Moraw Declared Recount Winner

Recounters Find 7 Votes Were Uncounted

Three official ballot recounters who were appointed by the Bailey County Commissioners Court met Thursday for a recount request made by Rudolph Moraw, candidate for County Commissioner of Precinct Four. He was defeated in the November 3 general election by write-in candidate Nolan Harlan.

The first ballot count immediately following the election showed 168 votes for Moraw and 172 votes for Harlan.

Following the recount Thursday, seven more votes for Moraw were picked up from Voting Box 1-A which was located at the Muleshoe City Hall, to make a total of 175 votes for candidate Moraw. Harlan's vote count was unchanged, remaining at 172, reversing the trend by three votes.

Moraw contested the ballots cast absentee, Voting Box 1-A cast absentee, Voting Box 1-A; at the Muleshoe City Hall; Voting Box Five, Needmore Community Building and Voting Box Six, Bula.

The candidate who was shown on the ballot, Moraw, contended in his request that if the ballots were recounted, it was his feeling that he would gain election if the recount showed he received a greater number of votes than write-in candidate Harlan.

Serving as recount chairman was Jerry Ray. The other two recounters appointed by the Bailey County Commissioners Court included Jim Claunch, who was suggested by Harlan and C. G. Dameron, who was suggested by Moraw. Also in the commissioners courtroom during the recount session was County Clerk Hazel Gilbreath, along with the two candidates, Harlan and Moraw.

Mrs. Gilbreath said each ballot was checked carefully by the trio of recounters and discussed fully before being put on the tally sheet, with all three men agreeing before the mark was made on the tally sheet.

Weather Halts Cotton Harvest

Winter weather invaded the Muleshoe country and virtually stopped cold all efforts to continue the 1970 cotton harvest. Bustery winds brought clouds and heavy snow by 8:30 a.m. Friday. All the snow had melted by noon Friday although threatening skies continued to menace the area.

The bustery, wintry weather is expected to keep farmers out of the cotton fields with something like one-third of the cotton harvest out of the way. Quality and grade of the cotton is expected to turn downward sharply although the yields will not be hurt at this time. The longer the wet weather hangs on, the lower the cotton grade will go.

Some gins have several hundred bales of cotton stacked up on their gin yards waiting to be ginned. For instance, Earl Richards of the Muleshoe Co-op Gins said he had 400 bales on the yard, which would take about two days to run through the gin.

Generally, cotton has yielded slightly below what had originally been expected with most gins and farmers reporting slightly above one bale per acre.

Eagles Down Mules In Last Home Game

A few shivering, dedicated Muleshoe Mule football fans and a lot of brave teenagers braved 38-degree windy weather Friday night for the last home game of the 1970 football season. The Mules met the Canyon Eagles in the Muleshoe football stadium and following a purely defensive game, the Mules dropped the decision to the Eagles, 7-0.

Although the Mules received the initial kick-off, they were unable to move the ball into Eagle territory and the Eagles took over following a punt at their own 28 yard line. The Eagles moved the ball to the Mules 23 yard line before being dropped for a loss and attempting a fourth down field goal of 48 yards. The attempt was off to the left of the goal posts.

At the end of the first quarter, the Eagles had once again moved into Muleshoe territory and following a determined drive, six plays later put the Eagles on the scoreboard for the only tally of the game. Going off from the right side, Rich Edmondson scored from the three yard line and Edwin McBride scored the extra point when he booted the pignskin between the uprights.

During the second, Muleshoe moved into Eagle territory for the first time during the night, but two costly fumbles in a row, although recovered by the Mules, killed the drive on the Eagles' 20 yard line. At halftime, the score remained at 7-0.

Following an unsuccessful attempt by the Mules early in the third, the Eagles once again took over and the Mule defenses held them all but powerless so Edwin McBride attempted his second field goal of the evening. The 43 yard field goal attempt failed.

Don Wheat intercepted an Eagle pass to stop another Eagle drive on the Mules' 35 yard line although the Mules penetrated to barely inside the Eagles' fiercely defended territory. Going into the final stanza of the evening, the Mules lost the ball on downs to the Eagles after once again failing to drive deep enough into the field to reach for the score. Two quick Eagle interceptions kept the drive from continuing, although the Mules got the first interception back on a pass interference call. The Eagles retaliated immediately by intercepting another pass and killing the drive, with 2:36 on the field clock.

With a short 51 seconds on the clock, the Mules took the ball once again and tried a desperation drive to get on the scoreboard. Don Wheat intercepted an Eagle pass to stop another Eagle drive on the Mules' 35 yard line although the Mules penetrated to barely inside the Eagles' fiercely defended territory. Going into the final stanza of the evening, the Mules lost the ball on downs to the Eagles after once again failing to drive deep enough into the field to reach for the score. Two quick Eagle interceptions kept the drive from continuing, although the Mules got the first interception back on a pass interference call. The Eagles retaliated immediately by intercepting another pass and killing the drive, with 2:36 on the field clock.

