National Heart Week Observance To Be Feb. 14-21

Austin, Texas—Throughout the United States the week of February 14-21, will be observed as National Heart Week, and Dr. W. C. Cox, State Health Officer, has announced that the State Health Department will cooperate to the fullest extent in stressing to the public the necessity for information and intelligent action in attempting to control the nation's major killer, heart disease.

From a national level, heart disease is the leading cause of death and yearly takes a greater number of lives than the next two leading causes of death combined. One out of every three deaths in the United States is due to diseases of the heart and blood vessels, and it is estimated that out of every twenty persons, one dies from some form of heart disease.

A great amount of research in the causes and treatment of the disease has established the fact that some of them can be prevented or delayed by certain drugs, surgery, and it has been found beyond doubt that the heart is that organ which places itself early under competent medical care, offers the best chance of survival. In many instances the heart can, under competent care, live an almost normal life, with certain restrictions as to activities and indulgences which do not adversely affect his condition.

Consult your doctor for a physical check-up at least once a year. Dr. Cox advises, "If heart disease occurs, he will have an opportunity to find it, and begin treatment in the early stages, thus assuring you a better chance to finish a normal, comfortable life span."

Red Cross Home Service Chairman Active in County

He has given aid to servicemen and their families, to veterans and their families and has served in many local cases. His work is continuous, he having calls for aid in every month of the year.

A veteran who is hunting work, a serviceman who needs advice, communications, hospitalizations, hunts the Home Service Chairman and if his case seems to warrant help, he is given that help, whatever it may be. His case is at least given attention. These are just a few of the duties of the Home Service Chairman of the American Red Cross. Books are kept on these cases and therefore the duties require careful attention and much time.

Other officials of the Crowell Chapter of the American Red Cross are Hubert Brown, county chairman; Alton Bell, fund drive chairman; Miss Margaret Curtis, secretary and treasurer; George D. Self, disaster chairman and Mrs. T. B. Klepper, publicity chairman.

Crowell Hi Cagers Defeat Chillicothe Here, 32 to 24

The Crowell High School basketball team broke even in conference games the past week. The Wildcats had very little trouble defeating Chillicothe 32 to 24 here last Friday night. The entire Crowell squad looked good in this game. In fact, the reserves were used a large portion of the last half and played on even terms with the Eagles while they were in the game.

The Wildcats lost a heart breaker at Archer City on Tuesday night. The regulation game ended in a tie and the Archer City boys were ahead 43 to 41 after the extra period was played off. The Wildcats had a four-point lead shortly before half-time but the reserves went in and let the Archer City boys climb within one point of them. The regulars took over again in the third quarter and built up a seven point lead by the end of the third quarter. The Archer City Wildcats "got hot" and went into a one-point lead six seconds before the regulation time was over. J. P. Bartley received two free shots at this point and made his first one to tie the game and he elected to take the ball in from the sideline instead of trying for the second gratis shot. The extra period was very exciting and rough with four Archer City boys and one Crowell player fouling out of the game. Archer City finished the last few seconds of the game with only three players on the court.

The Crowell volleyball girls lost games to both Chillicothe and Archer City. They came near winning the Chillicothe game by taking one set and playing a 12 to 15 score on the other.

The Crowell teams travel to Burk Burnett Friday night and to Iowa Park on Monday night of next week to make up games missed during the bad weather.

Annual Chamber of Commerce Meeting Set for Feb. 22nd

The annual Foard County Chamber of Commerce program and meeting will take place on Tuesday, Feb. 22, at 7:30 p. m. in the High School auditorium.

The program committee has arranged an outstanding program for the evening, one that will compare favorably with any chamber of commerce event in this section of West Texas. Walter Cline of Wichita Falls will be guest speaker; Ralph DeShong, noted magician, will entertain the crowd and the Barbershop Quartet from Wichita Falls, noted barbershoppers, will harmonize their musical voices to round off a great program of remarkable talent.

Walter Cline is a noted speaker and his activities and interests have been so broad that he is well known all over the state. He has set a splendid example of community service and has been an inspiration to those who assume civic responsibilities. Walter Cline's genius and personality will have much to do with the enjoyment of the program and its success.

The barbershop quartet call themselves the Pipeliners. Personally, they are Otto Kitterman, tenor; Max Kreutz, lead; Harry Gutzman, baritone; and Walter Bernard, bass.

Recently they represented Wichita Falls in Oklahoma City in a huge parade of barbershoppers. The array of quartets included some of the finest of the nation, and they were performing in fast company. However, they were awarded first prize at this meeting.

