Brewster's Millions

Following the entertainment and set with such uproarious comedies as "Up in Mabel's Room" and "Aboard with Two Yanks," producer Edward Small is presenting his latest attraction, "Brewster's Millions," strictly for laughs. The farce, which co-stars Helen Hayes and Eddie "Rochester" Anderson, will be shown at the Rialto Theatre on Aug. 28 and 29 through United Artists repertory.

Adapted from the famous novel by George Barr McCutcheon and the record-breaking stage play by Michel Smith and Byron Ongley, "Brewster's Millions" exploits the dilemma of a young man forced to spend one million dollars in six days so that he will be eligible to inherit seven million more from the estate of an eccentric uncle. Dennis O'Keefe, in his first starring role, plays Monte Brewster, who is discharged from the Army and returns to New York to find himself involved in his late uncle's whimsical will. Helen Hayes, the beautiful blonde who plays "Two Yanks," is again opposite him as the fiancée who cannot understand why Monte keeps showering expensive gifts on showgirl June Havoc. Eddie "Rochester" Anderson, as the "all-work, or by his own inspiration," vice president in charge of switchboards, draws much of the laughs.

Other important members of the cast are Mischa Auer and Gail Patrick in top bracket roles, with Hamilton, Nana Bryant, Bud Hinkle, John Lital and Sawyer lending excellent support. The film was directed by George Dwan, veteran comedy man.

In September the 351st moved to Paris to repeat the performance. During the Ardennes the regiment was given four hours' notice and was rushed 250 miles to Luxembourg where it was assigned to the Third Army as infantry. Mr. and Mrs. Coy Payne are in receipt of a letter of commendation to all personnel of the 21st Infantry, of which their son, H. C. Payne, is a member. The commendation comes from the Colonel and cites the group for bravery in 63 days of continuous combat against a stubborn and well-trained foe. It says "During practically the entire period this regiment was attacking. Fighting in terrain which favored the enemy in defense and in hump and cogan grass where the heat of day was radiated to an unbearable degree, you never once failed to take an assigned objective. The 21st Infantry counted 2,133 Japanese dead and captured 14." He further states that he is proud of each member of the unit.

Farmers Urged to Save Roughage and Grow Protein

A good supply of stored roughage and small grain pastures will ease the feed situation for Texas livestock this fall and winter. A forecast of late maturing crops in the heavy grain-growing areas is one urgent reason why livestock producers should have a good stock of roughage on their farms and ranches, says D. F. Eaton, County Extension Agent.

Another cause for concern is the state of the nation's feed grain crop, he says. A good crop is indicated in parts of Texas but the acreage is small. In mid-western states, however, much of the corn will not mature unless the remainder of the growing season is extremely favorable and fall frosts come late. Whether the grain sorghum crop on the Texas plains makes, depends upon the rainfall in the immediate future.

He emphasizes that with a short supply of concentrate feeds possible, the need for more good roughage is greater than ever. Analysis shows that good hay runs about fifty per cent digestible nutrients which make up the feed which the livestock use to maintain their bodies and to produce fat.

Although the season is late, Eaton says there still is some late feed that has time to mature before frost. He strongly urges that a lot of feed grains be stored for feed since they will be scarce and high as well. He urges cutting and saving bundle feed and native hay crops. "We have a good feed crop made if we will only take care of it," he says.

