Bryan Waid Leaves Schools to Promote Carlsbad Cavern Route

Bryan Waid of Frederick, Okla., has recently resigned his position as superintendent of schools in that city to devote all of his time to the promotion of the Carlsbad Cavern Route to California. Mr. Waid is a frequent visitor in Crowell in the interest of the Carlsbad Cavern Guide Book, an annual publication developed as part of the travel system through Frederick, Vernon, Crowell, Pampa, and Lubbock to Carlsbad, N. M., and towns between there and Riverside, Calif. The guide book was originated by Tom Manning. Mr. Waid and his family will continue to live in Frederick. The commercial field which Mr. Waid entered on January 1 is an expanding development that has grown out of the vision of Tom Manning in establishing the Carlsbad Caverns route through his home city of Frederick. The route, originating at Oklahoma City, has Riverside, Calif., as its western terminus.

Waid plans to issue 25,000 copies of the guidebook each year, accomplishing distribution in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas, in this area, and in New Mexico and California from the western end of the route.

Traffic is gaining a tremendous increase in the number of tourists traveling each year on the Carlsbad Caverns route, laid out by Manning. Waid says his part of the program will be to assist Manning in his development by expansion of coverage and distribution of the Carlsbad Caverns Route Guidebook.

SUBMERSIBLE BARGE USED IN MARSHLAND OIL SEARCH

An ingenious method for producing oil from well drilled in the marshlands of the Lower Mississippi Delta has been developed by an oil company. The problem of producing from wells drilled in open shallow water has been met by a submersible tank battery barge. Its bottom section is actually a pontoon, by means of which the unit can be floated to the desired location. When the sea cocks are opened, the barge sinks to rest on the bottom of the bay. The upper section, above water, comprises a platform for the production equipment and for the tanks for storing oil from the wells connected to it. By solving such problems as this, the nation's oil men continue to production records.

The first barbed wire was in 1873 by Joseph F. Glidden, DeKalb, Illinois.

Texans Can Contribute to Improved Hunting and Fishing Conditions

Texans, young and old who like their hunting and fishing, can make contributions that will improve the wildlife of the state.

Since wildlife cannot always be controlled on the land where it is produced, R. E. Callender, specialist in wildlife conservation for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, points out that it is often desirable for neighboring landowners to pool their lands and operate their combined holdings as a unit. A program of protection, habitat improvement — providing food and cover — together with a regulated harvest during the open seasons can be more easily carried out by an organized group, says Callender.

Large cooperative areas where suitable habitats are found make a program of restocking possible.

Deer and wild turkeys have been returned to many areas of the state through restocking programs, and many of these areas now offer some of the state's best hunting. The specialist cites as an example the area in southern Robertson county. Deer from this restocked area have populated considerable sections of adjoining counties until this central Texas area has become a hunter's paradise.

In the case of bobwhite quail, Callender says they are well distributed over the entire state but in many areas the population is down to seed stock levels. He urges landowners and hunters to save these stocks and to begin a program that will improve their chances for multiplying. This can be done, he says, by improving the supply of food and cover in the area. He suggests that waste lands, nooks and corners be allowed to grow up in native plants. Strips of grain, he continues, may be sown around the margin of fields and left unharvested for the quail. Plowed or disced strips or contours in pasture lands will often increase the growth of dove and other weeds that provide food for game birds. He points out that this is also a good soil and water conservation practice and will increase the production from grazing lands. Since quail are ground nesting birds, they are subjected to many natural hazards — floods at nesting time, short food supplies and scanty cover during droughts and they also suffer from predators.

It is Callender's opinion that every one can have a part in conserving and more wisely using the wildlife resources of our state. He urges homeowners to lay out the welcome mat for the insect eating song birds by providing good homes for these feathered friends. Planting ornamental shrubs which produce food, providing water and supplemental feed will help keep desirable birds around the house the year-round, says Callender.

Last but not least, he adds, the income from wildlife resources including hunting leases, fishing permits and the sale of furs amounts to many millions of dollars annually to say nothing of other benefits. The wildlife of Texas, he says, deserves better treatment and urges that it be added to the list for improvement in 1952.

