Soil Conservation News of District

Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District, Lower Pease River District Board, W. C. Howard, Grady Halbert, O. T. Holmes, O. H. Brandon, H. L. Ayers.

The meeting of the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District board was held Wednesday, November 8, 1950, at 2 p. m. in the county courthouse. Present were W. C. Howard, H. L. Ayers, O. H. Brandon and Grady Halbert, supervisors; Joe Burkett, Foard County Agent, and J. B. Harlan, L. W. Harvel of the Soil Conservation Service.

The minutes of the last previous meeting were read and approved. The following is a list of applications for district assistance approved by the board: Crowell unit, Paul Parkhill; Quana unit, H. Moseley, Louise Conley, Ester Bros., J. A. Howell, E. S. Maskey and L. H. West.

The following is a list of conservation plans approved by the board: Crowell unit, L. D. Fox, two places, Henry Ferguson, E. Schlager and Allen Fish; Quana unit, T. Hunter, Clyde Buchanan, J. T. Vantine and R. R. Donaghey.

There was discussion of the availability of fertilizer distributors for sale. The committee appointed to check on this item had been unable to locate any desirable units. A letter to the company producing the Ezezy Flow brought circular advertising a new machine with attachments to place the fertilizer in the ground but it was priced over $700 and the board felt it was too high. It was decided to pass up purchasing fertilizer distributors at the present time, but to continue to watch for the availability of a desirable type machine.

Mr. Halbert turned over to the treasurer a check for $11,255 which he had received for the district from funds appropriated by the state for districts.

Mr. Halbert read a letter from the Fort Worth Press in which the board was requested to invite a Lion's Club within the district to be a sponsor along with the press in furnishing and presenting plaques to outstanding soil conservation farmers within the district.

Since the Quana Club had this honor last year, the board decided to invite the Crowell Club to participate in the program this year. If the Crowell Club declines, the Quana Club will be invited.

An election of board members was held. All officers were re-elected to positions previously held: Grady Halbert, chairman; W. C. Howard, vice chairman; O. T. Brandon, secretary.

Mr. Harvel presented the board with two supplements to the dis-

The American Hospital Association was formed more than fifty years ago by eight hospital superintendents. Its avowed purpose from the beginning was "to improve the quality and distribution of hospital care by exchanging ideas and discussing new techniques in hospital administration."

Today there are more than 4200 hospitals that are "active institutional members." The goal remains the same, "better hospital care." With the many resources of the American Hospital Association now available to our hospital, those responsible for its administration face the future with added confidence that its service to the community will continue to improve.

The wildcat oil test eight miles west of Crowell was spudded in Monday and drilling started immediately. The well will be known as the Beryle Dodson Self No. 1 and is located 330 feet from north and west lines of section 8, block A, SP survey, north of the Crowell - Paducah highway. Contract depth of the new well is 5,000 feet.

team has defeated each of its opponents by three touchdowns or more thus far this year and should give this district the best representation that it has had in several years. This year's Wildcat squad gave Crowell the best record that it has produced since 1945. The following eight seniors were playing their last game for Crowell: Gordon Wood Bell, Harold Ribble, Charles Pittillo, Jimmy Rasberry, Jon Sanders, Buster Laquey, Hack Norman and Jim Tom Cates. This is Thayne Amonett's and Gordon Erwin's second year at the helm of the Wildcat squad.

First break of the game came early in the first period. Don Gobin, Crowell quarterback, attempted a pitch-out to Jon Sanders. The ball rolled free and Cletus Alexander recovered for Olney on the Crowell 30. Alexander and Schmidt carried to the one. Alexander went over for the score. Schmidt converted to lead 7-0.

Crowell gridders took over on their own 35 after the following kickoff. They drove to the Olney 47. Here the powerful Cub line held and Jimmy Rasberry kicked to the Olney 25. The Cubs went 85 yards to score again.

Don Lunsford pitched a perfect pass to Back Walter Bryan on the Crowell 30. Bryan outran the safety man to score. Sanders blocked Schmidt's extra point try.

The first quarter ended Olney 13, Crowell 0.

In the second period Olney drove 80 yards in 12 plays for its third score. Schmidt plowed over from the seven for the touchdown and converted to give Olney a 20-0 lead.

Crowell pounced on an Olney fumble 8 minutes deep in the second quarter on the Cub 9-yard line.

Hack Norman and Sanders carried to the 4. Gobin fumbled a fourth down pass try and Olney took over. At the half the score was still 20-0.

Olney drove 87 yards to score again in the third period with Schmidt covering the final 32. The attempted conversion failed.

An intercepted pass early in the fourth period set up Olney's last touchdown.

Schmidt passed 39 yards to Charles Bentley on the Crowell 5. Alexander went over two plays later. Schmidt converted.

Sanders and Buster Laquey alternated in a 61-yard drive to the Olney 4. Olney was penalized to the one-yard line. Sanders ran over for the only Crowell score. His try for point failed. Crowell drove to the Olney 5 late in the game, but a field goal attempt by Sanders missed.

Olney and Albany will meet in Olney tomorrow night (Friday) at 8:00 p. m. to determine the bi-district champion of Districts 9-A and 10-A.

