H. S. Cagers Tim 3 Out of 4 Played Last Week

The Crowell High School basketball team won three of four games played the past week. The Wildcats defeated Turkey 38 to 27 and Patton Springs 46 to 9 before dropping a 34 to 26 score to Quitaque in the Matador tournament last week end. Quitaque defeated Carey in the finals for the tournament championship. The Crowell boys received some valuable experience in the three games that they played in the tournament.

The Wildcats defeated the Quannah Indians 29 to 27 at Quannah Tuesday night in one of the most thrilling games ever played between these schools. Crowell was leading the Indians by one point at the half-time, one point at the end of the third quarter, and by the two-point margin when the final horn was sounded.

Crowell's guards, Roy Whitley and Jon Sanders, did an excellent job with their floor work. They continually fed the ball into the other players when they were in better position to shoot at the basket than they themselves. Crowell's scoring was pretty well divided among all five players, with Jon Sanders leading with 16 points. Perry Ellis scored 12 points for Quannah.

The Crowell volleyball team won two out of three sets from Quannah girls. The following girls played for Crowell: Betty Barker, Joyzell Thomson, Frankie Labe, Peggy Weaver, Geraldine Schmittou, Mary Bergt, Rosemary Lass, Kay Cribbs, Bobbie Spears, Norma Mathews, Mary Matus, Bessie Franklin and Jackie Rasberry.

The following Crowell reserve basketball team defeated a similar Quannah team 38 to 13: Arthur Marlow, Billy Marlow, Marshall Langham, Charles Wishon, Ginger Johnson, James Hall, Wanda Hall and Don Gobin. Some of the "B" team's passing didn't quite measure up to what it should be. However, their playing as a whole was good. Charles Wishon was high in scoring with 13 points.

The Crowell fans are in for a treat here next Tuesday night when the Indians come here to play a visit. The volleyball ball will start at six o'clock, the "B" basketball game at seven, and the main event will get underway at eight o'clock.

Box score for Crowell-Quannah:

Crowell (29)	FG	FT	TP
Marlow	2	1	5
Bell	2	1	5
Norman	2	1	5
Sanders	4	1	9
Whitley	2	1	5

Flower Shop Observes 4th Birthday Saturday

Mrs. Mike Brown, Crowell Flower Shop owner, received a number of friends at the shop on Saturday afternoon and evening in response to her announcement of the opening of the Flower Shop. Mrs. Brown has recently made some alterations which add much to the attractiveness and convenience of her shop. She has enlarged the capacity several feet and added a picture window for the display of her merchandise. The added space makes for attractiveness of the shop as well as the convenience of customers.

Each lady who attended Open House was presented with a pretty corsage of flowers as a compliment from Mrs. Brown.

COMPLETES TRAINING

William Edward Thomas, sea-man recruit, United States Navy, son of Mrs. Hazel Thomas of Crowell, recently completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif., and is now available for assignment to a Fleet unit or to one of the Navy's schools for specialized training, according to a news release from the Fleet Home Town News Center in Great Lakes, Ill. During this period of training, he underwent intensive drill in such subjects as signaling, navigation, basic ordnance and seamanship. He also was indoctrinated into the ways of the Navy and learned the customs of the service.

NEW NIGHT WATCHMAN

Ed Adams has assumed the duties of night watchman of Crowell and has been acting in that capacity since Saturday night.

Price Controller

Washington, D. C. — Mayor Michael V. Disalle of Toledo, Ohio, is shown in the capitol after his conference with President Truman during which he accepted the post of director of price stabilization.

Banquet for CHS Football Squad Held Dec. 6th

The Crowell High School football squad had its annual banquet on Wednesday night of last week at the Henderson Cafe in Quannah. The tables were decorated in black and gold, with a gold football on the head table.

The following program was presented with Superintendent Grady Graves acting as toastmaster: invocation by Principal of the High School, Henry Black; song by Betty Barker and Bobbie Ruth Abston, accompanied by Geraldine Schmittou; introduction of players by Coach Thayne Amonett; comments on New Interscholastic League District by Coach Gordon Erwin; talk on Football Scouting by J. W. Sollis; and main speaker of the evening, backfield coach of Texas Tech at Lubbock, Tip Mooney. Coach Mooney presented the benefits derived from football by the players, and the coaching profession from a college coach's viewpoint. Coach Mooney also presented a football film of the Arizona-Texas Tech game that was played in November of this year.

ON MOVE

A letter received from Cpl. John H. Reynolds Tuesday of last week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Reynolds of Good Creek, stated that he was located 35 miles from the reservoir, but was being moved. The letter was written on Nov. 30.

Funeral for Mrs. Pearl Lovelady Held Thursday

The funeral of Mrs. Pearl Lovelady, who passed away in the Foard County Hospital on Tuesday, Dec. 5, was held in the Methodist Church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. Aubrey C. Haynes, officiating, assisted by Rev. Barnard Franklin, pastor of the Crowell Baptist Church, and Rev. Kenneth Teegarden, pastor of the First Christian Church of Vernon. Favorite songs of the family were sung by a choir, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Shirley. A special request number, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" was sung by H. E. Ferguson.

Interment followed in the Crowell Cemetery under the direction of the Womack Funeral Service. Pall bearers were D. R. Magee, J. W. Bruce, T. B. Klepper, Joe Ward, Oscar Gentry and Gordon Cooper. Flower bearers included Mrs. Lee Black, Mrs. Hubert Brown, Mrs. James Weiss, Mrs. Oscar Gentry, Mrs. Milton Hunter, Mrs. Moody Bursey, Mrs. Foster Davis, Mrs. T. S. Hancy and Mrs. T. G. Robertson.

The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and also of the Sunday School class, of which Mrs. Lovelady was a faithful member and worker, were named as honorary flower bearers.

Mrs. Lovelady was a consistent Christian lady and a member of the Methodist Church since early childhood. She was always found in her place and doing her duty. Her smile of friendliness and cheerfulness endeared her to her many friends. She was in attendance at church the day before she passed away.

She was born on May 3, 1884. She was married to P. S. Lovelady in Haskell County in 1900 and the couple moved to Foard County in 1919. Mrs. Lovelady passed away in 1927. Mrs. Lovelady reared their eight children. They are Horace Lovelady of Vernon, Wesley Lovelady of San Angelo, Richard and Lawrence Lovelady of Riverside, Calif., Berl Lovelady of Laguna Beach, Calif., Price Lovelady of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Henry Borchardt of Crowell and Mrs. Herbert Hermann of Woodland, Calif. All were present for their mother's funeral services.

Other survivors are one brother, John Leftett, of Pampa and nieces and nephews, as well as a large group of friends.

Present for the funeral from out-of-town were her children, the brother, John Leftett, and wife of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Leclair of Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ferguson of Seymour, Mrs. Henry Kilgore of Gainesville, Mrs. Tom Allen of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Clyde Eddy, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Borchardt, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Harroll Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stovall, Curtis Hogsett and Rev. Kenneth Teegarden, all of Vernon.

