Farm Bureau to Meet in San Angelo

Farm Bureau leaders from all over Texas will meet in San Angelo April 17 to discuss ways to combat proposed federal control of domestic agricultural labor, J. H. West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, has announced.

Principal speaker will be Matt Triggs, Washington, D. C., labor specialist for the American Farm Bureau Federation. The one-day meeting will begin at 10 a. m. at the Town House.

West said the proposed "encroachments" in the field of domestic farm labor would hurt the income of every farmer and rancher in Texas if put into effect. "If we are not effective in heading off these back-handed attempts to unionize farm labor, it will take the concerted effort of everyone involved," he declared.

The Labor Department has proposed new regulations dealing with domestic farm workers (other than local) who are recruited through the U. S. Employment Service. Farmers using the service would have to (1) provide housing acceptable to the Labor Department, (2) pay highest prevailing wage in an area, and (3) pay transportation costs for recruited workers.

Girl Scouts Have First Meeting

The fifth grade girls who have formed Troop I of the Crowell Girl Scouts held their first regular meeting at the home of its assistant leader, Mrs. Mike Rashberry, one afternoon last week. Plans were cancelled to clear the Girl Scout house because of inclement weather, so the girls worked on their Tenderfoot rank requirements. These requirements must be met before a girl can be invested and registered as a Girl Scout. Most of the girls could repeat their promise perfectly, and they also worked on the motto, slogan, salute, and handshake.

The meaning of the Girl Scout laws was discussed by the girls, and each was asked to know them by next meeting. It is hoped that next Friday's meeting can be held in the Girl Scout House.

Irving Fisch, trustee of the Girl Scout property, informed the leader, Mrs. Ray Shirley, that the insurance premium of $12.00 had been paid on the building, and that the building will be repaired in the very near future. The approximate cost of repairs will be $30.80, and the balance in the Girl Scout account in the bank is only $29.28. Mr. Fisch stated that arrangements will be made to meet any difference that might be incurred. Any donations received will be placed in this Girl Scout fund for the general Girl Scout organization. Troop I is maintaining its own account at this time.

Though delicious refreshments were served at this meeting, the girls elected to hold occasional hikes, cook-outs, and the like, instead of having refreshments at every meeting. They also elected to bring ten cents to every meeting to defray any craft expense the Troop might incur. This dime is to be brought for every meeting through the school session, whether a girl is able to attend or not. Summer plans will be announced later.

The closing services of repeating the Girl Scout promise and singing a patriotic song were conducted by the leaders. Girls participating were Shirley Mike Rashberry, Paula Vecera, Karen Shirley, Ella Hollenbaugh, Linda Whitley, Gail Russell, Dena Todd and Rosa Lee Latimer.

Governor Says Death Toll on Highways May Reach New High in '59

Governor Price Daniel told county and district attorneys attending Attorney General Will Wilson's annual law enforcement conference in Austin this week that unless drastic measures were taken, the Texas highway death toll for 1959 could reach a new high.

Asserting that the Texas Legislature has "a golden opportunity" to pass traffic safety and general law enforcement legislation of top-ranking importance, the Governor revealed that the 1959 highway death toll is already 13 per cent higher than for the same period last year.

"With your help and the help of all Texas law enforcement officers, our citizens and organizations, we saved 197 lives in Texas last year," Governor Daniel stated. "If our efforts had been slackened then our reduced death toll would have been about four per cent, as it was all over the nation, instead of eight per cent. We have seen what we can do when we all get together in a statewide crusade and campaign with the determination to stop this slaughter. This year, we must do even more."

The Governor laid heavy stress on the importance of 27 pending bills recommended by the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation and nearly a dozen others suggested by the Texas Youth Council, the Governor's Highway Safety Commission and the Texas Legislative Council. "If you will tell our legislators you need these additional tools to improve law enforcement in Texas," the Governor added, "I believe the Legislature will listen to you. In the past, the Legislature has given us better laws with which to prevent crime and improve law enforcement. I believe our legislators want to provide whatever we need, but it's up to us to let them know what we need."

The Governor continued: "Laws alone will not solve the problem. We need strict enforcement, driver education and continued improvement in highway engineering. Above all, those of us who are parents must do a better job of training in our own homes, schools, churches and communities."

The Governor complimented the county and district attorneys for their cooperation with his highway safety crusade and told them this was one of the important phases of law enforcement which needed both immediate and continued attention.

"There can be no better contribution to Texas," the Governor said, "than to take part in a campaign like this which saves lives in Texas."

Like Setting Up Shop on Moon

Starting oil operations in remote areas of the Middle East is like setting up shop on the moon, according to Petroleum West. Aside from politics, operators are troubled with lack of communications, roads and living quarters, and the constant battle with nature. Only 25 per cent of the employees of the Arabian American Oil Company are connected with direct oil operations. The remaining 75 per cent are needed to keep the 25 per cent alive.

Quail Harvest in Panhandle Area Sets New Record

Reports coming in from the Texas Panhandle now indicate an exceptionally heavy harvest of quail during the season just recently closed, according to the assistant secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

A. S. Jackson, wildlife biologist, provided a breakdown of information on several ranches. Warden Weldon Fromm of Matador reported 29 shooting preserves in his area, covering 30,000 acres, yielded 12,000 bobwhites and scaled quail. According to Jackson, this is an average of a bird harvested for every 2 1/2 acres. A bird per acre is a figure generally accepted as a maximum population attainable.

