Snow Insulated G. I. Foxhole

Yankee ingenuity is called into play and this "insulated" foxhole is valed on the Belgian "bulge" front. Hay and straw provide insulation against the weather. A blanket covers the door into the improvised shelter. Shafts of a hayrake provide roof supports. The tenant is Sgt. Albert Luis, Manchester, N. H.

IN SERVICE

Cpl. Bob Gobin, who is stationed at Camp Fannin, spent a three-day leave here this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gobin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sims of Thalia have learned that their son, Pvt. Cleldon Sims, has arrived safely in England. His wife, the former Miss Faye Hargraves, is employed at Douglas Aircraft in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Fleisher of Thalia have received word from their son, Leland Fleisher, S-1-C, that he had suffered a hand wound. He is serving on a tanker.

Sgt. Raymond Turnbull, infantryman, serving in Germany, has written Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Fleisher, with whom he lived in Thalia for a number of years, that he had received the Purple Heart for wounds suffered on Dec. 2, 1944. He is now in a hospital in England but expects to return to the front soon. Turnbull enlisted in March, 1942, and went overseas in February, 1943. He received the combat infantryman's badge for "superior performance of duty in action." Sgt. Turnbull is a native Oklahoman by birth. He recently sent to Mr. Fleisher, along with his awards, a piece of Belgian paper currency which had been peppered by the same shrapnel that inflicted his wounds. He has a sister, Mrs. W. E. Holland, residing in McAlester, Okla.

Y-1-C Jim Whitfield of the U. S. Navy, is in the Philippine Islands, according to letters received recently by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Whitfield.

The Purple Heart awarded Sgt. Toy L. James on the German battle front was received here last week by his wife, Mrs. Audrey James. Sgt. James is in France now, according to letters received by his wife.

Lester Woodrow Blevins, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blevins of Thalia, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army of the United States upon successful completion of the officer candidate school at the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga., according to a special news dispatch received at this office from the Public Relations Officer at the training school. The new lieutenant was inducted into the army on July 9, 1942, and served with the 89th Infantry Division and the 66th Infantry Division before going to officer candidate school. He had held the rank of technical sergeant before being commissioned.

Pvt. Jack B. Phillips of Fort Sill, Okla., spent the week-end here visiting his family, Mrs. Margaret Phillips and three children, Jane, Larry and Steve.

Recent letters from Cpl. Wm. N. Klepper to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Klepper, state that he is somewhere in the Philippines. He had been in New Guinea and Netherlands East Indies for the past ten months and is attached to an Army Air Corps engineers battalion.

New Automobile License Number on Gasoline Coupons

The new automobile license number will need to be shown in only two places on the gasoline rationing coupon, Alma Walker, chief clerk of the Foard County War Price and Rationing Board, announced this week. "The OPA District office has informed us that it will not be necessary to write it on every coupon." It will suffice, she said, to cross out the old license number and write in the new license number (1) on the face of the ration cover or holder, and (2) on the Mileage Ration Record (Form R-534, stub).

A deluge of inquiries about how to show the new automobile license numbers on gasoline ration coupons already bearing the old license number have been reaching the Foard County War Price and Rationing Board, according to the chief clerk.

A great many people seem to have the idea that it is necessary to scratch out the old license number and write in the new number on each individual gasoline ration coupon, Miss Walker said.

4-H Club Feeders to Inspect Calves

On next Saturday, February 10, the 4-H Club boys, who have calves on feed that they are planning to exhibit at the local show to be held here in April, along with their fathers, will tour the county to observe each other's calves. County Agent D. F. Eaton announced this week.

In this way they can see what the other boy is doing, study his method of feeding and see the results of his work so far.

Each boy and his Dad will be provided with a score card and will be expected to score each calf so that when he has made the round he will be able to rank the calves from his score.

There will be a class of four calves at the last group visited to be used as a practice class. The boys will give reasons on their placing of this class.

The route to be taken is as follows: Leave Crowell at 10 a. m. for the McBeath farm, near Thalia, then back to the Abston farm, near Crowell, then the two calves here in town owned by Gordon Wood Bell and Jimmy Rasberry.

After lunch the group will leave at 1 p. m. for the Henry Johnson farm, south of Crowell, then to the Lem Davidson farm, the Oscar Fish farm and last, the H. H. Fish & Son ranch, all in the Vivian community, where Harold Fish will have a class ready for the last observation work, which will close the day.

Thurston will be supervisor for that day. Some may care to stay all day and if they will take a paper sack lunch, the noon hour will be enjoyed together.

Mrs. S. S. Bell, County chairman of War Relief Production, states that there is a great need for the kit bags now and has been asked to send them in to headquarters as they are finished, without waiting for he completed quota.

The women of Foard County thus have an opportunity to donate by their efforts to a most worthy cause and one which is right now, more important than ever.

Boy Scout Week to Be Observed from February 8 to 15

The foremost military and naval authorities were shocked at the facts concerning America's young men, revealed by the draft. An unbelievably high percentage was found to be unfit for active service because of physical handicaps that could have been corrected in childhood. Many had mental defects, and a surprising number, in spite of the nation's excellent public school system, were illiterate.

