Mrs. Wayland was born in Missouri on Jan. 30, 1865. She was married to Charlie Wayland in 1886 at Cleburne, Mo. Wayland died many years ago. Survivors include five children, three daughters and two sons, five grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren and one sister. The daughters are Mrs. J. F. Rodgers of Crowell, Mrs. Carrie Johnson of Marlow, Okla., and Mrs. Charles Sue Thompson of Lawton, Okla.; the two sons are Clay Wayland of Marlow and J. Tom Wayland of Vernon. Crowell Wildcats Lose Game, 18 to 0, to Chillicothe

The Crowell High School football team lost a conference football game at Chillicothe last Friday night by an 18 to 0 score. This was Crowell's first loss in conference play this year. The Eagles played exceptionally good football throughout the first half to take a 12 point lead. Dodson, a sure bet for an all-district position, ran two of Chillicothe's touchdowns over on 25 and 70 yard runs. The Eagles scored the other touchdown on a long pass play.

Most of Crowell's players looked terrible on their blocking and tackling assignments. However, Kendrick Joy and O. C. Wharton played some good ball in the backfield. J. L. Brock in Crowell's line, and Rose, center for the Eagles, looked good on the defense. Larry Dan Campbell led the Crowell team on the defense until he received a leg injury and had to be removed from the game.

The game was about even in first downs, with Chillicothe chalking up 12 to the Wildcats 11. Crowell has a chance to tie Archer City for top honors in the district race by defeating Archer City here Wednesday, as the Cats have lost only one district game. Chillicothe lost one conference game to Archer City and was held to a tie by Holliday. Holliday has lost two games and tied one, while Valley View has not been able to mark up a victory in conference play this year.

Foard County H. D. Council Meets Sat.

The Foard County Home Demonstration Council met Saturday afternoon, Nov. 17, with Mrs. T. W. Cooper, Council chairman, presiding.

Miss Elizabeth Elliott, County Home Demonstration Agent, stated that a state veterinarian will be in Foard County the last of this week to test cows for undulant fever and that anyone desiring his services should contact D. F. Eaton, County Agent.

Reports from the various committee chairmen on the year's work were given. Mrs. Earl Davis reported on the market committee; Mrs. H. L. Shultz on the year book committee, and Mrs. Henry Ross on recreation.

Miss Elliott reported on the 4-H Club work and stated that the schools had been very cooperative with the work. Most all boys and girls from nine to fifteen are enrolled in 4-H Club work. There are nine clubs in the county, seven in Crowell, one at Thalia and one at Riverside, with a membership of approximately fifty girls. Several girls are doing third year work and are eligible for gold stars.

Each club in the county has been asked to give one case of canned food for United Nations relief. Food must be standard quality, medium grade in either corn, tomatoes, beans, peas or grapefruit juice and must be in by Dec. 1. Anyone outside of the clubs who wish to co-operate with this project may contact one of the clubs or a committee appointed by the Council, Mrs. Silas Moore, Mrs. Clyde Bowley or Mrs. C. R. Bryson.

Officers elected for the following year are Mrs. C. R. Bryson, chairman; Mrs. H. L. Shultz, vice chairman and Mrs. Glynn Jones, secretary and treasurer. The Council will meet again on Dec. 15 at 2 p. m. for a Christmas program.

Some fifty Australian brides of American service men returned home recently. A few secured divorces before returning to Australia but most of them left leaving their husbands behind. They complained that Americans rushed around too much, permitted their teen-age children to drink and smoke and that Australian brides were treated as outcasts.

District 12-A Championship Football Game Will Be Played Here Wednesday Afternoon, Crowell vs. Archer City

The Crowell High School football team has a chance to tie the Archer City team in the District 12-A championship race here Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 21, when the Archer City Wildcats and the Crowell Wildcats meet on the local field at 3:15 o'clock. Archer City is the only team with a perfect conference record in this district. Crowell is the only team that has a chance to tie them. The Archer County boys also have victories over some strong non-conference teams, including Haskell and Rochester. Crowell hasn't done so well outside the district, winning only one non-conference contest. Archer City defeated Chillicothe by one touchdown, while Crowell lost to that team by an 18 to 0 score. However, the Foard County boys know they have to take this game to remain in the district race and the fans can count on them playing a different brand of football from what they exhibited at Chillicothe last Friday night. Eugene Winn, 165 pound all-district fullback, and Jack Meredith, fleet left halfback for Archer City, carry the brunt of their offensive attack. Meredith threw the touchdown pass that defeated the Holiday Eagles. Crowell will be led by Captain O. C. Wharton and Co-Captain Kendrick Joy in the back field and Co-Captain J. L. Brock in the line.

