CAPITOL SEE-SAW

Headquarters of various early Chinese dynasties, Nanking was developed on a larger scale by the first Ming emperors in the 14th century. Ruins of imperial tombs testify to the splendor of that period. The Ming rulers, however, soon deserted the palaces there for Peiping (then Peking), in the belief that they could better protect their northern territories against Mongol and Tatar invasions. The capital remained at Peiping until the Chinese Republic was formed and Dr. Sun Yat-sen became president of the provisional government in 1912. Nanking was his temporary headquarters but the see-saw continued, and the government went back to Peiping. In 1928 Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek decided to switch it to Nanking. Nine years later the Japanese occupied the city, and eventually the capital again was moved.

Fire Department Nine Defeated Stovall-Thompson

Scoring eight runs in the first inning, Crowell Fire Department managed to maintain their lead throughout Tuesday night's game with Stovall-Thompson Grocery, the final score reading: Fire Department, 15; Stovall-Thompson Grocery, 13. The grocerymen used three pitchers in a vain attempt to stop the scoring parade of the fire boys. Deciding factor in the game was fourteen bases on balls issued to the Fire Department. Eight fire boys errors helped the grocerymen run up their total in runs scored.

Cuba Good Customer For American Goods

Cuba—best customer of the United States among all 20 Latin American countries—has purchased almost 3 1/2 billion dollars worth of goods of all kinds from this country since 1910, according to records of the department of commerce. In recent years Cuba has bought from the United States more than two-thirds of all goods imported by the island. In turn, this country has purchased about three-fourths of all Cuba's exports. There is a steadily increasing demand in Cuba for both manufactured articles and agricultural products of the United States. Before World War II, the origin of goods exported to Cuba was traced to 44 of the 48 states, indicating the wide diffusion throughout this country of the millions of dollars spent annually by Cuba for United States goods. The sugar industry is the backbone of Cuba's economy, and the extent of Cuba's ability to buy this country's goods depends directly on sugar sales to the United States.

How Your Television "Commercial" Will Look

To enhance an impressive list of manufacturing "firsts," Chevrolet now engages in another pioneering venture as first motor car manufacturer to sponsor a regular commercial television show. Admittedly an exploratory venture to evaluate the possibilities of television as an advertising medium, these broadcasts were the first employing live talent to be sponsored by any automobile producer. Four weekly shows were staged by Chevrolet and broadcast through the facilities of the American Broadcasting Company's television network. The shows were televised at the Dumont Studios in New York for the three stations currently teamed in the ABC television network. Shown above is a scene from the second of the series, a half-hour program titled "Roads to Romance."

AGRICULTURE in County

(Joe E. Burkett, County Agent)
ON FARM AND RANCH NEEDS

Farm and ranch families now are badly needing new equipment, building materials, hardware supplies and fertilizers. Much of what they used during the war has "given out."

Well, production is increasing on most things farmers want, but there still won't be enough to go around. Retail sales in April were the highest ever, according to T. R. Timm, economist in farm management for the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service. Mail order houses, which serve a great many rural families, reported their April sales were sixty-six per cent above the same month in 1945.

Builders hardware will be available to satisfy only half the "wants" this year, Timm says. Lumber production is going up, so is the production of automobiles, but even so, production is at least a year short in meeting even the most essential demands. In April 150,000 cars were put on the market, that's three times as many as in February. Tire production is running above pre-war figures and it's still rising. Timm believes farm families can get what they badly need by the end of the year. For the rest of 1946, farmers will be able to get about 70 nails for every 100 they want.

But the most serious shortage for farmers is the lag in delivery of farm equipment. Manufacturers are far behind on their schedules due to strikes and lack of materials. Here's another trend farmers won't particularly like. The production of work shirts has fallen off lately, about ten per cent, while dress shirts have increased about a third.

Another serious shortage is baiting wire—and if the industry doesn't produce more soon, Timm believes hay crops will suffer.