Warden Charles Boynton of Quanah broadcast an appeal through a local radio station for hunters to leave quail wings at a centrally located grocery store. He received 2200 wings, which he thinks represented perhaps 10 per cent of the county harvest.

A Baylor county rancher who kept a record of bobs and blues told of taking 1030 quail off a two-section rectangle. About two thirds of the birds were bobs. Influx from saturated range resulted in a still higher population by the end of the season.

Hotels, motels and restaurants in the area also did an overflow business during the quail season. One small store in Seymour sold 225 cases of shotgun shells, and another sold 120 cases. This is a town of 4000 population where most of the hunters were non-residents and could be expected to bring their own ammunition.

$320.72 Collected in Cancer Drive Tuesday Evening

The Crusade for funds for the American Cancer Society held in Foard County Tuesday evening derived $320.72 from a house-to-house campaign conducted by the many volunteer workers over the county.

This amount does not include a report from the Foard City and Four Corners communities. Thalia will have its drive later this month and when all of these are reported, Mrs. Frank Gribble, county chairman, expresses the hope that the amount will equal or surpass the quota of $500.00 set for this county.

Two Accidents Investigated in County Last Week

Area highway patrolmen have investigated two accidents in Foard County during the past week.

The first occurred Tuesday night of last week at the intersection of State Highway 283 and the new farm-to-market road being built east of the highway. Wayne D. Brown's late model Mercury struck the rear of a 1957 Chevrolet being driven by Miss Bettie Linda Knox. Minor injuries were reported by the cars' occupants, while extensive damage was incurred on the two cars. Fred Browder of Truscott was riding in the Brown car at the time of the accident and Miss Knox was alone.

The accident was investigated by Highway Patrolmen W. A. Richardson and Buck Johnson, both of Paducah.

The other accident occurred Saturday morning at the corner of First Street and Britt Street in North Crowell when the car driven by Mrs. Floyd Thomas collided with the car driven by Mrs. Orville Black. Mrs. Thomas was going south and Mrs. Black west at the time of the accident, investigating officers reported.

Other occupants of the cars were Stephen Kralicke with Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Black's daughter with her.

Mrs. Black was thrown from her car by the impact and the driverless vehicle collided with the Frankie Casle home on the corner.

None of the occupants were seriously injured, according to Highway Patrolman Duane Capps of Vernon, investigating officer.

EDITORIAL

An Evaluation of My High School Career

The first few days of my high school life seemed a big step from the elementary grades. I entered my freshman year with the idea that I would make my high school career just one hilarious, happy event. For about six weeks, I said, "To heck with lessons," and I always found something more exciting to occupy my time. I soon realized that I was "riding for a fall." In this attempt to demolish my hated nickname, "Brain," I had discovered that it's not much fun to be dumb, either. I suppose that was my first lesson learned in high school. From that time forward, I have tried to maintain a happy medium. With this new outlook, I settled down to get the most from my high school education. In all of my four years, I have tried to learn more than just books.

Of equally great value to me is the experience of meeting, helping, and working with people. This will be very valuable to me in the future. Along with this, there has been the priceless advice and help from qualified and interested persons, namely teachers. The encouragement given me by some has indeed been a great help in getting me over the hard places which naturally come a student's way.

The friendships I have formed in high school are worth many times what I have learned in subjects matter, and I value friendships, along with honesty and trustworthiness, very highly. I am happiest when I am helping others, and I feel very fortunate to have been able to offer my humble services to my school and friends. I feel I have benefited more from the experiences that I have been through than have the ones whom I was supposedly helping.

As I look back over my few short years in high school, I realize how truly valuable they have been. Without them, I feel that I would be unable to meet the problems of the everyday world. How very fortunate I am to have been blessed with such a revealing four years!

Library News

The Library Club had its regularly scheduled monthly meeting

Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. in Mrs. King's room. After a brief discussion of business, there was an election of the 1959-60 Library Club officers. Those elected were Helen Vessel, president; Dorothy Wehba, vice president; Sharon Wharton, secretary; and Lou Ann Summers, reporter.

Vera Porter, Wanda Moore and Joann Schwarz arranged the display for National Library Week, April 12-18. It is entitled "Show Us Your Library." The Library Club would like for everyone to notice this bulletin and to realize that library work could be a wonderful career to follow. We also would like to invite anyone who wishes to do so to come to visit our library during National Library Week.

Doctor Lectures to Biology Classes

On Wednesday afternoon, April 8, both biology classes were privileged to hear a lecture by Dr. M. M. Kralieck on the anatomy and physiology of the heart. By using a plastic model of a heart, he made his talk very interesting, informative, and valuable to all of his listeners.

The students wish to express appreciation to Dr. Kralieck not only for this lecture, but also for the human heart that he gave to the science department. This specimen will be used to further the understanding of science pupils in the study of the human body.

Slave Sale Held

"Sadie Hawkins" week began Monday, April 13, at 11 a. m. as 43 males were auctioned to various females. Earl Hesse served as auctioneer. The prices ranged from $1.10 to $7.50. This money will be used by the Student Council for various purposes.

