Mrs. J. L. Glover Succumbs Sunday Morning at Home

Mrs. John L. Glover, resident of Foard County for 43 years, passed away at her home in the west part of Crowell Sunday morning, where she had lived with her daughter, Mrs. Tom Shook, and family for the past three years. She had been in failing health for several years.

Funeral Services Held Tuesday at Baptist Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Glover were held at the First Baptist church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by the pastor, Rev. Bernard Franklin, who was assisted by J. V. Bailey of Fort Worth, son-in-law of Mrs. Glover. Mrs. Ella Rucker served as pianist and Glenn Fox led the choir songs.

Pal bearers were Ozell Bailey, Joe Spears, Lawrence Glover Jr., John Rader, Haskell and Ray Francis. Flower bearers were Mrs. Ebb Scales, Mrs. Evelyn Campbell, Mrs. Lawrence Glover, Mrs. Miller Rader, Mrs. H. E. Thomson and Mrs. Clyde Russell.

Mrs. Glover was born at Parrotville, Tenn., on August 1, 1867. Had she lived until August 1 she would have been 84 years old. She came to Georgetown, Texas, at the age of 12 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Powell Rader. She was married to John L. Glover on Jan. 1, 1889. Nine daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Glover, two of whom preceded them in death.

Mr. Glover died on August 19, 1937. After living in Taylor for two years and Okmulgee, Okla., for six years, Mr. and Mrs. Glover moved to Foard County in 1908 where they resided the remainder of their lives. They located on a farm seven miles southeast of Crowell and remained there until they moved to Crowell in August, 1934.

Mrs. Glover was converted at an early age and joined the Methodist Church. In 1910 she joined the Baptist Church. She lived a consistent Christian life and attended church services as long as her health would permit.

Survivors include the seven daughters, Mrs. A. J. Francis of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Carl Zeigler of Crowell, Mrs. Arch McMillan of Overton, Mrs. Frank Spears of Olney, Mrs. Tom Shook of Crowell, Mrs. M. B. Reynolds of Longview and Mrs. J. V. Bailey of Fort Worth; twenty grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. C. C. Fox and Mrs. J. W. Harris of Crowell, and Mrs. C. B. Franklin, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Rogers, Texas, will direct the singing. A large choir and old-fashioned singing and preaching will feature the meeting. The pastor states that everyone in this vicinity is invited to attend.

Cotton Insects Are Damaging Foard County Crop

Cotton insects have done considerable damage to cotton in Foard County this season, according to Joe Burkett, county agent.

High infestations of cotton thrips damaged cotton all over the county while it was small. These insects are very tiny and stunt the growth of the plant by sucking the juices; causing the cotton to be from one to four weeks later in maturing.

Next came the careless worm from the alfalfa fields and careless weeds causing considerable damage around Thalia, Rayland and Margaret. Both the thrip and careless worm can be controlled by the use of toxaphene spray.

At the present time, flea-hoppers are doing damage all over the county by stinging small squares and causing them to fall off. One pint of toxaphene per acre will control this pest.

Boll weevil infestations have been only about 50 percent of the number in the county last year at this time. The infestations at present are heaviest around Rayland, Thalia and Margaret, with very few showing up in the Good Creek community.

Mr. Burkett estimates that there are approximately 35,000 acres in Foard County planted to cotton this year. This is about twice the acreage planted to cotton last year in Foard County.

Local Fire Fighters Help Extinguish Fire on Masterson Ranch

The Crowell Volunteer Fire Department was instrumental in extinguishing another fire Saturday afternoon. This time they came to the rescue of the Masterson Ranch where a fire was spreading in a ten-section pasture south of Paducah.

Since the Crowell Fire Department was the only one represented at the fire, the local group and a few cowboys from the ranch fought the blaze diligently until it was brought under control.

The local fire department wishes to acknowledge in this way their gratitude to T. B. Masterson for his donation of $250.00 to the department. This money will be used to buy equipment and improve facilities in order to make the fire department a more complete and capable organization.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

Anaheim, Calif., Bulletin. "Our nation is one of the few in the world in which free thought, criticism and truth can still be presented to the public. We take it for granted that this freedom will continue. But the present Presidential regime realizes the value of the press and its ability to mould and measure public opinion and reaction. Every day some new measures are introduced that would place newspapers under governmental censorship. So far these measures have been defeated or are amended to become worthless. A free press means a free people. We must remain alert to keep it so."