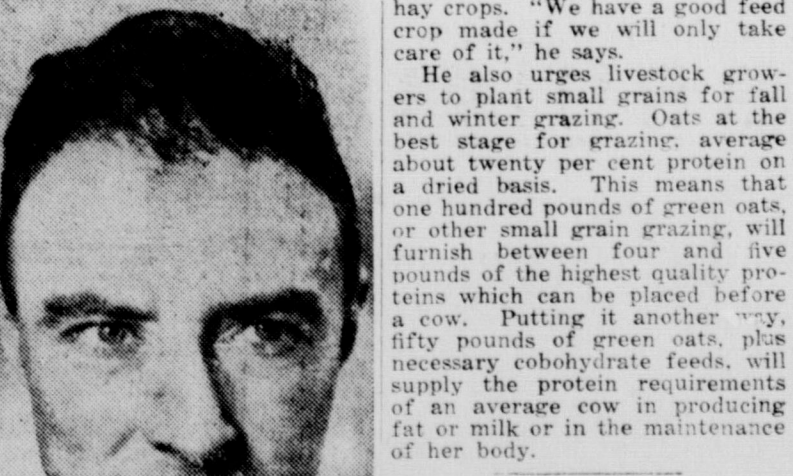

He also urges livestock growers to plant small grains for fall and winter grazing. Oats at the best stage for grazing, average about twenty per cent protein on a dried basis. This means that one hundred pounds of green oats, or other small grain grazing, will furnish between four and five pounds of the highest quality proteins which can be placed before a cow. Putting it another way, fifty pounds of green oats, plus necessary cobolhydrate feeds, will supply the protein requirements of an average cow in producing fat or milk or in the maintenance of her body.

Education Means Work

The American people spend a heap of money to educate their children. The question whether a young person gets the benefit of what is offered him depends in large measure on whether he is willing to work and learn the lessons that are given him.

It is the variety that makes life interesting, a local man said yesterday. Back in 1933 I didn't have the money to buy the food I wanted. I have the money now, but not the points.

The United States needs a hundred years of peace to pay our bills. It will take that long even with the best of management.

Japs Wanted Atomic Bomb Data

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

The biggest development in this country in the next twenty years in my opinion is going to take place in the airplane field.

The automobile, which came into use in the early nineties, has about reached the limit of its possibilities. Of course better and more comfortable and more economical cars will be built.

The pilot of an airplane is not restricted by good or bad highways. He is not confined to rough and tortuous and often impassable roads.

Another thing that will make the airplane attractive about the automobile is that traveling by plane is the nearest approach to actually flying that man has come to know.

The next twenty years is going to see many private plane owners. Some of these will own their planes for pleasure, others will use them in their business.

This fact opens up a field of speculation in which there is scarcely any limit. The conditions cited above are going to call for thousands of airports throughout the country.

Even a superficial consideration of the possibilities of air transportation and air travel open up possibilities in which the imagination can easily run riot.

The Allies are faced with the problem of permitting Germany to recover to a point where she is self-sustaining and may even prosper but not to the point where she can recover militarily.

This country sent over 150,000,000 pounds of used clothing to the needy of Europe and is still the best clothing nation on earth.

The New Atomic Bomb

It was a tremendous event in the history of scientific achievement and in the war, when one of the new atomic bombs was dropped on the Japanese city of Hiroshima. The power of this terrific explosive seems inconceivable.

It is a wonderful triumph for American and British scientists that they have been able to create this tremendous weapon. It utilizes what is called the energy of the atom, which is the basic power of the universe.

It is an astonishing thing that it was possible to keep completely secret the work of producing this amazing development. At one time 125,000 people were working on this proposition, and even now more than 65,000 are so employed.

War-making thus acquires a new terror, when the weapon of conflict can produce such destructive results. The existence and use of this form of power give a new demonstration of how necessary it is for the human race to act effectively to stop wars.

AMENDMENT NO. 4 (By Sen. George Moffett)

Of the four amendments which the people will pass judgment upon on the twenty-fifth of this month, the last one is the most complicated.

As introduced, it authorized an increase in the top payment of old-age assistance to those in greatest need from thirty dollars to forty dollars per month. A member from Navarro County offered a further provision which was adopted, and which authorized an increase in the monthly payments to the needy blind and to neglected children, and further provided that the payments for all of these three purposes from state funds should not be more than thirty-five million dollars per year, which, of course, would be matched by Federal funds after proper investigation.

To promote a clear understanding it should be pointed out that amendment number four does not guarantee a flat payment of forty dollars per month to every old person. About forty thousand old people are now getting thirty dollars per month. Most of these will ultimately receive the forty dollars if the people adopt amendment number four, and there would be some increase in payments to all on the rolls.

Grand Victory and co-operation. Instead they proposed to install military power as the supreme power. Such a result might have set back the progress of humanity for centuries. The American people said that thing had to stop. They were not satisfied with any half way measures. It was decided that unconditional surrender was the only answer to make to that arrogant and cruel threat. So our people fought on and on, they suffered the loss of a great host of brave men, they endured privations, and they stood sorrow and anxiety, in their determination to give their children a chance to live in a world of peace and security.