Each slave—the boy—had to do as his master—the girl bidding the highest—ordered him to do through Wednesday. Besides raising money for the Student Council, "Sadie Hawkins" provided plenty of fun and enjoyment for all.

Rev. Gill Speaks to Student Body

"Remember your young days" was the thought that Rev. Bob Gill, pastor of the Freewill Baptist Church in Crowell emphasized as he spoke to the Crowell High School student body on April 9 at 10 a. m.

He stated that the hope of the future is found in today's youth. Life is a battle for every young person who steps out into the world on his own. The activities, studies, and everything that we, as youth, do will help determine whether we will be fighting an easy or hard battle.

He stressed that an "honest B" is worth more than a "dishonest A." Furthermore, he stressed that we should not make the mistake of cheating because knowledge is not increased in that way. Another point that he brought out was that love and peace are worth more to an individual than is material wealth. Youth must take heed so that they will learn to have peace within, remembering that temptations swoop down on them like the swiftness of a tornado.

He really challenged us, the youth of today, to work to succeed, for if we fail, the whole world will fail.

Roving Reporter's Report

This article is dedicated to the seniors. I hope that most of our seniors are planning to go to college somewhere, so let's talk about college clothes.

The clothing industry and shops cater to college styles. Every year gives us an early abundance of college fashion parades, advisory boards, or departments of stores devoted entirely to the college-minded. Perhaps you don't realize it, but where you attend college greatly influences what you wear. A member of the larger department stores hires girls as representatives from the major Texas schools to advise new students about the type of clothing best suited to that school. Small colleges permit informal high school-type clothing; larger colleges demand a more formal mode of dress.

This pertains to you boys, too. A small school like Midwestern allows levis and informal clothes. North Texas Tech, or similar schools, will perhaps require you to be better dressed than that.

Clothes cannot make or break you as a person, but they can make a difference in your attitude toward enjoyment of school. You can enjoy your school and new acquaintances more if you are "in style" with them. This is something for you to consider when you choose your college. You don't need to buy an entire new wardrobe in one "whack," but you can be on the look out for clothes best suited to the school of your choice. You and the school will be happier with the results.

Your campus-wise, Roving Reporter.

Students Enjoy Southern Assembly

Harry and Chita Maria Van Pelt, two outstanding platform personalities, brought something most unusual in the field of entertainment to the Crowell school student body April 6 at 2 p. m. They presented a unique and sophisticated production direct from the Netherlands. Dressed in their beautiful and picturesque Dutch costumes of bright, gay colors and their native wooden shoes, they presented a pleasing picture to the eye and told interesting facts about their native wooden shoes, they presented a pleasing picture to the eye and told interesting facts about their native land. There is a permanent charm about the native music of Holland and the low countries of Europe. That charm came with the Van Pelts, as the talented duet brought their original folk dances, songs, and music novelties.

Harry Van Pelt, master of ceremonies, had an easy stage manner that captured the audience from the start. He sang, danced, and played a variety of instruments.

Chita Maria Van Pelt was the star of the show. The pert, petite, and brilliant soprano and "klompendanser" is well known in Holland as the "Dutch Nightingale." The Van Pelts have traveled all over Europe and the East Indies. They have endeared themselves to American school audiences, and are now enjoying their third triumphal tour in the South and Southwest as a featured attraction on the Southern School Assemblies circuits.

Question of the Week

In your opinion, who is the biggest flirt in school, boy or girl? Lillie Polk: All the boys of CHS, especially the ones who acts like it thrills them.

Peggy Cates: Jo Carol, because she is always making eyes at Bubba.

Judy Hollenbaugh — Ginger, because she doesn't know when to give up.

Cecelia Drabek: The girls of CHS because they keep all the boys in a spin.

Dianne Sledge: All boys except one.

Gerald Bradford: Not any of the girls of CHS, I don't guess. They don't flirt with me!

Gayle Taylor: It would be better not to say!

Judy Borchardt: George Moss. Bubba Monkes: Peggy.

Oecie Tarver: I don't pay any mind to any of them. Ha!

Lou Ann Summers: I plead the 5th Amendment. It might incriminate me if I told the truth.

R. H. McCoy: A flirt in CHS. Ha!

Roxie Adkins: I can't say, someone might get angry.

This'sa and That'ta

Marcy Fields wants to know if nine hours is the record for Crowell.

Seems as if Judy and Bryant hit it off Friday night.

What happened to Sue and Wes? What made George run like a rabbit?

Carol, did Carolee get in front of you?

Carria, what were you doing at the city limits? We hear it was awfully wet.

Girls, why did Bobby, George and Wes lecture you?

Wes, did you hear a car honking?

Who were the "Three Thalia Terrors"?

Ronnie, why did you leave? You shouldn't have. George took over.

We are sorry to hear that Carol and Dale broke up.

We hear that Bobby wore a new exciting color of lipstick to the track meet. It's called "Scarlet Fields."

How does Wesley do it? Three girls in one night, Jo, Jean and Sue, wasn't it, Wes?

Carol, why don't you give poor little John a chance?

Triangle of the week: Vernon-Genell-Danny R.

It seems as though Bonnie has given up on Vernon and is trying for Edward Kajs.

The Walters-Wright combo seems to be hitting it off. They were seen in Vernon over the week end and were in church Friday night.