Hospital Bonds Voted Several Months Ago and $52,225 in Federal Funds to Be Used to Improve Foard County Hospital

The Foard County Hospital's $104,500 addition and alteration project was assured Friday with news that $52,225 in federal funds had been approved.

The U. S. Public Health Service in Washington informed Senator Lyndon B. Johnson that funds to match Foard County's $52,225 hospital bond issue would be granted.

The approval makes possible drastic changes in the old hospital building, erected here in April, 1941, by WPA labor. Currently the one-story hospital has only 13 or 14 beds, mainly in wards, and has limited special facilities.

Under the preliminary plans and specifications, the new arrangement calls for about 16 private rooms, all with adjoining private or shared baths; four wards with two beds each, including one ward each for Negro, Mexican, white women and white men patients.

Two new wings to be added to the building will house the operating room, a new delivery room, a new emergency room and the laboratory; and an isolation ward, an X-ray department and the kitchen.

YOU CAN'T WIN 'EM ALL
 Whenever individuals undertake any type of activity, their first thought is to the success that they will achieve; what gains the proposed activity will bring them and the prestige that they will enjoy from their fellow associates. Rarely, do people ever stop to think what will happen if their plans do not materialize as they have planned.

There is also another aspect that should be considered when making plans for the future, plans in regard to the margin of error that always has a place in human endeavors. This is not meant to indicate that we should take a negative attitude before we start. Rather, we should face all of our enterprises objectively and realistically, and plan for the mistakes

Mr. Dan Goldsmith, 3024 Curron Road, Louisville, Ky., owner of Coogla Cut Rate Store at 935 West Broadway, says there just aren't enough words in the English language to praise HADACOL correctly. He says he knows most folks don't realize what a change HADACOL can make in their life if their systems are deficient in Vitamins B, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin.

Here is Mr. Goldsmith's statement:
 "Before I started taking HADACOL I was run down and nervous — and had a hard time sleeping nights. With my work in the store I have to spend sometimes 14 hours a day on my feet. Since I am in the retail business I saw how many folks were asking for HADACOL so I decided to try it myself. After the first couple of bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now I have all the pep and energy in the world, my nerves are steady as ever and I really do get a good night's rest. HADACOL is wonderful — I not only take it, but recommend it to all my customers. I praise the day Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc put HADACOL on the market."

HADACOL is So Different
 Thousands are benefiting from HADACOL... whose systems lack Vitamins B, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every body organ — to every part of the body.
 Give remarkable HADACOL a chance and if you don't feel better with the first few bottles you take — you get your money back. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

that are possible because of the human element in everything we do. If planning for possible failure, the jolt won't be so bad when things do go wrong.
 This same principle applies when watching our team in athletic contests. Not everyone is a winner; someone has to leave the field in defeat — defeat as far as the score is concerned. The great Knute Rockne, who probably stands out as the winner of more ball games than any other coach in the history of athletics, once said as his team fell to a much weaker opponent: "You can't win 'em all." He recognized defeat, not as defeat itself, but as something that had a winning element contained in it even though the score was to his disfavor. He accepted the mistakes that his boys made — mistakes that they made while trying to do their best. They had proved themselves before; he knew they could do a good job; but there comes a time for everyone who is human when failure — temporary failure — is inevitable.
 No one loses respect for a man who fails. We lose respect for the failure who is consistently a failure and does nothing about it. By accepting the errors, he showed that they could do, they had done it, and would do a much better job the next time.
 People and fans who do not accept defeat gracefully register only their own lack of confidence in the things that they are supposedly supporting. The fan who boos and the fan who supports his team only when he sees them winning, is not a fan. It would be better if he stayed over on the other side all the time. His place is with the opponents. It's very easy to accept victory; it's difficult to be defeated, because in defeat we accept everything about ourselves, in victory, we accept only our best. Since human beings are made up of both good and bad, the man who is happy only in victory shows himself up as he really is when he loses. And then the negative phase of his personality sticks out a mile, and it isn't easily forgotten. People stay away from him. His friends slowly leave him. We know that we continually try to look our very best to people. Accepting defeat as gracefully as we look upon victory, we'll always keep our best foot forward, and we'll always seem a desirable individual to those that live around us.

WILDCAT BAND HOLDS BANQUET
 The Crowell Wildcat Band held its annual banquet on Saturday night, November 18, in the spacious banquet room of the Henderson Cafe at Quanah.

Walking through the main entrance of the banquet hall, girls in formal and boys in their "Sunday best" entered a gayly decorated room, made festive by the use of the appropriate theme, music. The first thing to be seen was the figurine, a drum major, dangling from the top of the entrance. Notes, rest signs, and other music symbols cut from glittering gold paper, ornamented the walls. At the front of the banquet hall was a large sign, featuring a music staff on which was lettered, "The Band Played On." Under the sign was a trumpet flanked on each side by a saxophone, suggesting representation of all band instruments. Billowy streamers of deep blue were draped softly about the room, forming a background for the other decorations.

At the head of the horse-shoe shaped banquet table was a huge arrangement of blue carnations and white gladioli, placed in a gold-colored vase which matched wall decorations. The table, laid with a cloth of white linen, was accented by tiny blue men, made from pipe filters, and representing band members. Serving as place cards were miniature music stands, on which rested music staffs with the band member's name written in letter and notes corresponding to the letters. The program and menu were printed in gold on small folders.

