Likewise the la-de-la, archly curved wrist effect that goes over big in the Ladies Literary and Gossip Society.

In fact, there are almost as many different handshakes as there people and they offer a surprising clue to personality. Check up and see for yourself.

WHAT'S BUZZING

Know all, see all, and tell more than we know. That's us, folks! He! He! And in speaking of the love affairs of the week, here we go: The first episode that crosses my mind (what mind?) is that of Bill Cox and Mildred Marlow. Double-datin' with them were "Babe" and Helen Callaway. Polly Davis seemed rather downhearted Friday night because of the fact that "Doc" was out of town. Tough luck, Polly... We might add that she must have been very lonesome, because she was seen in the company of Gordon Erwin. Careful there, Doc... The usual dates were seen together Friday and Saturday night. They were J. L. Brock and Evelyn Barker, and J. L. Gobin and De Alva Thomas. This looks like a couple of "lasting romances," eh what? ... Kenneth Archer was with his usual stand-by last Friday night. Naturally we are speaking of Miss Janice Ward... Raymond Hord has a new heart-beat. She is none other than Miss Tommie Eaton... Also seen together Friday night were John Thomas Rator and Helen Callaway. It looks as though it will be a fight to the finish between Thomas and "Babe"...

Janet Roark and Weldon Johnson are still "that way" about each other. Congratulations, both of you. Sue Jones had a "blow out" Saturday night, and from all reports, everyone had a marvelous time. We need more of these... Liverne Archer and that casanova of the Campus, Bill Breedlove, were doing OK at the ball game Friday night. What about Edmond Ward, Laverne?... That is a very pretty jacket Dot Lewis is wearing. The lucky guy is Fred Pierce... The case of Kathleen Eddy and Jimmy Johnson seems to be progressing very smoothly. Kathleen, have you forgotten that good looking brunette, Kenny Norman?... Maggie and "the Navy" are progressing as usual... Paul Bell and Betty Johnson are still making eyes. We wonder if this will eventually work up to something?... Kids! Why don't you take pity on us poor "Cuzzins" and help us out a little every week? We certainly do appreciate those little notes in Locker 44 every week—although they are "few and far between." Anyway, come on. Help us... Well, looks as if we'll have to sign off until next week. All of you little hep cats be good now, and don't get into any trouble. So long—

 The Cuzzins

JOKES

Inscription on a tombstone in St. Mary's Churchyard, Charleston, S. C., is as follows:
 "As you are, so once was I;
 As I am so shalt thou be;
 Hence prepare thyself and follow me!"
 Printed beneath it are the following words:
 "To follow thee, I'm not intent,
 Until I know which way you went!"

 Mrs. Goofus (to hired maid):
 "Why are you leaving? Haven't we always treated you just like one of the family?"
 Ethelberta: "Yes, mam, and that's why I'm leaving."

 Mr. Graves: "What is the most outstanding contribution that chemistry has given to the world?"
 Alton Reeder: "Blondes."

 I suppose everyone knows that Pop Corn is the father of all of those little moron jokes!

Billy Fred: "Say, Coach, did you see me cross the goal line five times that half?"
 Coach Graves: "Yeah, you nit-wit, but the only time it was is when you have the ball!"
 Billy Fred: "Heck! Every new rules!"

DESTROYER-ESCORT BUILT IN 25 DAYS

NEW WORLD'S RECORD IN SHIP CONSTRUCTION

Beats World War I Destroyer Time of 45½ Days — Bethlehem Set Both Marks

Has Large Gun-Power for Both Offensive and Defensive Service; Equipped for Surface, Depth Bomb and Anti-Aircraft Combat

DE photo by U. S. Navy—cleared by Press Relations Office, U. S. Navy, Washington, D. C. Destroyer-escort designed by U. S. Navy has wide range of fire-power and fast speed. DE Reynolds was built by Bethlehem-Hingham Shipyard in record time of 25 days.

Beating all prior records, the destroyer-escort Reynolds was completed and delivered November 3 to the U. S. Navy, by the Bethlehem-Hingham Shipyard just 25 days after keel laying.

The Reynolds is a hard-hitting, fighting unit with great fire-power and speed, a bigger, more powerful ship than the destroyer Reid, which held the previous production record of being built in 45½ days, during World War I. Bethlehem built both ships.

The Reynolds has terrific battle armament for surface, depth bomb, or anti-aircraft combat. Her main battery has guns mounted in three turrets which can revolve in a complete circle to follow a target, and can be fired by a trained crew with amazing accuracy and rapidity. Aft is a 40-mm. Bofors gun, each barrel capable of firing 120 rounds of 2-pound projectiles per minute. She has numerous 20-mm. Oerlikon machine guns with a potential fire-power of nearly 400 shells every 60 seconds. Also, along port and starboard rails aft of amidships are a flock of K-guns which can toss out the famous 300-pound "ash cans" which make it unhealthy for any submarine within hundreds of yards.