A survey of the European air war released recently by the U. S. Army Air Forces states that under combat conditions pin point accuracy in bombing was rare. Hits in a target area circle of 1,000 feet radius around the aiming point averaged about 20 percent. That is about one-fifth of the bombs dropped fell within 1,000 feet of their intended target. A crowd of over one million persons stood in Central Park in New York, to hear President Truman's Navy Day speech.

The Department of Agriculture will buy from potato producers some 60,000,000 bushels of potatoes that the producers will not be able to sell because of the sudden ending of the war. The Department urged the farmers to produce an extra crop and the 1945 crop was the biggest in history. The Department had guaranteed a floor price to producers and will make good. Some of the potatoes will be fed to livestock and others will be used in the manufacture of alcohol, starch, glucose and the like.

Disillusionment

A minister remarked in a recent address that he had experienced a certain feeling of disillusionment since returning from his vacation. He had come back to his work with a hopeful feeling, that the end of the war would see the people stirred to new efforts in behalf of social welfare and religious and moral progress.

Yet it seemed to him people were settling back in the old ruts to a large extent, and were hoping for a return of normal times, when they could devote themselves to money making and having a good time, and with the feeling that they would not be called upon to continue the sacrifices of the war period.

It is not so easy to stir the American people up to greater sacrifice of their time and money for the public good, yet they do respond to a large extent to calls for contributions for social welfare. Social and religious leaders try to stir the people up to efforts to make a better world, to enlarge the advantages and training offered to youth, to abolish poverty and unemployment, and to provide better care for the health of the people.

It is perhaps to be expected that certain let-down of effort and the war emergency has passed. People who have been toiling and sacrificing for the public good, ask for some fun and diversion to compensate them for the years of devotion and sacrifice.

It is to be hoped that the spirit of progress will not languish in these post-war days. The American ideal calls for good homes for all the people, and a chance for everyone to realize whatever possibilities lie latent in his nature. Also the people should be deeply concerned about the preservation of peace in the world. They should study how by better international co-operation an end can be made to wars and fighting.

Poultry growers ask how their hens can be made to lay more eggs. Some growers will say they have explained to these birds the reasons why they should lay more, but they pay no attention to it.

Thanksgiving

The American people always have many reasons for giving thanks on their Thanksgiving day. This year they have far more reason than ever before, and that is that the war is over, the fighting is ended, and the men of the armed services are coming home as fast as possible.

To fully realize what this holiday means this year, we can look back some 10 months, at the time when the Germans in their last powerful offensive had broken through and created a big bulge in Belgian territory. The outlook for a quick ending of the war seemed dark indeed at that time.

The war with Japan seemed likely to last for years. It seemed a terribly prolonged task to drive the Japs out of the vast empire they had seized. After that job was completed, the still greater task of conquering the home islands of Japan remained to be faced.

The collapse of Germany came soon, and not many months after, Japan went the same way. It was a grand demonstration that a strong and resolute stand for the right and the true and the just, is apt to win out in less time than people expect.

Our people should be profoundly thankful to Almighty God, and to the fighting men and war workers who have brought about this victory so unexpectedly soon. The Thanksgiving party will be extremely merry this year. The warmest sympathy goes out to those whose homes have been broken by the terrible losses of this war. The country has passed a terrible crisis safely, and songs of thanksgiving should resound from all over the land.

It is our guess that the atomic bomb secret cannot be kept. Before long the scientists of every nation will have discovered the secret. As we see it the only hope that future generations can have is that it will not be used against them is the fear of reprisal. In the late war every nation had the means of producing gas, but the fear of reprisal kept them from it. Even Hitler who resorted to use gas when he saw the jig was up. Retaliation in kind by other nations would have completely destroyed the people of Germany and Hitler knew it. This is the thing that will save future generations from the atomic bomb and the only thing. Keeping it secret and outlawing it in warfare won't get the job done.

If we become involved in the future in another world war it will be because we failed to do a thorough job of cleaning up after this war. If the allies get to bickering among themselves and fail to think straight and do their full duty in the next twenty-five or thirty years we will all be at it again. A tremendous responsibility rests with the victors today. The question is, are we going to be big enough and wide awake enough to meet it and properly discharge our obligation to posterity? If we fail we have no valid excuse that we can give.

