Education Week To Be Observed

Local Schools Host Parent Open House

March 1-5 are the dates set for this year's Texas Public Schools Week, which will mark the 117th year of public schools in Texas.

Neal B. Dillman, superintendent of Muleshoe Schools, has announced that open house will be held March 1-2, but he encourages parents and citizens to visit anytime during this week-long observance.

Fred Mardis, Muleshoe High School principal, and Wayland Ethridge, Muleshoe Junior High School principal, announce that open house will be Monday, March 1, from 7-9 p.m. on both campuses.

Ethridge stated that the Science Fair for the junior high will be in the foyer of the junior high gym and the American Heritage projects will be on display in Room 26.

The principals of Mary De Shazo, Bill Taylor and Milton Oylar at Richland Hills Elementary Schools, will have open house on their respective campuses Tuesday, March 2, 7-9 p.m. The elementary Science Fairs will be held in conjunction with the open house in these two schools.

The Masonic Lodges in Texas sponsor this special week and have chosen the annual theme "For Democracy in Action." Educators and Masons join in this statewide campaign.

In Governor Smith's official proclamation, he said, "before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with world events, it is also important to remember that our public schools will furnish our tomorrow's leaders with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge."

"The importance of education in our world of today and tomorrow cannot be overemphasized," said Superintendent Dillman. "The kind of education our children receive is vital to their intellectual development. We are very fortunate in having a splendid system of public schools in Muleshoe, and during the week of March 1-5, we would like for our citizens to take time out to maintain an active interest in the schools.

"The role of the parent can be a significant one," he continued, "and can be a deciding factor in the way a youngster feels about school.

"Your child needs encouragement. Provide this encouragement by explaining why he

Supplemental Registration Total Rises

At noon Friday, 70 more supplemental vote registrations had been noted in the office of Bailey County Tax Assessor Jean Lovelady. This includes additional registrations by 18-year olds under new federal law. This does not include registrations at sub-stations in southern Bailey County. A complete tabulation will be available during the next week.

Because of a ruling by Secretary of State Martin Dies, vote registration, which originally ended January 31 was extended to February 28. Mrs. Lovelady said that due to the fact the courthouse was not open on Friday and February 28 is on Sunday, the registration extension ended on Friday, February 26.

It is expected that a record number of registrations will equal or exceed the highest registration recorded in past years.

M. C. Street New Deputy For County

Replacing Gordon Houston (Corky) Green as a deputy sheriff for Bailey County is M.C. (Bud) Street, a former deputy sheriff in Lamar County (Tex.). Street has lived in Bailey County for the past 13 years, since moving back here from Paris, He and his family reside about 23 miles southwest of Muleshoe near the New Mexico line where he was a farmer before becoming a deputy.

He and his wife, Lillian, who is a native of England, have five children. Jim, the eldest is in the Coast Guard, stationed at Alameda, Calif.; Vickie is a sophomore at Texas Tech University, Lubbock; Matt is a senior in Muleshoe High School; John is a junior in MHS and Roxanne is a freshman in MHS. Bailey County Sheriff Dee Clements said Street, with his prior experience in law enforcement, is a definite asset to Bailey County.

Heart Association Begins Campaign

Today (Sunday) is 'Heart Sunday' in Muleshoe. Following a meeting at 1:30 p.m. in the First National Bank, volunteers, including the Missionettes from the Women's Missionary Conference; Epsilon Sigma Alpha; Llano Estacado, assisted by the Muleshoe Girl Scouts and the Young Homemakers will conduct a house-to-house campaign.

The campaign will be conducted to obtain funds through contribution for the Bailey County Unit of the American Heart Association, according to Chairman Jeff Smith. He said workers have held a business and professional campaign prior to the house-to-house campaign.

Smith also commented that in the near future a blood pressure clinic will be set up in the local school system and children will be tested by the school nurses. He added that the local association has a film available on open heart surgery and the film is available to clubs and civic organizations. Smith only asked that he be given advance notice as to when the film would be shown. A doctor would also attend the meeting to explain the procedure used.

In citing heart disease statistics, Smith said that in 1969, 30 people died in Bailey County from heart attacks or heart related illnesses; 22 in Cochran County; 70 in Hockley County; 76 in Lamb County; 19 in Parmer County; 18 in Castro County and 43 in Deaf Smith County.

Coronary heart attacks and related illnesses comprise the major death cause in the entire United States, but Smith said that in most cases, persons who experience heart problems have advance warning. The warnings include: Prolonged, oppressive pain or unusual discomfort in the center of the chest, behind the breastbone; pain that may radiate to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw; the pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating, nausea, vomiting or shortness of breath; and sometimes these symptoms subside and return.