The Reynolds is, in fact, one of those powerful, swift, sea-panthers designed by the Navy to drive the Nazi subs from the Atlantic and protect American convoys. She can deliver a terrific curtain of fire effective at 2500 yards against air or surface targets. Like some of her sister ships, she is one of Uncle Sam's contributions to the British fleet.

The first group of ships in the destroyer-escort class were built in 302 days.

The next group in this class were built in 206 days. Now the Reynolds has set the mark of 25 days.

And she is but one of hundreds of warships steaming out of the shipyards of America to speed the day of Victory.

McNutt, chairman of the War Manpower Commission, when the history of this war is written, he said, "I am certain that much of the credit for victory will go to the men and women of our rural districts. Certainly in no war has the production of food played so vital a part and certainly no group has rallied behind the war effort with more eagerness and devotion."

New Use For Farm Waste Peanut shells, ground corncobs and similar waste agricultural materials have been found useful for cleaning engines, bearings, valves, pumps and many other machinery and metal parts, the Department of Agriculture has announced. The new use has been found by scientists at The Northern Regional Research Laboratory at Peoria, Ill.

Room Temperature Important in Winter to Prevent Colds

Austin.—With the approach of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and the moment that the outside temperature is encountered, much harm may result. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death.

"An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A thermometer kept within the range suggested, plus the careful maintenance of proper humidity, will help prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hastwell)

The Lord Won't Do It Alone: The Scriptures tell us that if we trust in the Lord all will be well with us. Obviously life is most satisfactory when we trust in the Lord. I have seen, however, people who appear to overdo it. They not only trust the Lord to handle the Lord's part of looking after their welfare but appear to be willing to leave it to the Lord to handle their own end of the deal as well. I don't believe the Lord will do this. I don't believe the Lord will help anyone until he helps himself all he can. Too many people blame the Lord for not helping them when the truth is they are too lazy and indifferent to do what they can do to help themselves.

Christian Science Services "Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, in Sunday, November 21.

The Golden Text is: "Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?" (1 Corinthians 6:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings" (Psalms 61:4).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sooner or later we shall learn that the fetters of man's finite capacity are forged by the illusion that he lives in body instead of in Soul; in matter instead of in Spirit" (page 223).

"Buy War Bonds"

Text: "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."—John 14:1-3.

What an admirable solicitation—"Buy war bonds!" A patriotic act, indeed, which rewards the purchaser with national, social, and humanitarian liberties, and at the same time is far-reaching to at least one or two generations.

While the subject of war bonds is on the lips of every knowing American, many do not have the slightest inkling that "peace bonds" may also be secured. But these are "without money and without price," as the prophet of old declared.

What are these "peace bonds?" They are the assurance given by our Lord to those who have the Prince of Peace abiding in their hearts. The Lord Jesus, the Prince of Peace, has opened the doors of heaven so that all may enter where He dwells, a place without wars or even rumors of wars, without sickness or death; where eternal life is without wrinkle or ruff or shadow, but where He is the light. The invitation is, "Come into me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." What eternal values these "peace bonds" will bring! And what could be more amazing than the knowledge that God issues these bonds to those who will partake of His divine love for lost sinners.

To explain why so many have this circumscribed outlook on life which embraces only the physical, political, humanitarian, and national, while at the same time they are so desperately ignorant of spiritual life, is a subject for consideration some other time. When one dwells in the fact that spiritual life is paramount in the existence of every human being, what a flood of peace and joy and delight submerges the soul in heavenly ecstasy. It is for this reason that the sinful and merely physical elements of life, which those of poor Europe are experiencing today, are but trivial matters in the life of a Christian.

For Freedom's Right!

FOURSCORE and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Fourscore years ago this November, Abraham Lincoln began his immortal Gettysburg Address with those words, in dedicating the National Cemetery at Gettysburg, Pa. Through the years that address has come to be known as one of the greatest documents of the ages, calling every loyal heart to "be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us . . . that these dead shall not have died in vain . . . that this Nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom."

FREEDOM . . . that little word that means so much! In this country we see its symbols everywhere. Our churches, our newspapers, our lecture halls, our assemblies, our businesses . . . all represent that one, all-important word. Under the influence of Freedom and what it represents, our country has grown in 150 years from a wilderness to the strongest power on earth. Today it is free people who are saving the world. People who will never allow themselves to be conquered!

FREE ENTERPRISE . . . Another word that creates tangible results. Free Enterprise . . . the force that enables private business-operating companies, like ours, to serve the public in their own zealous individual service-giving manner. From them each of us has earned personal benefits—our community has prospered and our country has become the richest in the world. When those who are fighting the battle of freedom return home to America, they'll expect this ideal to be preserved. It's up to us to do it!

Let us commemorate this, the 30th Anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, as "dedication day," an occasion for re-dedicating ourselves "to protect the rights and liberties of American Citizenship and maintain National Honor, Union and Independence."