Approximately four weeks ago, the eighth grade speech class in Muleshoe Junior High School, under direction of their teacher, Mrs. Eldon Davis, began formulating a special program for Veterans Day, Nov. 11.

The 25-member class obtained several choral reading script copies. After discarding one choral reading after another, the class was encouraged by Mrs. Davis to write their own patriotic scrip around the theme of "My Country."

Mrs. Davis said the scripts which had been ordered for possible use by the class were found to be unsuitable as too many of them were, if not degrading to the United States, full of faults in our country. "America means a lot to all of us," commented Mrs. Davis, "even if we don't just talk about it. We realize there are many things wrong in America today, but there are also many things right about America."

The students were asked to write a poem, paragraph or statement about what America means to them, to the individual. From the 25 articles turned in to the teacher, the class began working on a complete script for their patriotic program.

A completed script was worked out for the flawless performance presented by the class Wednesday afternoon in a Veterans Day assembly in the Muleshoe High School auditorium.

A narrator begins the program with a reading of the present-day America -- then the question is asked "But where did it all begin?"

The class told the history of the United States in a capsule form. They told of the wilderness, Indians and how the country was relatively undisturbed by the hands of man.

From the brief history, a story was told of what America has meant to each child in the group, in their own words.

"I am proud of my country because it is a free country," commented one girl, while another added, "The letters of the flag have meaning to me. F stands for freedom - the four

Drama Unfolds To Transport Injured Man

A first for this area was noted Friday afternoon following a 2 p.m. industrial accident approximately nine miles north of Muleshoe in Parmer County. Donald Wayne Priest, 28, caught his right leg in a feed grinder at the Parmer County Swine Producers Co. and a Singleton ambulance was called to transport the man to West Plains Memorial Hospital in Muleshoe.

When the man was brought in to the Muleshoe hospital, it was found that delicate and intricate surgery would be necessary on the injured leg so the Department of Public Safety helicopter crew at Lubbock was contacted to pick the man up and transport him to Lubbock.

The helicopter arrived in Muleshoe around 3:45 p.m. as doctors and nurses continued to work on the man's leg right up to the time the 'copter arrived. After a brief flight near the hospital, plans were discarded

Task Force Director Williams At Meet

Alex Williams, who is a member of the task force on Economics and Rural Development of the National Service to Regional Council of Governments, has returned from a two day meeting of the Mid-American Region in Des Moines, Iowa.

The Monday and Tuesday workshop was for the purpose of planning goals for action on a national scale for inter-governmental economics and rural development of the small communities outside of metropolitan areas.

It was to plan human development; environmental qualities; public safety; and land use for transportation development.

Workshops were held for each planning session, said Williams. He and the other 20 members of the task force on the national level said the task force for the Regional Council of Governments will deal with the questions of regional council development and programs in non-metropolitan areas and this is to be defined:

(1) What are the needs and what should be the agenda for development of the non-metropolitan areas? (2) How do non-metropolitan areas relate to metropolitan areas? (3) What should regional councils be doing in non-metropolitan areas? (4) What impact does a dispersal settlement pattern for a new town have on rural areas? and (5) What can a regional council do to strengthen local government in these areas?

During the two day discussions the mayor of Des Moines

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm thinks he detects an ominous trend in air travel this week.

Dear editor:

I've heard it said that people who don't know history are doomed to repeat it, and probably the same applies to Algebra or Chemistry or anything else a student fails in, but in the larger meaning of the saying I ran across an item in a newspaper last night that bears it out.

According to it, the airlines in the U.S. lost 58 million dollars in the first half of this year. They blame it on rising operating costs and falling numbers of passengers. Too many empty seats, they said.

Don't you see how history is repeating itself? That was exactly the same story of the passenger trains.

Some people said passenger trains disappeared because the railroads discouraged train travel by giving lousy service and thinking up ways to make it inconvenient, while the railroads said it was because they were losing money.

Now I don't know anything about air travel, but I know a few people who do and they say once you get on a plane you can get where you're going in a satisfactorily short time, if the hijackers took some other plane, but lots of time you have to sit around the airport for an hour or so before taking off, after spending an hour getting there, and sometimes you have to circle around your destination an hour or so waiting for other planes to land, and when you finally come down you have to wait a long while to get your luggage, and sometimes you don't get it at all if it went to Omaha when you were going to Cincinnati.

You can see where this is leading. Gradually the airlines will cut down on their passenger service, passengers will find the service isn't worth the trouble, and everybody will have to travel by car or stay at home.

If confined at home, with television what it is, a large segment of the population will go stark raving mad.

Clearly the airlines ought to take a refresher course in history.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Area Livestock Dealer Charged By USDA

F. Donald Crenshaw, a livestock dealer of Clovis, N. Mex., has been charged with violating financial and payment requirements under the Packers and Stockyards Act, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said today.

Mr. Crenshaw purchases livestock throughout New Mexico, western Texas, and southeastern Colorado. The administrative complaint was filed by USDA's Packers and Stockyards Administration (P&SA).

Filing of a complaint does not prove that Mr. Crenshaw has violated the P&S Act. He has a right to a hearing to determine if the evidence supports the charges.