5 Good Country Tricks for Saving More Used Fats

THIS year our domestic supply of fats and oils will be approximately one and one-half billion pounds less than last year. Right now, we are facing our worst fat shortage since the war began. To make up for this staggering loss, the government is depending on the women of America—and particularly women on farms and in smaller cities.

Every spoonful, every drop of fat is needed to help make battlefield and homefront essentials. So roll up your sleeves and do an all-out job, won't you? Clip this check list and pin it up in your kitchen as a reminder.

- 1. FRIED SALT PORK—with milk gravy. Salt pork yields so much grease, you won't need it all for gravy. Pour the rest into the salvage can.
2. DEEP FAT FRYING—use the fat over and over, but when it's too dark and smelly to use any more, don't forget Uncle Sam wants it!
3. ROASTS AND CHOPS—save all trimmings (scraps from plates, too.) Keep them in a small bowl; once a week melt them down.
4. SAUSAGES—they're better if you parboil them first. Skim the fat off the cooking water—scrape the fat from the frying pan.
5. CHICKEN SOUP—chill it before you use it. Scoop off the hardened grease (soup tastes better, too!)

When the salvage can is full, take it to your butcher promptly. He will give you 2 red points and up to 4c for every pound of used fat you turn in.

AGRICULTURE

(D. F. Eaton, County Agent.)

FARM BUREAU AGGRESSIVE

Last Friday Foard County farmers met again with Messrs. Cal McCurdy and Dave Reynolds to talk over with each other the farm organization movement.

Like the previous meeting they took some time studying the various phases and accomplishments of organized agriculture, which stands for the protection and advancement of agriculture and for everything that involves the welfare of farmers and ranchers and their families.

One phase of their program is securing better prices for farm products and mainly through their efforts we have a guarantee by Congress that the government will support farm prices for two years following the war. Without this assurance, with the present surplus supplies of wheat and cotton, we would be headed for a price slump.

Here are more of the objectives of organized agriculture here in Texas. They have kept the Legislature from taxing tractor gasoline, assisted in passing the cooperative hospital act, supported raising the truck limit to 48,000 pounds.

In the National Congress through organized effort, the loan rate on cotton was ten cents a pound over the 1940 loan rate, and on wheat it is more than 70 cents more than the price in 1940.

They supported effectively the continuation of the Triple A program, rural electrification, prevented an increase in freight rates, helped to retain rural credit organizations and dozens of other protective and constructive acts.

The group that met Friday was so well impressed with its program that they voluntarily increased their membership dues from $5.00 to $10.00, the first time this has happened in Texas. They confidently expect their friends and neighbors to join with them and help carry their program out.

INFLATION A HAZARD TO FARMERS

Farmers will be heading toward financial disaster after the war if price controls are relaxed now. This warning is embodied in a statement prepared by the post-war agricultural policy committee of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities.

According to Director Ide P. Trotter of the A. & M. College Extension Service, this anti-inflation statement has been approved by the executive committee of the Association, of which Clarence A. Dykstra, provost of the University of California, Los Angeles, is chairman, and represents the consensus of leading college authorities throughout the United States. The policy committee consists of 18 members, representing different major phases of Land Grant Colleges' activities in all parts of the nation.

Farm people have an enormous stake in the successful control of inflation, the policy committee declared. "A runaway price situation while the pressure for civilian goods and services continues during the early postwar period, would spell disaster for many farmers and their families."

The statement ascribes the agricultural depression of the 1920's and 1930's largely to the inflated prices of world war one. Singling out farm land prices for special emphasis, the committee's statement declares that a lifting of price controls before the danger is past would open the door to a speculative boom in land. "This would lead to piling up of mortgage debts which in many cases would be out of line with long-run farm earnings," the statement continues. "Such a result would spell foreclosure and disaster for many farmers when the inevitable reaction sets in."

Many returning war veterans, it adds, would be among those victimized by exorbitant land prices.

Observing that no one contends that the control of prices and wages has been perfect, the postwar policy committee expressed belief that "fair-minded citizens will agree that the job has been reasonably well done considering the difficulties involved."

MORE CATTLE NEEDED FOR BANGS TEST

The response to the request for cattle owners to have their cattle tested was very satisfactory, around 200 head.

However, several have expressed a wish to have their cattle tested but have neglected to come in and sign an agreement.

tle that react. These cattle can be sold on the market for slaughter the same as any other cattle.