HISTORY

The Louisiana Purchase—December 20: The purchase by the United States on December 20, 1803, of what was described as the Louisiana Territory is said to be the largest real estate deal in history. The territory included in the purchase from France covered more than a million square miles and comprised much of what is known as the Mississippi Valley. The price paid was about twenty dollars a square mile, or $20,000,000. At the time of the transfer the area was occupied by about ninety thousand people. Details of the purchase were handled by Thomas Jefferson who was president at the time. Spain being at that time a strong and acquisitive nation, Jefferson feared the consequences of having the Spaniards occupy a strip of territory practically dividing the United States in two parts. He sent James Monroe to France to confer with Robert R. Livingston, the U. S. Minister to France. It happened that France was at war with England and the French, fearful that the English might seize the territory, agreed to sell. The final details of the sale took place on April 30, 1803, and the United States took possession in the following December.

Washington News

By Congressman Ed Gossett, 13 District of Texas.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—Most of the work of Congress this week has been done in Committees. Many important problems are now receiving serious attention and debate in the various committee rooms on Capitol Hill. The House Military Affairs Committee has three particularly hot potatoes, namely, demobilization, universal military training, and the atomic bomb.

On Thursday of this week I attended a meeting of Senators and Congressmen who listened to several of the eminent atomic scientists attack the proposed Johnson-May bill pending before the Military Affairs Committee. Most of the scientists want to pool all knowledge concerning atomic energy and make it available to all nations. The Johnson-May bill proposes to set up a commission in this country to restrict the use of atomic energy and to preserve such secrets as may now be in our exclusive possession.

The American Association for the United Nations, Inc., organization of distinguished Americans, contends that this secret should be controlled through the United Nations organization. They say that following our first statement we would keep the secret, the Russians immediately began developing uranium deposits in Czechoslovakia and hiring German scientists at fantastic salaries to work on the problem of atomic energy. They propose to set up through the United Nations organization an international atomic energy corporation. The corporation would acquire all of the known deposits of uranium and other elements going into the manufacture of atomic energy, would issue all nations from whom these supplies were confiscated an amount of stock in the corporation, and would supply them in turn certain amounts of atomic energy. However, all of these supplies and material would be restricted to peacetime commercial use and the making of atomic bombs would be outlawed. An international police force of the United Nations would inspect and survey the fields constantly to see that all of these requirements were met and all conditions kept. The debate is just beginning. All should pray for some arrangement that will preserve world peace.

Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach appeared before one of my committees this week. Expenditures in Executive Departments, to testify in support of the so-called full employment bill. On cross-examination I asked Secretary Schwelienbach if he did not feel that Congress should pass some law or laws giving him more authority and power to settle labor disputes and to prevent strikes that were particularly against the public interest. The Secretary dodged the commitment on this point by saying he wanted first to see if the important Labor-Management Conference now going on in the City of Washington would work out amicable settlements of these industry-labor controversies.

The election of Mr. O'Dwyer to be mayor of New York, the largest city in the world, on Tuesday of this week, is causing a lot of discussion in political circles. It is well known that Mr. O'Dwyer had the aggressive and militant support of Tammany Hall plus the active support of Sidney Hillman's Political Action Committee of the CIO. Mr. Hillman is also the head of the American Labor Party in New York City. This support, while a little embarrassing to Mr. O'Dwyer, helped to swell his large majority. Incidentally, Mayor-Elect O'Dwyer of New York City was born in Ireland.

To get a license to practice law before the Supreme Court of the United States, one must be introduced to that court by a member of the Supreme Court bar. It was my pleasure this week to introduce Tom M. Miller of Graham, Texas, to the Supreme Court. For this purpose, Mr. Miller was accompanied to Washington by his young son, Dayne.

Among visitors to my office this week were Rev. Farrell and Pvt. Claude L. Green of Vernon, and Al Parker, Otis Nelson and W. Erle White of Wichita Falls. I always enjoy seeing friends from home.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—General Omar Bradley, now chief of the Veterans Administration, was the guest of honor at the Texas delegation luncheon this week. He talked to us briefly on the many problems confronting the Veterans Administration. Among interesting figures given were these: we now have 700,000 veterans on the pension rolls. About a million veterans are being discharged each month, of whom 25 per cent or 250,000 make applications for pensions.