Ralph DeShong is not new to Crowell, having appeared at the Premier Hotel some years ago. He is known as one of the outstanding magicians in the country. Tickets for the program may be obtained at either Ferguson Drug or Shirley-Youree Drug.

Mrs. Boman has overseen the planting of the shrubs this week.

This is a monument coming from the American soil which was defended by those who died for it. The names of all the war dead will be placed in this plot of ground near the new plants. Later it is hoped that a plaque carrying the names of all the Foard County men who lost their lives in the service may be erected nearby.

VETERANS'

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Who chooses the institution or establishment in which a veteran trains?

A. For vocational rehabilitation training under Public Law 16, VA selects the facility with concurrence of the trainee. Under Public Law 346 (GI Bill), the veteran chooses the training institution, but may have the guidance of VA if he desires it.

Q. Will Veterans Administration accept collect telephone calls from physicians who wish to ascertain whether they will be paid for emergency treatments given veterans?

A. Yes.

Q. Does my converted National Service Life Insurance have a cash surrender value?

A. Yes. All converted policies have cash surrender values, paid-up insurance and automatic extended term insurance values, together with policy loan provisions, effective after the policy has been in force one full year.

Q. Is VA pension, compensation, or retirement pay reduced during hospitalization for veterans who have dependents?

A. It is not, provided the necessary proof of relationship has been established. Veterans should make certain that such proof is established promptly. Any additional allowance or increased compensation for aid and attendance, however, will be discontinued upon hospitalization.

Veterans News

The next few years will see an increased demand for college graduates in the fields of medicine, psychology, kindergarten and elementary school teaching and certain phases of electricity.

At the same time, competition will grow keener for positions in the fields of engineering, chemistry, pharmacy, law and personal relations.

These conclusions were contained in a study prepared for the Veterans Administration by the Occupational Outlook Service, Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor.

The study is being used by VA advisement and guidance officers as an aid in counseling disabled veterans planning to take educational and training courses.

Veterans enrolled under the GI Bill in on-the-job training courses or in schools below the college level who desire leave of absence, should apply for it at their training establishment or school, and not at the Veterans Administration.

In the past, these veterans were required to make application at the appropriate VA regional office. Now, they must obtain approval from their employer-trainer or school official before going to leave.

Advance leave is provided only in cases of emergency.

Leave is accrued at the rate of two and one-half days a month throughout training — including that time during which the veteran is on approved leave.

However, it may be accrued beyond 30 days. Veterans training under Public Law 16 (GI Bill) must continue to leave at VA.

They said,
"Rich man's toy!"

THAT'S what "wise guys" of the 1880's called the newfangled electric service. And that's all it might be today... IF...

IF people hadn't risked their savings to start electric companies such as yours, and to keep them growing.

IF others, often against expert advice, hadn't poured out their energy and time—to extend the wires farther and farther, make the service better and better, bring rates lower and lower.

They took the risks—they developed the skills—and everybody benefits. That's the way the American business system works. Rich man's toy? Today, electric service is every man's good right arm!

West Texas Utilities Company

THOMAS A. EDISON, father of the Electric Age, was born February 11, 1847, and died October 18, 1931.

There is no monument above his grave. It is unmarked to this day. Somehow that seems quite fitting—because, after all, the real monuments to Edison's greatness are found all around us.

We at the West Texas Utilities Company pay special tribute to his memory, for Edison founded the first business-managed electric service company 67 years ago.

ENGINEERED TO MAKE SOIL PAY!

THE JOEFFROY CHISEL PLOW is engineered for two specific jobs: to lighten the work of farming, and to increase the profits of farming.

THE JOEFFROY CHISEL PLOW is ruggedly constructed with 4" heavy duty H-beam frame, electrically welded; special alloy spring shanks attached to the frame with heavy braced clamps; lever-control for uniform plowing depths; rubber mounted wheels turning on Timken bearings.

THE JOEFFROY CHISEL PLOW is engineered for rugged service so that the farmer can work his land deep and break up the plow-sole to allow moisture to go into the sub-soil for storage. Plowing with a Jeoffroy conserves moisture, prevents run-off, stops erosion by wind, and helps Nature refertilize the field by breaking up weeds and trash and leaving them on top of the soil to rot.

THE JOEFFROY CHISEL PLOW is the basic plow for any crop or soil.

Age is not a matter of years. It is a matter of view point and attitude. Old age is upon us not when the hair turns white or the step becomes faltering but when we cease to have plans for the future. When we see nothing ahead, we begin to live only in the present. The next step is when we begin to live in the past and are not interested in the present or the future. As long as one looks ahead and has active plans and ambitions for the future, he is young in spirit, and a youthful spirit will keep a body youthful for many years.