P&SA alleges that Mr. Crenshaw: (1) Had current liabilities exceeding current assets by over $220,000, as of June 10, 1970; (2) Has current liabilities presently exceeding current assets;

(3) Issued insufficient funds checks for over $69,000 worth of livestock, in May, 1970; and (4) Failed to pay, when due, for over $64,000 worth of livestock in May, 1970; and over $63,600 of this amount presently remains unpaid.

If the charges are proven, Mr. Crenshaw would be ordered to stop such practices. His registration may also be temporarily suspended. P&SA requires that livestock dealers pay for livestock by no later than the close of business on the day following purchase, unless credit has been arranged in advance. Dealers must also maintain current assets equal to or in excess of current liabilities. These are measures of financial protection for sellers.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practices law. It promotes and maintains fair and open competition in the marketing of livestock, poultry, and meat. The record in this case is open to the public. Copies of the complaint, P&S Docket 4380, may be obtained from the Information Officer, Packers and Stockyards Administration, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250.

and ranchers, farm labor, natural resources, dairy, research and education, community services, livestock, field crops poultry and services. The annual TFB queen contest was held Monday evening.

Featured Tuesday morning were recognition and awards for counties and an address by Dolph Briscoe Jr., prominent Uvalde farmer-rancher, Banquet speaker that evening was Dr. Charles Allen, pastor, First Methodist Church, Houston.

The business session got underway Tuesday afternoon with voting on resolutions sent in by counties. The voting session continued Wednesday until all recommendations were either amended, adopted or rejected. Final order of business Wednesday was election of officers and directors.

Some of the other thoughts and ideas interwoven into the patriotic program included America means home, safety and a place to live happily and freely; America means the right to have a job and a right to vote, in many countries, you have neither; the flag is dear and it has meaning--to desecrate the flag is wrong; America is a land of liberty--fought for and paid with the lives of many brave men and the will in people to be free is what made the United States a symbol of strength and world leadership.

A narration of the 'generation gap' followed. Stressed were understanding and communication and compromise. The youths emphasized that each group (the adults and young people) say the other doesn't understand. The general consensus was "Do unto others as you would want them to do unto you."

The program stressed the belief in God and country and concluded: "I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of a government; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states. A perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. "I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies."

Students in Mrs. Davis' eighth grade speech class include: Jimmy Henderson, Carol Camp, Marcia Rudd, Maribeth Dillman, Susan Murray, Lauren Hall, April Holfield, Ruth Ramm, LaVern Carpenter, Danny Vela, Lewis Reed, and John Saylor.

She said her speech class will be working on a play to present sometime after Christmas.

LeBleu, Puckett Pledge Wedding Vows

MR. AND MRS. LOGAN PUCKETT

The First United Methodist Church of Muleshoe was the scene of the October 22 marriage of Miss Kathryn Elaine LeBleu and Logan Franklin Puckett. Rev. Clyde Gillman, Aztec, New Mexico, officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 8:00 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack LeBleu of Aztec, New Mexico, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Puckett of Muleshoe.

The church was decorated with large side bouquets of white gladioli and purple lilacs, centered with white satin bows. Candles at the side and the center-back of the church were decorated with trailing vines of ivy, purple lilacs and satin bows. A tree candelabra held 18 candles and the pews were marked with white satin markers.

"A Time for Us" and other wedding selections were played before the wedding by Miss Becky Sain of Muleshoe. "AlDeLa" was sung by Mrs. Dave McCoy, sister of the bride, and accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Gillman. "The Twelfth of Never" was sung by Lonnie Merriott, accompanied by Becky Sain. "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Winston Barnett of Aztec, New Mexico, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Gillman, as the couple knelt at the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Juliet gown with full Juliet sleeves. The empire waist, neckline and hem were edged in lace. The bridal gown was of bridal satin with Miramist over the skirt. The ten foot train was of Miramist with lace edging. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis and cascading English ivy, centered with a white orchid, tipped in purple, which the bride lifted to wear on her wedding trip.

The traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue was carried out by the bride. She carried a white Bible which was given to the groom by his grandmother. She wore a gold necklace with a diamond inset, a gift from the groom. She wore an onyx ring borrowed from Mrs. Puckett, the mother of the groom. She also wore the traditional blue garter, and a lucky sixpence was placed in her shoe by her father.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her aunt, Mrs. Lonnie Merriott, Muleshoe. She wore a dark orchid satin floor length gown in the Camelot style with full Juliet sleeves and enhanced by light and dark orchid braid on the neck and empire waist. She carried bouquets of violets and English ivy and wore a headband of orchid satin and entwined violets.

Bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Puckett, Muleshoe, sister of the groom; Miss Brenda Roberts, Earth; and Mrs. Dave McCoy, sister of the bride, Farmington, New Mexico. They wore dresses of the same design as the matron of honor's but were in light orchid satin.

Flower girls, Darla Toler, Aztec, and Jonnyne McCoy, Aztec, niece of the bride, wore full length dresses identical to the bridesmaids and carried white lace baskets of daisies and violets.