Of veterans hospitalized, about 60 per cent are mental cases. Nervous or mental disorders are in no way reflections upon the patient. The Veterans Administration maintains 97 hospitals at this time. They have 2,300 doctors and badly need an additional 1,300.

Congress has about completed action on several amendments to the G. I. Bill of Rights, including a removal of age limitations upon the educational provisions, and important changes in the loan provisions. The main work of Congress this week continued to be in Committees. The Labor Committee heard testimony on increased minimum wages. The Committee on the Election of President, Vice President, and Representatives in Congress heard testimony on changes in the tenure of the President, including proposals to limit the President's service to two terms of four years each or one term of six years.

The Military Affairs Committee heard General Dwight Eisenhower add his testimony to that of General Carl Spaatz, General Jacob L. Deyers, General Bradley, and others for a unification of the armed services. Eisenhower has been the star witness to date for a Department of National Defense in which Army and Navy would be combined.

Other hearings continued on UNRRA, Veterans Administration, parity prices, OPA, etc. Prime Minister Clement Atlee of Great Britain addressed a joint session of the House and Senate on Tuesday. He paid tribute to Churchill, Roosevelt, and Stalin as great war leaders. He referred Albert White, one of our farmer friends residing in the Black community, left at the News office one day last week a sweet potato vine which contained 35 potatoes, all of eatable size. There is no telling how many potatoes were left in the ground that belonged to this vine.

She belongs to the F. H. W. Club, Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger Counties, and there are 12 representatives from these counties in the school.

S. E. Norris left at the Foard County News office one day last week what must be the king of all okra stalks. The mammoth specimen is 7 inches in circumference at the base and ten feet tall.

Saturday night about 9 o'clock a brilliant meteor came out of the southwest and flew across the city in a northeasterly direction. The heavenly visitor was noticed on account of the whizzing sound made as well as the ghostly blue-white light it gave out.

Mrs. C. M. Church spent this week at Sunset visiting her husband, who is now editing the Sunset Signal.

Ross Woodall, who was formerly employed as pharmacist at the Owl Drug Store in this city, and Miss Anna Mae Chambliss, were married last week at Goree.

There will be a big box supper at Cottonwood Saturday night, Nov. 27, and the proceeds will be used in purchasing lights for the school building. Cottonwood is one of the progressive communities of Foard County and the people take pride in having a good school.

to the ceremony at Arlington Cemetery in which he joined President Truman and Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada in laying a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

He referred also to the dark days following Dunkirk, in 1940, and thanked America for our shipments of arms and munitions. At that time, unknown to the American public, we sent England two million rifles and practically all the ammunition we had in the country. After Dunkirk the British were practically without guns or ammunition to defend the islands.

The Prime Minister took much time in an eloquent plea for world collaboration in the building of peace. The concluding paragraph of his speech was as follows: "We acknowledge the validity of the moral precepts upon which our whole civilization is founded. Man's moral progress, the greatest task that faces us today is to bring home to all people before it is too late that our civilization can only survive by the acceptance and practice in international relations and in our national life of the Christian principle we are all members one of another."

On the subject of morals, many shameful things are coming to light. Apparently a majority of the leaders of the Axis nations were liars, thieves, dope addicts, or moral perverts. That a sawdust Caesar and a mad paper-hanger, both of whom gloried in illicit love affairs and debauchery generally could lead barbarian nations in five years of terrible war upon civilization causes us to wonder if the world, in fact, is civilized.

While we have nothing to brag about on the subject of morals it is hoped the Prime Minister's own people will take his message on this score to heart. Many friends returning from England have told me of the widespread immorality of the British Isles. In this country we have grown to feel that divorce is too easy. A Colonel just back from England tells me the British go to the other extreme. In his opinion such difficulty has resulted in great immorality. He knew numerous British families in which husband and wife had not spoken to one another in many years. To save face, they avoided divorce, which is granted on the sole ground of adultery.

The British attitude toward divorce occasioned their attitude toward the marriage of the Duke of Windsor, then King Edward, to the divorcee, Mrs. Wallis Simpson. But as the old saying goes, people who live in glass houses should not throw stones.

Pfc. Richard N. Kuhlman, University of Texas ex-student, has been called upon to assist with the rehabilitation of the Philippines in helping with a master plan of development for Manila. Walter T. Room Temperature and Its Relation to Good Health

Austin.—With the approach of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and the moment that the outside temperature is encountered, much harm may result. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death.