According to news reports the little remodeling job on the White House will cost over four million dollars.

The government support plan for potatoes cost $200,000,000 in 1948. Instead of the loss being paid by the potato growers it was paid by everyone. This is the case with all support prices guaranteed by the government. The purpose of the support price plan is to insure to the grower in business and to the consumer a constant and an ample supply. The theory is that it is better for consumers to pay a little more and to be assured of an ample supply and a uniform price than it is to buy at a lower price one year and a higher price the next year because of a scarcity and lack of supply.

IN THE NEWS 30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of Feb. 7, 1919:

Whatever may be said by some relative to a county agent, the facts in the case bear out the advisability of having an agent for his county. The work which our agent, who resigned, did for Foard County during the last year, shows its value to the county.

Considering the unusually hard drouth this country has gone through about 86 per cent of the taxes were paid before Feb. 1, according to the collector's books.

Within the last two weeks, small-pox has become scattered until there are a good many cases over the county.

Mrs. B. W. Crowell left Sunday for Burk Burnett to visit her parents.

Miss Jimmie Hunter spent Saturday and Sunday in Chillicothe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Self and Mrs. Furd Halsell were in Vernon yesterday.

Miss Dot Thompson was here Sunday from Vernon visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. J. B. Andrews was here this week from Vernon visiting L. G. Andrews and family.

Roy Ayers was here Monday from Burk Burnett where he is employed.

Boss Kenner was here this week from Ryan, Okla., and we believe he is figuring in moving back to Foard County.

Mr. Demo, foreman at the copper mines, and wife left last Saturday for South Carolina, where he has accepted a position.

George Self came in Wednesday from the Naval Training Station at San Pedro, Calif., having been released from the service.

Mrs. Percy Ferguson came in Wednesday from Alpine to visit relatives.

Mrs. Will Tysinger went to Chillicothe Saturday to meet her husband who was returning from Camp Travis with a discharge.

Robert S. Calvert Appointed State Comptroller

Austin, Texas.—Robert S. Calvert, recently appointed by Governor Beauford H. Jester to fill out the unexpired term of the late George H. Sheppard as State Comptroller, has just about the most important job in Texas' state government.

As State Comptroller, it is Calvert's duty to supervise the collection of several hundred million dollars per year in taxes. He acts as the state's bookkeeper, and writes several million state checks every year in paying the debts of the state which amount to over four hundred million dollars per year.

Calvert knows his job—having been in the Comptroller's office for eighteen years as financial statistician from 1940 to 1944 and chief clerk until his elevation to his present position.

Governor Jester paid tribute to both George H. Sheppard and Calvert when he issued the following statement when he announced the appointment:

"I feel I can pay no higher tribute to the late beloved George H. Sheppard than to name as his successor his long-time friend, trusted assistant and highly capable chief clerk, Bob Calvert.

"The office of Comptroller is one of the most important in our State government. Here we must have a man of absolute integrity who will conduct this office as a business office, which it is, rather than a political office, which it is not. There are many fine men in this State who could meet this exacting standard, but Mr. Calvert brings the added and valuable asset of experience in conducting the affairs of the Comptroller's office as the righthand man of the lamented and respected public servant, Mr. Sheppard.

"I know that in selecting Bob Calvert I am acting as Mr. Sheppard would have me act and in the manner that is best for the office and for the people of Texas. Mr. Calvert's own distinguished record of faithful public service bears out this judgment."

Robert S. Calvert was born in McLennan County April 27, 1892. He was educated in the public schools of Brownwood and Howard Payne College.

From 1911 until 1930, he lived at Sweetwater where he was employed by a railroad, a utility and the First National Bank.

In World War I, Calvert served in France and Germany with the Photo-Reconnaissance Air Service.

HOW TO LICK FIRE

It is universally hoped that this year will witness real progress in the battle to reduce fire waste. The professionals—the people and the organizations whose job is to blueprint the mechanics of fire prevention—are better organized than ever before. Under the aegis of the President of the United States, state committees have been established to deal with fire problems locally. And every effort has been made to enlist the active support of the public in this great endeavor.

One very necessary step is for American communities, down to the smallest, to accept the responsibilities which are properly theirs. A very large proportion of our building codes, for instance, are hopelessly obsolete. In many other cases, good codes are meaningless because of lack of enforcement.

If You Are An Average American

Your automobile is your second largest investment, and when you protect it, you also protect your largest investment, your home.