The only President of the United States to die in the Capitol was John Quincy Adams.

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer.

Austin—Ringworm of the scalp appears to be increasing in some sections of Texas, and action is underway to contain it.

Known in medical circles as "tinea capitis," ringworm of the scalp is said to be prevalent in the Rio Grande Valley, Houston, San Antonio, and Dallas. Reports to the State Department of Health say skin specialists in those areas are seeing increasing numbers of infected children.

A preliminary study conducted by the state health agency among 841 children in two Rio Grande Valley schools shows 5.5 per cent positive infections, in one group and 5.7 per cent in the other. Positively infected girls outnumbered the boys four to one, although there were more boy students, the study showed.

Ringworm is contagious. Children are most often afflicted, although adults, while less disposed to infection, often have more severe and longer lasting attacks.

Ringworm is marked by round, scaly areas on the scalp, and patchy baldness or short, broken-off hairs. It is caused by a fungus—a vegetable-like growth caused by spores. Sources of infection, health officials and skin specialists say, are the scalp lesions of infected persons, articles of clothing containing the spores, or the infected hairs or scales shed by an infected person.

State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox, in cooperation with the skin specialists society of the Texas Medical Association, and the State Board of Barbers and Cosmetologists, is rewriting the rules and regulations governing the sterilization of beauty and barber shop instruments after each use. They hope to get legislation enacted to provide penalties for non-compliance.

There is no immunization against ringworm. Recommended control measures are cleanliness of the hair and scalp, and provision for separate isolated classrooms for suspicious cases. Positively infected children should be excluded from school until the condition is cleared up, Dr. Cox believes.

Vernon District MYF Banquet to Be Held at Quanah March 3

The Vernon District Methodist Youth Fellowship banquet will be in the First Methodist Church at Quanah on March 3 at 7 p. m. Planners of this banquet state that they expect the largest group of Methodist Youth ever to attend a district banquet in the Vernon District to be present. The meal will be prepared by the women of the Quanah Methodist Church and will be served in the basement dining room of that church. The price of this meal will be $1.00 per plate.

Every local Methodist Youth group is making its plans to take one or more car loads of young people to this banquet. There are three reasons for the great excitement among the youth as they look forward to this event. From 7 o'clock until 7:30 there will be held the annual election of district officers for the year of 1952-53. At 7:30 o'clock the banquet meal will be served. At 8:30 the Williams Brothers Quartet will present a concert of sacred, semi-classic, modern idioms, and Negro folk songs. These brothers, Earl, Cecil, Maurice and Jack Williams, are students in Samuel Huston College in Austin. Samuel Huston College is a Negro college which is owned and operated by the Methodist Church.

Dr. Robert F. Harrington, president of the college, will address the youth group at the close of the meeting in the worship program. Dr. Harrington is one of the outstanding young Negro leaders of the southwest. He is also one of the leading Christian educators in the Methodist Church.

Dr. Harrington and the Williams Brothers have traveled throughout California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas in the past three years. The quartet has been acclaimed by the radio and by the press as one of the finest of its kind in the nation.

Rev. Carl Hudson, district Youth director, stated that this will be the finest banquet that has been held for the Methodist Youth in this district. He also stated that Dr. Harrington and the Williams Brothers will bring to this banquet one of the most unusual and the most inspirational programs ever to be presented at such a banquet.

DOUBLE-DUTY TANKERS CARRY PLANES AND OIL

Tankers operated by the Military Sea Transportation Service can now double as aircraft carriers, thanks to portable aluminum decking developed by the Navy. The lightweight aluminum framing, easy to assemble or take down, serves as a portable cargo deck and looks much like a child's erector set spread over the tanker's regular deck. Thus the dual-purpose tankers can supply the military with two of the fighting forces' most vital commodities—aircraft and oil.