Candlelighters were Mickey Merriott, Muleshoe, cousin of the bride, and Trent Stewart, Muleshoe, cousin of the groom. Greg Parks, Muleshoe, and Daryl Toler, Aztec, were ring bearers.

The best man was Richard Echols of Lubbock. Trevor Ford, Lubbock; Johnny St. Clair, Lubbock; and Lance Puckett, Muleshoe, brother of the groom, were groomsmen. Larry Puckett, Muleshoe, brother of the groom, and Gary Merriott, Muleshoe, cousin of the bride, seated the guests.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall, Mrs. John Wilson registered the guests, Mrs. Ogle Lorraine, Muleshoe, aunt of the bride, served the white wedding cake which was topped with two white doves and tiny orchid roses. Mrs. Larry Burkhardt, cousin of the bride, served the purple punch. Mrs. Gordan Pylant assisted.

The serving table, covered in white lace over purple satin, was centered with the memory candle surrounded by the bridesmaids bouquets.

The bride chose an orchid bonded crepe princess style dress for their wedding trip to Santa Fe. The couple will live in Farmington, New Mexico.

Art Association Sees Demonstration

By Lillian Smith, Reporter
The Muleshoe Art Association met at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Community Meeting Room of the Muleshoe State Bank. Four students of Elizabeth Black gave a demonstration on the techniques of sgraffito. This is a technique of the Old Masters and is almost a lost art. It is the scratching through a dark coat of paint over a light base coat, to bring out the picture. Cynthia Wrinkle, Jimmy Evans, Rene Caldwell and Randa Sutton answered questions on this technique, while working on their pictures. Hostesses for this meeting were Velma Davis, Mildred Williams and Sybil Ericson.

Members attending were Velma Davis, Rheta White, Shirlee Richardson, Dana Arnold, Jauree Smallwood, Louise Roark, Pauline Jamison, Vicki Young, Sandy Turner, Inez F. Bobo, Sandra Chancey, Jacquetta White, Hazel Nowell, Bertha Beene, Katherine Rogers, Bernice Amerson, Myrtle Steinbock, Mrs. H.L. Blackburn and Lillian Smith. Guest were Chloe Klutts, Cynthia Wrinkle, Jimmy Evans, Rene Caldwell, and Randa Sutton.

They won the trip through the Behren Drug Company. One-hundred and eighty pharmacists and their wives from Texas left from Dallas on a special chartered plane.

Most of their time was spent in San Juan at the Hotel El San Juan. The Damrons enjoyed swimming, golfing and fishing. They took one trip to the Rain Forest which is an exotic tropical growth in the mountains 30 miles from San Juan.

Mrs. Damron reported to the Journal an exciting event that happened on the way back from San Juan. The chartered plane was piloted by Mrs. Ed Harp, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Charles King, grandmother of the bride; and the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles King of Dimmitt, formerly of Muleshoe.

Cindy King, sister of the bride, and Rhonda Mobley, cousin of the bride, registered guests.

Serving the guests melon colored punch, decorated cookies, nuts and mints were Susan Woods and Patty McNeil. The serving table was laid with a white crocheted cloth over a melon colored cloth and featured feathered flowers, a gift for the bride, as a centerpiece.

In spite of the incoherence of the bomb hoax, Mrs. Damron said they had a wonderful, well-planned trip with a nice group of people.

Tacky Party Hosted By Alpha Neeley

A tacky party was given in the home of Mrs. Alpha Neeley Wednesday afternoon, November 11. Mrs. Carrie Boydston received the most laughs for her unusual attire and everyone agreed she won the prize: "Truly, truly, think thee do; I'm the most 'tacky' in all Muleshoe!"

Pictures were taken during the party and refreshments were served by Mrs. Sarah Payne and Mrs. Ethel Julian to Mrs. Alva Shofner, Carrie Boydston, Minnie Moore, Mabel Ryan, Myrtle Chambless, Sena Buhrman, Dacia King, Lottie Buck, Rosemary Pool and the hostess.

A FOOL IS NO FUN WITHOUT FRIENDS

Dear Amy: We had a lovely pool built this summer and we hoped that our close neighbors would join us and enjoy it. Instead, they have become distant and haven't come over once.

I told my husband to invite them. He says that I should invite them. Well, neither one of us have, and they haven't come. Is it too late now?

The Sloan's: Dear Mr. and Mrs. Sloan: The neighbors probably feel you don't want their company now that they have been replaced by a pool. Hustle up that invitation. A pool is no fun without friends!

Dear Amy: I read your column constantly but I don't agree with your advice to the boy of 25 going with the girl of 16.

I have a son who was his age and married my daughter-in-law (who was 15). I did not interfere, and today they are married 27 years and I am a grandmother to four.

My daughter-in-law is a wonderful girl and she autographed a picture to me as the "best mother-in-law" a girl ever had. My son is in the army 30 years and I only see him once a year as he is always too far from home. Right now he is in Kentucky and the mother who wrote you should be glad that her son is near her instead of interfering in his life. The mother should be happy instead of "Heartstick".