CONTROL OF COTTON FLEA HOPPER WITH DDT

A DDT-sulphur mixture is more effective against adult cotton flea hoppers and for the control of heavy infestations than sulphur alone, says Charles A. King Jr., acting entomologist for the A. & M. College Extension Service. This was indicated in results of recent experiments at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. However, sulphur alone will give economical control of light to medium infestations. The DDT-sulphur mixture, which is more expensive, is recommended only for heavy infestations where it is necessary to reduce the insect population below the damaging point as quickly as possible.

DDT has proven toxic to adult hoppers as well as immature forms. Tests have shown that a mixture of five per cent DDT mixed with either sulphur or an inert diluent gave good control of hoppers. However, the DDT, when mixed with an inert diluent, also was effective in reducing the population of beneficial insects, thus causing aphids to become damaging. So caution should be exercised in applying DDT early in the season, in order not to build up injurious infestations of aphids.

For economical control of the hopper, it is essential to examine cotton to ascertain the numbers of insects present. Applications of from 12 to 15 pounds of sulphur per acre are sufficient to control light or medium infestations, while a five per cent DDT-mixture is recommended for heavy infestations.

The first application of sulphur should be applied when from 15 to 25 hoppers are found on 100 cotton terminals. If the infestation rapidly increases due to the adults' migrating in, or if it reaches high numbers before being discovered, the DDT-sulphur mixture should be used to stop the damage as quickly as possible.

JULY LANDSCAPE REMINDERS

Trees and shrubs which need food should be fertilized as soon as possible, using plenty of water if the soil is dry, says Sadie Hatfield, specialist in landscape gardening for the A. & M. College Extension Service. A later application may stimulate growth which will not harden before frost and the plants will be injured.

Heavy pruning should be done before the 15th of July. After that only light pruning should be done until time for winter pruning.

If arbor-vitae and cedars look like they are dying from the inside out, examine for microscopic red spiders. Use a hand lens or hold in a strong light where strands of tiny silky webs may be seen. Apply cotton dusting sulphur to control them or use a strong stream of water.

A weekly examination for cedar bag worms should be made of all shrubs which it attacks. They are hard to poison with lead arsenate after they are an inch long. Hand pick and burn them. For aphids on arbor vitae, use nicotine sulphate spray.

Black spot and mildew on roses can be controlled with copper sulphur dust. If rose buds are partially eaten before they open, it may be necessary to use a flash light to catch the large brown beetles which feed upon them at night. Copper sulphur dust and other repellents will discourage the carpenter bee who cuts circular pieces from the edge of roses and other plants.

Rust on pyracantha and holly hock and other plants may be controlled with Bordeaux spray.

VACCINATE HORSES NOW

The season is at hand for "sleeping sickness" in horses, or, as the scientists call it, encephalomyelitis. Peak months for the disease are July, August, September and October.

Early vaccination, preferably at the beginning of hot weather, is recommended by scientists. Too often, farmers and stockmen fail until the disease becomes epidemic before they vaccinate, and then it's too late. Last year about 700,000 horses were vaccinated during the lightest attack in 11 years.

Dr. E. A. Grist, veterinarian

for the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, says there are two types of the disease found in Texas, so it's important for veterinarians to make a laboratory identification of the virus. Then they can be sure to treat the right form.

Texas has both the Eastern type of the disease, which kills 80 to 90 per cent of the cases, and the Western type which is fatal in only 20 to 30 per cent of cases.

The main thing is to vaccinate horses now for sleeping sickness. It'll be good insurance.

Sense of Right and Wrong

There are many warnings about the increase of crime, the boys and girls who show lawless tendencies, and those who are becoming rebels against human society. The vast majority of young people still come up straight, and with the sense to avoid acts that will get them into serious trouble. But too many youngsters get the notion at an early age that they can defy authority and that it is smart to do so.

In former years it was common to teach children that God was watching their every action, and that those who did wrong would suffer in a future life if not in the present. God's ever seeing eye was always upon them, they were often told.

In present times the fear of future punishment is not so widespread. If youngsters get the idea that they can commit some small offense and get away with it, some may go on from such doings to more serious actions. It is very helpful if parents can have many quiet talks with their children, and impress good ideas upon their minds.