KEEP BASKETBALL ALIVE. BACK THE WILDCAT FIVE

Win or lose! We're still behind you! A familiar cry from students, teachers, and civic leaders in Crowell when basketball season rolls around.

School spirit Civic support? Obviously, some have never heard of it—judging from the kind of support that was given the Wildcats when they met Newcastle on the Crowell court for district champs.

A winning team knows that it has the support of the students, teachers, and citizens of the town. A packed gymnasium and a lot of cheering voices make the team feel that they must win. They know that someone is rooting for them—win or lose!

School spirit... what does it mean? The majority of the students reply "School spirit means going to all the games and yelling like mad." Webster defines school spirit as "enthusiastic loyalty," which students usually accept until it reaches a certain point. School Spirit, in its true meaning, is a united effort of all the students to make for a friendlier atmosphere, for a closer understanding between the student and teacher, and the teacher and the teacher.

Good sportsmanship is school spirit. Win or lose, it takes clean sportsmanship to bring about the proper spirit. What is the proper spirit? The proper spirit is to eliminate any "booming" or improper words at the ball games. The conduct of the patrons of a game is a reflection on the players and coach. "Booming" never raises anybody's spirit, and is a let-down to your team.

ANNUAL STAFF MEETS DEADLINE

The annual staff met its third deadline last week, Feb. 15. The hard working staff with Mrs. Earl Manard as sponsor has adopted, "Work, work and work and more work" as its motto, for only by steady, faithful work has it met its deadlines so successfully.

Work on the annual has been blocked into four sections and at certain definite dates a fourth of the book must be mailed to the printing company.

Deadlines have been Dec. 1, Jan. 10, and Feb. 15. The company guarantees that the finished annuals will be returned within sixty days after the last section has been sent. The staff has set March 1 as its fourth and final deadline, thus making it possible for the students to receive their annuals around May 1.

TENNIS TALK

Or as Barbara Thaxton would say, "Tenn-oush."

But getting back to business, what happened to the new tennis courts? It looks as if the juniors and seniors will be so old before they get here, they will be too feeble to play. The idea last year to have tennis games and a bean lunch to pay for the courts was fine, and everyone helped.

Now that the money is here, it looks as if the idea has been forgotten. What about it?

Dear Editor, Has anyone besides me noticed all the trash in the shrubbery around the school?

It is very distinguishing to look at all of the paper and trash that unthoughtful people have thrown down. It not only looks unkempt, but gives our school an undesirable impression of the people driving by.

Don't you think a committee should be appointed to see that our school yard is kept clean?

Forelornly,
A Freshman.

CHSITES HELP WITH LIBRARY WORK

Three loyal students help in the library at Crowell High School every day.

Students working in the library work at the checking out desk, check books, write overdue notices, help catalog and accession new books, and spend much time repairing the old ones. This is not all, for they also lend Mrs. Hulse a hand in decorating the study hall bulletin board. Their efforts as decorators turn out very well for the other students always find the bulletin board attractive and a big help in choosing the best books to read. Each month the bulletin board, carrying out a certain theme such as holidays or occupations, advertises new books which seem to be making their way into the school library with regularity these days.

At 7th period, Mary Lou Woods; 8th period, Rebecca Calvin; and 2nd, 4th and 6th periods, David Jackson. Faye Black deserves mention here also. Faye was a regular assistant librarian until recently.

Mrs. Hulse and the entire student body wishes to thank these students for their faithful help in the library.

SPRING IN WINTER HALTED

Last week it seemed that whether we wanted it or not, spring was around the corner.

The japonicas golden bell and some fruit trees were in full bloom in yards all over the town. Japonicas were never more beautiful.

Perhaps it would be a good idea to plant japonica bushes as well as red bud trees.

Monday the beautiful spring weather was rudely halted by swirling snow flakes.

EX-STUDENT WALDEN WINS SCHOLARSHIP TO WTSC

Joe Vern Walden, a senior in Littlefield High School, has been offered an athletic scholarship to West Texas State College, according to news received here this week. Joe was an outstanding football star at Littlefield for three years, gaining all-district honors for two years and being placed on the all-regional team and receiving honorable mention all-state this year.