"An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When, added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A room temperature within the range suggested, plus the careful maintenance of proper humidity, will help to prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

Home Town Thoughts

The person whose mind is rightly filled with pride because of the excellent work he does, is likely to draw a pay envelope well filled with money.

Business people usually have to work pretty hard to make a success of their business. They naturally expect that those whom they employ will also put in good solid work.

There is an old song that says "Ise gwine back to Dixie." It conveys the idea of someone going back to the place where people knew and loved him best. So for most of us, the home town is usually that place where we have the most and closest friends.

Treasury Secretary Vinson has outlined a plan to the House Ways and Means Committee for tax reduction. Vinson suggests a repeal of the 3 per cent normal tax and the 95 per cent corporation excess profits tax on January 1; reduce war time excise taxes to the 1942 level next July; keep the social security tax at 1 per cent after January 1. If the 3 per cent normal tax is removed from 10 to 12 million persons would pay no tax at all.

Some one has expressed the condition as an unnatural one in which there will be a period of blowing off the foam, so to speak. As long as this period lasts times are going to be good. There will be ample employment and high wages. Everyone who desires to work will be able to get a job. Times will be good—very good. The spiral will continue to mount until it reaches the point where the demand will be supplied and the savings have been spent. Then, as the preacher says, will come the judgment day. Then we will be forced to level off upon a same and a normal basis. It is going to be tough. It will catch many with their savings gone. Values will go down and we will then begin to pay for the party. That is the history of the hysterical twenties and I am predicting that history will repeat itself.

LET US GIVE THANKS TODAY FOR OUR MANY BLESSINGS

We should pause for just a moment to give thanks for so many things:

First: That we are given the privilege again to call our Nation a Free Country.

Second: That so many of our boys are home with us again and that they won't have to go away any more.

Third: That the Lord has been good to us as individuals as well as a nation.

While we are giving thanks for so many blessings, we should not forget the numerous homes which will have a vacant chair which never again will be filled. Let us all in some way show the appreciation we feel for their sacrifice.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

The West Side Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 14, in the home of Mrs. C. W. Carroll. Eight members answered to roll call with answers to "What I want most in my post-war home."

Miss Elizabeth Elliott talked on and exhibited pictures for the post-war home and the new modern equipment. It was agreed that it possibly would be some time before the best materials would be available to everyone for building homes.

Mrs. Carroll served hot chocolate and doughnuts, after which an inspection tour of her lovely new home was made. The club will meet on Nov. 28 at the home of Mrs. S. E. Tate.

THALIA 4-H CLUB

The Thalia 4-H Club girls met on Friday afternoon, Nov. 16, in the typing room of the school with Miss Elizabeth Elliott in charge. Twenty-one members were present.

Miss Elliott discussed ways to make desserts which are low on sugar. For recreation, games were played.

Recipes were given for Health candy which uses dried fruits which are high in health content. It makes excellent candy to send overseas as it keeps indefinitely.

The next meeting of the club will be on Dec. 21 and there will be only one meeting in the month of December.

To make the atomic bomb the Army borrowed 400 million ounces of silver from the U. S. Treasury. The silver was largely used in the constructing of electrical equipment, it being a splendid conductor.

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

Though I have no access to a crystal ball nor am I an expert at reading the tea leaves I believe the indications point to a period of inflation in this country not unlike that which followed World War I. I also predict that unless ways are found to curb it we will go into the same sort of tail spin that brought us to the economic crack-up in 1929, and the demoralizing depression that followed.

The set up for it is perfect. Thousands of people have together the greatest back log of savings that has existed since the beginning of this country. They have been accumulated, not especially because their possessors desired to save just to have the money or the bonds in their possession, but because they were unable to buy the merchandise and there was no alternative. Most of them have plans already formulated to spend these savings. They will go for a new car, a new house, a new radio, a new washing machine and the like. This is the purpose for which they were saved and this is the purpose for which they will be spent.

The possessors of these savings accounts are not going to haggle over prices. One or two or five hundred dollars more for a car is not going to matter. They are going to have the car. Ten or twenty or fifty dollars more on a new radio will not matter. They will pay the price and take the radio. The same thing is true in the matter of other purchases. The buying competition is going to encourage the manufacturer and the dealers to figure less closely in the matter of price, and buying competition will result in a wave of increased prices.