He added, that these symptoms vary, and there may be combinations of the symptoms. Smith stressed that although an attempt will be made to personally contact every family

Judge Nowlin Has Activity In February

Justice of the Peace and Municipal Judge Morris Nowlin had a fairly busy month for February with 33 speeding tickets leading the list of traffic violations in JP court. Only one ticket was issued for speeding by city officers.

Other top violations were four charges of drunk by city officers and four by county and state officers.

Violations next were no valid driver's license in possession, two; and failure to appear in answer to citation, two.

One violation was filed in each of the following: parked on roadway; failure to set out warning flares; no valid MVD sticker; driving too closely (causing collision) and unsafe change from marked land (causing collision).

In other city charges was one violation for failure to stop for flashing red light.

A highly educational and interesting address was given by Dr. Maurice Hood, M.D. of Austin in which he explained some of the potentials for saving human lives by the use of better equipped ambulances and more professionally trained personnel. Also it was pointed out that more responsive medical attention at the hospitals, including more ef-

18 Civic Leaders Cited By Governor

Eighteen Muleshoe business and civic leaders received citations Friday from the Texas Industrial Commission and Governor Preston Smith for having made a "significant contribution to Texas' industrial development."

around muleshoe with the journal staff

In a special called session Friday afternoon, the Bailey County Commissioners met with two representatives of the Community Action Program from Lubbock and Levelland who requested that the county consider allowing the CAP to begin operations in Bailey County again.

By request of the County Commissioners, CAP was asked to cease actions in the county in December, 1970.

Around 5 p.m. a delegation of Mexican-American people attended the session with the request that CAP be allowed to operate.

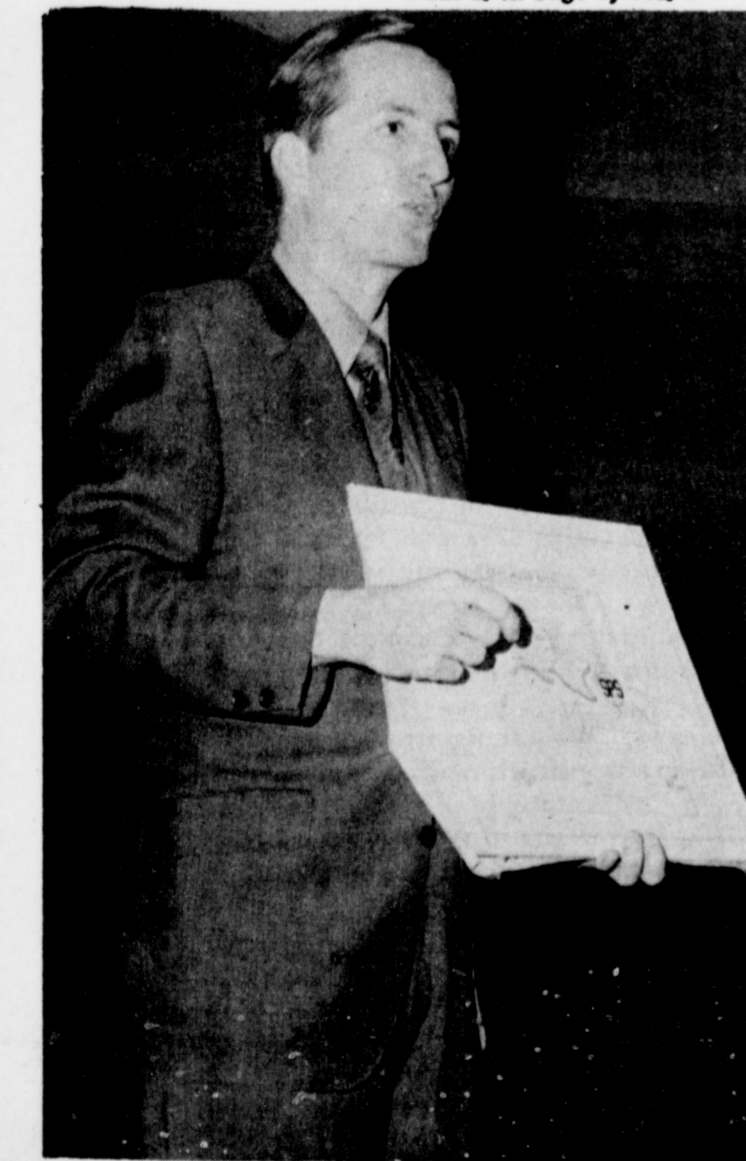

No decision was reached by the Bailey County Commissioner's Court during the afternoon and evening.