Home Demonstration Notes
MRS. MARY D. BROWN

Last Friday afternoon, 17 women met in the agent's office to discuss a refinishing workshop. The workshop will begin this Thursday (today) at 2:30 p. m. in the Down Town Bible Class room. We will also meet Tuesday and Thursday of next week.

If your shellacked furniture is foggy, faded or scratched, you can revive the finish with paraffin oil and white shellac.

Remove any wax from the surface with gum turpentine and a coarse cloth.

Mix together 2 parts of paraffin oil (available at filling stations and drug stores) and 1 part of white shellac. Be sure that shellac is fresh.

Applying with a coarse cloth is usually adequate. However, on neglected pieces, use 3/0 steel wool and rub gently with the grain, protecting with masking or adhesive tape sections where the grain runs in another direction. Wipe surface with a dry cloth.

Mix only enough to use. Do not attempt to store shellac or a mixture with a shellac in it. Old shellac remains sticky and will not dry.

Our recipe this week is: Egg Pot Pie

1 cup sliced onions, cooked, 2 cups coarsely diced celery, cooked, 1 cup diced carrots, cooked, 6 hard cooked eggs, coarsely cut, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. celery salt, 1/4 tsp. ginger (optional), two 10 1/2 oz. cans mushroom soup (condensed, cream style), 1/4 teaspoon pepper, plain pastry, using 3/4 cup all purpose flour.

Grease a 2 quart baking dish.

seen in front of Jo Carol's house lately. Could this be a new combo?

Gerald-Roxie and Bubba-Peggy had fun in Craterville Park Sunday afternoon.

Pat and Jimmy Dean have been seeing a lot of each other lately. They were in Wichita Falls Saturday.

Has everybody seen the new sparkler on Dee Ann's finger? Congratulations!

Gayle seems blue this week. Could it have anything to do with Billy's being in Austin, Gayle?

Sharon Wharton and Billy Doyle have been seeing a lot of each other. They were in Crowell Sunday night.

THIS WEEK

-In Washington

With
Clinton Davidson

The dispute over whether to increase or decrease government regulation of farmers currently is one of the hottest in Washington. Congress is being pressed to make a decision this year.

What makes the debate unusual is the fact that two government departments—Agriculture and Labor—are working in exactly opposite directions on the issue of government regulation.

While Agriculture Secretary Benson pleads with Congress to give farmers more freedom from production, marketing and other controls, Labor Secretary Mitchell is asking that farmers be put under strict control on the employment of farm labor.

Oddly enough, Congress seems not to be taking kindly toward either of the suggestions. It has refused, so far, to give Mr. Benson authority to lower price supports and ease up on production controls.

Mr. Mitchell, likewise, has been slow in getting support for his proposal to place hired farm workers under the law covering minimum wages and maximum hours of work.

Farm Wage Legislation

Bills have been introduced in Congress to establish a basic 40 hours a week for hired farm labor, with added pay for overtime, and for a minimum wage starting at 75 cents an hour the first year and increasing to $1.25 an hour in the fourth year.

Agricultural workers now are exempt from the minimum wage and maximum hours law which applies to most industrial workers. The aim is to put farm workers on an equal footing with those working in mines, factories and stores. Latest Department of Agriculture reports show the little more than one million farm workers employed earlier this year earned an average of $1.03 per hour. It is the record-keeping rather than the wage minimum that most farmers object to.

The wage rate for farm workers has been going up faster than for industrial workers in recent years. During the past two years the average farm wage has increased by 25 per cent, compared with a 10 per cent increase for non-agricultural workers.

Executive Order

Secretary Mitchell recently issued a tentative executive order, subject to public hearings to be held about June 1, that would give the Labor Department authority to impose regulations on all farm employers who get workers through the U. S. Employment Service.

The regulations, if put into force, would require that if any farmer in the area paid transportation for workers he hired, then all farmers who hire through USES would also be required to pay workers' transportation.

Further, it would provide that all farmers in an area would have to pay the same wage for similar work and that if one employer voluntarily raised wages then all farmers using USES-recruited labor would have to increase wages by the same amount.

Protesting that such regulations could raise farm labor costs by many millions of dollars, the Farm Bureau is opposing the proposed order on the ground that this "constitutes legislation by executive order" and that "Congress has specifically rejected similar proposals in the past."

Illegal to Operate Dual Wheel Vehicle Without Mud-Flaps

Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said this week that under a new State law it is now illegal to operate dual-wheeled vehicles on the highways without mud-flaps on the rear to protect drivers in back of them.

The law, which formerly applied only when the pavement was wet, now requires mud flaps in all kinds of weather for certain vehicles. It became effective April 2.

Under regulations issued by the Department, Garrison said, the flaps may be made of metal, rubber, rubberized material or other substantial rigid enough to prevent mud, slush, gravel or other matter from being thrown from the rear of a dual-wheeled vehicle into the windshield of a vehicle following.

Pole trailers, truck tractors operated alone and without being in combination with a semi-trailer, and all trucks operated on private property do not come under the provisions of the new law.

Irving Fish and family made a trip to Altus, Okla., last Sunday.

CAPITOL REPORT

by Rep. W. S. Heatly

Austin—The biggest thing that happened during the week of April 6 was the final passage of the general appropriations bill, HB 216, written in my committee and authored by me.

