China White Paper

Washington, D. C., August 6. The biggest sensation this week was occasioned by the release of the so-called China White Paper. This is a one thousand page book, published by the State Department, seeking to explain our policy in China. This White Paper is the subject of bitter debate here and abroad for years. In money and military aid we have spent several billions of dollars trying to hold democratic forces in China, trying to save them from Communist domination. An editor in the Scripps-Howard news service blames General George C. Marshall for the Chinese debacle. Editorial claims that the Nationalist Government, under Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, is a puppet government of the United States. The Communist forces of China were winning the civil war until General Marshall's trip over there. He stopped sending them enormous quantities of military aid. It was General Marshall who came back and reported that our aid was being dissipated. Much of our military equipment was being delivered to and used by the Communies, and that the Nationalist Government was corrupt. Our State Department, headed by Mr. Dean Acheson, now contends that to let the Chinese Communist war against the Ching Commies would cost more than a billion dollars and require the loss of American military personnel, and might even then be successful. In other words, the Nationalist position of our government is that the gamble is not worth taking. We have concluded that we have no real alternative but to let China stew in its own juice, so to speak. Admittedly the Chinese must suffer individually and collectively from lack of ideals and integrity. The wages of sin is death.

Segregation in Armed Forces

Spies, duplicity, and a lack of honesty can and will destroy people, however rich or powerful they may be. Our own hands are not entirely clean, and we had take warning.

Within the next few weeks the racial demagogues of our country will again undertake to pass such as the Congress the so-called Employment Practices Commission, the FEPC. A bill by New York's Negro Congressman, Adam Powell, is now ready for high ranking through the Congress. Administration has already sent through executive order to the FEPC upon the armed forces. Segregation in the armed forces has been eliminated by order of the President. This is doing great harm to the morale of the Armed Forces and their effective administration. Recently the Department of Interior sought to abolish segregation in some of the swimming pools of Washington. Riots and trouble ensued, and such swimming pools have now been closed. A brand of mine from Birmingham, Alabama, reports that an anti-segregation dance in that city recently attended by two Negro couples. The Negro couples had a right to go under the President's order. The several hundred couples immediately abandoned the hall, and the orchestra compelled to play all evening long. Two Negro couples, just last week at a Naval Officers dinner here in Washington a Negro Naval Officer came to the dance with a white girl. They were given wide berth at this affair and almost broke up the affair.

Debate on Aid to Europe

The proposal to spend a billion dollars furnishing arms and military equipment to European nations is engendering bitter debate. Opponents contend with logic that when we signed the North Atlantic Pact we undertook the security of European countries outside the iron curtain through the Marshall Plan have been rebuilding their lives. Opponents then point out that this equipment would be used and worn out in the event of war, and that it is unnecessary for the training of European soldiers. They further point out that such equipment would fall into the hands of the Communies in Europe, as it did in China.

He and Assistant Coach Gordon Erwin have been busy this week checking equipment and making other arrangements preparatory to the football training.

He graduated from North Texas State College at Denton at the end of the first term of summer school.

Wheat Premiums to Be Offered

Flour mills desiring to pay the wheat grower for his greater percentages of strong gluten wheat and to stimulate continued improvement are announcing a schedule of premiums for wheat of the best milling and baking varieties. Each mill will make its own schedule public, but there is sufficient similarity to make possible a general announcement of the premiums, according to K. E. Soder, Director of the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Program.

Central Oklahoma mills are taking the lead on this premium basis and include the Okeene Milling Company at Okeene, the Canadian Mill & Elevator Company at El Reno, and the Aeme Flour Mill at Oklahoma City. Other mills are considering this basis and will possibly make an announcement later. The wheat will be bought on the basis of samples submitted in advance which will be analyzed by a disinterested variety expert and must be 95 per cent or better true to variety. The only varieties covered in this schedule include Momanche, Westar, Tenmarq, and Turkey because they are the strongest gluten of the recommended varieties. The samples must test 12 per cent protein or better and delivery must be on a specified date so that the premium wheat may be kept separate from the other wheat in the mill. The premium will be 5 cents per bushel to start with and will be paid from August 1, 1949, to April 30, 1950.

These same mills advise that they will not knowingly accept wheat that tests over 10 per cent Red Chief or Chiefkan.