There is something about a rising price market that seems to stimulate buying. It has always been so. People do not buy on a falling market, but once let the word get out that the price is going up, and the buying rush is on. It takes a pretty level head to hold down spending at such a time.

The demand has been made for a thirty per cent wage increase. This will mean extra millions to be spent and will result in increased cost of manufactured items and a general increase in the cost of living. The demand calls for the imposition of a war time wage schedule upon a peace time economy.

Added to the back log of savings for new cars and radios and washing machines which will be spent as quickly as the merchandise makes its appearance is the immense back log of replacement of equipment on farms and in factories and shops.

THANKSGIVING, 1945

Thanksgiving this year is more important to us than ever before. We, the students of America, have many things for which to be thankful. We humbly bow our heads in silent tribute to our boys who lost their lives in World War II and we honor those who fought bravely and have returned or will return soon. We are thankful that we live in America with plenty of food, warm clothing, and a home which has not been bombed—and that America is not only willing but will send as much food and clothing as possible to war-torn countries. We are thankful to our forefathers who came to this land and went through many hardships in order that we may live in this wonderful country today. Most of all we are thankful that God has given us peace in this land of hope, courage, and opportunities—America.

DON'T READ OVER MY SHOULDER. GRAB A MAGAZINE FOR YOURSELF

Like to read?
 Then here's your meat.
 Twelve magazines and two newspapers regularly find their way to the reading table in the study hall.
 Ladies' Home Journal is probably the most popular among the girls of high school, while Popular Science Monthly and Life attract the boys.

Girls who expect a future "Home On The Range" will probably enjoy reading Practical Home Economics. For those who like everything in general there are copies of the Reader's Digest, Look, and Saturday Evening Post, Newsweek, Pathfinder, and Time are also on the list. The grade schools receive the Boy's Life and Calling All Girls.

In addition to these magazines, the library subscribes to the Dallas Morning News. The Foard County News is donated to the library by T. B. Klepper.

SENIOR CHEER LEADER CHEERS FOR NAVY AND CHS

The other day in the sixth period typing practice we were all standing around waiting for the bell to ring when coach stuck his head in the door and said, "Do you all know a senior girl who has blue eyes, brown hair, and a cheer leader uniform and who likes hamburgers, volley ball, health and safety, and the lovely color of aqua blue? I think Van Johnson and Betty Grable are her favorite movie stars. She's always going around singing "What Do You Wanta Make Those Eyes At Me For?" She has a mania for pestering people, but she's really not mean; in fact, her ambition is to overcome her temper. Her chief dislike is conceited people, but there isn't anything about CHS she dislikes, except that this is her last year. She'll give three cheers for the navy at the drop of a hat.

Ride 1,200 Miles on Horses

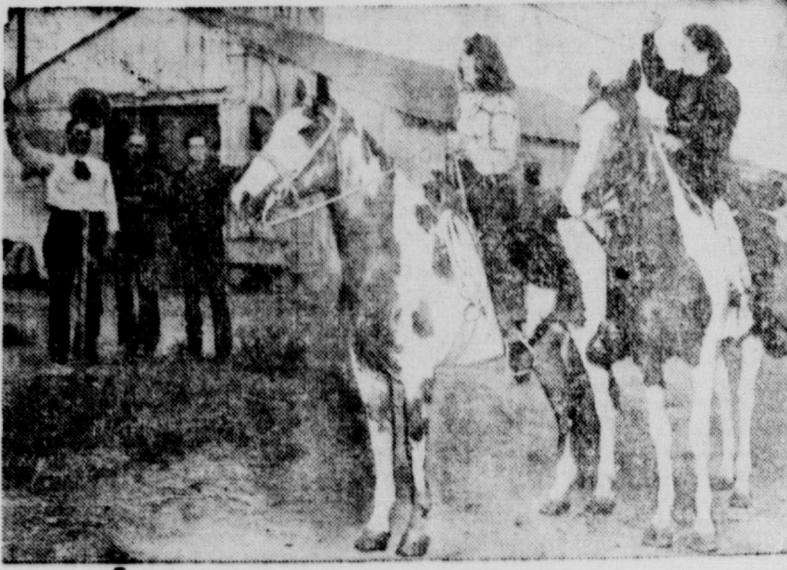

Photo shows Virginia Conradson and Eileen Holt, who rode from Los Angeles to Stoneham, Colo. They traveled the 1,200 miles at the rate of 30 to 35 miles a day, sleeping by the roadside at night in bedrolls. Their horses wore out four sets of "unrationed" shoes, and were fed breakfast oats during a large part of the trip through Arizona.

