Texans Alerted to Threat of "Home Rule" Being Seized

Texans mayors, county judges and school board members were alerted today to the threat of their "home rule" powers being turned over to labor groups.

General Ike Ashburn, executive director of the Texas Good Roads Association, in a statement released from the Association's headquarters in Austin compared the threat to Texas in the El Paso Wage Rate Case to be on a par with the Tidelands Case.

Many years ago, General Ashburn cited, the state legislature delegated to the highway department, with its many specialists and engineers, the right and responsibility to determine the prevailing wage rate in the areas where state highway contracts are to be let.

"If the thinking of the labor group in El Paso is correct," Gen. Ashburn's statement said, "it will mean that the legislature all these years has been in error and that the state highway department and the county judges and commissioners of Texas are no longer capable of determining what the proper wage scale is in Texas counties."

The Good Roads executive warned that if "the present group or any other group get their foot in the door and win in this case, we can expect to see a breakdown of our present home rule of municipal, county and school board units. We don't believe our Texas mayors, county judges, commissioners and school boards want, or need, any outside group to pass on their prerogatives and hand these rights over to labor or any other groups," he concluded.

Vital Phases of Hunting Season to Receive Attention

Austin, July 1—Vital phases of the fall hunting season will receive the attention of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission at its July meeting in Austin next Friday.

Subjects to be considered include: Setting up a season on antelope in West Texas.

Prescribing hunting and fishing regulations in the new regulatory area in the Panhandle.

Establishing boat quotas and license fees for the Gulf Coast fishing industry.

Setting seasons and dates for mule deer and quail in the regulatory area West of the Pecos.

Dates and other provisions of the general big game season in the remainder of the state are set by law.

The dove and migratory waterfowl season dates, shooting hours and bag limits are set jointly by Federal authorities and the state.

The Commission, at its last meeting, adopted a resolution recommending that the Federal authorities place Texas in two zones for the coming waterfowl season. Under this plan, the Panhandle region which is framed by Oklahoma and New Mexico would have an earlier season in keeping with the surrounding area in the adjacent states.

The Commission recommended as a companion plan that the state at large have a straight shooting season for migratory waterfowl beginning not earlier than November 10, instead of the split season authorized last year. The Commission also recommended a limit of eight ducks per day and eight in possession. They were four and eight in 1949.

MARTIN KAMSTRA

Gospel Meeting to Be Held at Eastside Church of Christ

A series of meetings will begin at the Eastside Church of Christ Wednesday evening, July 12, and continue through July 23 with Martin Kamstra, minister of the Church of Christ in McCamey, in charge of the services. Mr. Kamstra is the son of L. Kamstra and lived here as a boy. He also served the Eastside Church of Christ as minister for a year at one time.

Bro. Kamstra states that the first two night lessons will be devoted to the subject, "Creative Power of God's Word." These lessons will be based upon Genesis I showing that scientific fact (not theory) completely proves the inspiration of that chapter. As people are falsely led to believe modern science has shown this chapter to be false and their faith in the whole Bible is consequently wrecked, he believes these lessons to be of supreme importance and will be of interest to all, regardless of religious affiliation. Everyone is invited and urged to be present for these religious discussions.

Services will be each morning at 10 o'clock and each evening at 8 o'clock.

Bro. Kamstra will be assisted in the meeting by Edgar Johnson of Anson, who will direct the song services.

Tentative subjects announced by the minister for the meeting follow:

Wednesday, July 12, "Creative Power of God's Word;" Thursday, July 13, same as July 12. These lessons will be devoted to a harmony of Genesis I and Modern Scientific Discovery.

Friday, "God's Word, an Active Power;" Saturday, "God's Word a Saving Power;" Sunday, July 16, morning, "The Path of Degeneracy;" evening, "The Work of Satan;" Monday, "Catholicism in Scripture;" Tuesday, "A Divine Pattern;" Wednesday, "Cycle of Life;" Thursday, "Divine and Human Elements in Conversion."

SINUS AND SWIMMING

Apparently, there's no connection between aquatic sports and sinus trouble. According to Cosmopolitan magazine, a survey of nine hundred college graduates showed that sinus infection and loss of hearing was no more frequent among those who had been swimmers and divers than among those who had not taken much part in these activities while at college.

TONSIL REGROWTH

Children whose tonsils and adenoids grow back after removal are usually allergy sufferers. Cosmopolitan magazine reports that treatment of the allergy before the operation may prevent such a regrowth.