But these authorities were greatly impressed at the splendid showing made by former Boy Scouts.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz recently wrote to the National Office of the Boy Scouts of America. "In the Pacific Ocean area particularly, those who have had the benefit of Boy Scout training in pioneering, field craft, and the lore of living in the out-of-doors, are better equipped to win out over the enemy and the elements."

General H. H. Arnold was equally outspoken concerning the quality of young men sent to him for the United States Air Force. "In peace," he wrote, "the Boy Scouts of America has been an important organization in the daily life of the nation; in war it has become an essential one."

In the shaping of the post-war world, Boy Scouts, because of their character and training, will undoubtedly take an important share. This is recognized by our military and naval leaders.

Admiral Ernest J. King, Commander-in-Chief of the U. S. Fleet, doubtless had this in mind when he said, "During the post-war period, this country will need the benefit of every thinking mind to shape and direct our destiny. The Boy Scouts of America provides the best of training today to help young men prepare themselves to take their place as American citizens tomorrow."

World Brotherhood is the theme that the Boy Scouts of America are emphasizing this year. "Scouts of the World—Brothers Together" is their slogan for 1945. In recognition of the world aspects of Scouting, they have extended their anniversary week celebration, which usually includes the week of February 8, their anniversary day, and Lincoln's birthday on February 12, to include February 22. February 22 is an interesting coincidence, in addition to being the birthday anniversary of George Washington, is also the birthday anniversary of both the late Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Boy Scout idea, and Lady Baden-Powell.

Over twelve million men and boys have had the benefit of Scout training during the thirty-five years since the Boy Scouts of America was first organized. To this should be added the millions in over seventy different lands who have been members of foreign Scout associations. These young men are dedicated to the cause of tolerance, of democracy, of friendship among the civilized nations of the earth.

Letters to Service Men and Women to be Sent by Local Church

The names will be chosen at random and it is hoped by the pastor that no letter will be mailed without the signature of the parents of the one to whom the letter is addressed.

AGRICULTURE (D. F. Eaton, County Agent)

LABOR PROGRAM AGAIN Congress again has charged the Extension Service of the land grant colleges with responsibility for the farm labor program within the several states, and a bill appropriating money for carrying on the program during 1945, was signed by the President just before the year ended. The Texas A. & M. College Extension Service has not sought this added war-time responsibility, but our organization will do everything possible to help farmers and ranchers produce, harvest or market crops and livestock without waste or loss. Dr. Ide P. Trotter, extension director, stated upon being advised of the Congressional action. Now that the go ahead signal has been received, the Extension Farm Labor Office will not slacken its efforts during the winter months, according to C. Hohn, Extension State Farm Labor Supervisor. Representatives of his office already are working with local community groups in an effort to set up 100 centers for migratory farm laborers' use later in the year. These centers would provide sanitary and parking facilities, and would speed up placement and routing of families and crews by extension workers. Field workers in the lower Rio Grande Valley and Winter Garden area soon will be contacting approximately 2,500 crew leaders who represent about 30,000 migratory laborers, mostly of the Spanish-speaking. These follow the harvest each year and help pick a large portion of the state's cotton crop. Building confidence and making plans now will help laborers save time and mileage later and will benefit farmers who never before have been so pinched for labor, Mr. Hohn explained.

OVER TOKYO B-29 Superfortresses fly with Phillips super-octane fuel... as they do on all of the world's flying fronts. Phillips is one of the nation's six largest producers of Combat Aviation Gasoline.

When you read or hear postwar promises of fabulous motor car gasolines, or of astounding products of petroleum chemistry, recall the simple words of the headline above. They record a triumph of Chemical research, engineering, and production. Add to them, Phillips grand-scale contribution to the making of butadiene for synthetic rubber, and they suggest how competently and completely Phillips is devoting itself to the war effort. It has been said that the future is the fruit of the seed of the past. Little wonder, then, that intelligent men and women expect great postwar products from Phillips. In the meantime, every time you see the Orange and Black Phillips 66 Shield, let it remind you that Phillips refineries... in addition to producing gasolines, lubricants, and fuel oils... are also gigantic chemical plants pouring out weapons for victory. PLANTING HOME ORCHARD

If you're considering planting a home orchard or a plot of fruit growing vines between now and next March, J. F. Rosborough suggests keeping in mind two important things. One is selecting the right location and soil, and the other suitable varieties. Rosborough, who is horticulturist for the A. & M. College Extension Service, recommends a healthy, well drained soil, preferably a deep sandy loam located as near the house as is possible. Heavy soils, he explains, may be improved by plowing under a green manure crop or spreading barnyard manure before the trees are set. But this practice should be continued regularly during the lifetime of the trees. Choosing the kind of fruit and the right variety is very important. The climate of Texas is selective, and what flourishes in one area may refuse to do business in another. Growing dewberries, blackberries, or figs may be done successfully. Late blooming varieties such as grapes, cherries, and apples are more certain of success. Rosborough says to avoid disease infested soils, and after thorough preparation obtain the trees and plant as quickly as possible. In filling the soil around the roots, move the tree up or down so that it will be set at the same depth it stood in the nursery row. Deep planting in areas of heavy spring rains will cause the roots to sour. Cut back the trees at planting, removing one-fourth to one-half of the top. But while you're planning the orchard and selecting varieties get the advice of your county agricultural agent.