Christmas Tree Sales by Scouts Quite Successful

Business in the Christmas tree sale by the Boy Scouts has been remarkably good, so good, in fact, that all trees had been sold out on Tuesday. The Boy Scouts and their leaders wish to thank the people for their cooperation in this project.

On Wednesday, however, the Scouts received a shipment of some small trees and a shipment of various sizes is expected to arrive on Friday and the boys will be at their place of business until they are all sold.

Deer Turned Loose in Foard County

Picture above shows the truck-load of whitetail deer turned loose recently on Pease River in the northwest part of Foard County under the supervision of Charles Boynton of Quannah, local game warden. The Game Department truck, shown above, held 40 deer in all, 27 does and 13 bucks. The game preserve consists of 170,000 acres of land in the west and northwest portions of Foard County. No hunting of these animals will be allowed for five years.

4,443 Bales Cotton Ginned in County Up to December 1

There were 4,443 bales of cotton ginned in Foard County from the crop of 1950 prior to Dec. 1, 1950, as compared with 11,738 bales ginned to December 1, 1949, according to figures released by Ray Hurley, Chief, Agricultural Division, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., and given to the News for publication by A. Y. Beverly, county enumerator.

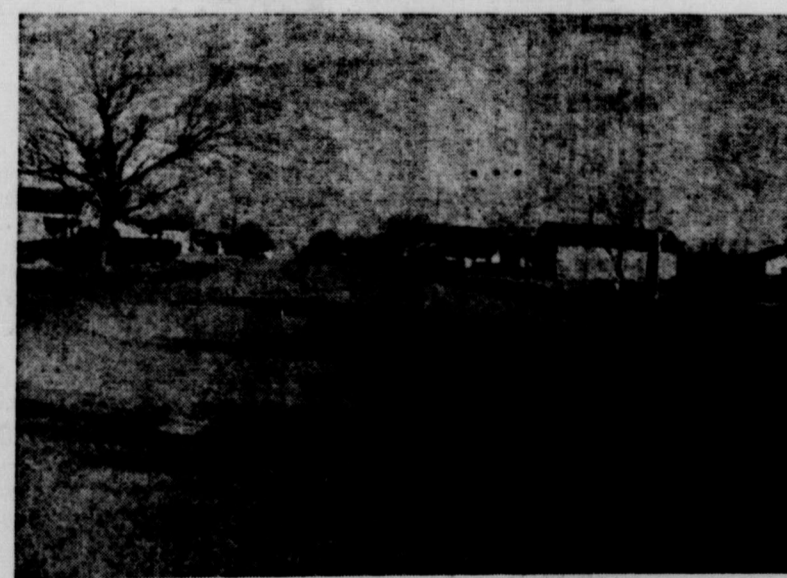

Gathering of the 1950 crop in this county is almost completed. The 1950 crop will probably be less than 5,000 bales.

Christmas Program Will Be Given at Christian Church

"The Star of Bethlehem Christmas program" will be presented at the Christian Church next Wednesday evening, Dec. 20, at 7:00 o'clock. Consisting of traditional Christmas carols sung by the choir and children's groups, Christmas stories, appropriate poems by the children, a dialogue, and other features, this program has been planned with the one purpose of exalting Jesus as the Christ and Savior of the world.

The Christian Church extends a sincere welcome to all people of this community to attend this Christmas program, and to unite in praising God through Jesus Christ for His continuous blessings.

Crowell Street Paving

This picture shows a strip of the paving now under construction in Crowell. This is North Second Street, and the picture was taken between the homes of J. H. Lanier Sr. and T. B. Klepper.

Under the supervision of Mayor Hubert Brown and members of the City Council, the paving project is making good progress. Approximately 80 blocks have been graveled and probably 40 or 50 of these will be hot-topped.

Parking Meters Receive Favorable Vote Wednesday

Four hundred ballots were cast in the election held at the City Hall Wednesday to decide whether a majority of the voters were in favor of keeping the parking meters or were against keeping them. Two hundred and twenty-one votes were cast for keeping the meters and 179 were against them.

M. S. Henry was judge of the election and was assisted by Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin, Mrs. E. A. Dunagan and Mrs. Marion Crowell.

The parking meters were installed in the City on July 3, 1950 for a trial period of six months. The City Council ordered a special election on Oct. 17 so the qualified voters of the city could decide by their ballots whether the parking meters should be kept in operation or be discontinued. The result of this election, as stated above, was 221 for and 179 against.

Jennings L. Goode of Austin Dies of Heart Attack

Jennings L. Goode of Austin, 44, assistant executive secretary of the Texas State Park Board and a former Crowell resident, died in a Palestine clinic Monday of last week after suffering a heart attack. He was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Goode and lived here with his parents during his boyhood days. He is a brother of Mrs. S. P. Ferguson of Crowell and Slaton.

Mr. Goode had been assistant executive secretary of the Park Board for three years. Prior to that, he was manager of the Bastrop State Park for 10 years.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 o'clock in Bastrop Wednesday of last week. Burial was in Austin with the Bastrop Masonic Lodge in charge. He was a member of the Bastrop Lodge and also a member of the Methodist Church in Bastrop.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen Lovett Goode, of Austin; one son, Bob Goode, a former All-Southwest Conference fullback at Texas A. & M. College and at present a member of the Washington Redskins professional football team; four brothers, Barron Goode of Bastrop, Tom Goode of Arizona, Minor Goode of Colorado, and Henley Goode of Washington, D. C.; and one sister, Mrs. S. P. Ferguson, of Slaton.

OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. R. Edgin, who lives with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rucker, on North Second Street, quietly observed her 83rd birthday Wednesday of last week, Dec. 6. Although Mrs. Edgin suffers from arthritis and has been confined to her bed for the past year, she maintains a cheerful, optimistic attitude.

Mrs. Edgin and her family came to Crowell from Erath County in 1904. Her husband died in January, 1931.

LIONS CLUB MEETS

The Lions Club had an interesting meeting in the Club Cafe Tuesday at noon with Lion Sweetheart Betty Barker in charge of the program.

A film on "Missions" was furnished by Rev. Barnard Franklin with the projector being operated by Wayne Shultz.

A vocal duet was rendered by Miss Barker and Miss Bobbie Ruth Abston as the concluding number of the program.

ROTARY CLUB

Rev. Carl Hudson, pastor of the Truscott-Foard City Methodist Churches, was a visitor and main speaker at the Wednesday noon luncheon of the Crowell Rotary Club at the Club Cafe.

J. B. Harlan was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker. Rev. Hudson spoke of the fast-moving tempo of the present age in America and stated that with all the modern conveniences, people do not have time to enjoy life as they should.

Other visitors at this meeting were Rotarians Quinn Baker and Vance Favor of Quannah, Rotarian Bud Harvel of Vernon and Rotarian George Hopkins of Abilene.

GARDEN CULTIVATING

Restrict your cultivating and hoeing in the vegetable garden to the top inch of soil. Deeper cultivation injures roots and cuts yields, says Successful Farming magazine. Don't cultivate right after a light rain; let water soak down first so as not to hasten evaporation by stirring the moist soil.