Elm trees produce wood that is hard, heavy and tough and the farm. Most elms can be grown from seed.

SURGICAL SAFETY

A device has been invented to ward off static sparks and explosions in surgical operating rooms which in recent years have injured and killed almost a score of persons. The device provides for a positive electric contact between the bodies of the people in the room and the floor. Cosmopolitan magazine describes the gadget as a garter which touches the skin and is connected by a flexible chain to a pin clipped onto the sole of the shoe.

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

A new theory of government is being tried in this country. It is the theory of government spending, of business and industry priming, of pouring federal money by the millions and the billions into the channels of trade by various ways and means to stimulate business and to keep industry rolling at its highest pitch.

This philosophy holds that as long as industry is rolling along at a high pitch and everyone who desires to may secure work, at good wages, and the people and country are in a prosperous condition there is no need to worry about the national debt.

I was talking the other day with a local Republican wheel horse about the situation, and he sees nothing at all to fear in the present situation. He is in the automobile business. He is enjoying the best business he has had in years.

I mentioned above that he is a stalwart, faithful member of the Republican party for the reason that it surprised me when he did not take the administration apart for its spending policy.

Of course, he said, things are high, living is high, automobiles are selling for twice what they did fifteen years ago but they are selling, people are working and do have the money and are spending it.

"Do you think this condition can continue indefinitely with its mounting prices and mounting wages?" I asked him? "No," he said, "I do not, but it is up to the business man and others to use this situation to get ready for the time when times are not going to be so good."

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

Have Faith and Go Ahead: There is a line in one of Shakespeare's plays which reads: "Our doubts are traitors and make us lose the good we often might win by fearing to attempt."

The sentence of 10 to 30 years imposed by the court upon Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars for broadcasting Nazi propaganda during the war has been upheld by the circuit court of appeals.

One reason why it is so difficult for a man to learn the truth about himself is that the truth isn't told until after he leaves the party.

Purebred hogs, exemplifying the progress made in the Texas swine industry during the past 50 years, will be a big feature of the 1950 State Fair of Texas Mid-Century Exposition, Oct. 7-22. Ray W. Wilson, manager of the Fair's livestock department, has announced. Breeders will compete for $8636 in premiums in the show scheduled for Oct. 7-15. The judging program includes: Poland China, Spotted Poland China, Berkshire and Yorkshire, Monday, Oct. 9; Hampshire, Duroc, OTC and Chester White, Tuesday, Oct. 10; and Fat Barrows (all breeds) Wednesday, Oct. 11. This will be the first time in the 65-year history of the State Fair that the Yorkshire breed has been exhibited. The State Fair gives swine breeders the opportunity of showing to the largest audience in the world. More than 2,000,000 persons are expected to attend the great 1950 exposition, Wilson pointed out. Included in this vast audience will be more than 100,000 4-H Club boys and girls, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers who will be guests of the Fair on Opening Day, he explained.

500 Texans Have Taken Out Game Breeding Licenses

Austin, July 5—More than 500 Texans have taken out game breeder licenses this year, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission reported today. The 531 figure for 1950 is almost double the 284 total for 1949. The license cost $2.00 and are required for all persons dealing in wild game. The same fee is necessary for persons obtaining a permit to keep wild game. The permits have to be renewed by August 31 of this year. The Chief Clerk estimated that about 90 per cent of the residents obtaining the game breeding license raise pheasants. This is the only species which may be sold as food. A few Texans raise migratory waterfowl which come under Federal regulations. Game breeders who raise them are required to have a permit from the United States Department of the Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington, D. C., as well as the regular $2.00 state license. The law stipulates: "Such a license does not entitle the holder to capture any of the wild game birds or wild animals of this state. He must procure his primary stock either from a game breeder in this state or from a game breeder in some other state or the Republic of Mexico or from some other country." Enclosures for "wild squirrels, wild prairie chickens, wild quail, wild chachalacas or wild pheasants shall not contain more than forty acres. For deer, antelope, turkey or any wild migratory bird, the enclosure shall not exceed three hundred-twenty acres."

WERE THEY WRONG?
If they had taken their first screen critics at their word, Bob Hope and Frank Sinatra might never have become movie stars. When Hollywood saw an Eastern screen test made by the crooner, the studio wired its agent: "You people in New York are in a rut. Sinatra impossible." And Cosmopolitan magazine reports that when Hope was introduced to movie executives, the head man remarked, "His nose is funny. It tilts up. He'll never do in pictures."