In Texas the only premiums currently being offered are being paid by the Morrison Milling Co. at Denton, Texas. These Morrison premiums are 1 cent per bushel from 80 to 89 per cent good varieties, 2 cents from 90 to 99 per cent desirable varieties, and 3 cents for 100 per cent pure wheat of the recommended varieties. There are no qualifications on the protein or time of delivery at Denton. The Universal Flour Mills at Fort Worth and the Arrow Mills at Houston have advised Mr. Soder that they are not accepting any wheat containing over 10 per cent undesirable varieties. It is understood that the various units of the Texas-Oklahoma Flour Mills and the Burrus Elevators are operating on the same basis. The management of the Harvest Queen Mill at Plainview, Texas, have advised that during harvest, 1950, they will not accept Red Chief or Chiefkan wheat at any price.

The acreage of undesirable varieties in Oklahoma and Texas has now decreased to a point where Mr. Soder is advising the flour mills that they can buy plenty of wheat for milling purposes without taking into their plant a single grain of these undesirable varieties. The government loan and government purchases for overseas shipment have disrupted the wheat marketing picture to the point where the true value of the varieties is not reflected in the local market prices. This announcement of premiums for suitable farm stored wheat is expected to repay farmers for their added efforts and to encourage further improvement. Farmers desiring to collect these premiums should submit samples through their local elevators or mills to determine their wheat premiums they can secure, concludes Mr. Soder.

Telephone Co. Interested in Improving Service

William H. Thompson, a representative of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co. in Dallas, visited Mayor Hubert Brown and the chamber of commerce office this week and assured them that steps are being taken to improve the service in Crowell and in the Thalia community.

The telephone company representative is of the opinion that a dial exchange can be established at Thalia. He was surprised to learn that the chamber office had one hundred names on the Thalia subscription list.

This action on the part of the telephone company is the result of a personal visit made to Roy A. Aury, president of the company, by Mayor Brown and Alton Bell, president of the local chamber of commerce.

Mr. Thompson urgently requests that in the future telephone users should give the operator the telephone number when calling and not ask for such-and-such a place by name. He stated that this will speed up the service and help efficiency.

There were 13 men at the Last Supper.

MAN BEARS CHRIST'S BURDEN . . . British railway porters bring ashore at Dover, England a 10-foot wooden cross built by Jerusalem monks. ## Election Held Saturday for Assumption of Outstanding Bonds by the Crowell Independent School District Carries

The Crowell Independent School District, which comprised ten separate districts before the Gilmer-Aiken school law required the County School Board to consolidate them together, voted 42 to 3, and 42 to 2, respectively, last Saturday in the election held in the Court House, for the assumption of outstanding bonds by the new district and for setting up a uniform maintenance tax rate of $1.25 on the $100.00 valuation.

According to Superintendent of Crowell Schools, Grady Graves, this consolidation will enable the Crowell School Board to make a long-time program, especially on the transportation plans and employing of teachers. He also states that Crowell will be eligible for five more teachers this year with no additional cost to the local district.

The new school term will open on the first Monday in September and the entire faculty with assignment of duties will appear in next week's issue of the Foard County News.

Street Paving Now Available to Crowell Residents

A paving project is on in Crowell and anyone interested in having his street paved at a very reasonable price should get in touch immediately with the city manager or the chamber of commerce manager.

PERSONS WITH CLOTHING AFIRE

When a person's clothing catches fire, the first consideration is that the flame or hot gases should not be inhaled. If your clothing is on fire do not run, as running fans the flames and makes conditions worse. Smother the flames by wrapping yourself in a rug, blanket, portiere, or woolen coat and roll on the floor. While rolling on the floor call for help. If the article of clothing which is on fire can be easily stripped off, this should, of course, be done. If a shower bath or pail of water is handy, use it and then roll in the spilled water.

A mole must consume his own weight in bugs, worms and insects each day. If it doesn't it dies of starvation. It must dig constantly to live.

Veterans' Housing at University of Texas Easier Now

Austin, Texas, Aug. 6.—Housing for the married veteran at the University of Texas is a little easier to obtain now, but there is still a 10-month waiting period.

Veterans Housing Director F. C. McConnell who oversees University-sponsored low-cost housing says the waiting period for housing has been cut from 18 months to 10 months in the past year.

He hopes the period will be reduced to zero by June, 1950, and the enrolling veteran can be furnished housing immediately upon application for it.

The New York City Fire Department has 10,000 members. It is the world's biggest and best equipped fire department.