Funeral Services for Geo. Wright Held Friday, 2 P. M.

Funeral services for George Wright, 61, were held at the First Baptist Church last Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Barnard Franklin, who was assisted by Rev. Joe R. Green, pastor of the Margaret Baptist Church. Mr. Wright died in the Foard County Hospital at 11:40 a. m. Wednesday, following a long illness.

Pall bearers were Coy Payne, C. W. Ross, C. T. Murphy, J. L. Gobin, Audie Brown, Joe Sokora, Marshall Carroll and J. D. Huskey. Flower bearers were Mrs. Viola Wright, Mrs. Hazel Carr, Mrs. Gladys Bailey, Mrs. Myrtle Taylor, Mrs. R. E. Davis, Mrs. Martha Teague, Miss Letha Marlow, Mrs. Emma Bowers, Mrs. Coy Payne, Mrs. Myrtle Murphy, Mrs. Edith Wright, Mrs. Arlene Davis and Mrs. George Fox.

Mr. Wright was born in Goldville, Ala., August 3, 1889. He came to Foard County with his parents in 1900 and had lived in the Margaret community and at Crowell since that time. He was converted and joined the Baptist Church in Margaret in 1914 and lived a consistent Christian life. At the time of his death he was a member of the First Baptist Church of Crowell.

He is survived by his wife and three children, Mrs. Madie Meharz, Minyard and Herman Wright of Crowell; three brothers, Sam Wright of Kem, Colo., Lee Wright of Pampa, Johnny Wright of Crowell, and one sister, Mrs. Cora Maxvold of Ola, Ark., and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Wright was a retired farmer and lived on his farm in the Margaret community until moving to Crowell Jan. 1, 1946. He served as night watchman for the City of Crowell for three years and was forced to retire from this work on account of ill health.

Out-of-town relatives attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wright of Kem, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. George Wright and daughter of Rocky Ford, Colo., Mrs. Pearl Bean of LaJunta, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wright and children of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. P. Y. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Carr of Floydada, Mrs. Cora Maxvold of Ola, Ark., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore and family of Dallas; friends from out-of-town were Bobbie Bonal and Shorty Taylor of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Davis and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Teague and children of Pampa, and Mrs. Floyd Curlee of Shannon, Texas.

Two Editions of This Paper Will Be Printed Next Week

Two editions of the Foard County News will be printed and mailed to subscribers next week. The edition for Dec. 21 will be printed and mailed on Wednesday morning and the edition for Dec. 28 will be printed and mailed on Friday morning. This is being done so that a paper will not have to be printed during the week following Christmas, which is the last week in the month, and the News force can take a short vacation. The next edition of the paper will be published on Thursday, Jan. 4, 1951.

The edition of the paper to be printed on Wednesday morning will carry regular ads for Crowell business firms and some Christmas greetings ads. The one to be printed on Friday morning will probably be mostly Christmas greetings ads. Business firms or individuals who would like to have a Christmas greetings ad are urged to phone 43 or notify us otherwise. A good supply of this type of ad is available at the News office.

Announcements of special interest or necessity which need to reach the public prior to Jan. 4 should be in this office in time to be printed in one of next week's editions.

MOVE TO SAN ANGELO

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thompson Jr. and children, Tommy and Sandy, arrived here Friday night from Galveston where they have been residing. The family is moving to San Angelo where Mr. Thompson will be employed by E. R. Squibb Pharmaceutical Co. He has now gone to Kansas City for several days. They will move to San Angelo the first of the year. Mrs. Thompson and children are visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thompson Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beverly and Mr. and Mrs. Crockett Fox.

NEW FOOTBALL CLASSIFICATION FOR CHS

Coaches Thayne Amonett and Gordon Erwin and all of next year's football boys that have been contacted are happy over the new Interscholastic League setup for football participation for next fall. Crowell High School, with an average membership of 182, will not have to compete with schools with enrollments of four hundred and above as it has had to do in the past. In case our team wins its district now, the bi-district competition will be against schools like Albany, Haskell and Throckmorton instead of schools like Arlington, Ballinger and Brady.

The new District 9A will include Archer City, Chillicothe, Crowell, Henrietta, Holliday, and Newcastle. Archer City and Newcastle should be the class of this district next season as each has practically all of this year's squad back for next season. With only five conference games, the Wildcats will probably have non-conference games with several of their old foes that have been promoted up to AA competition.

ANNUAL FOOTBALL BANQUET HELD AT QUANAH

The Banquet Room of the Henderson Cafe in Quanah was the site of the 1950 Football Banquet. The players and their dates, Coach and Mrs. Amonett, Supt. and Mrs. Graves, Coach and Mrs. Gordon Erwin, Coach and Mrs. Glen Taylor, Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Sollis, Prin. Henry Black and Coach Tipp Mooney, backfield coach of Texas Tech, were guests at the three-course banquet.

The tables were centered with black strips of crinkled crepe paper overlaid with gold crepe paper. The head table featured a gold football and the individual places were marked with the program booklets. The yuletide theme was present elsewhere with the decorated Christmas tree near the front of the room.

Supt. Graves, acting as master of ceremonies, extended the welcome after which Prin. Black gave the invocation.

The first course consisting of a cottage cheese and crushed pineapple salad was served. One "waitress" dropped "her" tray while serving Coach Taylor and screamed, "He pinched me!" After the laughter had ceased, the guests soon saw that it was Clinton McLain dressed in a waitress's uniform and wearing a blond wig. Bobbie Abston and Betty Barker entertained the guests with a song, "Winter Wonderland." They were accompanied on the piano by Melba Coker.

After the second course, baked chicken and dressing and vegetables, Coach Amonett paid a tribute to the graduating players, Jimmy Rasberry, Jimmy Cates, Jon Sanders, Gordon Wood Bell, Buster Laquey, Hack Norman, Harold Ribble and Charles Pittillo. The other members of the squad were then recognized.

The dessert course, white cake topped with foamy whipped cream, was followed by a talk by Coach Erwin on the new football district. Prof. Sollis gave some pointers on scouting, the job he and Coach Taylor had during football season.

The guest speaker, Coach Mooney, was presented and his subject was "Football." He stated that football has its many advantages. It prepares a boy for the game of living an adult life in the world. Football helps some boys to complete their education by going on to college and playing there. Coach Mooney then spoke on the advantages and disadvantages of coaching. Coaching gives the coach the opportunity of playing through his boys and the fellowship with young boys. He said, "There are always the alumni who come up and say that we better win the game or else, and I know the 'or else' is the loss of my job."

After the completion of his speech a film was shown of the 1950 game between the University of Arizona and Texas Tech.

Following the film, Mr. Graves announced that the banquet was over, and the group braved the cold winds for the journey home.

THANKS AGAIN, GOOD PEOPLE

Coaches Thayne Amonett and Gordon Erwin wish to extend their sincere appreciation to the following people who furnished rides for the football boys: Houston Adkins, J. C. Autry, Jr., Ray Brown, Mike Bird, J. T. Brooks, Ben Barker, Joe Burkett, Gordon Bell, Henry Black, Charlie Branch, John Cogdell, Lorraine Carter, Andrew Calvin, J. M. Crowell, Crews Cooper, Dan Callaway, Marion Crowell, Dick Davis, Foster Davis, Jim Hill Erwin, Herbert Edwards, Irving Fisch, Glen Good-

If any names have been omitted, it is through error.