Mrs. Bertha E. Curanery: Dear Mrs. Curanery: You are all fortunate that everything worked out so well, but it rarely does when a girl of 15 or 16 settles down to marriage. Very few girls, if any, are ready for marriage at such a tender age.

Dear Amy: My mother always curses, and I don't like it. She aggravates me when she does, and I can't say anything to her about it. I think it is a bad example for my brother and me. When we grow older, we may just pick it up. What can I do to stop her cursing? I'm 11 years old. Jeannie

Dear Jeannie: Your dismay at the language your mother uses is understandable. Tell her exactly what you have told me, and I should think that mother would think twice before she curses again.

If mother lacks the ability to control herself, your own strong will-power and distaste for this sort of language will prevent you from acquiring this bad habit.

Dear Amy: We are a crowd of girls from 2nd Street. Our problem is not a major one but it burns us up. There is this fellow from our neighborhood whose name is Norman. He had a reputation as a fighter and drinker. Also, there is a girl who was in our crowd who never had anything nice to say about him. In fact, she said she could never even be half interested in anyone like him. Well, she started dating this guy and completely ignored us. We all met this young man later and believe me, he is nothing like his reputation at all. About 8 months ago, this girl and guy were married.

The whole problem is that I have fallen in love with him. Even though he is married, I would still like to go out with him. I would even be content to have him one or two nights a week without his wife knowing or finding out.

I understand that they are happily married, but I don't care. I just want a chance to show him how much I love him!

In Love: Dear In Love: No decent self-respecting girl would entertain the thoughts that you do. Furthermore, when selfishness and greed were passed out, you must have stood in line twice!

Grow up and find someone else. There are enough boys around so that you don't have to interfere in a young married couple's happiness.

Cotton producer income in 1971, 1972 and 1973, as well as the ability of producers to adequately supply the markets for cotton in the U.S. and abroad, is now largely up to the Secretary of Agriculture.

This was the conclusion reached in Dallas October 28 when the Executive officers of the Texas Association of Cotton Producers (TACPO), met to discuss cotton industry prospects under the cotton program pending in the Senate. There is little doubt that the program will pass and be signed into law by the President.

TACPO has arranged a meeting with USDA officials on November 5 at which the statewide cotton producer group expects to assist the Secretary in forming "rules and regulations with regard to the new program which will work to the maximum advantage of producers and the industry for both the long and short terms," according to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Grow-regulations governing operation of the new variable maturity concept and resale policies of Commodity Credit Corporation. Johnson notes that the loan level for cotton should be no lower than is absolutely necessary to keep cotton competitive, and that data now being developed appears to "build a pretty good case" for not dropping the loan below the 20.25 cents in effect this year.

2. A definition of "person" as the word applies to the $55,000 per person payment limitation, as well as the adjustment of acreage set-aside requirements for farmers affected by the limit.

3. Set-aside requirements, including the number of acres to be laid out, the uses that will be permitted of those acres and which acres in skip-row patterns can be counted as set-aside for which crops. On this point there are strong arguments under cotton's current supply situation for a very minimal set-aside requirement and for permission to plant cotton on set-aside acreage.

4. Guidelines for use by county ASCS committees in determining whether or not cotton acreage will be permitted to move out of the county under sale and lease provisions.

5. Methods which will be used in adjusting actual yields for adverse weather conditions and other factors in the establishment of yields for payment purposes.

6. The possible need for revision of the present system of spot market price quotations in view of the added significance of these quotations under the new program.

7. Regulations pertaining to the assurance of and the "how and when" of funding for the newly provided market development fund of $10 million per year. The law says that this amount will be provided by CCC from funds saved by reason of individual payment limitations.

The idea for this latter provision originated with PCG on the Plains and was vigorously supported by the six member organizations of TACPO throughout some 18 months of legislative deliberations.

Johnson concluded by saying "There are many new features in the upcoming program with which no one has any past experience. And we are hopeful that producer groups, the industry and USDA officials can work closely together in making the program as beneficial as possible to cotton producers and to agriculture in general."

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. Alex Zotos does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Zotos and nine out of 10 professional chefs agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking. So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

CHICKEN OREGANO
Mrs. Alex Zotos, 3622 Maple, Odessa

Place in oblong pan. In butter left in pan add 1/2 cup red wine, 1/2 can tomato paste (3 oz.), 2 cups water, 1 tablespoon celery flakes, 2 cloves garlic. Bring to boil. Pour over chicken. Sprinkle about 2 1/2 teaspoons oregano over chicken. Bake covered for one hour at 350 degrees; uncover last 10 minutes for browning.

Meat and Rice Dressing
Saute 2 onions, chopped, in 1/2 stick butter; saute together until golden. Add 1 1/2 lbs. ground round and brown. Add 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon coriander, pepper to taste, 2 1/2 teaspoons salt, add 1/2 cup sliced mushrooms, 2 1/2 cups water and 1/2 cup red wine. Cook until done about 20 minutes. Patriotic Assembly Commemorated Veteran's Day, 1970

By Betty Chandler and Babs Haire
Patriotism was exhibited at Muleshoe High School when the Student Council presented a Veteran's Day Assembly, Wednesday, Nov. 11.