Walden, as many of you know, was an outstanding prospect at Crowell in the 7th grade before moving to Chillicothe for two years prior to locating at Littlefield to enroll as a freshman. He immediately merited recognition as a triple-threat halfback while lettering on the varsity his sophomore year.

This year he led his team to a co-championship only to be defeated in bi-district play-offs.

Joe has also received "feelin'" from several schools in this portion of the state including an invitation to try out with the Texas Tech Red Raiders. The best of luck to an ex-Crowell-ite in your college career.

STATE-TOURING EXHIBIT AT HOMEMAKING DEPARTMENT LAST WEEK

Closet accessories, helpful, attractive and interesting, from Sears Roebuck & Co., were on display in the home-making classes recently.

Composed of suggestions for space division, shoe and hat racks, garment bags, shelves, closets that must be shared, the display which was sent upon request by the courtesy of Sears Roebuck was helpful and instructive.

SENIORS' OCCUPATIONS by Elwin Setliff

The seniors of Crowell High School worked in many different occupations. The money from these jobs will be applied to the senior trip to Galveston in May.

Starting out, we had two grocery clerks, Margaret Caram and Gene Pogue. They worked at Pete Quintana's Grocery and Bate's Grocery, both of Truscott. Leonard Myers relieved gas caps at Bryant Service Station, that is he forgot to replace them on the cars. If you have a missing gas cap, contact Leonard Myers. It surely was a good thing it was warm Saturday. Mary Berg worked at the Texas National Gas Co. and forgot to turn on the steam. Lana Short sold your shoe size. Edwards Dry Goods and didn't learn how to measure shoes as yet. Coy Payne slaved at Crowell's Saturday and learned how to put gas in cars. Thurston Edgin has finally changed from model A's to Oldsmobiles. I think working at Turner Implement changed his mind. We have two waitresses in Crowell High School. Elba Caddell and Camille Todd worked at the Liberty and DeLuxe Cafes. Robert Brock peddled prunes at Stovall's Grocery. Norma Mathews was well satisfied with her job. She got close to the marriage license department, working at the County Clerk's office. Good thing Jane Bruce worked at the sheriff's office because her driver's license was expired. Incidentally, that is the only way she could get it renewed. Jamie Caram was the soda skeet of the week at Haney Drug in Truscott.

Again we say "Thanks to the merchants of Crowell, Thalia and Truscott."

TODD HOSPITALIZED AS RESULT OF ACCIDENT

Speech students were left without a teacher last week when Mrs. Margaret Todd was hospitalized with a sprained back in the Quannah hospital. Although it was the Speech Department's good fortune to be able to get Mrs. Jimmie Bursey to substitute in Mrs. Todd's place, the students miss Mrs. Todd.

Here's wishing Mrs. Todd a speedy recovery, so that she will be able to return to CHS soon.

FRESHMAN CLASS PRESIDENT ENJOYS FOOTBALL AND MARY ALICE

"Jeeps! I don't have time to talk to you now. Can't you talk to me next week sometime?" That's the answer anyone is likely to get from Ronny Fox, president of the freshman class, during football season since he is one of the football managers for CHS.

Have you at any time envied the football managers, getting to make all the trips, sitting on the bench at games, and going to all the programs honoring the team? That's lots of fun, but there's a lot more than the managers do that isn't so easy. Ronny is practically the busiest person connected with the team. His many duties include keeping the equipment in good shape and ready for every trip, running errands of all sorts at all times for the coaches and the team, keeping the dressing room in order, and being water boy at every game.

Ronny, with his black hair and expressive dark eyes, was born Oct. 8, 1936, in Crowell where he has attended school from the first grade to the ninth, becomes better liked every year.

As far as his list of favorite foods is concerned, fried chicken is right on top. His favorite sport is football, and his pet peeve is girls smoking. His favorite actor is Audie Murphy, and Jane Russell rates tops as riding horses. His favorite pastime is riding horses.