JESSE OWENS

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

Governor Shivers appointed Jesse Owens District Judge of the 46th Judicial District to serve the unexpired term of the late Judge Welch. His appointment was recommended by most of the lawyers, who practice in this district, as well as by many other prominent citizens. Judge Owens gave up a good law practice to accept the appointment and at the end of the present term he will have served as District Judge seventeen months. Has he served you well? If so, does he deserve longer time in this office? Jesse Owens was elected County Judge of Foard County, Texas, two times and served in that capacity from 1923 to 1927. He was elected District Attorney of this District two times and served in that office from 1937 to 1941. He was an Assistant Attorney General of Texas during the Administration of the Honorable Gerald Mann and the Honorable Grover Sellers. He served as a trial lawyer in that office from January, 1943, to January, 1946. He has been engaged in the practice of law continuously since January, 1927. Jesse Owens will appreciate your vote and influence in the Democratic Primary to be held July 22, 1950. (Pol. Adv. Paid for by Foard County Friends)

Weekly Sermon

WAITING UPON GOD

by M. Shelton McKenzie, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

It is a normal thing to want to act in a situation. We all like to see results or know that we are doing something to get results. But there is a strength and a certainty which we must have before we can act effectively, and these are found only in resting in and waiting upon God.

The prophet Isaiah speaks of the futility of action which has its source in mere human reason, unaided by God. Isaiah admonishes those who take counsel, but not of God; the people are active, but seeking the solution to their problems from the wrong sources. The sorrowful lament of God is heard when we read, "For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel: In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength; and ye would not" (Isa. 30:15).

The result of a choice to seek help from sources other than God is utter defeat (verses 16, 17). God often permits a person to get to the end of himself, and then He steps in. "And therefore will Jehovah wait, that he may be gracious unto you (verse 18). What a loving God to be willing to wait for a rebellious child to come to the end of himself!

We should never rush ahead of God. "Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him" (Ps. 37:7). If He delays in answering prayer, wait, if a clear path of action is not given, wait. Waiting is not a negative state; rather, it implies being with the Lord in prayer, in worship, and in fellowship, calmly and in faith expecting an answer to our prayer, or clear guidance, in God's own time. Fulfilling these conditions, we find definite guidance is given in every situation in life. "And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left" (Isa. 30:21).

Has the Experience! A Blacktop Road To Every Farm Home

Some time ago the dean of American medical nutritionists, Dr. James S. McLester, wrote: "The protein quota of the American soldier's ration in the second World War was liberal, more liberal than that of any other soldier in the world. Measured in terms of greater vigor, quicker and more assured recovery from injury and a higher degree of morale, did this liberality of protein allowance in the American soldier's ration contribute to the winning of the war? I believe it did."

Protein in its whole state is found in a very limited number of foods, of which one is meat. And the fact that our per capita meat consumption has been on the increase is regarded by the medical fraternity as an excellent augury for the future health of the people of this nation.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

RADAR SPEEDS OIL SHIPMENTS

Early in May, Herbert Hoover, the only living ex-President, made a noteworthy speech to a group of 1800 editors and publishers. The world, he said, had drunk too deeply of the "mixed drinks of greed, egoism, and the shade of Karl Marx with his socialism, the shade of Mussolini with his dictatorial economy, the spook of Lord John Maynard Keynes with his perpetual endorsement for bureaucrats. And we have contributed an American ideology of give-away programs. It might be called the New Generosity. It is not yet a ghost."

Mr. Hoover did not turn thumbs down on all governmental welfare activities. Indeed, he said, "Security from the cradle to about 18 to 20 years of age, and from about 65 to the grave, has always been sacred to the American people. But, he went on, the group which is in between these extremes "can find its own security only in a free but tough system of risk and self-reliance. It can be destroyed by taxes and the four mixed drinks."

Then Mr. Hoover turned his attention to our two major political parties. He observed that in European nations there are multitudes of parties which create confusion and despair. If we are to avoid that, he said our 2 parties must really become opposites. We should have, on the one hand, a staunchly conservative Republican Party, opposed, on the other, by a Democratic Party which tends to the left. Only under such a condition, he believes, would it be possible

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer.

Austin — Food poisoning and the spread of food-borne diseases can be "things of the past," State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox asserted here today.