CHS'S BILL STERN (ALIAS MARION CROWELL) STILL ANNOUNCING AFTER 10 YEARS

As a man who has announced football at the Wildcat Stadium for 10 years, Marion Crowell says that in his opinion the Seymour-Crowell game of this year was the best.
 Marion graduated from CHS in 1927. He says, "I didn't play football, for I was only fifteen and was probably too small. Liking all sports, he played basketball, baseball and tennis.
 "Back in those days," he informed us, "everyone was interested in debating." In this, he took an active part.
 Marion was born and reared in Crowell, Texas. Since the town of Crowell was named for his grandfather, he is a true Crowellite.
 After graduation from High School, Marion attended John

Tarleton and Texas Tech.
 Mr. Crowell devotes most of his time to his business, the Crowell Radio Shop, and his family who live on North Main Street. His wife, who is an ex-CHSite, was the former Ida Pearl Harris. The Crowells have three children, Janice, Thomas and Elaine.
 Marion looks forward to more progress and growth both for Crowell and CHS.

At a recent ball game, something happened to the connections of the loud speaker. Everyone then realized how much he was missing that familiar voice when the announcing started again during the third quarter.
 But for the future, namely next year, Marion will be announcing those football games and whooping it up for the Wildcats.

THANKSGIVING DINNER
 On Thursday of last week, if you happened along around the vicinity of the Homemaking department at just the right time you probably smelled such mouth-watering aromas as those of yummy baked chicken, cranberry sauce and all of the trimmings that everyone thinks of when Thanksgiving dinner is mentioned.
 The sophomore Homemaking girls gave a Thanksgiving dinner, and each girl invited a guest. This made about forty-five girls attending.
 Colorful Thanksgiving tablecloths and black turkeys silhouetted against the window shades gave the room a gay, festive air.
 On the tables were tiny orange pumpkins which had this menu written inside: baked chicken, dressing, cranberry sauce, creamed peas, mashed potatoes, vegetable salad, hot rolls, heavenly hash muffins and iced tea.
 Six selected freshmen girls made excellent waitresses for the occasion.

BOY FRIEND FAILS TO APPROVE FEMINE IDEAS ABOUT FOOTBALL
 I saw my first football game last Friday. I don't understand it exactly, but I noticed right off that they were kind of rough.
 First thing that happened, two of the boys went out to the middle of the field and flipped a coin. I don't know who won it or how much money it was, but it seemed like a funny way to start a game.
 They all started spreading out over the field, but one of them found a ball on the ground and kicked it at some of the others. Then the rest of them started chasing him down the field. One of them caught it and they all chased him. I thought it was mean for them all to chase one boy.
 Finally he put it down and they all started fighting over it. They got very unfriendly about it. I thought maybe they weren't on speaking terms at first, because when he put the ball down, they all lined up and it seemed like some were going to stay on their side of the line, but pretty soon they were fighting over it again.
 I think some of them were scared to play very rough because they seemed very mad but kept putting a couple of sticks with a chain on them into the ground over at the side, and didn't get into the fight at all.
 There were about four of them who were pretty friendly though. They were wearing their underwear or their pajamas — any way, it was blue striped. They kept waving at each other after the boys would put down the ball. I thought it was nice of them to wave so often.

 Sometimes the men in the underwear would drop their red handkerchiefs. I thought they were probably the clowns like at the rodeo, but I kept expecting to see a bull chase them, but my boy friend said no, they weren't clowns. I guess they weren't because I didn't see any bull. I did hear some boy say something about a referee and a bunch of bull.
 When one of the boys got hold of the ball, he ran down the field ahead of the others and I supposed he was going to go home with it now that he had it, but I guess he felt mean about it, because he got down by two posts and turned around and gave it to the men in underwear.
 All of a sudden everybody started shouting and yelling. . . . I hollered too. My boy friend seemed tired of telling me about the game, but he told me that when one of them carried the ball over the goal line, you are supposed to cheer.
 Pretty soon another boy got hold of the ball and ran way down the field. He crossed the goal so I got up and started cheering and yelling. Nobody else cheered and everybody stared at me.
 My boy friend told me you were just supposed to cheer for our team. How was I to know they had teams? I thought it was a free for all.
 My boy friend refuses to take me to any more football games — I really don't know why — I thought it was fun.

PEP SQUAD SPONSORS BONFIRE
 Thursday evening, November 16, Wildcat football fans and boosters assembled north of the high school building for a Bonfire Pep Rally sponsored by the Wildcat Pep Squad. The bonfire was previous to the Olney-Crowell game, the most important game of the season.
 At the appointed time, the Wildcat Band formed an aisle, down which marched the co-captains, Jon Sanders and Hack Norman, carrying the dummy which represented the Olney Cubs. Announcing the beginning was a cornet fanfare. Following this procession was Freshman Rebecca Calvin, carrying a bouquet of onions which were presented as the dummy was burned in effigy. Rousing yells boomed the spirit of the Wildcats while a march played by the Wildcat Band was enjoyed by everyone.
 Much work, time, and effort was given to make the bonfire a success. Some of the faithful workers were the cheerleaders, Bobby Weiss, Jimmy Stinebaugh, Billy Halecack, Rebecca Calvin, Bobbie Abston, Margaret Thompson, Jean Hughston, Rosemary Moss, Bobbie Spears, Faye Black, Norma Jones, Wanza Spears and Joline Wallace.
RAGS TO RICHES
 The seniors have been working very hard the past two weeks, adding to the funds that will enable them to go on their senior trip. After industriously working at their projects to make as much money as possible before the end of football season, the seniors feel that they are at least on the road to success.