If you thin there is any probability of your cattle being infected with this disease and, especially if you have been losing calves, come in and sign up so your herd can be tested and then you will know whether you have the disease in your herd or not.

Any cattle that produce milk for human food should be tested as anyone contacting undulant fever is in for a long spell of sickness.

So join in with your neighbor and let's get this job over. Unless you are listed with the group the chances are we will miss you when the test is carried out. There are no charges for testing.

COTTON INSECTS

To date the cotton crop has done well growing a good stalk and putting on a good crop of bolls and setting a good crop. There has been very little insect damage. Earlier there were a few flea hoppers, later some boll weevils, but there seems to have appeared in the last few days a pretty heavy infestation of boll worms.

Some few used sulphur to control the flea hopper and the danger from that insect has about passed. Now many are asking how to control the boll worm and boll weevil.

A limited control may be had from the use of calcium arsenate as a spray or dust. As a spray you would use 3 pounds to 50 gallons of water and keep the mixture well stirred. As a dust you can use from 3 to 5 pounds per acre applied when the cotton is moist.

When the boll worm is small it feeds on parts of the plant before entering the boll where it is safe from poison. The boll weevil also feeds on moisture and may be killed. Continuous treatment is a measure of control. Should the leaf worm appear the same treatment will control it if used when it first appears.

We have what you want when you want it.

A PATRIOTIC VACATION AT HOME

War-time travel has convinced most West Texans that the only place to get a real vacation is at home. Creeks and lakes in this vicinity are full of fish and some of us are learning for the first time the beauties of our own immediate outdoors. A few days out in the country doesn't disrupt the household as it did some years ago. You don't have to throw out all the food in the house. Now folks just leave their electric refrigerator on "medium" and when they get back—day or night—cold and inviting foods await them.

Servicemen need every bit of traveling space available for the next ninety days, and by your staying at home this summer a little extra room will be left for these returning heroes.

Rediscover the vacation spots in our vicinity. Reddy Kilowatt guarantees that you will have a wonderful time—wish you were here."

Civilians at Peace

The Government needs and asks its citizens in this first week of peace to:

1. Continue to fight the danger of rising living costs by buying only what you need and at ceiling prices. Remember that 40 per cent of the price rise occurred after the Armistice in 1918.

2. Stay at your post as a nurse's aid or return to professional nursing to help your local hospital handle record numbers of patients. Care of sick and wounded will require the services of military nurses for many months.

3. Stick to your plans to help your local crop corps. Limited food supplies must not spoil, and farm labor will continue short until long after harvest.

Highlights of Plan For Reconversion

The Japanese surrender has brought an end to a number of wartime restrictions on the civilian economy. But it still leaves problems of keeping prices stable, conservation of scarce consumer goods, and other basic matters involved in reconversion from war to peace, according to reports from the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, WPB, OPA and other Government agencies responsible for an orderly transition to a peace economy.

The report of the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, submitted by John W. Snyder, Director, and entitled "From War To Peace—A Challenge," stresses that the goal of our peacetime economy is a vastly expanded production which will make possible the attainment of the four major economic objectives which face us in the months ahead. They are:

Jobs for all those willing and able to work; a steadily rising standard of living; stabilization of our economy to avoid disastrous inflation or deflation; and increased opportunities for farmers and businessmen.

The report highlights the following important questions that V-J Day has raised and gives some specific answers:

I. Military contracts—All military contracts are being terminated immediately, except those required for experimental and development purposes and for the maintenance and supply of the armed forces. The largest continuing item in Army procurement will be in food and this will be cut as fast as demobilization will permit. Navy reductions will be smaller and more gradual.

II. Demobilization—Demobilization from the armed services will return from at least 7,000,000 men to civilian life within the next year. At present, the Army is demobilizing at the rate of 170,000 per month. Within several months, the rate is expected to reach 500,000. The Army will demobilize on the same basis as formerly, releasing first those men with longest combat service and greatest number of dependents. The Navy plans to demobilize some of its personnel, almost immediately. Both the Army and the Navy will continue to draft on a reduced basis, some men to replace those of longer service.

III. Unemployment and Manpower—All controls over manpower are to be removed and the compulsory 48-hour week ended at once. The U. S. Employment Service will devote its best efforts to finding jobs for displaced workers and veterans and assisting claimants for unemployment compensation.