The idea should be very strongly impressed upon children that there is a sharp distinction between right and wrong, and that the community places its severe condemnation on those who choose the wrong path, and that it devotes its best effort to prevent such wrong doing and punish it when it occurs. When they commit a criminal act, they incur the hostility of the community and the country. It is a very dangerous thing for them to do things that make them the enemies of human society.

Young people who get wrong ideas in their heads can usually have their attention diverted from those thoughts if they get ample scope for activity. If they have a good chance to earn money on some job, or enjoy athletic games, the wrong ideas are likely to remain dormant and never develop.

National Guard Training

Plans have been announced to train 570,000 ground force troops in the National Guard of the United States. The training will continue to be a state function, but the training program will be supervised by regular army instructors.

This will be an excellent opportunity for young men, and it should not be difficult to get that number of satisfactory recruits. If the country should ever become involved in war again, the men who had the National Guard training would have had a most excellent preparation. Their chances of promotion and of obtaining officer positions would be greatly improved.

This training helps men to think clearly and promptly and act efficiently. They will enjoy the life of the Guard and the comradeship of their associates, and will make many cherished friends in this experience. It will be helpful to them to come under the leadership of these able officers.

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hastwell)

Our World: The mind is its own place, and in itself can make a heaven of hell or a hell of heaven. These lines from John Milton's "Paradise Lost" carry with them the secret of human happiness. We may be surrounded by everything that money can purchase in this age of luxury in which we live and still be miserable, unhappy and discontented. On the other hand we may live in a shack, with few of the necessities of a beneficent age, and none of its luxuries, and yet have a heart that is singing until night—a heart that is so happy and overflowing with joy and gratitude that it does not have any room for dissatisfaction and discontent. There are countless proofs that we live in our minds. It is our mind that creates and is in fact the world in which we live and move and have our being. The most wonderful part of it is that we are, or can be, the master of our minds. We can make of it a world of hope, of happiness, of joyful living, or we can make of it a world of gloom, and depression, and self-depreciation, and self-pity. It is not the things we have or do not have that make our world. It is not the things others do or say that make our world. It is made by our own mind and in our own heart—if we have the courage and the faith and the will to make it.

To the Voters of Foard County:

In the closing days of my campaign for the office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector of Foard County, Texas, and especially to those whom I have not been able to contact, I wish to advise that I have lived in Foard County practically all my life. I have spent most of that time in the Hardware and Furniture Business with the exception of the last 3½ years that I have served as office deputy.

With the above experience in the sheriff's office, I feel confident that I am qualified to handle the law-enforcement part of the office as well as approximately $138,000 of the tax payers' money that is collected annually through the office and then distributed to the State, County, 4 Roads, 13 Schools, Texas Highway Department, etc.

I have made a special effort to contact each voter of the county and will continue to do so until July 27. In some cases I have been able to only leave my announcement card and others I have probably missed entirely. I wish to take this opportunity to say that it is not my intention to miss a single person. I trust that anyone overlooked will, as well as all persons interested in this election, accept this announcement as an earnest appeal for your vote and influence in the July 27 Primary.

VOTE FOR PRICE DANIEL OF LIBERTY For ATTORNEY GENERAL

I know Price Daniel personally and appreciate him as a close, personal friend. I know him to be a loyal Democrat, he having voted a straight Democratic ticket at all times.

He served six years as State Representative and was elected Speaker of the House in 1913. He served in this capacity with credit to himself and honor to the State of Texas. He made one of the best speakers the State has ever had. He is an able lawyer, a great statesman, a Christian gentleman. He has a wife and three children and his home life is a great example of an ideal family.

Mr. Daniel volunteered in the Army as a private, served three years and came out as a captain. He is a member of the Baptist Church and loves his church. He has a wonderful ability for leadership and is very grateful for each and every favor, large or small.