His ambition is to run a grocery store in Chillicothe where his girl lives—Mary Alice Reynolds.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

AAAAAH! That's the staff's reaction to the inspiring basketball game played at Seymour gymnasium last Friday night. Those boys were tops!

What is your reaction to this game? Mary Ermine Cooper — It was the most exciting event of the year. I thought the referees were very fair.

L. C. Gordon — Crowell won; so I'm satisfied.

Marcia Kincaid — It was a thriller. I've never seen the fans so excited before.

Barbara Thaxton — A good game in every way. Good luck to the boys and may they play every game like the last one Friday night.

A. L. McGinnis — It was a wonderful game.

Paul Cooper — I thought it was a very good game. Jack Sellers — I thought a good game. Newcastle good team. P. S. Crowell —

Henry Teague — Newcastle a good team; we had a lot of fun.

Robert Graves — One of the best games I've ever seen.

Jimmy Everson — Very interesting—no finger nails left.

Carolyn Bell — It was a thriller! We've really got to get going.

George Ann Davis — Only one last five and one-half minutes were an hour long.

Mary Lou Woods — Games should be like this especially the score.

I thought it was a good game.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

The Adelpian Club met on Wednesday, Feb. 20, at the club house for regular study. Mrs. Dwight Campbell and Mrs. Fred Thompson served as hostesses.

Subject for study for the afternoon, "A Day with China" was under the leadership of Mrs. Doyle Kenner. She was most interesting in her remarks about China—past, present, and future.

Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick, speaking on the subject, "Chinese Caravan," brought many informative facts on Chinese culture and history, stressing the adage from the pen of the respected old Chinese philosopher, Confucius, "Study the past, if you would divine the future."

The program ended with a guided conversation "What About China Today?" This feature of the program brought out various bits of information relative to China and her peoples that different members had gleaned from their own personal reading on the subject.

The hostesses served a delicious salad plate to about twenty members and one guest.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

Mrs. Roy Fox and Mrs. Pearl Carter were hostesses to the Columbian Club on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Fox. In the absence of the president, Mrs. M. N. Kenner presided at the meeting.

The theme of the lesson for the afternoon was "Community Welfare," carrying out the series of community service programs. Sixteen members answered roll call with a panel discussion on Foard County needs.

Mrs. V. W. Browning talked on the subject, "Old Age Is Your

Mrs. Ray Brown, home demonstration agent, showed a very interesting slide on "Things you should look for in buying furniture." She stated that "you should look the article over good and read the tags before buying, also when buying chairs to be sure the chair fits the person that it is bought for."

B. & P. W. CLUB

Gay colonial costumes were donned by members of the Business and Professional Women's Club for a Martha Washington dinner in the home of Mrs. Inez Spencer last Thursday evening. Spirits were as gay as the costumes, so the evening was an enjoyable one.

Following a delicious dinner featuring Virginia baked ham, Mrs. Spencer showed colored slides taken on a recent trip to Washington, D. C., while Mrs. Dove Carlisle described the scenes and told of their historical significance. Of special interest was Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington. A guest, Mrs. Moody Bursey, presented two amusing readings about George Washington's "Buffday." The story of George and Martha was told in a musical contest.

Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Spencer for this lovely party were Mrs. Cressie Erwin and Mrs. Carlisle.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

The West Side Home Demonstration Club met Feb. 26 with Mrs. Henry Edgin as hostess.

Mrs. C. R. Bryson discussed the care of furniture and rugs. She suggested that soap jelly, whipped to dry suds, be used to clean soiled upholstery.

"Apply the dry suds to a small area at a time, remove the soiled suds, follow with a sponge wrung from clear water and wipe dry with a clean cloth," continued Mrs. Bryson.

The club voted to prepare a box for the Wichita Falls State Hospital. Everyone is to bring their contributions to the next meeting.

Mrs. Walter Thomson was welcomed back into the club.