 Hack Norman, "Tiny" Edgin, Buster Laquey and Jimmie Jones looked very effeminate sewing pillow covers last week. In case you wonder what they were doing, they were just four of the many seniors and of the class mothers who formed an assembly line to put out 221 pillows that were rented at the Olney-Crowell ball game. Cotton for stuffing the pillows was donated by the cotton gins of Crowell and Thalia, students and other individuals. Material for covers was brought to school by the juniors and seniors.
 Large quantities of sandwiches, coffee, cake, candy and bottle drinks were on sale Friday night at the senior stand. This food was brought to the stand by the seniors. At each ball game, the class mothers, Mrs. Joe Rader, Mrs. H. E. Thomson, Mrs. Roy Barker, Mrs. J. B. Rasberry and Mrs. Jim Cates, and designated seniors have worked in the stand selling their wares.
 The total profit of the funds taken in Friday night has not yet been disclosed, but it has been estimated that around three hundred dollars belongs to the seniors. Keep it up, Seniors, you're on your way to Galveston!

HIGH SCHOOL DANCE A SUCCESS
 "All high school students are invited to a dance at the Community House following the Crowell-Black and J. W. Sollis."
 Everyone seems to have taken this notice to heart, because there was certainly a big crowd at the dance.
 Dancers were greeted at the door by strains of "Stardust" from the record player. This is apparently the favorite dance because requests for it came frequently. "Tzena, Tzena, Tzena" was a popular polka record. Bill Caddell called "Two Little Sisters."

THE WILDCAT

for two squares and the "Oklahoma Star" for two more square dances. Several couples braved the jitterbugging records, and they really did well.

Just about the time everyone had danced their feet off, Henry said, "Get your partners for the last dance after which we bid you all good night and a happy Easter." The last dance was the strains of "Goodnight Irene."

Everyone had a wonderful time, and we're hoping Mr. Black and Mr. Sollis will sponsor another one real soon. (Hint, Hint).

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

There is a long pass downfield to touchdown. Jim Norman for a touchdown. Jim is the pass "snagger" for the Wildcats. He is a sophomore and has two more years to play, and he is also a two-year letterman.

If Jim can touch the ball, he has it sacked up.

WILDCAT BUZZIN

After the C. H. S. Dance Friday night, I wonder if I will be too frightened to report my findings. That "Sweetpea" Owens certainly can loosen her limbs, when she dances with Billy Joe. Other dancers: Martin Langham and Posey Autry, Bubba Bell and Geraldine Schmittou, Joe Jones and Marcia Kincaid, Jon Sanders and Bobbie Abston and Betty Barker and Buster Laquey.

Say now, did you hear about the new couples around CHS: Jimmy Woods, Carla Manning; Kildee Cates, Noma Kelly; Ginger Johnson, Melba Coker; Doyle Sparks and Mary Bergt.

Attention all you CHS students and anyone else interested! If you feel like laughing, but can't find anything to laugh about, find Nell Johnson. She always has laugh for you up her sleeve.

Know what? Neva Lou and Joe Harris still have "That" look in their eyes.

Have you ever seen such ambitious girls as Betty Fern, Bobbie and Maurine, who can stay up until 6:00 talking while Frankie, Myra and Mary Alice had to have their beauty sleep.

Carolyn Bell seems terribly interested in the cutest boy! But since Billy Abston is so nice looking, wouldn't they make an attractive couple? Surely, you will all agree that Carolyn is awful "easy on the eyes."

Don Brown seems to be a card that needs to be dealt with!

Martha Ohr is the light of Bob Haynie's eyes.

The reason Maurine had a happy look all week end was because

F. L. was home.

Wonder why we never see Roy Whitley with a girl? There are plenty who would surely like to go with him. (Hint, hint).

Bobbie Spears has no special fella nowadays, we hear. What are you waiting for, boys?

What's this about Helen Ribble having a misunderstanding with her "fly boy" Friday night?

Has Jackie Raspberry got a secret love? She's awfully happy about something.

Boys, we'd like to see with a girl are Billy Johnson, Don Gobin, and Charles Wishon.

Who does Norma Jones save her smiles for, we wonder?

Barbara White had a "fly boy" in her company Sunday afternoon. What boy holds Ruth McRae's heart?

Friday night Max Hardin seemed to be more interested in Jo Ann Dixon than in the ball game. Melba, Layton and Norma, Sebe seemed to have had fun crossing a creek Sunday.

Now, after this paper goes to press, I can think only of Thanksgiving dinner, Turkey, cranberry sauce, gravy, hot rolls, etc. That will give me an inspiration for the next issue.