A SLIGHT TASTE OF CHRISTMAS

There's always been something special about Christmas baking to me. Spicy fruit cakes, candy and cookies, of all kinds and shapes, just seem to suggest Christmas themselves because after all, food does play a very important part in Christmas festivities.

Speaking of candy, you just should have seen the candy the sophomore girls made! When looking for a candy recipe, you look for something different, something new, but one that is still as good and wholesome as the most common recipe and that is just what these girls were lucky enough to find.

In the "Seventeen" magazine, there was shown a picture of all the ingredients that went into this new kind of candy they were introducing and there was a picture of the finished product. It looked so good and so simple to make that the girls decided that they would try their luck at making this candy that didn't even have to be cooked.

You just should have seen their finished product. They shaped the candy with their hands into familiar brands, initials, little snowmen and a dozen other clever things and decorated them with chocolate and pecans.

Apple jelly was another thing that the girls tried their hand at. Some beautiful jelly was made but, of course, there were a few jars that had to go and be stubborn and wouldn't jell, but it made the nicest apple syrup you ever saw.

You know, I'm thinking that for some of you gals that can't seem to think of a thing that you could give that special fellow in your life for Christmas or anyone else especially important, maybe this could be the answer to your problem.

Why not? Is there another thing that could be made any prettier than a box of beautifully wrapped candy that you made yourself?

And the thing that would mean the most to that person would be that every piece of candy that they ate would seem to say, "You're going to enjoy me even more because she made me just for you!"

FRESHMAN STYLE SHOW

The Freshman Home Economics girls will have a style show Thursday, the sixth period, from 1:45 until 2:30. The girls have been working hard on their dresses and skirts and blouses, and there will be twenty-five modeled. These girls' mothers are invited to attend.

SENIOR SKETCHES

"Precious Articles Are Done Up in Small Packages." "Shortie! Half pint! Pee Wee! Who else could we be calling but that cute little miss with the big smile, Ruth McRae. A petite, blue-eyed brunette, Ruth is five feet tall and weighs about 97 pounds. Ruth made her entrance amidst the great depression in 1933. Moving from the Margaret vicinity, she went to Oregon with her family and later returned to finish elementary school at Thalia. Crowell High School has been the lucky place to have Ruth for three years, this being her fourth and senior year.

The poultry business profits from her existence for her favorite food is fried chicken. Her bright blue eyes are attracted to any male who is tall, has dark hair, blue eyes and lots of muscles. As far as we know, the "ideal man" hasn't come along yet, but she hasn't turned to hermitage for consolation. She is often seen with Iris Abston, Myra Self and Lana Short.

Although Ruth's ambition is to get a job, we believe she will someday make some lucky guy a good wife. Three years of good work in home economics prove her abilities. Ruth proves the old saying that "Precious articles are done up in small packages."

We Look Up to You, Bubba
 A "scrappy" lad (six feet-three, 190 pounds) and a favorite around the CHS campus is Gordon Wood Bell. Tagged "Bubba" by his younger brother, his pals have made the nickname remain through the years.

Although he was born in Big D (Dallas to you) in 1933, Bubba has lived in Crowell most of his life and has always attended the Crowell Schools.

His chief hobby is sports, football topping the list. As a tackle, he made one of the Wildcats' best letterman this year. At present quite a bit of his time is spent working out on the hardwoods of CHS, where he plays basketball.

Another important hobby, eating, consumes a portion of his time. He claims he likes almost anything but a huge wedge of chocolate cake is his pet food.

This dark-haired, green-eyed senior smiles at all the girls, but saves a special smile for his favorite, Geraldine Schmittou. Bubba's dry wit makes his wisecracks a riot. His favorites are "Don't be silly," and "That ain't right."

Bubba may be seen buddies around with his favorite gang—Jimmy Tom, Jon, Buster, Hack and "Booger."

We look up to you, Bubba—not only because of your height, but because we rate you "tops."

LETTERS TO SANTA

My dearest Santa,
 Please bring me a pair of black and gold knee pads for Christmas. I seem to spend all my time on my knees during the volley ball games. A boy friend would be appreciated too.
 Love you much,
 Frankie Mabe.

Dear Santa,
 Would you bring me a big box full of air mail stamps? It's quite expensive buying a stamp every day for letters to my Oscar.
 Thank you very much.
 Peggy Traweck.

Santa Claus, North Pole.
 Dear Sir:
 We find it necessary to request that you make your gift to us consist of a jet propelled trolley line between Crowell and Truscott. We certainly could use it.
 Sincerely,
 Bubba Bell, Kildee Cates, Mary Rader, Rozella Autry, Marcia Kincaid and Betty Barker.

Dear Santa:
 Please bring me a new 1951 Buick with a tall, dark and handsome chauffeur.
 I promise to be a better student and never flirt with more boys.
 Yours truly,
 Pat Hammonds.

Dear Santa:
 Please bring me a restful vacation from the noisy halls of learning.
 In fatigue,
 Joe Williams.

Dear Saint Nick:
 I have been a very good boy this year. I will try to make better grades if you will bring me a senior ring with Jimmy Rasberry's name on it.

Army Reservists Not to Be Called until After Christmas

Austin, Texas, Dec. 6 — Army reservists who have received orders to depart from their homes for active duty stations during the holiday season are authorized to delay their departure until January 5, 1951, Colonel C. M. Culp, Chief of the Texas Military District, announced here today.

Except for those reservists who specifically request that they report during the period December 16-January 1, extended active duty orders are being amended and all individuals concerned notified, Colonel Culp said.

The Department of the Army recently announced that reservists would not be required to report during the Christmas season, however, the exact dates were not given.

This extension does not apply to reservists ordered to report to ports of embarkation for duty overseas. These are required to comply with the original orders.

Reservists previously ordered to duty but who had been authorized

King Ranch Bluestem Stands Drought Well

King Ranch bluestem grass stands droughty conditions well because it is a deep rooted plant. This is the conclusion arrived at by Felix Meier of Gillespie County.

C. A. Stone, county agent of Gillespie county, reports that Meier planted K. R. bluestem on his ranch three years ago. He scattered the seed by hand on open ground, along diversion terraces, and down in draws. A few of the seed sprouted and the plants made seed the following summer.

In September of this year, lots of small seedlings could be found in the seeded areas, and several of the old plants were in full seed. Meier says he also found that K. R. bluestem produces seed three times a year.

Many of the plants on Meier's ranch produced their seed with the seed stalk flat on the ground, because cattle, deer and sheep kept nibbling on the green forage all during the spring and summer. A. H. Walker, range specialist for the Texas A. & M. Extension Service, says that this characteristic of K. R. bluestem. It will produce under very heavy grazing conditions.

However, Walker points out that K. R. bluestem, like all grasses, does better when it is not continuously and closely grazed.

