My ranch 'workhorse' runs for only 2% a mile!"

Ranch owner George Stephens proved for himself, in the big Economy Run, just how little it costs to run his Ford Truck!

"The Lazy J's Ford Express did itself proud in the Ford Truck Economy Run," says Stephens. "Daily records kept during the entire six months show that our Ford Truck ran up a total of 5,109 miles. My out-of-pocket expense for gas, oil, maintenance and repairs was exactly $123.51 ... about a $20 bill each month ... only 23 cents a mile!"

The Ford Truck POWER PILOT carburetion-ignition system is one reason why Ford Trucks cost so little to run, in ranch work or any work. The POWER PILOT gives you the most power from the least gas. In the low-price field, only Ford has it!

Once more the country is in the midst of the vacation season. And this summer, assording to the American Petroleum Institute, more than 1,000,000,000 gallons of gasoline will be consumed by American motorists in one of the greatest vacation travel splurges history. The total of vacation travel by motor car for the three months of June, July and August alone is expected to reach 15,-000,000,000 miles. And for the whole of 1951 the vacation speedometer will probably roll clear around to 30,000,000,000 miles, an increase of almost 60 per cent since 1940. This is good news for the coun-

NO ROOM FOR COMPROMISE from Moody Bible Institute Chicago

One of the striking messages in a leading national magazine appeared in the form of a full-page advertisement. Obviously referring to public reaction to a million dollar robbery a few days before, it pointed out that crime is not something to be admired, leaveled at shrugged off or even the second of the plants. Thorough coverage of the plants is essential. This means goling to the field with enough water. Under most conditions 25 gallons of water per acre will be necessary.

industry can absorb more and more of rising costs of production and distribution. But the hard fact is that industry's profits, under our free enterprise competitive system, are simply not large enough to make this possible on a large scale. To take one example, the average American depart ment or variety store keeps, a profit, only about three cents o each sales dollar. Many retailers who deal in fast-moving staples, such as the food chains, have a profit of less than two cents out of the sales dollar. It should be clear to anyone that enterprises such as these cannot absorb the higher costs without taking losses which, if long enough continued, would make their operations im-

We live in a very different kind of age today. Less and less of our tax money goes to buy those goods and services which make for true civilization. More and more of it goes to buy the implements of war, old and new, which, if ever unleashed in their full fury, may very well destroy civilization itself.

In the world of the present, this is an unavoidable tragedy. But that tragedy is needlessly com-pounded by the ever-increasing spending of the people's money for purposes and projects which worm.