The mole, contrary to the common belief, does not eat roots or fruits or potatoes. His diet is exclusively bugs and worms. He is extremely beneficial as an aerator of the soil and a destroyer of cut worms, beetles and other pests.

A single cigarette caused a fire in New York City which raged for 76 hours and caused damage of $5,000,000.

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

The Key of Faith—Last week I spoke in the Two Minute Sermon of the key of faith that opens up the mind of the individual, causes him to forget his inhibitions and his limitations and to venture out into fields of accomplishments that he has not hitherto dreamed were within the realm of possibility for him. This week a friend of mine asked me how this might be done. "How can one," he asked, "lose sight of his limitations, physical, spiritual and education, and realize these things?" If it were possible for any individual to tell another the secret of faith and its possibilities and at the same time invest him with it, he might conceivably change the whole world in one generation. Those who believe in such possibilities of faith can tell others but they cannot by telling them invest them with the faith. This to me is the greatest quest of every human life. That it is possible, I know for I have seen countless evidences of it at work. I have seen individuals such as one meets every day transformed into what we call geniuses simply through faith and the power to visualize and see themselves in a new sphere as another being. The task of separating ourselves from the earthly and physical limitation and allowing our spirit and our soul and our subconscious mind to rule is not easy. We must take on the character we would be and live it to the exclusion of all else. Nothing like this is easy.

WHEN GOLF WAS TABOO

Because golf was keeping men from practicing their required archery, the Scottish parliament in 1457 passed a law prohibiting the sport. After giving up the game for a while, gradually the Scottish players returned to it again. The result was that a severer law was passed in 1491, making not only a player subject to fine and imprisonment but also anyone whose land was used for the sport.

THE CLAIMS OF CHRIST

Alfred Martin, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

One can understand, even if one cannot condone, the type of open unbelief which rejects completely the Lord Jesus Christ. His claims are more subtle than those of unbelief that which uses Scripture but with a different meaning. On the surface the person appears orthodox, but when he is "peeled down" he is found to hold far removed from the teaching of the Bible.

The Lord Jesus said, "He that believeth on me is against me" (John 12:30). How inconsistent is the lip-service to Christ while the heart disavows His claims! Anyone who reads the New Testament thoughtfully will see that the claim is made over and over again that Jesus Christ is God manifest in the flesh. The people of Christ's day understood that He claimed to be God, and because they believed Him to be a blasphemer they put Him to death. How then can anyone of this day say that Christ did not make such a claim concerning Himself? There are those who like to talk of Jesus as a "good man" or "the greatest teacher." But Jesus claimed to be God. This claim is either true or false. If it is true, then these people are not giving to Christ the worship which He deserves. If it is false, then Jesus was not a good man, but a wicked liar and blasphemer. There is no other alternative.

Is Jesus Christ God? To answer in the affirmative is to echo the testimony of the Holy Scriptures. To answer in the negative is to label Him as the greatest impostor who ever lived. Not to answer is the same as saying, No. "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory" (1 Tim. 3:16).

DON'T BE UPSET BY WORRY, PSYCHOLOGIST CAUTIONS

Don't fret about being worried, because if you didn't worry you'd really have something to worry about! That's the advice of a Northwestern University psychologist.

Said Associate Prof. Irwin A. Berg: "We think of worry and how unhappy we are, but have you ever thought that if we lacked such concern, houses probably would burn down because we failed to extinguish the gas or a smoldering cigarette butt, bills probably wouldn't be paid, and we wouldn't even ask for a raise in pay because we weren't worried about the cost of living? Many things that should get done would not be accomplished without constructive worry." The core of Professor Berg's analysis of worry is that, while it hinders us, when carried to extremes, it also helps us physically, mentally and socially. Sincere worry, not just fretting and stewing, assists a person in achieving purposeful activity, he believes.

AID TO RECOVERY

Fire insurance is a mainstay of the economy. In thousands upon thousands of cases, it has meant the difference between solvency and ruin.

A recent issue of Forbes Magazine tells a typical story of how fire insurance serves the nation. Two years ago a New Jersey furniture company had a $1,000,000 fire which almost totally destroyed the plant. For a time there was doubt if the 100-year old company could survive the blow. However, some time before the firm had been sold a Use and Occupancy insurance policy. This coverage guaranteed that a high percentage of the profits normally earned by the company would keep coming in, and, in addition, it paid the salaries of key personnel.