RAIL SHIPMENTS OF EGGS

Austin — Rail shipments of eggs from Texas stations totaled 6 carloads in October as compared with 88 in September and 48 in October, 1949, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Seventeen carloads of turkeys were shipped from Texas stations in October as compared with 6 in September and 29 carloads in October of last year.

LIVESTOCK SHIPMENTS

Austin—Livestock shipments in Texas climbed 47 per cent in October from September, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

September - to - October shipments of calves increased 11 per cent, while shipments of sheep and hogs dropped 59 and 4 per cent, respectively.

October livestock shipments were 5 per cent from October, 1949.

Game Management Studies Announced by Game Commission

The Executive Secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission announced plans for intensified game management studies on four widely separated areas recently purchased by the Commission. Areas were selected in various parts of the state because game management practices suitable in one type of habitat are not always adaptable to another.

Seventy-five per cent of the funds used to acquire these areas was made available to the state by the Federal Government from excise taxes on sporting arms and ammunition. The remaining twenty-five per cent of the cost came from the Texas Commission's special game fund.

These areas have been urgently needed by the Commission as field laboratories or wildlife experiment stations, the Executive Secretary said. In the past all wildlife studies had to be conducted on privately operated land. Changes in the agricultural practices and frequent changes in ownership often destroyed the work of game technicians before the problems under study could be completed.

A major objective of these areas will be to determine how maximum numbers of game animals can be worked into present day land use without reducing the economic returns from the land. Practical methods of game habitat improvement which can be applied to similar ranges under private management will be developed. According to the Executive Secretary these areas will also provide refuges to insure the preservation of certain game species.

Restoration and maintenance of soil fertility for the best production of agricultural products as well as wildlife will be an important part of the program.

Trained game men will live on the areas and will maintain close cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, the United States Department of Agriculture, the Forest Service and other land use agencies as well as schools and colleges.

This coordination will give the Commission the benefit of specialized knowledge. In return it will enable the cooperators to study at first hand the progress of the program.

Another important function of these management preserves will be to spread game into adjoining ranges. According to the Executive Secretary, some game species will be trapped and moved to suitable ranges where in time they may provide better hunting for sportsmen. Some of these areas may also be developed to provide important resting sites for migratory waterfowl.

The Executive Secretary further stated that landowners and sportsmen would be invited to visit the areas and see at first hand what is being done through management to increase our game supplies. Thus, they may learn practical game management methods which may be applied on their own properties or on areas where they hunt.

Seaman Recruits and Apprentices Can Now Volunteer

Seaman recruits and seaman apprentices who were members of the Naval Reserve prior to September 1, 1950, can now volunteer for active duty in the Navy after they have received draft induction notices, Eighth Naval District, headquarters announced.

The Commandant of the Eighth Naval District said the new ruling will affect approximately 14,000 men in the district who are in the above category.

Until now, he said, regulations had prevented men in the Naval Reserve's two lowest pay grades from volunteering for active duty unless they had at least 6 months previous full time duty on their records. Under those regulations, a number of these men have been drafted for lack of required regular duty. The Navy cannot now take draftees.

These reservists may now be placed on active duty in the Naval Reserve while they are being processed under selective service, at any time prior to the actual selective service induction date, the Navy ruling stated.

The procedure is as follows: The reservist wishing to volunteer should contact his nearest Naval recruiting station or substitution. He must meet the same mental, physical and other standards as the regular Navy recruit.

He will be required to sign an agreement to serve 24 months on active duty.

He will then be sent into recruit training with regular Navy recruits, but will maintain his identity as a Reservist in Class V-13 of the Naval Reserve.

Reservists in the rates of seaman and fireman, and petty officer in certain ratings, still are being accepted as volunteers, the Commandant pointed out.

PRECAUTION FOR MOTORISTS

One should not wear a long, loose necktie or any other loose garment when working about an automobile engine. It is always advisable to stop the engine before raising the hood. This precaution is particularly important when one is about to clean some part of the motor, because with the engine running the cleaning cloth or waste may be caught in the fan blades, belt, or pulley with the result that the hand is drawn into contact with those moving parts or thrown against a hot engine or some other part of the car.

Someone has figured that one must walk 36 miles to walk off one pound of fat.

And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said: Truly this man was the Son of God.—Mark 15:39.

One of the fine arts of living is just to be one's self. The only genuine person is the one who is always himself. Personalities are not built by copy cats. They are built by people who permit their real selves to be revealed, who cull out the low points that may be unsocial and undesirable and put into their place the things that are desirable and social. Being one's self doesn't necessarily mean being a crab and a boor unless one is naturally a crab and a boor, and desires to be known as such. It is possible for one to be thoroughly social in a social world and still be himself and retain his individuality.

This from an exchange: a man picked up a hitchhiker. He gave him a lift of a hundred miles and then for good measure bought him a good meal. The hitchhiker was profusely thankful for the lift but said he couldn't bring himself to accept the meal too, and offered a three dollar check to pay for the meal. After some delay and more insistence on the part of the hitchhiker the good Samaritan accepted the three dollar check and gave the hitchhiker two dollars in change. As you may have already suspected, when the good Samaritan presented the check at the bank for payment, it was readily accepted and he was given three dollars in good American money for it.

People, an exchange notes, are divided into three classes: those who seldom if ever think, those who think and do nothing about it, and the more stricken group composed of those who think and do something about it.

The party organ which approves of everything its party leaders do and condones or justifies the party's every wrong and foolish act is the lowest form of newspaper life.

Somehow we can't help but have our doubts about the candidate whose only reason for making the race is because of the insistence of his friends.

The first thing a boy learns when he goes to school is that he isn't the prodigy that his mother always told company he was.

The best service one can render to another is to cause him to think.

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

I want to talk today about a subject that from all appearances in the world about us is not popular today. That is the question of saving one's money. I realize at this point that I have lost the interest of a good many of my readers. They are skipping the rest of this column and turning to other matters, which to their way of thinking are more practical. Be that as it may, I am going to have my say here, with the feeling that many who toss this paper aside at this point will recall some day with regret that they could have saved at one time but would not. I can think of nothing less satisfying to an individual than the memory of a foolish expenditure ten years hence when a real need for a little money arises.

Those who continue to read this column will say, "What does he mean by saving in times like this? It takes everything one can make these days just to live. A six year old child can carry home five dollars worth of groceries with no trouble at all, and clothes, house rent, fuel and everything one buys is high."

I can have no argument for such a challenge. I know exactly what my critic is talking about. I too have the same problem.

Then there is the individual who says: "Save. Why save? No one knows what is going to happen to this country and this world. Let's spend it and enjoy it now."

I can see some reason for such a philosophy these days, and there are times when it comes to me, momentarily, but I seem to have faith that somehow, some way, things are going to work out all right, that somehow through the influence and the action of good sense and good judgment, this country is going to blunder along at least for the few years that remain for me. I am going to continue to try to save a portion of my earnings for the future rainy day, or the opportunity that may lie ahead.