Representatives from the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps will be guests of Lazbuddie High School to explain programs and benefits provided by each of their respective services.

The present lottery system of Selective Service will also be explained.

These representatives will be at the high school from 2:30-3:30 p.m. on Monday, March 1. School officials urge all interested persons to attend the meeting to learn more of the Armed Forces and the services they provide.

Muleshoe City Council member Kenneth Heathington is reported to be recuperating from the mumps at his home.

Muleshoe Officials At Austin Meeting

City Councilman Frank Ellis and County Judge Glen Williams, accompanied by Percy Parsons, funeral director of Olton, were in Austin Friday, February 19th for a seminar presented by the Ambulance Institute and the Funeral Director and Embalmers Association of Texas. The seminar was held in regard to Senate Bill #17, an important piece of legislation that has been introduced in this session of the legislature. Hearings were held the week before on House Bill #34, companion Legislation. "This is a highly important matter that might vitally affect ambulance service," said Ellis, and the cost thereof, in this area, the general sentiment of the meeting was that the Bill should either be defeated or modified, and it is believed that much good was accomplished."

According to the provisions of Senate Bill #17 and House Bill #34, if they should become law, no ambulance could make an emergency run without having a specially trained driver, and an attendant aboard at all times. This would greatly increase the cost of operations. Furthermore additional equipment would have to be purchased at an estimated cost from $3,500 to $5,500. In our County, and in other similar areas throughout the State, this would put so great a financial burden on the local ambulance operators that they could not bear it. In other words it will force them out of the ambulance business, in which event the County or City will either have to subsidize them or take over the operation of ambulances themselves. Either way it will mean many thousands of dollars a year additional cost. "We, the people of Bailey County need to be giving thought to this, because sooner or later the legislation will pass the additional expense will have to be borne by Williams.

A presentation of the Bill was made by its sponsor, Senator Charles Herring of Austin. A lively and heated question and answer period followed. It is thought the Bill will either be defeated this session or will be somewhat modified. But Senator Herring and others explained that whether it passes at this session or not, that type legislation will come soon - if not on the State level then on the Federal.

A highly educational and interesting address was given by Dr. Maurice Hood, M.D. of Austin in which he explained some of the potentials for saving human lives by the use of better equipped ambulances and more professionally trained personnel. Also it was pointed out that more responsive medical attention at the hospitals, including more ef-

Get Into The Clique Says Muleshoe C of C

From Frank Ellis, President Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce

It is a clique of people that spends more time performing than talking about what "they" Cont'd. on Page 3, Col. 3

The answer to the charge that the "Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce is a clique" has been given. It is!! I answered the charge recently without mincing words when a member suggested that "The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce should shed it's clique image."

I told the member, "You bet, the Chamber of Commerce is the Chamber of Commerce is a clique. It is a clique of businesses and individuals interested in making our community a better place to live."

Sure it's a clique. A clique of involved people and a clique with a record of accomplishment.

A clique of people investing time and money in an organization that gets things done.

Auxiliary Busy With Projects; Thank Donors

Mrs. Gary Miller of the West Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary reported that the Auxiliary has been extremely busy recently coordinating new programs to help the patients at the hospital and the Muleshoe Nursing home.

She expressed the appreciation of the Auxiliary to Cashway Grocery, who contributed a grocery cart to help take supplies from room to room and to Williams and Merriman for typing and copying services.

Mrs. Miller said that "without the volunteer services and contributions of such civic-minded groups as the two mentioned above, the Auxiliary would not be able to function properly."

Easter Seal Appeal Begins On Wednesday

Easter Seal Appeal letters will be delivered this week in Bailey County according to Jimmie Crawford, the Easter Seal representative of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. As representative, he serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also serves as Treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Bailey County.

He explained that the Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs, and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal, headed.

He pointed out that all these programs are important if Texas is going to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation services for its own disabled citizens, and said that in 1970, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services for over 21,000 children and adults who were in need of rehabilitation. These services are available to any disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, Crawford added, and concluded that he may be contacted for further details on the program and how to obtain assistance through the Easter Seal Appeal.

Dear Editor:

Recently I checked into the operation of five hospital districts and two county hospitals. Of the five district hospitals, one has collected taxes for seven years, one for four years and three for two years. The one that has collected taxes for seven years started at the rate of 40¢ per $100 evaluation and went to the limit allowed by law of 75¢ per $100 in five years.