This general appropriations bill, in the aggregate, amounted to $2 1/2 billion. The bill covered the budget for every agency and employee in the state of Texas.

Speaker of the House, Waggoner Carr, laid out for consideration by the House my appropriations bill as the first order of business Monday. There were numerous attempts to amend it throughout the day Monday and Tuesday.

The original bill contained 325 pages; however, in the two days of debate, only five amendments were adopted. I agreed to four of these.

Number one was an amendment to raise the welfare payments of old age pensioners. This amendment, to which I agreed, raised payments $1.30 a month.

The appropriations bill was finally passed late Tuesday and sent to the Senate for its consideration.

My general appropriations bill carried normal growth increases, including such items as $7 million for state departments, most of which was for buildings. Also receiving increases were state hospitals and special schools, which received $10 million. About 90 per cent of this was allocated for new buildings and major repairs.

The 18 senior colleges and junior colleges received an increase of some $23 million. With the continual growth of state colleges, the governing boards of all these institutions felt this increase necessary.

House Bill 216, when considered by the Senate, will be amended by the substitution of a Senate appropriations bill. Then the bill will come back to the House where I, as author, will move we do not accept the amendment. I will move that a conference committee adjust the Senate and House differences.

The next big bill to come up before the Legislature will be a tax bill to finance the state budget. I am advised that the state deficit is now $66 million.

The financial picture of the state is nearing a critical stage. We who are charged with the responsibility of it and I welcome all advice and comments.

The job and the problem is a big one.

Easy Credit Plans on the Rise; Editors Warn They Can Be Costly

New and easier ways to use credit are growing so fast that you should be more careful than ever buying this way, warn the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine. Repayment can be as routine as paying the light bill, but the cost is high.

Merchants stimulate shoppers' impulses by playing up revolving credit plans, using the budget-repayment idea. Some stores even allow charges up to $40 for teenagers who have their parents' okay.

Bank loans are another variation of the budget-credit plans. Banks offer a "line of credit" to approved customers, who can then borrow up to the limit and repay in budgeted monthly amounts.

Central charge accounts are being pushed by both merchants and banks. In some areas, community charge plans offer one single credit card good in a large number of stores. In others, banks offer an equivalent service, except all bills and payments are funneled through the banks.

And, of course, there are the multitude of credit cards. Warn the editors: No credit comes free (except short-term 30-day accounts.)

You pay an average of one-and-a-half per cent service charge on unpaid balances in revolving credit accounts and about one per cent per month on the unpaid balance on banks' line of credit.

You pay $5 to $6 a year for a credit card. The places that honor it pay an average seven per cent commission of their total billings to the credit card company, and this charge may be partially or fully passed on to you.

Central charge operators impose a five per cent to seven per cent charge on merchants' total billings, and the merchant may boost his prices to absorb the cost.

If you are going to use credit, you should know the real cost. That one-and-a-half per cent per month on your revolving charge account can run as high as 18 per cent a year if you keep buying up to the limit.

The one per cent bank loan charge is about 12 per cent per year on whatever average yearly balance you maintain.

In the News... 30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the April 19, 1929, issue of The Foard County News:

George Hinds is again in the oil business, having purchased the interest in the local agency of the Magnolia Petroleum Co. from Charlie Thomas.

The school census for the county has been completed and the following scholastics have been reported at the county's schools: Four Corners 13, Thalia 240, Gambleville 67, Fish 36, Margaret 141, Black 39, Vivian 98, Ayersville 80, West Rayland 129, Foard City 121, Claytonville 30, Beaver 24, Good Creek 32, and Crowell 626.

Ten criminal cases and 27 civil cases are on the docket for the May term of court opening May 6. Jurors for two weeks of court have been named.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cole of Crowell attended church at the Black school house Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Gafford and daughters, Mary and Iva Ruth, also attended church here Sunday.

There are 144 women enrolled in the home demonstration clubs of Foard County at the present time.

Dr. Hanna of Quanah was at the Crowell Hospital Thursday and removed the tonsils of Mrs. E. Swaim and Esca Brown.

Rev. Woodie Smith, pastor of the Crowell Baptist Church, will deliver the commencement address at the graduation exercises of the senior class of Margaret High School next Friday night. The twelve students graduating are Johnny Mae Short, Cecil Short, Margie Weger, David Lee Owens, Mattie Russell, Earl Ingie, Earl Orr, Emily Ellen Reinhardt, Iola Choate, Ruth Smith, Ruby Smith, and Carl Ingie. Bailey Rennels, superintendent of the Margaret school, is teacher of the senior class.

Those graduating from Margaret grammar school April 19 are Lance Middlebrook, Annie Lee Davis, Thomas Smith, Inis Fay Davis, Robert Choate, Lorene Boman, Ralph Cannon, Willard Kerley, Mack Reinhardt, Ruth Malone and Jewell Dunn.

At the district interscholastic League meeting in Childress last Saturday, Preston Rettig and Jim Allee Hart, both debaters of Crowell, won the outstanding event of the meet in competition against debating teams of ten other counties. Bill Bell was Crowell's only first place winner in the track and field events. He led a strong list of runners to win first in the mile run, which he completed in just over 5 minutes.