Unemployment currently is estimated at 1,100,000 persons. This represents the total without jobs on a given day, many of them being persons "between jobs." This total of unemployment is expected to rise to 5,000,000 or more within three months; perhaps to 8,000,000 before next spring, as those released from war jobs are joined by large numbers of men discharged from the armed services. Many of the unemployed will find new jobs within a few weeks—others will face extended periods without jobs.

IV. Production and Distribution Controls—Many production and distribution controls will be removed at once. Only those will remain in force which are essential for expediting production, breaking bottlenecks, preventing inventory hoarding, and assuring economic stabilization. Rationing of certain scarce commodities must continue for a while.

V. Price and Wage Controls—For some period of time the dangers of inflation will be with us. There will be more demand for many kinds of goods and services than business can supply. As long as some materials and products remain seriously short, price ceilings on those materials and products must be maintained as a barrier against inflation. Rent controls also must continue. While price and rent ceilings remain in force, wage stabilization must be continued. Wherever price ceilings will not be endangered, collective bargaining will be restored. Wage and price increases will be allowed to correct substandard pay scales, to relieve hardships of individual workers and enterprises and, where necessary, to stimulate increased production.

VI. Legislative Program—In order to speed reconversion and to mitigate the extremes of hardship during the transition period, a number of legislative enactments are needed. These include: Increased unemployment compensation benefits; revision of the Fair Labor Standards Act to increase minimum wages; tax program to stimulate production and to maintain markets; appropriations for the United States Employment Service and retention of this service under Federal control during the interim of transition.

Brief Resume of Constitutional Amendments

Below is a brief resume of the proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution to be voted on August 25, 1945, and is given herein as each amendment will appear on your ballot:

• Amendment No. 1
This amendment provides that during the time the United States is engaged in fighting a war, or within one year after the close of the calendar year in which said war is terminated, no person, who at the time of holding any election in this State authorized by law, or who, within eighteen months immediately prior to the time of holding any such election, was a member of the Armed Forces of the United States or of the Armed Force Reserve or the United States Maritime Service or the United States Merchant Marine, is required to pay a poll tax, or to hold a receipt for the payment of any poll tax assessed against him, in order to vote at any election. The foregoing amendment if adopted, does not give any person the right to vote who is a member of the regular establishment of the United States Army, Navy or Marine Corps.

• Amendment No. 2
This amendment provides that members of the Legislature shall receive $10.00 per day during their tenure of office, and in addition each member shall receive not to exceed $2.50 for each twenty-five miles as mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government for sessions of the Legislature.

• Amendment No. 3
This amendment provides that Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case. Our present Court consists of three Justices and a Commission of Appeals composed of six Judges who now assist the Supreme Court without the power to vote and this amendment, if adopted, will make the six Commissioners full members of the Court with voting power on decisions.

• Amendment No. 4
This amendment, if adopted, will empower the Legislature to increase the amount for old age assistance from $15.00 per month, (as now provided by the Constitution) to $20.00 per month of State funds to be matched by the Federal Government with a like amount, which in effect would be, with both State and Federal money, the pensioner could be paid an amount up to $40.00 per month.

This amendment further provides that a maximum of Thirty-Five Million Dollars can be raised by the State for its part in expenditures for the needy aged, the needy blind and needy children under 16 years of age.

'Fraternization' in Berlin

The ban has been lifted. The Berlin frauclins are no longer bounds for American G.I.s. Here G.I. and frauclins couples demonstrate various phases of the art of fraternization in a Berlin park. It was long ago when even a "hello" cost the friendly G.I. a $64 fine, and G.I.'s attitude was plainly, "Go away, girls, you bother me."

PLANNED INFLATION

No one wants to argue against labor getting a fair wage or a wage that will enable it to meet increases in the cost of living. But labor is the biggest factor in the cost of living. Labor, and that means 99 per cent of the people, will pay either directly or indirectly, all wages received by labor.

Therefore, such demands as those of the railway brotherhoods for a 25 per cent increase in existing wartime wage rates, is a definite threat to the possibility of government, industry and labor working out any successful reconversion or anti-inflation program.