"People need only to remember three things to bring about the end of the food poisoning disease classification," Dr. Cox declared. "Buy food from safe sources, prepare it in a sanitary fashion, and serve and store it correctly."

He said state laws covered the sale of contaminated food to the housewife, but "only the housewife can see that food is properly stored and clearly prepared for serving to the family."

There is a difference between food infection and food intoxication, he pointed out.

Food infection comes from eating or drinking a product contaminated by a germ. Dysentery, typhoid fever, para-typhoid fever and tuberculosis are examples. Animal parasites can also gain entry to the body in this way. That, the doctor said, is how people get trichinosis and tapeworm.

The growth and multiplication of certain toxin forming bacteria in unrefrigerated foods bring on food intoxication, according to the explanation. That is the source of the staphylococcus infection and the deadly botulism. Some kinds of mushrooms and certain shellfish are also poisonous.

Some poisonous substances may be accidentally introduced into food, Dr. Cox said. For instance, rodent and insect poisons, spray residues on fruit and vegetables, and poisons from metal containers.

To point up the deadliness of some food poisons, he related the story of the housewife who suspected some home-canned green beans she had just opened were tainted.

"She barely tasted one of them, but it killed her in a matter of hours. Such instances are rare but do occur."

Dallas Business Man Opens Campaign for Lt. Governor

Pierce Brooks, Dallas business man, has opened his campaign for Lieutenant Governor with a declaration that he is opposed to any new taxes until the State's financial affairs are put on a sound and sensible business basis and waste and extravagance are eliminated from the operations of the State government.

Brooks declared in his opening campaign address that the State is facing the worst financial crisis in its history.

"It is over-spending its prospective income at the rate of $6,000,000 per month," he said, "and reports from Austin say that in addition to the $500,000,000 the State is spending this year an additional $150,000,000 in new tax money will be needed next year."

The Dallas business man candidate pointed out that the cost of the State government has increased more than 500 per cent since 1935 while the cost of the Federal government, aside from the cost of World War II, did not increase that much.

"I believe," Brooks said, "that through the elimination of waste and extravagance, by spending the tax dollar more wisely and by getting a full dollar's value for every dollar spent, the $500,000,000 the State is spending this year can buy all needed supplies and equipment, pay adequate salaries to all essential employees, take care of the old folks, and provide all essential services without any new taxes."

Brooks said the big problem facing the State is not political but a business problem and he said it must be attacked from a business viewpoint.

Shivers Favors Lifting Ceiling on Old-Age Aid

Forthright answers to four questions put to him in a letter from a West Texan this week placed Gov. Allan Shivers clearly on record for a "fair and equitable" old-age assistance system in Texas.

Replying to a communication from Archie Yates, 1318 North 15th St., Abilene, Shivers set forth in one-two-three fashion his views on old-age assistance. He wrote Yates as follows:

"Your first question is, 'Do you favor the removal of the ceiling on old-age pensions and payments to needy children and dependent blind?' My answer is yes.

"Your second question is, 'Will you or will you not do all you can to have a constitutional amendment submitted to the people to be voted on at the earliest possible time?' My answer is, I will.

"Your third question is, 'Will you or will you not, if ceiling is removed, support a law raising such payments?' My answer is: This is a matter entirely for the Legislature, but I will be happy to see the Legislature pass such laws as it feels fair and just in all the circumstances.

"Your fourth question is, 'Do you or do you not favor the State taking a lien on whatever property the old folks may have?' My answer is, I do not."

In his letter to Yates, Governor Shivers pointed out that, as a member of the State Senate in 1935, he wrote and sponsored the first old-age pension law that Texas had. Shivers also was a co-author of the 1941 tax bill which to this day provides revenue for the old-age assistance program.

"As a public official," he said, "I have always endeavored to work for a fair and equitable old-age assistance program in Texas."

Heredity is an important factor in the occurrence of diabetes. Cosmopolitan magazine cites clinical study which shows that if both parents are diabetics, all the children are potential diabetics. If only one parent has diabetes, half the children are liable to have it.

Ben Ramsey Making Race for Lieutenant Governor of Texas

Ben Ramsey, candidate for lieutenant governor and former Secretary of State, last week completed another chapter in his person-to-person handshaking tour of the State.

Ramsey found considerable interest in his program for economy in government, blacktop roads to every farm home, soil and water conservation and rural telephones at reasonable rates.