The following were present: Mesdames C. R. Bryson, T. W. Cooper, J. L. Kincheleo, Oscar Gentry, S. H. Ross, J. T. King, L. Kamstra, Donald Norris, G. H. Kincheleo, R. J. Roberts, M. O'Connell, Virgil Lyons, Walter Thomson and the hostess, Mrs. Edgin.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. M. O'Connell's home on March 12.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Carolyn Marie Bell was entertained Sunday afternoon with a party in honor of her 8th birthday by her mother, Mrs. Raymond Bell.

Games of bingo, tea kettle and pinning the tail on the donkey were enjoyed and each one present was given a balloon after the games.

After "Happy Birthday" was sung, the pink birthday cake was cut and served with punch and candy to the following guests: Carol Marie Orr, Ronnie Bradford, Margaret Faske, Don Keith Ingle, Gayle Smith, Kathy and Delores Drabek, Betty Sue Orr, Bobby Bond, Lynette Bell, Donna Jean and Sharon Maroney of Vernon and Carolyn Bell, honoree.

The honor guest received many nice gifts.

Home Demonstration Notes

MARY DEEB BROWN

As you know I attended a yeast breads training school in Wichita Falls last Wednesday, held by Miss Louise Mason, Foods and Nutrition Specialist of the Extension Service. While there we made loaf bread, batter rolls, and sweet doughs. I feel that I have learned many things which will be of interest to you when we have these demonstrations in our clubs.

I wonder how many of you have used any dry milk. In these days of rising food prices, it is wise for all of us to save money wherever possible and by using dry milk you can save a considerable amount. Many of us feel that it is too much trouble to mix up, but did you know that for cakes, pies, breads, etc., you can use it dry. Simply mix the dry milk with flour and other dry ingredients and then use water when adding the liquid. Use 3 tablespoons dried milk and 1 cup of water for each cup of fluid milk called for in the recipe.

For uses in beverages, soups, sauces, custards, and such dishes as scrambled eggs and creamed vegetables, dry milk should be made into fluid milk by mixing it with water.

On Thursday, March 6, at 2:45 p. m., we will have a training meeting on yeast batter rolls in my office. I will send letters to all food leaders letting you know more about this meeting.

The closest presidential race ever run occurred in 1876 between Rutherford B. Hayes and Samuel Tilden.

It was by the Hay-Bunau-Varilla Treaty of November 18, 1903, that the United States gained the sovereignty of the canal strip at Panama.

Women College Grads Eligible for Army Commissions

Women college graduates, or those women who expect to obtain their AB degree in June 1952, are eligible to apply for commissions as second lieutenants in the United States Army.

Under this competitive program college graduates may receive direct commissions in the Reserve, attend a special WAC Company Officer course at Fort Lee, Va., and upon successful completion receive Regular Army commissions.

The deadline for receipt of applications has been extended from March 1, 1952, to May 1, 1952, according to Headquarters Fourth Army.

Crowell Garden Club Entertains Guests

The Crowell Garden Club was host to the Santa Rosa Horticultural Society February 20 at the Liberty Cafe in Crowell at a luncheon.

Seventy ladies from the surrounding area attended the luncheon. Members attended from Knox City, Goree, Munday, Seymour, Quanah, Vernon, Electra, Wichita Falls, Burkburnett, Thalia and Crowell.

The business session was presided over by Mrs. A. E. Aiken of Electra, president of the society.

The schedule for the Santa Rosa Flower Show, which will be held on May 2 and 3, was discussed and approved.

The program at the luncheon was a lecture by R. H. Smith Jr. of Wichita Falls on the topic "All about Roses."

The Santa Rosa Horticultural Society holds its next meeting on the third Wednesday of March in Burkburnett. The program will be a flower arrangement lecture and demonstration.

DRILLING SPEED RECORD BROKEN RECENTLY

A new world's record for fast oil-well drilling was set by a drill crew in South Louisiana recently, when 2,575 feet of hole were made in a regular eight-hour tour, or an average depth of 322 feet an hour. Oil industry research in drilling techniques is responsible for such reductions in drilling time. The results are savings in production costs, which are passed on to the consumer in the form or reasonable prices for oil products.