With this income to count on, the company moved to temporary quarters and started to rebuild. It sent its salesmen out, and used newspaper and radio ads to let people know it was still in business and was going to stay there. This year, a concern which appeared to be doomed in 1947, will gross $3,000,000, and give employment to a small army of people.

HISTORY

Birthday of Oliver Hazard Perry, August 23—Oliver Hazard Perry won for himself a secure place in history when he sent the message, following the battle of Lake Erie, "We have met the enemy and they are ours." Perry was born at Kensington, Rhode Island, on August 23, 1785. He entered the Navy in 1799 at the age of fourteen and served in the war against Tripoli. In 1807 at the age of twenty-two he was commissioned as a lieutenant. When the war broke between Britain and the States he was sent to Lake Erie with orders to superintend the construction of a fleet of ships to drive the British from Lake Erie. By the fall of 1814 he had completed the construction of nine ships. A short time later he engaged the British on Lake Erie and on September 16 he fought the battle of Lake Erie. It was at the close of this battle that he sent the message that gave him his recognition in history. "We have met the enemy and they are ours." For this exploit he received a gold medal and a vote of thanks from Congress. He was also raised to the rank of captain. In 1819 he was sent to the West Indies with a small force to protect the American shipping from the pirates. While there he contracted yellow fever from which he died on the anniversary of his birth. He was buried at Port of Spain, Trinidad, but in 1820 his remains were removed by order of Congress, to Newport, Labor liberals are disappointed in President Truman for his failure to support a big deficit spending program. They want huge government deficit spending, billions for public works financed by big deficits.

The old fashioned business man used to spend more time worrying over the fact that his competitor might make a dollar than he did figuring out how he might make two dollars.

A group of North Atlantic states report the worst drought in 41 years.

A reader of one of our dailies writes the editor the following letter which we think challenges some thought: What can be said of a government that condemns property owners for charging adequate rentals, that discourages the building of new homes and the ownership of existing homes by the imposition of outrageously heavy taxes, and then plunges the country into a socialistic program of building houses with heavy expense to the taxpayers?

The production of synthetic rubber in this country built up during the war is still paying dividends. The bulk of the natural rubber comes from the Far East and is controlled by the Dutch and the British.

President Rodney Lockwood of the National Association of Home Builders believes that public indignation is going to scuttle the federal public housing program. The reaction will come, Lockwood believes, when millions of home owners realize the new housing act will put "the indigent and lazy" into brand new houses while the hard working families will not only have to pay their own rent, but that of their less ambitious and less industrious neighbors as well.

It has been estimated that the recommendation of the Hoover Commission for the reorganization of the government would save three billion dollars. Allowing for a fifty per cent error the saving would be $1,500,000,000.

There are two kinds of people in the world. Those who can't rest until they have a little money put away in the bank and those who can't rest when they get a little money until it is spent.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

Of all the potential killers abroad in this country, none is more dangerous than the drunken driver, and of all the killers abroad in this country less is being done to curb the murderous activities than of any other class of criminals.

It accomplishes little for state and national safety councils to urge sane driving by responsible drivers while at the same time drunken and irresponsible drivers are permitted to drive cars on the highways of this country.

Even in those communities where some pretense is made of enforcement of the law against drunken drivers the sentences and the fines are too light. Few of them approach the normal fine and sentence customary for a mere misdemeaner.

A fine of $100 and 30 days in jail for driving a car while drunk is a deplorable travesty on justice. It is so far out of line that the men given to drunken driving look upon it as a joke.

Also, too many times the fine is never paid, and the jail sentence is never served. They plead poverty, a sick baby or a good job which would be lost. As a result they are turned loose, often to repeat the performance the next week-end.

Not one in a hundred of these potential murderers carries insurance to indemnify the man he has injured, or perhaps incapacitated for life, or to aid the family whose child or bread winner has been struck down without warning.

Such men have no moral right to drive a car. A community that permits them to do so is equally guilty. I would suggest several remedies. These may seem drastic, but if you think so, go talk to the man consigned to a wheel chair for life, unable to do his work and earn a skilled worker's pay because he was ruthlessly struck down by a drunken driver.

Go talk to the father and the mother as they stand beside the white hospital bed and hear the doctor say that their child cannot live through the night. Ask them if these remedies are too drastic. I would require and it would be obligatory for every drunken driver involved in an accident to surrender his license for one year. For the next offense he would surrender it for two years and for the third offense for the rest of his life.