Ramsey, a 46-year-old country lawyer from San Augustine in East Texas, has been conducting soil and water conservation experiments on his own farm near San Augustine. Several classes of students studying conservation have visited the farm to observe the results of the experiments.

Ramsey is campaigning for the office of lieutenant governor, the presiding officer of the state Senate, on the basis of his experience. Ramsey served in both the House and Senate before he became Secretary of State, a position he resigned in February in anticipation of making the race for lieutenant governor.

U. S. PRODUCES 63 PER CENT OF WORLD'S OIL

The U. S. oil industry has produced 63 per cent of all the world's petroleum. Global output from 1859 through 1949 totaled 61.6 billion barrels. Of this, the domestic industry has produced 38.9 billion barrels.

THE PEOPLE'S VIEWS

A recent Gallup poll indicated that the majority of the people favor a law stronger than the Taft-Hartley Act—a sentiment which undoubtedly reflects growing public concern over strikes that weaken the country. Now another survey, conducted by the Psychological Corporation, under the direction of Dr. Henry C. Link, shows that a majority of the people also believe that the coal miners were definitely harmed by the last strike.

Personal interviews were conducted in 2500 homes scattered through 132 communities from coast to coast. One question asked was: "Do you think that John L. Lewis and the coal miners, in the long run, were more benefited or more harmed by the recent strike settlement?" Sixty-six per cent answered "more harmed," as against 22 per cent who felt the miners had benefited, with the balance uncertain. Even in union homes, 57 per cent said that the strike was more harmful, compared to 31 per cent who thought that the benefits outweighed the damages.

Another question asked was: "Do you think the coal mines should be taken over and run by the government?" This "solution" to coal's problem has been suggested by a few shortsighted people, and the socialists are always whooping it up. However, the opinion of those polled was overwhelmingly against it. Only 20 per cent said yes, while 69 per cent answered no, and 11 per cent were uncertain. The proportions were

Texas State Fair Jersey Show Slated for October 13-20

The All American Jersey Show and Junior Jersey Exposition, offering $10,000 in premiums and trophies valued at $35,000, will be the featured livestock attraction at the Mid-Century Exposition of the 1950 State Fair of Texas, Ray W. Wilson, manager of the Fair livestock department, has announced.

Dates for the show, destined to be the greatest dairy cattle show in the 65-year history of the State Fair, are Oct. 13-20. Gates will swing open on Oct. 7 for the Mid-Century Exposition and will remain open through Oct. 22.

Since Texas leads the nation in the number of purebred and grade Jerseys, it is natural that the greatest state fair in the world should be selected as the site for this great show, Wilson said.

Stiff competition is expected when Jersey breeders from 35 states and Canada bring their herds to the State Fair to compete for top place money and trophies. Premiums in all livestock shows total $72,659, the largest in the Fair's history, Wilson explained.

Cattle will be judged Tuesday, Oct. 17, through Thursday, Oct. 19. Jerseys from the top herds in the nation will go on the auction block Friday, Oct. 20, in the Sale of Stars.

An outstanding exhibit featuring the highest producing living Jersey cow, Orriand Signal Vol. Sable, owned by Chester Elliff of Tulia, Texas, will be sponsored by the Texas Jersey Cattle Club and the American Jersey Cattle Club.

OIL SERVES THE WORLD

Late in May, the British government announced the end of gasoline rationing, which had been in effect since 1939. This sudden decision followed acceptance of an offer by an American oil company to supply all additional requirements of the United Kingdom and to accept payment in sterling. The sterling, to be used to purchase goods and materials within the sterling area use outside that area.

This company's British offer is now building the largest refinery in Europe, in England. When completed, it will refine 110 barrels daily of petroleum products from Middle East crude oil will contribute substantial savings to the British economy as all the products will be produced with sterling.

Here is a particularly dramatic example of how the American industry serves the world. The American oil companies, capable of achievements which hardly dreamed of elsewhere, are as many other American companies, with the "resources" needed for huge investments in the international level. However, American oil companies of kinds and sizes—and there are thousands of them—are and effectively providing us with better products, and strengthening our external and internal security. Oil is the lifeblood of nations in this mechanized age, and we the unquestioned leader in the field.

Demand for oil seems insatiable. The heavy increase in demand which followed the drop in military consumption, surprised everyone. Yet that demand was met with only minor adjustments. No one suffered for lack of oil. Only free enterprise could have accomplished this. —Industrial News Review.