FALL PIG FARROWINGS DECLINE

Production of pigs in Texas during 1944 declined sharply from the record yield of 1943. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Austin, reports that the state's pig crop, estimated at 2,460,000 head by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, was about 41 per cent below the all-time high in the preceding year. But in spite of the falling off the total 1944 crop still was about 11 per cent above average production for the 10 years, 1933-1942. Breaking down the production seasonally, the report says that fall farrowings, June 1-December 1, were estimated at 1,810,000 sows, averaging 5.9 pigs per litter saved, or a total of 1,068,000 pigs. This was a reduction of 48 per cent from the fall crop of 1943, and equalled the 10-year average for the fall season. The Texas spring pig crop of 1,392,000 head represented a 35 per cent reduction from the previous year. The report adds that continuation of the decline in hog production in the state to about prewar levels is indicated by farmers' reports on breeding intentions for the 1945 spring crop. The number of Texas sows to farrow from December 1 to June 1, is indicated at 1,870,000, compared with 240,000 spring season farrowings in 1944, and 364,000 in 1943. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Price and family of Amarillo visited Mrs. Martha Price over the week-end.

INTERESTING FACTS OF THIS AND THAT

Dartmouth College has the longest record of graduation any college or university in nation. It has graduated class every year since 1771. In the early history of a country the tomato was believed to be poisonous. It was later as the love apple and was grown only for its decorative red fruit. Aluminum is the most abundant metal on the earth. The area known as Death Valley in California is 276 feet low sea level, the lowest point in the United States. The peace time population of the area known as the Saar in Germany is over 1,000 sons per square mile. The ostrich does not, as is generally supposed, bury its head in the sand through fear, but to dig for worms or bury its eggs. Statisticians claim that 3,500 motor cars have been built in the United States in the last three years.

CHECK MACHINERY NOW FOR REPAIR PARTS

The various machinery companies are very anxious that requests for parts be made as soon as possible so that they may secure an adequate supply to satisfy all needs. They find it difficult to anticipate the needs of customers so it will be better for all if these requirements could be determined now. Those who wait until just before harvest or crop cultivation time to secure parts may have some difficulty in obtaining replacements and may be seriously delayed or fail completely to obtain them. Requisition for material must be made early in advance by the manufacturers so that supplies may be available to distributors and local dealers for the use of the local trade. So a close check up of tractors, combines, and other tillage tools and other farm machinery at once would prove helpful for all concerned. It is very important that this machinery be kept operating as we are limited in the amount we have and much of it is getting old. POSSUM FLATS... VALENTINE'S DAY GIFTS

A cartoon illustration showing several men in suits and hats running through a field. One man is carrying a large sack of flour. They are talking about Valentine's Day gifts and the quality of Gladiola Flour. One man says, 'I never did buy my wife a hat before, but when she switched to Gladiola Flour, oh, boy! I hope she likes the hat half as much as I do those Gladiola dumplings!' Another man says, 'I said, honey, the only Valentine I want is another flake of those light, tender, Gladiola biscuits!' A third man says, 'This perfume was the best they had, but I'll take the fragrance of those steaming hot Gladiola biscuits for mine!' A fourth man says, 'Some women are born lucky! I've just naturally Gladiola flour and how it pays off!' The cartoon is signed 'GRAHAM BYHUNTER'.

SELECT SHRUBS WELL ADAPTED TO WEST TEXAS WHEN YOU LANDSCAPE

Many people like to have a variety of shrubs which will provide some blooms or berries all the year around.

Even if you can get a suitable variety, make sure you have plenty of evergreens. For instance, flowering quince is more attractive when it has a background of green.

And if you want to kill two birds with one stone, plant some fruit trees. Some are more showy than many ornamentals.

You might try winter-blooming jasmine which blossoms in January and February. Pyracantha does well and its orange berries usually are bright and plentiful from November through February.

Some of the other plants you might consider, are red bud, althea, desert willow, vitex, crepe myrtle, coral berry, and elderberry.

Among the more colorful summer-blooming plants that grow in all of Texas are bird-of-paradise, lantana, and butterfly bush.

You will want to select plenty of evergreens so the landscape will be attractive the year round.

Whatever the shrub that is planted, the ground it is planted in needs to be put in good shape first.

As to the time of year for setting shrubs, January and February are good months to plant but October and November are better.

As over the country people are talking about planning and planting living memorials to the nation's heroes of World War Two.

One noted writer said recently: "Lately there has grown up spontaneously through the country a movement to make memorials—not only beautiful, but useful—memorials which will contribute to the health, well being, and strength of the nation in the future."

The State of Texas, through the State Highway Department, is asking each county to select a shrub or tree to be planted in parks, along highways, and in home landscapes as a memorial to its heroes.

The writer will welcome the

The subject of postwar jobs is one in which the petroleum industry must not, and will not, be found wanting.

Just as we have implicit faith that our boys now overseas will protect this fair land of ours, and maintain by their powerful war effort what we call the American way of life, so do they have a simple faith that oil-industry management will provide for them a place in all the things they have won and kept for us.