Plans for a baseball team for Crowell were started Wednesday night in a meeting of local fans, and Jesse Owens was elected manager of the club.

J. H. Lanier granted Irving Fish a six year lease Monday on the space formerly occupied by Nick's Confectionery, City Tailors and the present occupant, L. Kamstra, jeweler.

Cub Scout Den 2 Meeting

Den 2 of the Crowell Cub Scouts held its regular meeting at the home of the Den Mother, Mrs. Ray Shirley, with Mrs. Chester Hord and Mrs. Tom Ellis assisting.

"Down on the Farm" is the Cub Scout theme for April, and taking care of pets and growing things were discussed. Patterns of planters were given to each boy, and it is hoped that the parents will assist the boys in making these out of tomato crates before the next pack meeting. These patterns were drawn and mimeographed by the Cubmaster, Rev. Carl Hudson. Those who did not receive their Junior Audobon material at the pack meeting were given it. Each boy was asked to put it in a scrapbook, as new material will come in every month.

For their craft period, the cubs worked on a surprise gift which they will present to their mothers at the May pack meeting. The Den Chief, Ken Ferguson, led the boys in the closing flag and living circle ceremonies. The Den had perfect attendance with Larry Ellis, Billy Hord, Joe Burkett, Randy Simmons, Doyle Goodwin, Dickie Stater and Bob Shirley being present.

MUST ANSWER THE COMMUNISTS

Henry Hazlitt writes in Newsweek: "What we must do... is to answer the Communists with truth and clarity on every intellectual level. We must point out that government ownership and operation are grossly inefficient; that socialism does not create wealth but impoverishment; that dialectic materialism is nonsense; that the whole class-struggle argument is false; that workers and managers, employees and employers, are essentially cooperators in production; that the whole system of private capitalism is a marvelous system of social cooperation."

A calorie is the unit of heat necessary to raise the temperature of a kilogram of water one degree Centigrade.

Precautions Urged in Handling and Using Insecticides

If you handle or use insecticides, you should be interested in these precautions furnished by Joe Burkett, County Agent. Burkett points out that you may save your life or that of a fellow worker by observing each of the following:

1. When loading the sprayer or duster stay upwind and do not spill insecticides on the body or clothing.
2. Wear a proper respirator when loading or applying insecticides.
3. Wear fresh clothing each day and if liquid insecticide is spilled on the clothing, take a bath immediately and change clothing.
4. Wear rubber gloves to keep insecticides off the hands.
5. Do not smoke or eat while handling insecticides. Wash hands thoroughly before eating or smoking.
6. Destroy all empty insecticide containers.
7. Store insecticides where children cannot get to them.
8. Do not store insecticides unless they are clearly labeled.
9. If you become dizzy, sick at the stomach, have a headache or blurred vision, quit work and see a doctor immediately.

OPENED IN 1883

The University of Texas opened in 1883, but the summer school did not open until 1898, beginning with less than 200 students. It has grown steadily, reaching a 1957 enrollment of 8,830 and has proved to be one of the most useful features of the entire program, particularly in spreading the University influence to schools of the state. The University this year is observing its 75th year.

SOVIETS TEACHING SCIENCES TO THEIR YOUNG PEOPLE

A specialist on Soviet science and industry who is associated with the Standard Oil Company of Indiana says that Russian boys and girls even in the first 10 grades of school put in more than 35 per cent of their time on science and mathematics. By way of contrast, columnist Jay Hayden states that during 1956 only 34.4 per cent of all high school students took chemistry; 24.5 per cent took physics; 9.2 per cent took trigonometry, and 7.6 per cent took solid geometry.

Community Physician Is Most Important Man in Cancer Control

The community physician is the most important man in cancer control, according to Dr. W. Kenneth Clark, vice president of the American Cancer Society view: "If the community physician is not cancer-conscious, the specialist may come into the picture too late." The Society estimates that of 255,000 cancer cases in this country, about 75,000 can be prevented by earlier diagnosis and treatment.

Terrible Economic Loss Caused by Auto Accidents

Texas traffic accidents last year not only took a total of 2,342 lives—an average of almost 200 each month—but also resulted in an economic loss of $347,311,000.

Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, pointed out this week that most of the worst accidents occur in rural areas.

"The tragic loss of life by far overshadows any monetary consideration, but the staggering amount of property damage wrought on the streets and highways of our State should not be overlooked," he said.

Considering the fact that so many of these accidents happen in areas where farmers and ranchers live, Garrison used an acre of land to illustrate one way to look at the "high cost of traffic accidents."

"An acre of land measures 43,560 square feet," he said, "and United States currency measures about two and five-eighths inches by six and one-eighth inches."

"If an acre of farm or ranch land were completely covered with one dollar bills, then a layer of two dollar bills, then layers of five, ten, twenty, fifty, hundred and five hundred—and this topped with 231 tons of silver dollars, then this would represent the economic loss from traffic accidents in Texas during 1958."

Garrison, drawing upon the Department's Statistical Services Division, noted that $347,311,000 would buy 5,000 farms or ranches at $40,000 each, 5,000 refrigerator freezers at $800 each, 5,000 electric kitchens at $700 each, 5,000 color TV sets at $700 each, 5,000 living room suites at $1,400 each, 5,000 air conditioning units at $1,400, 5,000 pickup trucks at $3,000, 5,000 tractors at $3,000, and 5,000 registered bulls at $600.