Philadelphia, Pa., Trades Union News: "Karl Marx, the fellow who wrote the creed of communism, had something to say about taxation. He said that capitalism, which means our system of free initiative, enterprise and progress, will eventually be destroyed by 'taxes, taxes and still more taxes.' He even predicted that democratic, capitalist countries would, if left to their own devices, finally tax their economic systems to death and thus bring in communism. Well, taxation can do just that, if carried too far. The people who are continually fighting for more tax money to spend, even though their proposals may be excellent and even though some of the additional tax money might be used to benefit the people generally, should tax the Marxian precept to heart. Taxes can kill our economy."

Madison, Georgia, News: "There seems to be some in Washington that are afraid the MacArthur-Truman-Acheson controversy will reveal our plans to the Russians. . . . The thing that we think they are most worried about is that the people are about to find out how near Communist our government has become."

Austin, Texas—Nearly any question you may ask about the state capitol can be answered by Mrs. J. W. E. H. Beck, receptionist who greets visitors in the rotunda.

Texas who bring their children to the statehouse are likely to ask whether they can see the governor and whether the children will get to shake hands with the state's chief executive.

The answer to that is problematical: if the governor is in the city, and unless he is tied up in a long conference, a wait in his reception room may be rewarding. Incidentally, the reception room itself is interesting, with its ornate, massive furnishings.

Once she told a man that there is not a single crack in the original plaster walls. The man, a plasterer himself, climbed all the way to the dome looking for a crack, had to admit he found none.

Lumber men get excited about the fine oak, pine, cherry, cedar, walnut, ash, and mahogany wainscoting, which has a total length of seven miles.

People from out of the state usually ask when the capitol was built. The cornerstone, a block of red Texas granite weighing 18,000 pounds, was laid in 1885 and the building was completed in 1888.

The building is on the highest part of a site which contains 25.96 acres. The capitol rises 308 feet from the grade line to the statue on the dome.

The building covers three acres of ground and has a floor space of 18 acres. Visitors are always interested in the terrazzo floor of the rotunda, which has a painted design representing the seals of the nations whose flags have flown over Texas: Spain, France, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederate States of America and the United States.

To be seen in the south foyer is the Texas Declaration of Independence. Also in the foyer are statues of two famous Texans, Stephen F. Austin and Sam Houston. Around the walls of the rotunda are portraits of the five presidents of the Republic of Texas and of all the governors since annexation.

A lot of people who visit the Texas capitol bring their cameras, park the children on one of the twin cannons flanking the south entrance, and take home prized pictures. The cannon, Mrs. Beck will tell you, were presented to the Republic of Texas in 1836 by Major General Thomas Jefferson Chambers.

The monuments on the grounds get a lot of attention too. They commemorate the Confederate dead, the Alamo, John B. Hood's brigade, volunteer firemen, Terry's Rangers, and the Texas cowboy.

Health Letter
 Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer

Austin — Cancer does not develop any earlier in areas where the water contains a high proportion of fluorides than it does in fluorine free areas, morbidity statistics compiled by the Texas State Department of Health and the M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research in Houston show.

State Health Officer George W. Cox, in a statement flatly refuting claims by a University of Texas biochemist that fluoride in municipal drinking water might speed up the development of breast cancer, said the M. D. Anderson cancer research center, an adjunct of the University of Texas, completely supported the State Health Department's contention that fluoride additions to city water supplies does not accelerate the trend toward mammary cancer.

The state health agency has for the past two years recommended that municipalities add fluoride in the amount of one part fluoride to one million parts of water as a deterrent to tooth decay among children.

Also in support of the health department's position is the word of Dr. H. Trendly Dean, director of dental research, National Institute of Health.

Dr. Dean says he and "Dr. Howard B. Anderson (unidentified) have carefully evaluated the data in respect to the alleged relation of fluoride water to an accelerated rate in the development of mammary tumors, and are of the opinion that the evidence . . . does not warrant modification in the policy of recommending fluoridation of public drinking water supplies . . ."

Dr. F. A. Bull, director of dental health in Wisconsin, in a letter to Dr. Cox, wrote that the Wisconsin health department has been accused of contributing to the cancer incidence for the past six years.

"We're going ahead, despite these deterrents, with fluoridation," Dr. Bull said.