What We Think (By Frank Potts)

I visited the other day with a young woman from my community who several years before as a school teacher in a different state had married a well-to-do manufacturer of the town in which she lived.

When the two were married they moved into a small house at the edge of town. A little remodeling made it into a small, comfortable living quarters.

Many of the men who work in the plant of her husband, drive better cars than he does and the clothing budget of their wives is larger than is that of the wife of the owner of the plant.

The food is good but inexpensive. All of this has been worked out by the husband and wife and is mutually agreeable and acceptable.

NO COMMON MAN

In a very human article on the labor question, the Reverend Norman Vincent Peale, D. D., pastor of Marble Collegiate Church, 115th Avenue, New York City, says:

"This writer favors labor unionism. As a Christian minister, I am, of course, a champion of the common man."

Do not believe that any man is 'common.' It is a good thing for labor that there is an institution like the Church that plays no favorites, that stands for justice to all men.

IT TAKES MORE THAN MONEY

About the time public opinion in this country reached its peak in deciding that we would have nothing further to do with the troubles of the rest of the world, a handful of pioneers in the aviation industry started development of the first long range bombers.

In the ensuing few years those pioneers mortgaged themselves to the eyes to carry forward their work of building the world's mightiest planes.

As our super bombers now to the far corners of the globe we should pause long enough to realize that money alone could have produced those planes.

Summer Courses of Study in Mexico Will Be Offered

Denton, Feb. 5.—Students of North Texas State will again have the opportunity of taking summer courses of study in Mexico, and plans for the organization of the Institute Inter-Americano were completed recently when President W. J. McConnell named Carl B. Compton, associate professor of art, director, and Miss Virginia Calloway of the Spanish department, "dean of women."

This school, which is the summer field school of North Texas State in Mexico, had its beginning last year when a small group was taken to Morelia, Mexico, by Miss Calloway.

This year the institute will take a large group and is offering two complete six weeks terms which will include art and Spanish on both elementary and advanced levels. Two courses in the history of Mexican Arts are to be offered, which are designed to be of interest not only to art majors, but also to persons seeking information for purely cultural reasons.

There will be a number of visiting lectures in the fields of Mexican art, archeology, literature and history, but negotiations are not yet completed with the various individuals, whose names will be announced later.

The city of Morelia, where the University of Michoacan is located, was founded in 1549, as the city of Valladolid, being named after the famous Spanish town of the same name. Finally the name was changed to Morelia in honor of the lecturers in the fields of the great Mexican Liberator, Morelos, whose home was in the city. Morelia is the capital of the state of Michoacan, and it is but a few miles from the picturesque lake Patzeuaro. Many fine colonial buildings still remain in Morelia, which nevertheless possesses all the advantages of the modern metropolis.

Several days will be spent in touring Mexico City, and various trips shall be arranged to nearby villages, craft centers, and to places of historical and general interest.

Some Tuberculosis Problems in Texas

In 1943 there were 3,158 people who died of tuberculosis in Texas. Of this number 2,182 died in their homes.

There are only 2,000 beds in hospitals—both public and private—for the tuberculosis patients of this State. The recognized minimum standard for sanatorium care is 2 1/2 beds for each annual death from tuberculosis. A number of states in the Union meet this standard—Texas does not. To meet the standard and reduce our tuberculosis death rate, we need a total of 7,895 sanatorium beds—5,895 more beds than are available at present.

House Bill 197 would provide some of those urgently needed beds. The Bill contemplates the use of a suitable, abandoned military hospital which would make hospital construction unnecessary at this time. The appropriation asked for would provide for equipping, staffing and operating, for the next biennium, a tuberculosis hospital of some 200 beds, which is a modest number considering the need.

The tuberculosis death rate for the United States as a whole is 43.1 deaths per 100,000 population. Texas' tuberculosis death rate is 53.9 per 100,000 population.

Wisconsin, where diagnostic, case-finding, public health nursing and hospital facilities meet the minimum standard has a death rate of 24. In this same category are Minnesota with a death rate of 26; Michigan with a death rate of 34; Massachusetts with a death rate of 37.

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease, caused by a germ, which is transmitted from the sick to the well. In the State Department of Health there are filed the names and addresses of 6,044 people who are sick with tuberculosis. These are the known cases which might be rendered non-infectious if there were sufficient hospital, clinic, and nursing services in Texas to provide adequate treatment and care.

In addition to the known cases, it has been demonstrated by statisticians, from X-ray examinations among apparently healthy people and otherwise, that there are approximately 9 active cases of tuberculosis for each annual death from the disease. Thus, in Texas, we can estimate that there are more than 36,000 cases potentially capable of infecting with tubercle bacilli anyone with whom they are in contact.

As of January 1, 1945, there were on file in the State Department of Health 14,233 chest films of men who had been rejected for military service because of pulmonary or cardiac disease. Upon review of the films by a chest specialist, 8,662 of these rejectees were considered to have clinically significant tuberculosis.

To have that number of people incapacitated by a preventable disease, even insofar as their normal civilian pursuits are concerned, is unfortunate. To have that many men of military age rejected for service with the armed forces at a time when the nation needs every bit of manpower available to win the war is a tragedy not only for the men but for their country.