"And there would still be enough money to furnish the head of each of these 5,000 farms or ranches with a bank account of $17,862.20," he added.

MORE THAN ONE-THIRD WENT FOR TAXES

The state of Oregon produced over-all income of slightly more than $3 billion last year. Of that sum, the Oregon Voter reports, $1,165,000,000 was absorbed in direct taxes, fees, licenses, contributions and other forms of compulsory or mandatory assessments, not including hidden taxes.

Plant Good Seed for Top Yields

"Know the Seed You Buy" is the title of a new bulletin released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The bulletin points out that the use of high quality seed is basic to successful farming. Farmers may irrigate, use high rates of fertilizer, follow good insect control and other production practices, yet high yields will not result unless good seed of a well adapted variety are planted. Money invested in quality seed is good insurance since no crop can be better than the seed to which it is planted. Low priced seed often are of low quality.

The purchase of certified seed is the best guarantee of the purity of the variety that you want.

Seed with the Texas Certified Seed label and seal should mean that the seed has these characteristics: the seed were produced in fields properly isolated from other fields of the same crop, essentially all rogues or off-type plants were removed from the field prior to blooming, the seed are free from noxious weeds and essentially free from seed-borne diseases, that the seed trace back directly to the original seed of the variety, and have a satisfactory germination.

The bulletin discusses Texas Tested Seed labels, Texas Certified Seed labels, knowing your varieties, selecting the variety, how to buy quality seed, seed treatment tags, buying the seed on appearance, miracle varieties, and when to buy new seed.

The bulletin can be obtained from the local county agent.

This Year Is An Ideal One for Wildlife

This is a big year for animals of all species, according to the Director of Wildlife Restoration, Game and Fish Commission. Good rains and excellent vegetative growth following the dry years are responsible.

"There has been plenty of food and cover for nearly all of our wildlife," said the director. The cycle that followed has brought on an increase in population of all animals, small and large.

The small species such as the birds, rabbits, rats and mice, found enough food and cover present to take care of larger families. So, they had larger families. This increase in small animal populations encouraged an increase in the larger animal populations such as the mountain lions, wolves, coyotes, and bobcats, which prey on the smaller species.

"There will be more bobcats in the brushland this year than in any year since the drought period," said the director.

TELEVISION NEWS

Man, man, isn't that picture out of Channel 3 a thing of beauty nowadays? And, according to Channel 6 authorities, they too should be on the air with full power, on a new tall tower, about Thursday (today). We're mighty lucky to be in our geographical location and near such progressive TV stations!

Which station has the tallest tower? Based on sea level, both will have EXACTLY the same... each antenna is 1,919 feet above Wichita Falls terrain (Channel 6, being on 10 ft. higher terrain, only had to build 1,039 feet of tower to attain maximum height.) Based on sea level, EACH will have a height of approximately 2,049 feet... and each station, I'm thinkin', should be congratulated on giving us here in Crowell such excellent TV service!

Did you ever think what your TV service man has to sell? He sells you time, knowledge and skill. Sure, he also sells a tube or two, or a few components perhaps, but his primary sale to you—when you call him—is a professional service: he makes that nice-looking, dead box over in the corner alive, glorious thing of entertainment... an instrument capable of literally bringing the world right into your own comfortable living room. No TV technician with any respect for his ability would fail to charge a reasonable amount for this electronic know-how!

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Tex.—Whichever way the ball bounces, Texans can look forward to a hefty increase in state taxes for 1960-61.

House of Representatives passed a general appropriations bill calling for spending of $332,000,000 from general revenue. Senators took a more economical approach, began their work with a bill calling for $30,000,000 less than the House measure.

Even so, the Senate proposal would put spending some $21,000,000 above the present level and require an estimated $117,000,000 in new tax money.

House bill includes longevity pay raises for long-time state employees and increases in welfare checks to the aged, blind and dependent, all added during floor debate. House also accepted committee recommendations for boosts in the appropriations for higher education, state hospitals and special schools and the prison system.

GASOLINE TAX VIEWED — Gov. Price Daniel says he's ready to support a 1-cent hike in the state gasoline tax if it will be used to improve public schools, raise teacher salaries.

Neither the House nor Senate appropriations bill included public school teacher raises. Lawmakers seemed to think this, if it were to be done, should be handled in a separate bill.

Texas still would have a lower gasoline tax than other states, said Daniel, even after the 1-cent raise. He said he felt such a service station operator would "go along" with it if it were for the purpose of better schools.

Opponents say that, with practically everyone having to use a car these days, the gasoline levy is about as "general" as a sales tax can get.

HEALTH CHIEF RESIGNS — Recent target of lawmakers is the State Health Department, where Commissioner Henry A. Hollie stepped out of his $15,000-a-year post under the glare of legislative disapproval.

Dr. Hollie said he felt that department would be better off with another commissioner who could get more support in the way of legislative appropriations.

Meanwhile, both House and Senate launched inquiries into Health Department spending practices.

FLEXIBLE RATING OFF — State regulation of Texas auto insurance rates apparently will continue for at least another two years.

Senate Insurance Committee refused to approve a flexible rating plan, sent it to the sub-committee "graveyard."