The one that has collected taxes for four years raised taxes 5¢ per $100 each year except last year. Taxes were raised 6¢ per $100 in 1970 (to 36¢ per hundred) and the hospital hasn't even been completed yet.

Two of the district hospitals that have collected taxes for two years raised their taxes 10¢ per $100 the second year.

The third district hospital that has collected taxes for two years hasn't raised taxes yet but has only osteopathic doctors and apparently doesn't have enough business to lose very much money.

One of the county hospitals lost $123,000.00 in 1970. The figures on the other county hospital was not available to me but according to an article in the town's paper if the hospital didn't come up with $60,000 in the next few days they would be forced to close.

By the way, the only major difference that I can find in a county and a district hospital is that the county's Commissioner's Court appropriates money to cover the loss of a county hospital and they are generally hard-headed businessmen. The district hospital is generally run by a group of civic leaders and often they let their emotions rule rather than common sense.

When the Board of Directors set up the Bailey County Hospital District it is my understanding that the county evaluation was doubled from about $16 million to about $32 million since the established county evaluation wouldn't generate enough income to operate the district and pay off the bonds.

Using the 50¢ rate and the evaluation established by the Bailey County Hospital Board and using the first example mentioned this hospital district will cost Bailey County taxpayers $1,408,000 the first seven years of operation. Should the Hospital Board decide to raise the evaluation (and there is nothing to prevent it) there is no limit to the amount of tax money that can be lost on this operation.

Are the new hospitals attracting doctors? One of the districts had gained three doctors since the district was created but the director said that all were considering the move before the district was created and he understood that they would have come anyway.

Another district has had three immigrant doctors to move their practice yet only one is practicing there at this time. Are the district hospitals solving the problems? When asked this question individuals in the different districts answered that they didn't know as they went to hospitals in Lubbock or Midland or Big Spring or San Angelo or Abilene.

Yours truly,
(s) Richard E. Black

Cattle Growers Oppose Bans On Chemicals

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, FEB. 13, 1971 --- Opposition by Southwestern cattle producers to the threatened ban of brush-killer 2,4,5-T was voiced by official statements of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association's special Agricultural Chemical Committee before the recent hearings in Washington of the new Environmental Protection Agency. Frank H. Lewis, TSCRA president, announced, "We are taking all steps possible to see that useful and safe agricultural chemicals are not needlessly banned."

The TSCRA new "watchdog" chemical committee was formed late last year to guard against legislation or government restrictions that are extremely harsh. With John Matthews of Abilene as chairman, the committee is composed of the TSCRA officers and two advisors, Dr. H. O. Kunkel of Texas A&M University and Dr. Joe Schuster of Texas Tech University.

"We feel that the Environmental Protection Agency must learn to judge the benefit-risk ratio in the use of 2,4,5-T herbicide. We consider further restrictions of this chemical are not warranted until such time proof of environmental harm has been substantiated," added Frank Lewis.

Earlier, Matthews and his committee had met with top officials of the American National Cattlemen's Association to discuss action to oppose unnecessary restrictions on chemical use. The TSCRA committee initiated a resolution before the Animal Health Committee of the ANCA which eventually came before the ANCA membership and was adopted urging Congressional committees to weigh carefully any proposed legislation restricting the use of agricultural chemicals. Following the ANCA convention, John Matthews met with officials of Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University to plan briefs to be filed at the EPA review of evidence. Matthews filed a lengthy statement on behalf of the TSCRA committee, written primarily from a layman's standpoint and backed by evidence from the Soil Conservation findings. Dr. Kunkel reported that a joint statement from Texas A&M and the Texas Extension Service, supported by their own research, was filed with the EPA for this review. Dr. Schuster of Texas Tech also sent evidence from his test findings.

"A good many Texas ranchers have sent in private statements," said Matthews, "as we have contacted farm editors and broadcasters who have urged individuals to respond to this emergency. Our committee has been told that should a decision be made against us at the end of this review period, we will be allowed a rebuttal."

Matthews urged ranchers to continue to write the Environmental Protection Agency of their experiences with 2,4,5-T.

Who Wants To Be A Square?

GUEST EDITORIAL:

SQUARE! Another of the good old words has gone the way of love, and modesty and patriotism. Something to be snickered over, or outright laughed at. Why, it used to be there was no higher compliment you could pay a man than to call him a SQUARE SHOOTER. The old men's promise of a SQUARE DEAL once was as binding as an oath on the Bible. But today, a SQUARE is a guy who volunteers when he doesn't have to. He's a guy who gets his kicks from trying to do a job better than anyone else. He's a boob who gets so lost in his work that he has to be reminded to go home.