I am donating this advertisement as a small token of my appreciation for a great statesman. I will appreciate personally every vote cast for PRICE DANIEL next Saturday. Thanks.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect Friday Evening in Baptist Church Hall

Miss Joyzelle Tysinger, whose marriage to Jack Sauls was an event of Sunday evening, was honored Friday evening when Mesdames A. L. Rucker, Hartley Easley, Merl Kincaid, R. R. Jones and D. R. Magee shared hostess duties at a lovely miscellaneous shower in the banquet hall of the First Baptist Church which was artistically decorated for the occasion.

The guests were greeted at the entrance by Mrs. Magee and registered at the pretty bride's book under the supervision of Mrs. Easley. Seats were provided for the more than one hundred guests who were in attendance.

A pleasing program was rendered. Don Goban sang "Some Sunday Morning" with words arranged to suit the occasion. Billy Joe Taylor played piano accompaniment for him. A miniature bridal service was conducted before a decorated altar, with Carolyn Bursey as the bride and LeRoy Todd as the groom. Bobby Davis served as the bride's father and Bobby Hord took the part of the preacher. Bridesmaids were Gail Knox and Frances Kincaid and the groom-men were Gordon Tom Graves and Robert Kincaid. Shriene Jones was flower girl and strewn flower petals before the bride. The improvised marriage ceremony was cleverly executed. Billy Joe Taylor played for the simulated wedding.

The honoree was invited by the little bride to follow her to the gift room where Mrs. R. S. Carroll and Miss Cora Carter presided. The many lovely gifts from friends of the bride and groom were displayed.

The refreshment table was attractively laid with a lace cloth, two punch bowls and beautiful flowers. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Kincaid presided at the punch bowls and frosted punch was served with tiny cookies by Mrs. W. D. Studyvin, Mrs. Otis Gafford, Miss Maxine Johnson and Miss Jean Orr.

What the Individual Can Do

In the days before the war, it often seemed that there was a widespread lack of patriotism in the United States. When the war came, there was a great revelation of patriotism. Young men accepted cheerfully the call to military service, and the home people toiled incessantly to aid the armed services and to carry on in the face of deprivations. So there is more loyalty to the home town than we always realize. If some great calamity threatened the town, there would be a general and eager desire to help. This feeling of loyalty and patriotism is manifested in ordinary times when the people take hold to make the home town more attractive and beautiful. Every time they improve their home places, they show their loyalty and affection for the home town.

Steel production in Russia approximated 18,000,000 tons a year before the war. By comparison the United States alone can produce steel at the rate of 86,000,000 tons a year. Russia produces one-fourth as much electric power as the United States, one-tenth as much petroleum products and one-fourth as much coal each year as does the United States. Furthermore Russia has a population of 190,000,000 people to serve with this production.

Six thousand accident-deaths occurred in farm homes in 1944.

MISS VERNON LAUNDRY
Launderers and Dry Cleaners
VERNON, TEXAS OTHO T. CARRUTH, Solicitor

To the Citizens of Foard County:

Especially to you whom I will miss in going around over the county, I want to be better acquainted with you and you with me.

I moved to Foard County 46 years ago with my parents. I was one year old at the time. I have lived at Crowell ever since, except some 2 1/2 or 3 years that I spent in the Armed Forces of the U. S. in World War I. I saw combat service in France during that war. I am aware of the importance of the job I am asking you people for. I have had some experience in police work. I was on the Police Force in the State of Washington in 1944 up near Seattle.

Enforcing the law is no small task, but I believe, if given an opportunity, I can work for the people of the county and State satisfactorily to a majority of you.

Now, if I do not see you individually and you do not know me too well, please ask your neighbor about me. He will know me. Then if you think I am capable of handling or performing the duties of the Sheriff's Office, state your approval by voting for me July 27th. I will try, and with your help, I am sure that I will make you a good officer.

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS

It is easier to go six miles to hear a sermon, than to spend one-quarter of an hour in meditating upon it when I come home.—
 Philip Henry.

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS

It is not he that reads most, but he that meditates most on divine truth, that will prove the choicest, wisest, strongest Christian.—Bp.
 Joseph Hall.

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS

Meditation is that exercise of the mind by which it recalls a known truth, as some kind of creatures do their food to be ruminated upon till all the valuable parts be extracted.—Bp. George Horne.