The more adequate diagnostic, case-finding and nursing facilities which House Bill 196 would provide, plus the additional beds which House Bill 197 would provide, will not entirely solve the tuberculosis problem in Texas. To do that fully would require a great deal more money than is asked for in both Bills. Their passage will, however, make possible greater progress than we have been able to make to date in the prevention and control of tuberculosis in this State.

Production of Sugar Beet to Be Topic for Discussion

Lubbock, Feb. 5.—"The Possibilities of Sugar Beet Production in Northwest Texas" is the topic for discussion at a meeting in the Aggie auditorium at Texas Technological College Feb. 9. The purpose of the meeting is to bring together all the information we have in new developments of sugar beets, says Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department.

Mechanization in the cultivation of sugar beets will be a high point of interest in an effort to encourage sugar beet raising. In the past a great amount of hand labor has been required to raise the beets, but a system has been perfected whereby in the past year 100 acres were grown with practically no hand work involved.

"The clamping down of the government on our sugar rationing program came about as a result of a completed survey showing there was less sugar than estimated," says Dr. Young. It was not the production anticipated by sugar companies that resulted in the low amount, however, but the labor shortage, he said.

This meeting, sponsored by the department of plant industry and the Lubbock County Agricultural Extension service, is held as a result of a plea made by the War Food Administration to double sugar beet production. The Sugar Company of Texas has asked that 2,000 acres of beets be grown in Northwest Texas this year as compared to 500 acres last year. "These beets can be grown in very cold weather, whereas sugar cane, formerly the main source of sugar, can only be grown in coastal states and requires a warm climate," Dr. Young says.

Individuals from the extension and soil conservation services, Farm Security Administration, vocational agriculture departments, and implement companies in Northwest Texas are invited to attend. The meeting is also open to any farmers who might be interested. Eleven surrounding counties that employ means of irrigation will be represented.

When some men discharge an obligation you can hear the report for hours.

A CRY FOR FREEDOM

Freedom is that word of words which ranks very high with words like God. It is that which every person wants and needs and which only a few are privileged to enjoy. It is that which in America is often taken too much for granted. It is that which the Nazis fear. It is that which they with their poisoned minds and bloody battle cries are fighting against. Their fight against freedom is useless, and if they knew it as we do, they would—as we—fight for it, uphold it, love it, and believe wholeheartedly in it. Freedom is not just a fad which will quickly pass. Freedom is much more than that. Its roots were planted long years ago; it shall never pass. It is true that when someone tries to destroy it—which no one can do for long—it creates in us a deeper feeling for it. Freedom will never die. Even though free ideas, free purposes, free attempts, and yes—even free peoples die; it is to be remembered that once they lived because of Freedom.

BASKETBALL GAMES

The Wildcats have had two basketball games this past week. The first game was with Quannah. The Indians beat the Wildcats 37 to 29. This was the only game out of four that the Indians beat the Wildcats. Bell was high point man for the Wildcats with 9 points, and Mason came next with 8 points. The high point man for the Indians was Ansel with 14 points. The second game was with the Seymour Panthers. This was a conference game. The Wildcats lost it by a small margin. The score was 33 to 30 in favor of the Panthers. McBeath was high point man with 12 points, and Bell came next with 8 points. Casselberry was high point man for the Panthers with 10 points, and Crossman came next with 9. This game did not have any great effect on the chances of district. The Wildcats won the first game with the Panthers which made things tied up, the Panthers have lost to Chillicothe both times they played.

VOLLEY BALL GAME

The Crowell Volley Ball team went to Seymour Friday night. They were defeated two out of three games, and all of them were really close. Friday night they have a game at Chillicothe. Best of luck to you, girls!

We regret to inform you that "Jenny" Monkhouse and her family have moved to Albuquerque, N. M.

Dear Editor:
 What do you say we all get behind this keen idea of a Teen Canteen for Crowell? If Quannah and Paducah and possibly other nearby towns are considering one, why can't we? If we promised our co-operation, perhaps we could enlist the help of the Rotary Club, The B. & P. W. Club and the P. T. A. to sponsor the Teen Canteen. We could ask the churches and other organizations and clubs as well as our parents for their co-operation. Let's present the idea to them and let them know that we really want and need a Teen Canteen for Crowell!

Sincerely, Frances Ann Ayers.

TEEN TOWN

Upon reading the article in last week's Wildcat I'd like to say that I think a "Teen Town" would be swell if it were really organized. If some of the clubs and organizations in town would back it and would chaperone it and make a set of rules for it, and if we would go by the rules, it would be perfect!
 There are "Teen Towns" all over the United States. There is one in Childress that is doing really swell.
 I think it would be all right, and all the kids would enjoy it.
 Betty.

TEEN CANTEEN

I think a "Teen Canteen" is just what Crowell needs. It would live up to the town and give us all some place to go when we have nothing to do. I think that the town would make a better impression on visitors if an organization of this kind were here. Since the neighboring towns have organized these, we ought to stay in the times and also have one of our own so it wouldn't be necessary to go to other towns for our recreation.