 "Someone at the back. I think it was Tommy, said, "Why that sounds just like De Alva."
 Coach laughed and said, "You are right. De Alva Thomas it is. If you see her, tell her that a certain S 2-C J. L. Gobin is on the phone."

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

The spotlight for outstanding players falls on Carlos McBeath and Johnny Mitchell this week. The old saying, "little but loud," fits Carlos. Although he is not very large, he is one of the most important men on the squad. His regular position is at center on the offense and at linebacker on the defense, but he has also played at the end position and in the backfield. Carlos is a letterman from last year's team. He not only plays football, but he also is a "hot fan" on the basketball team.
 Johnny Mitchell can be found at the left end position in the Wildcat line. This is his first year to play football, but to watch him one would never suspect it.
 Both of these Wildcats have started and played every game. They are valuable men on both the defense and the offense.

WILDCATS DEFEATED IN CONFERENCE GAME

The Crowell Wildcats were defeated by the Chillicothe Eagles 18-0 Friday night at Chillicothe. This was the first conference defeat for the Wildcats.
 The Eagles scored early in the first quarter with Dodson, Eagle quarterback, racing about twenty-five yards for the tally. The next Eagle counter was made in the second period on a pass play, Dodson to Jones, which netted about thirty-five yards.
 The Wildcats seemed never to get to clicking and never threatened the Eagle goal line. The last Eagle score was made early in the last half with Dodson again making the score after racing about seventy yards.
 Wharton and Joy were outstanding for the Wildcats on offense and Bond, Wood, L. Campbell and McBeath showed up well on defense.
 The Wildcats make their last bid for the district title Wednesday afternoon when they play the Archer City Wildcats, who are undefeated in conference play. If the Crowell lads win this game, they would have to defeat Archer City again. This would give them the district championship.

CLOTHES LINE

We were glancing over the study hall this morning and there were so many cute outfits being worn that we decided to look over the rest of the students in the hall when the bell rang.
 One thing that stood out from the rest of the crowd was the group of lovely turquoise blue sweaters worn Monday by De Alva Thomas, Joyce Jones and Joann Thompson. All three girls set off their fair complexions and light brown hair with this flattering color.
 De Alva and Janet are showing off their new shoes. Dee's are brown suede and leather loafers, and Janet's are "yummy" brown and white moccasins. Have you noticed Rebecca Ross' white moccasins too?
 De Alva keeps coming up in this, but we just couldn't go without mentioning her new silver identification bracelet from "—"
 We noticed a lot of the boys are wearing sleeveless sweaters over their shirts, Mouse Ballard wore a tan one, James Browning and Johnny Frank chose brown, and Horace Todd and Jerry Westbrook came out in bright yellow and blue.
 We couldn't see many of the boys' socks because most of them wore boots.
 The girls still go bare-legged, but some are donning bobby-socks on cold days.
 Those Navy uniforms that kept dropping in at CHS this week were O. K. too.

THIS WEEK'S HIT PARADE

Bobby Cooper to Booty, "Why Do You Want To Make Those Eyes At Me For,"
 Ed to De Alva, "Why Don't You Do Right?"
 Johnny to Evelyn, "You'd Be So Nice To Come Home To."
 C. D. to Sharon, "Why Don't You Fall In Love With Me?"
 Danny to Kathleen, "Till The End of Time,"

 M. W. to Joann, "If I Loved You,"
 Jimmy to Joan, "Always,"
 Brock to Betty, "It's Been A Long, Long Time,"
 Peggy to Travis, "Paper Moon,"
 Mary Ruth to Floyd Oliver, "Give Me A Little Kiss, Will You?"
 Kendrick to Virginia, "You Belong To My Heart,"
 Miles to Janet, "I'll Buy That Dream,"
 Mary Catherine Sparks to Beatrice Joe Evavson, "I'll Wait For You,"
 Rebecca Ross to Frankie Joe Vanek, "Shame On You."

RAH! RAH! WILDCATS

If you had been anywhere near Crowell High Friday, you would have heard a great commotion from the auditorium. Don't be alarmed, for it was only the student body having a pep rally. The students really had pep, and many yells were given to give our boys that good "old Wildcat" spirit. Even though Chillicothe did beat us, we have a chance to regain our pep to win the game this week against Archer City Wildcats. Our cheering section has really been good this season, and they are going to be ready for any yelling competition that Archer City has. (Beat Archer City.)

