A City Without a Newspaper

What is it like to live in a city without a regular newspaper?

The people of Detroit know-after a prolonged strike that shut the limit. Some stores put out handbills of their own, to advertise their holiday wares. Yet, though Christmas trade for the country as a whole was well above last year, many Detroit stores did less business. The lack of newspapers was responsible. Again, the merchants faced a fresh problem at post-holiday sale time. They had bargains and specials to offer as usual-but moving them was another matter, without newspaper advertising space. The community problems that arise from lack of newspapers are certainly not limited to the big cities. The smaller towns are equaldependent upon the weeklies ly and dailies that serve them. In the small town, especially, the news-newer media, it remains the most effective means of advertising for merchants and others. Infinitely more important, the newspaper, small or large, is a guardian of our rights and liberties which is always on duty. There are 150 Psalms in th

Everyone is searching frantically for material for his annual soil conservation theme. The fact that we realize the importance of the theme doesn't make it any easier for the students who have written them four consecutive years to be original with their 300 words.

The reasons for all the sleepy people over the week end were the trips to Abilene and Wichita Falls by the band and the seniors trip to Career Day at Midwest ern. This getting up at six o'clock is rugged.

The banquet is over. The flow-ers are gradually withering away in scrapbooks, and memories of a very special night are stored within the hearts of all those who attended. We are sure that ev eryone appreciates the work don all, and we think that Mrs Manard and the pep squad leaders, Gail Knox, Roma Jan Spikes Barbara Fairchild, Maxine Rey nolds and Francyne Coffey, de serve a special thank you for the many hours they spent on the decorations.

We wish to congratulate the officers elected for the student council. We feel that the organization of a student council is one of the best things that has happened around CHS in a long time. Let's all do everything possible to make it a success

This is national youth week. Here at CHS, religious emphasis is observed throughout the year by inviting the preachers from each of the local churches and visiting evangelists to speak to the students.

to help you LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY

The average nome employs thirty-seven servants — and all of them are Reddy. He is at your beck and call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week all year long - fair weather or foul. He'll run any of those 37 appliances - or ALL of them - whenever you say!

The beauty of it is, that Reddy does all these jobs for real low wages . . . about 3¢ an hour. That's a lot of work for a little money!

Next time your electric service bill arrives, take a good look at Reddy's wages you'll find that electricity is still today's biggest bargain.

Misses Neomi Brown and Mary K. Chowning gave a report on the ground observer post. Mrs. J. R. Brown gave useful information on buying slips.

Refreshments were served to 15 members by Mrs. G. J. Adcock. After the business meeting the club tacked a comfort.

Each member brought a question on etiquette to be answered at the next meeting Feb. 9, when Mrs. J. R. Brown will be hostess. Mrs. J. R. Brown, Mrs. W. R. Owens, Mrs. W. O. Solomon, Mrs. E. J. Jones, Mrs. W. B. Morton, and Mrs. G. J. Adcock are taking the tailoring course. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Owens are the leaders. They go to Benjamin one day each week and they have one day to help the other ones.