I for one want to voice my opinion on this "Teen Canteen" idea. The teen-age kids of CHS have been needing a "hang-out" for ages. We need a place to spend our spare time, a place where we can play games, read books, and have good, clean fun. People are always criticizing us, but if they would furnish us a place to go, maybe we could meet their approval better. I'm sure that I'm speaking for all the students when I say that we would co-operate with the rules and regulations and would be as helpful as possible. All we need is a chance.—Do we get it?
 Bessie Gamble.

WILDCATS PURR

Here we go again!
 Wednesday night several of our girls, namely: Eator, Jones, Breedlove and Mabe seemed to have lost something—for further information ask them.
 Seen together Saturday night were Billie Billington and Kendrick Joy. How about that?
 Well, well, Sunday afternoon proved to be an eventful day. We're speaking of R. J. Everson and Virginia Mabe.
 As usual Craig Sandlin and Mildred Powell, Melvin Everson and Besse Gamble; Buddy Gobin and DeAlva Thomas; Marion Ford and Kathleen Eddy, were together Saturday night. This could go on forever.
 Every one is planning big for the Sweetheart Banquet Monday night.
 M. W. and Joan seem to be on the "speck" again. What goes? It seems that Letta Jo Carroll had quite a party Saturday night. See together Saturday night were Joe Edd and Yvonne McLain.
 Janet, did you have a good time in Vernon Saturday night? Bobby Cooper really gets disgusted with two certain girls, if you don't believe it, just ask him. It is rumored around that Hardy is carrying the torch for Joan.
 Bill Ervin was with June Hickman Saturday night.
 What was said about Brock being on the loose? He was seen with Betty Saturday night. Maybe it's all clear ahead!
 "Shaney" and Browning were really having a wonderful time Saturday night. More fun!
 We wonder what has happened to the romance of Prune and Booty.
 Martha Johnson and Kenneth Ownbey were doing all right Saturday night. Do tell!
 Joan and C. D. were doing O. K. Saturday night. This is something new. What happened to Wagnon Joan?
 Louis Pyle and Weldon James were doing O. K. Saturday night. They were seen with a car load of girls made up with four of our most prominent Sophs.
 Girls: V. Bond is on the loose again (a man!) Don't let him stay that way long.
 Faithfully,
 Sneaky Kittens.

BEHIND THE GLAMOUR

Government agencies by the score are planning how the people of the United States are to live when peace returns. The inference is that the people are incapable of planning on their own. Whole industries are threatened with having their future laid out for them by public officials who have striven to create the impression that they are endowed with a degree of competence not possessed by the ordinary citizen.

Behind this official glamour there is nothing to inspire the belief that government officials are super-beings. For instance, they did not make it possible for this country to produce five times as much coal per man per day as do the miners of Britain. They did not make it possible for the coal industry to turn out a record 625,000,000 tons of coal during 1944 with 200,000 fewer workers than in 1918. Machinery made this record possible, machinery installed by the coal mining industry over a period of many years.
 It would be hard to find a politician who encouraged the mechanized mining that has saved the United States from a tragic coal famine. And yet these same politicians who know nothing about coal mining, and a few years ago were far too busy with other matters to suggest ways of stimulating coal production, today presumed to know more about its future than the coal mine operators. They sit in Washington and compile figures based on current industrial performance while out in the field industry is relentlessly searching for new methods, for shortcuts, for greater efficiency; things that make hash of statistics. The history of the coal industry is typical of American initiative.

The only way central government authority can blueprint the future is to freeze industry to present standards and prohibit further invention. This could work providing the people can be convinced that government planning is more important than production. But God help us if we ever get into another war!

You can't treat the maid like a member of the family, nowadays, and get away with it.

It has been eighty-two years since the Emancipation Proclamation was issued.

SAFETY SLOGANS

When you drive keep your mind and attention on the matter of driving. Many accidents happen when the driver's attention becomes momentarily diverted.
 With the approach of spring and spring clean up comes the danger of trash fires. Watch your trash fires.
 When you meet a road hog while driving, the only thing to do is to give him the road. Later if you meet him while neither of you are driving, you can use your best judgment.

Before marriage they bill and coo. After marriage the cooling stops and the billing begins in earnest.

AT THE

First Christian Church

In CROWELL

SERVICES EACH NIGHT AT 7:30 O'CLOCK

The pastor, Rev. G. O. McMillan, will do the preaching and Mr. H. M. Nichols will be song leader. Everybody will sing, praying people will pray, the unsaved will find Christ and the church people will be revived.

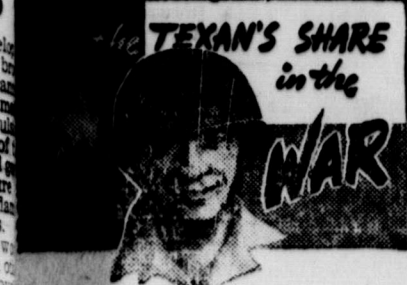

The messages will be plain gospel messages from the Bible. No criticism of other churches, creeds or faith. God loved us and gave Christ, His Son, to die for us and to save us from our sins, will be the heart of the messages.

Are you puzzled over some questions, like the following?