A square is a guy who doesn't want to stop at a bar and get all juiced up because he prefers to go to his own home, his own dinner table, and his own bed. He hasn't learned to cut corners or goof off. This nut we call a square gets all choked up when he hears children singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee," He even believes in God and says so in public.

Some of the old squares were Nathan Hale, Patrick Henry, George Washington, and Ben Franklin.

Some of the new squares are Glenn, Shepherd, Carpenter, Cooper, and Schirra. John Glenn says he gets a funny feeling down inside when he sees the flag go by; says he's proud he belongs to the Boy Scouts and the Y.M.C.A. How square can you get?

A square is a guy who lives within his means whether the Joneses do or not, and thinks his Uncle Sam should too. He doesn't want to "Fly now and pay later." A square is likely to save some of his own money for a rainy day rather than to count on using yours.

A square gets his books out of a library instead of the drug store. He tells his son it is more important to play fairly than to win. Imagine! A square is a guy who reads scripture when nobody's watching and prays when nobody's listening. He's a guy who thinks Christmas trees should be green, and that Christmas gifts should be hand-picked. He wants to see America first in everything. He believes in honoring mother and father and "Do unto others," and that kind of stuff.

He thinks he knows more than his teen-ager about our freedom and curfew.

So... will all of you goony birds answering this description please stand up? You misfits in this brave new age; you dimly disorganized, improperly apologetic ghosts of the past, stand up!! You squares who turn the wheels, and dig the fields and move mountains, and put rivers in our dreams! You squares who dignify the human race! You squares who hold the thankless world in place---stand up and be counted.

"The next phase in the development of the computer program is to match Muleshoe plant location resources with a profile of the location requirements of all types of expanding industries," Sheffield said.

"This will enable us at the commission to help you concentrate your industrial development program on companies you have the best chance of attracting to Muleshoe," Sheffield continued.

Sheffield also was highly complimentary of the industrial teams who compiled the information on the 393 questions asked. He said that the Muleshoe group is "one of the best groups of industrial developers we know of. Only one question out of the 393 asked needs to be answered, and that in part only."

The one question was answered during the meeting. He also commended the quality of the information received and issued a 'special thanks to all those who put the information together.'

Presiding at the meeting was Harmon Elliott, chairman of the Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation, who introduced Eldon Scoffield, Southwestern Public Service Company industrial development officer, who explained a new SWPS program for attracting industry.

Following an explanation of the program, a brief meeting was called by Chairman Elliott, where the MAIF board agreed to participate.

The program entails participating in a booth set up at the American Apparel Trade Show at Dallas in an effort to attract garment manufacturers to this area. Chief attraction point will be offering five acres of land free to a manufacturer who will agree to begin operations within 18 months and employ a minimum of 75 people.

are inclined to favor the Bill, with certain modifications, but the Funeral Directors Association are officially opposed. Regardless of the outcome however the people of this area will ultimately have to pay more for ambulance services and those additional expenses will likely have to be borne by the County and/or City.

"The Muleshoe area is presently receiving splendid ambulance service and it, no doubt, is greatly appreciated," added the Judge. Ellis stated that under present laws, with the splendid cooperation he has from City officials, County officials and others he can continue - and he wants to continue. But if he is forced to employ additional and more professionally trained personnel at a much greater cost, and purchase more expensive equipment, then he cannot continue without financial assistance.

"In conclusion, it is a problem that affects each of us, we must have ambulance service, so we must work it out together," concluded Judge Williams.

Choosing crop chemicals can be confusing. There are any number with look-alike labels... similar claims... but different results. Let CFS give you a hand. We compare the leading chemicals point by point, and observe them in actual field use. The ones that do the best job are marked "CFS Approved". Then we go a step farther. We test your soil for organic matter, texture and pH, because all of these can affect herbicide performance. The "CFS Approved" chemicals we recommend will give the best control... at the lowest cost... on your land. CFS is the only retail supplier to balance all these factors in recommending a chemical protection program. Before you buy, be sure to look for the "CFS Approved" seal. Call or stop in today.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,

I have a first baby, one month old, and my family is having an argument about how they--babies--should be treated. My mother says that when hers were born they were told to let them cry and let them stay by themselves so they wouldn't be spoiled. My sister, who has two children says that the doctors have changed their minds about that. They now believe babies need to be cuddled and loved and not to be too rigid about feeding times. Who do you think is right? I don't want a spoiled baby but I do want a happy, healthy one.