Weekly Sermon

By the Rev. Will H. Doughton, D. D., President Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

The Dignity of the Soul-Winner

There are Christians who think that to speak to a person concerning Christ is to do an undignified thing, and as for passing out a tract, well, they would not think of giving such evidence of poor breeding.

Dr. Richardson, of the Church
 Army bookstore, in London, told us that regularly Queen Mary's lady-in-waiting visited the store to make purchases for the Queen Mother, and among the articles purchased was the tract "Safety, Certainty and Enjoyment." It seems Queen Mary carries these in her handbag to give out as an occasion permits. Pretty good breeding, don't you think?

Our Lord in one of those choice upper room meetings with his own said, "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." Certainly we are not sent to announce it. We are not sent to be savers of men, but we are sent to present to them the Saviour of men.

Christ forever exalted the mission entrusted to us when he said,
 "As my Father hath sent me."
 There is nothing undignified about this mission when we pause to reflect on who sent us.

While a pastor in Atlanta years ago at the time of the unveiling of certain figures cut in the granite face of Stone Mountain, it was my special task to be host to a fine old gentleman from Texas, General Chapman by name. The General was slight of form and stooped as well, for he was about eighty years of age. He was very proud of the honor of representing the state and governor of Texas at this celebration. Over and over the splendid old gentleman said, "You know I am here as the personal representative of the governor of Texas."

Lift up your head, personal worker. Yours is not a menial task, but a glorious privilege. As often as we read this word of our Lord, "As my Father hath sent me," we have the right to say to ourselves, "We are here as the personal representatives of the Governor of heaven who is also the Saviour of men."

There are 15 counties in the 13th District. I have been in Crowell three times during the campaign but could not see everyone. As you all know I have spent most of my time campaigning in the Eastern Counties and getting acquainted there.

I hope that the voters of Foard County will agree that this is good common sense and will see fit to give me your vote and support in the Marriage of Miss Tysinger and Mr. Sauls Solemnized in Candlelight Ceremony Sunday Evening at Methodist Church

In a beautifully appointed candlelight wedding at the Methodist Church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Joyzelle Tysinger and Jack Sauls exchanged the marriage vows, with Rev. D. D. Denison, the pastor, officiating with the impressive double ring ceremony. The church was artistically decorated for the wedding with tall baskets of white gladioli and palms and ferns. Graduated candelabra held white candles and the windows held graduated triads of white candles placed among greenery. A white satin kneeling bench was placed at the altar and white aisle carpets were laid for the bridal party. The pastor lighted the window candles and Miss Jean Hughton lighted the altar candles.

daughter in marriage. For the prayer following the ceremony, while the couple knelt, "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Jones.

The bride was a pretty picture in a gown of white duchess satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, buttoned down the back, long fitted sleeves coming to a point over the hand, with a yoke of net with satin appliqued flowers embroidered with seed pearls. The bouffant skirt of net with the same embroidered flowers fell into a long train. Her bouquet was of white bridal roses, with ribbon loops, centered with gardenias and with satin streamers tied with stephanotis. The double veil of illusion was attached to a bandeau of seed pearls and white sequins.

For her "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue" she wore a silk petticoat with hand done Irish crochet trim which had been in the family of her mother for three generations, a blue linen handkerchief and an antique cameo brooch, the gift of the groom, brought by him from Italy. She wore a sixpence in her shoe for luck.

Miss Edwards wore a beautiful line net dress, made off-the-shoulder, with full skirt and with a self trim of the net. She carried a colonial bouquet of daisies and baby's breath, surrounded by forever-true rose net. The four bridesmaids wore gowns of blending shades of pink and each carried a colonial bouquet of snapdragons, rimmed with chartreuse net.

Following the marriage, a reception was held at the Tysinger home with approximately 200 guests in attendance. Mrs. John Carter of Lockney received the guests at the door and presented them to Mrs. Tysinger and Mrs. Pete Holcombe, aunt of the groom. They were directed into the gift room where the wedding gifts were on display and then proceeded to the wedding party. They were registered by Miss Margaret Claire Shirley and asked into the dining room by Mrs. A. L. Rucker.