- "Is the world getting worse?"
- "Is this the last war?"
- "What church is the right church?"
- "Who is the Anti-Christ?"
- "What is the unpardonable sin?"
- "What is religion?"
- "How are men saved?"
- "Are we living in the last days?"
- "Is the Bible really true?"

These and many other questions of importance will be answered in the pastor's messages.

Do not miss one service. Attention, other pastors, please announce these meetings to your congregations, then come and pray for us and work with us. Thank you.

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell) A Blessing in Disguise: No one enjoys visiting in a home in which the children are undisciplined and untrained.

As it is necessary that children be disciplined if they are going to appear to have become accustomed to the situation and pay little attention to it, if indeed they notice it at all, but to those who come from properly managed and properly disciplined homes the condition strikes a jarring note that renders a visit in the home anything but pleasant.

The Omnipotent Helper Help—that is what man needs, and nothing but the power of Christ will suffice to meet his fears and sorrows.

Two great fears gnaw at the vitals of man's existence. 1. Fear of life's dangers (Mark 4:35-41). The long day of teaching had ended (v.35), and the disciples, carrying out His request, started for the other side of the lake to rest.

Should we not learn that in this day of fears and alarms we may be as Christ—count on His presence and His power. If we look at the overwhelming waves of circumstances and think how frail we are, surely our hearts shall fail us for fear.

Ladies' prayer meeting each afternoon next week at 3 o'clock. Rev. McMillan will do the preaching for the revival services. H. M. Nichols will direct the song service and Mrs. Woodrow Lemons will serve as pianist.

After putting forth the morning scorners, the Lord performed a miracle by simply speaking to the child, "Little girl, arise." Here then is the Lord who can overcome every fear, in both life and death. Is He not the one we need as our Saviour?

venly" (I. Peter 1:22). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Love must triumph over hate. Truth and Life must seal the victory over error and death, before the thorns can be laid aside for a crown, the benediction follow. 'Well done, good and faithful servant,' and the supremacy of Spirit be demonstrated" (page 43).

Medical Congress Meeting Postponed

Austin.—Complying with the request of the Office of Defense Transportation, the sponsors of the International Medical Congress scheduled to meet in Laredo February 26 and 27 have cancelled the meeting.

The attendance expected at the meeting was more than 200. Agencies sponsoring the program of the International Medical Congress, an organization composed of members of the medical profession in the United States and Mexico, are the Texas State Medical Association, the Southwest Texas District Medical Society, the Texas Tuberculosis Association, the National Tuberculosis Association, the American Trudeau Society, the United States Public Health Service and the Pan-American Sanitary Bureau.

PANIC NEVER PAYS Oregon reports that as of the first of the year, the over-all situation with regard to communicable diseases in "exceptionally good." For the week ending January 3, the total of such diseases was 72 per cent under the ten-year average for this same week.

A single state is admittedly no health guide insofar as the rest of the nation is concerned. However, Oregon is a war production center. Large groups of people migrated there from all over the country. At the beginning of the war, deep concern was felt over the threatened doctor shortage. The area was used to point up the allegedly dangerous maldistribution of medical men. The doctors were threatened with paddy proposals which would have subjected the profession to virtual dictatorship.

Through it all, Oregon's doctors and those of other critical areas worked to develop practical organizations for meeting the emergency. They encouraged the expansion of voluntary group hospital and medical programs. They streamlined treatment by eliminating frills. They encouraged patients to use the phone whenever practical. Gradually the feeling of urgency in the public mind diminished.

It is far too soon to begin to relax or to conclude that the emergency is over. But the last three years of war have shown that panic never pays, particularly in the formulation of public policy on medical care. At present, plans are being pushed both by the medical profession and by public authorities aimed at bringing adequate medical care to all the people. Extremists, however, are seeking to capitalize on an atmosphere of emergency. By ill-considered action, they could delay the steady march of medical progress and the sound expansion of prepaid health and hospitalization programs.—Industrial News Review.

Old Feud Renewed Burmese Temple Rest

When President Roosevelt announced the appointment of Henry Wallace (above) as Secretary of Commerce, Jesse Jones (below) renewed their old feud and told Congress that Wallace was unsuited for the job.

At Tonkwa, Burma, in the shadow of a Burmese temple, a U. S. soldier pauses at the grave of an American killed in action when the Mars Task Force met the enemy in this vicinity. A plot has been cleared for the American cemetery. It will be landscaped.

Sew and Save Week Campaign February 17-24

Early in 1941, the National Needlecraft Bureau, an organization devoted to the promotion of sewing among the women of America, offered its co-operation in an effort to stimulate the production of garments for war refugees.

The offer was accepted and as the result of their efforts, it is estimated that over half a million garments were donated to chapters and sent to export warehouses. The project was repeated in 1942, 1943 and 1944, and resulted in large numbers of garments being made available, although no definite figures are available as to the total quantity.

During the period, February 17 to 24, the National Needlecraft Bureau will again promote a Sew and Save week campaign and urge women throughout the country to make garments for foreign war relief, and give the garments to the local Red Cross chapter.

The material for these garments is to be furnished by the individuals making them. The donors are to understand that there is no particular country to which the garments are to be sent. However, if they wish them used in this country, they may say so.