After all the community is responsible for its law enforcing agencies and the law enforcing agencies should make the best effort possible to control drunken drivers.

Unless and until something like this is done it is little short of folly for one agency to preach safety and sane driving while the other permits whiskey to ride at the steering wheel, uncontrolled and unpunished.

Tom Beverly Jr. is visiting his aunt, Mrs. W. D. Howell, in McKinney.

A very good shower last Saturday helped the row crops to some extent and interfered little with wheat threshing.

Plowing is under way with some of the farmers, but others have not run a furrow. It will be a monstrous task to get a big wheat crop in this fall.

A bumper yield of feed is assured, but the acreage is small.

A local woman studied quite a while about the selection of a refrigerator. She was unable to decide between the several makes offered. Each seemed to have its good points. The longer she looked the more uncertain and confused she became. Finally she selected one of the models. Asked why she decided upon that particular make she replied: "Well, the clerk at the store where I bought it, was so nice and accommodating I decided in favor of the machine."

The threatened strike by steel workers is being called at this time because the steel workers know through their organization leaders that the steel business and other business is in for a slump. They want to get new contracts before the declining business wave overtakes the steel industry.

HISTORY

Birthday of David Crockett, August 17—David Crockett, whose name is always coupled with his famous defense of the Alamo in August 17, 1786. He ran away from home at the age of thirteen to escape a threatening whipping. For three years, he wandered about the country. He served as a scout in the Creek Indian war of 1813-14 under Andrew Jackson. He served as Justice of the Peace of his county and in 1821 was elected to the Legislature and was re-elected in 1823. He was elected to the Twentieth Congress and to the Twenty-first Congress. He was defeated when he ran the third time, but was elected two years later to the Twenty-third Congress. He was opposed to Jackson and when he sought election the fourth time he was defeated. Discouraged because of his defeat he went to Texas where he assisted the Texans in their fight for independence. He took a prominent part in the defense of the Alamo and was killed along with all of the other defenders. David Crockett was uneducated but possessed considerable natural ability. He was a great hunter and an unerring shot with a rifle. The story is told that he killed one hundred and five bears in eight months. Among the stories told of his hunting prowess is the one about the coon which agreed to come down out of the tree when it discovered that it was Crockett's gun pointing at him.

In the 150 years between Washington's inauguration in 1789 and 1940 our government spent $167 billion. The present administration spent $10 million more than that during the last four fiscal years—peace-time years, according to the Pathfinder magazine.

Congress expects to end its session about August 17. Much of the President's program will have to wait until next session. As a matter of fact the President handed the Congress considerably more than it could get done in one session.

The percentage of women admitted to mental hospitals for alcoholism has increased nearly three fold in the past ten years. Dr. Robert V. Seliger, a psychiatrist attached to the John Hopkins hospital has declared that "what makes the spread of alcoholism so ominous is the fact that it is among our most intelligent and sensitive women that it is making the greatest inroads." One prominent psychiatrist recently revealed that the proportion of alcoholic women among his patients has risen from fewer than one in ten to four in ten. Judge John A. Connelly of the Boston Juvenile court recently said in an interview: "The pathetic plight of more than 60 per cent of all the neglected wayward children who come into Boston's juvenile court can be traced directly to drinking mothers. Drinking women are a serious problem. Judge Connelly believes because the social structure expects and needs a higher standard of behavior from women. A child, Judge Connelly says, is more desperately affected when a mother succumbs to drink than when a father is weak. A strong mother can keep her children straight and her home intact even when the father goes astray."

It has been discovered that the "hedge apple" or hedge ball, long considered of no value, contains a valuable heart medicine. Three University of Western Ontario professors, R. A. Waud, C. W. Gowdey, J. S. Loyne, report the "hedge apple" can be used to produce a drug similar to the invaluable digitalis, without which some types of heart disease could not be treated.

Price reduction from $5 to $200 have been announced on radios by the Westinghouse Electric Co. The price cuts, ranging from 16 to 41 per cent, are effective immediately on four table models, one portable and eleven consoles.

Symptom Hunting As a Hobby Is a Dangerous Matter

Austin, Texas—Among a certain and rather extensive group of self-centered persons symptom hunting unfortunately is rather popular. Because of a too detailed study of so-called health literature of the alarmist type or on account of a recent death in the family, introspection develops to a morbid degree. The result is an entirely unfounded fear for all sorts of disease possibilities. Many becoming victims of this warped psychology develop brain and nerve exhaustion and in extreme cases even become affected mentally, stated Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Of course, it is entirely proper to have a normal regard for personal well-being. To maintain vitality and to prevent disease is a logical pursuit for every one. But it most decidedly must be kept within bounds. When one becomes obsessed with the subject, concern for health has overstepped the limits.