The first step toward self-denial and saving is, I think, to disabuse one's mind that there is any satisfaction to be derived from the acquisition and possession of mere things. It is surprising how soon such things pall on one and the thrill their first possession gave, is forgotten.

I do not hold that one should save money merely to have money, merely to open a bank account and let it sit there from time to time how much one has. There are many better things in store for one who has a bank of a few dollars or a few hundred or thousand dollars that he can turn to in a case of emergency, to take advantage of an opportunity or to help a friend in need. The consciousness of the security that such a bank of savings gives is worth a great deal. It will repay many times over, when earning power lessens, the sacrifices and the self-denial that made it possible.

There are many ways of building a savings account. It may be accumulated in postal savings, a bank savings account, investments in a federally insured building and loan, U. S. Savings bonds and by other means.

I hold that anyone with an average income can build up a nice savings by the use of this plan under present money values. If the dollar returns to its normal value, the investor will make a handsome profit. If inflation continues to mount, his investment is always safe.

Few men who promise to think it over, do.

In The News . . . 30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of Friday, Dec. 17, 1920:

On December 13, the number of bales of cotton ginned in Foard County had reached 9,084. Because of the low price of cotton the remainder of the 1920 crop will not be picked, but will be abandoned in the fields. It is believed that if all the cotton had been gathered, the county would have made 15,000 bales.

It is said that 15,000,000 people in China will die of starvation this winter. The tottering condition of the Chinese government is held responsible for the present condition. With well organized efforts, possibly 500,000 of these can be fed.

Drillers on the Beverly well have reached 500 feet, it is reported.

M. L. Kimsey, father of W. W. and H. L. Kimsey of Crowell, died at his home in Gainesville, Ga., Sunday morning at the age of 72.

Mr. and Mrs. Dink Woods of Paducah were here Sunday visiting the family of P. P. Cooper.

Miss Myrtle Cooper and Oscar Gentry were quietly married in Paducah last Wednesday by Rev. A. C. Gattis, pastor of the Methodist Church in that city.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Minniek last week.

Max Miller and daughter, Fredia, have gone to Abilene to visit Mr. Miller's mother, who is seriously ill.

Gordon Gribble came in Tuesday from Dallas to spend the Christmas holidays with home-folks.

Miss Bee Hallmark and Paul Bishop were married in Quanah Sunday, Dec. 5.

Fred Brown, one of the proprietors of the Thalia Drug Co., was in town from Thalia Saturday.

Pete Gamble was selling some fine Rhode Island Red chickens here Saturday.

Mrs. Deb Owens left Wednesday for Royse City to visit her parents.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

It is almost impossible to exaggerate the potential seriousness of our military involvement with the Chinese Communists. The fact that we are involved, even though on a very limited scale as yet, is one more example of mistaken guessing by top military men and diplomats. It has been reliably reported that our troops were halted briefly at the 38th parallel because of the danger that the Chinese might move if we went on toward the Manchurian-Korean border. Then, it is said, the leaders, including General MacArthur, told Washington that in their estimation Red China would not act. The troops went forward—as, indeed, they had to if North Korean military force was to be destroyed. But the experts were wrong, and the Red forces thronged across the border.

IS IT POSSIBLE?

Some of the labor leaders seem to still be bewildered by their failure to dominate the last elections. Sorest blow of all was Senator Taft's easy walkover in Ohio. The leaders had figured that his co-sponsorship of the Taft-Hartley law would cause the working people to march shoulder to shoulder to the polls to vote for anyone who opposed him.

These leaders may need a new insight into the facts of life. The Taft-Hartley law, they argued, would destroy the unions and enslave labor. The fact is that the unions are bigger than ever, and that since the passage of the law labor has made many economic gains, particularly in the pension field. And on top of that, the law has given the rank-and-file of labor some measure of control over the unions they support—and the union officials whose salaries and expense accounts they pay.

Is it just possible that millions of working people like this law—and actually feel that it has given them security not only against oppression by the employer but against oppression by union heads too? And is it just possible that the working people vote their own minds—not somebody else's orders—in the secrecy of the polling booth? The last election certainly made it look that way. — Industrial News Review.

Weekly Sermon INTERCESSORY PRAYER

by M. Wilson McKenzie, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

With men being mobilized for service in the armed forces, the need of divine direction on the part of our national leaders, and the need in our own lives for the strength and direction of God, it behooves each of us as followers of Christ to be on praying ground.

As Christians, we are called a "royal priesthood" in God's Word, indicating that in God's sight, we are called to the Christian life, not only to be saved through faith in Christ, but that we might be intercessors, or pleaders before God on the behalf of others, since the Old Testament priest interceded for his people. "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light" (I Peter 2:9).

The prophet and judge, Samuel, considered a lack of prayer for his people a sin, and said, "Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you" (I Sam. 12:23a). How many of us look upon a lack of prayer for others as sin on our part?

When we look at the Bible we see many instances of God's answers to prayer by believing Christians. "Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him" (Acts 12:5). And we have the answer in Peter's release: "And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise quickly. And his chains fell from his hands" (v. 7).

Through prayer, as Christians we can be used of God not only to bless other Christians, but to those who do not know Christ Saviour. Jesus said: "Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth laborers into his harvest" (Matt. 9:38).

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land" (II Ch. 7:14). Giving ourselves to intercessory prayer under these conditions, we will find ourselves blessed as a nation and as individuals.

George Peddy Named '51 Crusade Chairman for Cancer Society

Temple (Spl.) — George E. B. Peddy, Houston attorney who has long been prominent in Texas civic affairs, will serve as state cancer Crusade chairman for the 1951 membership and fund-raising campaign of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division.

His selection was announced by Dr. G. V. Brindley of Temple, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Texas cancer organization. As Texas Crusade chairman, Mr. Peddy will head the Society's April drive in Texas—the sixth annual cancer campaign to be waged in the state. At that time, county units of the Cancer Society throughout Texas will launch a vigorous educational drive to remind Texans that cancer can be cured if discovered in time and adequately treated. Cancer volunteers will solicit funds for cancer research, for service to cancer patients through support of clinics and dressings programs, and for a year-round educational program among Texans.

CATTLE AND CAR PRICES
Do you think you are really paying more for a new automobile today than you did ten years ago?
Returning from a series of dealer meetings in the west, David A. Wallace, president of the Chrysler Division of Chrysler Corporation, brought back striking evidence that a new car today costs less than half its 1940 price in terms of real wealth out in the cattle country.
Buying a 1950 Chrysler after driving his herd to market, one Westerner found that it took the proceeds from the sale of nine head of cattle to pay for his new car. When he bought his previous Chrysler back in 1940, the cattleman reports that it took the proceeds from the sale of 24 head of cattle to cover the cost of the car then.

You will probably get a very pleasant surprise, Wallace suggests, if you compare the number of 1950 paychecks required to cover the price of your new car today with the number of your 1940 paychecks that were required to pay for your 1940 model ten years ago.