Puzzled - Va.
Answer:
I think your sister is right. That doesn't mean one has to pick up a baby everytime he cries if nothing is hurting him or he doesn't need to be burped. But our experts of today tell us that a baby who is loved and talked to even when he is small has a much better personality later on and a better relationship with his parents and other people.

I have always been very sorry for babies who spent their days alone in cribs or playpens. I never subscribed to such a method even though it was thought to be right when my boys were babies.

Louisa

Mrs. Slemmons, Mrs. Sweatman Return From Caribbean Cruise

Mrs. T.M. Slemmons and Mrs. Sherman Sweatman have returned from a 13 day cruise in the Caribbean. They left by plane from Lubbock February 15 and returned February 18. From Lubbock they flew to Port Everglades, Florida where they boarded their ship, the USS MERMOZ.

On the cruise, they visited the islands of St. Thomas, Guadeloupe, Barbados, Trinidad, Curacao, the Virgin Islands, Grand Bahamas and Jamaica.

Both Mrs. Slemmons and Mrs. Sweatman reported that they had a very enjoyable trip and found many interesting items and saw some fascinating sights.

The ship served as their hotel and it made most of its stops at night and then the passengers visited the islands during the day.

Mrs. Slemmons stated that Guadeloupe was the porrest of the islands they visited. Their people were all poor and the sanitation on the island was bad. It was in sharp contrast to the Virgin Islands where most of the people there seemed to be working and the streets were kept clean. Evidently, the American influence in the Virgin Islands made a difference in the people.

Curacao was typically Dutch with most buildings built the same as in Holland. It was a very clean island and the people were friendly.

While on the island of Jamaica, they took a raft trip down the Rio Grande River. Each raft held two persons and was made of bamboo. They traveled inland to the river by car and came out by raft. On the trip, they traveled through the jungles and saw many interesting sights such as banana plantations, tropical flowers and birds. Mrs. Slemmons said that the water was crystal clear but they never saw a fish.

They both enjoyed the food on the trip which was prepared by French chefs. They also noted that the merchandise in all the stores on the islands was from all over the world. The crafts from the areas were particularly interesting to both women and they tried to pick up an item from each of the islands.

Both women reported that they enjoyed going on the cruise together and it was a wonderful and exciting trip for anyone to take.

The tennis team is composed of twenty students who have not participated in inter-school competition prior to this year. The experience of the individuals vary from none to some experience during the summer time. The opportunities for this season are varied; in fact almost every individual has a chance to either play in the Amarillo Relays or district contest at Canyon or both.
The team will enter both the A and B division of these two meets. The most important point about tennis is that it gives people who do not take part in other sports, the opportunity to represent their school.
The 1971 Volleyball season is underway and the Mulets will be playing Levelland for the section championship during the third week in March. This year both varsity and junior varsity teams will play against Levelland. This sport offers a break from basketball after a long season.

Local FFA Group Outlines Purposes

By C. L. Myers
The Future Farmers of America, commonly known as FFA, is the national organization for boys studying Vocational Agriculture in public schools under the provisions of the National Vocational Education Acts.
There is no national student organization that enjoys greater freedom of self government under adult council and guidance than the Future Farmers of America. Organized in 1928, it has served to motivate and vitalize the systematic instruction offered to students of Vocational Agriculture and to provide further training in farmer-citizenship.
The FFA is an intra-curricular activity having its origin and root in the school curriculum. Among other things, members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting; to speak in public; to buy and sell cooperatively; to solve their own problems; to finance themselves; and to assume civic responsibility.
The foundation upon which the FFA organization is built include leadership and character development, sportsmanship, cooperation, improved agriculture, citizenship and patriotism.
The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship.
The FFA colors are national blue and corn gold. The motto of the FFA is:
Learning To Do
Doing To Learn
Earning To Live
Living To Serve
The Future Farmers of America is a non-profit, non-political farm youth organization of voluntary membership. Combined with the high school instruction in Vocational Agriculture, it constitutes one of the most efficient agricultural teaching devices that has ever been discovered. The FFA is 100% American in its ideals and outlook and has no outside affiliations.

The rapid but healthy expansion of the organization, the keen interest of its members, and the whole-hearted support accorded it has been gratifying to all who are concerned with the welfare of farm boys and young men throughout the land.
The FFA exists today because of a cooperative spirit and a desire on the part of farm boys, 14 to about 21 years of age preparing for farming throughout vocational agriculture, to have a national organization of their own in which they can secure practical business experience, act as their own instructors, and enjoy the fellowship of one another. Improved agriculture, better local communities, a more satisfying farm home life, and more efficient farmer-citizens are developing as a result of the boys' experiences.