For all practical purposes, after giving reasonable attention to diet, personal sanitation, sleep and exercise, and assuming that one's bodily limitations as defined by the family physician are appreciated, the average person can dismiss the subject of health. This, plus the annual physical examination should adequately cover the situation.

On the other hand, conditions are bound to arise where actual disease symptoms manifest themselves. It will then be up to the doctor to decide what the trouble, if any, is and for the patient to abide by his judgment.

In short, symptom hunting as a hobby is a dangerous matter. One should stay away from it. It is neither safe nor healthy to do otherwise.

Texans Prepaying Medical - Surgical Care in Blue Shield

More than 200,000 Texans are prepaying their medical-surgical care through the Blue Shield Plan at the end of June, reports W. R. McBea, executive director. "Membership reached 208,972 with 21,000 new members in June."

Texans led the nation in providing for hospital - medical - surgical care through their own initiative. They started the idea of prepayment almost 20 years ago, with the first hospital care plan, Blue Cross, which plan now protects 469,232 Texans and over 34 million Americans. The Texas Blue Shield Plan, corporately named Group Medical and Surgical Service, is only 4 years old.

For the 1,421 Texans who received medical - surgical care and the 5,337 who received hospital care, Texas hospitals and doctors received $404,043.24 last month. Cases were reported not only from the 380 Texas member hospitals, but from far-away Egypt, Mexico.

With the June tabulation of members, Mr. McBea reports: the average Blue Cross family is 2.63 people, and there are twice as many man - and - wife memberships and seven times as many full-family memberships as there are single - person members.

Facts of Upstream Water Development Being Discussed

Abilene—A further examination of the facts of upstream water development in the light of domestic water may change conclusions of the Department of Interior, D. A. Bantzen, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, has written Secretary J. A. Krug.

The statement follows the 38-page letter written by Secretary Krug, in transmitting a Texas water study to Senator Lyndon Johnson. In this letter Krug said, "It is doubtful that the repayment ability of the water users of many of the upstream developments in Texas will ever be found to be sufficient to equal the reimbursable costs."

This statement was challenged by WTCC.

It called upon Secretary Krug to apply the formula of economic loss to lack of water as well as flood damage to criteria upon which multi-purpose dams may be built by the federal government. "A further examination of this conclusion, we believe, will produce a wholly contrary result," the letter said.

"You will note in our report several new approaches to and facts on this water resource development problem, which I am sure will intrigue you."

They were listed: First, that West Texas has wholly insufficient water for domestic and industrial needs, which can only be overcome by upstream development.

Second, a new approach to the water problem in computing the economic loss from lack of water as well as from flood damages.

Third, is the possibility of the government obtaining more reimbursable revenue from the sale of domestic and industrial water from small dams on the upper tributaries than under the present multi-purpose dam policies.

Bantzen also urged Secretary Krug to lend support to the Hoover commission recommendation that domestic water be given priority of use in multi-purpose reservoirs.

Meanwhile the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has continued its hammering for more domestic water in West Texas and is advocating the construction

The latest effort is on behalf of the Bob Baskin Dam Assn., for the construction of a dam in the immediate future to the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos which would supply water for 25 or 30 drought stricken West Texas towns. The State Water Board at Austin has been asked for recovery of some 300,000 acre feet of water from the Brazos River Authority for this project. A meeting will be held with the BRA in the immediate future to further prosecute this request.

LOOPHOLES in the Law

By WILL WILSON

Past President, Texas District and County Attorneys Association

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of short case histories, all taken from court records, showing how legal loopholes often enable criminals to escape punishment in Texas. Will Wilson, of Dallas, is chairman of a special steering committee of the State Bar, which is working for revision of the antiquated Criminal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure in order to eliminate these loopholes.)

John Smith saw Joe Jones steal his watch. He had Jones arrested and the watch was found in his pocket. Smith told the officers that he had paid $49.50 for the watch, and misdemeanor charges of theft were filed against Jones.

When the case was tried in the county criminal court, Smith said he had made one slight mistake. He actually paid $50 for the watch instead of $49.50. Since it was new when stolen, it was considered worth the purchase price of $50. Smith was a convincing witness and, after all, he had actually witnessed the theft, so Jones was promptly convicted.