Christion Church Bible School at 10 a. m. Lord's Supper and Preaching at 11 a. m. Evening Service, at 8:30 o'clock. Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in Unity, said the Psalmist. This fact has not changed in the six thousand years of the world's history. In the Church the Lord prayed for and expected Unity. How much effort, time, talents and money is wasted because we fail to heed the Word of God in respect to Unity will never be known in this world. God has ordained certain offices and officers for His kingdom upon earth. Lord's Day morning we will study the perfect plan in regard to the organization of his body as laid down in the Word. That must be one and that the Bible is designed to bring about this Unity is apparent to all faithful Bible students. As followers of Christ we each and every one have a responsibility to bring that Unity to pass. The starting point is in perfect knowledge. To God's Word we go for that. To have unity it is essential that we follow the divine plan of organization. We dare not pursue our own ideas when God so explicitly states His will. But having the proper offices and officers in name only, will not accomplish God's purpose. We will investigate the Word on this theme Lord's Day morning. Come.

We hear many say that Christianity is God's system of Salvation. But is Christianity a system? If Christianity is the system of God's Love and Philanthropy to sinful man, how can it be divided into so many sects and systems? To thoughtfully consider this question is to see error in the systems men have devised and added to God's Truth. Since the apostle Paul so often and so plainly expresses God's will by the Spirit, that division is sinful (1 Cor. 1:10, 13; Gal. 5:20), we do need to learn God's plan given to express His love and philanthropy and then to adhere to it with tenacious love and devotion. Our evening subject will be: "Is Christianity A System?" Grant L. Slagle, Minister.

Egypt's Red Crescent Society (equivalent to the American Red Cross) has the distinction of being the first foreign organization to make a contribution to the American Junior Red Cross National Children's Fund which pays for rehabilitation aid to children of other lands. Weekly Sermon

By Robert L. Constable, Director of Correspondence School, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

The Greatest Sight in the World People spend great sums of money and much time traveling to see the wonders and beauties of the world, such as the Coliseum, St. Peter's, the Rocky Mountains, Hawaiian sunsets. All of these things are reported as wonderful to see, but to most people they are inaccessible.

However, the most wonderful sight in all the world may be seen by anyone just where he is—the face of Jesus. Though not now seen by the physical eye, Christ is as real today as when He walked the roads of Palestine. This view affects people in two ways. It either terrifies them as they realize its significance, or it fills them with an inexpressible love that floods their being. One man, when he saw, cried out, "Who is me, for I am undone" (Isa. 6:5). Another said, "There remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength" (Dan. 10:8).

All the goodness a man has turns to corruption; all his self-esteem becomes drabness; his character loses its value. Or else the glory of the sight will touch his life and leave its indelible impress so that afterward the man is known as one who is dead to all that marks the world. No longer selfish, he will live for others. No longer anxious, he will walk in peace. No longer seeking, he will live to give.

No sight on earth can do these things, no view of universes in the endless space, no philosophic image dreamed by man. Faith's eye alone can take it in, but he who looks believing, will be transformed to that same image. The greatest sight in the world is a view of Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord, who for the suffering of death was made a little lower than the angels, but now crowned with glory and honor.

It is better to be careful a thousand times than to be injured once. Save your eyes. A blind man has very little earning power. A fire extinguisher on hand is worth two in the store. A match may be down but not out.

Mrs. Mildred Cates of Covina and Monroe Englett of Long Beach were united in marriage Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, in a single ring ceremony at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morrison of Covina. The wedding was performed before an improvised altar of pink amarilla lilies, by Rev. Robert Burton. Blue plumbago and lilies were further used in the decorative plan and pink rosebuds adorned the reception table in the dining room.

The bride was attired in a dark blue tailored suit with a hat of sweet peas. She carried dust-pink gloves and her flowers were gladioli and pinocchio rosebuds. Mrs. Englett's only attendant was Mrs. Morrison, who was dressed in black and white. Her flowers were white gladioli.

Pfc. Jimmie Cates, of the U. S. Army, son of Mrs. Englett, who has recently returned from the ETO gave the bride in marriage. Mr. Englett's attendant was Mr. Morrison. Peggy Ann Johnson sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" as pre-nuptial music. She was accompanied by Mrs. Roy Goodell who also played the wedding marches.

The couple left for a short wedding trip to Lake Arrowhead

All Mrs. Englett's children were present, including George Cates Jr., who recently returned from Australia. All are well-known in Crowell. Mrs. Englett is the daughter of Mrs. Agnes McLaughlin. Mr. Englett is employed with Douglas Aircraft.