FAD Presented Drama Liliom During Week

By Babs Haire
Relatively small but enthusiastic crowds enjoyed the Fine Arts production, "Liliom," Monday and Tuesday nights, February 22 and 23.
The credits were presented in a new way-slides shown before the play. The screen went up and the curtains opened on a lively and amusing carnival scene. While Punch and Judy fought, Liliom (Joe Duke) and Mrs. Muskat (Renee Caldwell) argued over Julie (Greta Bamert) while Marie (Donna Woodard) looked on in horror.
In the first scene, Liliom and Julie sat on a park bench and talked until they were interrupted by two policemen (Bill Chapman and Ronnie Parker) who warned Julie to go home.
The second and third scenes took place some time later, after Liliom and Julie were married. Liliom and Fiscur (Jimmy Lambert) plotted to steal the leather factory parole from Linzman (Larry Edler).
Once at the train station, Liliom lost all his money to Fiscur in a crooked card game. The robbery plan failed, Fiscur escaped, and Liliom stabbed himself.
In a very moving scene, Liliom told Julie that he felt his life had been a failure because he couldn't provide for her. After his death, God's policemen took him to the heavenly court presided over by the Magistrate (Jimmy Evans) who sentenced Liliom to sixteen years of purification by fire.
After sixteen years, Liliom returned to earth to do a good deed for his daughter, Louise (Judy Woodard). In his anxiousness to do a good deed for her, he got angry and struck her instead. The drama ended with Julie telling Louise that it is possible for someone you love to try to hurt you, but you never feel it at all.
All during the production, the stage crew worked behind the scenes. They stayed long after the last curtain call to clear the stage and put up the sets.
After the play on Tuesday, the actors, still in costume, met with the stage crew and friends at the Corral Restaurant for a strike party where everyone enjoyed eating and signing programs. Everyone left the party with many fond memories of the play and the people who participated and with a feeling of satisfaction for a job well done.

Second runner-up for "Most Beautiful," Deborah Wagon, did a modern dance to "Hawaii Five-O." Second runner-up Lance Puckett sang "I Wanna Go Home," accompanied by Veri Burriss and the Western Gentlemen.
The winners were chosen on the basis of poise, personality, personal interviews with the judges, street dress and evening wear presentation, and talent.

Driver Education Too Costly For Teens?

AUSTIN: - "The children of less affluent Texas families are being denied the advantage of Driver Education," the President of the Texas Safety Association, George Wm. Perry of Dallas, charged today.

Perry said that because Driver Education is not part of the foundation school program, the cost of the driver training program is often prohibitive for lower income families.

"A survey of 34 Texas school districts," said Perry, "shows that students are required to pay fees as high as $50.00 to take Driver Education courses. One district charges $47.00 and another $45.00. Forty-two is the fee charged by one district, and two charge $40.00. Three districts charge $35.00, and two charge $32.00. Thirty dollars is charged by nine of the districts surveyed, while five districts charge $25.00. Another five charge $20.00. One charges $14.00, and one is low with a charge of $5.00."

"It is my belief," said Perry, "that the size of fees charged in many areas of the state are keeping teenager from less affluent families from enrolling in Driver Education courses, thus making the young drivers and the people they meet on the highways more vulnerable to traffic crashes. The size of the fees currently charged could well be one reason why only 56% of eligible Texas teens take Driver Education. Is it any wonder that traffic crashes are a major killer andcrippler of teenagers?"

The safety organization leader continued, "Because they are not able to afford this vital training, such youngsters must wait two years longer than their fellow teenagers to obtain their drivers licenses." "And, in addition," said Perry, "the families of these teenagers who cannot afford Driver Education training must pay more for automobile insurance, since they cannot qualify for the ten percent Driver Education credit given by insurance companies."

"When one considers the importance of Driver Education in relation to reducing traffic accidents, injuries, deaths, and their costs," said Perry, "it is difficult to understand why this program is not made available on an equal basis to all students."

"The best way to accomplish this," he commented, "is to include Driver Education in the foundation school program. Such action, in most districts, would reduce the fee to under $10.00 and eliminate it altogether in some. Band, Home Economics, Physical Education, Typing, and Drama are all included in the foundation school program, and Driver Education should be.

Texas Grain Fed Beef Pushed By WT-CofC

"The next time you buy your favorite steak or other cut of beef, you will probably be made aware that it was produced in Texas"; this is the objective of the Texas Grain Fed Beef Promotion Committee that met in Austin recently. The organizations represented on the committee will be working with restaurants and retail grocers to identify and promote Texas grain fed beef.