Upon appeal the case was reversed. The higher court, held that the theft of a watch valued at $50 constituted a felony, rather than a misdemeanor, theft. Thus the county criminal court lacked jurisdiction over the case. There was no question about Jones' guilt, but he was given a new trial simply because the watch was valued at fifty cents more than it was originally said to be worth.

Such delays in punishing criminals, made possible by legal technicalities, hamper justice and encourage crime. Proper revision of Texas' criminal statutes, as advocated by the State Bar, would eliminate such technicalities.

Salary and Wage Scales in Texas Cities Increased

Austin, Texas, Aug. 6—A recently-completed University of Texas Bureau of Municipal Research survey of salary and wage scales in Texas cities shows more people working and getting higher pay over the period of the past six years.

A study by Research Associate W. Terrell Blodgett of 61 Texas cities with a population over 5,000 indicated annual salary-wage totals have almost tripled and the total number of employees doubled in the past six years.

In January, 1942, the salary total of the cities studied was $2,377,000 and the employees total 19,682 non-school workers. By October, 1948, the figures were $6,342,000 and 38,312 respectively. Half the cities have made cost-of-living wage increases during the past two years. Retirement benefits and group insurance have been added or expanded and work hour schedules and overtime pay systems have been set up in many places, the survey indicated.

Copies of the report are available in the Bureau, University of Texas, Austin 12, Texas.

One Commencement Exercise to Be Held at University

Austin, Texas, Aug. 6—To give additional emphasis to the commencement exercise, University of Texas has decided to hold only one exercise annually — in the spring.

February and August graduates will receive their diplomas at that time, but they will be invited to attend the formal June commencement program which may be extended to a two-day-long celebration.

Announcing the contemplated new plan, C. Read Granberry, assistant to President T. S. Painter, said, "This plan is in line with the trend being followed in major institutions throughout the country."

A Baccalaureate sermon will be a part of the annual program and tentative plans call for several well-known speakers to add impetus to the occasion.

AMERICA AT PLAY

VACATION! They've picked time and place, and they've planned and saved for months.

That's the American way—the way of free choice—so familiar we take it for granted. A man picks his job, leaves it freely for a better one. He chooses the town he'll work in, the house where he'll live. He saves or spends as he wishes.

It's not that way everywhere. In some countries, the government puts a man in a city, a house, a job, with no choice in the matter. He can't quit, leave town or move around the corner without permission. If he gets a vacation, he is told where and when to go. The government runs everything, the people nothing. That's what happens when a free people turn over their responsibilities to their government. They also turn over their freedom of choice. Socialism is the result. How does Socialism happen? Not overnight. It is woven slowly, a thread at a time, into the bonds of slavery. Little by little the government assumes powers other than governing—until it finally assumes all power.

You, here in West Texas, would be astounded by the various ways and means that some formerly good statesmen in Washington have been politically jockeyed and pressured into succumbing in many instances to the Socialistic planners that have infected our government and good old-line political parties.

Through acquiescence against the better judgment of some of our statesmen, our Federal government has already embarked on political, bureaucratic duplications and the taking over of private businesses with your tax funds.

This is true not only in our industry in some eastern locations, but the bureaucrats are now openly aiming at banks, insurance, steel, railroads, mines, forests and many other private businesses that have so helped this country to grow, produce and prosper. This is how Socialism got its political wedge and hold in such non-producing countries as England is today and it is why such countries are not producing but are leaning on us.

Talk to your friends and neighbors; see how they feel about this Socialism and other political "isms" in Washington that are threatening your American way of life, decreasing your liberties and increasing your taxation.

Mrs. Charles Davis Is Honored with Lovely Bridal Shower

Mrs. Charles Davis, a recent bride who will make her home in Crowell, was named as honoree at a lovely bridal shower given at the home of Mrs. C. B. Graham Saturday afternoon, August 8, when Mrs. Graham, Mrs. S. B. Hord, Mrs. Jeff Hardin and Mrs. Glen Goodwin were joint hostesses.

Mrs. Graham received the guests and presented them to Mrs. J. H. Lanier Jr., aunt of the groom, and to Mrs. Davis, the bride. Mrs. Goodwin secured the signatures in an attractive, hand-made bride's book, the art work of a friend of Mrs. Davis. Colorful flowers in a low container adorned the register table.