For if your automobile is uninsured or underinsured it may become necessary for you to place a mortgage on your home in order to pay a liability judgment.

Don't gamble on these unpleasant probabilities when adequate protection costs so little.

Hughston Insurance Agency

During the war and for a time thereafter, material and labor shortages made it difficult and in some cases impossible to maintain high standards in this field. That situation no longer exists, and safe construction—along with the elimination of existing fire traps—is now possible and essential.

It is undoubtedly true that many fire departments are in need of overhauling—both as to personnel and equipment. Money spent for this purpose is the best possible community investment. When a town is too small to operate a department of its own, it can often secure centrally located facilities.

The way to lick fire is to build up strong physical defenses against it—and then carry the gospel of fire prevention into every and place of business. Let's accomplish the year in which it is accomplished. — Industrial Review.

WTCC Fight for West Texas Water Taken to Austin This Week

Abilene, Feb. 5.—Fight for West Texas water will be taken to Austin Monday, it has been announced by John D. Mitchell, Odessa, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which this week blasted 17 amendments to the new water code proposed by the Texas Water Conservation Association.

Representatives of the organization will spend most of next week in Austin, as well as making negotiations on this issue, but they will make on the passage of the new code, unless amendments are accepted which will guarantee recovery and prior water rights for domestic purposes in the West Texas area.

In a statement issued by WTCC Manager D. A. Bandeen and members of the legal counsel of the Municipal Rights committee an analysis of the proposed surface water code is offered, in which it is pointed out contradictory features of the bill, as well as making nugatory present prior rights of municipalities. The statement, made to Mitchell and Mayor Lawrence Hays of Amarillo, chairman of the WTCC Municipal Legal Water Rights Committee, took up the proposed code section by section and listed the 17 objectional points and offered criticisms and an amendment to replace them.

Previously the group had only attacked Sec. 13, J. S. Sturrock, general manager of the TWCA had indicated a willingness to operate on this issue, but when the WTCC committee studied the measure fully, the additional objections were raised.

In doing this the group urged the adoption of an engineering formula.

"When we find our Texas cities ranging in water appropriations from one-eighth acre foot per capita to approximately 10 acre feet per capita, a procedure enabling this sort of inequality is against the public welfare, and it is time for Texas to arrive at and formulate an equitable formula for distribution and appropriations of its waters," the statement said. "The available runoff of water in any region or locality is a determinable factor. The present and potential need of any city or project is likewise a determinable factor. In giving away the rights to property of the state, namely water, why not therefore allot water in accordance with its available supply and with the present and potential needs? In this way, it is felt that a better distribution of our scarce water resources can be made to all communities and projects in Texas."

At the same time the WTCC has written into its amendments all the protective provisions under former laws, including Art. 7472 by direct reference. This gives priority to municipal usage, rather than to time of appropriation.

Section 4, as proposed by TWCA says "Priority of an appropriate right, which relates to the time at which the right accrues, is the superiority of the right over all appropriate rights later in time that attach to the same source of water available is not sufficient to satisfy all rights."

Said the WTCC: "This provision apparently makes time the only basis of priority when it says that a 'priority of an appropriate right is the superiority of the right of all appropriate rights later in time.' A 1941 permit for hydroelectric power would therefore have superiority over a domestic water use. This would annul, and is contrary to, past priority laws. It forever gives priority to all previous appropriations of water for hydroelectric power and all inferior uses."

In a further discussion of Sec. 13, which provides a natural channel may be utilized, in the exercise of water rights, the committee interprets this as practically prohibiting the use of surface waters in the upper reaches of West Texas streams "and to forever impound it on the eastern and southern extremities of our West Texas territory beyond the use of our West Texas cities."

"A logical interpretation of this means that any dam on a lower stream can prevent the building of a dam on the upper stream. This perhaps might not have been the intention of this provision, as its intention seemingly is to designate the channel as a conveyor of water, and our suggested amendment preserves the channel as a conveyor of water and removes the threat existing wherein the lower stream dams can prevent the building of upper stream dams.

"It is strange that in Sec. 43 we find expressed even more forcibly and directly the same threat to our upper stream water as exists in Sec. 13. This provision in Sec. 43, in effect, says that before any person, in the upper stream having a permit for water, starts the construction of a dam, he must give the dam on the lower reaches of the stream, to impound without a permit, enough water to fill such dam to capacity. Here we have on the eastern and southern extremities of our West Texas territory, big dams impounding from 9 to 12 times as much water for hydro electric power as for domestic use, and here the domestic user, with the first priority, is subjected wholly to the hydroelectric user with the fifth priority." WTCC would amend this provision by striking it out.