United War Chest Conference to Be Tuesday, Aug. 28

War chest leaders from this area who attend the United War Chest of Texas regional conference at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, Tuesday, August 28, 1945, will hear from one of America's prettiest and most talented USO-Camp Shows entertainers a report on services being provided for our fighting men through agencies of the National War Fund.

At the same time, while laying the groundwork for the October war chest campaign in Texas, they will hear from one of the nation's most outstanding battle heroes a personal account of the fighting abroad.

The USO entertainer, Miss Paula Bane, has just returned from a tour of both the Atlantic and Pacific fronts, during which she sang for thousands of American troops. She will appear at the war chest conference in uniform, to tell of USO work abroad in an informal talk entitled "This is the Foxhole Circuit."

Capt. R. G. Morere, twice-wounded battle veteran and holder of the nation's second highest award for bravery, will give a first-hand account of modern warfare.

Captain Morere is now a patient at McCloskey General Hospital, where he is recuperating from serious wounds, but volunteered to make a tour of Texas because of his intense interest in the success of the National War Fund Drive in Texas.

Judge I. O. McCurdy, chairman of war chest Region 13, will preside at the conference, at which Wayland D. Towner, general manager of the United States War Chest of Texas, will discuss plans for another over-the-top campaign in Texas. The meeting will be attended by war chest leaders and workers from every county and community in the region. All local persons interested in the October campaign have been invited to attend.

The conference will open at 10 a. m. Following the business discussion, all delegates will be guests at luncheon.

During the afternoon, the entire group will be conducted on a tour of Sheppard Field.

Bones of Reptile to Be Placed in Memorial Museum

Austin, Aug. 15.—Over two hundred million years ago, in North Texas, a queer animal with a back like a snail, a pin head, a body ten and a half feet long, and weighing 400 pounds, lived around lakes and other bodies of water.

This odd reptile, say the University of Texas geologists, was called an Edaphosaurus Pogonias Cope.

Today, under the direction of Dr. E. R. Sellards, director of the University's Bureau of Economic Geology, Dr. H. J. Sawin, Bureau geologist, and others, are making a study of petrified bones of such a reptile, and the fossil will be placed on exhibit in the Texas Memorial Museum when the study is completed.

The bones were found on the shores of Lake Kemp in Baylor County, Dr. Sawin said, and the study is being made to learn more about early animal life in Texas.

"We don't know why the reptile should have a tail resembling a multiple-masted sailing vessel of a primitive ship," Dr. Sawin said. "Various answers have been given, but the most logical explanation is that the Edaphosaurus lived in cool water, and the protruding sail-like surface provided a surface for heat absorption dur-

Flies Help Cause the Death of Many Children and Adults

Austin.—Millions of flies help to cause the illness and death of thousands of children and adults each year in the United States. Hundreds of these casualties may be in the State of Texas this year if residents fail in their responsibility for developing the best possible sanitation measures in the area where they reside. Typhoid fever, summer complaint, and other intestinal diseases can be traced to the common housefly as the carrier of infection.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, speaking in this connection recently said, "Be sure that your windows and doors are tightly screened so that stray flies from a careless neighbor will not endanger your family. Be sure that flies are kept away from food, drink, and utensils used in the preparation of food. Make sure, if you live in rural districts, that outside privy vaults are tightly covered so as not to permit the entrance of flies. Infections from this source can be picked up and spread to human beings through contact with food, drink and utensils. Keep all garbage covered until collected or buried. Eliminate all breeding places for flies and you will be helping your community in its work of controlling communicable diseases and preventing unnecessary deaths. Dr. Cox said that the Health Department would be upon request a pamphlet outlining safe and practical methods recommended for use in fly control.

Some 1,113 acres on Saipan and Tinian are now cultivated by 620 men and two navy officers and 240 officers. The yield to date, 600 tons of vegetables of all kinds, and 85 Holsteins and a herd of 900 pigs, food is used by the army to supplement C and K rations.

ing active daylight life in the water."

The second unusual feature about the Edaphosaurus is the skull, which was extremely small in proportion to the large body and long tail. Because the skull was so small, it indicates that the animal thrived on plants, the geologists say.