MANPOWER - DISTRIBUTION
The mobilization program with its increasing strains on the nation's manpower situation, has created a serious problem for the food distribution industry—and for other kinds of retailing as well.
Food distribution employs an exceptionally high proportion of young men, not only in retail stores but in every phase of operations. About 70 per cent of the total numbers of the employees in this industry are male, and of these, about 64 per cent are between the ages of 18 and 35—the brackets which will be hardest hit as the military draft goes on.
The food and other retailers faced with this problem, are aware of the fact that they will have to lose many employees to the services, including some whose technical and other skills will make them extremely difficult to replace. However, the food distributors do ask, because of the unusual severity of the situation in their case, that they be allowed a gradual adjustment of manpower and a permanently maintained core of essential employees.
As a matter of fact, an efficient food industry is an indispensable weapon. As it deals largely in perishables, it is important that waste and mishandling be prevented. And this can only be done if the industry can keep a nucleus of key men—and if it can have sufficient time to replace those who are called to service, with women or older men.

University of Texas Staff Uncovers 10,000 Year-Old Civilization

A University of Texas staff has unearthed traces of a Southwestern American culture probably more than 10,000 years old. Dr. E. H. Sellards, Texas Memorial Museum director, reported the findings to the Geological Society of America meeting in Washington, D. C.

Dr. Sellards said excavations by a Museum staff near Clovis, N. M., added to the knowledge of primitive man in the Western world.

Artifacts found in a small lake bed near Clovis shed new light upon the succession of human inhabitants of New Mexico in the late Pleistocene Era — the geologic age just preceding the present, Dr. Sellards explained.

Deposits accumulated in the lake intermittently, resulting in four distinct layers of earth. Three contained human relics and fossil animal remains. To the oldest culture, he gave the name of Llano or Plains Culture, because it was found in the Llano Estacado region of Texas and New Mexico.

This bottom layer of lake deposits contains elephant, horse, and bison fossil remains. The geologists also found numerous bone artifacts—once probably digging tools, Dr. Sellards reported. Also, they discovered stone artifacts, such as hide scrapers and spear points.

"The implications are that these earliest known people of the plains obtained a part at least of their food from seeds and tubers and were not wholly a hunting people," Dr. Sellards pointed out.

AIRPLANE IN AGRICULTURE

Use of the airplane in the application of agricultural chemicals and for other agricultural operations constitutes a real advance in agricultural practices.

NEW DRUGS FOR EPILEPSY

Study of the effect of two widely used hay fever drugs, benadryl and pyribenzamine on epilepsy shows benadryl decreases the frequency of seizures of the petit mal form of the disease, according to a report in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Petit mal is the less severe type of epilepsy in which the sufferer is dazed for a few seconds at a time. No claim is made by Drs. John A. Churchill and Geo. D. Gammon of the University of Pennsylvania who reported on the drugs, that benadryl can be used as a treatment for petit mal at present.

KIDNEY TROUBLE IN DOGS

A jaundice-producing infection, called leptospirosis, is now known to be the forerunner of many cases of chronic kidney trouble in dogs. It interferes with the function of the liver and kidneys, resulting in blood changes that give dogs a "yellowish" appearance. The kidneys become severely inflamed in the early stages of leptospirosis, and unless treatment is given promptly, the kidney ailment may become chronic and affect the dog for the rest of its life.

RELIEF OF ASTHMA

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that Mrs. Tom Prickett, Mineral Wells, Texas, has been under my care for asthma and related conditions for ten or twelve years, and during that time we have given her everything that we have found that usually helps those conditions.

About two months ago I hospitalized her for treatment and observation while she was quite ill with asthma and acute cold. Having used Garlex for hypertension I decided to try it for her asthma. The company which sells it let me have it at wholesale, and I paid for it.

She responded nicely to the treatment, and has not had a severe attack of asthma since that time, and we have not given her any other medication for asthma. She feels better than she has felt in years, and there is no doubt in her mind but that Garlex helped her, and is still helping her. She takes it regularly.

I do not want to leave impression that I prescribe Garlex for asthma and hypertension with any assurance to the patient that it will even relieve the condition. But I do tell them it has relieved those conditions in some instances, and I explain to them it is strictly a trial treatment. That would be true with any medication for that purpose.

In conclusion: I am not receiving any fee for this letter, and I do not claim that Garlex is a specific for asthma and hypertension, but I do know that it sometimes gives wonderful relief, and is well worth a trial. (Sgd.) A. M. Patterson, M. D. FERGUSON RETALL DRUG (Adv.)

The Crowell A and B string girls journeyed to Chillicothe Saturday to attend a tournament in which Archer City, Iowa Park, Chillicothe and Crowell participated. The B string played the B string of Archer City at 2 o'clock and won two out of three games. The B string also played a B string tie-off with Iowa Park, but was defeated 15-10 and 16-14.

The girls that saw action on the B string were Norma Mathews, Rosemary Moss, Bobbie Spears, Kay Cribbs, Geraldine Schmittou and Jackie Rasberry. The A string girls played at four o'clock and were defeated by the Archer City A string 15-3 and 15-12.

The girls that saw action in this game were Betty Barker, Frankie Mabe, Mary Matus, Mary Bergt, Kay Cribbs, Geraldine Schmittou, Jozzell Thomson and Peggy Weaver. Betty Barker, Kay Cribbs and Geraldine Schmittou won awards for making the all-tournament teams.

Last week these same teams went to Benjamin for their first practice game of the season. The Crowell teams defeated them two out of three games.

WILDCATS WIN TWO, LOSE TWO AT MATADOR TOURNAMENT

The Wildcats started out with a bang at the Matador Tournament, winning the first two games over Turkey and Patton Springs.

The first game with Turkey was a 38-19 victory with Jim Norman taking the high scoring honors with 10 points. While in the second game with Patton Springs, everyone got to play and helped win 46-9. Roy Whitley was high point man with 8 points.

The Wildcats met their "Waterloo" when they met Quitaque on Saturday afternoon. The Wildcats were really "off" this game. Missing baskets was the main factor that accounted for the Wildcats' defeat of 34-26. Jim Norman again led the Crowell boys in the high scoring department with 9 points and Roy Whitley close behind with 8.

Crowell meets Quana Tuesday, December 12, at Quana to play a practice game and they journey to Seymour on December 14-15-16.

WILDCAT CHATTER

Well, here we are ready for another week of gossip. Did everyone see that cute freshman, Melba C., with Jim C. Friday and Saturday nights? Keep up the good work, kids.

Has everyone seen Gordon Bell walking around with his head in the clouds? I imagine you would too if you had a girl like Geraldine!

Still one of the steadiest and one of the cutest couples in CHS is Jean and Jim Paul. Let me tell you a list of extra gossip I happened to pick up. Hack and Margaret are together again.

Billy Joe's pretty black wavy hair has a lot of girls "swooning." Mildred Templen for one. If you have thought about taking a trip to Mars, look up Jimmy Stinebaugh. It seems he has already been looking forward to it. Lots of luck, "Grin!"

Melba Ward and Layton are still going together. Boy, this must be the real thing.

Mary Alice and Jimmie Louis were seen dancing to Jack Propps Band at the Country Club Saturday night.