Mrs. S. S. Bell, chairman for Foard County War Relief Production, asks that if there are ladies who desire to take part in the project, that the finished garments may be turned over to her or to those in charge of the Red Cross sewing room. The dates are specified and must be adhered to.

AT HARVARD

Midshipman James Victor Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Allen of Spur, former Crowell resident, was transferred to the Navy Supply Corps School at Harvard University, Boston, Mass., on Jan. 18, upon graduation from the NSOTC School at Lido Beach, Long Island, N. Y., and Bayonne, N. J., according to a news item in the Texas Spur. He was formerly stationed with the V-12 Unit at the University of New Mexico where he was a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity and the University band.

Victory Gardening in 1945 Is of Great Importance

Lubbock, Feb. 5.—The importance of "Victory Gardening for 1945" is emphasized by Dr. W. W. Yocum, professor of plant industry at Texas Technological College. "The food situation is not good," he says, according to writers in food journals and those who have surveyed the world situation. Dr. Yocum says:

Victory gardens supplied over 40 per cent of the fresh vegetables consumed by the civilians last year, to say nothing of the canned food from these gardens. The goal for 1945 is for 20,000,000 Victory gardens or for at least as much production as last year. So all loyal citizens who can, should plan now to continue this gardening effort. Let's do a better job of gardening from the start. One of the worst handicaps to gardening is a late start. Get your seed supply early. Get the ground broken and in shape for planting early.

All vegetables that like cool weather, and can stand some freezing, should be planted by Feb. 1, or as soon as possible after that. English peas should be planted Feb. 1 to 15, if they are to give a satisfactory yield. Plant an early variety, so production will be prolonged. Alaska, or Little Marvel are good early sorts, while Bliss Everbearing or Sure Cropper is good for mid-season.

Earliest planting of spinach, mustard, turnips, radish, onions, and lettuce should be made by Feb. 15. Most of these should be planted repeatedly, but the earliest plantings are usually the best. Heat is their greatest limiting factor.

Plan now for a fall garden. All vegetables that grow best in cool weather will thrive in the fall. Often they do better than in the spring, since they grow in cooler weather, they suffer less from birds and some insects; weeds are less troublesome if it was cultivated earlier in the summer. Cool season crops should be grown in just as great abundance in the fall as in spring.

Fruit trees, vines, and bushes should be planted as early as possible in the spring after Feb. 1. Local purchases will save valuable time and you can see what you are getting, but be sure to get suitable varieties even if you must order them and delay a few days in planting. Most grape varieties suited to this section originated in Texas and should be obtained from Texas nurseries chiefly.

Most varieties of tree fruits which do best here are the same as those used in the Great Plains region to the north and northwest. They can best be obtained from that area where they are produced. Early Wonder blackberry, the best for us, can be obtained from Arkansas and East Texas.

Crowell Wildcats Lose Two Games Played Last Week

The Crowell High School basketball team hit a slump last week and dropped both of its games. The Quanah Indians took the local boys down by the score of 32 to 24 here on Wednesday night and the Seymour Panthers whipped them 33 to 30 at Seymour on Friday night in a conference game. The Wildcats had defeated the Panthers earlier in the season and had won over the Quanah Indians three times in previous games. It was only two weeks ago that they defeated the Quanah boys on the Quanah court by a margin of 22 points.

Yank Ansel made fourteen points for the Indians in the Quanah game, and Casleberry for the Panthers was high in the Seymour game with ten points. All of the Crowell boys looked terrible in team-play in the game here with Quanah. Joe Mason played a swell defensive game at Seymour, but the other members of the Crowell team were still "off."

The Wildcats can still win the western-half of District 9-A by defeating Chillicothe there Friday night. Munday took that team down by a 28 to 26 count at Munday last Friday night. In case the Crowell boys win the game Friday night, there will be a three game series played with the Holiday Eagles for the District championship.

The Crowell girls won the first volleyball game at Seymour by the score of 15 to 13, but lost the other two by the count of 15 to 9, and 15 to 10. The girls will play at Chillicothe Friday night. Basketball standing in western-half of District 9-A:

Games played	Games won	Games lost	Pct.
Crowell	5	4	1 .200
Chillicothe	5	3	2 .400
Seymour	5	2	3 .400
Munday	5	1	4 .200

Red Cross Radio Day Declared by Four Networks

The four major networks have indicated their willingness to make February 28, Red Cross Day, similar to Red Cross Radio Day last year. These networks are:

- National Broadcasting Co.
- Columbia Broadcasting System
- Blue Network.
- Mutual Broadcasting System.

This all-out coverage of the four major networks will be as follows: They will devote some portion or all of every one of their commercial and sustaining network programs to appeals to the public in support of the 1945 Red Cross War Fund. Red Cross Radio Day is a co-operative effort of the radio industry and completely separate and apart from our regular radio appeals through the entire month of March. This has the complete approval of the Office of War Information. They have offered their full co-operation.

He is to graduate June 27 with the rank of Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve. Dupree Allen, Chief Storekeeper, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen, wrote his wife at Falls that he was somewhere in the Mediterranean and doing fine, another item in the Texas Spur stated.

In 1944 a total of 7,030 divorces were granted in Reno, Nevada, a thousand more than were granted in 1943.