Backers of the bill, mostly large-out-of-state companies, claimed it would save Texas auto owners millions. Careful drivers would be rewarded with lower insurance, they said.

Opponents, including most Texas companies, fought the bill, said it would "take the lid off" rates. They said a merit rating plan, being considered by the State Board of Insurance, would take care of rewarding safe drivers.

LENDING BILL FILIBUSTERED — Senate disagreement over how to improve loan shark regulation brought on the first filibuster of the session.

Sen. Abraham Kazen of Laredo sponsored the House-passed measure which would, if approved by a vote of the people, amend the constitution. It would allow the Legislature to license lenders and set maximum interest rates. Present 10 per cent ceiling, widely ignored, would be abolished.

Sen. Frank Owen III of El Paso led a long-winded assault on the measure. He and other senators insisted such regulation should be limited to loans under $500 to $600.

Senate gave Kazen's measure preliminary approval, despite all the opposition.

PARTY IN-FIGHTING BEGINS — Fifteen months ahead of convention time is not too soon for Texas Democrats to start haggling over who'll receive their presidential nominating votes.

U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson is the local point of controversy. Recent developments:

Young Democrats of Texas, currently controlled by left-wingers, declared the senator should pay more attention to the party platform. J. Ed Connally, chairman of the state executive committee, quickly announced the Young Demos did not speak for the party. He called them "immature extremists."

Democrats of Texas, unofficial liberal organization, announced it would have a convention in Austin in May. DOT, also, has "fallen out" with Sen. Johnson.

In the Legislature, the House elections committee approved a bill that would allow Senator Johnson to run for president and reelection as senator in the same general election.

INVESTMENT BOARD URGED — A bill by Sen. Hubert Hudson of Brownsville would create a new board to handle investments of three large state trust funds.

Making up the nine-member board would be the governor, attorney general, comptroller, chairman of the two retirement systems, chairman of the State Board of Education and three bank presidents.

Investment in corporate stocks and bonds would be permitted by Hudson's measure. Altogether, the three funds total $820,000,000.

NO AGGIE WOMEN — U. S. Supreme Court has upheld state court rulings that women are not entitled by law to enter Texas A&M College.

A&M officials were pleased, but Bryan-Brazos County citizens, for the most part, took a dim view of the enrollment restriction.

Their feelings were reflected in Bryan by Sen. William T. Moore's prediction that "if the A&M Board continues its present policies, the time will come when A&M will have a classroom for each student enrolled there."

There is fear that when Arlington College, an A&M branch which admits women, advances to senior college status, it may eclipse the parent institution.

Alien to Concepts of Nation's Originators

"Reports are that some 168,000 Americans have offered to place their entire acreage into long term idleness under the new 1959 soil bank program . . .

"Restoration of worn out soil is one thing. Overproduction of a given commodity or commodities is another. But there's a principle involved in the soil bank problem that is alien to both premises and somewhat alien to the concepts of the originators of this country."—Carlsbad, N. M., Current-Argus.

The first aerial mine laying mission in the South Pacific was carried out on March 20, 1943, when 42 Marine Corps "Avengers" mined the waters off southern Bougainville in a dangerous night mission.

Kay Shirley, Sherri Speer, Micki Owens, Mary Lou Kralicke, Nicki Woods, Sarah Bell, Floyce Hudson, Peggy Welch, Sharla Haynie, Peggy Raspberry, Bill Lynch Jr., Johnny Davis, Buff Nelson, Jackie Thomas, Rhonda Jan Vecera and the honoree, Donna Gail. Riverside H. D. Club

"I usually keep my overnight bag always ready with the articles I feel I will need most when I make a hurried trip," stated Mrs. Billy Cleveland when she gave the program on "Let's Take a Trip" at the Riverside Home Demonstration Club meeting at the Riverside school house Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Cleveland showed the club members the various articles she always kept in the bag. "Shoe bags are very essential since you can keep your shoes in place and clean," she stated. She showed a small laundry bag that she always keeps in her larger piece of luggage.

Mrs. Monroe Karcher showed the club ladies how to fold a dress, using tissue paper. She said, "when you remove the dress from the suit case, hang it up and the wrinkles will soon disappear."

The president, Mrs. John S. Ray, had charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Ray and Mrs. W. A. Musseter each brought some readings for the opening exercises.

Each club member donated to the cancer fund. The club voted to re-decorate the room where they hold their meeting. Eight members and one visitor, Mrs. Ward Kuehn, enjoyed the program and the refreshments of drinks and cookies.

Refreshments were served to eleven members and three visitors, Mrs. Bill Fish, Mrs. John Fish and Mrs. C. S. Lewis.

Get-well cards were sent to Mrs. Maude Raspberry and Mrs. Donald Werley.

BASIC RESEARCH

"Basic research is the quest for fundamental discoveries which can open broad new pathways for technical advancement and human betterment. It can be carried on in the laboratories of government and industry. But it is best conducted in the atmosphere of dedicated free inquiry which prevails in our colleges and universities."—Rayne, La., News.

"How wonderful would be this world we live in if we could all keep Christmas in our hearts—all year round; if we could fill our hearts with love and do away with hatred and intolerance; if we could replace the yearning for the gold and pleasures of the world with the virtues of faith and moral courage."—Pilger, Neb., Enterprise.