Don Workman, Vice President of The First National Bank of Lubbock and the representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was elected Chairman of the group.

Workman said, "Many people here in Texas are not aware that the excellent beef they are eating is produced here in the state. With the unified action of the organizations represented on the Texas Grain Fed Beef Promotion Committee, we hope to establish a program that will make Texas beef recognized and appreciated."

The committee has adopted two major slogans for promotional purposes, "Tenderness is Texas Grain Fed Beef" and "Real Eating Pleasure... Texas Grain Fed Beef".

W. Price, Jr., Executive Vice President of the Texas Restaurant Association, explained that "the beef coming out of Texas feedlots and processed by packers here in Texas is the finest beef that can be bought."

Frank Brooks, Meat Specialist for the Texas Department of Agriculture, added, "The committee hopes to make everyone in Texas aware that the finest beef in the world is produced right here in the Lone Star State."

Lloyd Bergsma, Executive Vice President of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association said, "Texas now ranks second in the nation in the number of cattle on feed and we are rapidly gaining on Iowa, the number one state."

Jack Springer, Executive Vice President of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce who acted as Secretary for the committee, emphasized that beef always has been an important part of our Texas economy. Springer pointed out, "Even with urbanization and industrialization of our state, we have more cows in Texas today than people." The latest census shows slightly more than eleven million people and more than twelve and a half million cows.

Other members of the committee and the organizations they represent are: William H. Brigham, Texas Retail Grocers Association; Jack Carrothers, Texas Cattle Feeders Association; Lamar Holley, Texas and Southwest Meat Packers Association; Jim McNease, National Livestock and Meat Board; Elbert Harp, Grain Sorghum Producers Association and Don C. King, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Inc.

Safety's Hidden Helper

In Miami, a woman sued the city for damages after her heel caught in a manhole cover. In short order, the city bought 500 new manhole covers with smaller holes.

Nonskid rug pads began to sell better in Philadelphia after a home owner was held liable to a visitor who slipped on a loose rug.

A major chemical company, concerned about possible lawsuits, reexamined hundreds of its labels and found 60% of them dangerously inadequate. All were changed for the better.

In Santa Monica, hundreds of rotting trees were chopped down because of a court ruling on liability for falling branches.

These examples illustrate the positive side of an oft-maligned, oft-underestimated social institution: the damage suit. As a spur to safety, as a stimulant to the prevention of accidents, the damage suit has an influence that would be hard to exaggerate.

True, only a limited number of individuals or companies ever face the ordeal of actually defending themselves in court. But the effect of these cases is enormously multiplied by the legal doctrine of "precedent."

According to this doctrine, each case sets a standard of behavior which will apply, in varying degree, whenever a similar situation arises again. Each finding of liability is a warning to one and all that similar conduct in the future may well result in similar liability.

Of course, the damage suit (like many valuable medicines) can have unfortunate side effects. A playground director, nervous about the possibility of being sued, removed every swing, slide, and carousel from the premises. Doctors, fearful of malpractice claims, may "play safe" by avoiding the use of new treatments which their professional judgment would approve.

But such things do not change the basic virtue of the damage suit: the subtle, steady pressure it exerts toward careful conduct. When a golfer behind you hollers "Fore!", he may be motivated by a sense of etiquette. Or he may be motivated by simple kindness. But he may also be motivated—very powerfully—by visions of winding up at the target end of a lawsuit.

America the Beautiful...

From the time that Columbus discovered America... men have thought of this country as something special. It was here that Ponce de Leon sought the Fountain of Youth, and men have long admired America's majestic mountains and beautiful valleys. However, the real beauty lies not in the land, but in the people. The people came... seeking a land where they could worship God in freedom, and under God developed a kind and loving spirit. This is what makes America beautiful.

Attend church regularly... help keep America beautiful.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Coleman Adv. Ser.

The following business firms urge you to attend the church of your choice this Sunday and every Sunday

It takes two, your Chamber of Commerce and you.

Wednesday, March 3rd, is the kick-off date for the Chamber of Commerce membership drive. The membership committee members are Lindal Murray, Chairman, Joe Pat Wagnon, M.D. Gunstream, Derrell Oliver, and Roger Albertson. Each of the committee members will have four helpers to kick the drive off Wednesday morning. We are looking forward to what we know will be the biggest drive in a number of years. We need your financial support as an investment in better living conditions, a better economy, and simply a better Muleshoe.

Invest in the future of Muleshoe. It takes two, your Chamber and you.