The assembly began with the prayer given by Vicky Julian, John Bickel and Kerry Wagon, two members of the MHS band, played a drum roll while flag bearers Larry Mitchell and David Wheat carried the flags to the stage and led the Pledge of Allegiance to the American flag and to the Texas flag. Jerry Putman introduced Beverly Evins who led the students in the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." The accompaniment was played by coronet players Debbie Schuster, Curtis Buhrman, and Vance Tucker. Master of Ceremonies Jerry Putman told the history of Veteran's Day.

Bryan Brady gave a stirring speech on Americanism which brought out the advantages of being an American. The folk singers followed with two American favorites, "Which Way America" and "Freedom Isn't Free."

Rogelio Puente, a freshman at MHS, gave an astounding speech on the points of being an American. He concluded his speech with the famous quotation of John F. Kennedy, "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." This left a thought in the minds of all attending the assembly. Joe Duke, accompanied by Becky Sain on the piano playing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic", presented the American Creed.

Master of Ceremonies Jerry Putman concluded the assembly with a short speech on honoring America, God and school. Everyone then rose and sang the school song.

Mr. Burel Block, is sponsor of the Student Council. Brent Blackman and Leroy Medlock were the stage crew. Their efforts contributed to the success of the Assembly.

Senior Ed Mason Attends Meet On Agriculture

By Babs Haire
Ed Mason, a Senior at MHS, attended a Discussion Meet sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau on Nov. 8.

The purpose of the meet was to discuss possible solutions to the problems that are facing agriculture. The ages of participants ranged from 17 to 30, and those who participated on the State level had previously won in the District competition. Ed was first runner-up in the State competition.

The winner of the State Discussion Meet goes to the National Convention in Houston in December.

Point System For Contestees Explained

This year the Student Council is sponsoring a "Spirit Contest" whose sole purpose is to promote spirit and pride withing MHS. When school ends, the class who has the largest score will be presented a plaque with the class name and the year it was awarded. This plaque will be hung in the main hall.

Judging is based upon: 1. Attendance at all school functions. 2. Hall decorations including participation of class and overall look. Points are taken off for old posters, tape and streamers left on walls, and messy work.

The executive committee of the Student Council judges the halls each Friday morning before school. Each class has a fair chance because it is judged on a percentage of students in each individual class.

Points to this date are as follows:

- First Place - Junior class - 136.6 points.
- Second Place - Freshman class - 126.6 points.
- Third Place - Senior class - 121.6 points.
- Fourth Place - Sophomore class - 115.9 points.

Clifton Meyers, Freshman Reporter
Muleshoe's Freshman football team climaxed its 1970 season with an 8 win-0 loss record Tuesday afternoon by defeating Friona 26-0. Much of the success for the season was due to the full team effort on the part of each player and the assistance of the entire Varsity coaching staff. David Wheat, right half-back, led the scoring column against Friona with a total of 14 points. Wheat racked-up 118 points for the season to lead the Freshman Mules as high point man. During the season other members of the Freshman backfield contributing points to the Freshman scoring column were Loy Dominguez, Don Long, Perry Stockard and Ronnie Parker.

The opponents of the Freshman scored only 58 points against the Mules during the season. The Mules full team effort ran a total of 198 points against their opponents for the season.

Curtis Didway, who is primarily responsible for the coaching of the Freshman, stated he felt "much of the success of the team was due to the coaching of the varsity coaches. Each coach worked with the boys on specific drills each day. Also, the boys had a strong determination to have an undefeated season which created a full team effort by each member of the team."

Debate Tourney Hosted By MHS Last Weekend

Muleshoe High School's annual debate tournament was held Saturday, Nov. 7, with nine schools participating.

Twenty-six teams were represented by the schools entered in the all day tournament. Each team debated four times throughout the day of competition.

Teams with the best won-lost records and overall speakers' points were declared the winners. Spearman High won both the girls' and boys' divisions without a loss during the day. Friona High captured the School Sweepstakes Trophy with the most wins during the day. Friona had five teams entered in the tournament and had a record of 13 wins and 7 losses.

Muleshoe High's debaters competed in the tournament but were ineligible for awards. Muleshoe High's Speech Department will begin the regular season of competition Dec. 11-12 at the Hobbs, New Mexico, tournament.

Spirit Contest Is Explained To Sophomores

The Sophomore class held their regular meeting in the cafeteria. The meeting was called to order by President David Harris. There were questions about the Spirit Contest. Student Council members Lee Ann Yerby, Judy Dodd, Betty Chandler, and Becky Sain explained the procedure of how points are obtained. This contest was organized to promote spirit in the school, and it should be understood by everyone that whether their class is in first or last place it goes to the same cause--to promote spirit. The Sophomore Class urges everyone to back the Mules and watch them defeat Canyon Friday night.