THE CAT'S WHISKERS

Greetings, Gates, let's scandelate! How be every body this wonderful Thanksgiving Day. O. K. I'm hoping.
 To begin with we want to welcome home a couple of CHS ex-students who are now in "This Man's Navy," J. L. Gobin (No wonder Dee is so happy), and Bill Breedlove.
 Miles, Bobby, Janet and Booty were really having a swell time Saturday night.
 Danny, we're sorry you hurt your ankle, but we know someone who could help it get well.
 Kendrick and Virginia were cruising around town Saturday night.
 Betty and Brock were with Danny and Kathy Saturday night.
 Anna Laura Payne was wearing Weidon James' ring last week. Watch out, Gloyna.
 Evie, why did you run out on the field Friday night? To see Johnny—Could be.
 We wonder if Sonny Johnson is still true to Bobbie Smith.
 Will someone please tell us who Virginia Hammonds' current dream man is?
 Is Martha Johnson still true to John Potts?
 V. Bond, I didn't see you in Crowell Saturday night. How's Coleen or is it a new one in Chillicothe?
 Joyce and Jerry had a good time at Truscott Saturday night from all reports.
 Say, what's this we hear about Janice Burbank? Horace seems

Sprucing Up

When people took unusual pains about their dress and appearance, it used often to be said that they were "sprucing up." Today the majority of people appear to be well spruced up, and dressed with some care, but some of the homes are not kept with equal care and need a little sprucing up to do credit to their neighborhood.
 If people are well dressed, it helps them in business and in social life. So if their homes are well spruced up, it helps their standing in their neighborhood and the home town. The well spruced up home is a sign that people love it, and folks are glad to have the inmates of such a home as their neighbors.

Weekly Sermon

By the Rev. Robert Parsons, assistant director of WMBI and WDLM, Chicago.

"All Things Through Christ" "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."—Philippians 4:13.

Paul was just an ordinary man, yet he made this statement honestly. He had suffered, but he could say, "I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content" (v. 11). I can do all things.

The golden key that unlocks the secret of a victorious life is "I can." It is so easy to say, "I can't." When some temptation comes, some trial, some duty, we are overwhelmed by our own weakness and we cry, "I can't."

That is also often our attitude toward Christian service. I can't preach, I can't sing, I can't make conversation with people about the Lord; I can't. Remember, "I can't" is a confession of weakness, an acknowledgement of failure, a cry of defeat.

But Paul cried out, "I can." That was a cry of victory, the statement of one who was certain.

That was not all. "I can"—what? The reassuring answer is, "I can do all things." That is a daring thing to say. It seems to swallow up all limitations.

Have you ever noticed II Corinthians 2:14, "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ?" Paul says, "We are always conquerors through him." The Christian life is one of continual victory. We can be "more than conquerors" (Rom. 8:37).

Isn't it just here we miss the way? Our lives seem to be down and up, and more down than up. We say, "I can do some things, but not all things. I can sometimes overcome, but not always. Some things always seem to keep me down." But the apostle Paul testified, "I can do all things."

What is the secret of a life of victory. Look at the text. There we find the golden key of a radiant, victorious Christian life. It is through Christ, and through Him alone.

The Lord Himself said, "Without me ye can do nothing; without Christ nothing; with Christ all things. We are told to put on the whole armor of God, to be strong in the Lord. It is all His strength. He has promised strength for each day, and He who gives the strength also enables us to say, "I can."

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

The Story the Clothesline Tells: I pass each day on my way to town a home that has attracted my attention upon a number of occasions by the fact that there hangs a big washing. The home is quite small and most unpretentious. It needs paint and some repairs. The fence has long since gone to pieces and the yard is ragged and unkempt. The family wash on the line, in marked contrast, is spotlessly clean. It gleams in its clear whiteness in the sun. I have remarked to those riding with me on a number of occasions that though I have never seen the young woman who lives there and who is responsible for the wash, I know what kind of a housekeeper she is. I know that she is industrious, hard working and immaculate. She can't help but be so. She has her hands full of other duties—the wash is hers. It is a little thing perhaps but it is things like this that tell the world what kind of people we are. We may go on parade at times, but it is the week after week living that counts. It is the putting out every week of the year as an habitual practice a wash that sparkles in its pure white cleanness.