Well! Has Martin Earl finally found his equal? He really seems to like Posey a lot and as usual, they make quite the cute couple!

Betty and Buster are quite the cute couple, and they are really hitting it off swell. Keep it up, you all!

We saw Maurine and Joe Howard Saturday night in Vernon. Attention! We have an "old-new" student around CHS. We surely are glad to see you back, Dorothy.

After that volley ball game Saturday, you can call Frankie "Bruisey Knees." Poor Frankie. Something new: Jean Whitty and Leon P.

Something old: Bobbie and Jon. Something borrowed: Hack by Mary Lou.

Something blue: Margaret. Another new couple I've seen together is Carolyn Bell and Wayne Borchardt.

Seen together Friday night were Charles Wishon and Sweet Pea Owens. Something could become of this!

Neva Lou is wearing a pretty diamond ring! Don't get excited, it's on her right hand. (A gift from her mother.)

Jane Bruce was with a "fly boy" Saturday night. Lucky boy! Riding around together Friday night were Marcia and Glendon and Billy Abston and Carolyn Bell.

Put scandal in Locker 77. We will end this week's gossip for now until next time. Cat's Tail.

Lots of people know a good thing the minute the other fellow sees it first. -Job E. Hedges.

Bridal Tea Given to Honor Truscott Couple

Mrs. Clyde Browning entertained in her home at Truscott on Tuesday, Dec. 5, at a lovely bridal tea honoring Mrs. Jack Henderson. Joint hostesses with Mrs. Browning were Mrs. Bo Clark,

Mrs. Edgar Jones and Mrs. Q. D. Williams.

The honoree and Mrs. Irene Gerald, aunt of the groom, were introduced to the guests by Mrs. Williams. Mrs. Henderson wore an afternoon frock of royal blue faille, complemented by a corsage of white carnations presented by the hostesses. Mrs. Gerald wore grey crepe and a gift corsage of white carnations.

Guests were invited by Mrs. Jones to register at the lovely gold and white bride's book.

The dining room was illuminated by tall white tapers burning in branched crystal candelabra. A cloth of cutwork linen covered the tea table which was centered with a low bowl of pink

Home Demonstration Notes

MARY DEEB BROWN

This is the month of Christmas Parties. The Riverside and Gambleville Clubs have already had theirs, but here are the dates for the others.

The Margaret club meets Friday afternoon, December 15, in the home of Mrs. John L. Hunter. The West Side Club hasn't decided on a definite date yet.

The Vivian club meets Friday night in the home of Mrs. Leslie McAdams.

On Friday afternoon, December 15, the Gambleville Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Archie Campbell to make Christmas decorations and wishing Well Ivy Pots. Come and bring the things you want to decorate, a one pound coffee can, and one skein of colored yarn or that much binder twine.

On Saturday, December 16, the Foard County Home Demonstration Council will meet in the Agent's office at 2:00 p. m. for their Christmas party.

1951 Model Pontiac Now on Display at Phelps Motor Co.

The New 1951 Silver Anniversary Model Pontiacs went on display throughout the nation Wednesday, Phelps Motor Co., Pontiac dealer in Crowell, states that he has three new cars on display. A large Silver Anniversary ad on page 3 of this issue lists the many features embodied in the new 1951 Pontiac automobile.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Austin, Texas — The University of Texas this fall has a record-breaking 332 foreign students.

That's more than ever before, and, surprisingly, the far-away, Middle Eastern country of Iraq has the most representatives—36—most of them sponsored by their government and studying engineering.

There are also 36 registered from China but not all of them are Chinese residents. Mexico, which led until this year, has 33 representatives, but only 19 are Mexican citizens and residents. Seven are Mexican citizens and U. S. residents. The other seven reverse the two-nation status.

Turkey, with 21 students, is fourth, and Colombia, with 15, and white carnations. Hand-painted pink flowers were featured in the dainty tea napkins. Mrs. Jack Brown presided at the silver tea service. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. A. S. Tapley.

Mrs. Clark conducted the guests through the gift rooms where the lovely and useful gifts were displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson were married last September in Laramie, Wyo. They have returned to Truscott where they will reside until he receives his call to the armed services.

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary Observed

The sixtieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bryson was celebrated quietly at the home of a daughter, Mrs. E. A. Dunagan, on Sunday, Dec. 10. Six of their eight children were present for the memorable occasion which featured a covered dish dinner at the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryson are pioneer residents of Foard County and have been active in the development of civic affairs until recently. Mr. Bryson is eighty years of age and Mrs. Bryson is seventy-six.

Present for Sunday's celebration were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bryson of Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Holman of Handley; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bryson of Graham; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Flesher of Clayton, N. M.; Mrs. Ray Allen of DesMoines, N. M.; Mrs. Nina Chandler of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunagan, host and hostess.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE

The Friendship Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met on Tuesday, Dec. 5, in the home of Joyzell Thomson.

The theme of the program was "There's a Song in the Air." Jean Hughston, Mary Cooper, Jean Whitby and Clovonne McKown assisted with the program.

Refreshments were served after which Christmas gifts were exchanged. The next meeting will be held on January 2 in the home of Shirley Webba.

BAPTIST W. M. S. MEETS

The Crowell First Baptist Church Woman's Missionary Society met on Monday, Dec. 11, in the home of Mrs. Roy Fox for a study on "Foreign Missions." Mrs. T. W. Cooper led the inspirational lesson.

The organization will meet with Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin on Dec. 18 for a Royal Service program

Austin—"Your child can be protected from whooping cough by the use of anti-serum available for the immunization of youngsters," according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, as he advised parents not to take this communicable disease lightly.

"Since whooping cough is particularly dangerous for babies the need for early protection against it is undisputed. Research has shown that preventive treatment may safely and effectively be given at the age of two months or earlier. Older children who have been previously immunized should receive booster doses of the vaccine."

Pointing out that Texas has had over 10,700 cases of whooping cough so far this year, Dr. Cox reminded parents that whooping cough is sometimes fatal to young children. It may also leave the lungs and other affected parts permanently damaged.

"In an effort to control whooping cough emphasis is placed upon the great importance of calling the family physician at any time when a child is not in normal health. If the first signs of a cold do not disappear after a few days of good home care, including rest in bed and isolation from other children, the physician should be called as the cold in itself may be dangerous. The physician will prescribe proper treatment and report any cases of communicable disease to the public health officer."

To Santa Claus . . .

Thalia, Tex., Dec. 4, 1950
Dear Santa Claus:

I am an 8-year old boy and in 3rd grade. This is what I would like for Christmas: Gilbert tractor set and an earth hauler and a road grader.

Joe William Coufal.
Santa, Dearest Santa:
I'm making a list of things I wish you would bring us. Some fruit for Mother and Daddy and a dozen dollar bills, all new; a baseball for Buddy; a something for Noma. Please, Santa, a little table and two chairs for me. Love, Beverly Joyce Kelly.

with Mrs. Howard Williams in charge of the program.

Mrs. Fox served a lovely refreshment course, which reflected the Christmas motif, to twelve members. The home was artistically decorated with Christmas decorations.