KOREAN HEROES UNDERPAID

Drew Pearson is one of the most controversial of all the columnists. He has thousands of warm admirers and thousands of bitter enemies. Most of his columns make a point of stepping hard on many toes—and the more prominent the toes, the better. However, one of his recent items is likely to be given near-unanimous approval. It discusses the bad financial deal the infantry soldier receives, by comparison with his compatriots in other branches of military service.

Writes Mr. Pearson, "Under the current army pay system, the real heroes in the Korean war are drawing the least pay. They don't even get a fair share of the glory when the publicity and medals are doled out.

"These unsung heroes are the infantrymen, who form the army's battering ram, but who are not paid as much as the technical men and the pencil pushers behind the lines." He goes on to say that the average monthly pay of a member of a rifle company is $135, as compared with $226 for an air force combat crewman and $172 for a submariner. Combat infantrymen once got a $10 a month bonus, but this is no longer given.

Moreover, according to Mr. Pearson, infantrymen are actually the poorest paid of all the troops in the army. Ordnance, signal corps, armored force, quartermaster, artillery and everyone else does better financially. And the ironical part of it is that all these other troops are, basically, simply the infantry's support. They exist for the sole purpose of aiding the infantry in its grim task of closing with and capturing or destroying the enemy. If the infantry fails to do that, the cause is always doomed.

Relatively little stress was placed on the infantry in the so-called New Army we heard so much about a year or so ago. This was to be pretty much the mechanized army, the push button army, in which almost everyone would be a technician of some kind. The Korean war changed that concept, and with a vengeance. It was infantry—the poor, bloody infantry of legend—that fought the delaying actions in the dreadful early weeks. At times the situation became so desperate that service troops had to be given rifles, canteens, and bandoliers of ammunition, and sent into the line as infantrymen. And, finally, it was infantry, Army and Marine, which accomplished the brilliant later successes.

Infantry takes the beating in war. It suffered 70 per cent of the casualties in World War II, perhaps a higher percentage in Korea. Yet, Mr. Pearson says, in World War II it got only 11.6 per cent of the medals. And, as noted before, it is way down the line at the pay table.

Chrysler Expects Banner Year of Production in 1951

Representatives from among 138 Chrysler - Plymouth dealers in Texas met in Dallas this week to hear Chrysler Division plans for 1951 from David A. Wallace, president of the division, and Joseph A. O'Malley, the general sales manager.

Mr. Wallace declared that Chrysler apparently has every reason to expect a banner year in production because of an improved product and increased manufacturing facilities. He qualified his statement, however, with the warning that certain elements in the future are problematical and that nobody can be sure what the materials situation will be next year or to what extent the government might deem it necessary to curtail those available for general manufacturing purposes.

Mr. O'Malley, included in his talk a discussion of parts and service and used-car operations in terms of existing and anticipated conditions in the industry. The meeting was one of a series that will eventually cover most of the country.

THINGS ONE REMEMBERS

by R. M. Hofer

It is the lot of few men to start working with an organization when it has only six employees and remain with for half a century while it grows to be national in scope and occupies its own skyscraper in New York City.

But that was the lot of W. E. Mallalieu who started with the National Board of Fire Underwriters as an electrical inspector. He is retiring December 31. Since 1910 he has been general manager of the world's greatest fire insurance organization. He has rendered fifty years of service to the nation and the fire insurance business in life and property saving. He has been a tireless worker for fire insurance extension and fire prevention. In World Wars I and II he was a dollar-a-year man giving his specialized knowledge of fire protection to help safeguard the nation's military and naval establishments. These are a few of his tangible activities from which millions of persons benefit.

On the intangible side, Mr. Mallalieu has helped keep insurance sound and progressive by his unshakable faith in our American system of government and enterprise, and his belief in the individual's civic, governmental and religious responsibilities. His combination of diplomacy, human interest, experience and sense of sound public relations built nationwide respect for the National Board of Fire Underwriters and its service to the public. On the reserve list of the National Board his counsel will still be invaluable to those who carry on its great work.

TWO CENTS OUT OF A DOLLAR

The financial experience of a large group of department stores for the first half of the year was recently tabulated. It was found that the stores had much better earnings than in the same period the year before. Yet their profit, after taxes, amounted to only 2.1 per cent of their sales. In the comparable period in 1949, it was 1.2 per cent.

Here is the answer to those who think retailers are able to keep a large part of the money spent with them—and to those who make it a habit to blame the retailer every time the price of something goes up. Actually, most of the money that flows through the cash registers flows right out again for stocks, for wages, for taxes and for rent.

The improved financial experience of the stores during the first half of the year was principally due to the July wave of scare-buying which sent that month's sales far ahead of the same month the year before. The stores didn't ask for or want that kind of buying. Many of them, including both chains and independents, went to considerable lengths to discourage it. The retailers' work in this regard undoubtedly did much to cause scare-buying to subside sharply after the first few weeks. Every retailer must make a profit if he is to continue to do business—the profits business never lasts long. But, in the vast majority of cases, that profit is far smaller than most consumers think.

NO SOLUTION

Those who think rationing and price controls offer the solution to the price problem should review a little recent history.