The dining table was lovely with lace cloth and the three-tiered wedding cake and the punch bowl. Mrs. W. D. Studyvin cut the cake after the bride and groom and Mrs. Leon Speer poured punch. Mrs. R. E. Jones and Mrs. A. F. Wright assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Sauls left immediately for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their residence in Wichita Falls, where Mr. Sauls is engaged in taking G. I. on-the-job training in Diesel engineering.

For going-away, the bride wore an oyster white, tailored wool mesh suit with gold buttons and gold trim. Her accessories were white. She wore a hat of matching material and made on an exclusive model. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

Out-of-town relatives and friends present for the wedding and reception were Miss Calvin of Santa Fe, N. M., Miss Adelle Baker of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. John Carter and daughter, Rondelle, of Lockney, John Calvin Carter of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henderson of Burk Burnett, Mrs. Anice Bell and son, Jimmie Don, of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stepp and Mr. and Mrs. John Edd Stepp of Quanah, Mrs. Dave Thomson and Mrs. Alex Anderson of the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carroll of Amarillo, Mrs. A. F. Wright of Clovis, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hurst of Quanah, Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Henry and daughter, Carol Ann, of Pampa, J. H. Sauls of Hamlin, grandfather of the groom, Joe Umfred of Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Rudell Russell of Granfield, Okla., Mrs. Clarence Self of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. John Rasoer of Vernon, Mrs. Sewell Roy and Mrs. P. P. Cooper of Amarillo and Bobby Cooper of Lubbock.

James E. Long Takes Bride in Ceremony at Vernon Church Friday Evening, July 19; Couple Will Reside in Crowell

In a beautiful ceremony performed Friday evening, July 19, at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in Vernon, Miss Claudine Gracy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gracy of Vernon, became the bride of James Everett Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Long of Crowell.

Dr. E. S. James, pastor of the church, read the vows before an arch formed of satin and crowned with lighted wedding tapers. The arch was placed before a background of palms and ferns and flanked with baskets of white gladioli.

For her marriage, the bride was dressed in a lovely formal wedding gown of her own designing, made of white satin heavily embroidered with white beads. She wore a coronet of seed pearls upon her hair. Her veil fell gracefully from the coronet. She carried a white Bible topped with a single white orchid attached to white satin streamers. For "something old" she wore a strand of pearls belonging to Mrs. H. G. Cox. For "something new" she wore the groom's gift of a wrist watch; for "something blue," she wore a ring with blue stones and she wore a sixpence in her shoe for good luck.

Soloist for the wedding was Mrs. Carleton Layton of Long Beach, Calif., and Miss Mattie Smith accompanied her and also played the wedding marches.

The candles were lighted by Miss Mozelle Johnston, who wore a pink dress and Miss Eddie Marie Hanning, who wore white. The maid of honor, Miss Dollie Jo Greenhouse, was attired in orchid net over satin and wore a shoulder corsage of split carnations and gardenias. Misses Doris Frith and Billie Doris Shultz, bridesmaids, wore identical dresses of white dotted with gold sequins. All the bride's attendants, except the maid of honor, wore halos of white carnations.

Riley Griffin of Crowell served as best man and Bobby Gracy and Charles Bursey were ushers. Attending the wedding from Crowell were J. F. Long, father of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. John Long and son, John Clark, Glendon Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Callaway and son, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bursey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long and daughters and Miss Modena Stovall.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held with about one hundred guests attending. The three-tiered wedding cake and punch were served to the guests. The bride and groom, the bride's mother and Mrs. Howard Bursey, sister of the groom, comprised the receiving line.

For a trip to Monterey, Mexico City and Acapulco, Old Mexico, Mrs. Long wore a light blue eyelet jersey dress and a corsage of white carnations. She attended Northside School and Vernon High School and has recently been employed at the Christ the King hospital. The groom attended Crowell High School. He has recently been discharged from the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Long, upon the return from their wedding trip, will reside in Crowell. The groom is engaged in farming and ranching.