THE WILDCAT

It seems as though ex-senior Carol Cato was the reason. Missed around CHS since Xmas is Fred Glover who joined the Air Corps.

Who wonder who Jack Murphy has his eyes fastened on? It could be Helen Reithmayer.

Patsy Carroll and John Diggs are seen together lately. Has anybody else noticed how Essie Franklin watches Clinton Marlow?

It seems as though Barbara White and Arthur Lee Marlow have a case of love blooming! My, how these Marlow boys do get around!

We Wonder—If Frankie, Walter, Rondyn and Vernon had a good time in Vernon Sunday night.

Who Neva Lou makes eyes at so much. It could be James McBeath from Thalia; A hint to the wise is sufficient, James!

If this really is something between Wayne Shultz and Wanza Spears?

If Billy Joe and LaVerne will ever break up! LaVerne, have a heart!

How Mary Ruth likes riding in a new Jeep pickup? Well, I don't mind.

How full a car can get? Sunday afternoon, twelve were seen in Bobby Jack's car and with the top down, too, Errr!

If Tommie and Butch enjoyed their game of cards Saturday night? No doubt, they did!

If Annie Jo has made up her mind between a blue Chevrolet from Paducah, or a maroon Plymouth from Crowell.

If Pat, Peggy, Betty Lou, Mary and a whole gang of girls will take any more pictures on Saturday afternoon? Especially, if they get stuck!

If Maggie Faye is through with boys? Or is she still waiting on a certain sailor?

It's a pity Pat and Betty Lou weren't at home Saturday night. Mike Hudgones and a cute soldier from Keesler Field, Miss., came after them. Bong!

Speaking of soldiers, Carlos McBeath was home over the weekend, and he had an awful time finding Peggy. After so long, he found her (with the help of the town).

Edna Jewel was as happy as ever when R. C. knocked on her door.

Mary Louise and J. C. were seen Sunday afternoon at the cinema. What's this between Noma Kelly and J. P. Bartley.

Don't you agree that Rusty and Joyce Dean would make a cute couple?

Fay Jones is still true to her OAO—Billy Earl Lynch. Seen Sunday were Betty Barker and Bob Edwards.

Couple of the week—Mary Jones and Jesse Whitfield.

If you have something you just can't keep, jot it down and drop it in Locker 29.

THE CAT'S TAIL

SIDE SPLITTERS Mary Ruth: "Isn't Roger a bad dog, Mummy? He ate my dolly's slipper."

Mother: "Yes, darling, he ought to be punished!"

Mary Ruth: "I did punish him. I went straight to the kennel and I drank his milk."

Judge: "Why did you strike your wife?"

Defendant: "Well, she had her back to me, the broom was handy, and the back door was open, so I took the chance."

HISTORY

The Alamo Day, March 6—This anniversary is observed by the state of Texas only. It marks one of the historical highlights in the state's colorful history. The Alamo was a Franciscan Mission built in 1722. It later came to be used as a fort in the early and troublesome days of Texas. It consisted of a church, and enclosed convent

If Prosper Merimee were alive today, he would probably be a high-priced Hollywood writer; for the story of "Carmen," which he authored, is natural material for the screen. Columbia Pictures is the latest of the Coast studios to use it as the basis for a movie and it calls its film "The Loves of Carmen," a Technicolor drama starring Rita Hayworth and Glenn Ford, and will be on the Rialto screen February 13.

Principal supporting players include Ron Randell, Victor Jory, Luther Adler, Arnold Moss, Joseph Buloff and Margaret Wycherly.

yard about 100 feet square, a convent and hospital building and a plaza of two and one-half acres surrounded by a wall eight feet high and thirty-three inches thick. During the war of the Texans for independence in 1836, it was garrisoned by a company of 180 men under Davy Crockett. On March 6, Santa Anna, the Mexican general assaulted the Alamo. They were driven back twice by the battling Texans with heavy losses. On the third assault they captured the fort in bitter hand to hand fighting. But five of the 180 defenders were left alive. These Santa Anna ordered shot. The ruthless brutality of Santa Anna fired the Texans who rallied under the battle cry, "Remember the Alamo." They met Santa Anna and his army at San Jacinto, routed his army and captured

Santa Anna. He was forced to agree to use his influence to bring about a recognition of the territory of Texas east of the Rio Grande. The Alamo was in ruins for many years but in 1910 City of San Antonio restored it to its original condition and served it as a historical and patriotic shrine.