First of all, ceilings discourage production. As an example, there was a drastic 30 per cent cutback in the pig crop of 1944 from 1943 levels. This was in large part due to an OPA announcement reducing both the hog support price and the ceiling price. Cattle production was also discouraged by the early beef freeze regulations, which froze prices as of March, 1942, when the spread between grades was seasonally narrow. Finally, as a general principle, price ceilings discourage the storage of products in periods of the year when supplies are large to offset the seasonally short production during the other seasons.

Second, price controls and rationing are a great boon to the black market. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, a survey made in mid-1946 showed that 85 per cent of the stores had no veal, more than four-fifths were without pork loins, ham or bacon, and almost seven out of every 10 had no beef or lamb. The late Mayor La Guardia reported similar results for inspections made under his direction. In March 1945, Chester Bowles, OPA Administrator, said: "We estimate above-ceiling prices on food cost American families $1,000,000,000 a year."

Later surveys showed that an important segment of this overcharge was on meat. Here are some of the inevitable results of artificial interference with the system of supply and demand—and of free competition in a free market. The so-called cure harms the patient more than the disease. All concerned, from producer through to the consumer suffer.

WORE OUT WELCOME

The "Man Who Came to Dinner" and forgot to leave was just "an afternoon caller" compared to Emperor Charlemagne who ruled western Europe about 800 A. D. When the great emperor and his court visited an estate, they would stay "until they had eaten all the pigs, game, vegetables, fruit and grain. Then, finally, they would pack up and move on."

Camels and pigs are said to be unable to swim.

Electric magnets at the rear of the nail picker collect loose metal objects. The magnets are activated by a large generator in the bed of the truck and are strong enough to pick up manhole covers. Gathered in this pile of scrap metal are 2000 potential punctures.

In The News... 30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of Friday, Nov. 26, 1950:

B. F. Allison of Charley, former resident of Crowell, died of gun shot wounds he received when a man attempted to rob him as he was closing his drug store last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Reeder and sons, Tom and Glendon, visited friends and relatives in Knox City the first of the week.

G. C. Morgan and family have arrived in Covina, Calif., and have purchased a home there. They made the trip in a Ford touring car, but encountered much bad weather on the trip.

Some of our "cullud g'men" have been caught making chob beer right here in town, officers report.

Mrs. Paul Fields was called to Rochester last Saturday by the death of her father, Dr. R. H. Greenwade.

Gordon Bell came in Saturday from Dallas to spend Thanksgiving with homefolks.

Mrs. Counts Ray has accepted a position as stenographer at the Bank of Crowell.

N. J. Roberts and J. R. Beverly went to Wichita Falls Tuesday on business, returning Wednesday.

Drilling was started in earnest on the Beverly wildcat oil test north of town the first of the week. S. B. Nye of Buffalo, N. Y., vice president of the Mid-Continent Oil Co., which is drilling the well, was here Wednesday looking over the field.

R. E. Goodwin of Odessa was here this week visiting his sister, Miss Flora E. Goodwin, county home demonstration agent.

PASSENGER MILES

The common unit of passenger transportation is the passenger-mile, representing one passenger carried one mile. The average revenue of the railroads for a passenger-mile in 1948 was 2.34 cents, compared with 1.88 cents in 1938, and 3.09 cents in 1921.

High Blood Pressure—Bad Heart

One out of four will die: According to insurance records, for every million people 45 years of age or over, 25 per cent will die from heart disease. To express it another way, one out of every 4 men and women past 45 will die from heart failure. When judged by the ever-increasing death rate from heart disease, the future for the average heart sufferer, therefore, is discouraging, unless steps are taken to remedy the underlying causes responsible. What is a matter of personal concern to you is the frequency of heart disease that is preventable and post-ponable.

Read this testimonial: Elmer G. Johnson, president of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, suffering with hardening of the arteries, pains in left arm and side, writes: "Please send another bottle of Garlex, liquid garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mass. I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of Garlex used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here, has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. A friend of ours in San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This Garlex works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

If you are ailing or suffering from high blood pressure, arthritis, rheumatism, indigestion or flatulency, chances are that Garlex can help you, $5, $3 and $1.75. Ferguson Rexall Drug. 18-4tc (Adv.)

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

I listened the other day, to an address by an individual who was disturbed because of the condition in which he saw this country and because of the blundering manner in which, in his opinion, the leadership of this country is handling its affairs, both political and financial.

I presume such talks are necessary to arouse us from our complacency even though the arousing may be but temporary, but I like my speakers, after they call attention to the dangers that lie ahead, to point out some practical, sensible plan that can be employed to correct the situation and save for us a country and way of life that we have come to love.

I will admit that at times the business of the government appears to be ineptly handled. We are and have been doing too many foolish things. We call upon people to pay heavy taxes—and, after having secured the taxes, which are the fruits of thrift and industry and self-denial, we are throwing much of the money away in wasteful spending. It is wrong. It should be stopped.

I realize and admit, that in our effort to establish in the world a form of government that will give to mankind the largest measure of freedom and liberty, we have fallen into some perilous practices, and have made many costly mistakes.

Our foreign policy may be woefully wrong. I do not know. The Marshall plan may be a big impractical dream. I do not know. Our inconsistencies in our dealing with other nations may be glaring and inexcusable. I do not know. A lot of things we have done, and which all of us believed at the time they were done were the right and the wise thing to do, times has proven were not.