Mrs. Jeff Hardin poured pink punch from the Fostoria punch bowl which was nestled in a circle of sweet peas and rosebuds on the lace-laid table. A reflector in the center of the table was also surrounded by the same flowers and a miniature bride and groom stood among the flowers. Tiny napkins, inscribed "Jeanne-Charlie" were in pastel shades, pink, blue, yellow and white. The punch was served with dainty cookies.

From the dining room the guests were invited to a rear bedroom where the many beautiful and useful gifts were on display. Mrs. Hord presided in the display room. The entertaining rooms were further decorated with the same colorful flowers arranged before the fireplace and other vantage points.

"Down to the Sea in Ships" Coming to Rialto Theatre

The thrills and romance of the great whaling days brought to the screen with all their pulse-pounding excitement, have never been better delineated than in Twentieth Century-Fox's "Down to the Sea in Ships" which opens at the Rialto today for a two-day run.

Starring Richard Widmark, Lionel Barrymore and Dean Stockwell in their best roles to date, Director Henry Hathaway has weighted cinematic anchor on a whaling story replete with action, human conflict, and emotion against a background of high adventure.

Much of the exciting action, which is shown in realistic fashion, takes place aboard the 45-ton brig, "Pride of Bedford." Her crew battles the sea and the elements in their pursuit of the valued mammals, and their hunting ground covers the Atlantic Ocean from Newfoundland to Cape Horn.

CROWELL DOCTOR RECOMMENDS "SNAKE PIT" PICTURE

To be at Rialto, Sun., Mon., Aug. 14-15

I strongly recommend the motion picture, "Snake Pit," to the citizens of Foard County. This picture is an outstanding contribution because it helps us realize that mental disease is not the result of imagination, that the patient with a mental disease suffers just as much, if not a great deal more, than a patient with heart disease or pneumonia, and that any one of us can develop a sick mind just as readily as we can develop kidney disease or cancer.

Unfortunately, it portrays the inadequate care these patients receive in our state mental hospitals, a situation which has resulted from our own lethargy and lack of appreciation and understanding of this type of patient.

Consequently, this picture has marked educational and entertainment value. Everyone should see it.

CORNERSTONE OF ENTERPRISE

The president of the National Board of Fire Underwriters recently dealt with the service to the nation his industry has been rendering. The fire insurance industry has met the strain of record fire losses which came at a time when the costs of doing business were higher than ever before. It has fully discharged every obligation to its policy holders, and has fulfilled an all-important function in the national economy. It has saved legions of people from financial disaster. Last year, in return for this, it earned an underwriting profit of four per cent. In 1947 it sustained an underwriting loss of five per cent, and over a five year period the loss averaged 2.5 per cent.

Fire insurance is something we take for granted. It is interesting to speculate on what would happen if that protection didn't exist. No man could safely put his money into a business, a home, or any other kind of property—a fire might wipe him out in a matter of minutes. No ship could put to sea without the owners risking ruin. If a factory burned, there would be no money to replace it, and thousands of people might be thrown permanently out of work. And in a great conflagration, such as that which raged San Francisco in 1906, the extent of the economic disaster would be incalculable.

Here is why fire insurance is one of the cornerstones of enterprise. For a very moderate cost, anyone who desires it can make sure that he will get his money back if fire hits his possessions. Few institutions have contributed more to the development of the nation than fire insurance. Few are as important.

IMPROVEMENT IN STANDARDS REVEALED IN HOUSING STUDY

American people have reached higher housing standards than ever before as a result of the enormous addition of new homes and the improvement of old ones in the present decade, according to Melvin H. Baker, chairman of the Construction Industry Information committee of Washington, D. C.

"A far larger proportion of the population is living in well equipped houses in good repair than ever before and a far smaller proportion of the population is living in 'sub-standard' housing than at any time in the past," Baker said. The improvement in quality of our housing is borne out in every study made.

More new housing is needed, and there are several million older homes which should be improved or removed, but progress has been made at a rapid rate.

On the basis of previous surveys of the bureau of the census and additional information, it is estimated that we now have at least eight million more non-farm dwellings which have private baths and toilets and are in good structural condition than we had in 1940. This has come about through new construction, remodeling of existing structures to form additional dwelling units, and repair and modernization operations.

There are at least seven million more houses in the non-farm supply having electric lighting facilities, and about 96 per cent of all non-farm dwellings now have this convenience.