Dr. Cox said the same bone of contention came up years ago when chlorine, now a common addition to drinking water, was first used to disinfect water supplies.

"Further postponement of fluorides in water would penalize children unnecessarily," the health officer said. "They deserve its cavity-preventing properties, and the State Department of Health will continue to recommend its use by any and all cities in the proper proportion."

Extension Granted Pre-Inductees to Enlist Voluntarily

Young men who have had their pre-induction physical examination for Selective Service have been granted an additional 15-day period in which they may enlist voluntarily and be assigned to the service of their choice. M-Sgt. Winston B. Murray, local recruiting sergeant, has announced.

The original deadline of July 15th on this offer has been extended to include July 31st. Young men in this category who volunteer are given priority for enlistment. Sgt. Murray says he may be contacted in the court house in Vernon for further details concerning this offer.

ATTEND FUNERAL
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tillery returned to Crowell Tuesday night from Decatur where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Tillery's grandmother, Mrs. T. J. McMurray, 92, who died Thursday night, July 19. The funeral was held at the Christian Funeral Home in Decatur. Mrs. McMurray was a pioneer resident of Decatur.

CEILINGS MEAN NOTHING
 A Wall Street Journal news store quotes an officer of a Midwest department store chain as saying, "Ceiling don't mean a thing." He went on to explain that observation in these words: "Most of the goods we sell are below ceiling. When you're trying to unload high inventories, you worry about prices that will bring in customers, not about ceilings you know you can't reach."

Many other retailers around the country, dealing in goods as varied as haberdashery and automobiles, expressed similar views. As the Wall Street Journal summed it up, "By and large the merchants report that the real control on prices consists of the lofty stacks of goods in warehouses and on store shelves."

This situation illustrates one all-important fact—and that is simply that maximum production and aggressive competition do more to put the brakes on inflation than any political controls which have occurred to the mind of man.

As a matter of fact, under certain circumstances controls can actually be inflationary. They can undermine competition—if everyone has to sell at the same price, why should any merchant work his head off trying to do a better job than the competitor down the street? They create artificial scarcities and black markets. They burden all merchants with costly, time-consuming red tape. They make it harder for the small man to progress and grow. Anything

The Do Nothing 82nd Congress

BY DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, July 22.

Most capital observers agree that not in years has there been such a tired, listless, indifferent, do-nothing Congress as the Eighty-second. The famed Eightieth Congress, against which President Truman campaigned to victory in 1948, was a stem-winder by comparison.

Not only has the Eighty-second Congress failed to pass a single appropriation by the end of the fiscal year, on June 30, but a good many members don't seem to care. They don't even seem to care that they are being called the "horse-meat" Congress.

Never in my recollection have both morale and morals been so low, leadership so lacking.

Never in my recollection has there been less idealism, less patriotism, such poor party discipline; never such shameless absenteeism. Some congressmen are present in Washington only one day a week.

This is the tail-end of a tired, uninspired administration—probably the end of a long period of Democratic rule. Nobody, except a few incurable optimists, really expects this administration to be re-elected. When that frame of mind exists in Congress, there can be no party discipline, no leadership.

Without leadership, every congressman adopts the law of the jungle—every man for himself. Instead of voting what's good for the country, he votes what's good for himself or the lobbyists who helped fill his campaign chest. He knows that, in many legislative problems, the nation's interest has to be put above his district's interest. A flood-control reservoir may dislocate a hundred or so people in his district, but their dislocation may save the lives and property of millions below the reservoir area. However, an "I'll get mine, you get yours" spirit has become rampant in this Congress. The law of the lobbyist and the local interest reigns supreme.

There has been no firm hand on the reins. This is true both of the White House and of the Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill. The President has alternately begged and scolded. He has seldom inspired.

Married Men May Not Be Deferred on Basis of Wife Alone

1-A registrants examined and acceptable may enlist until August 1st. The former date of July 15 has been extended to allow enlistments. Registrants 1-A postponed for induction are not eligible for enlistment under this extension, according to Local Board No. 131 in Vernon.
Under the amended Selective Service Law; married men, except for cases of extreme hardship, a registrant may not be deferred for dependency on the basis of a wife alone. This will necessitate many registrants who were classified 3-A because of wife only as a dependent to furnish the local board with affidavits and any information relative to other dependents, change of status or address. This information should be filed immediately with the local board.