This I do know and this I believe: The efforts that this country has made have always been prompted by the best of motives. The mass of Americans stand for the best things of life, not only for their own country but for other nations of the world. They have felt the things that they were doing were contributions toward that end. That many of these have failed has been due to the fact that human nature being what it is, has not been able always to measure up to its highest concepts. Somewhere in the scheme, the little, the greedy, the selfish, the ruthless, the ignorant and the criminal have intervened and thwarted the whole glorious scheme. Since creation's dawn it has been like this.

Recognizing and admitting all of these failures and shortcomings I have a conviction that in God's time things will work out for the best. I do not know what will be the extent of our sacrifice, but when I look back over the course that the people of this country have come in the relatively few years that we have been a nation, I have hope. I believe that we have the perseverance, the faith and the genius to solve our problems and build upon the ruins of each failure a new way of life, finer and better than that which preceded it.

In our effort to do this we have made many mistakes. We will make many more. We have wasted our resources, financial and others. We are going to waste more. We are going to blunder much.

Protein Supplement Increases Calf Crop

"Next spring's calf crop percentage will depend a lot on what's done this fall and winter with the brood herd," a timely editorial recently in "The Livestock Weekly" pointed out.

"There are too many beef herds that are hitting well below 50 per cent on calf crops," the editorial added. "In most cases, a protein supplement will go a long way in balancing the ration of the wintering cow, and upping the calf crop."

Experimental evidence backs up this editorial advice. Many experiments show that each dollar spent for needed protein supplements returns two dollars in more and heavier calves.

California Experiment Station, in an eight-year experiment, found that feeding a winter supplement, mostly cottonseed meal or cake, produced from 11 to 45 per cent more calves, and calves from cows fed the supplement weighed 21 to 95 pounds more.

The Nebraska station doubled the calf crop percentage and increased weaning weights by 39 to 77 pounds per calf when cottonseed cake was fed as the winter supplement to prairie hay.

There is a good reason why such protein supplements as cottonseed meal, cake or pellets increase the number of calves and their weaning weights. Protein is essential for regular breeding, development of strong calves, and milk production. Excellent green pasture contains a lot of protein, but protein drops rapidly as grass matures. Mature grasses usually contain only about one-third as much protein as they had when green. Then, supplemental protein is needed to maintain good performance in the herd and aid utilization of the available dry forage.

Best results are obtained when supplemental feeding starts early in the season. When cows lose weight they are drawing on their reserves and weight losses are costly to replace with later feeding. Cows that enter the more severe part of the winter in good flesh because of early supplemental feeding are easier to maintain and are usually in vigorous condition to calve and produce milk for the young calf.

As grasses become dry in the fall, start bred cows on one-half to one pound of cottonseed cake, per head daily. As winter progresses, increase the daily allowance to 1 to 2 pounds. After calving, feed 2 to 3 pounds per head daily, to insure good milk production for the young calf and maintain good condition for prompt breeding when the bulls are turned into the pasture.

When plenty of dry grass is not available, some dry roughage or silage is needed. Under usual conditions, feed cows 5 to 10 pounds of dry roughage when grazing is short or weather is severe. When grazing is extremely short or when cattle are confined to lots in severe weather, feed 15 to 20 pounds of dry roughage or 40 to 50 pounds of silage.

Two beautiful young German actresses, though well-known in Germany, make their debut in an American film in "The Big Lift," coming on November 26 and 27 at the Rialto Theatre. Cornell Borchers and Bruni Lobel are the names of the lovely frauleins who get their first big break opposite Montgomery Clift and Paul Douglas in this comic but suspenseful story of the adventures of two Berlin airlift fliers. Filmed in Berlin by Twentieth Century-Fox, "The Big Lift" was written and directed by George Seaton, and produced by William Perlberg.

Cattle raisers in cotton states find that cottonseed hulls are economical and easy to feed when dry roughage is needed. A good mineral mixture is especially needed in fall and winter seasons because the phosphorous content of forage drops as it matures. During this season cottonseed meal or cake has added value because its high phosphorous content helps insure sufficient phosphorous consumption by cattle.

Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Westbrook of Truscott were named honorees at a reception held Sunday afternoon in the lobby of the Truscott Hotel with their son and daughters as hosts on the occasion of the golden anniversary of the marriage of their parents.

The couple was married in Crowell on Nov. 18, 1900. Their children, who were hosts at the reception, are J. Horace Westbrook of Clovis, N. M., Mrs. M. A. Morgan of Canadian, Mrs. Joe Crump of Abilene and Mrs. Earl Kent of Amarillo. There are three grandchildren, Miss Barbara Kent of Amarillo, Reginald Crump of Abilene and Joe Morgan of Canadian.

The serving table, laid with a cutwork linen cloth, was centered with a gold-framed picture of Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook, when they were first married, encircled by two large gold wedding rings and an arrangement of bronze mums and gold ribbon. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake inscribed with the words, "50th Wedding Anniversary," occupied one end of the table and the silver coffee service the other.