The long journey to Perryton will be the last game for Jon Cole, Jack Allison, Tommy Taylor, and Mark Dillman. Although Mark has been sidelined by an infection in his knee, he has continued to encourage his teammates. These Seniors are special in the hearts of the coaches and players of Muleshoe High. In the hours of darkness while others let the banner fall, these men dedicated themselves to improve this team, glorify the school, and to fight for the spirit of the community. Their teammates and coaches feel they were successful in each goal. Next time we hear the words, "Rise ye Men of Muleshoe High School," let us remember Jon, Jack, Tommy, and Mark.

Teachers In BAC Showboat For Decoration

By Prisca Young
 On November 9, 1970 the business men and women of Muleshoe presented a play called "Showboat". The master of ceremonies was Gil Lamb who besides introducing the actors and actresses told a few jokes. In the play were two of the distinguished people from Muleshoe Junior High School, Mr. Ethridge, and Mr. Neuen-schwander.

Highlights of the show were Rag Time Player, alias Junior High Principal, the all man chorus girl line, the quartet and the 275 pound bunny girl with the amazing talent of being able to play the organ.

During intermission paper bags of candy were sold with pieces of paper in them if you won anything. The show was closed by Jacque Baker leading everyone in singing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic". All in all it was a very enjoyable play and helped you forget your troubles for awhile.

LAZBUDDIE SCHOOLS' LONGHORN STAMPEDE
By Mike Casey

For the first time in three years the Lazbuddie Longhorns met with defeat on their home field. The Matador Matadors traveled to Lazbuddie and although the Longhorns outgained them in total yards and first downs, in the end it was the scoreboard and seven fumbles that told the story. Time after time fumbles and miscues proved fatal to Longhorn drives. After a scoreless first half the Horns finally put together a successful drive and scored on Charles Lee's one-yard plunge and two-point conversion in the third quarter. But in the fourth quarter the Matador's Bill Barnhill broke loose for a 65 yard run that carried him down to the five yard line. Two plays later he pushed it across from one yard away but the Horns still had an 8-6 lead. After receiving Matador's kickoff the Horns started to move the ball but again the fumbllits proved costly to them and Matador pounced on one. The team of Bill Barnhill and Donnie Jackson got together a 75 yard pass play that carried to the five yard line. Three plays later Bill Barnhill carried the ball in two yards himself and the two point conversion was successful making the final score 14-8 in favor of Matador.

The Ben Miller Story

Over 15 years ago, Ben Miller was hand crafting boots. He personally selected choice, butter-soft leathers. Then carefully hand molded and shaped them, setting a new standard in custom-made fit. He hand-pegged every shank for enduring wear, and lined them with cream classic for total comfort.

Ben Miller's reputation for making the finest, custom-made boots in the country grew. And so did the demand. He had to find a way of making more boots. Making more... while keeping the superior quality they were known for. And he found it.

Today, Ben Miller's boots are still hand crafted, just the way they were 15 years ago. They still have that custom-made fit. In fact, Ben Miller still personally over-see every boot that bears his name. The styles have changed. They're sleeker. They're trimmer. They're more contemporary. But the only real difference is that today, Ben Miller makes more boots. So that now, you can afford to own a pair.

New Peaches Pushes Production To The South

COLLEGE STATION--New varieties being released now and within the next five years should offer new commercial peach production opportunities in Southern States that have subtropical climates. The main feature of the varieties, says Dr. Hollis H. Bowen of Texas A&M University, is their low chilling requirement in contrast to those produced in the traditional temperature zones.

Peach varieties must be exposed to minimum accumulated temperatures below 45 degrees

Restore Grasslands To Save Wildlife?

Can increased wildlife, better hunting, and more beef result if Texas grasslands are restored to their once-lush condition?

Or does increased beef supplies and grassland improvement spell doom for Texas wildlife?

These are some of the issues discussed in a new booklet "Grassland Restoration and Its Effect on Wildlife" published by the Soil Conservation Service. "We believe grassland improvement can be done in such a way that it will benefit man, livestock and wildlife," Clyde W. Graham, State Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, said in announcing publication of the new booklet. "To achieve all these benefits, however, grassland restoration must be planned and carried out wisely."

Graham said that Texas grasslands are a great renewable resource. They not only make Texas the leading livestock state but they also provide many other valuable resources. They form the watershed for most of the water used by cities, industry, and agriculture; they also provide a home for a major part of the state's wildlife and provide much of our outdoor recreation.

"We believe that all uses of land need to be considered when grasslands are treated to restore their productivity," Graham stressed. "This must be a package job coordinating brush control, range seeding, proper grazing use, watering facilities, and other measures to the benefit of all users of this resource."

Due to pressures from grazing and misuse, Graham said our state's rich grasslands have steadily deteriorated. As the choice forage plants have been weakened and killed by overuse, they have been replaced with plants that provide less food for wildlife and livestock.

An SCS study in 1964 revealed that 82 percent of Texas grasslands had become infested with some kind of woody plant. About 50 percent were found to be so densely infested that most moisture entering the soil was consumed by brush.