Weekly Sermon JESUS AND CHILDREN

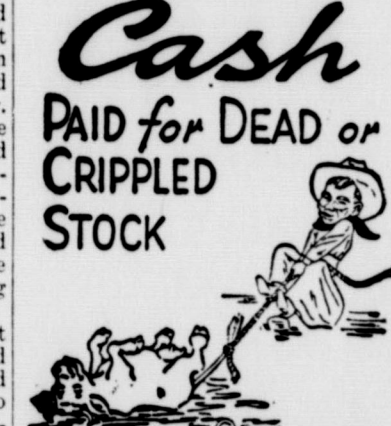

By Alfred Martin, Th.D., Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

Three of the Gospels tell of the bringing of little children to the Lord Jesus for blessing and of the disciples' rebuke toward those who had brought them. One can perhaps hear an echo of the thoughts of these disciples in some quarters today. "They are too noisy and twiggly," some may say. "They distract from the thoughts of the occasion; they destroy the solemnity of the hour." Such statements are sometimes heard.

All three of these accounts tell us that the Lord Jesus welcomed the children gladly. Mark gives the added important statement that the Lord Jesus "was much displeased" with the disciples for wanting to turn the children away. Jesus said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God" (Mark 10:14).

In the light of the Word of God it is a terrible crime to prevent an eager, trusting child from hearing about the Lord Jesus and accepting Him as personal Saviour. We need the tenderness and love of the Lord Jesus in teaching and training the children and in leading them to Him. When one realizes the potentialities in the life of a boy or girl, either for good or for evil, one can get a glimpse of all that is involved in winning a child for Christ.

D. L. Moody, when asked about the results of a meeting, replied that two and a half people had been saved. "Oh, you mean two adults and one child," the ques- tioner asked. "No, I mean two children and one adult," answered Moody. A child saved through faith in Christ has his whole life be- fore him to use for God.

Mrs. O'Connell skillfully presented Lucy Muir, the in-law ridden widow and showed how the ghost, robust Capt. Gregg, changed her life.

Mrs. Roy Cooper joined the club.

Mrs. Gentry served a delicious plate to the following guests: Mrs. Gordon Cooper and Miss Mary Ermine Cooper, and members, Mesdames Roy Cooper, S. E. Tate, M. O'Connell, R. J. Roberts, C. R. Bryson, E. A. Dunagan and G. H. Kincheloe.

Home Demonstration Notes

MARY DEEB BROWN

We have gotten a bus to take us to Lake Pauline. It will leave at 2:30 p. m. from the west side of the court house on July 31, so be there promptly.

The foods committee and the planning committee for our encampment met Saturday afternoon and this is the schedule they decided on:

July 31: 2:30 to 3, leave here and go to Lake Pauline; 3:30 to 4, register, unpack and set up camp; 4 to 6, recreation; 6 to 7, eat picnic lunch; 7 to 7:30, free time; 7:30 to 9:30, party; 9:30 to 10, get ready for bed; 10:30, lights out.

August 1: 6 to 7, get up and get ready; 7 to 8, eat breakfast; 8 to 8:30, free time; 8:30 to 11:45, make baskets; 11:45 to 12, free time; 12 to 1, eat; 1 to 1:30, free time; 1:30 to 2:30, finish baskets; 2:30 to 3, final program; 3 to 4, break camp and come home.

Several of the women are bringing their children so if you can't leave yours at home, don't let that stop you from coming—just pack them up too.

Several women have also told me that they wouldn't know until the last minute whether they could go. If you are in that position, just come on if you find you can go. We would like to know in advance, but if that is not possible, we still want you to come.

Many of you have said that you would rather bring a cot than sleep on the floor—if you have room for it, just bring it on.

So far, about twenty women have said they were going. If you were worried about transportation, remember we have a bus to take us now, so make plans to come.

ATTEND MEETING

Mrs. Joe Drabek, Mrs. Charlie Drabek, Mrs. Anton Kajs and Mrs. A. G. Magee attended the Deaneary meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women Wednesday of last week at Seymour.

A delicious luncheon was served at noon following registration of the delegates and members from the dozen or so towns which comprise the Wichita Falls Deaneary. Long tables were beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers with the speaker's table placed at the end and clever arrangements of daisies were featured there.