Mrs. W. A. Miller, Mrs. Horace Westbrook and Mrs. Pliny Ullom alternated at the coffee service while the cake was served by Mrs. Gene Kennedy and Mrs. M. A. Morgan. Others in the house party were Miss Barbara Kent, Reginald Crump, Mrs. Joe Morgan and Bill Clark. Mrs. Joe Crump was in charge of the gifts at the gift table, where the many appropriate gifts of remembrance to the honorees were arranged.

More than one hundred and fifty guests called during the reception hours.

Mrs. Westbrook was Miss Sallie Ayers and was born at Comanche Springs, McLellan County, in 1879. Her parents moved to Hardeeman County in 1880, before Foard County was organized. They located on a farm near Margaret, then the county seat of Hardeeman County. The family later moved to Crowell where the marriage of the couple took place.

Mr. Westbrook was born at Eastland on Feb. 7, 1877. He moved to Johnson County with his parents in 1880 and came to Knox County in August, 1890, and has resided in Knox and Foard Counties since that time. He has been engaged in farming and ranching, and at this time Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook reside in Truscott.

ROTARY CLUB

The Wednesday noon meeting of the Crowell Rotary Club was held at the Club Cafe with several visitors present. They were Rotarians Vance Favor and Quinn Baker of Quanah and Rotarian Bob Sherrill of Vernon. Also Mrs. Elmo Todd, Misses Peggy Weaver, Betty Barker and Joyzell Thomson and Bill Johnson, who furnished the program for the meeting.

The program was in charge of Luke Archer and the first number was "The Origin of Thanksgiving" by Betty Barker, followed by a duet, "A Song of Thankfulness to God" by Joyzell Thomson and Peggy Weaver, and a reading, "When the Frost Is on the Pumpkin" by Bill Johnson. The program was concluded with a duet, "Texas, Our Texas," sung by Misses Thomson and Weaver.

Miss Barker played the accompaniment for the two musical numbers and also for the songs sung by the Rotarians.

"Plans are being made — new buildings, new features — to make the show coming up the finest yet. We need your help and we're counting on you. So please let us know which day you wish designated as Crowell Day."

A total of $146,000 in cash awards is offered, the highest in the show's 55 years. A colorful Western parade on Friday afternoon, Jan. 26, through the Fort Worth business district will usher in the show, with the first performance of the rodeo that night, and afternoon and night performances thereafter.

Construction now underway includes the Poultry Building, doubling of space for carload-and-pen division of bulls and glassing in of the archways connecting the livestock buildings. The world's greatest indoor rodeo will be held in the magnificent Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. ## 1951 Model Fords Will Be on Display Friday, Nov. 24th

The 1951 Fords, featuring Fordomatic Drive, the new automatic transmission, will be introduced in Ford dealerships throughout the nation Friday, Nov. 24. George Self, owner and manager of Self Motor Co., announces that a new model Ford will be on display in their newly-decorated show room.

"Ford cars for 1951 accomplish notable refinements in styling, beauty, engineering, riding qualities, economy, safety and ease of handling," L. D. Cruse, vice president and general manager of Ford Division, announced.

Addition of the new automatic device will make available to Ford buyers a choice of three transmissions and two engines—six different power combinations in all.

Both the conventional three-speed transmission and the Ford overdrive will continue to be available. These, with the new Fordomatic Drive, will be offered with either the 100-horsepower V-8 or the improved 95-horsepower six engines.

Introduction of Fordomatic eliminates several years of intensive engineering research by the company to develop a fully automatic transmission that is simple to operate, economical, long wearing and easy to service. The device, which will be optional at extra cost, combines the advantages of a hydraulic torque converter and economical flow of power.

The distinctive styling of the 1949 and 1950 models has been retained, but with refinements and improvements both in interiors and exteriors.

A lowered hood, a new dual-spinner grille and a wider, longer wrap-around bumper give a more massive appearance to the front end. Parking lights are restyled and larger chrome headlamp rims extend beyond the lenses. Added chrome and new, larger tail lamps add to the appearance of the rear end.

Rear deck lids on the new Fords have been counter-balanced and are opened by a new key release lock. Springs then assist in raising the lid and hold it in the open position.

The new models have a wide range of color combinations, and a choice of upholstery, headlinings and other interior trim to harmonize with body colors. This wide choice is a Ford exclusive in the low-price field.

The '51 "Safety Glow" instrument panel is completely new. A "Chanalited" instrument cluster

Home Demonstration Notes

MARY DEEB BROWN

The Foard County Home Demonstration Council met Saturday, November 18, at 2:00 p. m. in the Agent's office with only four members present representing three of the five clubs in the county. Since there were not enough members present for a quorum, the members worked on final plans for the yearbook and got it all in order.

Most of the members were absent because of illness, and we are sorry they couldn't come.

We also made tentative plans for a Council Christmas party for all the new and old members of Council. It will be held at the regular council meeting time on December 16th.

This is Thanksgiving week so adds safety and convenience, and the speedometer pointer has a glowing ring which encircles and illuminates the figure showing the speed. The instrument control knobs are mounted in depressed cups, each individually lighted.

Key starting is provided by the new ignition switch which incorporates the starter control. The steering wheel also is re-designed, with a full-circle horn ring on custom models. A posture control front seat is mounted on curved tracks, and when it is moved forward or backward, the entire seat assembly tips to the correct position for tall or short drivers. An assist spring moves the seat forward automatically.