An analysis in 1967 indicated that 138 million acre-feet of water per year - 38 percent of the state's average annual rainfall was being wasted by non-economic plants such as weeds and brush. In spite of concerted efforts by livestock men, woody plants continue to spread, robbing the state's already scarce water resources. The resulting damage to grassland is a major threat to the livestock industry and to the food budget of Texas housewives, Graham pointed out.

Yet, some wildlife enthusiasts fear that any attempt to restore grasslands will destroy much of our state's wildlife resources. Of special concern are song birds, game animals such as deer, and certain game birds including turkey, quail and dove.

"If our state is to continue to produce vast amounts of beef, mutton, wool and mohair, this damaging spread of water-using brush needs to be slowed or stopped," Graham said. "But can this rapid invasion of unwanted woody plants be reduced without sacrificing wildlife? We think it can - and this new booklet tells how."

It explains how brush can be controlled in strips or blocks, leaving escape cover and travel lanes for wildlife. Examples of how SCS range conservationists and biologists have helped soil and water conservation district cooperators plan grassland restoration work while benefitting the rare golden-cheeked warbler, deer, turkey, and other species of wildlife are given. It also tells how woody plants can be manipulated to produce more available browse and to aid wildlife harvest, an often overlooked factor in game management.

The booklet discloses how grassland restoration, done with proper considerations for wildlife, can actually result in more food for deer and other wildlife as well as for livestock. It points out that improved, highly productive grasslands offer a stable wildlife food supply while depleted, brush-ridden grasslands cause severe wildlife die-offs during extreme climatic conditions.

"In fact, one of the worst enemies of wildlife is the person who insists that vast amounts of brush be let on depleted grasslands," Graham emphasized. "Instead of helping wildlife, this person is sentencing game to a tortuous death by starvation during adverse conditions."

Vernon Hicks, state biologist for the Soil Conservation Service, and Howard Passey, former state resource conservationist for SCS, co-authored the new publication. The Wildlife Science and the Range Science Departments of Texas A&M University as well as the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department assisted in its technical review.

The series of Grassland Restoration booklets started in 1964. Part I described the critical problem of brush invasion on grassland; Part II dealt with methods of control; Part III was devoted to procedures for revegetating depleted land; Part IV outlined grazing management needed on grassland; and Part V pointed out the vast water loss from uneconomic plants and suggested ways for reclaiming much of the loss.

Single copies of Part VI, "Grassland Restoration and Its Effect on Wildlife," are available free from local SCS offices.

Mrs. Richard Engelking

Marty Moseley celebrated his birthday Tuesday in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. With the nurses bringing in a special cake and treating him royally but imagine Marty would just as soon receive another pain pill as he underwent painful knee surgery that morning as the result of an injury in 'that' ball game last Friday night.

Marty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Moseley and a fine senior lineman on the Longhorns football team. Marty will probably be dismissed from the hospital over this weekend.

Aunt Carrie Withrow is also a patient in Lubbock's Methodist, as she received a bad fall at her home recently and underwent surgery on her hip last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Matthews returned to their home, here, this week after a two months stay, fishing at Lake Buchanan.

Both A and B Girls Basketball teams have scrimmaged twice with Dimmitt in the last two weeks of course our girls were out-classed but showed much improvement in the second game over what looks to me like, could be a team that could win big honors for Dimmitt. Coach Tally Kelso is the new coach of our girls basketball team this year.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mabrey have been presented with their ninth grandchild with the addition of Paul Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Mabrey of Hub, born November 11 in Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Rector Rowe of Waldo, Arkansas who will be arriving soon to help Betty with the new baby, and his two older brothers.

SHOWBOAT QUARTET AND PIANO PLAYER--This quartet added much to the annual BAC production last week, then the group presented a couple of numbers in the show. From left are Rand Baker, Jack Young, Jacque Baker and Jerry Neuschwander. The pianist is Wayland Ethridge.

Friday morn was a good day for the kiddoes not to have to greet the school bus in a cold north wind and snow. But made it bad for the teachers to drive to Amarillo for their teachers meeting.

BLACK ON BUSING
Washington--Justice Hugo L. Black, long a foe of racial discrimination, recently denounced those who would "try to change the lives of the people around the country" by busing children far from their neighborhoods to attain school integration. The 84-year-old Alabamian said he approves of the tradition of the neighborhood schools.

We never harbor ill feelings against individuals who disagree with our views, although we often regret that so many people can be wrong.

Russian Trucks

The French announced in Paris recently that Renault, the state-owned automobile and truck manufacturing company, would play a major role in the construction of a huge vehicle plant in Russia. The other company which will cooperate in building the plant is expected to be Mercedes-Benz.

Cost of the plant is estimated at a billion dollars. The French and German governments are expected to grant the Soviets credits at low interest rates to finance construction. When completed, the plant will turn out 150,000 vehicles a year.

The announcement is of interest to Americans. It was the Ford Motor Co. which was first approached by Moscow and Ford showed an interest. Reportedly, Washington frowned on the idea. And Ford pulled out. If the Russians are to bury us at some future time (which one doubts) they won't ride to the burial ground in Fords.