Substituting for Miss Rosalie Drabek, legislative chairman for the Deaneary, Mrs. Magee presented a skit with the assistance of Mrs. Joe Drabek. The subject for Mrs. Magee's talk, following the skit, was "The right and wrong way to write your Legislature."

Rev. Fr. A. E. Daly of Wichita Falls gave the invocation and benediction was said by Rev. Fr. Julian, Seymour pastor, in the beautiful new church.

Mrs. Charlie Drabek, local Altar Society president, gave a most interesting report on the work accomplished by members of the St. Joseph's Altar Society and the Study and Discussion Club.

A new insect known as the sweetclover root borer was discovered last year by research workers at the Denton Agricultural Experiment Station. It attacks the commonly grown biennial varieties of sweetclovers. Efforts are now being made to develop control measures. However, none are

W.S.C.S. School of Missions to Be Held at Texas Tech

The Northwest Texas Conference Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will hold its second conference-wide School of Missions at Texas Tech in Lubbock July 30 through August 3. The purpose of this school is to bring to the women of the conference in a condensed form information concerning the total program of the Society for the year. Clinics will be held each day under the direction of the corresponding conference officer in the following lines of work: promotion, treasurer, missionary education and service, supplies, Christian social relations, spiritual life, status of women, and Wesleyan Service Guild.

Special emphasis is being placed on the courses of study to be presented during the year and each member of the school will be allowed to take the Bible study and one other study, one workshop, and one clinic.

Plans are underway for a series of inspirational addresses for the evening that will be a combination of platform and vesper periods.

Membership is open to any member of the Woman's Society of Wesleyan Service Guild but anyone else desiring to attend is urged to write to Mrs. Carlton Nance, 216 N. Ward St., Pampa, and send the enrollment fee of $3.00.

Each society should send as many delegates as possible. Local and district officers are especially urged to attend.

Named Chairman

Austin, Texas—Attorney General Daniel Price recently was named chairman of the Texas United Defense Fund Committee.

Daniel accepted the appointment at the request of the Community Chest leaders of the state who are sponsoring the organization to raise funds for the USO in Texas.

"Thousands and thousands of our Texas young men and women are in uniform defending our freedom around the globe," Attorney General Daniel said in accepting the assignment. "The job lies in our hands to give them the reassuring certainty that—at home or overseas—people of their home towns are vitally concerned with their well-being."

The USO and its familiar services have been called back into action to provide a home-tie with the American Armed Forces which are now on duty in every hemisphere. Secretary of Defense Geo. C. Marshall has called the USO "an integral part of the defense effort."

The program of civilian aid to the men and women in uniform has the firm backing of top government leaders, and its efforts will be closely coordinated with the national defense program.

The national goal this year is $18,624,854. Texans will be called on to subscribe their proportionate share of the national goal.

BUGOGRAPHY

Just as the traveler was writing his name on the register of the hotel a bed bug appeared and wound its way across the page. The traveler grimly eyed the bug for a few moments and then exclaimed, "I've been bled by Maria-ville spiders and chased by Delanson constables, but I'll be darned if I was ever before in a place where the bed bugs looked over the hotel register to find out where your room was."—Santa Fe Magazine.

Dr. Glenn F. Sanford to study the problems of the small church more effectively. Attending this conference were ministers and laymen from every district of Methodism from every state in the nation. These ministers and laymen were from the small town and rural churches. They presented the problems that they face and an expression of their most vital needs to be considered and studied at this great conference on church life, and every small town and rural Methodist church will be strengthened and encouraged by the findings and declarations of this great leadership conference.

The five Methodist Churches in and near Crowell have a very special part in this conference since Rev. Marvin Brotherton of Matador, former pastor of the Margaret-Thalia Churches, and Virgil A. Johnson of Foard City, represented the small town and rural Methodist Churches in this territory. Mrs. Johnson also attended the conference with her husband.

The churches of the Vernon District feel that they have been well represented at the conference and that Rev. Brotherton and Mr. Johnson will bring back to this territory many helpful suggestions for the advancement of the church life in the small towns and rural communities. These churches have had a vital part in the unrelenting of the history of the nation, and it is hoped that through the leadership that has come from this conference they shall not only continue to be vital to national life, but also rise to new heights in Christian leadership in the Christian society that must be a reality for the accomplishment of peace in the world.
